Transfer of Records.

2346. SEC. 2. Whenever it shall become necessary, owing to any change in boundaries, contemplated in section one of this Act, to have any transfer of records from the records of the county so separating to those of the other, it shall be the duty of the County Recorder, in which such records have been kept, to make such transfer, for which service he shall be entitled to receive from the County Treasurer a sum of money not exceeding forty per cent of the fees as established by law at the time for making the original records; provided, that he shall receive no pay for transcribing any records which the County Commissioners shall decide unnecessary to be made.

An Act for the purchase and preservation of public newspapers printed and published in the several counties in this state.

Approved February 1, 1865, 127.

Recorder to Subscribe for Newspapers.

2347. SECTION 1. The Recorders of the several counties of this state are hereby authorized and required to subscribe for such newspapers, at least one and not more than three, printed and published in their respective counties, as the Board of Commissioners therein may select and determine.

Amended, Stats. 1895, 107; amending Act declared unconstitutional. Norcross v. Com. Washoe Co., 22 Nev. 399.

Copies to Be Preserved.

2348. SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of each County Recorder to receive and preserve every copy of the paper or papers so subscribed for, and from time to time to cause the same to be properly arranged and bound in volumes of convenient size in a substantial manner, and said volumes when bound shall be kept in his office for the use of the courts when needed, of strangers, and the inhabitants of the county, all of whom shall have access to the same at all times during office hours, free of charge. For his service in this behalf the Recorder shall receive the sum of ten dollars for each volume, and for neglect of the duties hereby imposed shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered, with costs, in a civil action before any court, one-half of which shall be paid into the county school fund, and the other half to the person who shall prosecute such action to successful termination.

Subscription, How Paid.

2349. SEC. 3. The subscription price of such paper or papers, the binding of the several volumes thereof, and the Recorder's compensation for the care and preservation of the same shall be paid out of the general fund of the county, in the same manner that other charges are audited and allowed from such fund by the respective Boards of County Commissioners; provided, that in any county in this state in which the County Recorder is compensated by a salary, said Recorder shall receive for such services no compensation additional to that of his salary, and the expense of procuring and filing such newspapers shall be paid as stationery and books for the office of said Recorder are now paid for.

Penalty for Abstracting or Destroying Papers.

2350. SEC. 4. Any person who shall willfully abstract, destroy, mutilate, or deface any number or volume of such newspaper purchased in pursuance of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; provided, that one-half such fine shall be paid into the school fund of the county wherein such offender may be convicted, and the other half to the person who shall make the complaint.

An Act to abolish the compensation of County Auditors for extending the taxes on the assessment roll.

Approved March 9, 1891, 30.

2351. SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the County Auditors of the several counties to extend the taxes on the assessment roll without any additional fees or compensation.

An Act relating to official bonds.

Approved March 19, 1891, 77.

Bond of County Clerk.

2352. SECTION 1. In all counties in this state wherein the County Clerk is ex officio County Recorder, the official bond of such officer shall be recorded in the manner and place now provided by law, and immediately thereafter shall be deposited for safe keeping in the office of the County Treasurer.

An Act to provide for obtaining correct statements of the financial condition of the several counties of this state, and other matters of statistical information.

Approved February 26, 1873, 97.

Auditor to Make Statement to Controller—What to Show.

2353. SECTION 1. It is hereby made the duty of the several County Auditors of this state, on the first day of December of each year, to prepare and forward to the Controller of State a statement showing: First—The indebtedness of such county, funded and floating, stating the amount of each class, and the rate of interest borne, by such indebtedness, or any part thereof, and the amount of cash in the county treasury, in its several funds. Second—A careful estimate of the value of all property owned by such county. Third—The aggregate value of the real estate and personal property in such county, as shown by the last assessment roll, stating each separately. Fourth—The rate of taxation in said year in such county, and the amount of poll taxes collected, and the number of registered voters. Fifth—The amount of taxes so assessed, stating the portion, if any, there was delinquent.

Circular of Surveyor-General.

2354. SEC. 2. On or before the first of March of each year the Surveyor-General shall furnish to the Auditor of each county a sufficient number of copies of the circular letter provided for by section sixth of "An Act concerning the office of Surveyor-General," approved March twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, for the use of the County Assessor of the county, and said Auditor shall deliver the same to the Assessor on or before the second Monday of March of each year.

County Assessors to Report to Auditor—What to State.

2355. SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of each County Assessor, at the time he delivers to the Clerk of the Board of Equalization his assessment roll for the year in which general elections are held, to deliver also a written report, embracing said year and the preceding year, to the County Auditor, of the following matters within his county: First—The number of acres in agriculture, and the approximate amount of agricultural, grazing and timber lands. Second—The number of horses, mules, jacks, jennies, cattle, sheep, goats, and swine. Third—The aggregate quantity of wheat, rye, maize, potatoes, grapes, and other agricultural products. Fourth—A statement of the approximate quantity of mineral lands in such county, and the approximate quality and value of such. Fifth—The number of mills, manufactories, distilleries, and breweries, classifying each, and the number and length of all flumes and water ditches used to convey water for mining, manufacturing, or agricultural purposes. Sixth—The number of transplanted fish, their variety, by whom transplanted, and into what stream or lake. Seventh—The number and kind of forest, fruit, or nut trees transplanted, and under successful cultivation. Eighth—He shall also report such other matters as may be required by the annual circular of the Surveyor-General, and for such report he shall be allowed such a sum as may be fixed by the Board of County Commissioners, not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars, and until the delivery of such report, the last month's salary or wages of said Assessor, be retained. As amended, Stats. 1879, 37.

Auditor to Forward Report to Surveyor-General.

2356. SEC. 4. Each of such County Auditors shall, immediately upon receiving the report of the County Assessor, provided for in this Act, forward the same, by mail or express, to the Surveyor-General of the state.

Surveyor-General and Controller to Report to Legislature.

2357. SEC. 5. The Controller of the state and the Surveyor-General shall include in their annual reports to the Governor, a digest and synopsis, in tabular form, of all reports received by them under the provisions of this Act, and shall name therein the counties, if any, which have failed to make the report herein provided; and the Governor shall transmit said reports of the Controller and Surveyor-General of the state to the legislature.

Circular, What to Contain.

2358. SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Surveyor-General to cause to be inserted in his annual circular letter, provided for in section six of "An Act concerning the office of the Surveyor-General," approved March twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, so much of this Act as shall give the County Assessors knowledge of the duties required of them by this Act, and he shall cause to be printed an appropriate set of blanks for the use of such Assessors in reporting uniformly the matters required of them by this Act, and shall forward a sufficient number of such blanks to the County Auditor at the time of sending his circular letter, as in this Act provided. And the said Auditors, at the time of delivering said circulars, shall deliver to said Assessors the necessary blanks, as provided for in this Act.

Printing.

2359. SEC. 7. The costs of printing by this Act required shall be audited by the Controller of State, and allowed and paid in the same manner as provided by law for other printing.

Assessor to Gather Information for Reports.

2360. SEC. 8. It is hereby required of the County Assessors, and all Deputy County Assessors, that the information required of them by this Act shall be gathered and collected at the time they make their annual assessment for taxation, as required by law, and shall be gathered by diligent and personal inquiry; and each of them shall certify to said reports of statistical information, that the same has been so gathered, and is as full and complete as can reasonably be made.

An Act to regulate surveyors and surveying.

Approved November 29, 1861, 267.

Office of County Surveyor.

2361. SECTION 1. That the office of County Surveyor be and is hereby created; and that there shall be a County Surveyor, to be elected in each county by the qualified electors thereof at the general election, whose term of office shall be two years, and until his successor in office shall be qualified; provided, that the County Surveyors elected in the year A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-two shall hold their offices for two years thereafter, and until their successors shall qualify; and said Surveyors shall keep their offices at the county seats of their respective counties, and shall qualify on or before the first Monday in October following their election. As amended, Stats. 1862, 32.

Oath and Bond Required.

2362. SEC. 2. Each County Surveyor, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe to the oath of office, and execute to the State of Nevada a bond in the penal sum of not less than five hundred ($500) nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars (the amount thereof to be determined by the Board of County Commissioners), with two or more sureties, residing in the county, to be approved by the Board of County Commissioners, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be filed with the County Clerk. As amended, Stats. 1883, 45.

May Appoint Deputies.

2363. SEC. 3. The County Surveyor may appoint Deputy Surveyors, who shall severally take and subscribe to the oath of office, and for the faithful performance of whose duties he shall be responsible.

Certificate to Be Evidence.

2364. SEC. 4. The certificate of the County Surveyor, or any of his deputies, shall be submitted as legal evidence in any court of this state; but the same may be subject to be rebutted by other evidence. Surveys made by the mutual consent of parties may also be admitted as legal evidence in any court of this state; provided, this section shall not be so construed to exclude the testimony of other surveyors or engineers.

Surveys, When by Other Persons.

2365. SEC. 5. When it shall appear that the County Surveyor is interested in any tract of land, the title of which is in dispute before any court, and a survey of which is necessary, the court shall direct the survey to be made by some capable and disinterested person, who shall return such survey on oath or affirmation, and shall receive for his services the same fees as the County Surveyor would be entitled to for similar services.

Vacancy in Office.

2366. SEC. 6. During a vacancy in the office of County Surveyor of any county, the Probate Judge of such county may appoint some competent person to perform the duties of Surveyor until such vacancy shall be filled in the manner prescribed by law.

Duties of Surveyor.

2367. SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of said County Surveyor, either by himself or one of his deputies, to execute any survey that may be required by order of any court, or upon the application of any individual or corporation.

Record of Surveys.

2368. SEC. 8. He shall keep a correct and fair record of all surveys made by him or his deputies, in a book to be provided by the county for that purpose, which shall be transmitted to his successors in office; he shall also number such surveys progressively, and shall preserve a copy of the field notes and calculations of each survey, indorsing thereon its proper number, a copy of which, and also a fair and accurate plat, together with the certificate of survey, shall be furnished by him to any person requiring the same, upon payment of the fees allowed by law.

Surveys, How Expressed.

2369. SEC. 9. In all surveys the courses shall be expressed according to the true meridian; and the variation of the magnetic meridian from the true meridian shall be expressed on the plat with the year, month, and day of the survey.

SEC. 10 repealed, Stats 1865, 344.

Neglect of Duties.

2370. SEC. 11. Any County Surveyor who shall fail or refuse to perform any of the duties required of him by this Act, shall be fined by any court of competent jurisdiction, in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Fees.

2371. SEC. 12. Each County Surveyor shall be allowed such fees as are provided by law.

SEC. 13 repealed, Stats. 1865, 344.

Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.

An Act relating to the office of Public Administrators, and prescribing their duties.

Approved March 7, 1883, 115.

Election of Administrator.

2372. SECTION 1. There shall be elected in each organized county in this state, at the general election A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-four, and at the general election every two years thereafter, a Public Administrator, who shall be ex officio Coroner in and for his county.

See Sec. 2424.

Oath and Bond—When to Qualify.

2373. SEC. 2. Every Public Administrator, elected at the last general election, and who shall hereafter be elected, shall take the constitutional official oath, and give such official bond as shall be in amount required and fixed by the Board of County Commissioners of his county, by an order duly entered in the minutes of such board, to be conditioned, secured, approved, filed, and recorded as the bonds of other county officers are, or may be required by law to be, and shall be so conditioned as to hold the principal and sureties liable for any breach thereof made, while acting, or illegally refusing to act, in either official capacity. The official oath shall be for the faithful performance of the duties of both offices, and shall be taken and subscribed upon both the certificate of election (or appointment, if appointed to fill a vacancy, as hereinafter provided) and the official bond; and that upon the bond shall be recorded with it; provided, the official bond of no Public Administrator shall be less than two thousand dollars; and, provided further, that the County Commissioners may, upon reasonable cause therefor shown, require at any time a new bond, or an additional bond, to be given upon ten days' notice in writing; and if not so given, shall thereupon declare the office vacant, and fill the vacancy by appointment for the remainder of the term; and shall, in like manner, fill a vacancy in said office arising from any other cause. Any person appointed to the office of Public Administrator, shall within ten days thereafter, qualify in the same manner as if elected thereto. Every person elected to fill said office shall qualify as in this section required, on or before the first Monday of January next after his election, and shall on that day enter upon the discharge of his official duties.

OFFICIAL BOND—PLEADING. Jeffree v. Walsh, 14 Nev. 143.

Duties and Compensation.

To Report to District Judge.

2375. SEC. 4. Each Public Administrator shall on the first Monday in January and July, in each year, and at the termination of his official duties, make a verified written report to the District Judge having jurisdiction in the premises, of all estates of deceased persons which have officially passed into his hands, the value of the same, the expenses, if any, paid thereon, and the balance of property, effects, or money, if any, remaining in his hands, and the Judge to whom such report is made shall cause it to be made public, by publication or posting, as he may deem just and right.

Final Settlement—To Pay Over Funds.

2376. SEC. 5. Each executor, administrator and Public Administrator, on final settlement of an estate and proper order of the court having jurisdiction in the matter thereof, or before final settlement, upon the regular order of the court aforesaid, shall pay over all moneys of such estate to the lawful heirs or legatees, or devisees thereof, and if there be none of either, then to the County Treasurer, and the County Treasurer shall pay the same to the State Treasurer, and if the same escheat to the state, the State Treasurer shall place the same in the fund devoted and pledged to educational purposes.

Not to Be Interested in Expenditures.

2377. SEC. 6. No Public Administrator shall be interested in anywise in any expenditures of any kind, made on account of any estate of a deceased person upon which he is administering, save as necessarily made in the due course of such administration, nor shall he be associated in business with any one so interested, and he shall state in his semi-annual reports that he has not been so interested or associated.

Willful Misdemeanor.

2378. SEC. 7. For any willful misdemeanor in office any Public Administrator may be indicted, tried, and if found guilty, fined in any sum not exceeding two thousand dollars and removed from office; but such fine and removal shall not bar any existing right of civil action upon his official bond.

Information to Administrators—May Institute Suits.

2379. SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of all persons, especially of all civil officers, to give all information in their possession to Public Administrators respecting estates and the property and condition thereof, upon which no other person has then administered. Public Administrators may, and it is hereby made their official duty to, institute, maintain and prosecute all necessary actions at law and in equity, for the recovery and for the protection of the property, debts, papers, or other estate of any deceased person upon whose estate they may be administering.

How Governed.

2380. SEC. 9. Except as in this Act otherwise provided, Public Administrators, in administering upon estates, shall be governed by the same rules and laws by which other administrators or executors are.

SEC. 10 superseded, Sec. 2424.

To Qualify, etc.

2381. SEC. 11. Each and every Public Administrator in this state who was elected at the last general election, who has not already qualified, shall qualify as provided in this Act within thirty days after its approval, and shall be governed and controlled in his office by the provisions of this Act, and shall be ex officio Coroner in and for his county. They shall immediately, after so qualifying, enter upon the discharge of their official duties, and shall continue in office until the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and eighty-five (A. D. 1885), and thereafter until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified.

Money Paid to State, How Recovered.

2382. SEC. 12. Any money paid into the state treasury under the provisions of this Act, excepting from an escheated estate, may be recovered by the rightful heirs or legatees thereof in the following manner, viz: Such heir or heirs, legatee or legatees, may present their claim therefor to the district court which had jurisdiction of the final settlement of the estates to which such money belonged, and make proof of the validity of such claim, after notice given to the Attorney-General of the state, to the satisfaction of such court, under such rules as it may prescribe. If satisfied on the hearing that such claimant or claimants are rightfully entitled to the same, the court shall enter a decree that such money be paid to him or them. Such decree shall then be certified to the State Board of Examiners, stating the amount thereby found to be due, and the said board shall allow the same, certify it to the Controller, who shall draw his warrant therefor on the Treasurer, and who shall pay the same; provided, no proceedings shall be maintained under the provisions of this section of this Act unless commenced within six years next after the final settlement of the estate to which they relate; and, provided further, that all costs of such proceeding shall be paid by the applicant or applicants. If not applied for within six years, as above provided, or if applied for and not obtained, such moneys shall then be placed in the irreducible school fund of this state.

When to Make Application for Letters.

2383. SEC. 13. Public Administrators are authorized to administer on the estate of any deceased person in any case where by law he is entitled to administer by virtue of his office and shall be required to make formal application for letters of administration, as in the case of administrators, but he shall not be required to file or have approved any bond, except as such Public Administrator. in any case; provided, that the bond of any Public Administrator may be increased as provided in this or other Acts.

Books, etc., to Be Turned Over.

2384. SEC. 14. Public Administrators shall, at the expiration of their terms of office, surrender up to their successors in office all the books or papers belonging or appertaining to said office, including all exhibits, estates, money and property in their possession.

Certified Copy of Record.

2412. SEC. 11. Each Notary Public, when required, shall give a certified copy of any record in his office to any person upon payment of the legal fees therefor; and any certificate or instrument, either printed or written, purporting to be the official act of a Notary Public under his seal and signature, shall be received in any county in this territory as prima facie evidence of the official character of such instrument, and of the truth of the facts therein set forth.

Protests of Bills of Exchange, etc.

2413. SEC. 12. The original protest of a Notary Public, under his hand and official seal, of any bill of exchange or promissory note, for non-acceptance or non-payment, stating the presentment by him of such bill of exchange or note for acceptance or payment, and the non-acceptance or non-payment thereof, and the service of notice on any or all of the parties to such bill of exchange or prom-issory note, and specifying the mode of giving such notice, and the reputed place of residence of the party to such bill of exchange or promissory note to whom the same was given, and the postoffice nearest thereto, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein. The certificate of a Notary Public, drawn from his record, stating the protest and the facts therein contained, shall be evidence of the facts in like manner as the original protest.

Penalty for Neglect of Duty.

2414. SEC. 13. For any misconduct or neglect in any of the cases in which any Notary Public appointed under the authority of this territory, is authorized to act, either by the law of this territory, or of any state, territory, or country, or by the law of nations, or by commercial usage, he shall be liable on his official bond to the parties injured thereby, for all the damages sustained; and for any willful violation or neglect of duty, any Notary Public shall be subject to criminal prosecution, and may be punished by fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and removal from office.

Removal, etc.

2415. SEC. 14. If any Notary Public die, resign, be disqualified, or removed from office, or remove from the county for which he is appointed, his records and all his public papers shall, within sixty days, be delivered on demand to the Recorder of the county, whose duty it shall be to demand the same within that time, who shall deliver them to the successor of the said Notary when qualified.

To Deliver Records, etc., to Successor.

2416. SEC. 15. When the term of office of any Notary Public expires, and his successor is appointed and qualified, he shall deliver his records and public papers to such successor on demand.

Certified Copies.

2417. SEC. 16. Any Notary Public having in his possession the records and papers of his predecessor in office, may grant certificates or give certified copies of such records and papers, in like manner and with the same effect as such predecessor or predecessors could have done.

Fees.

2418. SEC. 17. Each Notary Public shall receive such fees for his services as may be allowed by law.

Act Repealed.

2419. SEC. 18. An Act concerning Notaries Public, approved November twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, is hereby repealed, such repeal to take effect on the first day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, on which day the commissions of the officers appointed under said law shall be revoked, and they shall deliver their records and all their public papers to the Recorder of the county for which they may have been appointed.

Act Legalized, etc.

2420. (SEC. 3.) All acts regularly done of Notaries Public appointed under the Territory of Nevada, and continued in office after the admission of Nevada as a state, are hereby legalized, so far as the same can be done without interfering with vested rights; and such Notaries are hereby continued in office, with like powers as heretofore had, until this Act goes into effect, at which time their terms of office shall be at an end, and such offices shall be deemed vacant. Supplemental section, Stats. 1865, 408.

An Act to create Coroner's townships, making Justices of the Peace ex officio Coroners therein, fixing their townships, prescribing their duties and compensation, providing when it shall take effect, and to repeal all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act.

Approved February 23, 1899, 25.

Coroner's Township.

2423. SECTION 1. Every Justice's township in this state is hereby made a Coroner's township.

Justice of the Peace Ex Officio Coroner.

2424. SEC. 2. All Justices of the Peace in this state are hereby made ex officio Coroners.

Extent of Jurisdiction.

2425. SEC. 3. The Coroners created by section two of this Act shall have authority to perform all the duties of Coroners only within the township where they, as Justices of the Peace reside; provided, that in townships where there is no qualified Justice of the Peace, the Justice of the Peace residing nearest to the place where the services of a Coroner are required, within the same county, shall have the same authority in the township where there is no qualified Justice of the Peace, as in the township where he resides.

Duties.

2426. SEC. 4. The duties of Coroners in this Act provided for shall be the same as are now provided by law.

Fees and Compensations.

2427. SEC. 5. The fees and compensations of Coroners as in this Act provided, shall be as now prescribed by law.

An Act concerning Coroners.

Approved November 28, 1861, 129.

SECTION 1 superseded by above Act.

Jury, Inquest, etc.

2428. SEC. 2. When a Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, has been informed that a person has been killed, or committed suicide, or has suddenly died under such circumstances as to afford reasonable ground to suspect that the death has been occasioned by unnatural means, he shall go to the place where the body is, and summon no less than six nor more than twelve persons qualified by law to serve as jurors, to appear before him forthwith, at the place where the body is, to inquire into the cause of the death.

Person Neglecting to Appear When Summoned as Juror.

2429. SEC. 3. Every person summoned as a juror who shall fail to appear without having a reasonable excuse, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be recovered by the Justice of the Peace acting as Coroner, in his official capacity, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and paid by him into the county treasury.

Juror's Oath.

2430. SEC. 4. When six or more of the jurors attend, they shall be sworn by the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, to inquire who the person was, and when, where, and by what means he came to his death, and into the circumstances attending his death, and to render a true verdict thereon, according to the evidence.

Witnesses.

2431. SEC. 5. The Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, may issue subpoenas for witnesses, returnable as he may direct, and served by himself, or such person as he may direct. He must summon and examine as witnesses every person who, in his opinion, or that of any of the jurors, has any knowledge of the facts, and he may summon a surgeon or physician to inspect the body.

Witness May Be Attached.

2432. SEC. 6. Any witness failing to obey the subpoena of the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, may be attached and fined for contempt of such jury, in like manner as in a justice's court.

Verdict, What to State.

2433. SEC. 7. After inspecting the body and hearing the testimony the jury shall render their verdict, and certify the same by an inquisition in writing, signed by them, and setting forth the name of the deceased, when, where, and by what means he came to his death; if by criminal means, the name of the person causing the death.

Testimony to Be in Writing.

2434. SEC. 8. The testimony at such inquest shall be reduced to writing by the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, or as he may direct, and by him, without delay, filed in the office of the district court of the county.

To Secure Arrest, When.

2435. SEC. 9. If the jury find that the person was killed by another, under circumstances not excusable or justifiable in law, and the party committing the act be not in custody, the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, shall issue a warrant, signed by him with his name of office, for the arrest of the accused.

Warrant May Be Served in Any County.

2436. SEC. 10. The warrant of the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, may be served in any county of the state, and returned by the officer serving before a magistrate of the county in which it is issued; the officer receiving such warrant shall have the same power under the warrant as by virtue of a warrant from any court or magistrate of the state.

Property of Deceased.

2437. SEC. 11. It is hereby made the duty of the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, to deliver without delay to the Treasurer of the county any money or property which may have been found with the deceased, unless taken from his possession by legal authority; and if the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, this state shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the oath prescribed by law, and execute a bond to the State of Nevada, to be approved by the Board of County Commissioners, in the penal sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, as may be designated by such Board of County Commissioners; which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and shall be filed in the County Clerk's office.

To Secure Arrest, When.

2435. SEC. 9. If the jury find that the person was killed by another, under circumstances not excusable or justifiable in law, and the party committing the act be not in custody, the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, shall issue a warrant, signed by him with his name of office, for the arrest of the accused.

Warrant May Be Served in Any County.

2436. SEC. 10. The warrant of the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, may be served in any county of the state, and returned by the officer serving before a magistrate of the county in which it is issued; the officer receiving such warrant shall have the same power under the warrant as by virtue of a warrant from any court or magistrate of the state.

Property of Deceased.

2437. SEC. 11. It is hereby made the duty of the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, to deliver without delay to the Treasurer of the county any money or property which may have been found with the deceased, unless taken from his possession by legal authority; and if the Justice of the Peace, acting as Coroner, fail to pay or deliver such money or property to the Treasurer, the Treasurer may recover the same by action at law.

Disposition of Moneys.

2438. SEC. 12. Upon payment of money into the Treasurer's office, in such case he shall place it to the credit of the county. If it be property, he shall proceed, upon reasonable notice, to sell the same at public sale, and place the proceeds to the credit of the county.

Time in Which Money May Be Demanded.

2439. SEC. 13. If the money be demanded within six years, the Treasurer shall pay the same to the person legally authorized to receive it, after deducting the expenses of the inquest, and of the county in the matter, but the same may be paid at any subsequent time to the representatives of the deceased, upon an order from the tribunal invested with the power to allow claims against the county.

Coroner to Account for Money.

2440. SEC. 14. The Justice of the Peace acting as Coroner shall, before his claim is allowed for such inquest, file with such claim an affidavit, setting out the amount of money or property found with the deceased, and the disposition of the same by him.

Burials, Expenses Of.

2441. SEC. 15. After the inquest, if no one take charge of the body, it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace acting as Coroner to cause the same to be decently buried, and pay the expense thereof from any money found with the deceased; if no such money is found, then the same shall be charged against the county. The Justice of the Peace acting as Coroner shall receive the sum of five dollars out of the county treasury for attending the burial of such body.

An Act concerning Justices of the Peace.

Approved March 4, 1881, 141.

One Justice May Act for Another.

2442. SECTION 1. Whenever any Justice of the Peace, in consequence of ill health, absence from his township, or other cause, shall be prevented from attending to his official duties, it shall be lawful for him to invite any other duly qualified Justice of the Peace of the same county to attend to his official duties, including that of Registry Agent, instead of such absent or disqualified Justice of the Peace; provided, such temporary vacancy, resulting from absence or disqualification, shall not be so filled for more than thirty days at any one time. As amended, Stats. 1885, 20.

An Act to detect and punish incendiarism.

Approved March 3, 1879, 58.

Citizens to Ascertain Causes of Fires.

2443. SECTION 1. Whenever it is made to appear by the complaint of any citizen that any building or other property has been set on fire, or attempted to be, or burned from an unknown cause, or any cause not clearly accidental, it shall be duty of any Justice of the Peace of the county where such fire occurred, or was attempted, and to whom such complaint shall be made, to immediately summon three good and lawful citizens, who shall be householders in the county, to appear at the place of the fire at a time fixed as soon as possible, to inquire when, how, and by what means the fire originated. If any person so summoned does not appear, the Justice shall complete the panel by appointment from the bystanders, or from citizens residing in the vicinity of said fire.

Oath.

2444. SEC. 2. When the panel is complete, the Justice shall administer the following oath: "You, and each of you, solemnly swear that you will diligently examine and inquire when, how, and by what means the fire which has here occurred was caused, and that you will return a true verdict, according to your knowledge and such evidence as shall be laid before you. So help you God."

Subpenas to Issue.

2445. SEC. 3. The Justice of the Peace shall issue subpenas for witnesses, returnable at such time and place as he therein directs. The witnesses shall be sworn, their testimony reduced to writing, and subscribed to by them.

Verdict of Jury.

2446. SEC. 4. The jury, after hearing the testimony, and making all needful examinations and inquiries, shall draw up and deliver to the Justice holding such inquest their verdict, signed by them, or in case of disagreement, by two of them, in which they shall find and certify when, how, and by what means such fire was caused. Said finding, together with the testimony of the witnesses, shall be certified by the Justice and filed with the Clerk of the district court of the county in which such fire originated within one week thereafter.

Free Access to Building.

2447. SEC. 5. For the purpose of investigation, the Justice and jury shall have free access to any building or property whatsoever.

Warrants to Be Issued for Arrest, etc.

Compulsory Attendance.

2449. SEC. 7. For the purposes of this Act, the Justice of the Peace shall have the same power to enforce the attendance of jurors and witnesses as when sitting as a committing magistrate.

Fees, How Paid.

2450. SEC. 8. The compensation for holding such inquest shall be the same as now provided by law for Coroner's inquests, and shall be audited and paid in like manner.

An Act authorizing ministerial officers to appoint deputies.

Approved February 19, 1864, 143.

Who May Appoint Deputies.

2451. SECTION 1. All Prosecuting Attorneys, County Recorders, Clerks of the several district courts, County Clerks, Sheriffs, Assessors, Collectors of Taxes, and Constables, are hereby authorized to appoint deputies, who shall have power to transact all official business appertaining to said officers, to the same extent as their principals.

Responsible for Compensation.

2452. SEC. 2. Said officers shall be responsible for the compensation of said deputies, and shall be responsible on their official bonds for all official malfeasance or nonfeasance of the same. Bonds for the faithful performance of their official duties may be required of said deputies by said principals.

Appointments, How Made.

2453. SEC. 3. All appointments of deputies under the provisions of this Act shall be in writing, and shall, together with the oath of office of said deputies, be filed and recorded in a book provided for that purpose in the office of the Recorder of the county within which the principal legally holds and exercises his office. Revocations of such appointments shall also be filed and recorded as herein provided. From the time of the filing of said appointments or revocations therein, persons shall be deemed to have notice of the same.

SHERIFFS.

2460. SEC. 5. The fees allowed to Sheriffs in the counties of this state [polling 800 votes or less] shall be as follows: For serving a summons or complaint, or any other process by which an action or proceeding is commenced, on every defendant, two dollars; for traveling in making such service, per mile, in going only, to be computed in all cases from the court house of the county, fifty cents for the first ten miles, and for each and every additional mile, forty cents; provided, that if any two or more papers are required to be served in the same suit, at the same time, where parties live in the same direction, one mileage only shall be charged; for taking bond, or undertaking in any case in which he is authorized to take the same, one dollar and fifty cents; for copy of any writ, process, or other paper, when demanded or required by law, for each folio, thirty cents; for serving every notice, rule, or order, one dollar; for serving a subpoena, for each witness summoned, fifty cents; for traveling, per mile, in serving such subpoena or venire, in going only, fifty cents for the first ten miles, and for each and every additional mile, forty cents; but when two or more witnesses or jurors live in the same direction, traveling fees shall be charged only for the most distant; for serving an attachment on property, or levying an execution, or executing an order of arrest, or order for delivery of personal property, three dollars, together with traveling fees, as in cases of summons; for serving an attachment on any ship, boat, or vessel, in proceedings to enforce any lien thereof created by law, five dollars; for making and posting notices and advertising for sale on execution or under any judgment or order of sale, not to include the cost of publication in a newspaper, two dollars; for commissions for receiving and paying over money on execution or process, where lands or personal property has been levied on, advertised, and sold, on the first five hundred dollars, four per cent; not exceeding one thousand dollars, but over five hundred dollars, two per cent; on all over one thousand dollars and not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, and on all sums above that amount, one per cent; for commissions for receiving and paying over money on execution without levy, or when the lands or goods levied on shall not be sold, on the first thousand dollars, one per cent; on all over that sum, one-half per cent; the fees herein allowed for the levy of an execution, for advertising, and for making and collecting money on an execution, shall be collected from the defendants by virtue of such execution, in the same manner as the same may be therein directed to be made; for drawing and executing every Sheriff's deed, to be paid by the grantee, who shall, in addition, pay for the acknowledgment thereof, five dollars; for serving a writ of possession, or restitution, putting any person into possession entitled thereto, five dollars; for traveling in the service of any process not hereinbefore mentioned, for each mile necessarily traveled, for going only, fifty cents for the first ten miles, and for each and every additional mile, forty cents; for attending, when required, on any court, in person or by deputy, for each day, to be paid out of the county treasury, five dollars; for bringing up a prisoner on habeas corpus to testify or answer to any court, or for examination as to the cause of his arrest and detention, or to give bail, two dollars; he shall also be allowed such further compensation for his trouble and expense in taking possession of property under attachment or execution or other process, and of preserving the same, as the court from which the writ or order may issue shall certify to be just and reasonable; for holding each inquest or trial of right of property, when required, to include all services in the matter except mileage, ten dollars; for attending on the supreme court, either in person or [by] deputy, to be paid out of the state treasury as other claims, for each day, eight dollars; for every arrest in a criminal proceeding, three dollars; for serving each subpoena in criminal cases, fifty cents; for executing every sentence of death, fifty dollars; for summoning a grand jury of twenty-four persons, fifteen dollars; for summoning each trial jury of twelve persons, six dollars; for each additional juror, fifty cents; for service of any process in [a] criminal case, the same mileage as in civil cases; in serving subpoenas or venire in criminal cases, he shall receive mileage for the most distant only, where witnesses and jurors live in the same direction; for all services in justices' courts, the same fees as are allowed to Constables. As amended, Stats. 1875, 147.

1. ALLOWANCE OF FEES FOR SUMMONING JURY—WHEN PROPER. The county from which a criminal case is transferred is liable for the fees of the Sheriff in summoning a jury upon a special venire for that particular case. Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.

SHERIFF'S FEES—SUMMONING A JURY—MILEAGE. When a venire is issued to a Sheriff for thirty jurors, and he finds only twenty-four: Held, that he was entitled to his fees "for miles actually traveled in attempting to find and serve jurors whose names appeared upon the venire, but who could not be found and served." Id.

TAKING PRISONERS BEFORE COURT. The Sheriff is not entitled to any compensation for bringing the defendant into court during the trial. Id.

ATTENDANCE ON COURT. The Sheriff is entitled to five dollars for each day's attendance. He cannot charge extra for a night session. Id.

SERVICE OF SUBPENA IN ANOTHER COUNTY. The Sheriff is not authorized by the statute to serve a subpoena upon witnesses residing in any other county, except it is within the same judicial district. Id.

2. SHERIFFS' FEES—CONTRACT. If a Sheriff, for the sake of obtaining employment, agrees in advance to render official services for a party to a suit, and to receive nothing unless such party recovers in the action, he will be bound by his agreement and cannot recover his fees without showing that such party did recover in the suit. Baker v. McLeod, 14 Nev. 148.

3. Feusier v. Virginia City, 3 Nev. 58; Swift v. Doron, 6 Nev. 125.

CORONERS.

2461. SEC. 6. The fees of Coroners [in counties polling 800 votes or less] shall be as follows: For all services in summoning a jury of inquest, three dollars; for swearing a jury, fifty cents; for issuing warrant of arrest, seventy-five cents; for issuing subpoena to each witness, twenty cents; for each mile necessarily traveled in going to the presence of the dead body, twenty-five cents; for swearing each witness, twenty cents; for taking down testimony, per folio, twenty cents; for each day necessarily employed in holding an inquest, five dollars. All of said fees shall be paid out of the county treasury as other demands. For all services by him while acting as Sheriff, the same fees as are allowed to Sheriffs for similar services. As amended, Stats. 1893, 24.

CONSTABLES.

2462. SEC. 7. The above section does not apply to Ormsby, Humboldt, Elko nor Eureka counties. See Stats. 1885, 129; 1887, 76.

WITNESSES.

2463. SEC. 8. Witnesses required to attend in any of the courts of this state [in counties polling 450 votes or less] shall be entitled to the following fees: For attending in any civil suit or proceeding, before any court of record, referee, Commissioner, or Justice of the Peace, for each day, three dollars; for traveling to the place of trial, fifty cents per mile; provided, that no person shall be obliged to testify in a civil action unless his fees and mileage have been tendered him, or he shall not have demanded the same; and, provided further, that no person shall be obliged to testify in a civil action unless his fees have been tendered him, if he shall demand the same, for mileage and one day's attendance; for each subsequent day's attendance the witness is entitled to demand, in advance, his fees from the party in whose favor he has been subpoenaed, and in case of refusal, is exonerated from further attendance; witness fees, in civil cases, shall be taxed as disbursement costs against the defeated party, upon proof, by affidavit, that the disbursements have actually been made; costs shall not be allowed for more than two witnesses to the same fact or series of facts, nor shall a party plaintiff or defendant be allowed any fees for attendance as a witness in his own behalf. This provision shall be held to apply to courts of Justices of the Peace, as well as to all other courts and judicial proceedings. For criminal cases, no witness fees shall be allowed.

Meagher v. Van Zandt, 18 Nev. 230.

JURORS.

2464. SEC. 9. Fees shall be allowed to jurors [in counties polling 450 votes or less] as follows: For each day, to be paid in civil cases by the party in whose favor the verdict is rendered, but to be recoverable as costs from the losing party.

three dollars; excepting in justice's courts, when the fee shall be two dollars. If, in any trial in a civil action, before any court, the jury be from any cause discharged without finding a verdict, the fees of such jury shall be paid by the plaintiff, but may be recovered back as costs if he afterward obtain judgment; until they are paid, no further proceedings shall be had in the action. No person shall receive any fees for serving as a juror on a Coroner's inquest. No fees shall be allowed to grand or trial jurors in criminal cases.

1. JURORS ENTITLED TO COMPENSATION. Jurors are entitled to compensation for the time they are in attendance on the court, whether impaneled for the trial of causes or not, except when they are impaneled in the trial of a criminal case, and they reside within five miles of the court house. Thornburg v. Hermann, 1 Nev. 473.
2. JUROR'S CLAIM FOR FEES MUST BE AUDITED. A juror's claim for fees on the certificate of the Clerk should be audited like any other demand against the county. Id.
3. JURORS' FEES—ATTENDANCE FIRST DAY. The county from which a criminal cause is transferred is properly chargeable for one day's attendance of each juror present on the first day of the trial of the case. Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.
4. Gillette v. Sharp, 7 Nev. 245.

COUNTY AUDITORS.

2465. SEC. 10. The fees of County Auditors [in counties polling 800 votes or less] shall be as follows: For filing Treasurer's receipts and issuing licenses, to be paid by the party, fifty cents; the County Auditor shall receive for all services rendered by him in the discharge of the duties imposed on him by law, other than those especially enumerated, for each folio, thirty cents; for filing and indorsing each paper, twenty-five cents, except the property schedule rendered him by the Assessor, for which he shall receive no fees.

SEC. 11 (Judges and Clerks of Election) superseded, Sec. 1620.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

2466. SEC. 12. Justices of the Peace [in counties polling 800 votes or less] shall be allowed the following fees for their services: For filing each paper, twenty-five cents; for issuing any writ or paper, by which suit is commenced, one dollar; for entering cause in docket, fifty cents; for subpoena to each witness, twenty-five cents; for administering oath or affirmation, twenty-five cents; certifying to the same, twenty-five cents; for issuing writ of attachment or arrest, or order for the delivery of property, two dollars; for entering any final judgment, per folio, for the first folio, one dollar; for each additional folio, fifty cents; for taking and approving any bond or undertaking required by law to be taken or approved by him, one dollar; for issuing a venire, one dollar; for taking deposition, per folio, twenty-five cents; for issuing commissions to take testimony, one dollar; for copy of any judgment, order, docket, proceeding or paper in his office, per folio, twenty-five cents; for entering satisfaction of judgment, fifty cents; for issuing execution, one dollar; for taking acknowledgments of deeds or other instruments, including certificates, for the first name, one dollar; for each subsequent name, twenty-five cents; for issuing supersedeas to an execution, one dollar; for making up and transmitting transcript and paper on appeal, two dollars; for issuing search warrant, one dollar; for celebrating marriage and returning certificate to the Recorder, five dollars; for issuing writ of restitution, one dollar; for all services and proceedings in a criminal action, the same fees as are allowed in civil cases, but in no case shall there be a charge against the county exceeding in any one case the sum of ten dollars; provided, that in preliminary examinations in criminal cases, the Justice of the Peace, sitting as a committing magistrate, shall be allowed, in addition to other fees allowed by law, fifty cents for the first folio, and twenty-five cents for each additional folio; for taking bail after commitment in criminal cases, to be collected from the defendant, one dollar; for entering any cause without process, one dollar; for entering judgment by confession, as in the district court, three dollars; for each motion, exception, rule, order, default, dismissal, discontinuance or nonsuit, and for filing each paper required to be filed, twenty-five cents. As superseded, Stats. 1867, 101; 1895, 20.

The Act of 1867, 101, is repealed by Sec. 42 of the following Act, but it is amended by Act of 1895, 20, which latter Act is given here.

Query: Does an amendment to a repealed Act stand?

The above section does not apply to Ormsby, Humboldt, Elko, nor Eureka counties, see Stats. 1885, 129; 1887, 76.

Secs. 13 and 14 identical with Secs. 14 and 15 of following Act.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

2467. SEC. 15. The fees of Notaries Public [in counties polling 800 votes or less] shall be as follows: For drawing and copying every protest for the non-payment of a promissory note, or for the non-payment or non-acceptance of a bill of exchange, draft or check, two dollars; for drawing and serving every notice of non-payment of a promissory note, of the non-payment or non-acceptance of a bill of exchange, order, draft, or check, one dollar; for drawing an affidavit, deposition, or other paper, for which provision is not herein made, for each folio, thirty cents; for taking an acknowledgment, or proof of a deed, or other instrument, to include the seal and the writing of the certificate, for the first signature, one dollar, and for each additional signature, fifty cents; for administering an oath or affirmation, twenty-five cents; for every certificate, to include writing the same, and the seal, fifty cents.

Secs. 16-29, inclusive, are superseded by Secs. 17, et seq., of the following Act.

N. B. Sections 8 and 9 of the following Act (relative to witnesses and jurors) apply to counties polling over 450 votes. The rest of the Act applies to counties polling over 900 votes, see Sec. 2506. For fees prescribed in other counties, see Sec. 2457, et seq. See note Secs. 3, 7 and 13 of this Act; special Acts for Ormsby county, Stats. 1887, 126; 1897, 19.

State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 17; Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.

RECORDERS.

2471. SEC. 4. The following fees to the several County Recorders [in counties polling over 800 votes] are hereby established: For receiving, filing, and entering documents required to be recorded, fifteen cents; for filing and entering any paper not to be recorded, thirty cents; for making all necessary indexes to each paper filed or recorded, for each name to be indexed, thirty cents; for recording any instrument, paper, or document, for each folio, twenty cents; for every certificate under seal, seventy-five cents; for every entry of discharge or assignment of mortgage on the margin of the records, twenty-five cents; for abstract of title, for each document embraced thereby, seventy-five cents; for searching records and files, for each document necessarily examined, twenty-five cents; for recording any survey or map other than town plat, for each corner, thirty cents; for recording town plat, for each lot or separate subdivision exhibited thereby, twenty cents; for each folio of lettering or figuring thereon, or in the certificate and description of the same, fifty cents; for recording certificates of marriage, death, divorce, or birth, fifty cents; for copying of any document or record in his office, for each folio, twenty cents; for taking acknowledgment, including certificate and seal, for the first signature, seventy-five cents; for each additional signature, twenty-five cents; for recording or copying any paper in a foreign language, double the fees as when in English; no map or plat shall be recorded exceeding in size two folios of the usual sized records; for preparing the abstract of unsatisfied mortgages, when requested by the Board of Equalization, for each, twenty-five cents.

Davis v. Thompson, 1 Nev. 17.

SHERIFFS.

2472. SEC. 5. The fees allowed to Sheriffs in the several counties of this state [polling over 800 votes] shall be as follows: For serving a summons and complaint or any other process by which an action or proceeding is commenced, on every defendant, one dollar and fifty cents; for traveling in making such services, per mile, in going only, to be computed in all cases from the court house of the county, forty cents per mile; provided, that if any two or more papers are required to be served in the same suit, at the same time, where parties live in the same direction from the court house, one mileage only shall be charged; for taking bond or undertaking in any case in which he is authorized to take the same, one dollar; for copying any writ, process, or other paper, when demanded or required by law, for each folio, twenty-five cents; for serving every notice, rule or order, fifty cents; for serving a subpoena, for each witness summoned, twenty-five cents; for traveling, per mile, in serving such subpoena or venire, in going only, forty cents per mile; but when two or more witnesses or jurors live in the same direction, traveling fees shall be charged only for the most distant; for serving an attachment on property or levying an execution, or executing an order of arrest, or order for delivery of personal property, two dollars, with traveling fees as in cases of summons; for serving an attachment on any ship, boat, or vessel in proceedings to enforce any lien thereon, created by law, four dollars; for making and posting notices, and advertising for sale, on execution or order, any judgment or order of sale, not to include the cost of publication in a newspaper, one dollar and fifty cents; for commissions for receiving and paying over money on execution or process, where lands or personal property have been levied on, advertised and sold, on the first five hundred dollars, three per cent; not exceeding one thousand dollars, but over five hundred, one and one-half per cent; and on all sums over fifteen hundred dollars, three-fourths of one per cent; for commissions for receiving and paying over money on execution without levy, or when the lands or goods levied on shall not be sold, one-half of one per cent. The fees herein allowed for the levy of an execution, for advertising and for making and collecting money on execution, shall be collected from the defendant by virtue of such execution, in the same manner as the same may therein be directed to be made. For drawing and executing every Sheriff's deed, to be paid by the grantee, who shall, in addition, pay for the acknowledgment thereof, three dollars; for serving a writ of possession or restitution, putting any person in possession entitled thereto, three dollars; for traveling, in the service of any process not hereinbefore mentioned, for each mile necessarily traveled, in going only, forty cents per mile; for attending, when required, on any court of record, in person or by deputy, for each day, to be paid out of the treasury, four dollars; for bringing up a prisoner, on habeas corpus, to testify or answer to any court, or for examination as to the cause of his arrest or detention, or to give bail, one dollar and fifty cents. He shall also be allowed such further compensation for his trouble and expense in taking possession of property under attachment or execution, or other process, and of preserving the same, as the court from which the writ or order may issue shall certify to be just and reasonable. For holding each inquest or trial of right of property, when required, to include all services except mileage, seven dollars and fifty cents; for attending on the supreme court, either in person or by deputy, to be paid out of the state treasury as other claims, for each [day], six dollars; for every arrest in a criminal proceeding, two dollars; for serving each subpoena in criminal cases, forty cents; for executing every sentence of death, fifty dollars; for summoning a grand jury of twenty-four persons, ten dollars; for summoning each trial juror, thirty cents; for service of any process in criminal cases, the same mileage as in civil cases. In serving subpoenas or venires in criminal cases he shall receive mileage for the most distant only, when witnesses and jurors live in the same direction. For all services in justices' courts, the same fees as are allowed to Constables. As amended, Stats. 1885, 94.

Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123; Baker v. McLeod, 14 Nev. 148; Feusier v. Virginia City, 3 Nev. 58; Swift v. Doron, 6 Nev. 125.

CORONERS.

2473. SEC. 6. The fees of Coroners [in counties polling over 800 votes] shall be as follows: For all services in summoning a jury of inquest, three dollars; for swearing a jury, fifty cents; for issuing warrant of arrest, seventy-five cents; for issuing subpoena to each witness, twenty cents; for each mile necessarily traveled in going to the presence of the dead body, twenty-five cents; for swearing each witness, twenty cents; for taking down testimony, per folio, twenty cents; for each day necessarily employed in holding an inquest, five dollars. All of said fees shall be paid out of said treasury as other demands. For all services rendered by him while acting as Sheriff, the same fees as are allowed to Sheriffs for similar services.

The above section does not apply to Ormsby, Humboldt, Elko, nor Eureka counties, see Stats. 1885, 129; 1887, 76. For townships casting 1,250 or more votes in 1882, see Stats. 1883, 55; and for townships casting over 1,600 votes in 1890, see Stats. 1891, 128.

WITNESSES.

2475. SEC. 8. Witnesses required to attend in any of the courts of this state [in counties polling over 450 votes] shall be entitled to the following fees: For attending in any civil suit or proceeding before any court of record, referee, Commissioner or Justice of the Peace, two dollars; for traveling to the place of trial, thirty cents per mile for each mile necessarily and actually traveled; provided, that no person shall be obliged to testify in a civil action unless his fees and mileage have been tendered him, or he shall not have demanded the same; and, provided further, that no person shall be obliged to testify in a civil action unless his fees have been tendered him if he shall demand the same, for mileage and one day's attendance; for each subsequent day's attendance the witness is entitled to demand, in advance, his fees from the party in whose favor he has been subpoenaed, and in case of refusal, is exonerated from further attendance. Witness fees in civil cases shall be taxed as disbursement costs, against the defeated party upon proof, by affidavit, that the disbursements have actually been made. Costs shall not be allowed for more than two witnesses to the same fact or series of facts, nor shall a party plaintiff or defendant be allowed any fees for attendance as a witness in his own behalf. This provision shall be held to apply to courts of Justices of the Peace, as well as to all other courts and judicial proceedings. For criminal cases no witnesses fees shall be allowed.

JURORS.

2476. SEC. 9. Each person summoned to attend as a grand or trial juror [in counties polling over 450 votes] unless he be excused by the court at his own request, from serving on the day he is summoned to attend, shall receive three dollars per day for each day he may be in attendance, and fifteen cents per mile in traveling to and returning from court. In civil cases, the per diem of each juror engaged in the trial of the cause, to be paid by the party in whose favor the verdict is rendered, but to be recoverable as costs from the losing party. In every trial in a civil action before any court, if the jury be from any cause discharged without finding a verdict, the fees of such jury shall be paid by the plaintiff, but may be recovered back as costs if he afterwards obtain judgment. Until they are paid, no further proceedings shall be had in the action. No person shall receive any fees for serving as a juror on a Coroner's inquest, and jurors in justice's courts shall receive but two dollars per day in civil cases; provided, that no fees shall be allowed trial jurors in criminal cases in justice's courts. The fees paid to a juror by the parties in a civil case shall be deducted from the amount due him, and the balance only shall become a charge against the county. As amended, Stats. 1885, 25; 1887, 62.

1. TRIAL JURORS—COMPENSATION IN CRIMINAL CASES—STATUTE CONSTRUED. Under the provisions of the Act of 1885 (Stats. 1885, 25), trial jurors in the regular panel are entitled to receive from the county mileage, and, in addition per diem, when accepted and sworn in criminal cases. These fees, together with those received in civil cases, constitute their entire compensation for attendance, trial and services rendered. Phillips v. Eureka Co., 19 Nev. 348.

2. Thornburg v. Hermann, 1 Nev. 473; Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123; Gillette v. Sharp, 7 Nev. 245.

COUNTY AUDITORS.

2477. SEC. 10. The fees of County Auditors [in counties polling over 800 votes] shall be as follows: For filing Treasurer's receipts and issuing licenses, to be paid by the party, twenty-five cents; the County Auditor shall receive for all services rendered by him in the discharge of the duties imposed on him by law, other than those especially enumerated, for each folio, twenty cents; for filing and indorsing each paper, twenty cents, except the property schedules, for which he shall receive no fees.

SEC. 11 (Judges and Clerks of Election) superseded, Sec. 1620.

SEC. 12 (carrying poll books to Clerk's office) superseded, Sec. 1620.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

2478. SEC. 13. Justices of the Peace [in counties polling over 800 votes] shall be allowed the following fees for their services: For filing each paper, fifteen cents; for issuing any writ or paper by which suit is commenced, seventy-five cents; for entering cause in docket, thirty cents; for subpoena, to each witness, fifteen cents; for administering oath or affirmation, fifteen cents; certifying to the same, fifteen cents; for issuing writ of attachment, or order of arrest, or order for delivering of property, one dollar and fifty cents; for entering any final judgment, per folio, for the first folio, seventy-five cents, for each additional folio, thirty cents; for taking and approving any bond or undertaking required by law to be taken or approved by him, seventy-five cents; for issuing a venire, seventy-five cents; for taking depositions, per folio, twenty cents; for issuing commissions to take testimony, seventy-five cents; for copy of any judgment, order, docket, proceeding, or paper in his office, per folio, twenty cents; for entering satisfaction of judgment, thirty cents; for issuing execution, seventy-five cents; for taking acknowledgments of deeds or other instruments, including certificates, for the first name, seventy-five cents, for each subsequent name, twenty-five cents; for issuing supersedeas to an execution, seventy-five cents; for making up and transmitting transcript and papers on appeal, one dollar and fifty cents; for issuing search warrant, seventy-five cents; for celebrating marriage and returning certificate to Recorder, five dollars; for issuing writ of restitution, seventy-five cents; for all services and proceedings in a criminal action, the same fees as are allowed in civil cases, but in no case shall there be a charge against the county exceeding in any one case the sum of five dollars; for taking bail after commitment in criminal cases, to be collected from the defendant, seventy-five cents; for entering any cause without process, one dollar; for entering judgment by confession as in district court, three dollars; for each motion, exception, rule, order, default, dismissal, discontinuance, or nonsuit, and for filing each paper required to be filed, fifteen cents.

The above section does not apply to Ormsby, Humboldt, Elko nor Eureka counties, see Stats. 1885, 129; 1887, 76. For townships casting 1,250 or more votes in 1882, see Stats. 1883, 54; and for townships casting over 1,600 votes in 1890, see Stats. 1891, 127.

INTERPRETERS AND TRANSLATORS.

2479. SEC. 14. Interpreters and translators [in all counties] shall receive such fees as the court by whom they are employed shall certify to be just.

SURVEYORS.

2480. SEC. 15. County Surveyors [in all counties] shall be entitled to demand and receive the following fees: For each mile actually run with a compass and chain, five dollars; for each mile actually run with a compass alone, two dollars; for each lot laid out platted in a town or city or town site, two dollars; for each copy of a plat or town site, one dollar; for recording a survey, per folio, thirty cents; for calculating the quantity of each division made in a tract of land (town lots excepted), and for erecting a monument at the corner of any survey, when required, two dollars; for traveling to the place of survey, for each mile, in going only, seventy-five cents, the distance to be computed from where his office is kept to the place of survey; and if such Surveyor shall be required and duly notified, verbally or otherwise, to make other surveys while in the field, he shall only be entitled to mileage from the place last surveyed by him; but if the distance shall be greater than the place last surveyed where his services are required, he shall only be entitled to mileage from the county seat of the county where he lives, and in no case shall constructive mileage be allowed; for ascertaining the location of every town lot in an old survey and measuring and marking the same, three dollars.

SURVEYORS' FEES. Where it is necessary to have a survey of the premises where the crime was committed, in order to properly present the case to the jury, the County Commissioners are authorized to allow a reasonable compensation for such survey. Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.

NOTARIES.

2481. SEC. 16. The fees of Notaries Public [in counties polling over 800 votes] shall be as follows: For drawing and copying every protest for non-payment of a promissory note, or for the non-payment or non-acceptance of a bill of exchange draft or check, two dollars; for drawing and serving every notice of non-payment of a promissory note, the non-payment or non-acceptance of a bill of exchange, order, draft or check, one dollar; for drawing an affidavit, deposition or other paper, for which provision is not herein made, for each folio, twenty cents; for taking an acknowledgment, or proof of deed, or other instrument, to include the seal and writing of the certificate, for the first signature, one dollar, and for each additional signature, fifty cents; for administering an oath or affirmation, twenty-five cents; for every certificate, to include writing the same and the seal, fifty cents. As amended, Stats. 1889, 40.

No Other Fees to Be Charged.

2482. SEC. 17. No other fees shall be charged than those specially set forth herein, nor shall fees be charged for any other services than those mentioned in this Act.

Officers to Keep Books.

2483. SEC. 18. It shall be the duty of each and every one of the officers hereinbefore mentioned to keep severally a book, to be called the fee book, in their respective offices, in which they shall enter all the fees charged by them, and said book shall be open to the inspection of any one desiring to inspect the same, in which shall be stated the fees charged for in detail with the title of the matter, proceeding or action on which they are charged.

Monthly Statement.

2484. SEC. 19. It shall be the duty of the County Clerks, County Recorders, County Surveyors, Sheriffs, Public Administrators, Justices of the Peace, and Constables, on the first Monday in July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and every three months thereafter, to make out and file with the County Commissioners of their several counties a full and correct statement, under oath, of all fees, percentage or compensation, of whatever nature or kind, received in their said several official capacities during the preceding three months, in which statement they shall set forth the cause in which and the services for which such compensations were received; provided, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to require personal attendance in filing such statements; and such statements may be transmitted by mail, express or otherwise directed to the Clerk of said Board of County Commissioners.

Duty of District Judge.

2485. SEC. 20. It shall be the duty of the District Judge to give this Act specially in charge to the grand jury.

Misdemeanor.

2486. SEC. 21. Any officer who shall violate any of the provisions of the seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth sections of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Unlawful Fees.

2487. SEC. 22. If any officer shall take more or greater fees than are herein allowed, he shall be liable to indictment, and, on conviction, shall be removed from office, and fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

To Post Table of Fees, When.

2488. SEC. 23. Every officer whose fees are ascertained and fixed by this Act shall publish and set up in his office fair tables of his fees, according to this Act, within one month from its passage, in some conspicuous place for the inspection of all persons who have business in his office, upon pain of forfeiting for each day of his omission so to do a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, which may be recovered by any person by action before any Justice of the Peace of the same county, with costs.

Cost of Publication.

2489. SEC. 24. When by law any publication is required to be made by an officer of any suit, process, notice, order or other paper, the cost of such publication shall, if demanded, be tendered by the party to whom such order, process, notice or other papers was granted before such officer shall be compelled to make publication thereof.

Fees in Advance.

2490. SEC. 25. All fees prescribed in this Act shall be payable in advance, if demanded; and if any officer shall not have received any or all of his fees, which may be due him for services rendered by him in any suit or proceedings, he may have execution therefor in his own name against the party or parties from whom they are due, to be issued from the court where the action is pending, upon the order of the Judge or court upon affidavit filed.

COMMISSIONERS OF DEEDS.

2491. SEC. 26. Commissioners of Deeds appointed by the Governors of any of the states of the United States of America, or of any of the territories thereof, to reside in the State of Nevada, may receive for services rendered in this state the compensation hereinafter expressed, and none other, that is to say: For drawing an affidavit, deposition or other paper, for each folio, thirty cents; for administering an oath or affirmation, twenty-five cents; for putting his seal to such instruments, fifty cents; for taking acknowledgment, or proof of deed or other instrument, to include the seal and the writing of the certificate, for the first signature, one dollar, and for each additional signature, fifty cents.

Misconduct.

2492. SEC. 27. Each Commissioner of Deeds residing in this state, shall be subject to all the pains and penalties for official delinquency or extortions, as is provided in this Act for official misconduct.

COURT FEES.

District Court.

2493. SEC. 28. At the time of the commencement of every civil action or other proceeding in the several district courts of this state, the plaintiff shall pay the Clerk of the Court in which said action shall be commenced the sum of three dollars, in gold or silver coin, except as herein otherwise provided. At the commencement of any proceeding in any district court for the purpose of procuring an appointment of administration upon the estate of any deceased person, the party instituting such proceedings shall pay the Clerk of said court the sum of one dollar and fifty cents in gold or silver coin.

Rose v. Richmond Mining Co., 17 Nev. 25.

Appeal, Justice's Court.

2494. SEC. 29. Whenever any appeal shall be taken in a civil action or proceeding from the judgment or decision of the court of a Justice of the Peace, or other tribunal inferior to the district court, the party appealing shall, before the return to said appeal shall be allowed to be filed in the appellate court, pay to the Clerk of such appellate court the sum of one dollar, in gold or silver coin; which said several fees above provided for shall be known as "court fees," and no such action shall be deemed commenced, proceedings instituted, or appeal perfected until the said fees shall be paid as aforesaid.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

2495. SEC. 30. Whenever any appeal from the final judgment or any order of a district court shall be taken to the supreme court, the party appealing shall, at or before the filing of the transcript on such appeal in the supreme court, pay the Clerk of the Supreme Court the sum of five dollars in gold or silver coin as and for a court fee; and the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall not file any such transcript in his office until such fee is paid.

To Give Receipts and Pay Over Money.

2496. SEC. 31. It shall be the duty of said Clerks, on the demand of any party asking it, to give a receipt to the party paying such fee for the same, specifying the title of the cause in which the same shall be paid and the date and amount of such payment; and it shall be the further duty of the several Clerks of the district courts of this state, on the first Monday of each and every month, to pay over to the County Treasurer of the county all moneys received by them for such court fees, together with a brief note of the cases in which the same were received, which money shall be payable in the District Judge salary fund of the district embraced in the county where the same shall be received.

Clerk of Supreme Court to Pay Over Money.

2497. SEC. 32. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall, on the first Monday in each month, pay to the State Treasurer all moneys received by him for court fees, rendering to said Treasurer a brief note of the cases in which the same were received. The money so received by the Treasurer shall be placed in the Supreme Judges' salary fund, and the same shall be used for no other purpose.

EXPENSES OF JURORS.

2498. SEC. 33. In all cases when a jury is kept together by order of the court during a trial, or by failure to agree upon a verdict, after the cause has been submitted to them by the court, the expenses of their board and lodging shall be taxed as other disbursements and expenses in favor of the prevailing party; no verdict shall be entered or judgment rendered thereon until the same is paid or tendered. The Clerk shall receive and properly disburse all money paid for the expenses of jurors, as in this section provided to be paid.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Folio, How Construed.

2499. SEC. 34. The term folio, when used as a measure for computing fees or compensation, shall be construed to mean one hundred words, counting every figure necessarily used as a word. Any portion of a folio, when in the whole draft or paper there should not be a complete folio, and when there shall be an excess over the last folio exceeding a quarter of a folio, shall be computed as a folio. The filing of a paper shall be construed to include the certificate of the same.

Mileage.

2500. SEC. 35. When any Sheriff, Constable or Coroner serves more than one process in the same cause, not requiring more than one journey from his office, he shall receive mileage only for the most distant service.

No Witness Fees for Attorney.

2501. SEC. 36. No attorney or counselor-at-law, in any case, shall be allowed any fees for attending as a witness in such case.

2502. SEC. 37. No fees shall be charged by any officer for administering and certifying the oath of office.

Mileage, Where Computed From.

2503. SEC. 38. Mileage shall be computed from the court house of the county in all cases where mileage is chargeable by the Sheriff, and for other officers the same shall be for the actual distance traveled, and every fraction of a mile shall be computed as a mile.

When Not to Charge Fees on Returns.

2504. SEC. 39. No Sheriff or other officers shall be allowed to charge or receive any fee or compensation whatever for the return written upon any summons, subpoena, writ of attachment, execution, order of sale, or other paper; and any officer violating terms of this section shall be indicted, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than three hundred dollars, and shall upon conviction thereof be removed from office.

Not to Apply to Legislative Officers.

2505. SEC. 40. This Act shall not extend to nor affect any law relating to the salaries or compensation of officers of the senate or assembly of the State of Nevada, nor to the salary of any state or county officer, or deputy thereof.

Application of Act.

2506. SEC. 41. The provisions of section eight and section nine of this Act shall not apply to or affect any county in this state wherein the total vote at the last election did not exceed four hundred and fifty, and the provisions of this Act shall not apply to or affect the fees of the officers of any county in this state wherein the total vote of the last election did not exceed eight hundred, and the same shall apply to all future elections, and it is hereby provided that in such counties "An Act to regulate fees and compensation for official and other services in the State of Nevada," approved March 9, 1865 [see Sec. 2457, et seq.], and the Act amendatory thereto, shall remain in full force and effect. As amended, Stats. 1893, 103.

Repeal.

2507. SEC. 42. This Act repeals all other Acts and parts of Acts now in force, relating to fees of officers, which fees are collectible by said officers from the persons for whom said services are rendered.

COURTS OF JUSTICE AND JUDICIAL OFFICERS.

An Act concerning the courts of justice of this state, and judicial officers.

Approved January 26, 1865, 110.

Courts of Justice of the State.

2508. SECTION 1. The following shall be the courts of justice for this state: First, the supreme court; second, the district courts; third, justices' courts; and, fourth, such municipal courts as may from time to time be established by the legislature in incorporated cities or towns.

Justices of Supreme Court.

2509. SEC. 2. The supreme court shall consist of a Chief Justice and two associates. Each Justice hereafter elected or appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take the constitutional oath of office.

When Elected—Chief Justice.

2510. SEC. 3. The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be chosen at general elections by the qualified voters of the state; one of the Justices shall be chosen at the general election of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six (1866), and at the general election every second year thereafter, and shall hold his office for the term of six years from the first day of January next after his election. The senior Justice in commission shall be the Chief Justice, and in case the commission of any two or more of said Justices shall bear the same date, they shall determine by lot who shall be Chief Justice.

Governor to Fill Vacancies.

2511. SEC. 4. When, from any cause, a vacancy shall occur in the office of a Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the same by granting a commission, which shall continue until the election and qualification of a Justice to fill such vacancy. A Justice to fill a vacancy shall be chosen at the first general election subsequent to the occurrence of the vacancy.

Appellate Jurisdiction.

2512. SEC. 5. The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases in equity, and also in all cases at law in which is involved the title or right of possession to, or the possession of, real estate or mining claims, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, or in which the demand, exclusive of interest or the value of the property in controversy, exceeds three hundred (300) dollars; also, in all other civil cases not included in the general subdivisions of law and equity, and also on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases in which the offense charged amounts to a felony.

Jurisdiction to Review.

2513. SEC. 6. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction to review upon appeal: First, a judgment in an action or proceeding, commenced in a district court, when the matter in dispute is embraced in the general jurisdiction of the supreme court, and to review upon appeal from such judgment any intermediate order or decision involving the merits and necessarily affecting the judgment; second, an order granting or refusing a new trial in such cases; an order granting or refusing to change the place of trial of an action or proceeding after motion is made therefor in the cases in which that court has appellate jurisdiction, and from an order granting or refusing to grant an injunction or mandamus in the case provided for by law.

To Issue Certain Writs.

2514. SEC. 7. This court, and each of the Justices thereof, shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus, and also all writs and process necessary to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction; such writs may be issued to any part of the state, and in granting writs of habeas corpus, such court, or a Judge thereof, may issue the writ upon application by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody in any part of the state, and may make such writs returnable before the court, or either of the Justices thereof, or before any district court of the state, or any Judge of said courts.

Power of Court on Appeal.

2515. SEC. 8. This court may reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment or order appealed from as to any or all of the parties, and may, if necessary, order a new trial, or the place of trial to be changed. When the judgment or order appealed from is reversed or modified, this court may make, or direct the inferior court to make, complete restitution of all property and rights lost by the erroneous judgment or order.

Terms of Court.

2516. SEC. 9. There shall be four terms of this court in each year, to commence on the first Mondays of January, April, July, and October. Such terms shall continue until the business before the court is determined, or for such length of time as, in the opinion of the court, the public interest may require.

Two Justices May Pronounce Judgment.

2517. SEC. 10. Two Justices shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, excepting such business as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of two Justices who heard the argument shall be necessary to pronounce any judgment, except in chamber business; and if two Justices who have heard the argument do not agree, the case shall be reargued.

Where Court Shall Be Held.

2518. SEC. 11. The supreme court shall hold its sessions at the capital of the state. If a room in which to hold the court, together with attendants, fuel, lights, and stationery, suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business, be not provided by the state, the court may direct the Sheriff of the county in which it is held to provide such room, attendants, fuel, lights, and stationery, and the expense thereof shall be paid out of the state treasury.

Opinions in Writing.

2519. SEC. 12. All opinions and decisions rendered by the supreme court shall be in writing, signed by the Justices concurring therein, and shall be spread at large on the records of the court kept for that purpose.

THE DISTRICT COURTS.

SECS. 13, 14 and 15 superseded by following Acts.

SEC. 16 is obsolete.

Original and Appellate Jurisdiction.

2520. SEC. 17. The district courts shall, severally, have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity; also, in all cases at law which involve the title, or the right of possession to, or the possession of, real property or mining claims, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine; also, in all actions to foreclose mechanics' liens; and in all cases in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, exceeds three hundred dollars; also, in all cases relating to the estates of deceased persons, and the person and estates of minors, idiots, and insane persons, and of the action of forcible entry and unlawful detainer; and, also, in all criminal cases not otherwise provided for by law; they shall also have final appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in justice's courts, and such other inferior tribunals as may be established by law. The district courts and the Judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, injunction, quo warranto, certiorari, and all other writs proper and necessary to the complete exercise of their jurisdiction; and also shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, on petition by, or on behalf of, any person held in actual custody in their respective districts. As amended, Stats. 1866, 59.

Court, Where Held.

2521. SEC. 18. The terms of the district court shall be held at the county seat of the several counties. If a room for holding the court be not provided by the county, together with attendants, fuel, lights, and stationery, suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business, the court may direct the Sheriff to provide such room, attendants, fuel, lights, and stationery, and the expenses thereof shall be a county charge.

Terms of District Court.

2522. SEC. 19. The terms of holding these courts shall be as provided by law in such districts, and such terms shall continue so long as the business may require, or until the day fixed for the commencement of another term in the same district. The court may adjourn from time to time during the term, and may, when the public convenience requires, adjourn the term over the time fixed by law for the commencement of another term in the same district. Judgments and orders of the district court may be entered either in term or vacation, in civil cases. As amended, Stats. 1875, 119.

Business at Chambers.

2523. SEC. 20. The District Judges shall, at all reasonable times, when not engaged in holding courts, transact such business at chambers as may be done out of court. At chambers they may try and determine writs of mandamus, certiorari, quo warranto, hear and dispose of motions for new trials, and all applications for writs which are usually granted, in the first instance, upon ex parte application, and may also, in their discretion, hear and determine applications to discharge such orders and writs. They may also hear and determine applications for writs of assistance at chambers.

May Hold Court in Any District, When.

2524. SEC. 21. A District Judge may hold a term in any judicial district in this state, upon the request of the Judge of the district in which such term is to be held; and when, by reason of sickness or absence from the state, or from any other cause, a term cannot be held in a district by the Judge thereof, a certificate of that fact shall be transmitted by the Clerk to the Governor, who shall thereupon direct some other District Judge to hold such term. It shall be the duty of the Judge thus directed to hold such term; provided, it will not conflict with his duties in his own district.

Court May Make Rules.

2525. SEC. 22. Each district court shall have power to make rules not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, for its own government and the government of its officers; but such rules shall not be in force until thirty days after their adoption and publication, except for the first terms held under the constitution of the state; and no rule shall be made imposing any tax or charge upon any legal proceeding, except as a penalty upon overruling a demurrer, or making an allowance to any officer for services.

1. RULES OF COURT OBLIGATORY AND BINDING. Haley v. Eureka County Bank, 20 Nev. 410; Lightle v. Ivancovich, 10 Nev. 41.
2. DISCRETION OF COURT AS TO THEIR RULES. Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265.
3. RULES OF COURT. What necessary to enforcement, referred to, but not decided. Smith v. Lee, 10 Nev. 208.

Charge to Juries.

2526. SEC. 23. District Judges shall not charge juries upon matters of fact, but may state the evidence and declare the law. In stating the evidence, the Judge should not comment upon the probability or improbability of its truth, nor the credibility thereof. If the Judge state the evidence, he must also inform the jury that they are not to be governed by his statement upon matters of fact.

Reduce Decision to Writing.

2527. SEC. 24. A District Judge may be required, in deciding any question of law, to reduce his decision to writing at the time such decision is made, and note any exception thereto, which may be taken by either party, to a trial or proceeding before him.

Jurisdiction of Offenses.

2528. SEC. 25. The district courts shall have jurisdiction to inquire, by the intervention of a grand jury, of all public offenses, committed or triable in their respective districts, to try and determine all indictments found therein, and to hear and determine appeals from justices' or other inferior courts in all cases of a criminal nature.

Powers Over Estates and Guardians.

2529. SEC. 26. The district courts shall have power to open and receive the proofs of last wills and testaments, and to admit them to probate; to grant letters testamentary of administration and guardianship, and to revoke the same for cause shown, according to law; to compel executors, administrators, and guardians to render an account when required, or at the period fixed by law; to order the sale of property of estates, or belonging to minors; to order the payment of debts due by estates; to order and regulate all partitions of property or estates of deceased persons; to compel the attendance of witnesses; to appoint appraisers or arbitrators; to compel the production of title papers or other property of an estate or of a minor, and to make such other orders as may be necessary and proper in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon them by law.

Powers of Court in Vacation.

2530. SEC. 27. The District Judge shall have power, in vacation, to appoint appraisers, to receive inventories and accounts to be filed in his court; to suspend the powers of executors, administrators, or guardians, in cases allowed by law; to grant special letters of administration or guardianship, to approve claims and bonds, and to direct the issuance from his court of all writs and process necessary to the exercise of his powers over the estates of deceased persons, and over the property and persons of minors, idiots, and insane persons.

THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

SECS. 28, 29, and 30 repealed, Stats. 1866, 125, and the Act of 1866 was repealed, 1869, 288.

Jurisdiction of Offenses.

2531. SEC. 31. Justices' courts shall also have jurisdiction of the following public offenses, committed within the respective counties in which such courts are established: First, petit larceny; second, assault and battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of his duties, or with intent to kill; third, breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing a willful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Terms of Office and Election.

2532. SEC. 32. Justices of the Peace shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. They shall be chosen by the electors of their respective townships or cities, at the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five (1865), and the general election every two years thereafter, and shall enter upon their duties on the first Monday of January succeeding their election. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of a Justice by death, resignation, or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the Board of County Commissioners of the proper county. The Justice appointed to supply a vacancy shall hold his office for the unexpired term of his immediate predecessor. Each Justice, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take the constitutional oath of office, and shall execute a bond to the state in the sum of five thousand (5,000) dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and file the same with the County Clerk.

Recorders' Courts—Jurisdiction.

2533. SEC. 33. Recorders' courts, which are already established, or which may hereafter be established in any incorporated city of this state, shall have jurisdiction: First—Of an action or proceeding for the violation of any ordinance of their respective cities. Second—Of an action or proceeding to prevent or abate a nuisance within the limits of their respective cities. Third—Of proceedings respecting vagrants and disorderly persons.

Further Jurisdiction.

2534. SEC. 34. The recorders' courts already established, or which may hereafter be established, shall also have jurisdiction of the following public offenses, committed in their respective cities: First, petit larceny; second, assault and battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the execution of his duties, or with intent to kill; third, breaches of peace, riots, affrays, committing a willful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Where Court to Be Held.

2535. SEC. 35. A recorder's court shall be held by a Judge who shall be designated as the "Recorder of the City," and said court shall be held at such place in the city within which it is established as the government of such city may by ordinance direct.

Election of Recorder.

2536. SEC. 36. The Recorders shall be chosen by the electors of their respective cities, on a day to be fixed by the government of such cities, and shall hold their offices for one year, unless a longer period be fixed in the Acts incorporating such cities; in which case, for such period fixed. Before entering upon their duties, they shall take the constitutional oath of office.

Compensation.

2537. SEC. 37. The Recorders shall receive compensation, to be fixed by the charter, or when not so fixed by the government of their respective cities, to be paid by such cities quarterly, in equal proportions. Such compensations shall not be increased or diminished during the period for which they are elected.

Powers and Duties.

2538. SEC. 38. The Recorders shall possess the powers and exercise the duties of committing magistrates, in the criminal causes in which the courts held by them have no jurisdiction by this Act; and as such magistrates, they may examine, commit or discharge all persons brought before them, as the justice and law of the case may require.

May Issue Process.

2539. SEC. 39. Recorders and recorders' courts may issue all legal process, writs, and warrants necessary and proper to the complete exercise of their powers.

Court Always Open.

2540. SEC. 40. There shall be no terms in recorders' courts. These courts shall always be open.

General Provisions Respecting the Courts of Justice and Judicial Officers.

ARTICLE I.

Courts of Record.

2541. SEC. 41. The supreme court, the several district courts, and such other courts as the legislature shall designate, shall be courts of record.

Proceedings Public.

2542. SEC. 42. The sittings of every court of justice shall be public, except as provided in the next section.

Proceedings Private, When.

2543. SEC. 43. In an action for divorce the court may direct the trial of any issue of fact joined therein to be private, and upon such directions all persons may be excluded, except the officers of the court, the parties, their witnesses, and counsel.

Powers of Court.

2544. SEC. 44. Every court shall have power to preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence; to enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or persons empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority; to compel obedience to its lawful judgments, orders, and process, and to the lawful orders of its Judge out of court in an action or proceeding pending therein; to control, in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers.

ARTICLE II.

When Judge Disqualified.

2545. SEC. 45. A Judge shall not act as such in an action or proceeding to which he is a party, or in which he is interested. Second, when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree. Third, when he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding, but this section shall not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, or the regulation of the order of business.

INTEREST OF JUDGE DISCUSSED AT LENGTH. Shaw v. Noyes, 24 Nev.

Not to Act, When.

2546. SEC. 46. A Judge of the Supreme Court, or of the district courts, shall not act as attorney or counsel in any court, except in an action or proceeding to which he is a party on the record.

Partner Not to Act.

2547. SEC. 47. A Judge or Justice of the Peace shall not have a partner acting as attorney or counsel in any court in this state.

Absence from State.

2548. SEC. 48. A Judge of the Supreme Court, or of the district court, shall not absent himself from this state for more than ninety consecutive days. A violation of the provisions of this section shall work a forfeiture of such office. As amended, Stats. 1865, 185.

ARTICLE III.

Courts, Where Held.

2549. SEC. 49. The courts of justice may be held, and judicial business may be transacted, on any day except as provided in the next section.

Non-Judicial Days—What May Be Done.

2550. SEC. 50. No court shall be open, nor shall any judicial business be transacted on Sunday, on New Year's Day, on Washington's Birthday, on the thirtieth of May, commonly known as Memorial Day, on the Fourth of July, on the thirty-first day of October, to be known as "Admission Day," on Thanksgiving Day, on Christmas Day, or on a day on which the general election is held, except for the following purposes:

First—To give, upon their request, instructions to a jury then deliberating on their verdict.

Second—To receive a verdict or discharge a jury.

Third—For the exercise of the powers of a magistrate in a criminal action, or in a proceeding of a criminal nature.

Fourth—For the issue of a writ of attachment, which writ may be issued on each and all of the days above enumerated upon the plaintiff or some person in his behalf, setting forth in the affidavit required by law for obtaining said writ, the additional averment, as follows: That the affiant has good reason to believe, and does believe, that it will be too late for the purpose of acquiring a lien by said writ to wait till a subsequent day for the issuance of the same. And all proceedings instituted, and writs issued and official acts done on any of the days above specified, under and by virtue of this section, shall have all the validity, force and effect of proceedings commenced on other days, whether a lien be obtained or a levy made under and by virtue of said writ. As amended, Stats. 1866, 53; 1883, 90; 1891, 20.

1. ORDERS MADE ON SUNDAY—AUTHORITY OF COURT. The provisions of the statutes of this state authorizing the court "to receive a verdict or discharge a jury" carries with it the power to have the verdict recorded, and authorizes the court to make such other orders as may be incident to the power given, such as designating a day when it would pronounce judgment upon the verdict. State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 17.

2. ATTACHMENT. Suit can be commenced and writ served on Sunday when required affidavit made. Levy v. Elliot, 14 Nev. 435.

3. UNDERTAKING ON APPEAL executed on Sunday is valid. State v. Cal. M. Co., 13 Nev. 203.

4. SUNDAY—NON-JUDICIAL DAY. A judgment of a Justice of the Peace, rendered upon the trial of a criminal case, on Sunday, is null and void. White v. Pergue, 15 Nev. 146.

Terms, Where Held.

2551. SEC. 51. Every court of justice, except justice's or recorder's court, shall sit at the county seat of the county in which it is held; justices' courts shall be held in their respective townships, precincts, or cities, and recorders' courts in their respective cities.

Adjournment of Court in Certain Cases.

Place of Holding Court May Be Changed.

2553. SEC. 53. A Judge authorized to hold or preside at a court appointed to be held in a city, precinct, or town, may, by an order filed with the County Clerk, and published as he may prescribe, direct that the court be held or continued at any other place in the city or county than that appointed, when war, pestilence, or other public calamity, or the dangers thereof, or the destruction of the building appointed for holding the court, may render it necessary; and may, in the same manner, revoke the order, and, in his discretion, appoint another place in the same city or county for holding the court.

Parties to Appear.

2554. SEC. 54. When the court is held at a place appointed as provided in the last section, every person held to appear at the court shall appear at the place so appointed.

Courts to Have Seals.

2555. SEC. 55. Each of the following courts, and no other, shall have a seal: First, the supreme court; second, the district courts.

Seal, How Procured—Words.

2556. SEC. 56. The several district courts for which separate seals have not been heretofore provided, or the respective Judges thereof, by an order, in writing, filed with the respective Clerks of such courts, shall direct such Clerks to procure such seals, and shall have the following inscriptions surrounding the same: For the district courts: "District Court, ----- District, County of -----," inserting the number of the district and the name of the county, and any such order that may have been made by any Judge of a district court, shall have the same effect as if it had been made in open court. As amended, Stats. 1879, 36.

Private Seal.

2557. SEC. 57. Until the seals, devised as provided in the last section, are procured, the Clerk of each court may use his private seal whenever a seal is required.

Clerk to Keep Seal.

2558. SEC. 58. The Clerk of each court shall keep the seal thereof.

Seal to Be Affixed.

2559. SEC. 59. The seal of the court need not be affixed to any proceedings therein, except: First, to a summons, writ, or commission to take testimony; second, to the proof of a will, or the appointment of an executor, administrator, or guardian; third, to the authentication of a copy of a record or other proceeding of the court, or an officer thereof; fourth, to certificates of acknowledgment, and all final process.

Seal, How Impressed.

2560. SEC. 60. The seal may be affixed by impressing it on the paper, or on a substance attached to the paper and capable of receiving the impression.

ARTICLE V.

Orders, When Refused.

2561. SEC. 61. If an application for an order made to a Judge of a court in which the action or proceeding is pending be refused, in whole or in part, or be granted conditionally, no subsequent application for the same order shall be made to any other Judge, except of a higher court; provided, that nothing in this section be so construed as to apply to motions refused for any informality in the papers or proceedings necessary to obtain an order.

Violation.

2562. SEC. 62. A violation of the last section may be punished as a contempt; and an order made contrary thereto may be revoked by the Judge who made it, or vacated by a Judge of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending.

Taking of Acknowledgment.

2563. SEC. 63. The Judges and Clerks of the supreme court, and of the district courts, shall have power in any part of the state; and Justices of the Peace and Recorders, within their respective cities, precincts, or townships, shall have power to take and certify: First, the acknowledgment of conveyances and the satisfaction of a judgment of any court; second, an affidavit to be used in any court of justice of this state.

Vacancy Not to Affect Action.

2564. SEC. 64. No action or proceeding in a court of justice shall be affected by a vacancy in the office of all or any of the Judges, or by the failure of a term thereof.

English Language to Be Used.

2565. SEC. 65. Every written proceeding in a court of justice in this state, or before a judicial officer, shall be in the English language; but such abbreviations as are now commonly used in that language may be used, and numbers may be expressed by figures or numerals, in the customary manner.

2581. SEC. 2. When any record of any court in this state has been lost, destroyed, or defaced, so that its contents cannot be distinguished, the same may be restored by any party interested, by making and filing an affidavit in said court whose records it is proposed to restore, and that said affidavit shall set forth the nature of the action, demand or claim upon which said lost, destroyed, or defaced records was obtained, about the date of the entry of its loss or destruction as near as may be, and when the record sought to be restored is that of a judgment, the affidavit shall set forth the amount and character of the judgment as nearly as can be ascertained, and in all cases the affidavit shall set forth that the restoration of said record or records is necessary to secure the legal rights of the affiant, or of some other person, for whose benefit the record or records is sought to be restored. As amended, Stats. 1897, 91.

Court to Issue Citation.

Service of Summons.

2583. SEC. 4. When parties upon whom citation is required to be served reside outside of the county, but within this state, service shall be made in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the service of summons in civil actions in this state, and upon a citation issued from a justice's court under this Act, the service of the same upon parties residing out of the county, but within the state, shall be in the same manner as that required for the service of summons in civil actions in the district courts, and where the parties upon whom service is required to be made reside out of this state, service shall be made by publication, in the same manner as is required for service of summons in civil cases in the courts of this state.

Counter Affidavits.

2584. SEC. 5. In all cases under this Act the parties interested shall, upon said motion, have an opportunity of appearing and using counter affidavits and contesting said application, and if it appear to the court at the hearing that the record in said case is lost, destroyed, or defaced, and what its contents were, it may then make, order, or cause to be made, a new roll or record, corresponding to the old one as near as can be done, and enter the same as of record in said court, and the matter thus substituted will thenceforward be received in all courts and given in all respects the same effect as though it were the original record.

Limitation.

2585. SEC. 6. Where any record of a judgment has been restored under this Act, said judgment shall not continue or extend beyond the limitation prescribed by law at the time the original judgment so restored was entered.

An Act to authorize District Judges in certain cases to sign records and settle statements.

Approved February 19, 1867, 59.

After Term of Office Expires.

2586. SECTION 1. It shall be lawful, from and after the passage of this Act, for any District Judge of this state, at any time within twelve months after the expiration of his term of office, or within twelve months after he shall, from any cause, have ceased to exercise the duties of such office, to sign any records of his court that he may have left unsigned at the time of going out of office; also to sign and settle statements on motions for new trials, and statements and bills of

Approved March 3, 1869, 115.

Offices for District Judges.

2577. SECTION 1. Offices shall be provided and furnished by, and at the expense of the several counties in this state, for the several District Judges therein; and whenever the County Commissioners of any county in this state shall neglect or refuse to provide and furnish an office for the use of the District Judge, it shall be lawful for such District Judge to make an order (which shall be entered upon the minutes of the court), requiring the Sheriff to provide and furnish such office; and the necessary expenses incurred therein shall become a legal and valid claim against said county.

An Act to prevent unnecessary delay in rendering judicial decisions by the courts of this state.

Approved March 5, 1891, 28.

Affidavit of Judge.

2578. SECTION 1. No Justice of the Supreme Court nor Judge of the District Court in this state shall, after the first day of July, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, be allowed to draw or receive any monthly salary unless he shall take and subscribe an affidavit before an officer authorized to administer oaths that no cause in his court remains undecided that has been submitted for the period of ninety days.

To Be Filed With Controller.

2579. SEC. 2. The said affidavit shall be filed with the State Controller, and shall constitute his authority for drawing and delivering the monthly salary warrant for any such Justice or Judge.

An Act to restore lost records.

Approved February 16, 1881, 38.

How Restored.

2580. SECTION 1. In all cases where the records of any judgments, which said judgments have not expired by limitation, or other records of any court of either general or limited jurisdiction in this state, and all records of proceedings taken by, or in behalf of any alien to become a citizen of the United States in this state, have been lost or destroyed, the same may be restored and replaced, and become the records of said courts, in the manner prescribed in this Act. As amended, Stats. 1897, 91.

Affidavit of Interested Party, What to State.

2581. SEC. 2. When any record of any court in this state has been lost, destroyed, or defaced, so that its contents cannot be distinguished, the same may be restored by any party interested, by making and filing an affidavit in said court whose records it is proposed to restore, and that said affidavit shall set forth the nature of the action, demand or claim upon which said lost, destroyed, or

Court to Issue Citation.

Service of Summons.

2583. SEC. 4. When parties upon whom citation is required to be served reside outside of the county, but within this state, service shall be made in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the service of summons in civil actions in this state, and upon a citation issued from a justice's court under this Act, the service of the same upon parties residing out of the county, but within the state, shall be in the same manner as that required for the service of summons in civil actions in the district courts, and where the parties upon whom service is required to be made reside out of this state, service shall be made by publication, in the same manner as is required for service of summons in civil cases in the courts of this state.

Counter Affidavits.

2584. SEC. 5. In all cases under this Act the parties interested shall, upon said motion, have an opportunity of appearing and using counter affidavits and contesting said application, and if it appear to the court at the hearing that the record in said case is lost, destroyed, or defaced, and what its contents were, it may then make, order, or cause to be made, a new roll or record, corresponding to the old one as near as can be done, and enter the same as of record in said court, and the matter thus substituted will thenceforward be received in all courts and given in all respects the same effect as though it were the original record.

Limitation.

2585. SEC. 6. Where any record of a judgment has been restored under this Act, said judgment shall not continue or extend beyond the limitation prescribed by law at the time the original judgment so restored was entered.

An Act to authorize District Judges in certain cases to sign records and settle statements.

Approved February 19, 1867, 59.

After Term of Office Expires.

2586. SECTION 1. It shall be lawful, from and after the passage of this Act, for any District Judge of this state, at any time within twelve months after the expiration of his term of office, or within twelve months after he shall, from any cause, have ceased to exercise the duties of such office, to sign any records of his court that he may have left unsigned at the time of going out of office; also to sign and settle statements on motions for new trials, and statements and bills of exception on appeal to the supreme court, subject to the same regulations and restrictions that now are or hereafter may be prescribed by law.

Same Legal Effect.

2587. SEC. 2. Said records, when thus signed, and said statements, and such bills of exceptions, when thus settled, shall have the same legal force and effect that they would be entitled to had they been signed or settled by the Judge while in the exercise of his office.

Records Legalized.

2588. SEC. 3. Any and all such records signed, and statements or bills of exceptions so signed and settled by any District Judge as aforesaid, since the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, are hereby legalized and made as valid to all intents and purposes, as though done since the passage of this Act.

Power Not to Be Taken from Successor.

2589. SEC. 4. This Act shall not be deemed to take from the successors of any District Judge the power to sign any record, or to sign and settle any statement or bill of exceptions, as heretofore authorized by law.

An Act to regulate the appointment and compensation of Bailiff of the Supreme Court.

Approved March 6, 1899, 58.

Justices to Appoint.

2590. SECTION 1. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall appoint the Bailiff for said court.

2591. SEC. 2. For the years 1899 and 1900 the full compensation for said Bailiff shall be three hundred dollars.

Compensation Beginning With 1901.

2592. SEC. 3. Commencing with the year 1901 and every year thereafter the full compensation of said Bailiff shall be one hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

An Act relating to the publication of supreme court decisions and advertising required by the State of Nevada.

Approved March 25, 1897, 165.

Publication of Decisions—State Advertising.

2593. SECTION 1. The Board of State Printing Commissioners shall select some daily newspaper published in the State of Nevada, to publish the Supreme Court Reports and to do all other advertising required by the State of Nevada, said advertising to consist of the Governor's proclamation, publication for rewards for criminals, monthly money accounts, all bids for proposals for supplies required by the state, or any other public institutions, and lists of all bills allowed by the State Board of Examiners, and such other advertising as may be required by law: provided, that such newspapers shall contract to do all of the foregoing printing and advertising at a compensation not to exceed the sum of six hundred dollars per annum.

Bonds to Be Given.

2594. SEC. 2. The proprietor of such newspaper entering into this contract shall bind himself to perform the work for two years and give bonds to the State of Nevada in the sum of five hundred dollars for the faithful performance of the contract.

Decisions, When and How Printed.

2595. SEC. 3. Each decision of the supreme court shall be printed in its entirety in a single issue of the paper or supplement, and fifty copies shall be furnished the state free of charge, and delivered to the Clerk of the Supreme Court; printed proofs of the decisions shall be submitted to the Clerk of the Board of Examiners before publication.

An Act to fix the compensation of the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Approved February 24, 1875, 84.

SECTION 1 superseded, Sec. 1927.

Fees Collected.

2596. SEC. 2. All fees hereafter collected by the Clerk of the Supreme Court as provided by law, shall be paid into the state treasury at the end of every quarter, and shall be apportioned to the general fund.

For fees, see Sec. 2469. For disposition of fees, see Sec. 2497.

Official Bond.

2597. SEC. 3. Said Clerk of the Supreme Court shall execute an official bond, with two or more sureties, made payable to the State of Nevada, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars; which bond shall be approved by the Board of Examiners, and filed with the Secretary of State.

Statement to Legislature.

2598. SEC. 4. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall make a full statement of all his proceedings under this Act to each succeeding legislature.

An Act to provide for the publication and distribution of Nevada Reports.

Approved March 1, 1883, 78.

Size Of.

2599. SECTION 1. The decisions of the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada shall be published in volumes of the size, as nearly as may be, of the volume heretofore published, and containing not less than five hundred pages.

Clerk to Prepare Decisions—What to Be Inserted—Printing.

2600. SEC. 2. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall prepare such decisions for publication by giving the title of each case, a syllabus of the points decided, a brief statement of the facts bearing on the points decided (when the same are not sufficiently stated in the opinion), the names of the counsel, and a reference to such authorities as are cited and have a special bearing on the case, and it shall be the further duty of said Clerk to prepare a full and comprehensive index to each volume of said decisions. When said decisions are prepared in accordance with the foregoing instructions, the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall transfer them to the Superintendent of State Printing, who shall submit the proof thereof to the supreme court for correction and approval. After being duly corrected, the Superintendent of State Printing shall cause to be printed, in the Nevada State Printing Office, six hundred copies of said decisions and transfer the same to the Secretary of State, to be by him distributed as hereinafter provided.

Extra Copies.

2601. SEC. 3. To provide against an insufficiency in the number of said reports, the Superintendent of State Printing shall cause to be printed three hundred extra copies of each form thereof, and store the same away, unbound, subject to the order of the Secretary of State.

Title, etc.

2602. SEC. 4. The title of each volume shall be "Nevada Reports," which title, together with the name of the reporter and the number of the volume, shall be printed on the back of each book.

Compensation to Clerk—May Employ Attorney.

2603. SEC. 5. Said Clerk of the Supreme Court shall receive for his compensation as reporter of said decisions the sum of six hundred dollars per year, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner that the salaries of the other state officers are paid; and he may, in his discretion, employ a competent attorney to assist him in the preparation of said decisions, who shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for his services, not to exceed the sum of seven hundred dollars for each volume.

Howell v. LaGrave, 23 Nev. 373.

To Distribute Copies—Price.

2604. SEC. 6. On the receipt of each volume of said report from the Superintendent of State Printing, the Secretary of State shall distribute them in the following manner: To each state and territory, one copy; to each of the heads of departments at Washington, one copy; to the Library of Congress, two copies; to each of the Judges of the United States Circuit and District Courts in the States of Nevada, California, and Oregon, one copy; to the Nevada State Library, two copies; to each state officer, Justice of the Supreme Court, Clerk of the Supreme Court, District Judge, District Attorney, County Clerk, and Justice of the Peace in this state, one copy; and to each public library and literary association within this state, one copy. He shall distribute to such literary and scientific institutions, publishers, and authors as in his opinion may secure an interchange of works, which may properly be placed in the state library. The remaining copies shall be held for sale at the price of two dollars per volume; provided, that a sufficient number be kept in the office of the Secretary of State for the use of the legislature when in session.

Reports Turned Over to Successors.

2605. SEC. 7. All reports distributed to state, district, and other officers in this state, shall be for the use of the officer, and shall be by the person receiving the same turned over to his successor in office, and the Secretary of State shall take proper receipts for the same.

An Act to provide for the republication and stereotyping of certain volumes of the reports of the decisions of the supreme court.

By Whom and in What Manner Published.

2606. SECTION 1. There shall be published by the publishers of the current volumes of Nevada Supreme Court Reports, from time to time, under the direction and by the approval of the supreme court, all volumes of the reports of the decisions of said court which shall be out of print, or so nearly so as to make the republication thereof, in the opinion of the court, advisable; and such republication shall be edited by such person, learned in the law, as shall be selected or approved by said court, and in such manner, and with such reduction of the number of volumes as said court shall, by its order, direct; the entire cost of such editing to be paid by the publishers, and the numbers and pages of the present volumes to be preserved in such new edition; and the plates of all such volumes of reports as shall be republished under this Act shall be stereotyped, and four hundred copies of each volume thereof, the same to be of the same style and quality as to paper and binding as volume ten of Nevada Reports, and to contain seven hundred and fifty pages or more, as the supreme court may determine, shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. And upon furnishing to the Secretary of State such copies, and satisfactory proof of having stereotyped the plates of such volumes, the said publishers shall receive from the state the price of two dollars and fifty cents ($2 50) per copy for each volume of Nevada Reports so republished and furnished to the state, to be audited by the State Board of Examiners, and paid by the State Treasurer, on the warrant of the State Controller, out of any money not otherwise appropriated; provided, that when two volumes of said reports shall be printed and bound in one volume, by direction of the supreme court, the price to be paid by the state shall be five dollars ($5) per copy; and, provided further, that the said publishers shall enter into a contract, to be approved by the Justices of the Supreme Court, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State, stipulating that they will faithfully perform all the acts and conditions in this Act required to be performed by them, and particularly will, at all times, keep for sale, and sell to the State of Nevada, and to the residents of the state, copies of the volumes to be so republished, at the rate herein fixed; and said publishers shall give bond, for the fulfillment of said contract, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which bond shall be filed with the Secretary of State and approved by the Justices of the Supreme Court, or a majority thereof.

Price Per Volume.

2607. SEC. 2. The said publishers shall sell said volumes at a price not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents ($2 50) per volume for each and every volume of Nevada Reports so republished, to all residents of this state, and no greater price shall be demanded or received by them, or their agents, or assigns, or either of them.

Volumes Retained.

2608. SEC. 3. The Secretary of State is hereby authorized to sell any copies of the volumes to be so republished, which the state may now have on hand exceeding fifty copies of each volume, which he shall retain for the use of the state, at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents ($2 50) per volume.

Who Entitled to Receive Reports.

2609. SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, upon the republication of these reports as herein provided, to ascertain to whom the early reports have been supplied, as per Act of February twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and supply, when he finds deficiencies, the following parties with all the reports of the Supreme Court of Nevada: To each state and territory, one copy; to each of the heads of departments at Washington, one copy; to the Library of Congress and the Nevada State Library, two copies; to each of the United States Circuit and District Courts in the States of Nevada, California and Oregon, one copy; to each state officer, Justice of the Supreme Court, Clerk of the Supreme Court, District Judge, District Attorney, County Clerk, and Justice of the Peace in this state, one copy; and to each public library and literary association within this state, one copy. He shall, also, from time to time, distribute said reports to such literary and scientific institutions, publishers, and authors as, in his opinion, may secure an interchange of works which may be properly placed in the state library. The remaining copies shall be kept in the office of the Secretary of State for the use of the legislature when in session; provided, that no distribution shall be made to any party or parties outside of the state when there may be less than one hundred copies of any given volume on hand.

Reports Turned Over to Successor.

2610. SEC. 5. All reports distributed to state, district, and other officers in this state, shall be for the use of the office, and shall be, by the person receiving the same, turned over to his successor in office; and the Secretary of State shall take proper receipts for such reports.

Points and Authorities.

2611. SEC. 6. All volumes of reports republished under this Act, except volumes one and two, shall contain a brief citation of the points made and authorities cited by the attorneys.

An Act relative to attorneys and counselors-at-law.

Approved October 31, 1861, 6.

How Known.

2612. SECTION 1. All persons admitted to practice in any of the courts of this territory, shall be known as attorneys and counselors-at-law.

Who Admitted to Practice.

2613. SEC. 2. Any citizen of this state of the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character, and who possesses the necessary qualifications of learning and ability, shall be entitled to admission as attorney and counselor in all the courts of this state. Under this Act females shall have the same rights and privileges as males. As amended, Stats. 1893, 12; 1899, 30.

Admission of Attorneys—Examining Committee—Oath and Fee.

2614. SEC. 3. Every applicant for admission as attorney and counselor-at-law shall produce satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and undergo such examination, as to his qualification, as the supreme court may direct; provided, that such examinations and testimonials may be dispensed with at the discretion of said court; and it is hereby made the duty of the supreme court, upon application of the District Judge of any judicial district within this state, to appoint a committee to examine persons applying for admission as attorneys and counselors-at-law, under such rules and regulations as the supreme court may prescribe, which committee shall consist of the District Judge of the district, and at least two attorneys-at-law of the district in which the committee is appointed. And it shall be the duty of the committee so appointed to examine persons applying for admission to practice law, and report to said supreme court the result of such examination, with recommendation that the person or persons so examined be or be not admitted to practice law. Upon the filing and approval by said supreme court of the report of any committee so appointed, the supreme court may order the Clerk of said supreme court to issue to the person or persons so recommended a license, authorizing such person or persons to practice as attorneys and counselors-at-law in all the state courts within this state; but no license shall be issued, under the provisions of this Act, until the person to whom the same may issue shall have filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court his official oath, and paid over to the State Treasurer the sum of twenty-five dollars, as now provided by law. As amended, Stats. 1871, 148; 1875, 142.

Additional fees for admission of attorney, see Secs. 1530 and 2469.

How Licensed.

2615. SEC. 4. If he be duly qualified, the court shall admit him as attorney and counselor in all the courts of the state, and shall direct an order to be entered to that effect upon its records, and that a certificate of such record be given to him by the Clerk of the court, which certificate shall be his license. As amended, Stats. 1871, 148.

Entered on Roll.

2616. SEC. 5. Any district court of this state may order to be entered upon its roll of attorneys the name of any person who shall produce a license given to him by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, as in this Act provided. As amended, Stats. 1871, 148.

Oath and License.

before issuing such license, and in no case shall the license be issued until such clearance is filed in the office of the Clerk. As amended, Stats. 1871, 148; 1873, 114.

Examination Dispensed With.

2618. SEC. 7. The examination may be dispensed with in the case of a person who has been admitted attorney and counselor in the highest courts of a sister state or territory; his affidavit of such admission, or his license showing the same, shall be deemed sufficient to entitle him to admission.

Roll Kept.

2619. SEC. 8. Each Clerk shall keep a roll of attorneys and counselors of the court of which he is Clerk, which shall be a record of the court.

Practicing Without License.

2620. SEC. 9. If any person shall practice law in any court in this state, except a justice's, recorder's or municipal court, without having received a license as attorney and counselor, after admission by the supreme court, he shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and punished as in other cases of contempt, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined one hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail fifty days. As amended, Stats. 1871, 148.

Authority of Attorney.

2621. SEC. 10. An attorney and counselor shall have authority: First—To bind his client in any of the steps of an action or proceeding, by his agreement filed with the Clerk, or entered upon the minutes of the court, and not otherwise. Second—To receive money claimed by his client in an action or proceeding during the pendency thereof, or within one year after judgment and upon the payment thereof, and not otherwise, to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction in the judgment.

Change of Attorney.

2622. SEC. 11. The attorney in an action or special proceeding may be changed at any time before judgment or final determination, as follows: First—Upon his own consent, filed with the Clerk or entered upon the minutes. Second—Upon the order of the court or Judge thereof on the application of the client.

Huffaker v. Crosby, 24 Nev. 115

Notice of Change.

2623. SEC. 12. When an attorney is changed, as provided in the last section, written notice of the change and of the substitution of a new attorney, or of the appearance of the party in person, shall be given to the adverse party; until then he shall be bound to recognize the former attorney.

Hoppin v. Bank, 24 Nev. 252w. 84

Death or Removal.

2624. SEC. 13. When an attorney dies, or is removed or suspended, or ceases to act as such, a party to an action for whom he was acting as attorney shall, before any further proceedings be had against him, be required by the adverse party, by written notice, to appoint another attorney, or to appear in person.

Suspension of Attorney.

2625. SEC. 14. An attorney and counselor may be removed or suspended by the supreme court, and by no other court in the territory, for either of the following causes arising after his admission to practice: First—Upon his being convicted of felony or misdemeanor, involving moral turpitude, in either of which cases the record of his conviction shall be conclusive evidence. Second—For willful disobedience or violation of the order of a court requiring him to do or forbear an act connected with or in the course of his profession. Third—For misconduct in office, or for good cause shown.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW—MOTION TO STRIKE NAME FROM ROLL—COURT OF RECORD. Held, that the statute authorizing the court to remove an attorney who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor, and that "the record of his conviction shall be conclusive evidence," contemplates a conviction in a court of record; that the docket of a Justice of the Peace is not conclusive. In the Matter of Granger, 15 Nev. 56.

Conviction of Attorney.

2626. SEC. 15. In the case of the conviction of an attorney or counselor of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, the Clerk of the court in which the conviction was had shall, within thirty days thereafter, transmit to the supreme court a certified copy of the record of conviction.

Proceedings to Remove.

2627. SEC. 16. The proceedings to remove or suspend an attorney and counselor, under the first subdivision of section fourteenth, shall be taken by the court on the receipt of the certified copy of the record of convictions; the proceedings under the second and third subdivisions of section fourteenth may be taken by the court for matters within its knowledge, or may be taken upon the information of another.

Accusation to Be in Writing.

2628. SEC. 17. If the proceedings be upon the information of another, the accusation shall be in writing, and shall be presented to the court.

Accusation, What to State.

2629. SEC. 18. The accusation shall state the matters charged, and shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, or some other person, to the effect that the charges therein contained are true.

To Appear and Answer.

2630. SEC. 19. After receiving the accusation, the court shall, if in its opinion the case require it, make an order requiring the accused to appear and answer the accusation, at a specified time, in the same or subsequent term, and shall cause a copy of the order, and of the accusation, to be served upon the accused within a prescribed time before the day appointed in the order.

Appearance of Accused.

2631. SEC. 20. The accused must appear at the time appointed in the order and answer the accusation, unless for sufficient cause the court assign another day for that purpose; if he do not appear, the court may proceed and determine the accusation in his absence.

Fleadings.

2632. SEC. 21. The accused may answer the accusation, either by objecting to the sufficiency, or by denying its truth.

Demurrer.

2633. SEC. 22. If he object to the sufficiency of the accusation, the objection shall be in writing, but need not be in any specific form, it being sufficient if it present intelligibly the grounds of the objection. If he deny the truth of the accusation, the denial may be oral, and without oath, and shall be entered upon the minutes.

Answer.

2634. SEC. 23. If an objection to the sufficiency of the accusation be not sustained, the accused shall answer forthwith.

Plea of Guilty.

2635. SEC. 24. If the accused plead guilty, or refuse to answer the accusation, the court shall proceed to judgment of removal or suspension. If he deny the matter charged, the court shall immediately, or at such time as it may appoint, proceed to try the accusation.

Reference to Committee.

2636. SEC. 25. The court may, in its discretion, order a reference to a committee to take the depositions in the matter, and to report to the court before proceeding to try the accusation.

Judgment on Conviction.

2637. SEC. 26. Upon conviction, in cases arising under the first subdivision of section fourteenth, the judgment of the court shall be, that the name of the party be stricken from the roll of attorneys and counselors of the court, and he be precluded from practicing as such attorney or counselor in all the courts of this territory; and, upon conviction in cases under the second and third subdivisions of section fourteenth, the judgment of the court may be, according to the gravity of the offense charged, deprivation of the right of practice as attorneys or counselors in the courts of this territory, permanently or for a limited period.

May Appear in Own Behalf.

2638. SEC. 27. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to prevent any person from appearing in his own behalf in any court in this territory.

REAL PROPERTY AND CONVEYANCES.

An Act concerning conveyances.

Approved November 5, 1861, 11.

Conveyance by Deed.

2639. SECTION 1. Conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein, may be made by deed, signed by the person from whom the estate or interest is intended to pass, being of lawful age, or by his lawful agent or attorney, and acknowledged or proved, and recorded, as hereinafter directed.

1. DEED EXECUTED AND DELIVERED. Carries absolute title. Ruhling v. Hackett, 1 Nev. 360. COURTS OF EQUITY may correct mistakes. Id.
2. QUITCLAIM DEED—CONVEYS TITLE, WHEN—PAROL EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE TO IDENTIFY PROPERTY. Brown v. Warren, 16 Nev. 228.
3. QUITCLAIM DEED. Conveys whatever present interest the grantor has in property, and, although intended as a mortgage, will protect the rights of an innocent purchaser for value. Brophy M. Co. v. B. & D. G. & S. M. Co., 15 Nev. 101.
4. QUITCLAIM DEED—AFFECTS ONLY PRESENT RIGHT. Title of patentee of public land unaffected by his previous quitclaim deed. Harden v. Cullins, 8 Nev. 49.
5. SUFFICIENCY OF SHERIFF'S DEED—ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SHERIFF'S DEED. Smith v. Claimants, 4 Nev. 254.
6. DEED ABSOLUTE ON ITS FACE MAY BE SHOWN TO BE A MORTGAGE—PAROL EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE—PROOF SHOULD BE CLEAR. Bingham v. Thompson, 4 Nev. 224; Saunders v. Stewart, 7 Nev. 200; Pierce v. Traver, 13 Nev. 526.
7. ABSOLUTE DEED, WHEN A MORTGAGE. First Nat. Bank v. Kreig, 21 Nev. 404.
8. GRANTING CLAUSE—HOW CONSTRUED. McCurdy v. Alpha M. Co., 3 Nev. 27.
9. CONSTRUCTION OF DEED—SUFFICIENCY OF DESCRIPTION. Paroni v. Ellison, 14 Nev. 60.
10. CONSTRUCTION OF DEED—EASEMENT—ESTOPPEL. Lindsay v. Jones, 21 Nev. 72.
11. DEED MADE PRIOR TO STATUTE OF CONVEYANCES. Sharon v. Davidson, 4 Nev. 416.
12. CONSTRUCTION OF DEED—WATER DITCH. Fogus v. Ward, 10 Nev. 269.
13. DESCRIPTION—INTENTION OF GRANTOR TO CONVEY LAND—PRESUMPTIONS—EVIDENCE OF EXISTENCE OF DEEDS. Langworthy v. Coleman, 18 Nev. 440.
14. EQUITY—EFFECT OF RECONVEYANCE OF TITLE. S. held a deed of mining ground as a mortgage to secure an existing indebtedness; he conveyed the premises to P., and after two or more transfers of the title, the property was redeeded to S.: Held, that when the title returned to S., the same equities attached to it in his hands as existed at the time he made the conveyance to P. Brophy M. Co. v. B. & D. G. & S. M. Co., 15 Nev. 101.

15. LEGAL TITLE—DEED OF LAND TO T. B. & BRO. A conveyance of land to Thomas Barnett & Bro. vests the legal title in Thomas Barnett alone, and a conveyance from him will give to his grantees a good and valid title. Barnett v. Lachman, 12 Nev. 361.
16. PRESUMPTION OF CLAIM TO ENTIRE TRACT BY ENTRY UNDER DEED. A person entering upon a tract of land under a deed with definite boundaries, is presumed by the mere act of entry so made to intend to claim the entire tract. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.

By Married Women.

2640. SEC. 2. A husband and wife may, by their joint deed, convey the real estate of the wife in like manner as she might do by her separate deed if she were unmarried.

Acknowledgment.

2641. SEC. 3. Every conveyance in writing whereby any real estate is conveyed or may be affected, shall be acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner hereinafter provided.

Acknowledgments, by Whom Made.

2642. SEC. 4. The proof or acknowledgment of every conveyance affecting any real estate shall be taken by some one of the following officers: First—If acknowledged or proved within this state, by some Judge or Clerk of a court having a seal, or some Notary Public or Justice of the Peace; provided, when the acknowledgment is taken before a Justice of the Peace in any other county than that in which the real estate is situated, the same shall be accompanied with the certificate of the Clerk of the district court of such county, as to the official character of the Justice taking the proof or acknowledgment, and the authenticity of his signature. Second—If acknowledged or proved without this state, and within the United States, by some Judge or Clerk of any court of the United States, or of any state or territory having a seal, or by any Commissioner appointed by the government of this state for that purpose, or by a Justice of the Peace of any county in any state or territory in the United States, accompanied with the certificate of the Clerk of a court of record of the county having a seal, as to the official character of the Justice and the authenticity of his signature. Third—If acknowledged or proved without the United States, by some Judge or Clerk of any court of any state, kingdom, or empire having a seal, or by any Notary Public therein, or by any Minister, Commissioner, or Consul of the United States appointed to reside therein.

See, also, Sec. 2728.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF DEED—ABOVE SECTION CONSTRUED. Deed acknowledged in foreign country before Vice-Consul-General of the United States good. Evans v. Lee, 11 Nev. 194.

Record Valid.

Certificate Annexed.

2644. SEC. 5. Every officer shall take the proof or acknowledgment of any conveyance affecting any real estate, shall grant a certificate thereof, and cause such certificate to be indorsed or annexed to such conveyance; such certificate shall be: First—When granted by any Judge or Clerk, under the hand of such Judge or Clerk, and the seal of the court. Second—When granted by an officer who has a seal of office, under the hand and official seal of such officer.

Proof of Identity.

2645. SEC. 6. No acknowledgment of any conveyance whereby any real estate is conveyed, or may be affected, shall be taken, unless the person offering to make such acknowledgment shall be personally known, to the officer taking the same, to be the person whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a party thereto, or shall be proved to be such by the oath or affirmation of a credible witness.

Certificate, What to State.

2646. SEC. 7. The certificate of such acknowledgment shall state the fact of acknowledgment, and that the person making the same was personally known, to the officer granting the certificate, to be the person whose name is subscribed to the conveyance as a party thereto, or was proved to be such by the oath or affirmation of a credible witness, whose name shall be inserted in the certificate.

Form of Acknowledgment.

2647. SEC. 8. Such certificate shall be substantially in the following form, to wit:

State of Nevada, County of----- On this-----day of-----, A. D.-----, personally appeared before me, a Notary Public (or Judge, or other officer, as the case may be), in and for said county, A. B., known to me to be the person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, who acknowledged to me that he executed the same freely and voluntarily and for the uses and purposes therein mentioned; provided, that in all cases where acknowledgments have been made, or may hereafter be made, by non-residents of this state, conveying the title to real property situated in this state, and such certificate of acknowledgment is executed in accordance with the laws of the state or territory where such grantor resides, every such certificate shall have the same force and effect, and such conveyance shall be of equal validity as though such certificate contained the form and language prescribed in this section. As amended, Stats. 1893, 75.

1. ACKNOWLEDGMENT, FORM OF. The law does not require that the exact form of the certificate given in the statute shall be followed. A substantial compliance therewith is sufficient. Johnson v. Badger M. & M. Co., 13 Nev. 351.

2. CERTIFICATE OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT—TESTIMONY OF NOTARY. Musgrove v. Waitz, 14 Nev. 78.

When Grantor is Unknown.

2648. SEC. 9. When the grantor is unknown to the court or officer taking the acknowledgment, the certificate shall be in the following form, to wit: "Territory of Nevada, County of----- On this-----day of-----, A. D.-----, personally appeared before me, a Notary Public (or Judge, or officer, as the case may be), in and for the said county, A. B., satisfactorily proved to me to be the person described in and who executed the within conveyance, by the oath of C. D., a competent and credible witness, for that purpose by me duly sworn, and he, the said A. B., acknowledged that he executed the same freely and voluntarily, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned."

Proof of Execution of Conveyance.

2649. SEC. 10. The proof of the execution of any conveyance, whereby any real estate is conveyed, or may be affected, shall be: First—By the testimony of a subscribing witness; or, Second—When all the subscribing witnesses are dead, or cannot be had, by evidence of the handwriting of the party, and of, at least, one subscribing witness, given by a credible witness to each signature.

Witness Personally Known.

2650. SEC. 11. No proof by a subscribing witness shall be taken unless such witness shall be personally known, to the officer taking the proof, to be the person whose name is subscribed to the conveyance as witness thereto, or shall be proved to be such by the oath or affirmation of a credible witness.

Proof Necessary.

2651. SEC. 12. No certificate of such proof shall be granted unless such subscribing witnesses shall prove the person, whose name is subscribed thereto as a party, is the person described in, and who executed, the same; that such person executed the conveyance, and that such witness subscribed his name thereto as a witness thereof.

What to Set Forth.

2652. SEC. 13. The certificate of such proof shall set forth the following matters: First—The fact that such subscribing witness was personally known, to the officer granting the certificate, to be the person whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a witness thereto, or was proved to be such by oath or affirmation of a witness, whose name shall be inserted in the certificate. Second—The proof given by such witness of the execution of such conveyance, and of the fact that the person, whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a party thereto, is the person who executed the same, and that such witness subscribed his name to such conveyance as a witness thereof.

Evidence of Handwriting.

2653. SEC. 14. No proof by evidence of the handwriting of the party, and of a subscribing witness, shall be taken, unless the officer taking the same shall be satisfied that all the subscribing witnesses to such conveyance are dead, or cannot be had to prove the execution thereof.

When Certificate Granted.

2654. SEC. 15. No certificate of any such proof shall be granted unless a competent and credible witness shall state, on oath or affirmation, that he personally knew the person whose name is subscribed thereto as a party, well knew his signature (stating his means of knowledge), and believes the name of the person subscribed thereto as a party was subscribed by such person; nor unless a competent and credible witness shall, in like manner, state that he personally knew the person whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a witness, well knew his signature (stating his means of knowledge), and believes the name subscribed thereto as a witness was thereto subscribed by such person.

Witnesses.

2655. SEC. 16. Upon the application of any grantee in any conveyance required by this Act to be recorded, or by any person claiming under such grantee, verified under the oath of the applicant, that any witness to such conveyance, residing in the county where such application is made, refuses to appear and testify touching the execution thereof, and that such conveyance cannot be proved without his evidence, any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment or proof of such conveyance, may issue a subpoena requiring such witness to appear before such officer, and testify touching the execution thereof.

Penalty.

2656. SEC. 17. Every person who, being served with a subpoena, shall, without reasonable cause, refuse or neglect to appear, or appearing, shall refuse to answer upon oath touching the matters aforesaid, shall be liable to the party injured in the sum of one hundred dollars, and for such damages as may be sustained by him on account of such neglect or refusal, and may also be committed to prison by the Judge of some court of record, there to remain without bail, until he shall submit to answer upon oath as aforesaid; but no person shall be required to attend who resides out of the county in which the proof is to be taken, nor unless his reasonable expenses shall have been first tendered to him.

To Be Recorded.

2657. SEC. 18. A certificate of the acknowledgment of any conveyance, or of the proof of the execution thereof, as provided in this Act, signed by the officer taking the same, and under the seal of the officer, shall entitle such conveyance, with the certificate or certificates as aforesaid, to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of any county in this territory.

Conveyance by Married Women.

2658. SEC. 19. A married woman may convey any of her real estate by any conveyance thereof, executed and acknowledged by herself and her husband, and certified, in the manner hereinafter provided, by the proper officer taking the acknowledgment.

Covenants Binding.

2659. SEC. 20. No covenant, expressed or implied, in any such conveyance, shall bind such married woman or her heirs, except so far as may be necessary effectually to convey from such married woman and her heirs all her rights and interest expressed to be conveyed in such conveyance.

Acknowledgments of Married Women.

2660. SEC. 21. Any officer authorized by this Act to take the proof or acknowledgment of any conveyance whereby any real estate is conveyed, or may be affected, may take and certify the acknowledgment of a married woman to any such conveyance of real estate.

Married Woman Examined Apart from Husband.

2661. SEC. 22. No such acknowledgment shall be taken, unless such married woman shall be personally known to the officer taking the same to be the person whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a party thereto, or shall be proved to be such a credible witness; nor unless such married woman shall be made acquainted with the contents of such conveyance, and shall acknowledge, on an examination apart from and without the hearing of her husband, that she executed the same freely and voluntarily, without fear or compulsion, or undue influence of her said husband, and that she does not wish to retract the execution of the same.

Form of Certificate.

2662. SEC. 23. The certificate shall be in the form heretofore given, and shall set forth that such married woman was personally known to the officer granting the same to be the person whose name is subscribed to such conveyance as a party thereto, or was proved to be such by a credible witness, whose name shall be inserted in the certificate, and that she was made acquainted with the contents of such conveyance, and acknowledged, on examination apart from and without the hearing of her husband, that she executed the same freely and voluntarily, without fear or compulsion, or undue influence of her husband, and that she does not wish to retract the execution of the same. Every certificate which substantially conforms to the requirements of this Act shall be valid.

All Conveyances Recorded.

2663. SEC. 24. Every conveyance of real estate, and every instrument of writing setting forth an agreement to convey any real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected, proved, acknowledged, and certified in the manner prescribed in this Act, to operate as notice to third persons, shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county in which such real estate is situated, but shall be valid and binding between the parties thereto without such record.

Record to Be Notice.

2664. SEC. 25. Every such conveyance or instrument of writing, acknowledged or proved and certified, and recorded in the manner prescribed in this Act, shall, from the time of filing the same with the Recorder for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof; and subsequent purchasers and mortgagees shall be deemed to purchase and take with notice.

1. CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE BY RECORD ENTIRELY STATUTORY. The matter of constructive notice by the record of conveyance is entirely a creature of statute; and its effect is to be gathered from construction of the statute. Grellet v. Heilshorn, 4 Nev. 526.

RECORD OF DEEDS INTENDED FOR MORTGAGES AS NOTICE. Id.

RECORD OF CONVEYANCE IN GENERAL AS NOTICE. Id.

LIENS OF DEEDS INTENDED AS MORTGAGES. Id.

2. RECORDING OF SEAL NOT NECESSARY—WHEN ENSEALING WILL BE PRESUMED. Flowery M. Co. v. N. B. M. Co., 16 Nev. 302.
3. PURPOSE OF RECORDING MORTGAGES. Virgin v. Brubaker, 4 Nev. 31.
4. DEED—MORTGAGE—BONA FIDE PURCHASER. Where a deed intended as a mortgage is recorded, and no defeasance appears of record, a bona fide purchaser from the grantee acquires an absolute title, free from the equity of redemption of the mortgagor. Gruber v. Baker, 20 Nev. 453.
5. ACTUAL NOTICE—PURCHASER IN GOOD FAITH. Actual notice dispenses with constructive notice. A purchaser with actual notice is not a purchaser in good faith of the estate previously conveyed. Gilson v. Boston, 11 Nev. 413.
6. POSSESSION—NOT NOTICE OF UNRECORDED DEFEASANCE. Brophy M. Co. v. B. & D. G. & S. M. Co., 15 Nev. 101; Fair v. Howard, 6 Nev. 304.
7. NOTICE SUFFICIENT TO PUT PARTY ON INQUIRY—ORDINARY DILIGENCE. Information which makes it the duty of a party to make inquiry, and shows where it may be made, is notice of all facts to which such inquiry would naturally lead. Burbank v. Rivers, 20 Nev. 159.
8. NOTICE PRESUMED—LACK OF DILIGENCE. Crosier v. McLaughlin, 1 Nev. 348.

Void When Not Recorded.

2665. SEC. 26. Every conveyance of real estate within this territory, hereafter made, which shall not be recorded as provided in this Act, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any portion thereof, where his own conveyance shall be first duly recorded.

Powers of Attorney.

2666. SEC. 27. Every power of attorney, or other instrument in writing, containing the power to convey any real estate, as agent or attorney for the owner thereof, or to execute, as agent or attorney for another, any conveyance whereby any real estate is conveyed, or may be affected, shall be acknowledged, or proved and certified, and recorded as other conveyances whereby real estate is conveyed or affected, are required to be acknowledged or proved, and certified and recorded.

Revocation of Power.

2667. SEC. 28. No such power of attorney or other instrument, certified and recorded in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation shall be deposited for record in the same office in which the instrument containing the power is recorded.

THE DEPOSIT FOR RECORD OF A REVOCATION OF A POWER OF ATTORNEY in the proper office operates under our statute as a notice to all parties dealing with the attorney. By such deposit, the revocation becomes absolute without actual notice to the attorney. Arnold v. Stevenson, 2 Nev. 234.

Evidence of Conveyance.

2668. SEC. 29. Every conveyance, or other instrument, conveying or affecting real estate, which shall be acknowledged, or proved and certified, as herein-after prescribed, may, together with the certificate of acknowledgment, or proof, be read in evidence without further proof.

Evidence of, When Lost.

2669. SEC. 30. When any such conveyance, or instrument, is acknowledged or proved, certified and recorded, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and it shall be shown to the court that such conveyance, or instrument, is lost, or not within the power of the party wishing to use the same, the record thereof, or the transcript of such record, certified by the Recorder, under the seal of his office, may be read in evidence without further proof.

Evidence May Be Rebutted.

2670. SEC. 31. Neither the certificate of the acknowledgment nor of the proof of any such conveyance, or instrument, nor the record, nor the transcript of the record, of such conveyance, or instrument, shall be conclusive, but the same may be rebutted.

Proof by Other Evidence.

2671. SEC. 32. If the party contesting the proof of any such conveyance, or instrument, shall make it appear that any such proof was taken upon the oath of an incompetent witness, neither such conveyance, or instrument, nor the record thereof, shall be received in evidence, until established by other competent proof.

Subsequent Title.

2672. SEC. 33. If any person shall convey any real estate, by conveyance purporting to convey the same in fee simple absolute, and shall not at the time of such conveyance have the legal estate in such real estate, but shall afterward acquire the same, the legal estate subsequently acquired shall immediately pass to the grantee, and such conveyance shall be valid as if such legal estate had been in the grantor at the time of the conveyance.

Adverse Title.

2673. SEC. 34. Any person claiming title to any real estate may, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof, sell and convey his interest therein in the same manner and with the same effect as if he was in actual possession thereof.

Mortgages and Liens, How Discharged.

MORTGAGE MARKED SATISFIED BY FRAUD OR MISTAKE STILL HOLDS. Gibson v. Milne, 1 Nev. 528.

Discharge.

2675. SEC. 36. Any mortgage shall also be discharged upon the record thereof by the Recorder, in whose custody it shall be, whenever there shall be presented to him a certificate executed by the mortgagee, his personal representative or assignee, acknowledged, or approved and certified, as hereinbefore prescribed, to entitle conveyances to be recorded, specifying that such mortgage has been paid, or otherwise satisfied or discharged.

Discharge to Be Recorded.

2676. SEC. 37. Every such certificate, and the proof or acknowledgment thereof, shall be recorded at full length, and a reference shall be made to the book containing such record, in the minutes of the discharge of such mortgage, made by the Recorder upon the record thereof.

Penalty for Failure to Discharge.

2677. SEC. 38. If any mortgagee, or his personal representative or assignee, as the case may be, after a full performance of the conditions of the mortgage, whether before or after a breach thereof, shall, for the space of seven days after being thereto requested, and after tender of his reasonable charges, refuse or neglect to execute and acknowledge a certificate of discharge or release thereof, he shall be liable to the mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, in the sum of one hundred dollars, and also for all actual damages occasioned by such neglect or refusal.

Conveyances Heretofore Made.

2678. SEC. 39. All conveyances of real estate heretofore made and acknowledged, or proved according to the laws in force at the time of such making and acknowledgment or proof, shall have the same force as evidence, and be recorded in the same manner, and with like effect, as conveyances executed and acknowledged in pursuance of this Act.

Legality Not Affected.

2679. SEC. 40. The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form or record of any conveyance, or other instrument, heretofore made, executed, acknowledged, proved, or recorded, shall not be affected by anything contained in this Act, but shall depend for its validity or legality upon the laws and customs then in existence and in force in the mining and agricultural districts.

Tenancy in Common.

2680. SEC. 41. Every interest in real estate granted or devised to two or more persons, other than executors and trustees, as such, shall be a tenancy in common, unless expressly declared in the grant or devise to be a joint tenancy.

Inheritance.

2681. SEC. 42. The term heirs, or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple; and every conveyance of any real estate hereafter executed shall pass all the estate of the grantor, unless the intent to pass a less estate shall appear by express terms, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant.

Heirs or Issue and Remainders.

2682. SEC. 43. Where a remainder in lands or tenements, goods or chattels, shall be limited by deed or otherwise, to take effect on the death of any person without heirs, or heirs of his or her body, or without issue, the word "heir," or "issue," shall be construed to mean heirs or issue living at the death of the person named as ancestor.

Posthumous Child.

2683. SEC. 44. A future estate, depending on the contingency of the death of any persons without heirs or issue, or children, shall be defeated by the birth of a posthumous child of such person capable of taking by descent.

Estate Tail, Posthumous Child.

2684. SEC. 45. Where an estate shall be by any conveyance limited, in remainder, to the son or daughter or issue, or to use of the son or daughter or issue of any person to be begotten, such son or daughter or issue, born after the decease of his or her father, shall take the estate in the same proportion, and in the same manner, as if he or she had been born in the lifetime of the father, although no estate shall have been created or conveyed to support the contingent remainder after his death.

Attornments Not Necessary.

2685. SEC. 46. Grants of rents, or of reversions, or remainders, shall be good and effectual without attornments of the tenants; but no tenant who, before notice of the grant, shall have paid rent to the grantor, shall suffer any damage thereby.

Attornment, When Void.

2686. SEC. 47. The attornment of a tenant to a stranger shall be void unless it be with the consent of the landlord of such tenant, or in pursuance to, or in consequence of, a judgment or decree of some court of competent jurisdiction.

Warrantees Abolished.

2687. SEC. 48. Lineal and collateral warrantees, with all their incidents, are abolished; but the heirs and devisees of every person who shall have made any covenant or agreement in reference to the title of, in, or to any real estate, shall be answerable upon such covenant or agreement to the extent of the land descended or devised to them, in the cases and in the manner prescribed by law.

Import of "Grant, Bargain and Sell."

Fraudulent Conveyances, When Void.

2689. SEC. 50. Every conveyance of any estate, or interest in lands, or the rents and profits of lands, and every charge upon lands, or upon the rents and profits thereof, made and created, with the intent to defraud prior or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration, of the same lands, rents, or profits, as against such purchasers, shall be void.

When Fraudulent.

2690. SEC. 51. No such conveyance, or charge, shall be deemed fraudulent in favor of a subsequent purchaser, who shall have legal notice thereof at the time of his purchase, unless it shall appear that the grantee in such conveyance, or person to be benefited by such charge, was privy to the fraud intended.

Power of Revocation at Will.

2691. SEC. 52. Every conveyance or charge of or upon any estate, or interest in lands, containing any provision for the revocation, determination, or alteration of such estate or interest, or any part thereof, at the will of the grantor, shall be void, as against subsequent purchasers from said grantor for a valuable consideration, of any estate, or interest, so liable to be revoked, or determined, although the same be not directly revoked, determined, or altered by such grantor, by virtue of the power reserved, or expressed in such prior conveyance or charge.

Revocation and Reconveyance.

2692. SEC. 53. Where a power to revoke a conveyance of lands, or the rents and profits thereof, and to reconvey the same, shall be given to any person other than the grantor in such conveyance, and such person shall thereafter convey the same lands, rents, or profits, to a purchaser for a valuable consideration, such subsequent conveyance shall be valid in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if the power of revocation were recited therein, and the intent to revoke the former conveyance expressly declared.

Same.

2693. SEC. 54. If a conveyance to a purchaser, under either of the last two preceding sections, shall be made before the person making the same shall be entitled to execute his power of revocation, it shall, nevertheless, be valid from the time the power of revocation shall actually vest in such person, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if then made.

Statute of Frauds—Lease for One Year.

2694. SEC. 55. No estate, or interest in lands, other than for leases for a term not exceeding one year, nor any trust or power over or concerning lands, or in any manner relating thereto, shall hereafter be created, granted, assigned, surrendered, or declared, unless by act or operation of law, or by deed or conveyance, in writing, subscribed by the party creating, granting, assigning, surrendering, or declaring the same, or by his lawful agent thereunto authorized in writing.

1. LEASE FOR A YEAR, nor the power to execute it, need not be in writing. Gilson v. Boston, 11 Nev. 413.
2. DECLARATION OF TRUST AS TO LAND MUST BE IN WRITING—DECLARATION OF TRUST MAY BE MADE AT ANY TIME—AS EVIDENCE—EQUITIES OF CESTUI QUE TRUST. Sime v. Howard, 4 Nev. 473.
3. EXPRESS TRUST CANNOT BE CREATED BY PAROL. White v. Sheldon, 4 Nev. 230.
IMPLIED TRUST may be proved by parol. Id.
4. RESULTING TRUST, HOW CREATED AND PROVED. Frederick v. Haas, 5 Nev. 389.
5. MINING PARTNERSHIP—STATUTE OF FRAUDS—PARTNERSHIP CAPITAL. Unless partnership capital is employed in the acquisition of a mining claim, the partnership agreement, unless in writing, is within the statute of frauds. Equitable relief may be given against the partner holding the legal title when the property has been acquired by partnership property upon the theory that a resulting trust exists—a trust arising by operation of law and, therefore, within the exception of the statute. Craw v. Wilson, 22 Nev. 385.
6. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST—PAROL EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE—STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Bowler v. Curier, 21 Nev. 158.
7. A LEGAL INTEREST IN LAND can only be conveyed in this state by means of a deed of conveyance in writing. The right to the enjoyment and repair of a dam, and to have the water so diverted flow through certain land, is such an interest in land as can only be conveyed by deed in writing. Lobdell v. Hall, 3 Nev. 507.
8. PAROL LICENSE, WHEN IRREVOCABLE. A parol license to erect a dam upon another's land for the purpose of running a flouring-mill, is irrevocable after the party to whom the license is given has executed it by erecting the mill, or otherwise expending money upon the faith of the license. Lee v. McLeod, 12 Nev. 280.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS. The expenditure of money in consequence of the license, has the effect of turning such license into an agreement that will be enforced in equity. The execution of the parol license supplies the place of a writing, and takes the case out of the statute of frauds. Id.

Not to Apply to Wills.

2695. SEC. 56. The preceding section shall not be construed to affect in any manner the power of a testator in the disposition of his real estate, by a last will and testament, nor to prevent any trust from arising or being extinguished by implication or operation of law.

Contracts in Writing.

2696. SEC. 57. Every contract for the leasing for a longer period than one year, or for the sale of any lands, or any interest in lands, shall be void, unless the contract, or some note or memorandum thereof, expressing the consideration, be in writing, and be subscribed by the party by whom the lease or sale is to be made.

Agent to Subscribe.

2697. SEC. 58. Every instrument required to be subscribed by any person under the last preceding section may be subscribed by the agent of such party lawfully authorized.

Specific Performance.

2698. SEC. 59. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to abridge the powers of courts to compel the specific performance of agreements in cases of part performance of such agreements.

1. PAROL AGREEMENT—PART PERFORMANCE. Nothing is to be considered as a part performance which does not put the party into a situation which is a fraud upon him, unless the agreement is fully performed. Evans v. Lee, 12 Nev. 393.

IDEM. To entitle a party to take the case out of the statute of frauds, upon the ground of part performance of a parol contract, it is essential that the terms of the contract should be clearly and definitely established. Id.

IDEM. Before the contract can be enforced it must be shown that the party seeking its enforcement has performed, or offered to perform, or been ready and willing to perform, all the essentials of the agreement on his part. Id.

2. CONTRACT VOID BY STATUTE OF FRAUDS—QUANTUM MERUIT. Recovery on quantum meruit may be had for labor and services performed under a contract void by the statute of frauds. Lapham v. Osborne, 20 Nev. 168.

Trusts, When Void.

2699. SEC. 60. All deeds of gift, conveyances, and all transfers or assignments, verbal or written, of goods, chattels, or things in action, made in trust for the use of the person making the same, shall be void as against the creditors, existing or subsequent, of such person.

Agreements Not in Writing, When Void.

2700. SEC. 61. In the following cases every agreement shall be void, unless such agreement, or some note or memorandum thereof, expressing the consideration, be in writing, and subscribed by the party charged therewith: First, every agreement that, by the terms, is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof; second, every special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another; third, every promise or undertaking made upon consideration of marriage, except mutual promises to marry.

1. THE INTENT OF THE STATUTE OF FRAUDS SEEMS TO BE THAT THE WRITING ITSELF, WITHOUT EXTRANEOUS EVIDENCE, SHOULD SHOW THE CONSIDERATION FOR THE GUARANTY. Van Doren v. Tjader, 1 Nev. 380.

The promise to answer for the debt of another, and the consideration for that promise, need not be contained in the same paper, provided the signature of the guarantor can be connected with both. Id.

2. CONTRACT VOID UNDER STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Where the condition precedent of a contract is the delivery and reception of chattels to be kept for two years, and there is no written agreement, the contract is void under the statute of frauds. Buckley v. Buckley, 9 Nev. 373.

3. AGREEMENT NOT IN WRITING. Where the purchaser of real property agrees with the vendor to pay certain incumbrances upon it, as a part of the consideration of the conveyance, the person holding such incumbrance, or the person to whom such payment is to be made, may maintain an action upon such promise or agreement. Ruhling v. Hackett, 1 Nev. 360.

Such an understanding or promise does not come within the statute of frauds, and need not be in writing. Id.

4. EXECUTED CONTRACT. When a contract is fully executed on both sides the rights of the parties become fixed, and neither party can interfere with such rights by pleading the statute of frauds. Cartan v. David, 18 Nev. 310.

5. NOT ANSWERING FOR DEBT OR DEFAULT. Where the vendee of goods, in consideration of the sale, undertakes to pay certain debts to the creditors of the vendor, this is not undertaking to answer for the debt or default of another, but only to pay his own debt in a particular manner. Alcalde v. Morales, 3 Nev. 132.

6. UNDERTAKING—NOT "SPECIAL PROMISE" to answer for debt, default or miscarriage of another. Consideration of, need not be expressed. Lightle v. Berning, 15 Nev. 389.

7. ORAL UNDERTAKING, WHEN NOT WITHIN THE STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Wills v. Bank of Nevada, 23 Nev. 59.

8. STATUTE OF FRAUD—PROMISE TO PAY DEBT OF ANOTHER, WHEN VOID. Simpson v. Harris, 21 Nev. 354.

Sale of Goods—Statute of Frauds.

2701. SEC. 62. Every contract for the sale of any goods, chattels, or things in action, for the price of fifty dollars or over, shall be void unless: First, a note or memorandum of such contract be made in writing, and be subscribed by the parties to be charged therewith; or, second, unless the buyer shall accept or receive part of such goods, or the evidences, or some of them, of such things in action; or, third, unless the buyer shall, at the time, pay some part of the purchase money.

MANUFACTURE NOT SALE. When A contracts to make a certain number of bricks for B, and deliver them to him at a certain price, this is a contract rather for the manufacture than sale of brick, and does not come within the sixty-second section. O'Neil v. Silver Peak M. Co., 3 Nev. 141.

Auction Sale.

2702. SEC. 63. Whenever goods shall be sold at auction, and the auctioneer shall, at the time of sale, enter in a sale-book a memorandum specifying the nature and price of the property sold, the terms of the sale, the name of the purchaser, and the name of the person on whose account the sale is made, such memorandum shall be deemed a note of the contract of sale, within the meaning of the last section.

Sale, When Evidence of Fraud.

2703. SEC. 64. Every sale made by a vendor of goods and chattels in his possession, or under his control, and every assignment of goods and chattels, unless the same be accompanied by an immediate delivery, and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of things sold or assigned, shall be conclusive evidence of fraud, as against the creditors of the vendor, or the creditors of the person making such assignment, or subsequent purchasers in good faith.

1. SALE—DELIVERY OF ORE. Held, that the title passed to the principal when the ores were delivered to the carrier. West v. Humphreys, 21 Nev. 80.

2. SALE—CHANGE OF POSSESSION—DECLARATION OF VENDOR AFTER SALE. Lewis v. Wilcox, 6 Nev. 215.

3. SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY—ACTUAL AND CONTINUED CHANGE OF POSSESSION—STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Where personal property is purchased for a fair consideration: Held, that in order to take the case out of the operation of the statute of frauds, the vendee must take actual possession of the property, the possession must be open, unequivocal, substantial and continuous, and must not be taken to be surrendered back. Gay v. Sullivan, 10 Nev. 416; Twist v. Kelley, 11 Nev. 377; Estey v. Cooke, 12 Nev. 276.

ACTS OF OWNERSHIP—EMPLOYMENT OF SERVANT OF VENDOR, HOW CONSTRUED. Id.

4. ACTUAL POSSESSION—EMPLOYMENT OF CLERK OF VENDOR. The mere fact of the reemployment of the clerk of the vendor by the vendees does not render a sale of personal property invalid. Ivancovich v. Stern, 14 Nev. 342.

5. STATUTE OF FRAUDS—STATUS OF CREDITOR TO ATTACK SALE OF GOODS FOR WANT OF DELIVERY—DELIVERY AND CHANGE OF POSSESSION BEFORE ATTACHMENT. Clute v. Steele, 6 Nev. 235.

6. SALE AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY—CHARCOAL IN PITS—CHANGE OF POSSESSION. WHAT SUFFICIENT. Tognini v. Kyle, 17 Nev. 209.

7. WHAT NOT SUFFICIENT. Comaita v. Kyle, 19 Nev. 38.

8. WANT OF DELIVERY, WHEN CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF FRAUD. Lawrence v. Burnham, 4 Nev. 361.

DELIVERY OF GOODS UNDER STATUTE OF FRAUDS. Id.

9. POSSESSION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY—INCLOSED LAND. The delivery of the possession of inclosed land, carries with it the possession of the personal property—wood and coal—thereon. Ferraris v. Kyle, 19 Nev. 435.

10. SALE—EVIDENCE OF CONTINUED CHANGE OF POSSESSION—STATUTE OF FRAUDS—PROOF OF SALE. Conway v. Edwards, 6 Nev. 190.

Lease of premises as evidence of sale of goods. Id.

11. DELIVERY OF POSSESSION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY—EITHER ACTUAL OR CONSTRUCTIVE. Actual delivery, where possible, is contemplated. Doak v. Brubaker, 1 Nev. 218.

PROPERTY IN POSSESSION OF BAILEE is delivered by order or by the delivery of the receipt, or by obtaining the recognition of the bailee, but when the property is in the possession of an agent or servant, a different rule prevails. Id.

12. "IMMEDIATE DELIVERY" WITHIN THE STATUTE, WHAT CONSTITUTES. Carpenter v. Clark, 2 Nev. 243.

13. CHANGE OF POSSESSION, WHAT CONSTITUTES. Sharon v. Shaw, 2 Nev. 289.

Creditor Defined.

2704. SEC. 65. The term "creditors," as used in the last section, shall be construed to include all persons who shall be creditors of the vendor or assignor at any time while such goods and chattels shall remain in his possession or under his control.

Possession of Mortgaged Property—Authorized to Sell—Lien—Chattel Mortgages Recorded.

2705. SEC. 66. No mortgage of personal property shall be valid for any purpose against any other person than the parties thereto, unless possession of the mortgaged property be delivered to, and retained by, the mortgagee, or, unless the mortgage shall be recorded in the office of the County Recorder of the county where the property is situated, and also in the county where the mortgagor resides. A mortgage upon personal property, including growing crops, executed, acknowledged and recorded, shall be valid against all third parties without such delivery of possession; provided, that no such mortgage shall be valid for any purpose as against other than the parties thereto, unless there be appended or annexed thereto the affidavits of the mortgagor and mortgagee, or some person in their behalf, setting forth that the mortgage is made in good faith, and given for a debt actually owing from the mortgagor, stating the amount and character of such debt, and that the same is not made to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the mortgagor. Any personal property, mortgaged as aforesaid, may be seized under attachment or execution, and the surplus, over and above the mortgage debt, secured to any other creditor of the mortgagor by serving upon the mortgagor and mortgagee, or, in his absence from the county, upon his or their agent or other person in charge or possession of such personal property, a copy of the attachment or execution, or, in case no such person can be found in the county in charge or possession thereof, then by filing a copy of the writ of attachment or execution in the office of [the] County Recorder of the county where such property is situate, with a notice endorsed thereon by the officer executing the same, to the effect that such property is so attached. But the possession of mortgaged personal property shall not be taken from the mortgagor or mortgagee unless full payment of the mortgagee's demand be first made, which, if done by the attaching or executing creditor of the mortgagor, shall entitle him to hold such personal property and the possession thereof, under his levy for repayment to him of the amount so paid, in addition to his own individual demand; and any officer executing any execution is hereby authorized to sell such property for the amount of such mortgage demand, in addition to the amount of the execution, and out of the proceeds of sale to first satisfy such mortgage demand. In case of such levy of attachment or execution upon such mortgaged personal property, when the amount of the mortgage demand is not paid to the mortgagee, the officer may expose such property for sale, and may sell the same subject to the rights of the mortgagee under the mortgage, and the purchaser shall take the property subject to such rights and subject to the possession of the parties to the mortgage. The lien of a mortgagee upon a growing crop shall continue until after the crop shall be harvested and threshed or baled, or otherwise prepared for market, and delivered to the mortgagee or his order; provided, that a chattel mortgage upon a growing crop may be executed as well before as after the crop is planted, and when executed before the crop is planted, it shall be expressed in the mortgage that it is the intention of the parties that the same shall take effect upon the crops when planted. The several County Recorders of this state are hereby authorized and directed to procure for their respective offices, at the expense of the county, suitable books, properly indexed, for the recording of all chattel mortgages, which books shall be plainly labeled and marked "Records of Chattel Mortgages." All chattel mortgages shall be recorded therein, and such books shall, at all times, be open to the public for inspection, and the mortgages therein recorded shall be canceled and discharged in the same manner as mortgages on real property are canceled and discharged. The Recorder of the several counties shall receive for recording chattel mortgages, indexing and releasing the same, the same fees as are allowed them for mortgages on real estate; provided, that no chattel mortgage shall be given or be valid for a less sum than one hundred dollars. As amended, Stats. 1869, 55; 1885, 53; 1887, 66.

1. CHATTEL MORTGAGE—DELIVERY AND POSSESSION OF CORD WOOD—WHEN NOT SUFFICIENT. Wilson v. Hill, 17 Nev. 401.
2. CHATTEL MORTGAGE—FAILURE TO RECORD—ACTUAL NOTICE. An unrecorded mortgage, where there is no delivery of the property, is void as to all creditors of the mortgagor, even though they have actual notice of the existence of such mortgage. Simpson v. Harris, 21 Nev. 353.
- DELAY IN RECORDING—CREDITOR'S RIGHTS. Id.
3. CHATTEL MORTGAGE—AFFIDAVIT TO—NOTICE. Lutz v. Kinney, 23 Nev. 279.
4. MORTGAGE VOID PER SE. Lutz v. Kinney, 24 Nev.
5. AFFIDAVIT TO CHATTEL MORTGAGE. Streeter v. Johnson, 23 Nev. 194.

Bottomry, Respondentia, etc.

2706. SEC. 67. Nothing contained in the last three sections shall be construed to apply to contracts of bottomry, respondentia, or assignments or hypothecations of vessels, or goods at sea, or in foreign states, or without this territory; provided, the assignee, or mortgagee, shall take possession of such goods as soon as may be, after the arrival thereof within this territory.

Agent to Subscribe.

2707. SEC. 68. Every instrument required by any of the provisions of this Act to be subscribed by any party, may be subscribed by the lawful agent of such party.

Contracts Void, When.

2708. SEC. 69. Every conveyance, or assignment, in writing, or otherwise, of any estate or interests in lands, or in goods in action, or of any rents or profits issuing therefrom, and every charge upon lands, goods, or things in action, or upon the rents and profits thereof, made with the intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors or other persons of their lawful suits, damages, forfeitures, debts or demands, and every bond, or other evidence of debt given, suits commenced, decree, or judgment suffered, with the like intent, as against the persons hindered, delayed or defrauded, shall be void.

1. STATUTE OF FRAUDS—PROMISSORY NOTE—HINDERING, DELAYING AND DEFRAUDING CREDITORS. McCausland v. Ralston, 12 Nev. 195.
2. KNOWLEDGE OF FRAUDULENT INTENTION on the part of the vendor must be shown in vendee to avoid the sale. Gregory v. Frothingham, 1 Nev. 253.
- SALE WITHOUT RELINQUISHING POSSESSION. Id.
3. SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY, WHEN VOID—FRAUDULENT INTENT—KNOWLEDGE OF VENDEE. When a sale of personal property is made by the vendor with the intent to hinder, delay and defraud his creditors, and the purchaser has knowledge of such intention, the sale is void. Greenwell v. Nash, 13 Nev. 286.
- KNOWLEDGE OF VENDEE, HOW DETERMINED. Id.
4. EFFECT OF CONVEYANCE MADE TO DEFRAUD CREDITORS. Allison v. Hagan, 12 Nev. 38.
5. SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY MADE TO HINDER, DELAY AND DEFRAUD CREDITORS. Fraudulent grantors cannot rely upon their own fraud. Maher v. Swift, 14 Nev. 324.
6. SALE, FRAUDULENT, when made to hinder, delay or defraud creditors. Ivancovich v. Stern, 14 Nev. 342.

WHEN NOT FRAUDULENT. A debtor has a right to protect his property from being sacrificed, provided he does not do so at the expense of his creditors. Where a sale is made to a party who agrees to immediately pay all the vendor's creditors in full, the transaction is not fraudulent. Id.

Grants of Trust, When Void.

2709. SEC. 70. Every grant or assignment, of any existing trust in lands, goods, or things in action, unless the same shall be in writing, subscribed by the person making the same, or by his agent lawfully authorized, shall be void.

Instruments, When Void.

2710. SEC. 71. Every conveyance, charge, instrument, or proceeding, declared to be void by the provisions of this Act, as against creditors, or purchasers, shall be equally void as against the heirs, successors, personal representatives, or assigns of such creditors or purchasers.

Fraud a Question of Fact.

2711. SEC. 72. The question of fraudulent intent, in all cases arising under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed a question of fact, and not of law; nor shall any conveyance or charge be adjudged fraudulent, as against creditors or purchasers, solely on the ground that it was not founded on a valuable consideration.

Not to Affect Purchaser for Value.

2712. SEC. 73. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed in any manner to affect or impair the title of a purchaser for a valuable consideration, unless it shall appear that such purchaser had previous notice of the fraudulent intent of his immediate grantor, or of the fraud rendering void the title of such grantor.

Lands Defined.

2713. SEC. 74. The term "lands," as used in this Act, shall be construed as coextensive in meaning with lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and shall include in its meaning all possessory right to the soil for mining and other purposes, and the term "estate and interest in lands," shall be construed and embrace every estate and interest, present and future, vested and contingent, in lands as above defined.

Conveyance Defined.

2714. SEC. 75. The term "conveyance," as used in this Act, shall be construed to embrace every instrument in writing, except a last will and testament, whatever may be its form, and by whatever name it may be known in law, by which any estate or interest in lands is created, aliened, assigned or surrendered.

Mortgage Recorded.

2715. SEC. 76. A mortgage for a good and valuable consideration upon possessory claims to public lands, all buildings and improvements upon such lands, all quartz and mining claims, and all such personal property as shall be fixed in its structure to the soil, acknowledged in manner and form as mortgages upon real estate are required by law to be acknowledged and recorded in the office of the Recorder in the county in which the property is situated, shall have the same effect against third persons as mortgages upon real estate.

Mining Rules.

2716. SEC. 77. This Act shall not be so construed as to interfere or conflict with the lawful mining rules, regulations, or customs in regard to the locating, holding, or forfeiture of claims, but, in all cases of mortgages of mining interests under this Act, the mortgagee shall have the right to perform the same acts that the mortgagor might have performed for the purpose of preventing a forfeiture of the same under the said rules, regulations, or customs of mines, and shall be allowed such compensation therefor as shall be deemed just and equitable by the court ordering the sale upon a foreclosure; provided, that such compensation shall, in no case, exceed the amount realized from the claim by a foreclosure and sale.

Limitation of Leases.

2717. SEC. 78. No lands within this territory shall hereafter be conveyed by lease, or otherwise, except in fee and perpetual succession, for a longer period than ten years; nor shall any town or city lots, or other real property, be so conveyed for a longer time than twenty years. All leases hereafter made, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be void.

An Act supplementary to an Act concerning conveyances.

Approved December 17, 1862, 29.

County Records Impart Notice.

2718. SECTION 1. All instruments of writing now copied into the proper books of record of the office of the County Recorders of the several counties of this territory, shall, after the passage of this Act be deemed to impart to subsequent purchasers and incumbrancers, and all other persons whomsoever, notice of all deeds, mortgages, powers of attorney, contracts, conveyances, or other instruments, notwithstanding any defect, omission, or informality existing in the execution, acknowledgment, or certificate of recording the same; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any rights heretofore acquired in the hands of subsequent grantees or assignees.

Certified Copies.

2719. SEC. 2. Duly certified copies of such instruments as are embraced in section one of this Act may be read in evidence, under the same circumstances and rules as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for using copies of instruments duly executed and recorded; provided, that proof shall be first made that the instruments, copies of which it is proposed to use, were genuine instruments, and were in truth executed by the grantor or grantors therein named.

An Act to provide for the conveyance of mining claims.

Approved December 12, 1862, 12.

Conveyance of Mining Claim.

2720. SECTION 1. Conveyance of mining claims shall hereafter require the same formalities and be subject to the same rules of construction as the transfers and conveyances of other real estate.

1. THE WORDS "MINING GROUND," when used in a deed, have a technical meaning. They refer to that interest which a mere occupant of the mine has in the same. They are not the words used when a fee simple or leasehold interest in real estate is to be conveyed. Hale & Norcross G. and S. M. Co. v. Storey Co., 1 Nev. 105.
2. SALE OF MINE BY ANOTHER NAME. When a person conveys a lode of ore, we have only to ascertain by the best means in our power what lode he meant; and if we can do so, it makes no difference that he has called it by a name illegitimately acquired by or applied to it. Phillipotts v. Blasdel, 8 Nev. 61.

Former Conveyances Construed.

2721. SEC. 2. All conveyances of mining claims heretofore made by bills of sale or other instruments in writing, with or without seals, recorded or unrecorded, shall be construed in accordance with the lawful local rules, regulations, and customs of the miners in the several mining districts of this territory; and if heretofore regarded valid and binding in such districts, shall have the same force and effect between the parties thereto, as prima facie evidence of sale, as if such conveyances had been made by deed under seal.

How Proved.

2722. SEC. 3. The location and transfers of mining claims heretofore made shall be established and proved in contestation before courts, by the local rules, regulations, or customs of the miners in the several mining districts of the territory in which such location and transfers were made.

An Act concerning conveyances of mining locations and claims by minors.

Approved February 27, 1869, 96.

Deed of Minor Held Valid—Suits Pending.

2723. SECTION 1. In all cases in this state, since the first day of July, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, where minors over the age of eighteen years have sold interests acquired by them in mining claims or locations by virtue of their having located such claims, or having been located therein by others, and have executed deeds purporting to convey such interests, such deeds, if otherwise sufficient in law, shall be held valid and sufficient to convey such interest fully and completely, notwithstanding the minority of the grantor, and without any power or right of subsequent revocation; provided, that this section shall not apply to cases where any fraud was practiced upon such minor, or any undue or improper advantage was taken by his purchaser or any other person to induce such minor to execute such deed; and, provided further, that this section shall not apply to or affect any suits which may now be pending in any courts of this state, in which the legality or validity of such deeds may be involved.

Minors Empowered to Sell or Convey.

2724. SEC. 2. All minors in this state, over the age of eighteen years, are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey by deed such interests as they may have acquired, or may hereafter acquire, in mining claims or mining locations within this state, by virtue of locating the same, or being located therein, and such deed shall, if otherwise sufficient in law, be held valid and sufficient to convey such interest fully and completely, and without the right of subsequent revocation, notwithstanding the minority of the grantor, subject, however, to the same provisions and limitations contained in the first section of this Act.

An Act to authorize and empower aliens and non-resident persons and incorporations to take, hold, enjoy, and acquire real estate in the State of Nevada.

Approved February 27, 1879, 51.

Persons to Take, Hold and Own Property.

2725. SECTION 1. Any non-resident alien, person, or corporation, except subjects of the Chinese empire, may take, hold, and enjoy any real property, or any interest in lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the State of Nevada, as fully, freely, and upon the same terms and conditions as any resident citizen, person, or domestic corporation.

Rights Granted.

2726. SEC. 2. The right of eminent domain is hereby granted to such non-resident or foreign corporations, upon the same terms and conditions as the same is granted to resident or domestic corporations.

How Construed.

2727. SEC. 3. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer any other or further rights under the statutes of limitation than those at present existing.

ALIEN—RIGHT TO POSSESSION OF PUBLIC LAND. An alien will be protected in the possession of the public lands, the same as a citizen, against mere naked trespassers who do not connect themselves with the government title. Courtney v. Turner, 12 Nev. 345.

An Act concerning conveyances executed without the state.

Approved February 13, 1871, 54.

Acknowledgments Taken Out of the State.

2728. SECTION 1. The proof or acknowledgment of every conveyance affecting any real estate, taken without this state, but within the United States, shall be taken by some one of the following officers: A Judge or Clerk of a court having a seal, or some Notary Public or Justice of the Peace, or by any Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this state, for that purpose; provided, that when the acknowledgment is taken by a Justice of the Peace, the same shall be accompanied with the certificate of the Clerk of a court of record of the county having a seal as to the official character of the Justice and the authenticity of his signature.

See, also, Sec. 2642.

Record Valid.

2729. SEC. 2. All acknowledgments of proofs heretofore taken of the execution of any instrument authorized by law to be recorded, acknowledged or proven and certified, or which may have been certified in the manner hereinabove provided, the record thereof now or hereafter made shall be valid and of like force and effect as if proven before the officer and certified to in the manner heretofore required by law; provided, that nothing herein shall affect any right of a bona fide purchaser, or any right acquired by operation of law, prior to the passage of this Act.

An Act to provide for preserving the evidence of the official acts of officers taking acknowledgments, etc.

Approved February 20, 1869, 72.

Officers Required to Keep Record.

2730. SECTION 1. Each officer authorized by law to take the proof or acknowledgment of the execution of conveyances of real estate, or other instrument required by law to be proved or acknowledged, shall keep a record of all his official acts in relation thereto in a book to be provided by him for that purpose, in which shall be entered the date of the proof or acknowledgment thereof, the date of the instrument, the name or character of the instrument proved or acknowledged, and the names of each of the parties thereto, as grantor, grantee, or otherwise. Said record shall, during business hours, be open to public inspection without fee or reward.

Penalty for Refusal or Neglect.

2731. SEC. 2. Any officer aforesaid refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this Act shall be deemed and held guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, fined before any court of competent jurisdiction in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and shall, in addition, be liable on his official bond in damages to any person injured by such refusal or neglect to the extent of the injury sustained by reason of the refusal or neglect mentioned in this section.

An Act for the relief of purchasers at sales of real estate, or any interest therein, by public officers.

Approved December 12, 1862, 13.

Officers' Deeds.

2732. SECTION 1. Where lands, or any estate or interest therein have been or may hereafter be sold by a Sheriff or Constable, or other authorized officer, for taxes, or under an execution or order of sale, and the purchaser or his assigns may be entitled to a deed, and the Sheriff or other officer who made the sale shall have died, or shall be absent from the territory, or in any way disqualified, it shall be lawful for the successor of the said Sheriff or Constable, or other officer to make such deed to such purchaser, his assignee or assignees, in the same manner and with the same effect as if made by the officer making the sale.

Effect of Deed.

2733. SEC. 2. Such deeds, so made as aforesaid, shall have the same force and effect as evidence as if made by the officer making such sale.

An Act to provide for marks instead of signatures.

Approved December 17, 1862, 33.

Marks Instead of Signatures.

2734. SECTION 1. The signature of a party, when required to a written instrument, shall be equally valid if the party cannot write, provided the person make his mark, the name of the person making the mark being written near it, and the mark being witnessed by a person who writes his own name as a witness.

An Act to provide for the omission of the word "seal," the letters "L. S.," and other words, letters, or characters of like import on instruments in writing.

Approved February 20, 1883, 45.

Seal Unnecessary.

2735. SECTION 1. The word "seal," and the initial letters "L. S.," and other words, letters, or characters of like import, opposite the name of the signer of any instrument in writing, are hereby declared unnecessary to give such instrument legal effect, and any omission to use them by the signer of any instrument shall not be construed to impair the validity of such instrument.

An Act concerning records now in the custody of County Recorders of this state.

Approved February 20, 1873, 63.

Records to Impart Notice.

2736. SECTION 1. COMMERCIAL LAW AND PARTNERSHIP.

An Act concerning the payment in money of debts and other obligations.

Approved February 15, 1893, 121.

Legal Money.

2738. SECTION 1. On and after the passage of this Act, all official bonds and undertakings, and also all obligations of debt, judgments or executions stated in terms of dollars and to be paid in money, shall be payable in either the standard silver or gold coins or other legal money authorized by the Congress of the United States. As amended, Stats. 1895, 13.

An Act concerning the liabilities of joint debtors.

Approved February 15, 1866, 67.

Joint Debtor May Be Released.

2739. SECTION 1. Any one of two or more joint debtors, or parties jointly, or jointly and severally, bound by any contract or judgment, may be released from his, her, or its liability upon such contract or judgment by the creditor or creditors, and such release shall not operate, nor be held to operate, in law as a release to the other debtor or debtors upon such contract or judgment, except as to the released debtor's proportion of such liability or debt, estimated upon the basis of the number of such debtors; but such release shall operate only as a release of all liability of such debtor to the creditor in such contract or judgment, and as a credit upon the same of such proportionate sum as herein provided.

Hoppin v. First Nat. Bank, 24 Nev.

Not Necessary to Action.

2740. SEC. 2. It shall not be necessary to make the party released, as provided in the foregoing section, a party to any action upon such contract, but the creditor or creditors aforesaid may pursue the remaining debtors for the remaining portion of such debt, the same as though no such release had been made.

Credit on Judgment.

2741. SEC. 3. In case a release as aforesaid be made to any judgment debtor by the judgment creditor, the Judge or Justice shall order the proper credit, as aforesaid, made upon such judgment, and that such debtor be released from liability upon the same.

An Act in relation to money of account and interest.

Approved November 28, 1861, 99.

Money.

2742. SECTION 1. The money of account of this territory shall be the dollar, cent and mill; and all the accounts in the public offices, and other public accounts, and all proceedings in courts, shall be kept and had in conformity to this regulation.

Accounts Not Vitiated.

2743. SEC. 2. Nothing contained in the preceding section shall vitiate or affect any account, charge or entry originally made, or any note, bond or other instrument, expressed in any other money of account, but the same shall be reduced to dollars, or parts of dollars, as hereinbefore directed, in any suit thereupon.

Judgments, How Computed.

2744. SEC. 3. In all judgments and decrees, rendered by any court of justice, for any debt, damages, or costs, and in all executions issued thereon, the amount shall be computed, as near as may be, in dollars and cents, rejecting smaller fractions, and no judgment, or other proceedings, shall be considered erroneous for such omission.

Legal Interest.

2745. SEC. 4. When there is no express contract, in writing, fixing a different rate of interest, interest shall be allowed at the rate of seven per cent per annum for all moneys after they become due on any bond bill or promissory note, or other instrument of writing, on any judgment recovered before any court in this state for money lent, for money due on the settlement of accounts from the day on which the balance is ascertained, and from money received to the use of another. As amended, Stats. 1887, 82.

INTEREST ON JUDGMENTS—STATUTE CONSTRUED. Section 4 means that interest shall be allowed at the legal rate on all moneys after they become due, on any judgment recovered before any court in this state. State v. D. V. Stock and Land Co., 21 Nev. 88.

Compound Interest Not Given.

2746. SEC. 5. Parties may agree, in writing, for the payment of any rate of interest whatever on money due, or to become due, on any contract. Any judgment rendered on such contract, shall conform thereto, and shall bear the interest agreed upon by the parties, and which shall be specified in the judgment; provided, only the amount of the original claim or demand shall draw interest after judgment.

1. INTEREST, AS SUCH, TO BE COLLECTED ONLY WHERE AUTHORIZED BY STATUTE. Interest, as such, can only be collected where authorized by statute. In an action upon contract, where there has been no settlement and the balance due upon the contract is uncertain and undetermined, interest cannot be collected. Vietti v. Nesbitt, 22 Nev. 390.
2. INTEREST NOT ALLOWED ON AN OPEN ACCOUNT. Judgment allowing such interest, where there is no special agreement, is so far erroneous. Flannery v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 437.
3. INTEREST ON BALANCE OF ACCOUNT—BALANCE ASCERTAINED BY PLEADING. Where an answer admitted an account for goods sold and delivered: Held, that such answer amounted to an ascertainment of the balance of account, and that under the statute interest was due from that time upon such balance. Skinker v. Clute, 9 Nev. 342.
4. CONTRACT AS TO INTEREST. When a party borrows money and agrees to pay a certain rate of interest until due, the contract is broken when the day of payment is passed and the note remains unpaid. After breach, in the absence of a continuing contract as to interest, the statute fixes the damages to be recovered. McLane v. Abrams, 2 Nev. 199; Cox v. Smith, 1 Nev. 161.
5. INTEREST EXCEEDING LEGAL RATE CANNOT BE RECOVERED UNLESS THE PROMISE TO PAY IT BE IN WRITING. Williams v. Glasgow, 1 Nev. 533.
6. INTEREST TO BE RECOVERED MUST BE INSERTED IN THE JUDGMENT. If a party claims, and is entitled to, any interest, it should be inserted in the judgment. Solen v. V. & T. R. Co., 15 Nev. 313.
- INTEREST ALLOWED IN ACTIONS EX DELICTO. Interest is allowable upon the amount of a judgment recovered in an action ex delicto. Id.
7. COMPOUND INTEREST NOT SANCTIONED. Cox v. Smith, 1 Nev. 161.
8. INTEREST AS DAMAGES IN REPLEVIN CASE. Blackie v. Cooney, 8 Nev. 41.
9. INTEREST TO BE RECOVERED MUST BE INSERTED IN THE JUDGMENT. If a party claims, and is entitled to, any interest, it should be inserted in the judgment. Solen v. V. & T. R. Co., 15 Nev. 313.
10. PARTNERSHIP—PROPERTY APPROPRIATED BY ONE MEMBER OF FIRM. INTEREST ALLOWED. Folsom v. Marlette, 23 Nev. 460.
- ADVANCEMENT FOR BENEFIT OF FIRM, WHAT IS—INTEREST ALLOWED. Id.

An Act relative to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

Approved October 31, 1861, 4.

When Negotiable.

2747. SECTION 1. All notes in writing, made and signed by any person, whereby he shall promise to pay to any other person, or to his order, or to the order of any other person, or unto the bearer, any sum of money therein mentioned, shall be due and payable as therein expressed, and shall have the same effect and be negotiable in like manner as inland bills of exchange, according to the custom of merchants.

When Valid.

2748. SEC. 2. Every such note, signed by the agent of any person, under a general or special authority, shall bind such person, and shall have the same effect and be negotiable, as above provided.

"Persons" Construed.

2749. SEC. 3. The word "person," in the last two preceding sections, shall be construed to extend to every corporation capable by law of making contracts.

Suit May Be Maintained.

2750. SEC. 4. The payees and indorsees of every such note, payable to them or their order, and the holders of every such note payable to bearer, may maintain actions for the sums of money therein mentioned against the makers and indorsees of the same respectively, in like manner as in cases of inland bills of exchange, and not otherwise.

Fictitious Persons.

2751. SEC. 5. Such notes, made payable to the maker thereof or to the order of a fictitious person, shall, if negotiated by the maker, have the same effect and be of the same validity as against the maker, and all persons having knowledge of the facts, as if payable to the bearer.

Acceptance in Writing.

2752. SEC. 6. No person within this territory shall be charged as an acceptor on a bill of exchange unless his acceptance shall be in writing, signed by himself or his lawful agent.

On Separate Paper.

2753. SEC. 7. If such acceptance be written on a paper other than the bill, it shall not bind the acceptor, except in favor of a person to whom such acceptance shall have been shown, and who, on the faith thereof, shall have received the bill for a valuable consideration.

Promise to Accept.

2754. SEC. 8. An unconditional promise, in writing, to accept a bill before it is drawn, shall be deemed an actual acceptance in favor of any person who, upon the faith thereof, shall have received the bill for a valuable consideration.

Refusal to Accept.

2755. SEC. 9. Every holder of a bill, presenting the same for acceptance, may require that the acceptance be written on the bill; a refusal to comply with such request shall be deemed a refusal to accept, and the bill may be protested for non-acceptance.

Damages for Not Accepting.

2756. SEC. 10. The last four sections shall not be construed to impair the right of any person to whom a promise to accept a bill may have been made, and who, on the faith of such promise, shall have drawn or negotiated the bill, to recover damages of the party making such promise, on his refusal to accept such bill.

Constructive Acceptance.

2757. SEC. 11. Every person upon whom a bill of exchange is drawn, and to whom the same is delivered for acceptance, who shall destroy such bill, or refuse, within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the bill accepted or non-accepted to the holder, shall be deemed to have accepted the same.

Damages on Protested Bills.

2758. SEC. 12. The rate of damages to be allowed and paid upon the usual protest for non-payment of bills of exchange, drawn or negotiated within this territory, shall be as follows: 1. If such bill shall have been drawn upon any person or persons, in any of the United States east of the Rocky mountains, fifteen dollars upon the hundred upon the principal sum specified in such bill. 2. If such bill shall have been drawn upon any person or persons in any port or place in Europe, or in any foreign country, twenty dollars upon the hundred upon the principal sum specified in such bill.

Interest.

2759. SEC. 13. Such damages shall be in lieu of interest, charges of protest, and all other charges incurred previous to and at the time of giving notice of non-payment; but the holder of such bill shall be entitled to demand and recover lawful interest upon the aggregate amount of the principal sum specified in such bill, and of the damages thereon, from the time at which notice of protest for non-payment shall have been given and payment of such principal sum shall have been demanded.

Rates of Exchange.

2760. SEC. 14. If the contents of such bill be expressed in money of account of the United States, the amount due thereon, and of the damages herein allowed for the non-payment thereof, shall be ascertained and determined without any reference to the rate of exchange existing between this territory and the place on which such bill shall have been drawn at the time of the demand of payment or of notice of non-payment.

In Foreign Currency.

2761. SEC. 15. If the contents of such bill be expressed in the money of account or currency of any foreign country, then the amount due, exclusive of the damages payable thereon, shall be ascertained and determined by the rate of exchange, or the value of such foreign currency at the time of the demand of payment.

Damages for Non-Acceptance.

2762. SEC. 16. When a bill of exchange shall be protested for non-acceptance, the same rate of damages shall be allowed on the protest for non-acceptance as provided in the last four sections, and shall be in lieu of interest, charges of protest, and all other charges incurred previous to and at the time of giving notice of non-acceptance; but the holder shall be entitled to recover interest upon the aggregate amount of the principal sum specified in the bill, and of the damages thereon, from the time at which notice of protest for non-acceptance shall have been given.

By Whom Recovered.

2763. SEC. 17. The damages allowed by this Act shall be recovered only by the holder of the bill, who shall have purchased the same, or some interest therein, for a valuable consideration.

Notice of Dishonor.

2764. SEC. 18. In all cases where a notice of non-acceptance of a bill of exchange, or non-payment of a bill of exchange, promissory note, or other negotiable instrument, may be given, by sending the same by mail, it shall be sufficient if such notice be directed to the city or town where the person sought to be charged by such notice resided at the time of drawing, making, or indorsing such bill of exchange, promissory note, or other negotiable instrument, unless such person, at the time of affixing his signature to such bill, note, or other negotiable instrument, shall, in addition thereto, specify thereon the postoffice to which he may require the notice to be addressed.

Not to Apply.

2765. SEC. 19. Nothing in this Act shall apply to bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, made or drawn before this Act takes effect.

1. NEGOTIABLE NOTE—RIGHTS OF PLEDGEE AND OF OWNER. A pledgee of a negotiable note, as collateral security, is entitled to be protected as a bona fide holder to the same extent as one who becomes the absolute owner, and may maintain suit therein in his own name as the real party in interest. The only difference between the rights of such parties is that the absolute owner may recover in full, while the pledgee, if there be equities, is restricted to the extent of his advances. Hayden v. Nicoletti, 18 Nev. 290.

IDEM—PARTNERSHIP—EVIDENCE OF. A negotiable note, payable to two or more persons jointly, is no evidence that it is owned in partnership; nor is the fact that such note is in the actual possession of one of the payees such evidence. Evidence reviewed: Held, that no partnership or agency existed between the payees of the notes in question. Id.

IDEM—TITLE. Title to a negotiable note, payable to order, passes only by indorsement and delivery. Id.

IDEM—INDORSEMENT BY ONE PAYEE. A negotiable note, payable to two or more persons jointly, indorsed by only one of the payees, is subject to any equities in favor of the maker, the same as though it had not been indorsed by either. Such a note is payable to all the payees, or to their joint order, and cannot be transferred except by the joint indorsement of all the payees. Id.

2. PROMISSORY NOTE—EXISTENCE OF PARTIES. There must be two parties to every promissory note: a maker and a payee. If the payee is not in esse, there is no note. Wayman v. Torreyson, 4 Nev. 124.

NOTE PAYABLE TO FICTITIOUS PAYEE NOT GOOD. Id.

3. INDORSER. Where a note is made by A to B, and by B indorsed to C, B is a regular indorser and entitled to all rights, and only subject to the liabilities of an indorser, although it may have been agreed in advance of the execution of the note that A was to make, and B to indorse the note, for the benefit of C. Heintzelman v. L'Amoureux, 3 Nev. 377.

4. PROMISSORY NOTE—PAYMENT OF BY SURETY—RIGHTS OF SURETY. Where a surety pays a promissory note, and has the same assigned to him, and commences an action upon the note: Held, that he is entitled to maintain an action of implied assumpsit for the amount paid, but he cannot sustain an action upon the note. Frevert v. Henry, 14 Nev. 191.

5. INDORSEMENT. There can be no strict indorsement of a negotiable promissory note, except by the payee or indorsee. Van Doren v. Tjader, 1 Nev. 380.

NOTICE. A guarantor of a promissory note will not be discharged by the failure of the holder to demand payment and give strict notice of non-payment. Reasonable notice of the dishonor of the note is all that he is entitled to. Id.

CONTRACT OF GUARANTY, though made at the time of the principal contract and upon the same consideration, must, nevertheless, be in writing, signed by the party to be charged, and must express the consideration which sustains it. Id.

6. ENDORSEE OF PROMISSORY NOTE—RIGHT OF—TRANSFERRED CAUSA MORTIS—DONOR OR HIS REPRESENTATIVES ALONE TO QUESTION. Where a note has been regularly endorsed and delivered by the payee to the endorsee, neither the maker of the note nor his creditors can challenge the right of the endorsee to receive payment thereof, upon the grounds that the endorsement was made causa mortis, and that the gift had been subsequently revoked by the recovery of the donor. Only the donor or his legal representatives could make such defense. Hulley v. Chedic, 22 Nev. 128.

7. PAROL TESTIMONY. When there is anything on the face of a note or bill of exchange showing that the party signing is acting for another, and not himself, parol testimony may be introduced to bind the principal. Gillig v. Lake Bigler Road Co., 2 Nev. 214.

8. CONSIDERATION OF NOTE GIVEN BY AGENT—WHEN SUFFICIENT. Estis v. Simpson, 13 Nev. 472.

9. PARTNERSHIP—PROMISSORY NOTES—PRESUMPTION. Where the notes are given in the firm name the legal presumption is, that they were executed for a partnership purpose, and the burden of proof is upon defendants to establish the contrary. Davis v. Cook, 14 Nev. 265.

10. NOTES OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, WHEN BINDING. Douglas v. Virginia City, 5 Nev. 247.

11. NOTE EXECUTED IN FIRM NAME. A party can only be bound on a note executed in a firm name who is actually a member of the firm executing the same, or has held himself out as a member so as to give the firm credit on his responsibility. Sargent v. Collins, 3 Nev. 260.

An Act in relation to bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments.

Approved December 19, 1862, 80.

Negotiable Instruments, When Due.

2766. SECTION 1. All bills of exchange, checks, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, which by the terms thereof, are payable with or without grace, if the day for the payment thereof shall fall on any Sunday, or on any of the holidays designated in that certain Act entitled "An Act to designate the holidays to be observed in the acceptance and payment of bills of exchange and promissory notes," approved October thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, the same shall become due and payable on the day previous to any of the days aforesaid.

An Act to designate the holidays to be observed in the acceptance and payment of bills of exchange and promissory notes.

Approved October 30, 1861, 1.

Holidays Designated.

2767. SECTION 1. The following days, namely: The first day of January, Washington's Birthday, or the twenty-second day of February, the Fourth day of July, Thanksgiving Day on the proclamation of the Governor, the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas Day, shall for all purposes whatsoever as regards the presenting for payment, or acceptance, and of the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, checks, and promissory notes, made after the passage of this Act, be treated and considered as is the first day of the week, usually called Sunday. Three days, commonly called days of grace, shall be allowed, except on sight bills or drafts; and any one of the holidays specified in this Act coming within the three days of grace shall be counted as one of such days.

PARTNERSHIP.

An Act requiring partners transacting business in this state to file certificate of partnership with names of each individual comprising the same.

Approved February 9, 1887, 46.

File With County Clerk—Publication.

2768. SECTION 1. Every partnership transacting business in this state under a fictitious name or a designation not showing the names of the persons interested as partners in such business, must file with the Clerk of the county in which the said partnership is carrying on business, a certificate, stating the names in full of the members of such partnership and their places of residence, and publish the same once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county, if there be one, and if there be none in such county, then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county.

Certificate Must Be Filed.

2769. SEC. 2. The certificate filed with the Clerk, as provided in section one of this Act, must be signed by the partners and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of conveyances of real property. Where the partnership is hereafter formed, the certificate must be filed, and the publication designated in that section must be made within one month after the formation of the partnership, or within one month from the time designated in the agreement of its members for the commencement of the partnership; where the partnership has been heretofore formed, the certificate must be filed and the publication made within two months after the passage of this Act. Persons doing business as partners contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall not maintain any action upon, or on account of any contracts made or transactions had in their partnership name, in any court of this state, until they have first filed the certificate and made the publication herein required.

New Certificate.

2770. SEC. 3. On every change in the members of a partnership transacting business in this state under a fictitious name or a designation which does not show the names of the persons interested as partners in its business, a new certificate must be filed with the County Clerk, and a new publication made, as required in this Act, on the formation of such partnership.

Clerk to Keep Register.

2771. SEC. 4. Every County Clerk must keep a register of the names of firms and persons mentioned in the certificates filed with him, pursuant to this Act, entering in alphabetical order the name of every such partnership and of each partner therein, and he shall charge for each name so entered the sum of twenty-five cents, to be collected as other fees, which shall be full compensation for filing and registration.

Evidence of Fact.

2772. SEC. 5. Copies of the entries of a County Clerk, as herein directed, when certified by him, and affidavits of publication as herein directed made by the printer, publisher or chief clerk of a newspaper, are prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated; provided, that this Act shall not apply to any incorporation duly created and existing under and by virtue of the laws governing and providing for the creation of incorporations in this state and now engaged or hereafter to be engaged in doing business in this state.

1. ULTIMATE FACTS SHOWING PARTNERSHIP AS BETWEEN PARTNERS. As between partners the ultimate facts whence a partnership is deduced are first, the agreement, and second, its execution; summed up as the executed agreement: there can be no partnership between parties, so far as they solely are concerned, without a consent thereto and a fulfillment thereof. Groves v. Tallman, 8 Nev. 178.

2. PARTNERSHIP CONTRACTS JOINT. Partnership obligations are joint in their nature at least to the extent that one partner may always take advantage of the non-joinder of his copartner in an action on a partnership contract. Tinkum v. O'Neale, 5 Nev. 93.

JUDGMENT AGAINST ONE PARTNER BARS ACTION AGAINST HIS COPARTNER. A judgment against one partner upon a partnership contract merges the debt and constitutes a bar to a subsequent action for the same breach against his copartners. Id.

ACTION AGAINST PARTNER WHERE COPARTNER DISCHARGED IN BANKRUPTCY. Where one of two partners is discharged in bankruptcy, the other may be proceeded against alone. Id.

3. PARTNERSHIP IN REAL ESTATE—BURDEN OF PROOF AS TO OWNERSHIP. Hogle v. Lowe, 12 Nev. 286.

REAL ESTATE, WHEN PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY. Id.

4. POWER OF PARTNERS TO BORROW MONEY. A general partner in a mercantile business may borrow money for the benefit of the firm, and pledge its credit therefor, unless restrained by the articles of copartnership, of which the lender has notice. Roney v. Buckland, 4 Nev. 45.

5. PARTNERS—NOT BOUND BY MORTGAGE OF COPARTNER. Arnold v. Stevenson, 2 Nev. 234.

6. REAL ESTATE—PURCHASE OF BY ONE PARTNER. The purchase of real estate may or may not be within the scope of the partnership business. Davis v. Cook, 14 Nev. 265.

PURCHASE IN FIRM NAME BINDING. Plaintiff need not inquire as to consent of other partners. Id.

7. PARTNERS, JOINT TENANTS. Partners are quasi joint tenants, the survivor having a peculiar, qualified survivorship. Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 288.

A partner cannot sell his interest in partnership property so as to deprive his copartners of their lien thereon for partnership liabilities. Nor can a mortgage executed by one partner have such effect. Id.

8. PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT THE RIGHT OF REDEMPTION. Where the property of an insolvent partnership is ordered to be sold in order to pay the partnership debts, the right of redemption does not exist. Rhoades v. Williams, 12 Nev. 20.

9. WHO NOT PARTNERS. Jones v. O'Farrell, 1 Nev. 354.

10. LIABILITY AS PARTNERS. Person sharing in profits as compensation for labor not liable. Mason v. Hackett, 4 Nev. 420.

11. PARTNERS—WHEN ACTION AT LAW MAY BE MAINTAINED BETWEEN. When balance has been found and agreed upon. Wicks v. Lippman, 13 Nev. 499.

12. DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP—RELATION OF PARTNERS—SURETY AND PRINCIPAL DEBTOR—PAYMENT OF INDEBTEDNESS. Upon the dissolution of a copartnership where there is an agreement that one partner assumes and will pay all the debts of the firm, he thereby becomes the principal debtor, and the other partner becomes his surety, as between themselves and all others dealing with them with knowledge of the facts, and the surety has the right to protect himself by settling the indebtedness for which he is liable, at any time, whether it is due or not. Barber v. Gillson, 18 Nev. 89.

13. PARTNERSHIP—PUBLICATION OF NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION—LIABILITY OF PARTY WHO HOLDS HIMSELF OUT TO THE WORLD AS A PARTNER. If a retiring partner, after notice of dissolution is published in a newspaper, holds himself out to the world as a partner, he must, in order to relieve himself from liability on account of such publication, prove that knowledge of such notice of dissolution came to the actual knowledge of plaintiff. Hixon v. Pixley, 15 Nev. 475.

KNOWLEDGE OF DISSOLUTION—LAPSE OF TIME TO BE CONSIDERED. Id.

14. DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP—PAYMENT OF TAXES. Young v. Clute, 12 Nev. 31.

ALLOWANCE OF COSTS in suit within the discretion of the court. Id.

15. SURVIVING PARTNER—RIGHT OF ACTION. A surviving partner is entitled to sue in his representative capacity for the amount due the partnership, and in his own name for the amount due to himself individually. The respective demands may be united in the same action, but should be separately stated. Quillen v. Arnold, 12 Nev. 234.

16. ACTION BY SURVIVING PARTNER—SUFFICIENCY OF ALLEGATION OF COPARTNERSHIP. Reese v. Kinkead, 17 Nev. 447, and 18 Nev. 126.

An Act to authorize the formation of limited partnerships.

Approved December 19, 1862, 55.

Limited Partnerships.

2773. SECTION 1. Limited partnerships, for the transaction of mercantile, mechanical, mining, or manufacturing business, within this territory, may be formed by two or more persons upon the terms and subject to the conditions and liabilities prescribed in this Act; but nothing contained in this Act shall authorize such partnerships for the purpose of banking or insurance.

Responsibilities of Partners.

2774. SEC. 2. The said partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called general partners, who shall be jointly and severally responsible as general partners are by law, and of one or more persons who shall contribute to the common stock a specific sum, in actual cash payment, as capital, who shall be called special partners, and who shall not be personally liable for any debts of the partnership, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned.

Terms of Business.

2775. SEC. 3. The persons forming such partnerships shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain the name or firm under which said partnership is to be conducted, the names and respective places of residence of all the general and special partners, distinguishing who are general and who are special partners, the amount of capital which each special partner has contributed to the capital stock, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and the time when the partnership is to commence and when it is to terminate.

Acknowledged and Recorded.

2776. SEC. 4. No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate, made as aforesaid, shall be acknowledged by all the partners before some officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of the partnership is situated, in a book to be kept for that purpose, open to public inspection; and if the partnership shall have places of business situated in different counties, a copy of the certificate, certified by the Recorder in whose office it shall be recorded, shall be filed and recorded in like manner in the office of the Recorder in every such county. If any false statement shall be made in any such certificate, all the persons interested in the partnership shall be liable, as general partners, for all the engagements thereof.

Publication.

2777. SEC. 5. The partners shall, for three successive weeks immediately after such registry, publish a copy of the certificate above mentioned in a newspaper printed in the county where their principal place of business is situated; and if no such paper be there printed, then in a newspaper in the territory nearest thereto; and in case such publication be not so made, the partnership shall be deemed general.

Renewal.

2778. SEC. 6. Upon every renewal or continuation of a limited partnership beyond the time originally agreed upon for its duration, a certificate thereof shall be made, acknowledged, recorded and published, in like manner as is provided in this Act for the original formation of limited partnerships, and every such partnership which shall not be renewed in conformity with the provisions of this section, shall be deemed a general partnership.

General and Special Partners.

2779. SEC. 7. The business of the partnership shall be conducted under a firm in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, and the general partners only shall transact the business. If the name of any special partner shall be used in said firm with his consent or privity, or if he shall personally make any contract respecting the concerns of the partnership with any person except the general partner, he shall be deemed and treated as a general partner.

Capital Stock.

2780. SEC. 8. During the continuance of any partnership, under the provisions of this Act, no part of the capital stock thereof shall be withdrawn, nor any division of interests or profits be made so as to reduce such capital stock below the sum stated in the certificate before mentioned. If at any time during the continuance or at the termination of the partnership, the property or assets shall not be sufficient to pay the partnership debts, the special partners shall severally be held responsible for all sums by them in any way received, withdrawn, or divided, with interest thereon from the time when they were so withdrawn respectively.

Assignment.

2781. SEC. 9. No general assignment by said partnership, in case of insolvency, or where their goods and estate are insufficient for the payment of all their debts, shall be valid unless it provide for a distribution of the partnership property among all the creditors in proportion to the amount of their several claims.

Publication of Assignment.

2782. SEC. 10. In case of such assignment, as provided for in the preceding section, the assent of the creditors shall be presumed, unless, within sixty days after notice thereof, they shall dissent; and no such assignment shall be valid unless notice thereof shall be given in some newspaper printed in the county where the place of business of the party making it is situated; or if no newspaper be printed in such county, then in some newspaper printed in the territory nearest thereto, within fourteen days after the making such assignment.

Suits.

2783. SEC. 11. All suits respecting the business of such partnerships shall be prosecuted by and against the general partners only, except in those cases in which provision is made in this Act that the special partners shall be deemed general partners, and that special partnerships shall be deemed general partnerships, in which cases all the partners deemed general partners may join or be joined in such suits; and excepting, also, those cases where special partners shall be held severally responsible on account of any sums by them received or withdrawn from the common stock, as before provided.

Dissolution of Partnerships.

2784. SEC. 12. No dissolution of a limited partnership shall take place except by operation of law, before the time specified in the certificate before mentioned, unless a notice of such dissolution shall be recorded in the Recorder's office in which the original certificate, or the certificate of renewal or continuation of the partnership was recorded, and unless such notice shall also be published for three successive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county where the certificates of the formation of such partnerships were published, according to the provisions of this Act; and if no newspaper shall, at the time of such dissolution, be printed in such county, then the notice of such dissolution shall be published in some newspaper in this territory nearest thereto.

Liability and Rights of Partners.

2785. SEC. 13. In all cases not otherwise provided for in this Act, the members of limited partnerships shall be subject to all the liabilities and entitled to all the rights of general partners.

ESTATES OF DECEASED PERSONS.

An Act to regulate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons.

Approved March 23, 1897, 119.

District Court to Have Exclusive Jurisdiction.

2786. SECTION 1. Wills may be proved and letters testamentary or of administration granted in the county of which deceased was a resident at the time of death, whether death occurred in such county or elsewhere, and the district court of such county shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the settlement of such estates, whether such estate is in one or more counties. The estate of a non-resident decedent may be settled by the district court of any county wherein any part of such estate may be. The district court to which application shall first be made shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the settlement of such estates.

Wills Delivered to Court.

2787. SEC. 2. Any person having any will in his possession shall within ten days after knowledge of the death of the person who executed such will deliver it into the district court that has jurisdiction of the case, or to the person named in such will to execute it.

Person Named as Executor.

2788. SEC. 3. Any person named as executor or executrix in any will shall within fifteen days after the death of the testator or testatrix, or within fifteen days after knowledge of such naming, present the will, if in possession of it, to the district court.

Renunciation of Trust—Petition.

2789. SEC. 4. Any person so named may decline the trust by filing a renunciation in writing. If such person intends to accept the trust, there shall be presented a petition for the probating of such will, setting forth in such petition the facts necessary to give the court jurisdiction, and, when the same are known, the names, ages and residence of the heirs and devisees of the deceased, also the character and probable value of the estate and praying that the will be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued thereon to the party entitled thereto. If the jurisdictional facts existed, but are not fully set forth in the petition and the same shall be afterwards proved in the course of the administration, the probate of the will and the subsequent proceedings shall not on account of such want of jurisdictional averments be held void.

Liability for Neglect.

2790. SEC. 5. Every person who shall neglect to perform any of the duties required in the preceding sections, without reasonable cause, shall be liable to every person interested in the will for the damages such interested person may sustain by reason of such neglect.

Petition for Probate.

2791. SEC. 6. Any person named in a will to execute it, though not in possession of such will, may present a petition to the district court having jurisdiction, praying that the person in possession of the will may be required to produce it, that it may be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued.

By Interested Person.

2792. SEC. 7. Any person having an interest in a will may, in like manner, present a petition, praying that it may be required to be produced and admitted to probate.

Production of Will.

2793. SEC. 8. If it be alleged in any petition that any will of a deceased person is in the possession of a third person, and the court shall be satisfied that the allegation is correct, an order shall be issued and served upon the person having possession of the will, requiring such person to produce it at a time to be named in the order.

Penalty for Refusal.

2794. SEC. 9. Any person having the possession of a will and neglects or refuses to produce it in obedience to such order, such person may, by warrant from the court, be committed to the jail of the county, and be kept in close confinement until such person produces the will.

Petition Signed and Filed.

2795. SEC. 10. All petitions for the probate of a will, and for the issuance of letters, shall be signed by the party petitioning, or the attorney for such petitioners, and filed with the Clerk of the Court who shall publish a notice in some newspaper, if there is one printed in the county, if not, then by posting such notice in three public places in the county, stating in such notice the filing of such petition, the object, and designating a time for proving such will, which shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days.

Powers of Judge.

2796. SEC. 11. The Judge may make all necessary orders to enforce the production of any will at chambers.

Citation to Heirs.

2797. SEC. 12. If the heirs of the deceased reside in the county, the party petitioning for the probate of a will shall obtain from the Clerk a citation and cause it to be served upon such heirs, requiring them to appear and contest the probate of the will at the time appointed by the Clerk, if they so desire. Such citation shall be served at least three days before the time so appointed.

To Persons Named in Will.

2798. SEC. 13. If a petition for probate is presented by any person other than the one named in the will to execute it, or if it is presented by one of several of such persons named in the will, citation shall in like manner issue and be served upon such not joining in the petition, if resident within the county.

Subpenas.

2799. SEC. 14. The Clerk shall also issue subpenas to the subscribing witnesses to a will, if they reside in the county.

Hearing of Proof.

2800. SEC. 15. At the time appointed, or at any other time to which the hearing may be continued, upon proof being made by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, that notice has been given as required by the preceding sections, the court shall proceed to hear the testimony in proof of the will. All witnesses who appear and are sworn shall testify orally.

Who May Contest.

2801. SEC. 16. Any person interested may appear and contest the probate of a will. If it appears that they are minors or other persons who are interested in the estate, but reside out of the county, and are unrepresented, the court shall appoint some attorney to represent them.

One Witness Sufficient.

2802. SEC. 17. If no person shall appear to contest the probate of a will, the court may admit it to probate on the testimony of one of the subscribing witnesses only, if such testimony shall show, that the will was executed in all particulars, as required by law, and that the testator or testatrix was of sound mind at the time of its execution.

Contest and Proceedings.

2803. SEC. 18. If any person appears to contest the probate of a will, such person shall file a statement in writing, setting out the grounds of contest, and file the same with the Clerk, which shall constitute a joinder of such issues of fact as may be alleged in opposition to the will, such as respects the competency of the deceased to make a last will and testament, or respecting the execution by the deceased of such last will and testament, under restraint, or undue influence, or fraudulent representations, or for any other cause affecting the validity of such will. And any and all issues of fact shall be tried as issues of facts are tried in other cases in the district court.

Witnesses Examined.

2804. SEC. 19. When the probate of a will is contested all the subscribing witnesses who are present in the county, and who are of sound mind, must be produced and examined, and the death, absence or insanity of any of them shall be satisfactorily shown to the court.

Certificates of Proof Recorded.

2805. SEC. 20. If the court shall be satisfied upon the proof taken when heard by the court, or by the verdict of a jury, in case a jury trial is had, that the will was duly executed by a person at the time of sound and disposing mind, and not under restraint, undue influence or fraudulent representation, the court, by decree in writing, shall admit the will to probate, whereupon the will and the decree admitting it to probate shall be recorded together by the Clerk in a book to be provided for that purpose.

Evidence.

2806. SEC. 21. A copy of the record of the will and decree admitting it to probate, exemplified by the Clerk in whose custody it may be, shall be received in evidence and be as effectual in all cases as the original would be if proved.

Foreign Wills Valid, When.

2807. SEC. 22. All wills which shall have been duly proved and allowed in any other of the United States, or any territory thereof, or in any foreign country or state, may be admitted to probate by the district court of any county in which the deceased shall have left any estate; provided, it has been executed in conformity with the laws of the place where made.

Probate of Copy.

2808. SEC. 23. When a copy of a will, as mentioned in the preceding sections, and the probate thereof, duly authenticated, shall be filed in the Clerk's office, with a petition for letters, notice shall be given for the hearing thereof, and such proceedings shall be had as in case of an original will for probate, and with like force and effect.

Lost Will, How Proven.

2809. SEC. 24. Whenever any will shall be lost by accident, or destroyed by fraud, the district court shall have power to take proof of the execution and validity of such will, and to establish the same, notice to all persons interested having been first given, as prescribed in regard to proofs of wills in other cases.

What to Be Proved.

2810. SEC. 25. No will shall be allowed to be proved as a lost or destroyed will unless the same shall be proved to have been in existence at the time of the death of the person whose will it is claimed to be, or be shown to have been fraudulently destroyed in the lifetime of such person, nor unless its provisions shall be clearly and distinctly proved by at least two credible witnesses.

Pending Proof.

2811. SEC. 26. If before or during the pendency of an application to prove a lost or destroyed will letters of administration shall have been granted upon the estate of the deceased, or letters testamentary of any previous will of such deceased, the court shall have authority to restrain such administration if necessary to protect the interests of legatees or devisees claiming under the lost or destroyed will.

Letters to Be Issued, When.

2812. SEC. 27. When any will shall have been admitted to probate the district court shall direct letters thereon to issue to the person or persons named in the will to execute the same, who may be competent to discharge the trust, and who shall appear and qualify.

Executors, Who Competent.

2813. SEC. 28. No person shall be deemed competent to serve as executor or executrix who at the time the will is probated shall be: First—Under the age of majority; or, second, who shall have been convicted of an infamous crime; or, third, who, upon proof, shall be adjudged by the court incompetent to execute the duties of the trust by reason of drunkenness, improvidence or want of understanding. If any such person be named as the sole executor or executrix in any will, or if all persons so named are incompetent, or shall renounce the trust, or fail to appear and qualify, letters of administration with the will annexed shall issue.

Objections to Executors.

2814. SEC. 29. Any person interested in a will may file objections in writing to the granting of letters testamentary to the persons named as executors or executrices, or any of them, and such objections shall be heard and determined by the court. A petition may also be filed for the issuance of letters of administration, with the will annexed, in all proper cases.

Authority Revoked.

2815. SEC. 30. When an unmarried woman who shall have been appointed executrix shall marry, her marriage shall extinguish her authority. When a married woman is nominated as executrix she may be appointed and serve, in all respects, as if she were a femme sole.

Executor of Executor.

2816. SEC. 31. No executor of an executor shall as such be authorized to administer on the estate of the first testator, but on the death of the sole or surviving executor or executrix of any last will, letters of administration, with the will annexed of the estate of the first testator or testatrix left unadministered, shall be issued.

Letters to Minors.

2817. SEC. 32. When any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be named executor, or under the age of eighteen years executrix, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted, during the minority of such person, unless there is another executor or executrix, who shall accept the trust and qualify, in which case letters testamentary shall issue to such, who shall administer the estate, until the minor shall arrive at legal age, when such may be admitted as joint executor or executrix.

Power of One or More of Several Executors.

2818. SEC. 33. When all the persons named as executors or executrices shall not be appointed by the court, such as shall be appointed shall have the same authority to perform every act and discharge every trust required by the will, and their acts shall be effectual for every purpose as if all had been appointed, and should act together. When there are two executors or administrators the acts of one alone shall be valid if the other is absent from the state, or for any cause is laboring under any legal disability, and when there are more than two, the act of a majority shall be sufficient.

Power of Administrator.

2819. SEC. 34. Administrators with the will annexed shall have the same authority as the executor named in the will would have had if he should have qualified, and their acts shall be as effectual for every purpose.

Letters Signed.

2820. SEC. 35. Letters testamentary and of administration with the will annexed shall be signed by the Clerk and be under the seal of the court.

Form of Letters.

2821. SEC. 36. Letters testamentary may be in substantially the following form, to wit (after properly entitling court and cause): "The last will of-----, deceased, having been duly admitted to probate in our said court, -----, who is named therein, was by our said court on the---day of-----, 189---, duly appointed executor, who having qualified as such (is) hereby authorized to act by virtue thereof. In testimony whereof, I have officially signed these letters and affixed hereto the seal of said court, this---day of-----, 189---."

Form of, With Will Annexed.

2822. SEC. 37. Letters of administration with the will annexed may be substantially in the following form, to wit (after properly entitling the court and cause): "The last will of-----, deceased, having been duly admitted to probate in our said court, and there being no executor named in said will (or as the case may be), -----was by our said court, on the---day of-----, 189---, duly appointed as administrator with the will annexed, and who, having duly qualified as such, is hereby authorized to act by virtue thereof. In testimony whereof, I have officially signed these letters and affixed hereto the seal of said court, this---day of-----, 189---."

Who Entitled to Letters.

2823. SEC. 38. Administration of the estate of a person dying intestate shall be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned, and they shall be respectively entitled in the following order: First—The surviving husband or wife, or such person, as he or she may request to have appointed. Second—The children. Third—The father, or mother. Fourth—The brother. Fifth—The sister. Sixth—The grandchildren. Seventh—Any other of the kindred entitled to share in the distribution of the estate. Eighth—The creditors. Ninth—The Public Administrator. Tenth—Any of the kindred, not above enumerated, within the fourth degree or consanguinity. Eleventh—Any person or persons legally competent.

WHEN NO ADMINISTRATOR NECESSARY. No legal presumption of existence of debts. Wright v. Smith, 19 Nev. 143.

shall not be liable for any subsequent act, default or misconduct of the executor or administrator.

Letters Revoked.

2854. SEC. 69. If the executor or administrator neglect or refuse to give new sureties to the satisfaction of the Judge, on the return of the citation, the court or Judge being satisfied the citation has been personally served, or within such reasonable time as the Judge shall allow, not exceeding five days, unless the surety or sureties petitioning shall consent to a longer extension of time, the court or Judge shall revoke the letters granted.

Special Appointed.

2855. SEC. 70. When there shall be a delay in granting letters testamentary or administration, from any cause, or when such letters shall have been granted irregularly or no sufficient bond shall have been filed as required by law, or when no petition shall be filed for such letters, and in any other proper case, the District Judge shall appoint a special administrator to collect and take charge of the estate of the deceased, in whatever county or counties the same may be found, and to exercise such other powers as may be necessary to preserve the estate.

Appointment, How Made.

2856. SEC. 71. The appointment may be made at chambers, and without notice, and shall be made by entry upon the minutes of the court, which shall specify the powers to be exercised by the administrator. Upon such order being entered, and after the person appointed has given bonds, as fixed by the Judge, the Clerk shall issue letters of administration, with a certified copy of the order attached, to such person.

Who to Have Preference.

2857. SEC. 72. In making the appointment of a special administrator, the District Judge shall give preference to the person or persons entitled to letters testamentary or of administration, but no appeal shall be allowed from the appointment.

Powers and Duties.

2858. SEC. 73. The special administrator shall collect and preserve for the executor or administrator when appointed, all the goods, chattels and debts of the deceased, all incomes, rents, issues and profits, claims and demands of the estate, shall take charge and management of, enter upon and preserve from damage, waste and injury the real estate, and for any such and all necessary purposes, may commence, maintain or defend suits and other legal proceedings as an administrator. He may sell such perishable estate as the district court may order to be sold, and may exercise such other powers as may have been conferred upon him by his appointment; but in no case shall he be liable to an action by any creditor, on any claim against the estate, nor pay any claim against the deceased.

Powers Cease, When.

2859. SEC. 74. When letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted on the estate of the deceased, the powers of the special administrator shall cease and he shall forthwith deliver to the executor or administrator all the property and effects of the deceased in his hands, and the executor or administrator may be permitted to prosecute to final judgment any suit commenced by the special administrator.

To Render Account.

2860. SEC. 75. The special administrator shall also render an account, under oath, of his proceedings in like manner as other administrators are required to do.

Special Administrator Appointed.

2861. SEC. 76. Whenever an executor or administrator shall die or his letters be revoked, and the circumstances require the immediate appointment of an administrator, the District Judge may appoint a special administrator, as provided in the preceding sections.

Remaining Executor to Proceed.

2862. SEC. 77. In case any one of several executors or administrators of the same estate to whom letters shall have been granted shall die, become lunatic, be convicted of an infamous crime, or otherwise become incapable of executing the trust, or, in case the letters testamentary or of administration shall be revoked or annulled according to law with respect to any one executor or administrator, the remaining executor or administrator shall proceed and complete the execution of the will or administration.

Shall Issue Letters, When.

2863. SEC. 78. If all such executors or administrators shall die or from any cause become incapable of executing the trust, or the power and authority of all of them shall be revoked or annulled according to law, the district court shall direct letters of administration with the will annexed or otherwise to be issued to the widow, next of kin or others, in the same manner as directed in relation to original letters of administration. The administrator so appointed shall give bond in like penalty with like sureties and conditions as hereinbefore required of administrators and shall have the like power and authority.

Letters Revoked.

2864. SEC. 79. If after granting letters of administration on the ground of intestacy, a will of the deceased shall be duly proved and allowed by the court, the letters of administration shall be revoked and the power of the administrator shall cease, and he shall render an account of his administration within such time as the court shall direct.

New Administration.

2865. SEC. 80. In such case, the executor of the will or the administrator with the will annexed shall be entitled to demand, sue for and collect all the goods, chattels and effects of the deceased remaining unadministered, and may prosecute to final judgment any suit commenced by the administrator before the revocation of his letters.

Resignation.

2866. SEC. 81. Any executor or administrator may at any time, by writing filed in the district court, resign his appointment; provided, he shall first settle his accounts and deliver up all the estate to such person as may be appointed by the court.

Before Revocation.

2867. SEC. 82. All acts of an executor or administrator as such, before the revocation of his letters testamentary or of administration, shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if such executor or administrator had continued to execute lawfully the duties of his trust.

Transcript Same as Letters.

2868. SEC. 83. A transcript from the minutes of court, showing the appointment of any person as executor or administrator, together with the certificate of the Clerk, under his hand and the seal of the court that such person has given bond and been qualified, and that letters testamentary or of administration have been issued to him, and have not been revoked, shall have the same effect in evidence as the letters themselves.

Judge Not Competent, When.

2869. SEC. 84. No District Judge shall admit to probate any will, or grant letters testamentary, or of administration, in any case where he shall be interested as next of kin to the deceased or as a legatee or devisee under the will, or where he shall be named as executor or trustee in the will, or shall be a witness thereto.

Another Judge May Act.

2870. SEC. 85. When any District Judge who would otherwise be authorized to act shall be precluded from acting from the causes mentioned in the preceding section, or when he shall in any manner be interested, he shall call a District Judge of another district to hold the court of his county; and such Judge shall hold such court, and be vested with all the powers of the court and Judge so disqualified, and shall retain jurisdiction as to all subsequent proceedings in regard to the estate.

Inventory, Return Of.

2871. SEC. 86. Every executor or administrator shall make and return to the court, within twenty days after his appointment, unless the court shall extend the time, a true inventory and appraisement of all the estate of the deceased which shall have come to his possession or knowledge.

Appraisement, How Made—Compensation.

2872. SEC. 87. For the purpose of making the appraisement, the court or Judge shall appoint three disinterested persons, any two of whom may act, and who shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for their services, to be allowed by the court. This compensation as allowed shall be in the form of a bill of items for their services, including all necessary disbursements, which shall be sworn to by them, and filed at the same time as the inventory. The compensation shall not exceed five dollars per day each, and may be paid out of the estate at any time. The inventory shall include all the estate of the deceased, wherever situated.

To Take Oath—Inventory to Contain.

2873. SEC. 88. Before proceeding to the execution of their duty, the appraisers, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, shall take and subscribe an oath to be attached to the inventory, that they will truly, honestly and impartially appraise the property which shall be exhibited to them or called to their attention, according to the best of their knowledge and ability. They shall then proceed to appraise the property of the estate; each article or parcel shall be set down separately with the value thereof in dollars and cents, in figures opposite to each article or parcel respectively. The inventory shall contain all the estate of the deceased, real and personal; a statement of all debts, partnerships, and other interests, bonds, mortgages, notes, and other securities for the payment of money, belonging to deceased, specifying the name of the debtor in each security, the date, the sum originally payable, the indorsements thereon if any, with their dates, and the sum which in the judgment of the appraisers may be collectible on each debt, interest or security. The inventory shall also show, so far as can be ascertained, what portion of the estate is community property, and what portion is the separate property of the deceased; also an account of all moneys belonging to the deceased which shall have come to the hands of the executor or administrator.

Does Not Discharge Debt.

2874. SEC. 89. The naming of any person as executor in a will shall not operate as a discharge of any just claim which the testator had against such person, but the claim shall be included in the inventory, and the person named as executor shall be liable for the same, or for so much money in his hands at the time the debt or demand becomes due, if he be the executor.

Discharge of Debt Not Valid, When.

2875. SEC. 90. The discharge or bequest in a will of any debt or demand of the testator against any person named as executor in his will, or against any other person, shall not be valid against the creditors of the deceased, but shall be construed as a specific bequest only of such debt or demand; and the amount thereof shall be included in the inventory and shall, if necessary, be applied in payment of his debts. If not necessary for that purpose, it shall be disposed of in the same manner as other specific legacies or bequests.

Oath of Appraisers.

2876. SEC. 91. The inventory shall be signed by the appraisers, and the executor or administrator shall take and subscribe an oath, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, that the inventory contains a true statement of all the estate of the deceased which has come to his possession or of which he has knowledge, and particularly of all moneys belonging to the deceased, and of all just claims of the deceased against the executor or administrator. The oath shall be indorsed upon or annexed to the inventory.

Non-Return of Inventory.

2877. SEC. 92. If an executor or administrator shall neglect or refuse to return the inventory, within the time prescribed, or within such further time as the court or Judge shall, for good cause, allow, the court may, with or without further notice, revoke the letters testamentary or of administration, and the executor or administrator shall be liable on his bond for any injury sustained by the estate through his neglect.

Supplemental Inventory.

2878. SEC. 93. Whenever any property not mentioned in any inventory that shall have been made shall come to the possession or knowledge of the executor or administrator, he shall return a supplementary inventory of such property within twenty days after the discovery thereof in the same manner as an original inventory. If the first appraisers are not in the county others may be appointed. The court may enforce the making of a supplementary inventory as an original.

Right of Possession.

2879. SEC. 94. The executor or administrator shall have a right to the possession of all the real as well as personal estate of the deceased, and may receive the rents and profits of the real estate until the estate shall be settled, or until delivered over by order of the district court to the heirs or devisees, and shall keep in good tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fences thereon which are under his control.

Personal Estate.

2880. SEC. 95. The personal estate of the deceased which shall come into the hands of the executor or administrator shall be first chargeable with the payment of the debts and expenses, and if the goods, chattels, rights and credits in the hands of the executor or administrator shall not be sufficient to pay the debts, expenses of administration and the allowances to the family of the deceased the whole, or such part as may be necessary for that purpose, of the real estate may be sold in the manner prescribed in this Act.

Conversion, Penalty.

2881. SEC. 96. If any person, before the granting of letters testamentary or of administration, shall convert to his or her own use, take or alienate any of the moneys, goods, chattels or effects of any deceased person, he shall stand chargeable and be liable to an action by the executor or administrator of the estate for double the value of the property so converted, taken or alienated, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate.

Proceedings for Conversion.

2882. SEC. 97. If any executor or administrator, heir, devisee, legatee, creditor or other person interested in the estate of any deceased person shall complain, on oath, to the District Judge that any person has, or is suspected to have, concealed, converted to his or her own use, conveyed away or otherwise disposed of any moneys, goods, chattels or effects of the deceased, or that he has in his possession or knowledge, any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts or other writings which contain evidence of, or tend to disclose the right, title or interest of the deceased in or to any real or personal estate, or any claim or demand, or any last will of the deceased, the said Judge may cause such person to be cited to appear before the district court to answer, upon oath, upon the matter of such complaint. If such person be not in the county when letters have been granted, he or she may be cited and examined either before the district court of the county where he may be found, or before the court issuing the citation. But if in the latter case such person appears and shall be found innocent, his or her necessary expenses shall be allowed out of the estate.

Refusing to Answer Complaint—Power of Court.

2883. SEC. 98. If the person so cited should refuse to appear and submit to such examination, or to testify touching the matter of such complaint, the court may commit such person to the county jail, there to remain confined until he or she shall obey the order of the court, or be discharged according to law, and if upon such examination it shall appear that such person has concealed, converted to his or her own use, smuggled, conveyed away, or in any manner disposed of any moneys, goods or chattels of the deceased, or that he has in his possession or under his control any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts or other writings, which contain evidence of, or tend to disclose, the right, title, interest or claim of the deceased to any real or personal estate, claim or demand, or any last will of the deceased, the district court may make an order requiring such person to deliver any such property or effects to the executor or administrator, at such time as the court may fix, and should such person fail to comply with such order, the court may commit he or she to the county jail till such order shall be complied with, or the person discharged according to law. The order of the court for the delivery of such property shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the executor or administrator to such property in any action that may be brought for the recovery thereof; and any judgment recovered therein shall be for double the value of the property, and damages in addition thereto equal to the value of such property. In addition to the examination of the party, witnesses may be produced and examined on either side.

Person May Be Cited to Appear.

2884. SEC. 99. The District Judge, upon the complaint on oath of any executor or administrator, may cause any person who shall have been intrusted by such executor or administrator with any part of the estate of the decedent to be cited to appear before such court and render on oath a full account of any money, goods, chattels, bonds, accounts, or other papers or effects belonging to the estate which shall have come into his possession in trust for the executor or administrator, and if the person so cited shall fail or refuse to appear and render such account, he or she may be proceeded against as provided in the preceding section.

May Retain Homestead.

2885. SEC. 100. When any person shall die leaving a widow or a minor child or children, the widow, child or children shall be entitled to remain in possession of the homestead and of all the wearing apparel and provisions on hand of the family, and all of the household furniture, and shall also be entitled to a reasonable provision for their support, to be allowed by the District Judge at chambers or in court.

Property Set Apart for Use of Family.

2886. SEC. 101. Upon the return of the inventory or at any time thereafter during the administration, the court or Judge, of his own motion, or an application, may set apart for the use of the family of the deceased all personal property which is exempt by law from execution, and the homestead as designated by the general homestead law now in force; whether such homestead has theretofore been selected as required by said law or not, and the property thus directed to be set apart shall not be subject to administration.

Allowance For Family.

2887. SEC. 102. If the whole property exempt by law be set apart, and should not be sufficient for the support of the widow, child or children, the district court or Judge shall make such reasonable allowance out of the estate as shall be necessary for the maintenance of the family according to their circumstances during the progress of the settlement of the estate, which in case of an insolvent estate shall not be longer than one year after granting letters of administration.

Allowance, Priority Of.

2888. SEC. 103. Any allowance made by the court or Judge in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be paid by the executor or administrator in preference to all other charges, except funeral charges.

Property Set Apart, How Apportioned.

2889. SEC. 104. When property shall have been set apart for the use of the family, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, if the deceased shall have left a widow and no minor child, such property shall be the property of the widow. If he shall have left a minor child, or children also, the one-half of such property shall belong to the widow, and the remainder to the child, or in equal shares to the children, if there be more than one. If there be no widow, the whole shall belong to the child or children.

Estate Not Administered Upon, When—Order of Court.

2890. SEC. 105. When any person shall die, leaving an estate the whole value of which does not exceed five hundred dollars, and there be a surviving husband or wife, and a minor child or children, such estate shall not be administered upon, but the whole thereof shall be by the court or Judge, by an order for that purpose, assigned and set apart for the support of the surviving husband or wife and minor children of deceased, or for the support of the minor child or children, if there be no surviving husband or wife. Such order may be made by the court or Judge on motion made by, or on behalf of, the surviving husband or wife, or next friend of any minor child or children, upon an affidavit setting forth the necessary facts, and the court or Judge being satisfied that the value of the whole of such estate does not exceed five hundred dollars.

To Go to Children, When.

2891. SEC. 106. If the widow has a maintenance derived from her own property equal to the portion set apart to her under the provisions of this Act, the whole property so set apart shall go to the minor children.

Appointment of Executor Published—Notice to Specify—Copy Filed.

If the whole property exempt by law be set apart, and should not be sufficient for the support of the widow, child or children, the district court or Judge shall make such reasonable allowance out of the estate as shall be necessary for the maintenance of the family according to their circumstances during the progress of the settlement of the estate, which in case of an insolvent estate shall not be longer than one year after granting letters of administration.

Allowance, Priority Of.

2888. SEC. 103. Any allowance made by the court or Judge in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be paid by the executor or administrator in preference to all other charges, except funeral charges.

Property Set Apart, How Apportioned.

2889. SEC. 104. When property shall have been set apart for the use of the family, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, if the deceased shall have left a widow and no minor child, such property shall be the property of the widow. If he shall have left a minor child, or children also, the one-half of such property shall belong to the widow, and the remainder to the child, or in equal shares to the children, if there be more than one. If there be no widow, the whole shall belong to the child or children.

Estate Not Administered Upon, When—Order of Court.

2890. SEC. 105. When any person shall die, leaving an estate the whole value of which does not exceed five hundred dollars, and there be a surviving husband or wife, and a minor child or children, such estate shall not be administered upon, but the whole thereof shall be by the court or Judge, by an order for that purpose, assigned and set apart for the support of the surviving husband or wife and minor children of deceased, or for the support of the minor child or children, if there be no surviving husband or wife. Such order may be made by the court or Judge on motion made by, or on behalf of, the surviving husband or wife, or next friend of any minor child or children, upon an affidavit setting forth the necessary facts, and the court or Judge being satisfied that the value of the whole of such estate does not exceed five hundred dollars.

To Go to Children, When.

2891. SEC. 106. If the widow has a maintenance derived from her own property equal to the portion set apart to her under the provisions of this Act, the whole property so set apart shall go to the minor children.

Appointment of Executor Published—Notice to Specify—Copy Filed.

2892. SEC. 107. Every executor or administrator shall, immediately after his appointment, cause to be published in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one, if not, then in such newspaper as may be designated by the court or Judge, and post copies thereof in three public places of the county, a notice of his appointment as such executor or administrator. Such notice shall be properly entitled of court and cause, specifying the date of appointment, the name of deceased, and shall be dated and officially signed by the executor or administrator, and shall direct that all persons having claims against the estate are required to file the same, with the proper vouchers and statutory affidavits attached, with the Clerk of the Court within three months from the date of the first publication of the notice. Such notice shall be published for at least once a week for four weeks. After the notice shall have been given as above required, a copy thereof, with the affidavit of publication and posting, shall be filed. As amended, Stats. 1899, 110.

Claims to Be Filed—When Claim Barred.

2893. SEC. 108. All persons having claims against the deceased must, within three months after the first publication of the notice specified in the preceding section, file the same with the necessary vouchers with the Clerk of the Court, who shall file and register each claim. If a claim be not filed with the Clerk within three months after the first publication of said notice, it shall be forever barred; provided, that when it shall be made to appear by the affidavit of the claimant, or by other proof that he had no notice as provided in this Act, to the satisfaction of the court or Judge, it may be filed at any time before the filing of the final account. As amended, Stats. 1899, 111.

DECEDENT'S ESTATES—NOTICE TO CREDITORS. It is unnecessary that the notice to be given by an executor or administrator to the creditors of an estate should specify whether the place where the claims are to be presented is his place of residence or his place of business. Douglass v. Folsom, 21 Nev. 441.

IDEM—PRESENTATION OF CLAIMS. Claims against an estate may be legally presented at the place where the notice directs them to be presented, without regard to whether the executor or administrator is there to receive them. His absence from the state makes no difference in this rule. Id.

IDEM—DELIVERY OF CLAIM TO ATTORNEY OF ESTATE. Under the statutes of Nevada it is not a sufficient presentation of such a claim to hand it to the "attorney for the estate"; at least not without showing that it actually reached the administratrix within the proper time for the presentation of claims. Id.

Claim to Be Supported by Affidavit—Defective Affidavit.

2894. SEC. 109. Every claim filed with the Clerk shall be supported by the affidavits of the claimant that the amount is justly due (or if the claim is not yet due, that the amount is a just demand and will be due on the ____ day of _____), that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same to the knowledge of the claimant or other affiant; provided, that when the affidavit is made by any other person than the claimant the reasons why it is not made by the claimant shall be set forth in the affidavit. The oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths. The amount of interest shall be computed and included in the statement of the claim and the rate of interest determined. The court may in its discretion for good cause shown allow a defective affidavit to be corrected or amended on application made at any time before the filing of the final account. As amended, Stats. 1899, 111.

Claim of Judge or Executor.

2895. SEC. 110. Any District Judge may file a claim against the estate of any deceased person, and have the same rights and remedies in reference thereto as any other creditor filing a claim. Any executor or administrator may file a claim against the estate of any deceased person.

Executor to Examine All Claims—When Deemed Rejected.

2896. SEC. 111. Within fifteen days after the time for filing claims has expired, as hereinbefore provided, the executor or administrator shall examine all claims filed, and endorse on each claim his allowance or rejection with the day and the year thereof, and within five days after the fifteen days in this section first specified, the executor or administrator shall present all claims allowed by him to the District Judge for his approval or rejection. If an executor or administrator refuse or neglect to endorse on a claim his allowance or rejection within fifteen days, as above specified, the claim shall be deemed rejected, but the executor or administrator may nevertheless allow said claim at any time before the filing of the final account. All claims, when approved by the Judge, shall be ranked among the acknowledged debts of the estate, to be paid in due course of administration. If the claim be founded upon a bond, bill, note or other instrument the original instrument need not be filed, but a copy with all endorsements may be attached to the statement of the claim and filed therewith, and if the claim be secured by mortgage or other evidence of lien, it shall, or a certified copy from a record, be attached to the claim and filed therewith. As amended, Stats. 1899, 111.

Rejected Claim, Holder May Bring Suit—Non-Resident.

2897. SEC. 112. When a claim is rejected by the executor or administrator, or the District Judge, the holder shall be immediately notified by the executor or administrator, and such holder must bring suit in the proper court against the executor or administrator within thirty days after such notice, whether the claim is due or not, otherwise the claim shall be forever barred. If the holder of a claim resides out of the state he may be informed of the rejection of his claim by written notice forwarded to his postoffice address by registered mail. As amended, Stats. 1899, 112.

Kennedy v. Estate of Keating, 24 Nev.

Claim Barred.

2898. SEC. 113. No claim shall be allowed by the executor or administrator or the District Judge which is barred by the statute of limitations at the time of the death of the person whose estate is being administered.

Before Suit.

2899. SEC. 114. No holder of any claim against an estate shall maintain any action thereon unless it shall have been first filed, and under the conditions hereinbefore specified.

Not in Limitation.

2900. SEC. 115. The time during which there shall be a vacancy in the administration shall not be included in any limitations herein prescribed.

Chose in Action.

2901. SEC. 116. If an action be pending against the deceased at the time of his or her death, the plaintiff, in like manner, shall file his claim with the Clerk, and no recovery shall be had in the action unless proof be made of such filing.

Allowance in Part.

2902. SEC. 117. Whenever the executor or administrator or the District Judge shall act upon any claim that may be filed, he shall indorse on the claim the amount he is willing to allow, and should the creditor refuse to accept the amount allowed in satisfaction of his claim he shall recover no costs in any action which he may bring on such claim against the executor or administrator, unless he shall recover a greater amount than that offered to be allowed.

Effect of Judgment.

2903. SEC. 118. The effect of any judgment rendered against any executor or administrator upon any claim for money against the estate of his testator or intestate, shall only be to establish the claim in the same manner as if it had been allowed by the executor or administrator and the District Judge, and the judgment shall be that the executor or administrator pay in due course of administration the amount ascertained to be due. A certified copy of the judgment shall be filed in the estate proceedings. No execution shall issue upon such judgment nor shall it create any lien upon the property of the estate or give the judgment creditor any priority of payment.

Judgment Before Death.

2904. SEC. 119. When any judgment has been rendered against the deceased in his or her lifetime no execution shall issue thereon after his or her death; but a certified copy of such judgment shall be attached to the statement of claim filed with the Clerk and shall be acted on as any other claim; provided, however, that if an execution has been actually levied upon any property of the deceased the same may be sold for the satisfaction thereof and the officer making the sale shall account to the executor or administrator for any surplus in his hands.

Liable for Costs.

2905. SEC. 120. When a judgment has been recovered with costs against any executor or administrator the executor or administrator shall be personally liable for the costs, but they shall be allowed him in his administration accounts unless it shall appear that the suit or proceeding in which the costs were taxed shall have been prosecuted or resisted without just cause.

Claim of Executor.

2906. SEC. 121. If an executor or administrator is himself a creditor of the deceased, he shall as any other creditor file his claim with the Clerk, and the District Judge shall allow or reject it, and its allowance by the Judge shall be sufficient evidence of its correctness.

Notice to Creditors.

2907. SEC. 122. If any executor or administrator shall neglect for fifteen days after his appointment to give notice of his appointment, as hereinbefore prescribed, it shall be the duty of the court to revoke his letters.

Statement of Claims.

2908. SEC. 123. Within ten days after the expiration of the time for the Judge to approve or reject claims, the executor or administrator shall file a statement of all claims filed against the estate, and at any other time the court may order. In all such statements he shall designate the names of the creditors, the character of each claim, when it became or will become due, and whether allowed or rejected.

Sale, When Not Valid.

2909. SEC. 124. No sale of any property of an estate of a deceased person shall be valid unless made under an order of the district court, except as otherwise provided in this Act or other Acts.

Application for Order.

2910. SEC. 125. All applications for orders of sale shall be by petition in writing, in which shall be set forth the facts showing the sale to be necessary, and, upon the hearing, any person interested in the estate may file written objections, which shall be heard and determined.

Sale of Perishable Property.

2911. SEC. 126. At any time after receiving letters-the executor, administrator or special administrator may apply to the court or Judge for an order to sell the perishable property of the estate, or so much of other property, if necessary, to pay the allowance made to the family of deceased. If there be a delay in obtaining such order, such property may be sold without an order of sale; provided, that the executor, administrator or special administrator shall be held responsible for the property sold by him, unless, after making a sworn return, the court shall confirm the sale. If claims against the estate have been allowed, and a sale of property shall be necessary for their payment, or of the expenses of the administration, the executor or administrator may also apply for an order to sell so much of the personal property as may be necessary. Upon filing his petition, notice of at least five days shall be given of the hearing of the application, either by posting or publishing, as the court or Judge may order. A similar application may be made from time to time to the court or Judge at chambers as long as any personal property remains in his hands, and a sale thereof is necessary; and if he deem it for the best interest of the estate, he may at any time after the filing of the inventory make a like application, and after giving like notice, for an order to sell the whole of the personal property belonging to the estate; and if on the hearing it shall be made to appear that a sale is necessary, or for the best interest of the estate, the court or Judge shall order it to be made. In making such sales the court or Judge shall order such articles as are not necessary for the support and subsistence of the family of the deceased, or are not specially bequeathed, to be first sold. Articles so bequeathed shall not be sold until the residue of the personal property has been applied to the payment of the debts and expenses of administration.

Sale of Personal Property, How Made.

2912. SEC. 127. The sale of personal property shall be made at public auction, and after public notice given at least ten days, unless for good reasons shown, the court or Judge shall order a private sale or a shorter notice. Public sales of such property shall be made at the court house door, at the residence of the deceased, or at some other place to be mentioned in the notice, and no sale shall be made of any property which is not present at the time of selling.

Notice, How Given.

2913. SEC. 128. The notice shall specify the time and place, and shall be given by posting in three public places of the county, or by publication in a newspaper, as the court or Judge shall order.

Real Estate Sold, When.

2914. SEC. 129. When the personal estate of the deceased shall be insufficient to pay the allowance to the family, the debts of the deceased, expenses of last illness and funeral, and the charges and cost of administration, the executor or administrator may petition to have the real estate sold for such purpose.

Application for Order to Sell.

2915. SEC. 130. Such petition shall be presented to the district court or the Judge at chambers, setting forth the amount of personal estate that has come to the hands of the petitioner, and how much thereof, if any, remains undisposed of; the debts outstanding against the deceased, as far as the same can be ascertained or estimated; the amount due upon the family allowance or that will be due after the same shall have been in force for one year; the sum, if any, due for last sickness and funeral of deceased; the costs and expenses of the administration already accrued and an estimate of what will or may accrue during the administration; a description of all the real estate of which the deceased died seized, or in which he or she had any interest or in which the estate has acquired any interest, and the condition and value of the respective portions and lots, and whether the same be community or separate property; the names, ages and residence of the devisees or legatees, if any, and of the heirs of the deceased, which petition shall be verified by the oath of petitioner. If all of said matter cannot be ascertained it shall be so stated in the petition.

Order to Show Cause.

2916. SEC. 131. If it shall appear to the court or Judge by such petition that it is necessary to sell the whole or some part of the real estate for the purposes therein mentioned, or any one of them, such petition shall be filed, and an order thereupon made directing the Clerk to issue a notice to all persons interested in the estate to be and appear before the court at a time and place specified, not less than three weeks nor more than six weeks from the date of such notice, to show cause why an order should not be granted to authorize the executor or administrator to sell so much of the real estate as may be necessary.

Notice, How Served.

2917. SEC. 132. A copy of such notice shall be personally served on all persons in the county interested in the estate at least five days before the time specified in the notice, or shall be published at least two successive weeks in such newspaper as the court or Judge shall order; provided, however, if all persons interested in the estate signify in writing their assent to such sale, the notice may be dispensed with.

Hearing of Application.

2918. SEC. 133. The district court, at the time and place specified in such notice, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, upon satisfactory proof of the due service or publication of the notice, by affidavit or otherwise, shall proceed to the hearing of the petition and any opposition that may be filed.

Attorney Appointed.

2919. SEC. 134. If any of the legatees, devisees or heirs of the deceased are minors, and have a general guardian in the county, a copy of the notice shall be served upon such guardian. If they have no guardian, the court or Judge shall, at the time of filing said petition, or before proceeding to act upon it, appoint some disinterested person their attorney, for the purpose of appearing for them in the proceeding, and taking care of their interests. The court or Judge may also, if deemed necessary, appoint such attorney for the heirs, devisees or legatees, if they are unrepresented, whether minors or otherwise, and may likewise appoint an attorney for the creditors if unrepresented.

Witness Examined.

2920. SEC. 135. The executor or administrator may be examined and witnesses on the part of any party interested, and process to compel their attendance and testimony may issue in the same manner and with like effect as in other cases.

Order of Sale of Part.

2921. SEC. 136. If it shall appear to the court that it is necessary to sell a part of the estate, real or personal, and that by a sale of such part the residue of the estate, or some specific part or piece thereof would be greatly injured or diminished or subject to expense, or rendered unprofitable, the court may authorize the sale of the whole estate, or such part as may be judged necessary and most beneficial for the interests of all concerned.

Order to Specify, What—Sale, How Made.

2922. SEC. 137. The order shall specify the lands to be sold and the terms of the sale, which may be either for cash or on a credit not exceeding one year, payable in gross or installments with interest as the court may direct. If sold on a credit the purchaser shall give his promissory note with security for deferred payments, which shall also be a lien upon any real estate sold. The tract or tracts of land may be sold in one parcel or in subdivisions, as the executor or administrator shall judge most beneficial to said estate, unless the court shall otherwise specially direct. If it appears that any part of such real estate has been devised and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts or legacies, the court shall order that part descending to the heirs to be sold before that devised. Every such sale shall be made at public auction unless, in the opinion of the court, it would benefit the estate to sell the whole or some part of the real estate at private sale, in which case the court may order or direct such real estate, or any part thereof, to be sold at either public or private sale, as may be made to appear most beneficial to the estate. If the executor or administrator shall neglect or refuse to make a sale under the order of sale he may be compelled to proceed to sell by order of the court made on motion after due notice by any party interested.

Person Other Than Executor May Apply for Order of Sale.

2923. SEC. 137. If the executor or administrator shall neglect to apply for an order of sale whenever it may be necessary, any person interested in the estate may petition therefor in the same manner as the executor or administrator, and like proceedings shall be had thereon, the notice being also served upon the executor or administrator.

Certified Copy of Order.

2924. SEC. 138. Upon making an order of sale, under the provisions of the preceding section, a certified copy of such order shall be delivered by the Clerk to the executor or administrator, who shall thereupon be authorized and required to sell the real estate as directed.

Notice of Time and Place of Sale.

2925. SEC. 139. When a sale is ordered, notice of the time and place of holding the same shall be given by posting a copy in three of the most public places of the county in which the land is situated, and by publishing it in a newspaper published in the county, if there be one; if not, then in such paper as the court may direct, for three weeks successively next before such sale, in which notice the lands and tenements shall be described with common certainty.

Sale to Be Made, Where—Private Sale.

2926. SEC. 140. Such sale shall be made in the county where the land is situated, but when the tract of land is situated in two or more counties, it may be sold in any one of such counties. The sale shall be made between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, at public auction or private sale, as the court may have ordered, but the same shall not be sold at private sale, unless the real estate to be sold has been appraised within a year previous to the time of such sale; nor shall the same be sold at private sale for less than two-thirds of its appraised value. If such real estate has not been so appraised, the court shall appoint three disinterested real estate holders to appraise the same, who shall return their said appraisement under oath to the court before the sale shall be made.

Sale Vacated, When.

2927. SEC. 141. The executor or administrator making any sale of any real estate shall within five days thereafter make and file with the Clerk a return of his proceedings, whereupon the Clerk shall give notice by posting in three public places of the county that the return has been filed and will be heard by the court at a time and place to be designated in said notice, not less than ten days after such posting, and notify all interested to appear and show cause why said sale should not be confirmed. At the time set, or at such other times as the hearing may be continued to, the court shall hear the matter and if it shall appear that the proceedings were unfair, or that the sum bid is disproportional to the value, and that a sum exceeding such bid at least ten per cent exclusive of the expense of a new sale may be obtained, the court shall vacate such sale and direct a new sale to be made, and the proceedings thereon shall be as upon an original order to sell; provided, that if an offer of ten per cent or more exclusive of the expense of a new sale shall be made in writing by a responsible person, to the court or Judge, it shall be discretionary with the court to accept such offer and confirm the sale to such person or to order a new sale.

Order Confirming Sale.

2928. SEC. 142. If upon the hearing, when all persons interested who desire have been heard for or against, and any testimony that may be offered, it shall appear to the court that the sale was legally made and fairly conducted, and that the sum bid is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, or if disproportionate that a greater sum as above specified cannot be obtained, or that the advance bid mentioned in section 141 of this Act be made and accepted, the court shall confirm the sale and direct proper conveyances to be made and executed, and such sale from that time shall be confirmed and valid; provided, that if after such confirmation the purchaser shall neglect or refuse to comply with [the] terms of sale the court may, on motion of the executor or administrator, and after notice to the purchasers, order a new sale of the property, and if the amount realized on such sale does not cover the bid and expenses of the previous sale, such delinquent purchaser shall be liable for the deficiency.

Conveyances Pass, What.

2929. SEC. 143. Proper conveyances shall thereupon be executed to the purchasers by the executor or administrator. The conveyances so made shall be deemed to convey all the right, title, interest and estate of the deceased in the premises at the time of his or her death. When, however, by operation of law or otherwise the estate shall have acquired any right, title or interest in the premises other than or in addition to that of the deceased at the time of his or her death, such right, title or interest shall also be passed by such conveyances.

Before Confirmation.

2930. SEC. 144. Before any order is entered confirming the sale it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court that notice of the sale was given as in this Act prescribed, and the order of confirmation shall state that such proof was made.

Postponement of Sale.

2931. SEC. 145. If at the time appointed for the sale the executor or administrator shall deem it best for the interest of all parties concerned therein that the same should be postponed, he may adjourn the sale from time to time, not exceeding in all sixty days.

Adjournment, Notice Of.

2932. SEC. 146. In case of adjournment notice thereof shall be given by a public declaration at the time and place first appointed for the sale, and if the adjournment be for more than one day, further notice shall be given by posting in three public places in the county where the land is situated, or publishing the same, or both, as time and circumstances will admit.

Sale to Pay Legacies.

2933. SEC. 147. When the testator shall have given any legacy by will that is effectual to pass or charge real estate, and his goods, chattels, rights and credits shall be insufficient to pay a legacy together with his debts and the charges and expenses of administration, the executor or administrator, with the will annexed, may obtain an order to sell his real estate for that purpose, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as hereinbefore provided in case of a sale for the payment of debts.

Payment According to Will.

2934. SEC. 148. If a deceased person shall have made provision by will, designating the estate to be appropriated for the payment of debts, expenses of administration, or family expenses, they shall be paid according to the provisions of the will, and out of the estate thus appropriated, so far as the same may be sufficient.

Order Not Required, When.

2935. SEC. 149. When such provision has been made, or any property directed by will be sold for any purpose, the executor or the administrator, with the will annexed, may proceed to sell, as directed by the will, without an order of the district court, but he shall be bound to give notice of the sale, and proceed in all respects as if acting under an order of sale from the court. Such sale shall not be valid until confirmed by the court.

When Property Insufficient.

2936. SEC. 150. If the provisions made by the will, or the estate appropriated be not sufficient to pay the debts, expenses of administration and family expenses, such part of the estate as shall not have been disposed of by the will, if any, shall be appropriated to that purpose as provided in this Act.

Divided Estate Liable for Debts.

2937. SEC. 151. The estate, real and personal, given by will to any devisees or legatees, shall be held liable for the payment of debts, expenses of administration and family expenses in proportion to the value or amount of the several devises or legacies, except that specific devises or legacies may be exempted, if it shall appear to the court necessary to carry into effect the intention of the deceased, if there shall be other sufficient estate.

Contribution.

2938. SEC. 152. When the estate given by any will has been sold for the payment of debts and expenses all the devisees and legatees shall be liable to contribute according to their respective interests, to any devisee or legatee from whom the estate devised or bequeathed to him or her may have been taken for the payment of debts or expenses, and the district court, when distribution is made, shall settle the amount of the several liabilities, and decree how much each person shall contribute.

Contract for Lands May Be Sold.

2939. SEC. 153. If a deceased person, at the time of death, was possessed of a contract for the purchase of lands, the interest of deceased in such lands, and under such contract, may be sold in the same manner as if said person had died seized of such land, and the same proceedings shall be had for that purpose as are prescribed in this Act in respect to lands of which a person dies seized, except as hereinafter provided.

Sale, How Made.

2940. SEC. 154. Such sale shall be made subject to all payments that may thereafter become due on such contract, and if there be any such payments thereafter to become due, such sale shall not be confirmed by the district court until the purchaser or purchasers shall execute a bond to the executor or administrator for his benefit and indemnity, and for the benefit and indemnity of the person or persons entitled to the interest of deceased in the land so contracted for. The amount of such bond shall be double the whole amount of payments thereafter to become due on such contract, with such sureties as the district court or Judge shall approve.

Bond, How Conditioned.

2941. SEC. 155. Such bond shall be conditioned that the purchaser or purchasers will make all payments for such lands, that shall become due after the date of such sale, and will indemnify the executor or administrator, and the person or persons so entitled, against all demands, costs, charges and expenses, by reason of any covenant or agreement contained in such contract, but if there be no payment thereafter to become due on such contract, no bond shall be required of the purchaser or purchasers.

Assignment of Contract.

2942. SEC. 156. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the executor or administrator shall execute to the purchaser or purchasers an assignment of the contract, which assignment shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers all the right, title and interest of the person or persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in the lands sold at the time of the sale, and such purchaser or purchasers shall have the same rights and remedies against the vendor of such lands as the deceased would have if living.

Subject to Mortgage.

2943. SEC. 157. When any sale is made by any executor or administrator, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, of land subject to any mortgage or other lien, which is a valid claim against the estate of the deceased, the purchase money shall be applied, after paying the necessary expenses of the sale, first to the satisfaction of the mortgage or other lien and the residue in due course of administration. Such application of the purchase money shall be made without delay and the land shall remain subject to such mortgage or other lien until the purchase money shall have been actually so applied. No lien against any estate shall be affected by the statute of limitation pending the proceedings for the settlement of such estate.

Expenses of Sale.

2944. SEC. 158. In all cases in which lands are sold by an executor or administrator the necessary expenses of the sale shall first be paid out of the proceeds.

Misconduct in Sale.

2945. SEC. 159. If there shall be any neglect or misconduct in the proceedings of an executor or administrator in relation to any sale by which any person interested in the estate shall suffer any damage, the party aggrieved may recover for the same in a suit upon the bond of the executor or administrator or otherwise, as the case may require.

Fraudulent Sale.

2946. SEC. 160. Any executor or administrator who shall fraudulently sell any real estate of his decedent contrary to the provisions of this Act shall be liable on his bond, in double the value of the land sold, as damages, to be recovered in an action by the person or persons having an estate of inheritance therein.

Limitation of Action.

2947. SEC. 161. No action for the recovery of any estate sold by an executor or administrator under the provisions of this Act shall be maintained by any heir or other person claiming under the deceased unless it be commenced within three years next after the sale, saving to minors or others under any legal disability at the time when the right of action shall first accrue the right to commence such action at any time within three years after the removal of the disability.

Account of Sale.

2948. SEC. 162. Whenever a sale has been made by an executor or administrator of any property of the estate, real or personal, it shall be his duty to return to the district court a return of sale thereof within five days after making such sale. If he neglects to make such return he may be punished as for a contempt or his letters may be revoked, one day's notice having first been given him to appear and show cause why he should not be punished for a contempt or his letters should not be revoked, and his appearance may be compelled by attachment or other proper process.

Not to Purchase.

2949. SEC. 163. No executor or administrator shall directly or indirectly purchase any property of the estate he represents.

Executor to Take Possession.

2950. SEC. 164. The executor or administrator shall take into his possession all the estate of the deceased, real and personal, except that exempted as hereinbefore provided, and shall collect all debts due the deceased. For the purpose of bringing suits to quiet title or for partition of such estate, the possession of the executor or administrator shall be deemed the possession of the heirs or devisees. Such possession of heirs or devisees shall be subject, however, to the possession of the executor or administrator for all other purposes.

May Sue and Be Sued.

2951. SEC. 165. Actions for the recovery of any property, real or personal, or for the possession, and all actions founded upon contracts, may be maintained by and against executors and administrators in all cases where the same might have been maintained by or against their respective testators or intestates in their lifetime.

May Sue for Trespass.

2952. SEC. 166. Executors or administrators may maintain actions against any person or persons, who shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, carried away or converted to his or their own use the goods of their testator or intestate in his lifetime. They may also maintain actions for trespass committed on the real estate of the deceased while living.

May Sue for Waste.

2953. SEC. 167. Any person or his personal representatives shall have a right of action against the executor or administrator of any testator or intestate who in his lifetime shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, carried away or converted to his own use the goods or chattels of any such person, or committed any trespass on the real estate of such person.

Surviving Partner.

2954. SEC. 168. When there was a partnership existing between the testator or intestate at the time of his death and any other person, the surviving partner shall have the right to continue in possession of the effects of the partnership, and to settle its business, but the interest of the deceased shall be included in the inventory, and appraised as other property. The surviving partner shall proceed to settle the affairs of the partnership without delay, and shall account to the executor or administrator, and pay over such balance as may from time to time be payable to him in right of his testator or intestate. Upon the application of the executor or administrator the District Judge may, whenever it may appear necessary, order the surviving partner to render an account, and in case of neglect or refusal may, after notice, compel it by attachment; and the executor or administrator may maintain against him any action which the deceased could have maintained.

Action on Bond.

2955. SEC. 169. Any administrator may, in his own name, for the use and benefit of all parties interested in the estate, maintain actions on the bond of an executor of any former administrator of the same estate.

Joinder of Parties.

2956. SEC. 170. In actions brought by or against executors, it shall not be necessary to join those as parties who have not qualified.

Debts Compromised.

2957. SEC. 171. Whenever a debtor of a deceased person shall be unable to pay all his debts, the executor or administrator, with the approval of the district court or Judge, may compromise with such debtor and give him a discharge, upon receiving a fair and just dividend of his effects. A compromise may also be authorized in any case when it shall be made to appear to the court to be just and for the best interests of the estate.

Transfer to Defraud Recovery of Property.

2958. SEC. 172. When there shall be a deficiency of assets in the hands of an executor or administrator, and when the deceased, in his lifetime, shall have conveyed any real estate or any rights or interests therein with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid any right debt or duty of any person, or shall have so conveyed such estate that by law the deeds or conveyances are void as against creditors, the executor or administrator may, and it shall be his duty, to commence and prosecute to final judgment any proper action for the recovery of the same for the benefit of the creditors, and may also for such benefit sue for and recover all goods, chattels, rights or credits or their value, which may have been so fraudulently conveyed by the deceased in his lifetime, whatever may have been the manner of such fraudulent conveyance.

Executor Not Bound.

2959. SEC. 173. No executor or administrator shall be bound to sue for such estate as mentioned in the preceding section for the benefit of the creditors, unless upon application of creditors of the deceased, nor unless such creditors shall pay the costs and expense of such litigation, or give such security therefor as the court or Judge shall direct.

Disposition of, When Recovered.

2960. SEC. 174. All real estate so recovered shall be sold for the payment of debts in the same manner as hereinbefore prescribed for sales of real estate by executors or administrators, and the proceeds of all goods, chattels, rights or credits so received shall be applied in payment of debts in the same manner as other personal property in the hands of the executor or administrator.

Contract to Be Completed.

2961. SEC. 175. When any person who is bound by contract in writing to convey any real estate shall die before making the conveyance, the district court in a proper proceeding therefor may decree that the executor or administrator convey such real estate to the person entitled thereto in all cases where such deceased person, if living, might be compelled to make such conveyance. All persons interested in the estate shall be made parties defendant in such action.

Effect of Conveyance.

2962. SEC. 176. Every conveyance made in pursuance of a decree of the court as above provided, shall be as effectual to pass the estate contracted for as fully as if the contracting party himself were living and executed the conveyance himself.

Liable for Debts.

2963. SEC. 177. No executor or administrator shall be chargeable upon any special promise to answer damages or to pay the debts of the deceased out of his own estate, unless the agreement for that purpose or some memorandum or note thereof is in writing and signed by such executor or administrator, or by some other person by him thereunto specially authorized.

With What Chargeable.

2964. SEC. 178. Every executor and administrator shall be chargeable in his account with the whole of the estate of the deceased which should come to his possession at the value of the appraisement contained in the inventory, except as hereinafter provided, and with all the interest, profit and income of the estate.

Not to Profit or Lose By.

2965. SEC. 179. He shall not make profit by the increase nor suffer loss by the decrease or destruction of any part of the estate without his fault. He shall account for the excess when he shall sell any part of the estate for more than the appraisement, and if any be sold for less than the appraisement he shall not be responsible for the loss if the sale has been justly made.

Uncollected Debts.

2966. SEC. 180. No executor or administrator shall be accountable for any debts due the deceased that remain uncollected without his fault.

Expenses and Compensation.

2967. SEC. 181. He shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care and management as well as settlement of the estate, and for his services such fees as provided by law; but when the deceased shall, by his will, make some other provision for the compensation of his executor, this shall be deemed a full compensation for such services, unless the executor files a renunciation, in writing, of all claim for the compensation provided by the will.

PROPER EXPENSES—COUNSEL FEES. An executor may employ counsel to attend to the litigation concerning the estate. But he has no right to employ counsel at the expense of the estate to keep the accounts and do that business for which he is compensated by his fees. Lucich v. Medin, 3 Nev. 93.

Not to Purchase Claims.

2968. SEC. 182. No administrator or executor shall purchase any claim against the estate he represents; and if he shall pay any claim for less than its nominal value he shall not charge in his account more than he has actually paid.

PURCHASE OF CLAIM BY ADMINISTRATOR—WHEN ADMINISTRATOR CAN MAINTAIN ACTION AGAINST ESTATE. Furth v. Wyatt, 17 Nev. 180.

Commissions.

2969. SEC. 183. When no compensation shall have been provided by the will, or the executor shall renounce all claims thereto, he shall be allowed commissions upon the whole amount of the personal estate accounted for by him, as follows: For the first thousand dollars, at the rate of six per cent; for all above that sum and not exceeding five thousand dollars, at the rate of four per cent; for all above five thousand dollars, at the rate of two per cent, and the same commissions shall be allowed to administrators. In all cases such additional allowance may be made by the court for services in regard to the real estate, when it shall be made to appear that the same is just and reasonable.

First Account Rendered.

2970. SEC. 184. Within thirty days after the Judge has acted upon the claims filed against the estate, the executor or administrator shall file his first account, under oath, of his administration. Such account shall be itemized, showing the amount of money received and expended by him; the amount of all claims filed against the estate; the names of all claimants; the claims, if any, rejected, and all other matters necessary to show the conditions of the affairs of the estate.

Full Account and Report.

2971. SEC. 185. Every executor or administrator shall render and file under oath, a full account and report of his administration whenever he deems it advisable, or shall be directed to do so by the court on its own motion, or on motion on behalf of any person interested, when it shall appear to the court to be proper.

1. EXPENSES OF ADMINISTRATION. In Re Nicholson, 1 Nev. 518.

ATTORNEYS' FEES—INSURANCE. Id.

2. CHARGES FOR REPAIRS—EXPENSE OF CONTESTS—Funeral Expenses—Expense of Last Sickness. Estate of Millenovich, 5 Nev. 161.

Citation to Appear on Failure to Render Account.

2972. SEC. 186. If the executor or administrator fail to render and file his first account within the time specified in section 184, above, it shall be the duty of the court or Judge to order a citation to issue requiring him to file such account by a time to be stated in said citation as fixed by the court or Judge, or appear and show cause why he should not be compelled to file said account. If he fail to file said account by the time stated, or show cause why he should not, the court by attachment or other proper process may compel him to file such an account or may revoke his letters in the discretion of the court, and like action may be had in reference to any subsequent account he may be ordered to file.

Clerk to Give Notice by Posting.

2973. SEC. 187. When any account shall be filed by an executor or administrator with the Clerk, he shall give notice thereof by posting in three public places of the county, and notifying all persons interested in the estate, at a time and place, not less than ten days after the posting, to be stated in the notice, to appear and show cause why the account should not be approved and allowed and confirmed. As amended, Stats. 1899, 112.

Who May Contest.

2974. SEC. 188. Any person interested in an estate may contest any account or any item therein of the executor or administrator, by filing in writing with the Clerk, at any time before the hearing on approving the account, his objection. At the time fixed in the notice, or at such further time as the court may order, the court shall proceed to hear the matter, when the executor or administrator, or any other person, may be sworn and examined by either party, and the matter shall be adjudged by the court as law and right demand.

Vouchers to Be Produced.

2975. SEC. 189. In rendering his account the executor or administrator shall produce vouchers for all payments he may have made, which vouchers shall be filed and remain in court, and he may be examined on oath touching such payments, and also touching any property and effects of the deceased and the disposition thereof. When any such voucher shall be required for other purposes it may be withdrawn on leaving a certified copy on file. If any vouchers be lost, or for other good reason cannot be produced on settlement of an account, the payment may be proved by the oath of one competent witness.

Minors, Guardians For.

2976. SEC. 190. If there be a minor interested in the estate who has no legally appointed guardian, the court shall appoint some disinterested attorney to represent him, who, on behalf of the minor, may contest the account as any other person having an interest might contest it. The court may also appoint an attorney to represent absent heirs and devisees or legatees. All matters, including allowed claims not passed upon on the settlement of any former account, or on making a decree of sale, may be contested by heirs for cause shown.

Settlement Conclusive.

2977. SEC. 191. The settlement of an account and the allowance thereof by the court shall be conclusive against all persons in any way interested in the estate, saving, however, to all persons laboring under any legal disability their rights to proceed against the executor or administrator, either individually or upon his bond, within two years after their respective disabilities shall cease, and in any action brought by any such person the settlement and allowance of the account shall be presumptive evidence of its correctness.

Proof of Notice.

2978. SEC. 192. No account shall be allowed by the court until it be first proved that the notice hereinbefore required has been given, and the order or decree shall show that such proof was made to the satisfaction of the court and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

After Authority Ceases.

2979. SEC. 193. Whenever the authority of an executor or administrator shall cease or shall be revoked for any reason, he may be cited by the court to account, at the instance of the person succeeding to the administration of the same estate, in like manner as he might have been by any person interested in the estate, during the time he was executor or administrator.

Failure to Account.

2980. SEC. 194. If the executor or administrator resides out of the county, or absconds or conceals himself so that the citation cannot be personally served, and shall neglect to file an account within twenty days after the time fixed for that purpose, his letters shall be revoked.

Debts, Order of Payment.

2981. SEC. 195. The debts of the estate shall be paid in the following order: First—Funeral expenses. Second—The expenses of the last sickness. Third—Debts having preference by the laws of the United States. Fourth—Judgments rendered against the deceased in his lifetime, and mortgages in order of their date. Fifth—All other demands against the estate.

Preference to Mortgages.

2982. SEC. 196. The preference given in the preceding section to a mortgage shall only extend to the proceeds of the property mortgaged. If the proceeds of such property be insufficient to pay the mortgage the part remaining unsatisfied shall be classed with other demands against the estate.

Dividends.

2983. SEC. 197. If the estate be insufficient to pay all the debts of any one class, each creditor of such class shall be paid a dividend in proportion to his claim, and no creditor of any one class shall receive any payment until all of those of the preceding class have been fully paid.

Funeral Expenses.

2984. SEC. 198. It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator, as soon as he has sufficient funds in his hands to pay the funeral expenses, the expenses of the last sickness, and the allowance made to the family of the deceased, and he may retain in his hands the necessary expenses of administration, but he shall not be obliged to pay any other debt or any legacy until the payment shall have been ordered by the court.

Order for Payment to Creditors.

2985. SEC. 199. Upon the settlement of any account of an executor or administrator as in this Act provided, the court may make an order for the payment of debts as the condition of the estate will warrant. If there shall not be sufficient funds in the hands of the executor or administrator to pay the debts in full, the court shall specify in the decree the sum to be paid to each creditor. If the whole estate should be exhausted by such payments, such account as is then before the court shall be the final account, and the executor or administrator shall be entitled to his discharge on producing and filing the necessary vouchers and proofs showing that such payments have been made and that he has fully complied with the decree of the court.

Claims Disputed or Not Due.

2986. SEC. 200. If there be any claim not due or any contingent or disputed claim against the estate, the amount thereof or such part of the same as the holder would be entitled to if the claim were due, or established or absolute, shall be paid into court, where it shall remain to be paid over to the party when he shall become entitled thereto, or, if he fail to establish the claim, to be paid over or distributed, as the circumstances of the estate require; provided, that if any creditor whose claim has been allowed, but is not yet due, shall appear and consent to a deduction therefrom of the legal interest for the time the claim has yet to run, he shall be entitled to be paid accordingly.

Liabie After Decree.

2987. SEC. 201. Whenever a decree shall be made by the court for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator shall be personally liable to each creditor for the amount of his claim, or the dividend thereon, and execution may be issued upon such decree as upon a judgment in any other action, in favor of each creditor, and the same proceedings may be had under such execution as if it had been issued upon a judgment. The executor or administrator shall also be liable on his bond to each creditor.

Payment of Legacies.

2988. SEC. 202. When the whole of the debt and liabilities of an estate have been paid, the court shall proceed to direct the payment of legacies and the distribution of the estate among those entitled, as hereinafter provided; provided, the estate is in condition to be closed; if not, then at such time as it thereafter may be in condition.

DUTY OF ADMINISTRATORS. Administrators should be held to the utmost good faith and strict performance of official duty. They are, however, mere creatures of the statute, and are only bound to perform such duties as are imposed upon them by the law. Royce v. Hampton, 16 Nev. 25.

Final Account.

2989. SEC. 203. Whenever all the property of an estate shall have been sold, or there shall be sufficient funds in his hands for the payment of all debts due by the estate, and the estate be in a proper condition to be closed, the executor or administrator shall render and file his final account and pray a settlement of his administration.

DUTIES OF ADMINISTRATORS—CARE AND DILIGENCE. Whenever an administrator does what the law prohibits, or fails to exercise reasonable care and diligence in the endeavor to do what the law enjoins, he and his sureties are liable for the damages consequent upon such act or omission. McNabb v. Wixom, 7 Nev. 163.

NEGLECT BY ADMINISTRATOR TO PAY OVER—LIABILITY FOR SUBSEQUENT LOSS. If an administrator deposits money of an estate in a bank, and allows it to remain after the time when, if he had fulfilled his duty, it would have been distributed and in the hands of those entitled to it; and the bank fails and the money is lost, he and his sureties are liable therefor. Id.

MEASURE OF DAMAGES FOR LOSS BY NEGLECT OF ADMINISTRATOR. Where money of an estate is lost by reason of such neglect of an administrator as he and his sureties are liable for, the sum lost constitutes the measure of damages. Id.

TIME WITHIN WHICH ADMINISTRATORS TO ACCOUNT AND SETTLE. Id.

Neglect to Render Final Account.

2990. SEC. 204. If he neglects to render and file his final account the same proceedings may be had as prescribed in this Act in regard to the first account to be filed by him, and all the provisions relative to said first account, and the notice and settlement thereof, shall apply to his account for final settlement.

Distribution, When Made.

2991. SEC. 205. When the accounts of an executor or administrator have been settled and a decree for the distribution of the estate made by the court, the executor or administrator shall without any unnecessary delay distribute the estate remaining in his hands as by the decree directed.

Accounts Confirmed, When.

2992. SEC. 206. At the time any account comes before the court for allowance, if there are no exceptions filed by any person interested in the estate, and the account is made to appear to the court to be correct and according to law, the court may allow and confirm the account.

Petition of Heirs.

2993. SEC. 207. At any time after the lapse of three months after the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration, any heir, devisee or legatee may present his petition to the court, praying that the legacy or share of the estate to which he or she is entitled may be given to him or her upon giving bond, with approved security, for the payment of his or her proportion of the debts of the estate.

Estate of Foley, 24 Nev.

Notice Of.

2994. SEC. 208. Notice of the application shall be given to the executor or administrator personally, and to all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of an account of an executor or administrator, or [as] the court may direct.

Who May Resist.

2995. SEC. 209. The executor or administrator, or any person interested in the estate, may appear and resist the application, or any other heir, devisee or legatee may make a similar application for himself or herself.

Decree of Distribution.

2996. SEC. 210. If, on the hearing, it appears that the estate is but little indebted, and that the share or shares of the party or parties petitioning may be allowed, without injury to the creditors of the estate, the court shall make a decree in conformity to the prayer of the applicant or applicants; provided, that each one of them shall first execute and deliver to the executor or administrator a bond in such sum as shall be designated by the court or Judge, and with sureties to be approved by the Judge. Such bond shall be made payable to the executor or administrator and conditioned for the payment by the heir, devisee or legatee whenever required of his or her proportion of the debts of the estate.

Decree, What May Direct.

2997. SEC. 211. Such decree may direct the executor or administrator to deliver to the petitioner or petitioners the whole portion of the estate to which he, she or they may be entitled, or a part only thereof.

Partition.

2998. SEC. 212. If in the execution of such decree any partition be necessary between two or more of the parties, it shall be made in the manner herein-after prescribed.

Cost of Proceedings.

2999. SEC. 213. The costs of such proceedings shall be paid by the applicant, or if there be more than one, shall be apportioned equally amongst them.

Payment of Bond Given.

3000. SEC. 214. Whenever any bond has been executed and delivered as above prescribed, and the executor or administrator shall ascertain that it is necessary for the settlement of the estate to require the payment of any part of the money thereby secured, he shall petition the court for an order requiring the payment, and cause a citation to be issued and served upon the party bound, requiring him or her, at a time and place, not more than ten days after the date of the citation, to be stated therein, to appear and show cause why the order shall not be made. At the hearing the court, if satisfied of the necessity for such payment to be made, shall make an order accordingly, designating the amount and giving a time in which it shall be paid. If the money be not paid within the time allowed, an action may be maintained by the executor or administrator on the bond.

Petition for Distribution, When Made.

3001. SEC. 215. When an executor or administrator files his final account, with a petition praying for the allowance and confirmation thereof, he may also include in such petition a prayer for the distribution of the estate, and upon the settlement and allowance of the final account the court may also decree a distribution of the residue of the estate, if any, among the persons who are by law entitled. If a final account be settled and allowed without a decree of distribution the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee or legatee, or assignee or grantee of any heir, devisee or grantee, at any time thereafter, may petition the court for a decree distributing the estate. A statement of the receipts and disbursements of the executor or administrator since the rendition of his final account shall be reported and filed before or at the time of making such distribution, unless distribution of real estate only be made, and a settlement thereof, together with an estimate of the expense of closing the estate, shall be made by the court, and shall be included in the decree, or the court or Judge may order notice of the settlement of such supplementary account.

Form of Decree.

3002. SEC. 216. In the decree the court shall name the persons and the proportion or parts to which each shall be entitled, and such person shall have the right to demand and recover his or her respective share from the executor or administrator or any other person having the same in possession.

Petition for Distribution.

3003. SEC. 217. When a petition for distribution shall be filed, notice of the hearing of said petition shall be personally served, at the time of the filing of the final account or subsequently thereto, on all personally interested in the estate at least five days before the time specified in the notice, or shall be given by publication for at least three successive weeks in such newspaper as the court or Judge shall order, and the court may order such further notice as it may deem proper. As amended, Stats. 1899, 112.

Estates in Common.

3004. SEC. 218. When the estate, real or personal, assigned to two or more heirs, devisees or legatees shall be in common and undivided and the respective shares cannot be separated and distinguished, or when property of the estate shall be held in common and undivided with other parties, partition thereof may be made as hereinafter provided.

Petition, Who May File—Citation Shall Specify.

3005. SEC. 219. To secure such petition any person interested may file a petition stating the necessary facts, particularly describing the property to be partitioned and the party or parties interested in such property. Upon filing such petition a citation shall issue to all persons interested who shall reside in this state, or their guardians, and to agents, attorneys or guardians, if there be any in this state, or such as reside out of this state, to appear and show cause why a decree of partition should not be made as prayed for. The citation shall specify the estate and the party petitioning for partition, also the time and place for hearing the petition, not more than twenty days from its date, and must be served five days before the hearing at the time specified in the citation or at such further time as the court may continue the hearing. Upon proof, to the satisfaction of the court, that the citation has been properly served as above required, the court shall proceed to hear the petition and the allegation and proofs of the respective parties, and decree accordingly.

Petition May Be Filed, When—Partition, When Ordered.

3006. SEC. 220. A petition for partition may be filed at any time before the decree of distribution; and attorneys, guardians and agents appointed and the citation issued, and the petition heard and determined as above provided, in which case the commissioners hereinafter provided for to make partition shall not be appointed until the decree has been made assigning the estate, when the court, having assigned the estate, may appoint commissioners to partition it as hereinafter provided. But when application is made solely to have partition between the estate administered upon and any other parties, such application may be heard and determined, and partition ordered at any time the court may direct.

Commissioners Appointed.

3007. SEC. 221. When the property to be partitioned is entirely personal property the court or Judge shall appoint three competent, disinterested persons as commissioners for that purpose, who shall be duly sworn by any officer authorized to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially discharge their duties. A certified copy of the order appointing them, attached to a certified copy of the decree assigning and distributing the estate, shall be given to them as their warrant, and their oath must be endorsed thereon. When the property to be divided is real estate, or partly real and partly personal, one of the three commissioners shall be a practical surveyor. Upon consent of the parties, and when the court shall deem it proper and just, the court may appoint one commissioner only, who shall have the same authority and be governed by the same rules as if three were appointed.

When Real Estate Is in Different Counties.

3008. SEC. 222. If the real estate to be partitioned shall be in different counties, the court or Judge, if deemed proper, may appoint commissioners for each county, and in such case the estate in each county shall be divided separately, as if there were no other estate to be partitioned; but the commissioners first appointed shall, unless otherwise directed by the court, make division of the real estate, wherever situated in this state.

When Heirs Part With Interest.

3009. SEC. 223. Partition may be made as provided herein, although some of the original heirs, devisees or legatees may have assigned or conveyed their shares to other persons, and such shares shall be partitioned to the person holding the same, in the same manner as they would have been to the heirs, devisees or legatees, had they not transferred their shares.

Shares, How Set Out.

3010. SEC. 224. The several shares in the real and personal estate shall be set out to each individual in proportion to his or her right, and the real estate by metes and bounds, or such description that the same can be easily distinguished. If two or more of the parties request to have their shares set out so as to be held in common and undivided, such shares may be so partitioned.

May Be Assigned to One, When.

3011. SEC. 225. When any such real estate cannot be divided without prejudice or inconvenience to the owners, the court may assign the whole to one or more of the parties entitled to shares therein, who will accept and pay to the other parties interested their just proportion of the true value thereof, or secure the same to their satisfaction, or, in case of the minority of such party or parties, to the satisfaction of the guardian of such minor or minors, and the true value of the estate shall be ascertained and reported by the commissioners or appraisers appointed specially for that purpose.

Payment for Equalizing.

3012. SEC. 226. When any tract of land or tenement shall be of greater value than either party's share in the estate to be divided and cannot be divided without injury to the same, it may be set off by the commissioners to any one of the parties, who will accept it and pay, or secure to be paid, to one or more of the others interested, such sum or sums as the commissioners shall award to make the partition equal, and the commissioners shall make their award accordingly; but such partition shall not be established by the court until the sums so awarded shall be paid to the parties entitled to the same or secured to their satisfaction.

Estates Sold—Proceeds Divided.

3013. SEC. 227. When it cannot otherwise be fairly divided, the whole or any part of the estate, real or personal, may be recommended by the commissioners to be sold, and if the report be confirmed the court may order a sale by the executor or administrator or by a commissioner appointed for that purpose, and distribute the proceeds. The sale shall be conducted, reported upon and confirmed in the same manner and under the same rules as in ordinary cases of sales of land by an administrator under this Act.

Estates in Common, How Partitioned.

3014. SEC. 228. When partition of real estate among heirs, devisees, or legatees shall be required, and such real estate shall be in common and undivided with the real estate of any other person, the commissioner shall first divide and sever the estate of the deceased from the estate in which it lies in common, and such division so made and established by the court shall be binding upon all the persons interested. The court may authorize the executor or administrator to bring suit for such partition when deemed necessary.

Shares of Equal Cash Value.

3015. SEC. 229. In making partition the commissioners shall always have regard to quantity and quality, and may set off quantity against quality, or quality against quantity, so that when the partition is made all the shares partitioned shall be of equal cash value, as near as possible.

Guardians Appointed.

3016. SEC. 230. Before any partition shall be made as provided herein guardians shall be appointed for all minor and insane persons interested in the estate to be divided, and an attorney shall be appointed for all non-resident or absent heirs or other persons interested. The commissioners shall notify all persons interested in the partition, their guardians, agents or attorneys, of the time when they will proceed to make partition, which time shall be as reasonable after their appointment as circumstances will admit or the court in the order of appointment may fix the time. The commissioners may take testimony, for which purpose any one of them may administer an oath, and they may take all necessary steps to enable them to form a correct judgment upon the matters before them.

Report of Commissioner.

3017. SEC. 231. The commissioners, when they shall have completed their work, within a reasonable time [shall] make a report of their proceedings and of the partition made by them, and file the same with the Clerk of the Court. Within fifteen days after the report is filed any person interested may file exceptions to the report, particularly specifying the grounds of objection. A copy of such objection shall be served upon the commissioners and all parties interested in the partition, their guardians, agents or attorneys in the county, before or at the time they are filed, with a notice to such persons that the objecting party will, at a certain time to be mentioned, not later than twenty days after the filing of said report, move the court to set aside the report, and for a new partition. At the time specified, or at such other time as the court may sit, the court shall proceed to hear the report and exceptions, and may hear proof by either party, and for sufficient reasons the court may set aside the report, and recommit the partition to the same commissioners, or appoint others, or may confirm the report. If no exceptions shall be filed to the report within the time above specified, the court, on the expiration of said fifteen days, or at any time thereafter, if the report appears [to] be just and correct and all the proceedings regular, shall confirm the report, and when such report shall be finally confirmed the decree of confirmation and the report shall be recorded by the Clerk, and the court shall order proper conveyance to be made by the respective parties to one another, or may, if for any reason necessary, appoint a commissioner to make such conveyance or conveyances which, when acknowledged or recorded, shall effectually pass the title.

Advancements Heard by Court.

3018. SEC. 232. All questions as to advancement made or alleged to have been made by the deceased to any heirs may be heard and determined by the court, and shall be specified in the decree distributing the estate, and in the warrant to the commissioners, and the final decree of the court shall be binding on all parties interested in the estate with right, however, of any party to appeal from a final decree of the court to the supreme court as in other action.

Agent for Absentees.

3019. SEC. 233. When any estate shall be distributed by the court or partitioned by commissioners as in this Act provided to any person residing out of this state, and having no agent therein, and it shall be necessary that some person should be authorized to take charge and possession of the same for the benefit of such absent person, the court may appoint an agent for that purpose and authorize him to take charge of such estate.

Bond of Agent.

3020. SEC. 234. Such agent shall give a bond to the District Judge in such sum as the Judge shall fix, which bond shall be approved by the Judge and conditioned for the faithful management of, and accounting for the estate, before such agent shall be authorized to receive the same, and the court may allow a reasonable sum out of the profits of the estate for services and expenses of such agent.

Unclaimed Estates.

3021. SEC. 235. When the estate shall remain unclaimed in the hands of the agent for a year, it shall be sold under an order of the court, and the proceeds, deducting the expenses of the sale to be allowed by the court, shall be paid into the state treasury, for which the Treasurer shall receipt in duplicate to the agent, one of which the agent shall file in the office of the State Comptroller and the other in the estate matter in the district court.

Liability of Agent.

3022. SEC. 236. The agent shall be liable on his bond for the care and preservation of the estate while in his hands, and for the payment of the proceeds of the sale as required in the preceding section, and may be sued thereon by the state or any person interested.

Certificate to Claimant.

3023. SEC. 237. When any person shall appear and claim the money paid into the treasury, the district court having ordered the sale, being first satisfied of his right, shall give him a certificate attested by the Clerk, under the seal of the court, and upon the presentation of the certificate to the State Comptroller shall draw his warrant on the Treasurer for the amount.

Decree of Discharge.

3024. SEC. 238. When the estate has been fully administered, and it is shown by the executor or administrator, by the production of satisfactory vouchers, that he has paid all sums of money due from him, and delivered up on the order of court all the property of the estate to the parties entitled, and has performed all acts lawfully required of him, the court shall make a decree discharging him and his sureties from all liability thereafter to be incurred.

Subsequent Letters May Issue.

3025. SEC. 239. The final settlement of an estate shall not prevent a subsequent issuance of letters testamentary or of administration should other property of the estate be discovered, or should it become necessary or proper from any cause that letters should again be issued.

Powers Suspended by Order of Court, When.

3026. SEC. 240. Whenever a District Judge has reason to believe from his own knowledge or from credible information that any executor or administrator has wasted, converted to his own use, or mismanaged, or is about to waste or convert to his own use, the property of the estate committed to his charge, or has committed or is about to commit any wrong or fraud upon the estate, or has become incompetent to act, or has permanently removed from the state, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has unreasonably delayed the performance of necessary acts in any particular as such executor or administrator, it shall be his duty, by an order entered upon the minutes of the court, to suspend the powers of such executor or administrator until the matter can be investigated.

When Special Administrator Appointed.

3027. SEC. 241. During the suspension of the powers of an executor or an administrator, as provided in the preceding section, the district court, or Judge, if the condition of the estate requires it, may appoint a special administrator to take charge of the effects of the estate, who shall give bond and account as other special administrators are required to do.

Proceedings on Suspension.

3028. SEC. 242. When such suspension has been made the Clerk shall issue a citation, reciting the order of suspension, to the executor or administrator, to appear before the court at a time therein to be stated, as fixed by the court or Judge, to show cause why his letters should not be revoked, said citation to be served by the Sheriff, or other person, as provided in the Civil Practice Act for service of process. If he fail to appear in obedience to the citation, or appearing the court shall be satisfied that there exists good grounds for his removal, his letters shall be revoked, and letters of administration granted anew, as the case may require.

Who May Appear.

3029. SEC. 243. Any person interested may appear at the hearing and file allegations in writing, showing that the executor or administrator should be removed. Such allegations shall be heard and determined by the court.

Executor Absconding.

3030. SEC. 244. If the executor or administrator has absconded or conceals himself, or has removed or absented himself from the state, the citation may be served by leaving a copy at his last known place of abode and upon his attorney of record, when the court shall have jurisdiction to proceed as if the citation had been personally served.

To Compel Attendance.

3031. SEC. 245. In such proceedings for the removal of an executor or administrator the court may compel his attendance by attachment or other proper process and may require him to answer questions, on oath, touching his administration and upon his refusal so to do may commit him to jail until he obey, or may revoke his letters, or both.

Minutes of Proceedings to Be Kept.

3032. SEC. 246. The Clerk shall enter a minute of all proceedings in matters of estates, as in other actions, and also in the probate register. When publication is ordered such publication shall be made daily, or otherwise, as often as during the prescribed period as the paper is regularly issued, unless otherwise provided in this Act. The court or Judge, however, may prescribe a less number of publications during the period for publication, and the court or Judge may, for good cause shown, extend or shorten any of the times prescribed in this Act.

Personal Notice, How Given.

3033. SEC. 247. Whenever personal notice is required by this Act to be given to any party in the matter of an estate, and no other mode of giving notice is prescribed, it shall be given by citation, which shall be issued by the Clerk under the seal of the court, and directed to the Sheriff of the proper county, commanding such person to appear before the court or Judge, as the case may be, at a time and place to be named in the citation; also the nature or character of the proceeding shall be briefly stated in the body thereof.

Citation, How Served.

3034. SEC. 248. The officer to whom a citation is directed, unless otherwise provided herein, or the order of the court or Judge, shall serve the same by delivering a copy to the person therein named, or to each one of them, if there be more than one, and shall return the original to the court, according to its direction, indorsing thereon the time and manner of service.

Proofs of Serving Papers.

3035. SEC. 249. All proofs of publication or other mode or modes of giving notice or serving papers may be made by the affidavit of any person competent to be a witness, which affidavit shall be filed, and shall constitute prima facie evidence of such publication or service, as the case may be.

Citation, When Served.

3036. SEC. 250. When no other time is specially prescribed, citation shall be served at least two days before the return day.

Taking Testimony in Other Places.

3037. SEC. 251. For the purpose of taking the testimony of a witness or witnesses in other counties of this state, or in other states or territories, or foreign countries, a commission may be issued as in other cases, and, when issued ex parte no cross interrogatories shall be necessary.

Issues of Fact.

3038. SEC. 252. All issues of fact in matters of an estate shall be disposed of in the same manner as is by law provided upon the trial of issues of fact in a common law action. All questions of costs may be determined by the court, and execution may issue therefor in accordance with the order of the court.

Attorney for Minors.

3039. SEC. 253. When, upon any proceeding in an estate, an attorney has been appointed for minors or others interested in the estate, such attorney, until another may be appointed, shall represent the party or parties for whom he has been appointed in all subsequent proceedings.

Setting Aside Homestead.

3040. SEC. 254. When a decree is rendered setting apart a homestead, a certified copy of such decree shall be recorded in the County Recorder's office where the property is.

Appeal.

3041. SEC. 255. Any person interested in, affected by, and aggrieved at the decision and decree of the district court appointing an executor or administrator, revoking letters, allowing a final account, or disallowing it, decreeing a distribution or partition, order or decree, confirming or setting aside a report of commissioners, admitting or refusing a will for probate, and any other decision wherein the amount in controversy equals or exceeds, exclusive of costs, one thousand dollars, may appeal to the supreme court of the state, to be governed in all respects as an appeal from a final decision and judgment in action at law.

Power of Appellate Court.

3042. SEC. 256. Upon an appeal the appellate court may in its discretion reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment, order or decree appealed from, and as to any or all of the parties, and order a remittitur as in other cases, and may order costs to be paid by any party to the proceedings, or out of the estate as justice may require. Execution for costs may issue out of the district court.

Undertaking on Appeal Not Required.

3043. SEC. 257. An appeal by an executor or administrator as herein provided, who has given an official bond, shall be complete and effectual without an undertaking on appeal.

Executor Removed—Successor Appointed.

3044. SEC. 258. When an order or decree appointing an executor or administrator shall be reversed on appeal, all lawful acts in administration upon the estate performed by such executor or administrator, if he shall have qualified, shall be as valid as if such order or decree had been affirmed. When an executor or administrator resigns or is removed, a successor may be appointed if a necessity therefor exists, without again proving the death and residence of the deceased.

Estate of Person Dying Intestate, How Distributed—When to Escheat to State.

3045. SEC. 259. When any person having title to any estate, not otherwise limited by marriage contracts, shall die intestate as to such estate, it shall descend and be distributed subject to the payment of his or her debts in the following manner:

First—If there be a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and child, or issue of such child. If there be a surviving husband or wife and more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one-third to the surviving husband or wife and the remainder in equal shares to his or her children, and to the lawful issue of any deceased child by right of representation. If there be no child of the intestate living at his or her death, the remainder shall go to all of his or her lineal descendants, and if all of the said descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the intestate, they shall share equally, otherwise they shall take according to the right of representation.

Second—If he or she shall leave no issue, the estate shall go in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and to the intestate's father, and if he or she shall leave no father, it shall go in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and the intestate's mother. If he or she shall leave no issue or husband or wife, the estate shall go to his or her father, if living, if not, to his or her mother, if living.

Third—If there be no issue, nor husband, nor wife, nor father, nor mother, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

Fourth—If the intestate shall have no issue, nor husband nor wife, nor father nor mother, and no brother or sister living at his or her death, the estate shall go to the next of kin in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestors shall be preferred to those who claim through ancestors more remote; provided, however, if any person shall die leaving several children, or leaving one child and issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child shall die under age and not having been married, all the estate that came to such deceased child by inheritance from such deceased parent shall descend in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who may have died, by right of representation.

Fifth—If at the death of such child, who shall die under age and not having been married, all the other children of his said parent being also dead, and any of them shall have left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his or her said parent shall descend to all the issue of the other children of the same parent, and if all the said issue are in the same degree of kindred to said child they shall share the said estate equally; otherwise they shall take according to the right of representation.

Sixth—If the intestate shall leave no husband nor wife nor kindred, the estate shall escheat to the state for the support of the common schools. As amended, Stats. 1899, 113.

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATES. Estate of Foley, 24 Nev.; Clark v. Clark, 17 Nev. 124.

Illegitimate Child.

3046. SEC. 260. Every illegitimate child shall be considered as an heir of the person who shall acknowledge himself to be the father of such child by signing in writing a declaration to that effect in the presence of one credible witness, who shall sign the declaration also as a witness, and shall in all cases be considered as heir of the mother, and shall inherit in whole or in part, as the case may be, in the same manner as if born in lawful wedlock. The issue of all marriages deemed null in law or dissolved by divorce shall be legitimate.

Heirs of Illegitimate Child.

3047. SEC. 261. If any illegitimate child shall die intestate without lawful issue and shall not have been acknowledged as above provided, his estate shall descend to his mother, or, in case of her decease, to her heirs at law.

Degrees of Kindred.

3048. SEC. 262. The degrees of kindred shall be computed according to the rules of the civil law, and kindred of the half blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, unless the inheritance comes to the intestate by descent, devise or gift from some one of his or her ancestors, in which case all those who are not of the blood of such ancestor shall be excluded from the inheritance.

Advancement a Part of Estate.

3049. SEC. 263. Any estate, real or personal, that may have been given by the deceased in his or her lifetime as an advancement to any child or other lineal descendant shall be considered as part of the estate of the intestate, so far as regards the distribution and division thereof among his or her issue, and shall be taken by such child or other lineal descendant towards his or her share of the estate of the deceased.

When Advancement Exceeds Share.

3050. SEC. 264. If the amount of such advancement shall exceed the share of the heir so advanced, such heir shall be excluded from any further portion in the distribution and division of the estate, but he or she shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement; and if the amount so received shall be less than his or her share, he or she shall be entitled to as much more as will give him or her his or her full share of the estate of the deceased.

Gifts and Grants.

3051. SEC. 265. No gift or grant shall be deemed to have been made as an advancement unless so expressed in the gift or grant, or charged in writing by the deceased as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing by the child or other descendant to be such.

Value of Advancement.

3052. SEC. 266. If the value of the advancement shall be expressed in the conveyance, or in the charge thereof made by the deceased, or in the acknowledgment of the party receiving it, it shall be considered of that value in the distribution and division of the estate; otherwise it shall be estimated according to its value when given as nearly as the same can be ascertained.

Advancement in Case of Death of Recipient.

3053. SEC. 267. If any child, or other lineal descendant so advanced, shall die before the person making the advancement leaving issue, the advancement shall be taken into consideration in the distribution and division of the estate, and the amount thereof shall be allowed accordingly by the representatives of the heir so advanced in the like manner as if the advancement had been made directly to them.

Husband and Wife.

3054. SEC. 268. The provisions of this Act, as to the inheritance of the husband and wife from each other, apply only to the separate property of the intestate.

Construction of Act—Compensation of Attorneys.

3055. SEC. 269. This Act shall be liberally construed, to the end that justice may be done all parties, and as speedy settlement of estates at the least expense secured; and all proceedings in matters of estate shall be proceedings of record as other actions and proceedings; and all attorneys for estates or executors or administrators or appointed in the proceedings shall be attorneys of record with administrator resigns or is removed, a successor may be appointed if a necessity therefor exists, without again proving the death and residence of the deceased.

Estate of Person Dying Intestate, How Distributed—When to Escheat to State.

3045. SEC. 259. When any person having title to any estate, not otherwise limited by marriage contracts, shall die intestate as to such estate, it shall descend and be distributed subject to the payment of his or her debts in the following manner:

First—If there be a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and child, or issue of such child. If there be a surviving husband or wife and more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one-third to the surviving husband or wife and the remainder in equal shares to his or her children, and to the lawful issue of any deceased child by right of representation. If there be no child of the intestate living at his or her death, the remainder shall go to all of his or her lineal descendants, and if all of the said descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the intestate, they shall share equally, otherwise they shall take according to the right of representation.

Second—If he or she shall leave no issue, the estate shall go in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and to the intestate's father, and if he or she shall leave no father, it shall go in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife and the intestate's mother. If he or she shall leave no issue or husband or wife, the estate shall go to his or her father, if living, if not, to his or her mother, if living.

Third—If there be no issue, nor husband, nor wife, nor father, nor mother, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

Fourth—If the intestate shall have no issue, nor husband nor wife, nor father nor mother, and no brother or sister living at his or her death, the estate shall go to the next of kin in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestors shall be preferred to those who claim through ancestors more remote; provided, however, if any person shall die leaving several children, or leaving one child and issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child shall die under age and not having been married, all the estate that came to such deceased child by inheritance from such deceased parent shall descend in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who may have died, by right of representation.

Fifth—If at the death of such child, who shall die under age and not having been married, all the other children of his said parent being also dead, and any of them shall have left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his or her said parent shall descend to all the issue of the other children of the same parent, and if all the said issue are in the same degree of kindred to said child they shall share the said estate equally; otherwise they shall take according to the right of representation.

Sixth—If the intestate shall leave no husband nor wife nor kindred, the estate shall escheat to the state for the support of the common schools. As amended, Stats. 1899, 113.

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATES. Estate of Foley, 24 Nev.; Clark v. Clark, 17 Nev. 124.

Illegitimate Child.

3046. SEC. 260. Every illegitimate child shall be considered as an heir of the person who shall acknowledge himself to be the father of such child by signing in writing a declaration to that effect in the presence of one credible witness, who shall sign the declaration also as a witness, and shall in all cases be considered as heir of the mother, and shall inherit in whole or in part, as the case may be, in the same manner as if born in lawful wedlock. The issue of all marriages deemed null in law or dissolved by divorce shall be legitimate.

Heirs of Illegitimate Child.

3047. SEC. 261. If any illegitimate child shall die intestate without lawful issue and shall not have been acknowledged as above provided, his estate shall descend to his mother, or, in case of her decease, to her heirs at law.

Degrees of Kindred.

3048. SEC. 262. The degrees of kindred shall be computed according to the rules of the civil law, and kindred of the half blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, unless the inheritance comes to the intestate by descent, devise or gift from some one of his or her ancestors, in which case all those who are not of the blood of such ancestor shall be excluded from the inheritance.

Advancement a Part of Estate.

3049. SEC. 263. Any estate, real or personal, that may have been given by the deceased in his or her lifetime as an advancement to any child or other lineal descendant shall be considered as part of the estate of the intestate, so far as regards the distribution and division thereof among his or her issue, and shall be taken by such child or other lineal descendant towards his or her share of the estate of the deceased.

When Advancement Exceeds Share.

3050. SEC. 264. If the amount of such advancement shall exceed the share of the heir so advanced, such heir shall be excluded from any further portion in the distribution and division of the estate, but he or she shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement; and if the amount so received shall be less than his or her share, he or she shall be entitled to as much more as will give him or her his or her full share of the estate of the deceased.

Gifts and Grants.

3051. SEC. 265. No gift or grant shall be deemed to have been made as an advancement unless so expressed in the gift or grant, or charged in writing by the deceased as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing by the child or other descendant to be such.

Value of Advancement.

3052. SEC. 266. If the value of the advancement shall be expressed in the conveyance, or in the charge thereof made by the deceased, or in the acknowledgment of the party receiving it, it shall be considered of that value in the distribution and division of the estate; otherwise it shall be estimated according to its value when given as nearly as the same can be ascertained.

Advancement in Case of Death of Recipient.

3053. SEC. 267. If any child, or other lineal descendant so advanced, shall die before the person making the advancement leaving issue, the advancement shall be taken into consideration in the distribution and division of the estate, and the amount thereof shall be allowed accordingly by the representatives of the heir so advanced in the like manner as if the advancement had been made directly to them.

Husband and Wife.

3054. SEC. 268. The provisions of this Act, as to the inheritance of the husband and wife from each other, apply only to the separate property of the intestate.

Construction of Act—Compensation of Attorneys.

3055. SEC. 269. This Act shall be liberally construed, to the end that justice may be done all parties, and as speedy settlement of estates at the least expense secured; and all proceedings in matters of estate shall be proceedings of record as other actions and proceedings; and all attorneys for estates or executors or administrators or appointed in the proceedings shall be attorneys of record with like powers and responsibilities as attorneys in other actions and proceedings; and shall be entitled to receive a reasonable compensation, to be paid out of the estate they respectively represent for services rendered, to be allowed by the court.

Regular Proceedings Dispensed With, When.

3056. SEC. 270. When it shall be made to appear to the court or Judge, by affidavit or otherwise, that the value of an estate does not exceed two thousand dollars, the court or Judge may, if deemed advisable, make an order for a summary administration of such an estate, dispensing with all regular proceedings and notices, except the notice of appointment of executor or administrator, which shall always be given by publication for four weeks, provided the cost does not exceed five dollars. Creditors of such an estate must file their claims, due or to become due, with the Clerk, within forty days after the first publication of said notice, and within five days thereafter the executor or administrator must act on the claims filed, and present them in three days thereafter to the Judge for his action. Any claim which shall not be filed within said forty days shall be barred forever. The Judge or court may, however, if deemed proper, order the notice herein provided for to be given by posting, instead of by publication. The court or Judge must be satisfied that proper notice has been given before decreeing distribution of the estate and discharging the executor or administrator. Every claim which shall have been filed as above provided, allowed by the executor or administrator, and approved by the Judge, shall then, and not till then, be ranked as an acknowledged debt of the estate, to be paid in due course of administration. The administration of the estate may be closed and distribution made at any time after the expiration of the time for the Judge to act on the claims, when it shall appear to the court that all the debts of the estate, expenses and charges of administration and allowance to the family, if any, have been paid, and the estate in condition to be finally settled. The total of fees and costs of the Clerk in a summary administration shall not exceed fifteen dollars. The provisions of this section shall apply only to estates of which summary administrations shall be ordered.

Form of Notice to Creditors.

3057. SEC. 271. The notice in this Act required to be given by every executor or administrator upon his qualifying shall be in substantially the following form: "Notice to Creditors: Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed and qualified by the (giving the title of the court), as (executor or administrator, as the case may be) of the estate of _____, late of said county, deceased. All creditors having claims against said estate are required to file the same, with proper vouchers attached, with the Clerk of the Court, within three months of the first publication of this notice. Dated _____." As amended, Stats. 1899, 114.

Right of Representation.

3058. SEC. 272. Inheritance or succession "by right of representation" takes place when the descendants of any deceased heir take the same share or right in the estate of another person that their parents would have taken if living. Posthumous children are considered as living at the death of their parents.

Escheated Estates.

3059. SEC. 273. If any person shall die, or any person who may have died, within this state, seized of any real or personal estate, and leaving no heirs, representatives, devisees or legatees capable of inheriting or holding the same, and in all cases where there is no owner of such estate capable of holding the same, such estate shall escheat to and be vested in the State of Nevada.

When Estates Escheat—Issue of Citation.

3060. SEC. 274. Whenever the Attorney-General shall be informed, or shall have reason to believe, that any real or personal estate has become escheatable to this state for the reasons specified in the preceding section, or that any such estate has for any other reason become escheatable, it shall be his duty to file an information in behalf of the state in the district court of the county wherein such estate, or any part thereof, is situated, setting forth a description of the estate, the name of the person last lawfully seized, the name of the terre-tenant and persons claiming such estate, if known, and the facts and circumstances in consequence of which said estate is claimed to have become escheated; and alleging that by reason thereof the State of Nevada has by law right to such estate; whereupon, such court shall order that a citation be issued, to such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, alleged in such information to hold, possess or claim such estate, requiring them to appear and show cause why such estate should not be vested in the State of Nevada, said citation to be made returnable within the time allowed by law in other civil actions. The court may also, if deemed advisable, order the citation to be published in a newspaper published in said county (if any), and, if none, then in some other newspaper in this state.

Contesting Escheats—Judgment and Costs Of.

3061. SEC. 275. All persons, bodies politic or corporate, named in such information as terre-tenants or claimants to such estate, may appear and plead to such proceedings, and may traverse or deny the facts stated in the information—the title of the state to estate therein mentioned—at any time on or before the third day of the return day of the citation; and any other person claiming an interest in such estate may appear and be made a defendant, and plead as aforesaid, by motion for that purpose in open court, within the time allowed for pleading as aforesaid; and if any person shall appear and plead as aforesaid denying the title set up by the state, or traverse any material fact set forth in the information, or issue or issues of fact to be made up, the matter shall proceed as other civil actions on issues of fact, and a survey may be ordered as in other civil actions when the boundary is called in question; and after the issues are tried it shall appear from the facts that the state has good title to the estate in the information mentioned, or any part thereof, or if no defense be made by anyone, judgment shall be rendered that the state be seized thereof, and recover costs of suit against defendants, if any appear.

Appeal May Be Taken.

3062. SEC. 276. Any party who shall have appeared to any proceedings as aforesaid, and the Attorney-General, in behalf of the state, shall respectively have the same right to prosecute an appeal or writ of error upon any judgment as aforesaid, as parties in other cases.

Escheated Estates—Proceedings to Recover, When and How Taken—Who Not Barred.

court shall find that such person is entitled to any money paid into the state treasury as aforesaid, it shall, by judgment, order and direct the State Comptroller to draw his warrant in favor of such claimant upon the Treasurer for the sum specified in such order, but without interest or cost to the state. If any real estate is the subject of such trial, and the court finds the claimant entitled to it, the court shall decree accordingly, which shall be effectual for divesting the interests of the state in or to such real estate, but no costs shall be taxed against the state. A certified copy of the judgment and order directing the Comptroller to draw his warrant for money, shall be a sufficient voucher for him so to do. All persons who shall fail to appear and file their petitions within the time limited as aforesaid, shall be forever barred, saving, however, infants, married women, persons of unsound mind, and persons beyond the limits of the United States the right to appear and file their petition as aforesaid, at any time within five years after their respective disabilities shall be removed. The legislature may cause any lands, escheated to the state, or personal estate, other than money, at any time after the judgment of escheat, to be sold, as may be provided by law, and the proceeds paid into the state treasury, in which case the petitioners shall be entitled to the proceeds thereof, in lieu of such lands or personal estate, and the court shall decree accordingly.

Receiver May Be Appointed.

3064. SEC. 278. The said district court, upon the filing of the information hereinbefore provided, upon the motion of the Attorney-General, either before or after answer, upon notice to the party or parties claiming the estate, if known, may, sufficient cause therefor being shown, appoint a receiver to take charge of the real estate or personal property, other than money, mentioned in such information, and receive the rents and profits of the same until the title of such property shall be finally settled. Such receiver shall, before entering upon his duties, execute to the State of Nevada a bond in a sum to be fixed by the court, with sureties to be approved by the Judge, conditioned to faithfully perform the duties of the trust, and fully account to the party finally adjudged to be entitled to the property. Such party may maintain an action on such bond for any default or damage.

Information to Attorney-General of Escheats.

3065. SEC. 279. Any person furnishing original information to the Attorney-General of any property escheatable to the state, with the necessary evidence to sustain the action of the state in that behalf, shall be entitled to receive, upon the final recovery of such property, five per cent of the value of such property so recovered; provided, that the amount so recovered by the person furnishing the information shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars in any one case; and, provided further, that one person only shall be entitled to compensation for such service.

Disposition of Money.

3066. SEC. 280. All moneys which have accrued or may hereafter accrue to the state from escheated estates shall be paid into the general fund, and, if need be, in defraying the current expenses of the government and the redemption of the Comptroller's warrants.

Proceedings to Apply.

3067. SEC. 281. When not otherwise specially provided in this Act all the provisions of law regulating proceedings in civil cases shall apply in matters of estate, when appropriate, or the same may be applied as auxiliary to the provisions of this Act.

Repeal.

3068. SEC. 282. The Act entitled "An Act to regulate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons," approved November 29, 1861 [p. 186], and all Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, are hereby repealed.

An Act supplemental to an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons," approved March 23, 1897.

Approved March 4, 1899, 102.

County Clerk May Give Notice Without Order.

3069. SECTION 1. All notices required to be given by the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons," approved March 23, 1897, may hereafter be given by the County Clerk without an order from the Judge for the same; and when so given for the time and in the manner required by law, they shall be as legal and valid as though made upon an order from such Judge.

Objections Filed With Clerk.

3070. SEC. 2. If the court is not in session at the time set for the hearing of any matter concerning the settlement of the estates of deceased persons, any one opposing the application therein made may file objections thereto with the Clerk, and thereafter the matter shall be heard upon the first day when the court is in session, unless such hearing is continued to some future day.

An Act concerning wills.

Approved December 19, 1862, 58.

Who May Make Wills.

3071. SECTION 1. Every person over the age of eighteen years, of sound mind, may, by last will, dispose of all his or her estate, real and personal, the same being chargeable with the payment of the testator's debts.

Wills of Married Women.

3072. SEC. 2. Any married woman may dispose of all her separate estate by will, absolutely, without the consent of her husband, either express or implied, and may alter or revoke the same in like manner as a person under no disability may do. Her will must be attested, witnessed, and proved in like manner as all other wills. As amended, Stats. 1873, 102.

Valid Wills.

3073. SEC. 3. No will, except such nuncupative wills as are mentioned in this Act, shall be valid unless it be in writing, and signed by the testator, and sealed with his seal, or by some person in his presence, and by his express direction, and attested by at least two competent witnesses, subscribing their names to the will in the presence of the testator.

OBJECT OF ATTESTING WITNESSES TO WILL. Attesting witnesses to a will are not required for the purpose of protecting the contingent and possible right of property in the state by way of escheat; but to prevent the setting up of fictitious wills against heirs and representatives. Estate of Sticknoth; 7 Nev. 223.

Legacies, Gifts, etc.

3074. SEC. 4. All beneficial devises, legacies, and gifts, whatsoever, made or given in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, shall be void, unless there are two other competent subscribing witnesses to the same; but a mere charge on the estate of the testator for the payment of debts shall not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will.

Nuncupative Wills, When Valid.

3075. SEC. 5. No nuncupative or verbal will shall be good where the estate bequeathed exceeds the value of one thousand dollars, nor unless the same be proved by two witnesses who were present at the making thereof, nor unless it be proved that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid some one present to bear witness that such was his will, or words of like import, nor unless such nuncupative will was made at the time of the last sickness of the deceased.

Proof Of.

3076. SEC. 6. No proof shall be received of any nuncupative will unless it be offered within three months after speaking the testamentary words.

Probate Of.

3077. SEC. 7. No probate of any nuncupative will shall be granted for fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor shall any nuncupative will be at any time proved unless the testamentary words, or the substance thereof, be first committed to writing by the Probate Judge, and process be issued to call in the widow, should she be a resident of the territory, or other person or persons interested as heirs of the testator, residing in the territory, to contest the probate of such will, if they think proper.

Revocation of Wills.

3078. SEC. 8. No will in writing shall be revoked unless by burning, tearing, canceling, or obliterating the same, with the intention of revoking it, by the testator, or by some person in his presence, or by his direction, or by some other will or codicil in writing, executed as prescribed by this Act; but nothing contained in this section shall prevent the revocation implied by law from subsequent changes in the condition or circumstances of the testator.

Second Wills, Cancellation of, Does Not Revive First.

3079. SEC. 9. If, after the making of any will, the testator shall duly make and execute a second will, the destruction, canceling, or revocation of such second will shall not revive the first will, unless it appear by the terms of such revocation that it was the intention to revive and give effect to the first will, or unless, after such destruction, canceling, or revocation the first will shall be duly reexecuted.

Effect of Marriage on Wills.

3080. SEC. 10. If, after the making of any will, the testator shall marry, and the wife shall be living at the death of the testator, such will shall be deemed revoked unless she shall be provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision, and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of such revocation shall be received.

Not Revived by Death.

3081. SEC. 11. A will executed by an unmarried woman shall be deemed revoked on her subsequent marriage, and shall not be revived by the death of her husband.

Bond, Covenant, etc.

3082. SEC. 12. A bond, covenant, or agreement, made by a testator, to convey any property devised or bequeathed in any will previously made, shall not be deemed a revocation of such previous devise or bequest, but such property shall pass by the devise or bequest, subject to the same remedies on such bond, covenant, or agreement, for the specific performance or otherwise, against the devisees or legatees, as might be had by law, against the heirs of the testator, if the same had descended to them.

Mortgage Not a Revocation.

3083. SEC. 13. A charge or incumbrance upon any estate, for the purpose of securing the payment of money, or the performance of any covenant or agreement, shall not be deemed a revocation of any will relating to the same estate which was previously executed, but the devise and legacies therein contained shall pass, subject to such charge or incumbrance.

Children Born After Wills Made to Share.

3084. SEC. 14. When any child shall have been born after the making of its parent's will, and no provision shall be made for him or her therein, such child shall have the same share in the estate of the testator as if the testator had died intestate, unless it shall be apparent from the will that it was the intention of the testator that no provision should be made for such child.

Children Unprovided for to Share.

3085. SEC. 15. When any testator shall omit to provide in his or her will for any of his or her children, or for the issue of any deceased child, unless it shall appear that such omission was intentional, such child, or the issue of such child, shall have the same share in the estate of the testator as if he or she had died intestate.

After-Born Children, How Provided For.

3086. SEC. 16. When any share of the estate of a testator shall be assigned to a child born after the making of a will, or to a child or the issue of a child omitted in the will, as hereinbefore mentioned, the same shall first be taken from the estate not disposed of by the will, if any; if that shall not be sufficient, so much as shall be necessary shall be taken from all the devisees or legatees, in proportion to the value they may respectively receive under the will, unless the obvious intention of the testator, in relation to some specific devise or bequest or other provision in the will would thereby be defeated; in such case, such specific devise, legacy, or provision, may be exempted from such apportionment, and a different apportionment, consistent with the intention of the testator, may be adopted.

Advancement.

3087. SEC. 17. If such child or children, or their descendants, so unprovided for shall have had an equal proportion of the testator's estate bestowed upon them in the testator's lifetime, by way of advancement, they shall take nothing in virtue of the provisions of the three preceding sections.

Descendants to Inherit, When.

3088. SEC. 18. When any estate shall be devised to any child or other relation of the testator, and the devisee shall die before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, such descendants shall take the estate so given by the will, in the same manner as the devisee would have done if he would have survived the testator.

Devisee of Land.

3089. SEC. 19. Every devise of land in any will shall be construed to convey all the estate of the devisor therein which he could lawfully devise, unless it shall clearly appear by the will that he intended to convey a less estate.

After-Acquired Property.

3090. SEC. 20. Any estate, right, or interest in lands acquired by the testator, after the making of his or her will, shall pass thereby, in like manner as if it passed at the time of making the will, if such should manifestly appear by the will to have been the intention of the testator.

Will Defined.

3091. SEC. 21. The term "will" as used in this Act, shall be so construed as to include all codicils as well as wills.

CONSTRUCTION OF WILLS. The testator, by his will, disposed of his property to his wife, "having the fullest confidence in her capacity, judgment, discretion and affection, to properly bring up, educate and provide for our children, and to manage and dispose of my said property in the best manner for their interests and her own": Held, that the devisee took the property devised as absolute owner, and not upon trust. Hunt v. Hunt, 11 Nev. 442.

An Act relating to holographic wills.

Approved March 20, 1895, 112.

Holographic Wills Valid.

3092. SECTION 1. Property may be disposed of and taken under holographic wills. Such wills shall be valid and have full effect for the purpose for which they are intended.

Holographic Will Defined.

3093. SEC. 2. An holographic will is one that is entirely written by the hand of the testator himself. It is subject to no other form, and may be made in or out of this state and need not be witnessed.

How Proved.

3094. SEC. 3. An holographic will may be proved in the same manner as other private writings are proved.

CIVIL PRACTICE.

An Act adopting the common law.

Approved January 24, 1883, 14.

Application of Common Law.

3095. SECTION 1. The common law of England, so far as it is not repugnant to, or in conflict with the constitution and laws of the United States, or the constitution and laws of this state, shall be the rule of decision in all the courts of this state.

1. THE COMMON LAW OF ENGLAND, as adopted in this country, is usually to be taken as modified by English statutes passed prior to the Declaration of American Independence. Hamilton v. Kneeland, 1 Nev. 40, affirmed; Clarke v. Clarke, 17 Nev. 124.

COMMON LAW RULE. Condition cannot be reserved to any but the grantor and his heirs, not recognized as law in this country. 1 Nev., supra.

CONDITION BROKEN. Statute 32, Henry VIII, providing for entering, upon condition broken, is applicable not only to breach of condition in law but also in deed. Id.

2. ENGLISH STATUTE in force prior to Declaration of Independence part of common law Evans v. Cook, 11 Nev. 69, affirming Ex Parte Blanchard, 9 Nev. 105.

3. COMMON LAW—Relating to Marriage and Divorce Adopted. Wuest v. Wuest, 17 Nev. 217.

4. COMMON LAW—QUO WARRANTO—When Will Lie. Ryan v. Cronan, 23 Nev. 437.

An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice of this state, and to repeal all other Acts in relation thereto.

Approved March 8, 1860, 196.

TITLE I.

The provisions of this title as to parties to actions are made applicable to justices' courts, by Section 509 of this Act.

*Of the Form of Civil Actions and the Parties Thereto.One Form of Action.

3096. SECTION 1. There shall be in this state but one form of civil action for the enforcement or protection of private rights, and the redress or prevention of private wrongs.

Designation of Parties.

3097. SEC. 2. In such action the party complaining shall be known as the plaintiff, and the adverse party as the defendant.

Question of Fact Not Put in Issue by Pleadings.

3098. SEC. 3. When a question of fact, not put in issue by the pleadings, is to be tried by a jury, an order for the trial may be made, stating distinctly and plainly the question of fact to be tried; and such order shall be the only authority necessary for a trial.

Actions, by Whom Prosecuted.

3099. SEC. 4. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

1. PARTY FOR WHOSE BENEFIT CONTRACT IS MADE MAY SUE. Alcalde v. Morales, 3 Nev. 137; Miliani v. Tognini, 19 Nev. 133.
2. ASSIGNEE OF JUDGMENT—Proper Party. Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev.

Set-Off Not Prejudiced by Assignment.

3100. SEC. 5. In the case of an assignment of a thing in action, the action by the assignee shall be without prejudice to any set-off or other defense, existing at the time of, or before notice of, the assignment; but this section shall not apply to a negotiable promissory note, or bill of exchange, transferred in good faith, and upon good consideration, before due.

Action by Executor, etc.

3101. SEC. 6. An executor or administrator, or trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, may sue without joining with him the person or persons for whose benefit the action is prosecuted. A trustee of an express trust, within the meaning of this section, shall be construed to include a person with whom, or in whose name, a contract is made for the benefit of another.

Married Woman a Party.

3102. SEC. 7. When a married woman is a party, her husband shall be joined with her, except that: First—When the action concerns her separate property, she may sue alone. Second—When the action is between herself and her husband, she may sue or be sued alone.

ACTION NOT MAINTAINABLE BY MARRIED WOMAN PLAINTIFF WITHOUT PROPER AVERMENTS.
In a suit where the complaint was amended, but without adding any averments of her right to sue alone: Held, that the admission of evidence on such an amended complaint against defendant's objection was error. Warren v. Quill, 8 Nev. 218.

Defense by Wife.

3103. SEC. 8. If a husband and wife be sued together, the wife may defend for her own right.

Infant, When a Party.

3104. SEC. 9. When an infant is a party, he shall appear by guardian, who may be appointed by the court in which the action is prosecuted, or by a Judge thereof.

Guardian, When Appointed.

Injury to Child, Action For.

3106. SEC. 11. A father, or, in case of his death or desertion of his family, the mother, may maintain an action for the injury or death of a child, and a guardian for the injury or death of his ward.

SUIT BROUGHT BY MOTHER AS GUARDIAN—Ward Attains Majority Before Trial—No Joint Action Arises—Ward Should Have Been Substituted. Ricord v. C. P. R. Co., 15 Nev. 167.

Who May Be Joined as Plaintiffs.

3107. SEC. 12. All persons having an interest in the subject of the action, and in obtaining the relief demanded, may be joined as plaintiffs, except when otherwise provided in this Act.

Defendant, Who to Be Made.

3108. SEC. 13. Any person may be made a defendant, who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who is a necessary party to a complete determination or settlement of the question involved therein.

Parties, Who Joined.

3109. SEC. 14. Of the parties to the action, those who are united in interest shall be joined as plaintiffs or defendants; but if the consent of any one, who should have been joined as plaintiff, cannot be obtained, he may be made a defendant, the reason thereof being stated in the complaint; and when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all. Tenants in common, joint tenants, or copartners, or any number less than all, may jointly or severally bring or defend or continue the prosecution or defense of any action for the enforcement of the rights of such person or persons.

1. TENANTS IN COMMON may join in action to recover common property. Alford v. Dewin, 1 Nev. 207.

SEVERING OF INTEREST PENDING LITIGATION does not abate suit. Id.

2. PERSONS JOINTLY LIABLE must all be made defendants and a joint judgment rendered against all. Keller v. Blasdel, 1 Nev. 492.

3. PARTIES—NON-JOINDER OF PLAINTIFFS, HOW PROPERLY PLEADED. An objection of non-joinder of parties plaintiff cannot be taken by demurrer unless the complaint affirmatively shows that the party for whose non-joinder the demurrer is interposed was living when the suit was commenced. If this fact does not appear on the face of the complaint, the objection must be taken by answer. Deegan v. Deegan, 22 Nev. 186.

SAME—ANSWER MUST SHOW PARTY LIVING. An allegation in an answer of the non-joinder of proper parties plaintiff, is defective when it does not show that the omitted party or parties were living at the date of the filing of the complaint. Id.

4. WHERE ONE OF SEVERAL JOINT CONTRACTORS DIES, the survivors may be proceeded against without uniting the representatives of the deceased. Fowler v. Houston, 1 Nev. 469.

5. ACTION BETWEEN PARTNERS—WHEN ONE NOT A NECESSARY PARTY. Third partner non-resident whose interest not prejudiced by present action. Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109.

6. WATER SUIT—WHO MAY UNITE IN. Although parties who have separate interests in the water of a stream cannot unite in an action for damages for its past diversion, they may unite in an action to restrain future diversions. Ronnow v. Delmua, 23 Nev. 29.

7. DEFECT OF PARTIES—ACTION TO SET ASIDE TRUST DEED. Where one beneficiary brings suit all other beneficiaries are necessary parties; if they refuse to join as plaintiffs they must be made defendants. Robinson v. Kind, 23 Nev. 330; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.

8. DEFECT OF PARTIES—EFFECT ON JUDGMENT. Where, owing to a defect of parties before the court upon such a writ, any judgment that might be entered would not be binding upon the real parties in interest, the writ will be dismissed. State v. Com. Washoe Co., 23 Nev. 247.

9. WIFE NOT PARTY TO ACTION TO RECOVER COMMON PROPERTY. Crow v. Van Sickle, 6 Nev. 146.

10. DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP—When Wife Is a Necessary Party Defendant. Rhodes v. Williams, 12 Nev. 20.

11. STATE PROPER PARTY PLAINTIFF IN DELINQUENT SCHOOL TAX SUIT. State v. First Nat. Bank (No. 3), 4 Nev. 491.

12. PROPER AS DISTINGUISHED FROM NECESSARY PARTIES. Holder of mechanic's lien attaching prior to a mortgage is a proper but not a necessary party to pass the legal title to a purchaser under the decree. In Re Smith, 4 Nev. 264.

13. PARTY IN POSSESSION OF LAND may maintain action for interference with his rights. Simpson v. Williams, 18 Nev. 432.
14. PARTNERS CANNOT SUE IN PARTNERSHIP NAME. Mexican Mill Co. v. Yellow Jacket M. Co., 4 Nev. 40.
15. INTEREST OF PLAINTIFF—When Sufficient to Maintain Action. White Pine Co. Bank v. Sadler, 19 Nev. 98.
16. NON-JOINDER OF DEFENDANTS IN ACTIONS EX DELICTO. In action for damages for trespass all or any of the guilty parties may be sued. Mandlebaum v. Russell, 4 Nev. 551.
17. PERSONS NOT INTERESTED NOT TO BE PLAINTIFFS—Replevin Bond—Sheriff Not Interested. McBeth v. Van Sickle, 7 Nev. 134.
18. MISJOINDER OF PARTIES PLAINTIFF. Fogg v. N. C. O. R. Co., 20 Nev. 429.

Separately or Jointly Liable.

3110. SEC. 15. Persons severally liable upon the same obligation or instrument, including the parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes, and sureties on the same or separate instruments, may all, or any of them, be included in the same action, at the option of the plaintiff.

JOINT ACTION AT LAW cannot be maintained against survivor and administrator of deceased joint maker of a promissory note. Action against survivor. On joint and several note representative of deceased maker may be sued on several liability. Maples v. Geller, 1 Nev. 233.

Action Does Not Abate by Death of Party.

3111. SEC. 16. An action shall not abate by the death or other disability, of a party, or by the transfer of any interest therein, if the cause of action survive or continue. In case of the death or disability of a party, the court, on motion, may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative or successor in interest. In case of any other transfer of interest, the action may be continued in the name of the original party, or the court may allow the person to whom the transfer is made to be substituted in the action. After verdict shall have been rendered in any action for a wrong, such action shall not abate by the death of any party, but the case shall proceed thereafter in the same manner as in cases where the cause of action now survives by law.

1. ASSIGNEE OF ACCOUNT may sue in his own name. Assignor need not be made a party though he have interest. Carpenter v. Johnson, 1 Nev. 331.
2. SUBSTITUTION OF ASSIGNEE AS PLAINTIFF. Under above section not necessary for assignee to file supplemental complaint. Assignee takes place of original plaintiff. Original plaintiff estopped from denying transfer, when. Virgin v. Brubaker, 4 Nev. 31.
3. PLAINTIFF'S RIGHT TO SUE—MAINTENANCE. The assignment of a bare right to file a bill in equity for a fraud committed on the assignor cannot be maintained in the name of the assignee. It is contrary to public policy and savors of the character of maintenance. Gruber v. Baker, 20 Nev. 453.

Controversy Determined, When.

3112. SEC. 17. The court may determine any controversy between parties before it, when it can be done without prejudice to the rights of others, or by saving their rights; but when a complete determination of the controversy cannot be had without the presence of other parties, the court shall order them to be brought in, and thereupon the party directed by the court shall serve a copy of the summons in the action, and the order aforesaid in like manner of service of the original summons, upon each of the parties ordered to be brought in, who shall have ten days, or such time as the court may order, after service, in which to appear and plead; and in case such party fail to appear and plead within the time aforesaid, the court may cause his default to be entered, and proceed as in other cases of default, or may make such other order as the condition of the action and justice shall require.

1. ACTION BETWEEN TENANTS IN COMMON. Court may order all necessary parties into court. Mitchell v. O'Neale, 4 Nev. 504.
2. ABOVE SECTION CONSTRUED. Robinson v. Kind, 23 Nev. 330; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.

TITLE II.

*Of the Place of Trial of Civil Actions.Venue of Actions Determined by Subject of Action.

3113. SEC. 18. Actions for the following causes shall be tried in the county in which the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as provided in this Act: First—For the recovery of real property, or of an estate, or interest therein, or for the determination in any form of such right or interest, and for injuries to real property. Second—For the partition of real property. Third—For the foreclosure of a mortgage of real property; provided, that where such real property is situate partly in one county and partly in another, the plaintiff may select either of said counties, and the county so selected shall be the proper county for the trial of any or all of such actions as are mentioned in the first, second, and third subdivisions of this section.

Robinson v. Kind, 23 Nev. 330.

Venue of Action Determined by Cause of Action.

3114. SEC. 19. Actions for the following causes shall be tried in the county where the cause, or some part thereof, arose, subject to the like power of the court to change the place of trial: First—For the recovery of a penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute; except, that when it is imposed for an offense committed on a lake, river, or other stream of water, situated in two or more counties, the action may be brought in any county bordering on such lake, river, or stream, and opposite to the place where the offense was committed. Second—Against a public officer, or person especially appointed to execute his duties, for an act done by him in virtue of his office, or against a person who, by his command, or in his aid, does anything touching the duties of such officer.

Residence of Parties Determines Place of Trial.

3115. SEC. 20. In all other cases, the action shall be tried in the county in which the defendants, or any one of them, may reside at the commencement of the action; or, if none of the defendants reside in the state, or if residing in the state, the county in which they so reside be unknown to the plaintiff, the same may be tried in any county which the plaintiff may designate in his complaint; and if any defendant, or defendants, may be about to depart from the state, such action may be tried in any county where either of the parties may reside or service be had, subject, however, to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as provided in this Act.

1. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT OF TRIAL AT HIS RESIDENCE. A defendant who comes within the purview of Sec. 20 of the Practice Act is entitled, as a matter of right, to have an action against him tried in the county of his residence; the statute is peremptory. Williams v. Keller, 6 Nev. 141.

DISCRETION AS TO CHANGE OF PLACE OF TRIAL. As a general rule, the matter of change of place of trial is within the discretion of the court; but when the motion to change is made on the ground of the residence of defendant (Practice Act, Sec. 20), there is no room for the exercise of discretion. Id.

WAIVER NOT PRESUMED EXCEPT IN CLEAR CASE. The legal presumption of a waiver of any right by a litigant will not be drawn except in a clear case, and especially not when to allow such a presumption would be to deprive a party of his day in court. Id.

Civil Cases—May Change Place of Trial, When.

3116. SEC. 21. If the county designated for that purpose in the complaint be not the proper county, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried therein, unless the defendant before the time for answering expire demand in writing that the trial be had in the proper county, and the place of trial be thereupon changed by consent of parties, or by order of the court, as is provided in this section. The court may, on motion, change the place of trial in the following cases:

First—When the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county.

Sec. 3115 C. C. 2.

Second—When there is reason to believe that an impartial trial cannot be had therein.

Third—When the convenience of witnesses and the ends of justice would be promoted by the change.

Fourth—When from any cause the Judge is disqualified from acting in the action. When the place of trial is changed, all other proceedings shall be had in the county to which the place of trial is changed; unless otherwise provided by consent of the parties in writing duly filed, or by order of the court, and the papers shall be filed, or transferred, accordingly. As amended, Stats. 1895, 64; 1897, 87.

1. CHANGE OF VENUE—DELINQUENT TAX SUITS. The provisions of the Practice Act governing change of place of trial are not applicable to actions to recover delinquent taxes. State v. Shaw, 21 Nev. 222.
2. CHANGE OF VENUE—BIAS OF JUDGE. Bias or prejudice on the part of the Judge constitutes no legal incapacity to sit on the trial of a cause, and is not sufficient ground to authorize a change of the place of trial. Allen v. Reilly, 15 Nev. 452.
3. CHANGE OF VENUE. General interest of people of county in question involved no ground for. Conley v. Chedic, 7 Nev. 336.
4. AFFIDAVIT FOR CHANGE OF VENUE must show that fair and impartial trial cannot be had, to be sufficient. H. & N. G. & S. M. Co. v. Bajazette G. & S. M. Co., 1 Nev. 322.
5. AFFIDAVIT TO CHANGE VENUE, made on ground of interest of Judge, which merely states belief of affiant, without stating facts on which belief is founded, is insufficient. Table Mountain Co. v. Waller's Defeat Co., 4 Nev. 218.

CHANGE OF VENUE DENIED ON PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF JUDGE. Id.

6. AFFIDAVIT FOR CHANGE OF VENUE, which states that affiant "verily believes," etc., states mere conclusions and not facts, and is insufficient. Kercheval v. McKenney, 4 Nev. 294.
7. CHANGE OF VENUE, TO SUIT CONVENIENCE OF WITNESSES, should not be denied because application was not made until after answer was filed and cause set for trial, unless there had been delay in making the application, or the parties had already prepared for the trial by subpoenaing witnesses. Sheckles v. Sheckles, 3 Nev. 404.
8. CHANGE OF VENUE—ACTION AGAINST COUNTY Governed by Same Rules of Practice as Other Civil Suits. Clark v. Lyon Co., 8 Nev. 181.

WAIVER OF CHANGE OF VENUE. Where county appeared and answered without objections: Held, to have waived its right to change of venue. Id.

9. TRANSFER OF ACTION BY STIPULATION. Held, no error where, on stipulation, case was transferred back because not tried within certain time in new district. Lyon Co. v. Washoe Co., 6 Nev. 241.
10. TRANSFER OF CASE TO NEW COUNTY Not Change of Venue. Hooton v. McKinney, 5 Nev. 194.

TITLE III.

Of the Manner of Commencing Civil Actions.

How Commenced.

3117. SEC. 22. Civil action in the district courts shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint with the Clerk of the Court, and the issuance of a summons thereon; provided, that after the filing of the complaint a defendant in the action may appear, answer, or demur, whether the summons has been issued or not, and such appearance, answer, or demurrer, shall be deemed a waiver of summons.

For alias summons, see Sec. 3702.

WAIVER OF SUMMONS. A defendant by filing a demurrer and answer to plaintiff's complaint waives the issuance of a summons. Rose v. Richmond M. Co., 17 Nev. 25.

Complaint and Summons.

3118. SEC. 23. The Clerk shall indorse on the complaint the day, month, and year the same is filed, and at any time within one year after the filing of the same the plaintiff may cause to be issued a summons thereon. The summons shall be issued and signed by the attorney of the plaintiff, or by the Clerk, and when issued by the Clerk shall be issued under the seal of the court.

Summons, What Shall State.

3119. SEC. 24. The summons shall state the parties to the action, the court in which it is brought, the county in which the complaint is filed, the cause and general nature of the action, and require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within the time mentioned in the next section, after the service of summons, exclusive of the day of service; or that judgment by default will be taken against him, according to the prayer of the complaint; briefly stating the sum of money or other relief demanded in the complaint. The names of the plaintiff's attorneys shall be indorsed upon the summons.

Answer, Time Allowed For.

3120. SEC. 25. The time in which the summons shall require the defendant to answer the complaint shall be as follows: First—If the defendant is served within the county in which the action is brought, ten days. Second—If the defendant is served out of the county, but in the district in which the action is brought, twenty days. Third—In all other cases, forty days.

1. TIME TO ANSWER. Where plaintiff might proceed under two laws: summons contradictory, requiring defendant, in one clause to answer in forty days, in another twenty days default cannot be taken until after longer period. Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.
2. SECOND SERVICE OF SAME SUMMONS. Where a summons has been served upon a defendant out of the district and afterwards served upon him in the district, with the intention of shortening the time allowed him to answer: Held, that the second service was an absolute nullity. Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Notice Inserted in Summons.

3121. SEC. 26. There shall also be inserted in the summons a notice in substance as follows: First—In an action arising on contract for the recovery only of money or damages, that the plaintiff will take judgment for a sum specified therein if the defendant fail to answer the complaint. Second—In other actions, that if the defendant fail to answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

1. NOTICE IN SUMMONS—WHEN DEFECTIVE. The distinction made in above section of notice required in different cases should be observed and enforced by the courts as essential and necessary. Sweeney v. Schultes, 19 Nev. 53.
- IF DEFENDANT APPEAR by filing a demurrer or answer, defective notice in summons may be disregarded. Id.
2. NOTICE IN SUMMONS—DEFECT NOT AFFECTING SUBSTANTIAL RIGHTS. The omission in the notice in the summons of the amount for which plaintiff will take judgment on failure to answer, when a certified copy of the complaint served with the summons states the amount, if it be an error, is not one affecting any substantial right, and the court should, in every stage of the proceedings, disregard it. Higley v. Pollock, 21 Nev. 198.
3. DEFAULT—JUDGMENT BY—SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE IN SUMMONS TO WARRANT. Where the notice in a summons in an action on a promissory note is that upon failure to answer the complaint plaintiff will "take judgment * * * according to the prayer of the complaint," and the prayer of the complaint is full and explicit, this is sufficient to warrant the entering of defendant's default and a judgment thereon. Prezeau v. Spooner, 22 Nev. 88.

Notice Affecting Real Property—Lis Pendens.

3122. SEC. 27. In an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage upon real property, or affecting the title or possession of real property, the plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, and the defendant, at the time of filing his answer, when affirmative relief is claimed in such answer, or at any time afterwards, may file with the Recorder of the county in which the property, or some part thereof, is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the property, in that county affected thereby, and the defendant may also in such notice state the nature and extent of the relief claimed in the answer. From the time of filing, only, shall the pendency of the action be constructive notice to a purchaser or incumbrancer of the property affected thereby; and in case of the foreclosure of such mortgage all purchasers or incumbrancers, by unrecorded deed or other instrument in writing made prior to the filing of such notice, and subsequent to the date of such mortgage, shall be deemed and held purchasers or incumbrancers subsequent to the filing of such notice, and subject thereto, unless they can show that at the time of filing the notice the plaintiff had actual notice of such purchase or incumbrance.

Summons, by Whom Served.

3123. SEC. 28. The summons shall be served by the Sheriff of the county where the defendant is found, or by his deputy, or by any citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age; and, except as hereinafter provided, a copy of the complaint, certified by the Clerk or the plaintiff's attorney, shall be served with the summons. When the summons shall be served by the Sheriff or his deputy, it shall be returned with the certificate or affidavit of the officer, of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint, to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced. When the summons is served by any other person, as before provided, it shall be returned to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced, with the affidavit of such person of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint. If there be more than one defendant to the action residing within the county in which the action is brought, a copy of the complaint need be served only on one of such defendants.

Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Summons, How Served in Different Cases.

3124. SEC. 29. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, attached to the certified copy of the complaint, as follows: First—If the suit be against a domestic corporation, organized under the laws of this state, to the President or other head of the corporation, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof. Second—If the suit be against a foreign corporation or a non-resident joint stock company or association, doing business within this state, to an agent, Cashier, or Secretary, President, or other head thereof; provided, that if the suit be against a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, in addition to such personal service, a copy of the summons, attached to a certified copy of the complaint, shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the President and Trustees of said corporation, at their place of business in the State of California, if the same is known, or can by due diligence be ascertained; and, provided further, that when such California corporation has no President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent, upon whom service of summons can be had, the court before which such action has been brought, or the Judge thereof, may, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff, showing the existence of the foregoing facts, make an order for the service on the defendant of a copy of the summons and complaint in the action. Such service may be made by some competent person appointed by the court or the Judge thereof, or by the Sheriff of the county, within the State of California, within which the principal place of business of such corporation may be located. Such service may be made personally, within said State of California, by said Sheriff or other person appointed by the court or Judge, and shall be made in the same manner as required by law for the personal service of summons within this state. The service shall be upon the President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent of such corporation, and when proved to the satisfaction of the court, by the sworn return of said Sheriff or other person so appointed, shall be for all purposes as valid and effectual as if made by a competent officer within this state; and in case such corporation shall not appear in the action within forty days after such service, its default and judgment thereon may be entered as in other cases. Third—If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, or guard-

Summons, What Shall State.

3119. SEC. 24. The summons shall state the parties to the action, the court in which it is brought, the county in which the complaint is filed, the cause and general nature of the action, and require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within the time mentioned in the next section, after the service of summons, exclusive of the day of service; or that judgment by default will be taken against him, according to the prayer of the complaint; briefly stating the sum of money or other relief demanded in the complaint. The names of the plaintiff's attorneys shall be indorsed upon the summons.

Answer, Time Allowed For.

3120. SEC. 25. The time in which the summons shall require the defendant to answer the complaint shall be as follows: First—If the defendant is served within the county in which the action is brought, ten days. Second—If the defendant is served out of the county, but in the district in which the action is brought, twenty days. Third—In all other cases, forty days.

1. TIME TO ANSWER. Where plaintiff might proceed under two laws: summons contradictory, requiring defendant, in one clause to answer in forty days, in another twenty days, default cannot be taken until after longer period. Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.
2. SECOND SERVICE OF SAME SUMMONS. Where a summons has been served upon a defendant out of the district and afterwards served upon him in the district, with the intention of shortening the time allowed him to answer: Held, that the second service was an absolute nullity. Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Notice Inserted in Summons.

3121. SEC. 26. There shall also be inserted in the summons a notice in substance as follows: First—In an action arising on contract for the recovery only of money or damages, that the plaintiff will take judgment for a sum specified therein if the defendant fail to answer the complaint. Second—In other actions, that if the defendant fail to answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

3. DEFAULT—JUDGMENT BY—SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE IN SUMMONS TO WARRANT. Where the notice in a summons in an action on a promissory note is that upon failure to answer the complaint plaintiff will "take judgment * * * according to the prayer of the complaint," and the prayer of the complaint is full and explicit, this is sufficient to warrant the entering of defendant's default and a judgment thereon. Prezeau v. Spooner, 22 Nev. 88.

Notice Affecting Real Property—Lis Pendens.

3122. SEC. 27. In an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage upon real property, or affecting the title or possession of real property, the plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, and the defendant, at the time of filing his answer, when affirmative relief is claimed in such answer, or at any time afterwards, may file with the Recorder of the county in which the property, or some part thereof, is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the property, in that county affected thereby, and the defendant may also in such notice state the nature and extent of the relief claimed in the answer. From the time of filing, only, shall

Summons, by Whom Served.

3123. SEC. 28. The summons shall be served by the Sheriff of the county where the defendant is found, or by his deputy, or by any citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age; and, except as hereinafter provided, a copy of the complaint, certified by the Clerk or the plaintiff's attorney, shall be served with the summons. When the summons shall be served by the Sheriff or his deputy, it shall be returned with the certificate or affidavit of the officer, of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint, to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced. When the summons is served by any other person, as before provided, it shall be returned to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced, with the affidavit of such person of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint. If there be more than one defendant to the action residing within the county in which the action is brought, a copy of the complaint need be served only on one of such defendants.

Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Summons, How Served in Different Cases.

3124. SEC. 29. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, attached to the certified copy of the complaint, as follows: First—If the suit be against a domestic corporation, organized under the laws of this state, to the President or other head of the corporation, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof. Second—If the suit be against a foreign corporation or a non-resident joint stock company or association, doing business within this state, to an agent, Cashier, or Secretary, President, or other head thereof; provided, that if the suit be against a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, in addition to such personal service, a copy of the summons, attached to a certified copy of the complaint, shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the President and Trustees of said corporation, at their place of business in the State of California, if the same is known, or can by due diligence be ascertained; and, provided further, that when such California corporation has no President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent, upon whom service of summons can be had, the court before which such action has been brought, or the Judge thereof, may, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff, showing the existence of the foregoing facts, make an order for the service on the defendant of a copy of the summons and complaint in the action. Such service may be made by some competent person appointed by the court or the Judge thereof, or by the Sheriff of the county, within the State of California, within which the principal place of business of such corporation may be located. Such service may be made personally, within said State of California, by said Sheriff or other person appointed by the court or Judge, and shall be made in the same manner as required by law for the personal service of summons within this state. The service shall be upon the President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent of such corporation, and when proved to the satisfaction of the court, by the sworn return of said Sheriff or other person so appointed, shall be for all purposes as valid and effectual as if made by a competent officer within this state; and in case such corporation shall not appear in the action within forty days after such service, its default and judgment thereon may be entered as in other cases. Summons, What Shall State.

3119. SEC. 24. The summons shall state the parties to the action, the court in which it is brought, the county in which the complaint is filed, the cause and general nature of the action, and require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within the time mentioned in the next section, after the service of summons, exclusive of the day of service; or that judgment by default will be taken against him, according to the prayer of the complaint; briefly stating the sum of money or other relief demanded in the complaint. The names of the plaintiff's attorneys shall be indorsed upon the summons.

Answer, Time Allowed For.

3120. SEC. 25. The time in which the summons shall require the defendant to answer the complaint shall be as follows: First—If the defendant is served within the county in which the action is brought, ten days. Second—If the defendant is served out of the county, but in the district in which the action is brought, twenty days. Third—In all other cases, forty days.

1. TIME TO ANSWER. Where plaintiff might proceed under two laws: summons contradictory, requiring defendant, in one clause to answer in forty days, in another twenty days, default cannot be taken until after longer period. Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.
2. SECOND SERVICE OF SAME SUMMONS. Where a summons has been served upon a defendant out of the district and afterwards served upon him in the district, with the intention of shortening the time allowed him to answer: Held, that the second service was an absolute nullity. Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Notice Inserted in Summons.

3121. SEC. 26. There shall also be inserted in the summons a notice in substance as follows: First—In an action arising on contract for the recovery only of money or damages, that the plaintiff will take judgment for a sum specified therein if the defendant fail to answer the complaint. Second—In other actions, that if the defendant fail to answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

1. NOTICE IN SUMMONS—WHEN DEFECTIVE. The distinction made in above section of notice required in different cases should be observed and enforced by the courts as essential and necessary. Sweeney v. Schultes, 19 Nev. 53.
- IF DEFENDANT APPEAR by filing a demurrer or answer, defective notice in summons may be disregarded. Id.
2. NOTICE IN SUMMONS—DEFECT NOT AFFECTING SUBSTANTIAL RIGHTS. The omission in the notice in the summons of the amount for which plaintiff will take judgment on failure to answer, when a certified copy of the complaint served with the summons states the amount, if it be an error, is not one affecting any substantial right, and the court should, in every stage of the proceedings, disregard it. Higley v. Pollock, 21 Nev. 198.
3. DEFAULT—JUDGMENT BY—SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE IN SUMMONS TO WARRANT. Where the notice in a summons in an action on a promissory note is that upon failure to answer the complaint plaintiff will "take judgment * * * according to the prayer of the complaint," and the prayer of the complaint is full and explicit, this is sufficient to warrant the entering of defendant's default and a judgment thereon. Prezeau v. Spooner, 22 Nev. 88.

Notice Affecting Real Property—Lis Pendens.

3122. SEC. 27. In an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage upon real property, or affecting the title or possession of real property, the plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, and the defendant, at the time of filing his answer, when affirmative relief is claimed in such answer, or at any time afterwards, may file with the Recorder of the county in which the property, or some part thereof, is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the property, in that county affected thereby, and the defendant may also in such notice state the nature and extent of the relief claimed in the answer. From the time of filing, only, shall

Summons, by Whom Served.

3123. SEC. 28. The summons shall be served by the Sheriff of the county where the defendant is found, or by his deputy, or by any citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age; and, except as hereinafter provided, a copy of the complaint, certified by the Clerk or the plaintiff's attorney, shall be served with the summons. When the summons shall be served by the Sheriff or his deputy, it shall be returned with the certificate or affidavit of the officer, of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint, to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced. When the summons is served by any other person, as before provided, it shall be returned to the office of the Clerk of the county in which the action is commenced, with the affidavit of such person of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint. If there be more than one defendant to the action residing within the county in which the action is brought, a copy of the complaint need be served only on one of such defendants.

Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

Summons, How Served in Different Cases.

3124. SEC. 29. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, attached to the certified copy of the complaint, as follows: First—If the suit be against a domestic corporation, organized under the laws of this state, to the President or other head of the corporation, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof. Second—If the suit be against a foreign corporation or a non-resident joint stock company or association, doing business within this state, to an agent, Cashier, or Secretary, President, or other head thereof; provided, that if the suit be against a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, in addition to such personal service, a copy of the summons, attached to a certified copy of the complaint, shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the President and Trustees of said corporation, at their place of business in the State of California, if the same is known, or can by due diligence be ascertained; and, provided further, that when such California corporation has no President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent, upon whom service of summons can be had, the court before which such action has been brought, or the Judge thereof, may, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff, showing the existence of the foregoing facts, make an order for the service on the defendant of a copy of the summons and complaint in the action. Such service may be made by some competent person appointed by the court or the Judge thereof, or by the Sheriff of the county, within the State of California, within which the principal place of business of such corporation may be located. Such service may be made personally, within said State of California, by said Sheriff or other person appointed by the court or Judge, and shall be made in the same manner as required by law for the personal service of summons within this state. The service shall be upon the President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent of such corporation, and when proved to the satisfaction of the court, by the sworn return of said Sheriff or other person so appointed, shall be for all purposes as valid and effectual as if made by a competent officer within this state; and in case such corporation shall not appear in the action within forty days after such service, its default and judgment thereon may be entered as in other cases. Third—If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, or guard-

Summons, How Served in Different Cases.

3124. SEC. 29. The summons shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, attached to the certified copy of the complaint, as follows: First—If the suit be against a domestic corporation, organized under the laws of this state, to the President or other head of the corporation, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof. Second—If the suit be against a foreign corporation or a non-resident joint stock company or association, doing business within this state, to an agent, Cashier, or Secretary, President, or other head thereof; provided, that if the suit be against a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, in addition to such personal service, a copy of the summons, attached to a certified copy of the complaint, shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the President and Trustees of said corporation, at their place of business in the State of California, if the same is known, or can by due diligence be ascertained; and, provided further, that when such California corporation has no President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent, upon whom service of summons can be had, the court before which such action has been brought, or the Judge thereof, may, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff, showing the existence of the foregoing facts, make an order for the service on the defendant of a copy of the summons and complaint in the action. Such service may be made by some competent person appointed by the court or the Judge thereof, or by the Sheriff of the county, within the State of California, within which the principal place of business of such corporation may be located. Such service may be made personally, within said State of California, by said Sheriff or other person appointed by the court or Judge, and shall be made in the same manner as required by law for the personal service of summons within this state. The service shall be upon the President or other head, Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent of such corporation, and when proved to the satisfaction of the court, by the sworn return of said Sheriff or other person so appointed, shall be for all purposes as valid and effectual as if made by a competent officer within this state; and in case such corporation shall not appear in the action within forty days after such service, its default and judgment thereon may be entered as in other cases. Third—If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, or guardian; or, if there be none within the state, then to any person having the care and control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed. Fourth—If against a person judicially declared to be of unsound mind, or incapable of conducting his own affairs, and for whom a guardian has been appointed, to such guardian. Fifth—In all other cases, to the defendant personally.

Service on Non-Resident, Corporation or Joint Stock Association—Publication.

J. C.

1. AFFIDAVIT FOR PUBLICATION OF SUMMONS. To obtain a legal service by publication of a summons against a non-resident, it must appear by affidavit, not only that the defendant is a non-resident, but also that a cause of action exists against him; and a judgment procured in such a case before a Justice of the Peace, when the latter fact does not appear by affidavit, is void. Little v. Currie, 5 Nev. 90.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION OF SUMMONS which fails to state any fact upon which it is founded, is fatally defective. Id.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION BEFORE ISSUANCE OF SUMMONS PREMATURE. Where an order, made by a Justice of the Peace upon the filing of an affidavit for publication of summons, directed that "summons be issued in this case as above entitled and be published, etc.": Held, that the direction for a summons to issue was not the office of such an order, and that if the summons did not already exist the order was premature. Id.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS FOR OTHER THAN PERSONAL SERVICE, for acquiring jurisdiction over a defendant, must be strictly pursued. Id.

Act amended

amended so as to read as follows:

Service of
publication.

Section 31. The order shall direct the publication to be made in a newspaper, to be designated by the Court or Judge thereof as one most likely to give notice to the person to be served, for a period of six weeks, and at least once a week during said time. In case of publication, where the residence of a non-resident or absent defendant is known, the Court or Judge shall also direct a copy of the summons and complaint to be deposited in the postoffice, directed to the person to be served at his place of residence. When publication is ordered, personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint, out of the State, shall be equivalent to completed service by publication and deposit in the postoffice, and the person so served shall have forty days after said service to appear and answer or demur. The service of summons shall be deemed complete in cases of publication at the expiration of six weeks from the first publication, and in cases when a deposit of a copy of the summons and complaint in the postoffice is also required, at the expiration of six weeks from such deposit. In actions upon contracts for the direct payment of money, evidenced by written instrument, the Court may, instead of ordering publication, appoint an attorney to appear and answer for the non-resident, absent or concealed defendant, and conduct the proceedings on his part.

Summons in Case of Joint Defendants.

J. C.

3127. SEC. 32. Where the action is against two or more defendants, and the summons is served on one or more, but not on all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows: First—If the action be against the defendants jointly indebted upon a contract, he may proceed against the defendant served, unless the court otherwise direct; and if he recover judgment, it may be entered against all the defendants thus jointly indebted, so far only as that it may be enforced against the joint property of all and the separate property of the defendant served; or, second, if the action be against defendants severally liable, he may proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

1. ACTION AGAINST JOINT DEBTORS, WHERE ONE ONLY SERVED—Pleading by One of Several Joint Debtors—Judgment by Confession of Joint Debtor—Above Section (32) Construed. Flannery v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 437.

2. PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 32—JUDGMENT AGAINST JOINT DEBTORS. Where the defendants in an action against two are both served with the summons, a judgment, under Section 32 of the Practice Act, cannot be entered against one to be executed against his separate property and the joint property of both. Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 383.

3. CONSTRUCTION OF SECTION 32 OF PRACTICE ACT. Section 32 of the Practice Act does not provide a rule for the disposition of actions against several joint debtors, where all have been served and appeared, and the proceedings against one are suspended by bankruptcy. Tinkum v. O'Neale, 5 Nev. 93.
4. OBJECT OF SECTION 32 OF PRACTICE ACT was to make the property of all partnership associations and joint associations liable on judgments obtained upon service of one member of the association. Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 233.
- ONE PARTNER SERVED ANSWERS FOR ALL as far as joint property is concerned. Id.
- "COPARTNERSHIP PROPERTY AND ASSETS," JOINT PROPERTY. Id.

Proof of Service of Summons.

J. C.

3128. SEC. 33. Proof of the service of the summons shall be as follows: First—If served by the Sheriff or his deputy, the affidavit or certificate of such Sheriff or deputy; or, second, if by any other person, his affidavit thereof; or, third, in case of publication, the affidavit of the publisher, his foreman or principal clerk, showing the same, and an affidavit of a deposit of a copy of the summons in the postoffice, if the same shall have been deposited; or, fourth, the written admission of the defendant.

1. SUMMONS ONCE FULLY SERVED. Where service of a summons has been made, and the demands of the writ satisfied, the conclusive presumption of the law is, under Sections 28 and 33 of the Practice Act, that its office, having been accomplished, no person can effectively thereafter use it for its original purpose. Mayenbaum v. Murphy, 5 Nev. 333. See Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265.
2. SUMMONS—SECOND SERVICE OF. A void service of a summons does not preclude another and perfect service of the same; and the fact of the summons having been returned and filed does not prevent its being withdrawn and properly served. Coffin v. Bell, 22 Nev. 169.
3. PROOF OF PUBLICATION OF SUMMONS—DEPOSIT IN POSTOFFICE. Such deposit shall be proved by affidavit. Scorpion S. M. Co. v. Marsano, 10 Nev. 370.
4. RETURN ON SUMMONS. The mere statement of defendant's attorney that no copy of the summons was served, will not be allowed to contradict the Sheriff's return on the original summons certifying that a true copy had been served on defendant. Higley v. Pollock, 21 Nev. 198.
5. EFFECT OF OFFICER'S RETURN—Recital of Facts in Judgment Not Conclusive. Lonkey v. Keyes S. M. Co., 21 Nev. 312.
6. SUFFICIENCY OF SHERIFF'S RETURN—Clerical Mistake Not Vital. Allen v. Mayberry, 14 Nev. 115.

Affidavit of Service.

J. C.

3129. SEC. 34. In case of service otherwise than by publication, the certificate or affidavit shall state the time and place of the service.

Jurisdiction Acquired by Service.

J. C.

3130. SEC. 35. From the time of the service of the summons in a civil action, the court shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction, and to have control of all the subsequent proceedings. A voluntary appearance of a defendant shall be equivalent to personal service of the summons upon him.

1. WAIVER OF SUMMONS accomplished by defendant filing demurrer and answer. Rose v. Richmond M. Co., 17 Nev. 28.
2. SERVICE OF ANSWER NOT NECESSARY TO GIVE COURT JURISDICTION OF DEFENDANTS. Maples v. Geller, 1 Nev. 233.
3. NON-RESIDENT—VOLUNTARY APPEARANCE BY ATTORNEY. Court acquired jurisdiction of both person and property by such appearance. Frankel & Co. v. Creditors, 20 Nev. 42.

TITLE IV.*Of the Pleadings in Civil Actions.Pleadings.

3131. SEC. 36. The pleadings are the formal allegations by the parties of their respective claims and defenses, for the judgment of the court.

Forms and Rules.

3132. SEC. 37. All the forms of pleadings in civil actions, and the rules by which the sufficiency of the pleadings shall be determined, shall be those prescribed in this Act.

Pleadings of Plaintiff and Defendant.

3133. SEC. 38. The only pleadings on the part of the plaintiff shall be the complaint, or demurrer to the defendant's answer; and the only pleadings on the part of the defendant shall be the demurrer, or the answer. The demurrer or answer of the defendant, and the demurrer of the plaintiff, shall be filed with the Clerk, and a copy served on the adverse party or his attorney.

SERVICE OF ANSWER is for convenience of plaintiff's counsel, and may be enforced by the court, but is not necessary to give jurisdiction of defendant. Maples v. Geller, 1 Nev. 233.

Complaint, What to Contain.

3134. SEC. 39. The complaint shall contain: First—The title of the action, specifying the name of the court and the name of the county in which the action is brought, and the names of the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant. Second—A statement of the facts constituting the cause of action, in ordinary and concise language. Third—A demand of the relief which the plaintiff claims. If the recovery of money or damages be demanded, the amount thereof shall be stated.

1. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—ACTION ON JUDGMENT. Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev.
2. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—ACTION ON CONTRACT. Allegation of actual damage or facts from which it must be inferred absolutely necessary to recover more than nominal damages. Richardson v. Jones & Denton, 1 Nev. 406.
3. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—ASSUMPSIT. Richardson v. Hoole, 13 Nev. 492.
4. ASSUMPSIT, COMMON COUNTS IN—MONEY HAD AND RECEIVED. Defendant may declare generally on common counts. Facts which create indebtedness need not be stated. White Pine Co. Bank v. Sadler, 19 Nev. 98.
5. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—MONEY LOANED. If complaint charges indebtedness, manner in which it accrued, promise to pay and refusal, it is sufficient. Williams v. Glasgow, 1 Nev. 533.
6. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—ACTION ON CONTRACT. Complaint must allege not only value of wood delivered to defendant, but that their contract made them liable for that quantity. Horton v. Ruhling & Co., 3 Nev. 498.
7. CONTRACT—ACTION FOR BREACH OF. Averments that money was expended "to defendant's use," and alleging his "promise to pay," may be treated as surplusage. Orr Ditch Co. v. Reno Water Co., 19 Nev. 60.
8. CONTRACT—INSUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT. Failure to allege "promise to pay": Held, "complaint did not state facts sufficient, etc." Gerrens v. Huhn & Hunt S. M. Co., 10 Nev. 137.
9. CONTRACT, BREACH MUST BE ALLEGED. If not alleged, complaint fails to state facts sufficient. Hutchens v. Sutherland, 22 Nev. 363.
10. CONSTRUCTION OF PLEADING—ALLEGATION OF PLACE OF CORPORATION. An allegation that defendant "is a corporation duly organized and doing business as such in the State of Nevada" is equivalent to an averment that such defendant is a corporation duly organized in the State of Nevada. Little v. V. & G. H. W. Co., 9 Nev. 317.
11. ACTION AGAINST TRUSTEES OF CORPORATION—Complaint—Cause of Action—Proper Parties Defendant. Marshall v. G. F. M. Co., 16 Nev. 158.
12. VOID NOTE—SUIT ON ORIGINAL CONSIDERATION. Pleading must set out such consideration. Wayman v. Torreyson, 4 Nev. 124.
13. PROMISSORY NOTE—Possession Raises Presumption of Ownership—Ownership Need Not Be Pleading. Todman v. Purdy, 5 Nev. 238; Allen v. Reilly, 15 Nev. 452.
14. POSSESSION OF NOTE NEED NOT BE PLEADED—Note in Possession of Defendant. McClusky v. Gerhauser, 2 Nev. 47.
15. COMPLAINT—PROMISSORY NOTE GOOD where all other facts properly alleged, although non-payment not alleged in direct terms. Howard v. Richards, 2 Nev. 128.
16. NOTE EXECUTED IN FIRM NAME After Death of a Partner—Allegations, etc. Manning v. Smith, 16 Nev. 85.

17. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—TITLE TO LAND. Right of mortgagor to receive legal title must be alleged. Gentry v. Low, 4 Nev. 99.
18. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT—LABOR, SERVICES. Certain sum due alleged, promise to pay and value not alleged: Held, whatever the defects of the complaint, they were cured by defendant's pleading and by the verdict. McManus v. Ophir S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 15.
19. COMPLAINT INSUFFICIENT TO SUPPORT JUDGMENT. Appellate court's duty to reverse, although counsel has not set forth grounds. Van Doren v. Tjader, 1 Nev. 380.
- COMPLAINT—PRESUMPTION REGARDING. Where terms and conditions of agreement are set forth, and violation of same charged in complaint, if instrument is such as law requires to be in writing, courts will presume same to be in writing until contrary is shown. Id.
20. PLEADING ON INSURANCE POLICY. Healey v. Imperial Fire Insurance Co., 5 Nev. 268.
21. SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTION TO STAY WASTE—Intendments in Favor of Complaint After Judgment, or After Order Based Upon It. Meadow Valley M. Co. v. Dodds, 6 Nev. 261.
22. SUFFICIENCY OF ALLEGATION—DELINQUENT TAX SUIT. State v. Sadler, 21 Nev. 13.
23. ALLEGATIONS REFER TO DATE OF COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION. Ronnow v. Delmue, 23 Nev. 29.
24. DAMAGE, NOT VALUE, SHOULD BE ALLEGED. In case where plaintiff was not allowed to remove fixtures. Prescott v. Wells, Fargo & Co., 3 Nev. 82.
25. PARTY MUST PROVE THE CASE HE MAKES IN HIS PLEADING, OR FAIL. Party alleging and seeking to recover under contract, cannot recover on proof of a trespass. C. R. L. Co. v. Bassett, 2 Nev. 249.
26. ACTIONS ARISING OUT OF TORT AND OUT OF CONTRACT. Distinction between should be maintained in pleading. Knickerbocker & N. S. M. Co. v. Hall, 3 Nev. 194.
27. WHERE INSTRUMENT VOID BY STATUTE. Statute should be specially pleaded. Maynard v. Johnson, 2 Nev. 18.
- DEFENDANT MAY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF HIS OWN FRAUD where necessary to show violation of statute. Id.
28. DEFECTIVE COMPLAINT CURED BY VERDICT. Action for damages for improperly suing out writ of attachment, must aver that it was sued out "without probable cause." Levy v. Fargo, 1 Nev. 415.
29. FACTS STATED IN COMPLAINT. Presumption is that court found same, if sufficient to support judgment. Peers v. Reed, 23 Nev. 404.
30. TECHNICAL WORDS SHOULD BE USED IN COMPLAINT. Huguet v. Owen, 1 Nev. 464.
31. FACTS, NOT A CONCLUSION OF LAW, SHOULD BE STATED. Cal. Tel. Co. v. Patterson, 1 Nev. 150.
32. APPARENT, NOT REAL, CONTRADICTION IN PLEADING. Crow v. Van Sickle, 6 Nev. 146.

Demurrer, Grounds For.

3135. SEC. 40. The defendant may demur to the complaint within the time required in the summons to answer, when it appears upon the face thereof, either: First, that the court has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant, or the subject of the action; or, second, that the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue; or, third, that there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause; or, fourth, there is a defect or misjoinder of parties, plaintiff or defendant; or, fifth, that several causes of action have been improperly united; or, sixth, that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action; or, seventh, that the complaint is ambiguous, unintelligible, or uncertain.

1. DEMURRER ADMITS truth of whatever is contained in complaint, but does not admit new facts. Van Doren v. Tjader, 1 Nev. 380.
2. DEMURRER—SUIT FOR DELINQUENT TAXES. Defendant has right to demurrer on any of grounds set forth in Practice Act. State v. Yellow Jacket S. M. Co., 14 Nev. 220.
3. "MISJOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION"—ACTION ON OFFICIAL BOND. Cause of action against principal and sureties cannot be united with cause of action for damages against principal alone. State v. Kruttschnitt, 4 Nev. 179.
4. MISJOINDER OF ACTIONS cannot be taken advantage of on general demurrer. Ruhling v. Hackett, 1 Nev. 360.
5. MISJOINDER OF PARTIES PLAINTIFF—Replevin Bond—Sheriff Not Proper Party Plaintiff. McBeth v. Van Sickle, 6 Nev. 134.
6. DEMURRER OVERRULED. PROPER PRACTICE is to give time to replead. Eastabrook v. Upton, 1 Nev. 398.

7. JOINT DEMURRER—SEPARATE ORDERS THEREON. A joint demurrer may be sustained as to one defendant, and overruled as to another. Wood v. Olney, 7 Nev. 109.
 8. ANSWER DEFECTIVE IN FORM ONLY. Plaintiff should demur, not move, for judgment on pleadings. Defendant should have right to amend. Gallagher v. Dunlap, 2 Nev. 326.
 9. ALLEGATION BY WAY OF RECITAL—GENERAL DEMURRER INSUFFICIENT. If a complaint states a substantial allegation only by way of recital, the defect should be objected to specifically and cannot be taken advantage of on general demurrer. Winter v. Winter, 8 Nev. 129.
 10. DEMURRER PROPER PRACTICE TO DEFECTIVE COMPLAINT. To file answer and move for judgment on pleadings irregular; must be sustained, however, when complaint is fatally defective in not stating a cause of action. Lake Bigler R. Co. v. Bedford, 3 Nev. 399.
 11. TECHNICAL DEFECTS OF PLEADING—DEMURRER PROPER PRACTICE—SPIRIT OF THE CODE. When a pleading contains a defective statement of a cause of action, as distinguished from a statement of a defective cause of action, the defect, if relied on by the opposite party, should be pointed out by demurrer, so as to afford an opportunity to amend—neither the spirit of the code nor properly speaking its practice allowing a substantial right to be cut off by a mere technical judgment without giving such opportunity. Treadway v. Wilder, 8 Nev. 91; Cal. State Tel. Co. v. Patterson, 1 Nev. 150.
 12. DEMURRER, HOW WAIVED. If party demur for non-joinder of parties or uncertainty, he must let final judgment be entered on demurrer. If he answers, he waives right to rely on demurrer. Lonkey v. Wells, 16 Nev. 271; Hammersmith v. Avery, 18 Nev. 225; Gardner v. Gardner, 23 Nev. 207; Harden v. Emmons, 24 Nev.
- See Levy v. Fargo, 6 Nev. 415.
13. DEMURRER INSTEAD OF PLEA IN ABATEMENT—Damage for Rafting Timber. Mandlebaum v. Russell, 4 Nev. 551.
 14. DEMURRER FOR "DEFECT OF PARTIES PLAINTIFF" OR THAT "PLAINTIFF HAS NOT LEGAL CAPACITY TO SUE" will not reach the defect of a proceeding in a name, as plaintiff, of neither a natural or artificial person. Proprietors of Mexican Mill v. Yellow Jacket S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 40.

Demurrer.

3136. SEC. 41. The demurrer shall distinctly specify the grounds upon which any of the objections to the complaint are taken. Unless it do so it may be disregarded.

Demurrer and Answer.

3137. SEC. 42. The defendant may demur to the whole complaint, or to one or more of several causes of action stated therein, and answer the residue; or may demur and answer at the same time.

Amending Complaint.

3138. SEC. 43. If the complaint be amended, a copy of the amendment shall be filed, or the court may, in its discretion, require the complaint as amended to be filed, and a copy of the amendment shall be served upon every defendant to be affected thereby, or upon his attorney, if he has appeared by attorney. The defendant shall answer in such time as may be ordered by the court, and judgment by default may be entered upon failure to answer, as in other cases.

Objections.

3139. SEC. 44. When any of the matters enumerated in section forty do not appear upon the face of the complaint, the objection may be taken by answer.

Waiver of Demurrer.

3140. SEC. 45. If no such objection is taken, either by demurrer or answer, the defendant shall be deemed to have waived the same, excepting only the objection to the jurisdiction of the court, and the objection that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Answer, What to Contain.

3141. SEC. 46. The answer of the defendant shall contain: First—If the complaint be verified, a special denial to each allegation of the complaint, controverted by the defendant, or a denial thereof according to his information and belief; if the complaint be not verified, then a general denial to each of such allegations; but a general denial shall only put in issue the material and express allegations of the complaint. Second—A statement of any new matter or counterclaim, constituting a defense, in ordinary and concise language.

1. PLEADING—AFFIRMATIVE MATTER IN ANSWER CONSIDERED DENIED. Under the practice in this state, all affirmative matter in an answer is taken as denied. Cahill v. Hirshman, 6 Nev. 57.
2. GENERAL DENIAL IN SWORN ANSWER INSUFFICIENT. State v. W. U. Tel. Co., 4 Nev. 338.
3. ANSWER INSTEAD OF PLEA IN ABATEMENT. Defect of parties should be pleaded by answer, not plea in abatement. Mandlebaum v. Russell, 4 Nev. 551.
4. MATTER IN AVOIDANCE must be specially pleaded, or no proof can be heard. Horton v. Ruhling, 3 Nev. 498.
5. FORMAL OBJECTIONS TO COMPLAINT waived by plea of confession and avoidance. McManus v. Ophir S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 15.
6. SUFFICIENCY OF ANSWER. Denial must be direct and not argumentative. Gallagher v. Dunlap, 2 Nev. 326; Solen v. V. & T. R. Co., 13 Nev. 106.
7. ANSWER MAY BE STRICKEN OUT when frivolous, or not verified when it should be, and judgment may be rendered on complaint if defect is not cured in reasonable time. Lehane v. Keys, 2 Nev. 361.
8. ANSWER MAY AID COMPLAINT. Hawthorne v. Smith, 3 Nev. 182.
9. PLEADING BY DEFENDANT ASKING AFFIRMATIVE RELIEF must be as full as though he were a plaintiff. Rose v. Treadway, 4 Nev. 455.
10. EQUITABLE CHARACTER OF ACTION NOT DESTROYED BY ANSWER DENYING TITLE. Lake v. Tolles, 8 Nev. 285.
11. ESTOPPEL MUST BE PLEADED. An estoppel cannot be proved if it be not sufficiently pleaded. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.
- PLEADING OF ESTOPPEL IN PARS. In pleading facts to show an estoppel in pars, it is necessary to set forth every essential element of such an estoppel; and among other things that the party relying on it was influenced in his conduct by the acts or silence of the other. Id.; Hanson v. Chiatovich, 13 Nev. 395.
12. ALLEGATION OF COMPLAINT NOT DENIED IN ANSWER does not raise issue on that point. Smith v. Lee, 10 Nev. 208.
13. INSUFFICIENT DENIAL. Blackie v. Cooney, 8 Nev. 41.
14. ADMISSION IN PLEADING DISPENSES WITH PROOF. Carlyon v. Lannan, 4 Nev. 156.
15. ANSWER OF OFFICER TO JUSTIFY SEIZURE UNDER EXECUTION—Sufficiency Of. McDonald v. Prescott, 2 Nev. 109.
16. NEW MATTER—Matter in Confession and Avoidance—Terms in Contract Not Shown by Plaintiff. Ferguson v. Rutherford, 7 Nev. 385.
17. SUFFICIENCY OF ANSWER, DELINQUENT TAX SUIT—Denial of Title Good Defense. State v. C. P. R. Co., 21 Nev. 94.
18. EJECTMENT—PLEADING EQUITABLE DEFENSE. A party that relies upon an equitable defense to an action of ejectment must set up in his answer the facts constituting the same or it will not be considered. Brady v. Husby, 21 Nev. 453.
19. EQUITABLE DEFENSE. Defendant may set up equitable defense to action for possession of lands. South End M. Co. v. Tinney, 22 Nev. 19.
20. TITLE BY PRESCRIPTION SET UP IN ANSWER. Objection to its sufficiency waived if not objected to. Authors v. Bryant, 22 Nev. 242.

Counterclaim, What May Constitute.

3142. SEC. 47. The counterclaim mentioned in the last section shall be one existing in favor of the defendant and against a plaintiff, between whom a several judgment might be had in the action, and arising out of one of the following causes of action: First—A cause of action arising out of the transaction set forth in the complaint as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, or connected with the subject of the action. Second—In an action arising upon contract, any other cause of action arising also upon contract and existing at the commencement of the action.

1. COUNTERCLAIM—HOW ESTABLISHED. The defendant, alleging a counterclaim, must establish it to the satisfaction of the jury by a preponderance of evidence. Margaroli v. Miligan, 11 Nev. 96.
2. COUNTERCLAIM—Copartnership Account—Demurrer—Action Upon Contract—Insolvency of Plaintiff. Foulks v. Rhodes, 12 Nev. 225.

3. COUNTERCLAIM. A demand of one of several defendants cannot be pleaded as a counterclaim to a demand upon which they are jointly liable unless there is an agreement that it shall so operate. Davis v. Noteware, 13 Nev. 421.
4. SET-OFF AND COUNTERCLAIM—Claim Arising Out of Subject of Action—Sections 46 and 47 Construed. Lapham v. Osborne, 20 Nev. 168.

Cross Demands.

3143. SEC. 48. When cross demands have existed between persons under such circumstances that if one had brought an action against the other a counterclaim could have been set up, neither shall be deprived of the benefit thereof by the assignment or death of the other, but the two demands be deemed compensation, so far as they equal each other.

Several Defenses May Be Set Forth.

3144. SEC. 49. The defendant may set forth by answer as many defenses and counterclaims as he may have. They shall each be separately stated, and the several defenses shall refer to the causes of action which they are intended to answer in a manner in which they may be intelligibly distinguished.

Demurrer to Answer.

3145. SEC. 50. The plaintiff may, within the number of days in which the defendant is by the summons required to answer, said days to be computed from the time of the service on the plaintiff of a copy of such answer, demur to the same for insufficiency, stating in his demurrer the grounds thereof; and he may also, within the same time, demur to one or more of the defenses set up in the answer. Sham and irrelevant answers and defenses, and so much of any answer as may be irrelevant, redundant, or immaterial may be stricken out on motion, and upon such terms as the court, in its discretion, may impose.

Pleadings to Be Subscribed—When to Be Verified.

3146. SEC. 51. Every pleading shall be subscribed by the party or his attorney, and when the complaint is verified by affidavit the answer shall be verified also, except as provided in the next section.

ANSWER—WHEN VERIFIED, SHOULD NOT DENY TRUE ALLEGATIONS. A verified answer should not deny facts unquestionably true. Parties doing so lay themselves liable to the penalties of the criminal law. Roeder v. Stein, 23 Nev. 92.

Verification Omitted, When.

3147. SEC. 52. The verification of the answer required in the last section may be omitted when an admission of the truth of the complaint might subject the party to prosecution for felony.

Written Instrument.

3148. SEC. 53. When an action is brought upon a written instrument, and the complaint contains a copy of such instrument, or a copy is annexed thereto, the genuineness and due execution of such instrument shall be deemed admitted, unless the answer denying the same be verified.

Defense, Written Instrument.

3149. SEC. 54. When the defense to an action is founded upon a written instrument, and a copy thereof is contained in the answer, or a copy is annexed thereto, the genuineness and due execution of such instrument shall be deemed admitted, unless the plaintiff file with the Clerk, five days after the service of the answer, an affidavit denying the same.

Verification of Pleadings, by Whom Made.

3150. SEC. 55. In all cases of the verification of a pleading, the affidavit of the party shall state that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are therein stated on his information or belief, and as to those matters, that he believes it to be true. And where a pleading is verified, it shall be by the affidavit of the party, unless he be absent from the county where the attorneys reside, or from some cause unable to verify it, or the facts are within the knowledge of his attorney or other person verifying the same. When the pleading is verified by the attorney, or any other person except the party, he shall set forth in the affidavit the reasons why it is not made by the party. When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof; or when the state, or any officer thereof in its behalf, is a party, the verification may be made by any person acquainted with the facts; except that in actions prosecuted by the Attorney-General, in behalf of the state, the pleadings need not, in any case, be verified.

1. SECTION 55 CONSTRUED—PROPER PRACTICE DEFECTIVE VERIFICATION OF ANSWER. Defendant should be allowed to correct error if he desires to do so. Heintzelman v. L'Amoureux, 3 Nev. 377.
2. VERIFICATION OF COMPLAINT—SUFFICIENCY OF. Where averments are positive and nothing stated on "information and belief," omission of words "except as to those matters which are stated on information and belief," etc., not defective. Kelly v. Kelly, 18 Nev. 49.

Items of Account.

3151. SEC. 56. It shall not be necessary for a party to set forth in a pleading the items of an account therein alleged, but he shall deliver to the adverse party within five days after a demand thereof, in writing, a copy of the account, or be precluded from giving evidence thereof. The court, or a Judge thereof, may order a further account when the one delivered is too general, or is defective in any particular.

Irrelevant Matter.

3152. SEC. 57. If irrelevant or redundant matter be inserted in a pleading, it may be stricken out by the court, on motion of any person aggrieved thereby.

Real Property to Be Described.

3153. SEC. 58. In an action for the recovery of real property, such property shall be described, with its metes and bounds, in the complaint, or with other equal certainty.

Judgment, How Plead.

3154. SEC. 59. In pleading a judgment or other determination of a court, or officer of especial jurisdiction, it shall not be necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction, but such judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. If such allegation be controverted, the party pleading shall be bound to establish on the trial the facts conferring jurisdiction.

1. JUDGMENT MUST BE ALLEGED IN PLEADING. Without such allegation proof of judgment or proceeding of court of limited jurisdiction not admissible. Keys v. Grannia, 3 Nev. 548.
2. EXISTENCE OF JUDGMENT CANNOT BE SHOWN BY PAROL TESTIMONY—Action on Promissory Note. Davis v. Noteware, 13 Nev. 421.

Performance of Contract, How Plead.

3155. SEC. 60. In pleading the performance of conditions precedent in a contract, it shall not be necessary to state the facts showing such performance, but it may be stated generally that the party duly performed all the conditions on his part; and if such allegation be controverted, the party pleading shall establish on the trial the facts showing such performance.

Private Statutes, How Plead.

3156. SEC. 61. In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to such statute by its title and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

Libel or Slander, Pleadings.

3157. SEC. 62. In an action for libel or slander, it shall not be necessary to state in the complaint any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the plaintiff of the defamatory matter out of which the action arose; but it shall be sufficient to state generally that the same was published or spoken concerning the plaintiff; and if such allegation be controverted, the plaintiff shall establish on the trial that it was so published or spoken.

Truth May Be Alleged.

3158. SEC. 63. In the actions mentioned in the last section, the defendant may, in his answer, allege both the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and any mitigating circumstances to reduce the amount of the damages; and, whether he prove the justification or not, he may give in evidence the mitigating circumstances.

LABEL—PLEADINGS. Intent and motive of defendant may be shown to reduce damages. Thompson v. Powning, 15 Nev. 185.

When Several Causes of Action May Be United.

3159. SEC. 64. The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, when they all arise out of: First, contracts, express or implied; or, second, claims to recover specific real property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof, or for waste committed thereon, and the rents and profits of the same; or, third, claims to recover specific personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof; or, fourth, claims against a trustee, by virtue of a contract, or by operation of law; or, fifth, injuries to character; or, sixth, injuries to person; or, seventh, injuries to property. But the causes of action so united shall all belong to only one of these classes, and shall affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and shall be separately stated; provided, however, that an action for malicious arrest and prosecution, or either of them, may be united with an action for either injury to character or to the person.

Allegations, When Deemed Controverted.

3160. SEC. 65. Every material allegation of the complaint, when it is verified, not specifically controverted by the answer, shall for the purpose of the action be taken as true. The allegation of new matter in the answer shall on the trial be deemed controverted by the adverse party.

Material Allegations.

3161. SEC. 66. A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim, or defense, and which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient.

Answer After Demurrer.

3162. SEC. 67. After demurrer and before the trial of issue on demurrer, either party may, within ten days, amend any pleading demurred to of course, Section 67. After demurrer and before the trial of issue on demurrer, either party may, within ten days, amend any pleading demurred to, of course, and may amend any demurrer, and without costs, filing the same as amended, and serving a copy thereof upon the adverse party or his attorney, who shall have ten days to answer or demur thereto if the pleading be a complaint, or to demur thereto if it be an answer; but a party shall not so amend more than once. When a demurrer to a complaint is overruled, and there is no answer filed, the court may, upon such terms as shall be just, allow the defendant to file an answer. If the demurrer to the answer be overruled, the facts alleged in the answer shall still be construed as denied.

7. AMENDMENT OF COMPLAINT. That it will deprive defendant of right to plead statute of limitations is no reason why it should not be allowed. Tucker v. Mayor, et al., 4 Nev. 20.
8. PLEADING, SUFFICIENCY OF—ON MOTION TO QUASH—RULING OF COURT BELOW, FOLLOWED BY APPELLATE COURT. Where, on a motion to quash which amounted to a demurrer, the trial court held the complaint sufficient, justice requires that the appellate court should do the same, as otherwise the pleader would lose all right of amendment. Schneider v. Bray, 22 Nev. 272.

Amendment of Pleadings—Answer After Default.

1. SECTION 68. Should be full stop after words "excusable neglect." Howe v. Coldren, 4 Nev. 171.

OPENING DEFAULT—Affidavit of Merits—Practice as to Opening Defaults. Id.

2. MOTION TO SET ASIDE DEFAULT—AFFIDAVIT OF MERITS BY ATTORNEY is sufficient, when it shows that he is familiar with all of the facts in the case. Horton v. New Pass G. & S. M. Co., 21 Nev. 184.

WHEN MOTION SHOULD BE MADE. An application to open a default should be made immediately. Id.

3. SECTION 68 DOES NOT EXTEND to Case Where Court Has Lost Jurisdiction by Lapse of Time—Nunc Pro Tunc Order. Killip v. Empire M. Co., 2 Nev. 34.
4. TECHNICAL MISTAKE. Section 68 is intended for benefit of those only who have meritorious defense, and who have complied with the law; and not for those who offer a mere technical excuse. Jones v. San Francisco Sulphur Co., 14 Nev. 172.
5. DEFAULT SHOULD NOT BE SET ASIDE FOR MERE TECHNICAL DEFENSE. Judgment entered by default should not be set aside on affidavit which does not show that defendant has a good and meritorious defense to the action. Ewing v. Jennings, 15 Nev. 379.
6. DEFAULT—POWER OF COURT TO SET ASIDE—Where Appearance Is Entered by Unauthorized Attorney. Stanton-Thompson Co. v. Craine, 24 Nev.
7. DEFAULT—Excusable Negligence—Affidavit of Merits by Attorney. State v. C. V. & C. M. Co., 13 Nev. 195.
8. JOINT JUDGMENT—LAPSE OF TERM—MOTION TO SET ASIDE. On motion of one joint defendant judgment may be set aside as to both. Stevenson & Son v. Mann & Smith, 13 Nev. 268.
9. AMENDMENT OF AFFIDAVIT—WHEN ALLOWED. Courts should be liberal in allowing amendments. Elder v. Frevert, 18 Nev. 278.
10. COURT SHOULD EITHER GRANT LEAVE TO AMEND OR DISMISS ACTION WITHOUT PREJUDICE when complaint so defective as not to state cause of action. Horton v. Ruhling & Co. 3 Nev. 498.
11. AMENDMENT—Discretionary Power of Court. McCausland v. Ralston, 12 Nev. 195.
12. ALLOWANCE OF ANSWER AFTER TIME GENERALLY MATTER OF DISCRETION. Especially so where there has been no default entered, and there is no showing that a failure to plead has occasioned any delay or injury to the opposite party. Conley v. Chedic, 7 Nev. 336.
13. AMENDMENT OF COMPLAINT—DISCRETION OF TRIAL COURT. An amendment of the ad damnum clause of the complaint, by increasing the amount claimed, is a matter within the discretion of the trial Judge, and may be allowed during the trial. Shields v. Orr Ditch Co., 23 Nev. 349.

14. AMENDMENT OF PLEADING UNDER SECTION 68. Courts have power to amend in furtherance of justice, but rights and liabilities of third parties must not be changed. Quillen v. Arnold, 12 Nev. 234.
15. AMENDMENT TO PLEADINGS. If evidence is objected to because the pleadings are defective, court should allow the pleadings to be amended. Jeffree v. Walsh, 14 Nev. 140.
16. AMENDMENT OF COMPLAINT AFTER FINDINGS ARE MADE—When Not Allowable. Marshall v. Golden Fleece M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.
- AMENDMENTS DURING TERM. Court may amend orders of record concerning extension of time, so as to conform to the truth, any time during term. Id.
17. AMENDMENT AFTER ADJOURNMENT OF TERM cannot be made unless there is something in record to amend by. Clark v. Strouse, 11 Nev. 76.
18. WHEN DEFAULT IMPROPERLY TAKEN. Defendant should apply to court during term for relief. Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.
19. JURISDICTION OF COURT AFTER EXPIRATION OF TERM. The district court has no jurisdiction at a subsequent term to set aside a default or vacate a decree or judgment rendered at a previous term of court unless its jurisdiction is saved by some proper proceeding instituted within the time allowed by law. Daniels v. Daniels, 12 Nev. 118; State v. Bank of Nevada, 4 Nev. 358; State v. Fourth Judicial District Court, 16 Nev. 371; Lang Syne M. Co. v. Ross, 20 Nev. 127.

Defendant's Name Not Known.

3164. SEC. 69. When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of a defendant, such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name is discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

Pleadings Construed.

3165. SEC. 70. In the construction of a pleading for the purpose of determining its effect, its allegations shall be liberally construed, with a view to substantial justice between the parties.

Error, When Disregarded.

3166. SEC. 71. The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings, which shall not affect the substantial rights of the parties; and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect.

1. PLEADING CONSTRUED LIBERALLY. The rule of construing pleadings most strongly against the pleader has been changed. For the purposes of determining its effect, a pleading should be liberally construed. Ferguson v. V. & T. R. Co., 13 Nev. 184.
2. CONSTRUCTION OF PLEADING—Mandamus. Flagg v. Trustees Lady Bryan M. Co., 4 Nev. 400.
3. CONSTRUCTION OF PLEADING. Sections 70 and 71 have liberalized the rules of construction applicable to pleadings so as not only to embrace the whole of the English statutes of jeofailles and amendments, but to go somewhat beyond. McManus v. Ophir Co., 4 Nev. 15.
4. ANSWER MAY BE HELD TO AID THE COMPLAINT AND SUSTAIN THE ACTION. Hawthorne v. Smith, 3 Nev. 182.
5. TECHNICAL ERROR DISREGARDED—Notice Not Properly Served, but Purpose Accomplished. Lake v. Lake, 16 Nev. 363.

TITLE V.

Of the Provisional Remedies in Civil Actions.

CHAPTER 1—ARREST AND BAIL.

Arrest in Civil Cases.

3167. SEC. 72. No person shall be arrested in a civil action except as prescribed by this Act.

Ex Parte Bergman, 18 Nev. 331.

When May Be Made.

3168. SEC. 73. The defendant may be arrested, as hereinafter prescribed, in the following cases arising after the passage of this Act: First—In an action for the recovery of money or damages on a cause of action arising upon contract, express or implied, when the defendant is about to depart from the state with intent to defraud his creditors, or when the action is for libel or slander. Second—In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied or converted to his own use by a public officer, or an officer of a corporation, or an attorney, factor, broker, agent, or clerk, in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person in a fiduciary capacity, or for misconduct or neglect in office, or in professional employment, or for a willful violation of duty. Third—In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, when the property, or any part thereof, has been concealed, removed, or disposed of, so that it cannot be found or taken by the Sheriff. Fourth—When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property, for the taking, detention, or conversion of which the action is brought. Fifth—When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors.

Order for Arrest.

3169. SEC. 74. An order for the arrest of the defendant shall be obtained from a Judge of the court in which the action is brought.

Affidavit Necessary for Arrest.

3170. SEC. 75. The order may be made whenever it shall appear to the Judge, by the affidavit of the plaintiff or some other person, that a sufficient cause of action exists, and the case is one of those mentioned in section seventy-three. The affidavit shall be either positive or upon information and belief; and when upon information and belief, it shall state the facts upon which the information and belief are founded. If an order of arrest be made, the affidavit shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

To Give Undertaking.

3171. SEC. 76. Before making the order the Judge shall require a written undertaking, payable in gold coin of the United States, on the part of the plaintiff, with sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs and charges that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least five hundred dollars. Each of the sureties shall annex to the undertaking an affidavit that he is a resident and householder or freeholder within the state, and worth double the sum specified in the undertaking over and above all his debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution. The undertaking shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

When Order May Be Made.

3172. SEC. 77. The order may be made to accompany the summons, or any time afterwards before judgment. It shall require the Sheriff of the county where the defendant may be found forthwith to arrest him and hold him to bail in a specified sum, naming the money or currency in which it is payable, and to return the order at a time therein mentioned to the Clerk of the court in which the action is pending.

Duty of Sheriff.

3173. SEC. 78. The order of arrest, with a copy of the affidavit upon which it is made, shall be delivered to the Sheriff, who, upon arresting the defendant, shall deliver to him the copy of the affidavit, and also, if desired, a copy of the order of arrest.

How Executed.

3174. SEC. 79. The Sheriff shall execute the order by arresting the defendant and keeping him in custody until discharged by law.

Sections 80-85, inclusive, made applicable to justice's courts by Section 527 of this Act.

How Discharged.

J. C.

3175. SEC. 80. The defendant, at any time before execution, shall be discharged from the arrest either upon giving bail or upon depositing the amount mentioned in the order of arrest in the money or currency therein named, as provided in this chapter.

Bail, How Given.

J. C.

3176. SEC. 81. The defendant may give bail by causing a written undertaking, payable in the money of the contract (if any be named), and in other cases as directed by the Judge, to be executed by two or more sufficient sureties, stating their places of residence and occupations, to the effect that they are bound in the amount mentioned in the order of arrest; that the defendant shall at all times render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action, and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment therein; or that they will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which may be recovered in the action.

Bail May Surrender Defendant.

J. C.

3177. SEC. 82. At any time before judgment, or within ten days thereafter, the bail may surrender the defendant in their exoneration; or he may surrender himself to the Sheriff of the county where he was arrested.

Bail May Arrest Defendant.

J. C.

3178. SEC. 83. For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the bail at any time or place before they are finally charged, may themselves arrest him; or, by a written authority, indorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower the Sheriff to do so. Upon the arrest of the defendant by the Sheriff, or upon his delivery to the Sheriff by the bail, or upon his own surrender, the bail shall be exonerated; provided, such arrest, delivery, or surrender shall take place before the expiration of ten days after judgment; but if such arrest, delivery, or surrender be not made within ten days after judgment, the bail shall be finally charged on their undertaking, and be bound to pay the amount of the judgment within ten days thereafter.

Judgment Against Bail.

J. C.

3179. SEC. 84. If the bail neglect or refuse to pay the judgment within ten days after they are finally charged, an action may be commenced against such bail for the amount of such original judgment.

Bail, How Exonerated.

J. C.

3180. SEC. 85. The bail shall also be exonerated by the death of the defendant, or his imprisonment in a state prison, or by his legal discharge from the obligation to render himself amenable to the process.

Proceedings After Arrest.

3181. SEC. 86. Within the time limited for that purpose, the Sheriff shall file the order of arrest in the office of the Clerk of the court in which the action is pending, with his return indorsed thereon, together with a copy of the undertaking of the bail. The original undertaking he shall retain in his possession until filed, as herein provided. The plaintiff, within ten days thereafter, may serve upon the Sheriff a notice that he does not accept the bail, or he shall be deemed to have accepted them, and the Sheriff shall be exonerated from liability. If no notice be served within ten days, the original undertaking shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court.

Notice of Justification of Bail.

3182. SEC. 87. Within five days after the receipt of notice, the Sheriff or defendant may give to the plaintiff, or his attorney, notice of the justification of the same, or other bail (specifying the places of residence and occupations of the latter), before the Judge of the Court, or Clerk, at a specified time and place; the time to be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, except by consent of parties. In case other bail be given, there shall be a new undertaking.

Qualifications of Bail.

3183. SEC. 88. The qualifications of bail shall be as follows: First—Each of them shall be a resident and householder, or freeholder, within the county. Second—Each shall be worth the amount specified in the order of arrest, or the amount to which the order is reduced, as provided in this chapter, over and above all his debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the Judge, or Clerk, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify severally in amounts less than that expressed in the order, if the whole justification be equivalent to that of two sufficient bail.

Bail, How to Justify.

3184. SEC. 89. For the purpose of justification, each of the bail shall attend before the Judge, or Clerk, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and may be examined on oath, on the part of the plaintiff, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the Judge, or Clerk, in his discretion may think proper. The examination shall be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the bail, if required by the plaintiff.

Allowance of Bail.

3185. SEC. 90. If the Judge, or Clerk, find the bail sufficient, he shall annex the examination to the undertaking, indorse his allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed, and the Sheriff shall thereupon be exonerated from liability.

Deposit in Lieu of Bail.

3186. SEC. 91. The defendant may, at the time of his arrest, instead of giving bail, deposit with the Sheriff the amount mentioned in the order. In case the amount of the bail be reduced, as provided in this chapter, the defendant may deposit such amount instead of giving bail. In either case the Sheriff shall give the defendant a certificate of the deposit made, and the defendant shall be discharged out of custody.

Disposition of Deposits—Liability of Sheriff.

3187. SEC. 92. The Sheriff shall, immediately after the deposit, pay the same into court, and take from the Clerk receiving the same two certificates of such payment; the one of which he shall deliver or transmit to the plaintiff, or his attorney, and the other to the defendant. For any default in making such payment, the same proceedings may be had on the official bond of the Sheriff to collect the sum deposited as in other cases of delinquency.

Bail After Deposit.

3188. SEC. 93. If the money be deposited, as provided in the last two sections, bail may be given and may justify upon notice at any time before judgment; and on the filing of the undertaking and justification with the Clerk, the money deposited shall be refunded by such Clerk to the defendant.

Deposit May Be Applied on Judgment.

3189. SEC. 94. Where money shall have been deposited, if it remain on deposit at the time of a recovery of a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, the Clerk shall, under the direction of the court, apply the same in satisfaction thereof, and after satisfying the judgment shall refund the surplus, if any, to the defendant. If the judgment be in favor of the defendant, the Clerk shall, under like direction of the court, refund to him the whole sum deposited and remaining unapplied.

Liability of Sheriff.

3190. SEC. 95. If, after being arrested, the defendant escape or be rescued, the Sheriff shall himself be liable as bail; but he may discharge himself from such liability by the giving and justification of bail at any time before judgment.

Judgment Against Sheriff.

3191. SEC. 96. If a judgment be recovered against the Sheriff, upon his liability as bail, and an execution thereon be returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the same proceedings may be had on his official bond for the recovery of the whole or any deficiency, as in other cases of delinquency.

Vacating Order of Arrest.

3192. SEC. 97. A defendant arrested may, at any time before the justification of bail, apply to the Judge who made the order, or the court in which the action is pending, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to vacate the order of arrest, or to reduce the amount of bail. If the application be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other proofs in addition to those on which the order of arrest was made.

Vacation of Order—Reduction of Bail.

3193. SEC. 98. If, upon such application, it shall satisfactorily appear that there was not sufficient cause for the arrest, the order shall be vacated, or if it satisfactorily appear that the bail was fixed too high, the amount shall be reduced.

CHAPTER 2—CLAIMS AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.When Claim May Be Made.

J. C.

3194. SEC. 99. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time before answer, claim the delivery of such property to him as provided in this chapter.

Sections 99 to 102, inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 527 of this Act.

1. WHEN REPLEVIN LIES. As a general principle the owner of a chattel may take it by replevin from any person whose possession is unlawful, unless it is in the custody of the law or unless it has been taken by replevin from him by the party in possession. Buckley v. Buckley, 9 Nev. 373.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY IN REPLEVIN. In replevin the description of the property must be so clear that an officer can identify it. Id.

REPLEVIN OF GOODS IN HANDS OF PLAINTIFF IN OTHER REPLEVIN. Where personal property in the hands of the plaintiff in a suit of claim and delivery is claimed by a third person, the latter is not obliged to intervene in the pending action, but may institute an original action of claim and delivery. Id.

2. RIGHT TO MAINTAIN REPLEVIN. In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, it is necessary for the plaintiff to show that he is entitled to the immediate possession. Hilger v. Edwards, 5 Nev. 85.

3. REPLEVIN—PRACTICE. When the plaintiff in an action of replevin has introduced evidence showing that he had purchased the property and became vested with the legal title thereto, the defendants cannot raise the question of fraud in the sale, or of want of delivery, until they have shown some right or interest in the property, or some lien upon it that entitles them to attack the sale. West v. Humphrey, 21 Nev. 80.

4. ACTION OF REPLEVIN—DEMAND NOT NECESSARY. Not indispensably necessary to show a demand upon the defendant to return the property before suit brought. A demand serves no purpose, except to establish a conversion or a wrongful detention. Perkins v. Barnes, 3 Nev. 557, approved; Whitman M. Co. v. Tritle, 4 Nev. 494.

5. DEMAND NOT NECESSARY IN TROVER. Ward v. C. R. W. Co., 13 Nev. 45.

6. DEMAND—When Not Necessary. Hanson v. Chiatovich, 13 Nev. 395.

7. REPLEVIN—MEASURE OF DAMAGES IN—VALUE OF PROPERTY INVOLVED IN—FLUCTUATION OF VALUATION DURING LITIGATION. When the value of the cattle—the subject of the litigation—had fluctuated during the pendency of the action, an instruction that plaintiff could recover the highest value between the taking and the trial was erroneous. The value at the time of the trial is the only competent indemnity. Gardner v. Brown, 22 Nev. 156.

REPLEVIN—Recovery of Possession Primary Object Of. Id.

8. FORM OF JUDGMENT IN REPLEVIN. An absolute judgment for value, not allowing defendant to satisfy judgment by return of property with costs and damages, is erroneous. Lambert v. McFarland, 2 Nev. 58.

9. REPLEVIN—Gift From Deceased Person Set up by Defendant—Declaration of Party as Part of Res Gestæ. Rollins v. Stout, 6 Nev. 150.
10. QUESTIONS INVOLVED ON REPLEVIN AGAINST A UNITED STATES MARSHAL. Where a replevin suit was commenced in a state court against a Marshal for goods seized by him under attachment process from a United States court: Held, that the state court could not extend its inquiry beyond the question as to whether the federal process was valid; and if so, that the question of title to the goods was irrelevant. Feusier v. Lammon, 6 Nev. 209.
If the goods have been taken from the Marshal, court has jurisdiction to return them to him. Id.
11. VERDICT IN REPLEVIN—Requisites—Judgment and Execution. Carson v. Applegarth, 6 Nev. 187.
12. PRIMARY OBJECT OF ACTION OF REPLEVIN. The recovery of damages in a proper case is as much a primary object of the action of replevin as is the recovery of the property in specie. Buckley v. Buckley, 12 Nev. 423.
- REPLEVIN FOR SHEEP—Right to Recover Increase and Wool—Indemnity. Id.
13. MEASURE OF DAMAGES—ACTION OF TROVER. Value of the article when converted, with interest on that value to the time of trial. O'Meara v. North American M. Co., 2 Nev. 112.
Rule explained at length. Id.; approved in Carlyon v. Lannan, 4 Nev. 156; Ward v. C. R. W. Co., 13 Nev. 44.
14. REPLEVIN FOR TIMBER CUT—TENANTS IN COMMON. Where one tenant in common sells the right to a stranger to cut timber off of the common property, another tenant in common of the same property cannot maintain replevin for the timber after it has been cut. Alford v. Bradlen, 1 Nev. 223.
15. TROVER FOR WOOD CUT—Title to Land, When Immaterial—Place and Time of Conversion—Liability of Bailee. Ward v. C. R. W. Co., 13 Nev. 45.
16. TROVER—ALLEGATION OF VALUE MATERIAL. If not denied it need not be proven. Hixon v. Pixley, 15 Nev. 475.
- TIME OF CONVERSION IMMATERIAL—NOTICE AND DEMAND—INSTRUCTION. Id.
17. TROVER FOR MINING STOCK AGAINST ASSIGNEES FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS. Boylan v. Huguet, 8 Nev. 345.
18. TROVER—Form of Verdict—Surplusage, etc. Swan v. Smith, 13 Nev. 257.

Affidavit of Claim, What to Contain.

J. C.

3195. SEC. 100. Where a delivery is claimed, an affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, or by some one in his behalf, showing: First—That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed (particularly describing it), or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof. Second—That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant. Third—The alleged cause of the detention thereof according to his best knowledge, information, and belief. Fourth—That the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine, pursuant to a statute, or seized under an execution or an attachment against the property of the plaintiff, or, if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from such seizure; and, Fifth—The actual value of the property.

Delivery, How Made.

J. C.

3196. SEC. 101. The plaintiff or his attorney may thereupon, by indorsement in writing upon the affidavit, require the Sheriff of the county where the property claimed may be, to take the same from the defendant.

Undertaking Necessary for Delivery.

J. C.

3197. SEC. 102. Upon a receipt of the affidavit and notice, with a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the Sheriff, to the effect that they are bound to the defendant in double the value of the property, in gold coin of the United States, as stated in the affidavit for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendants, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may from any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, in gold coin of the United States, the Sheriff shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, notice, and undertaking, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or to his agent, from whose possession the property is taken; or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the nearest postoffice, directed to the defendant.

Sureties Excepted To.

3198. SEC. 103. The defendant may, within two days after the service of a copy of the affidavit and the undertaking, give notice to the Sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objection to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify on notice in like manner as upon bail on arrest; and the Sheriff shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived, as above provided, or until they justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property, as provided in the next section.

Defendant May Require Return—Undertaking.

J. C.

3199. SEC. 104. At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the Sheriff a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, in gold coin of the United States, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for payment to him of such sum, in gold coin of the United States, as may for any cause be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within five days after the taking and serving of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section one hundred and nine.

Section 104 and Sections 107 to 110, both inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 527 of this Act.

Justification of Sureties.

3200. SEC. 105. The defendant's sureties, upon notice to the plaintiff of not less than two or more than five days, shall justify before the Judge or the Clerk in the same manner as upon bail on arrest; and upon such justification, the Sheriff shall deliver the property to the defendant. The Sheriff shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until the justification is completed or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time. If they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time and place appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

Qualifications of Sureties.

3201. SEC. 106. The qualifications of sureties and their justification shall be such as are prescribed by this Act in respect to bail upon an order of arrest.

Property Concealed.

J. C.

3202. SEC. 107. If the property, or any part thereof, be concealed in a building or inclosure, the Sheriff shall publicly demand its delivery. If it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or inclosure to be broken open, and take the property into his possession, and, if necessary, he may call to his aid the power of his county.

Sheriff to Keep Property.

J. C.

3203. SEC. 108. When the Sheriff shall have taken property, as in this chapter provided, he shall keep it in a secure place, and deliver it to the party entitled thereto upon receiving his lawful fees for taking and necessary expenses for keeping the same.

Claimed by Other Person, Effect Of.

J. C.

3204. SEC. 109. If the property taken be claimed by any other person than enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as such party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decide that the plaintiff was not entitled thereto.

ACTION AGAINST SURETIES—Injunction Bond—Sufficiency of Complaint. Rosendorf v. Mandel, 18 Nev. 129.

DEMAND, WHEN NOT NECESSARY. Id.

DAMAGES—Recoverable from Sureties on Injunction Bond. Id.

Order for Hearing Before Granting Injunction.

3211. SEC. 116. If the court or Judge deem it proper that the defendant, or any of several defendants, should be heard, before granting the injunction, an order shall be made fixing a time and place for hearing the application for the injunction, a copy of which order shall be served upon the person or persons designated therein, and the defendant may in the meantime be restrained. Upon the hearing, the parties may use affidavits, other written evidence, and oral testimony.

Injunction to Suspend Business—Notice.

3212. SEC. 117. An injunction or restraining order to suspend the general and ordinary business of a corporation shall not be granted without due notice of the application therefor, to be served in the manner prescribed for service of the summons in the action.

Application to Dissolve or Modify Injunction, How Made.

3213. SEC. 118. If an injunction be granted without notice, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon reasonable notice, to the Judge who granted the injunction, or to the court in which the action is pending, or a Judge thereof, to dissolve or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and the affidavit or affidavits on which the injunction was granted, if any were used, or upon affidavits or other testimony on the part of the defendant, with or without the answer. If the application be made upon affidavit, or other evidence, on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence in addition to the affidavits on which the injunction was granted, and the defendant may then, in proper cases, introduce rebutting affidavits or other evidence; provided, that for the purpose of allowing the plaintiff to introduce further evidence, the answer or verification thereto attached shall be deemed an affidavit.

Supreme Court May Prescribe Rules.

3214. SEC. 119. The supreme court may prescribe by rule the time when and the cases in which the service of affidavits to be used upon applications for injunctions, and motions to dissolve injunctions, shall be made; and may also provide by rule for the giving of notice before such hearing of the kind of testimony to be used, and make all needful rules on the subject of injunctions not in conflict with this or other Acts.

Injunction Refused or Dissolved—Bond Given, When—Receiver.

3215. SEC. 120. If, upon the hearing of an application for an injunction, or for the dissolution of an injunction, it does not satisfactorily appear that there is a sufficient cause for an injunction, or if it appear that the extent of the injunction is too great, it shall be refused, dissolved, or modified, as the case may be, and upon all such applications, in actions respecting mines, or in actions respecting or involving the question of the irrigation of lands, the court or Judge hearing the same may, instead of granting or continuing the injunction, make an order requiring the party against whom the application is made, to give a bond in an amount fixed by such court or Judge, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by such court or Judge, conditional for the payment to the plaintiff of all damages which he may sustain by reason of the use or occupation of the mine or other acts complained of by the party giving the bond, his or its agents, servants, employees, grantees or other persons by his or its consent, pending the litigation. If the plaintiff finally recover, or that upon failure to give such bond within the time prescribed in the order, the injunction shall be granted or continued, as the case may be, or the court or Judge may appoint a receiver to take charge of the mine, or the proceeds thereof, pending litigation. As amended, Stats. 1887, 91.

1. DISTRICT COURT HAS THE POWER TO APPOINT A RECEIVER, on an ex parte application, when a proper showing is made, as in this case. Maynard v. Bailey, 2 Nev. 313.

COURT WILL APPOINT RECEIVER, when one partner excludes his copartner from a participation in the affairs of the partnership. So, too, when both partners have assigned their respective interests, and the assignees cannot agree. Id.

When suit is brought and summons issued, the court has power to appoint a receiver before the summons is served on defendants. But the appointment of a receiver ought not to be made without notice, except in cases of emergency. Id.

2. INJUNCTION, WHEN TO BE DISSOLVED—DENIAL OF EQUITIES. An injunction granted upon a complaint, the allegations of which have been fully and fairly denied by the answer, should on motion and in the absence of further showing be dissolved, unless in exceptional cases when good reason appears for continuing it. Magnet v. P. & P. S. M. Co., 9 Nev. 346.

MOTION TO DISSOLVE INJUNCTION ON COMPLAINT AND ANSWER. On a motion to dissolve an injunction, heard upon complaint and answer alone, the full and fair denials of the answer are taken as true. Id.

3. WHERE NO EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN COMPLAINT, INJUNCTION MUST BE DISSOLVED. Where the main allegations of a complaint for injunction, made upon information and belief, were fully and positively denied by the answer; and on motion to dissolve an injunction granted thereon without notice, the evidence entirely failed to sustain any of the material allegations of the complaint: Held, that a denial of such motion was too erroneous to admit of discussion. Perley v. Forman, 7 Nev. 309.

Bond Instead of Dissolution.

3216. SEC. 121. It shall be good cause, in the discretion of the court or Judge, for the dissolution of an injunction that the plaintiff is doing, or causing, or permitting to be done, some act pending the litigation which, if continued, will be injurious to the defendant if he finally recover, or to the property in dispute. But the court or Judge hearing a motion to dissolve an injunction may, instead of granting such motion, direct by order that the plaintiff give to the parties restrained a bond conditioned, as provided in section one hundred and twenty, or upon his failure to do so within the time prescribed in such order, that the injunction shall be dissolved.

Gold Coin.

3217. SEC. 122. All undertakings and bonds provided for in this chapter shall be made payable in gold coin of the United States.

CHAPTER 4—ATTACHMENT.

Attachment of Property of Defendant, for What Allowed.

J. C.

3218. SEC. 123. The plaintiff, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterwards, may have the property of the defendant attached as security for the satisfaction of any judgment that may be recovered.

First—In an action upon a judgment or upon a contract, made 1907 expressed or implied, for the direct payment of money, P. 105 which is not secured by mortgage, lien or pledge upon real or personal property situated or being in this State, and if so secured when such security has been rendered nugatory by the act of the defendant.

Third—In an action by a resident of this state for the recovery of the value of property, where such property has been converted by a defendant without the consent of the owner.

Fourth—Where a defendant has absconded, or is about to abscond, with the intent to defraud his creditors.

Fifth—Where a defendant conceals himself so that service of summons cannot be made upon him.

Sixth—Where a defendant is about to remove his property, or any part thereof, beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with the intent to defraud his creditors.

Seventh—Where a defendant is about to convert his property, or any part thereof, into money, with the intent to place it beyond the reach of his creditors.

Eighth—Where a defendant has assigned, removed, disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property, or any part thereof, with the intent to defraud his creditors.

Ninth—Where a defendant has fraudulently or criminally contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit has been commenced. As amended, Stats. 1887, 55.

Sections 123 to 144, inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 527 of this Act.

1. ATTACHMENT FOR FRAUD—Sufficiency of—When May Issue. Bowers v. Beck, 2 Nev. 139.
 2. IDEM—LIABILITY CRIMINALLY INCURRED—RAPE—STATUTE 1887, 55, CONSTRUED. Under the provisions of the amended act allowing an attachment where the liability was criminally incurred, an attachment will lie where the cause of action arose out of a rape on plaintiff's daughter. Kuehn v. Paroni, 20 Nev. 203.
 3. ATTACHMENT UPON ACCOUNT FOR GREATER AMOUNT THAN IS ACTUALLY DUE—When Not Constructive Fraud—Subsequent Attaching Creditors. Mendes v. Freiters, 16 Nev. 388.
- AMENDMENT—Effect Upon Attachment—Intervenors. Id.

Clerk to Issue Writ of Attachment.

J. C.

3219. SEC. 124. The Clerk of the Court shall issue the writ of attachment upon receiving and filing an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff showing the nature of the plaintiff's claim, that same is just, the amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff is entitled to recover, and the existence of any one of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in the preceding section. As amended, Stats. 1887, 55.

1. AFFIDAVIT. Great strictness in the form of affidavit should not be required. The defendant is protected by bond. Bowers v. Beck, 2 Nev. 139.
2. AFFIDAVIT MADE ON ONE DATE AND FILED SEVERAL DAYS LATER. Held, sufficient to justify issuance of writ. O'Neil v. N. Y. & S. P. Co., 3 Nev. 141.
3. AFFIDAVIT DEFECTIVE—Cannot Be Shown in Collateral Proceeding. Moresi v. Swift, 15 Nev. 215.

LIEN OF ATTACHMENT—When Superior to Lien of Chattel Mortgage. Id.

4. AFFIDAVIT INSUFFICIENT—PLEA IN ABATEMENT. Insufficiency of affidavit cannot be taken advantage of after plea in abatement. Such plea is a waiver of all defects in affidavit. Williams v. Glasgow, 1 Nev. 533.
 5. ATTACHMENT—RIGHT OF PROPERTY. Wood cut by contractor not attachable as his property. Hilger v. Edwards, 5 Nev. 84.
 6. SUNDAY—ATTACHMENT. An attachment suit can be commenced and the writ served on Sunday whenever the plaintiff, or some person in his behalf, makes the affidavit required by Section 50 of the Act concerning courts of justice. Levy v. Elliot, 14 Nev. 435.
- Clerical Mistake Disregarded. Id.
7. BILL OF SALE SUBSEQUENT TO ATTACHMENT—NOT ADMISSIBLE IN EVIDENCE. Question is, whether property was subject to attachment. Tognini v. Kyle, 17 Nev. 209.

Undertaking Required Before Writ Issues.

J. C.

3220. SEC. 125. Before issuing the writ the Clerk shall require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, in a sum not less than two hundred dollars, not exceeding the amount claimed by the plaintiff, in gold coin of the United States, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment the plaintiff will pay, in gold coin of the United States, all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

1. ATTACHMENT—INDEMNITY BOND—Sufficiency of Complaint in Action on Bond. Gaudette v. Roeder, 13 Nev. 344.
2. VALIDITY OF UNDERTAKING cannot be raised collaterally. Moresi v. Swift, 15 Nev. 215.

Requirement of Writ.

J. C.

3221. SEC. 126. The writ shall be directed to the Sheriff of any county in which property of such defendant may be, and require him to attach and safely keep all the property of such defendant within his county not exempt from execution, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, the amount of which shall be stated in conformity with the complaint, unless the defendant give him security by the undertaking, of at least two sufficient sureties, in an amount sufficient to satisfy such demand, besides costs, in the money or currency of the contract, in which case to take such undertaking. Several writs may be issued at the same time to the Sheriffs of different counties.

1. WRIT MUST BE SERVED BY SHERIFF OF COUNTY WHERE PROPERTY IS SITUATED. Sadler v. Tatti & Co., 17 Nev. 429.

2. RELEASE OF ATTACHED PROPERTY—Sufficient Consideration for Undertaking—Title of Court Omitted. Lightle v. Berning, 15 Nev. 389.

UNDERTAKING—Not Special Promise to Answer for the Debt, Default or Miscarriage of Another. Id.

3. UNDERTAKING TO PREVENT LEVY—When Sureties Not Liable. Laveaga v. Wise, 13 Nev. 296.

What May Be Attached.

J. C.

3222. SEC. 127. The rights or shares which the defendant may have in the stock of any corporation or company, together with the interest and profits therein, and all debts due such defendant, and all other property in this state of such defendant not exempt from execution, may be attached, and if judgment be recovered, be sold to satisfy the judgment and execution.

Writ of Attachment, How Executed.

J. C.

3223. SEC. 128. The Sheriff to whom the writ is directed and delivered shall execute the same without delay, and if the undertaking mentioned in section one hundred and twenty-six be not given, as follows: First—Real property shall be attached by leaving a copy of the writ with the occupant thereof; or, if there be no occupant, by posting a copy in a conspicuous place thereon, and filing a copy, together with a description of the property attached, with the Recorder of the county. Second—Personal property capable of manual delivery shall be attached by taking it into custody. Third—Stock or shares, or interest in stock or shares, of any corporation or company, shall be attached by leaving with the President, or other head of the same, or the Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ. Fourth—Debts and credits, and other personal property, not capable of manual delivery, shall be attached by leaving with the person owing such debts, or having in his possession, or under his control, such credits or other personal property, a copy of the writ, and a notice that the debts owing by him to the defendant, or the credits and other personal property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the defendant, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

SEIZURE BY SHERIFF OF GOODS ATTACHED BY A CONSTABLE. Where a Sheriff seized and sold on execution out of a district court goods which were held by a Constable on attachment out of a justice's court: Held, that the Sheriff though he was responsible to the Conthat have been made to the plaintiff, or to any one for his use, on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover. The word answer used in this section shall be construed to include any pleading that raises an issue of law or fact, whether the same be by general or special appearance.

CHAP. CLXXXIX.—An Act making any banker, or any officer, agent, or clerk of any bank, receiving deposits, knowing that said bank is insolvent, guilty of embezzlement, and providing for the punishment thereof.

Liability of Other Persons for Property.

J. C.

3225. SEC. 130. All persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or owing any debts to the defendant at the time of service upon them of a copy of the writ and notice as provided in the last two sections, shall be, unless such property is delivered up or transferred, or such debts be paid to the Sheriff, liable to the plaintiff for the amount of such credits, property, or debts, until the attachment be discharged or any judgment recovered by him be satisfied.

Examination of Person Respecting Credits, etc.

J. C.

1. PROCEEDING UNDER SECTION 131—Order of Court Not Reviewable on Certiorari. Birchfield v. Harris, 9 Nev. 382.

2. ATTACHMENT SUIT—ORDER UPON DEFENDANT TO DELIVER UP STOCK. Where a defendant in an attachment suit was examined under Section 131 of the Practice Act; and on its appearing that his only property subject to attachment consisted of mining stock which he had upon his person, the District Judge ordered it to be delivered to the Sheriff, to be held subject to the result of the suit: Held, that such order was not in excess of the jurisdiction of the District Judge. Bivins v. Harris, 8 Nev. 153.

CONSTRUCTION OF PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 131—EXTENT OF "EXAMINATION." The examination of the defendant, provided for in Section 131 of the Practice Act, contemplates the examination of the defendant not only as a witness in a proceeding against a garnishee but in a direct proceeding against himself; and it authorizes a discovery of property concealed upon his own person and an application of it to his just debts. Id.

Return of Sheriff.

J. C.

3227. SEC. 132. The Sheriff shall make a full inventory of the property attached, and return the same with the writ. To enable him to make such returns as to debts and credits attached, he shall request at the time of service the party owing the debt, or having the credit, to give him a memorandum stating the amount and description of each; and if such memorandum be refused, he shall return the fact of refusal with the writ. The party refusing to give the memorandum may be required to pay the costs of any proceeding taken for the purpose of obtaining information respecting the amount and description of such debt or credit.

Perishable Property to Be Sold—Debts to Be Collected.

J. C.

3228. SEC. 133. If any of the property attached be perishable, the Sheriff shall sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. The proceeds and other property attached by him shall be retained by him to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action, unless sooner subject to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment. Debts and credits attached may be collected by him, if the same can be done without suit. The Sheriff's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount paid.

PERISHABLE PROPERTY, WHAT. The term "perishable property" (Practice Act, Sec. 133) applies only to property which is necessarily subject to immediate decay. Newman v. Kane, 9 Nev. 234.

Property Claimed by Third Party.

J. C.

3229. SEC. 134. If any personal property attached be claimed by a third person as his property, the Sheriff may summon a jury of six men to try the validity of such claim; and such proceedings shall be had thereon, with the like effect, as in case of a claim after levy upon execution.

Judgment, How Satisfied—Notice of Sale.

J. C.

3230. SEC. 135. If judgment be recovered by the plaintiff, the Sheriff shall satisfy the same out of the property attached by him which has not been delivered to the defendant or a claimant, as hereinafter provided, or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment, if it be sufficient for that purpose: First, by paying to the plaintiff the proceeds of all sales of perishable property sold by him or of any debts or credits collected by him, or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgment; second, if any balance remain due, and an execution shall have been issued on the judgment, he shall sell under the execution so much of the property, real or personal, as may be necessary to satisfy the balance, if enough for that purpose remain in his hands. Notice of the sales shall be given, and the sales conducted as in other cases of sales on execution.

Balance After Satisfaction, Disposition Of.

J. C.

3231. SEC. 136. If, after selling all the property attached by him remaining in his hands, and applying the proceeds, together with the proceeds of any debts or credits collected by him, deducting the fees, to the payment of the judgment, any balance shall remain due, the Sheriff shall proceed to collect such balance as upon an execution in other cases. Whenever the judgment shall have been paid, the Sheriff, upon reasonable demand, shall deliver over to the defendant the attached property remaining in his hands, and any proceeds of the property attached unapplied on the judgment.

Execution Returned Unsatisfied.

J. C.

3232. SEC. 137. If the execution be returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the plaintiff may prosecute any undertaking given pursuant to section one hundred and twenty-six, or section one hundred and forty, or he may proceed as in other cases upon the return of an execution.

Judgment Against Plaintiff—Undertaking to Be Delivered to Defendant.

J. C.

3233. SEC. 138. If the defendant recover judgment against the plaintiff, any undertaking received in the action, all the proceeds of sales and money collected by the Sheriff, and all the property attached remaining in the Sheriff's hands, shall be delivered to the defendant or his agent; the order of attachment shall be discharged and the property released therefrom.

1. DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENT. Order of court refusing to vacate and dismiss attachment is a nullity. Ranft v. Young, 21 Nev. 401.

PENDING OF NEW TRIAL. The fact that there was a new trial pending did not tend to keep the attachment in force. Id.

IDEM—REMEDY OF DEFENDANT. In such case defendant's remedy was a proceeding against the Sheriff, on his refusal to deliver the property, to recover it or its value. Id.

2. DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENT—PROCEEDINGS IN BANKRUPTCY. The adjudication of bankruptcy dissolves an attachment and vests the title to the property in the assignee. The Sheriff is not thereafter entitled to recover any costs for keeping the property. Baker v. McLeod, 14 Nev. 148.

3. SHERIFF MUST PRESERVE ATTACHED PROPERTY. When a Sheriff attaches personal property he is not allowed, under the statute, to consider the element of expense in its preservation or keeping, but is bound to have it ready to be disposed of according to the judgment, unless compelled to sell on account of its being perishable; and it is no excuse for a failure to have it so ready that the best interests of the parties were subserved by a sale. Newman v. Kane, 9 Nev. 234.

Application for Discharge of Attachment.

J. C.

3234. SEC. 139. Whenever the defendant shall have appeared in the action, he may apply, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court in which the action is pending, or to the Judge thereof, for an order to discharge the attachment, wholly or in part, upon the execution and filing of the undertaking mentioned in the next section. Such order may be granted directing the release from the operation of the attachment, upon the filing of such undertaking and the justification of the sureties thereon, if required by the plaintiff, of all or any part of the property, money, debts, or credits attached, as the case may be. All the proceeds of sales and moneys collected by the Sheriff, and all the property attached remaining in his hands, so released, shall be delivered or paid to the defendant upon the filing of such undertaking and making such justification, if required by the plaintiff.

DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENT—AFFIDAVIT ON MERITS. Where an attachment is issued under a statute, allowing the writ where the liability was criminally incurred, an affidavit denying the averments of plaintiff's complaint constituting the cause of action will not support a motion to dissolve, as that would necessitate a decision on the merits. Kuehn v. Paroni, 20 Nev. 203.

Undertaking of Defendant on Granting Discharge.

J. C.

3235. SEC. 140. On granting such order, the court or the Judge shall require an undertaking on behalf of the defendant, with at least two sureties, residents and freeholders, or householders, in the county, which shall be filed to the effect, in case the value of the property or the amount of money, debts, or credits sought to be released shall equal or exceed the amount claimed by the plaintiff in the complaint, that the defendant will pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment which may be recovered in favor of the plaintiff in the action, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least double the amount so claimed by the plaintiff, and in the money or currency of the contract; or to the effect, in case the value of the property or the amount of money, debts, or credits sought to be released shall be less than the amount so claimed by the plaintiff, that the defendant will pay the amount of such judgment, to the extent of the value of the property, or amount of money, debts, or credits sought to be released, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least double the amount of such property, money, debts, or credits, and in the money or currency of the contract. The value of the property sought to be released, if disputed, shall be determined, in the money or currency of the contract, by the court or Judge thereof, upon proof or by a sworn appraiser or sworn appraisers, not exceeding three, to be appointed by the court or Judge for that purpose. Before filing the undertaking, the defendant shall serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff, and if the plaintiff require a justification by the sureties, he shall give notice thereof to the defendant within two days; or at the time of giving notice of motion for an order to discharge the attachment, the defendant may in his notice name the sureties, and if the plaintiff require them to justify he shall give notice thereof at the hearing of the motion. If required, the sureties shall justify before the court in which the suit is pending, or the Judge thereof, after reasonable notice.

1. BOND MAY BE ENFORCED STRICTLY. There is nothing in the policy of the law to forbid a bond given to release property from attachment, being enforced according to the very letter of its condition. Bowers v. Beck, 2 Nev. 139.

FULL DISCUSSION. Id.

2. BOND—Liability of Surety—Stipulations, etc. Seawell v. Cohn, 2 Nev. 308.

Motion for Discharge.

J. C.

3236. SEC. 141. The defendant may also, any time before the time of answering expires, apply upon motion, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court in which the action is brought, or to the Judge thereof, for the discharge of the attachment, on the ground that the writ was improperly issued.

Motion, How Opposed.

J. C.

3237. SEC. 142. If the motion be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence, in addition to those on which the writ of attachment was issued.

Writ Discharged, When.

J. O.

3238. SEC. 143. If upon such application it shall satisfactorily appear that the writ of attachment was improperly issued, it shall be discharged.

Return of Writ by Sheriff.

J. O.

3239. SEC. 144. The Sheriff shall return the writ of attachment with the summons, if issued at the same time; otherwise within twenty days after its receipt, with a certificate of his proceeding indorsed thereon or attached thereto.

CHAPTER 5—DEPOSIT IN COURT.

Court May Order Delivery of Property.

3240. SEC. 145. When it is admitted, by the pleading or examination of a party, that he has in his possession, or under his control, any money or other thing capable of delivery, which, being the subject of litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same, upon motion, to be deposited in court, or delivered to such party, upon such conditions as may be just, subject to the further direction of the court.

Appointment of Receiver, When May Be Made.

3241. SEC. 146. A receiver may be appointed by the court in which the action is pending, or by a Judge thereof: First—Before judgment, provisionally, on the application of either party, when he establishes a prima facie right to the property, or an interest in the property which is the subject of the action, and which is in the possession of an adverse party, and the property or its rents and profits are in danger of being lost or materially injured or impaired. Second—After judgment to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal; and, Third—In such other cases as are in accordance with the practice of courts of equity jurisdiction.

TITLE VI.

Of the Trial and Judgment in Civil Actions.

CHAPTER 1—JUDGMENT IN GENERAL.

Judgment, When May Be Entered.

3242. SEC. 147. A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in the action or proceeding, and may be entered in term or vacation.

1. JURISDICTION OF COURTS TO RENDER JUDGMENT. The jurisdiction of a court to render judgment in a cause is coextensive with its authority to inquire into the facts. Feusier v. Lammon, 6 Nev. 209.

2. FORM OF JUDGMENT. The sufficiency of the writing, claimed to be a judgment, should always be tested by its substance rather than its form. Humboldt M. & M. Co. v. Terry, 11 Nev. 237; Terry v. Berry, 13 Nev. 514.

3. JUDGMENT FINAL AND COMPLETE. The decision of the court is the judgment; the entry by the Clerk is the evidence of it merely. Cal. State Tel. Co. v. Patterson, 1 Nev. 150.

A judgment may be final, although it is not recorded in a judgment book or entered in a judgment docket. Id.

4. JUDGMENT—WHEN FINAL. A judgment is final that disposes of the issues presented in the case, determines the costs, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court. Perkins v. S. N. S. M. Co., 10 Nev. 405.

MUST BE DETERMINED BY THE RECORD. The question whether a judgment is final must be determined with reference to the facts presented by the record. Id.

WHEN NOT AFFECTED BY FUTURE ORDERS. A judgment is none the less final because some future orders of the court may become necessary to carry it into effect. Id.

5. FINAL JUDGMENT. There cannot be two final judgments in the same action. Low v. C. P. M. Co., 2 Nev. 75.

6. JUDGMENT RENDERED OUT OF TERM VOID. A judgment rendered at a time and place other than those appointed by law, is no judgment; it is not merely erroneous; it is void. Dalton v. Libby, 9 Nev. 192.

How Set Aside. Id.

7. JUDGMENT ENTERED IN VACATION ON DEMURRER IS IRREGULAR AND VOID. Champion v. Sessions, 1 Nev. 478.

8. JUDGMENT VOID FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION. A judgment by a Justice of the Peace against a non-resident, where the affidavit or order of publication is insufficient and there is no personal service nor any appearance, is absolutely void. Little v. Currie, 5 Nev. 90.

9. JUDGMENT IN EQUITY CASE—SPECIAL ISSUES. A judgment based on a general verdict in such an action is erroneous. Hulley v. Chedic, 22 Nev. 127.

10. POWER OF COURT OVER ITS JUDGMENT. When a judgment has once been rendered, the court has no right to set it aside, except in case of error in some respect, or injustice in the result. Scott v. Haines, 4 Nev. 426.

WRONG REASON DOES NOT VITIATE CORRECT JUDGMENT. A wrong reason for a judgment which is in itself correct, will not vitiate or affect it. Id.

11. CLERICAL ERROR MAY BE AMENDED when the error is shown by the record, and there is no necessity to resort to other evidence than is afforded by the record to correct the error. Sparrow & Trench v. Strong, 2 Nev. 362.

There is great conflict of authority as to whether an inferior court can amend its record whilst the case is pending, on writ of error, in a superior court: Held, that the pendency on the writ of error is not an impediment to the amending of the record so as to correct clerical errors. Id.

12. JUDGMENT, WHEN UNDER CONTROL OF COURT. During the term in which the judgment is rendered the court has complete control of it, and on proper showing may set it aside. Ballard v. Eucell, 1 Nev. 342.

13. JURISDICTION OVER JUDGMENT AFTER EXPIRATION OF TERM. To continue full and complete jurisdiction in the court over the case beyond the term, some order must be made or proceeding taken in accordance with statute. State v. First National Bank, 4 Nev. 358; State v. Fourth District Court, 16 Nev. 371; Daniels v. Daniels, 12 Nev. 118.

14. AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENT AFTER ADJOURNMENT OF TERM. The court has no power to amend a judgment after the adjournment of the term unless there is something in the record to amend by. Solomon v. Fuller, 14 Nev. 63.

15. JUDGMENT NOT A BAR WHEN NOT ON MERITS, nor can it be used as evidence in another action to establish the facts constituting the merits of the action in which it was rendered. Van Vliet v. Olin, 1 Nev. 495.

PROCEEDINGS NOT CONCLUSIVE without a judgment on the merits. Id.

16. JUDGMENT CONCLUSIVE. A judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, between the same parties, and upon the same issues, is as a plea, a bar, or as evidence, conclusive not only of the rights which it establishes, but of the facts which it directly decides. McLeod v. Lee, 17 Nev. 103; Brown v. Ashley, 16 Nev. 311; Sherman v. Dilley, 3 Nev. 21.

17. JUDGMENT—FINALITY OF. Where a party has treated a judgment as final by appealing from it to the supreme court, which appeal has been entertained and decided upon its merits, he cannot afterwards claim that no final judgment has been entered in the case. State v. Com. Lander Co., 22 Nev. 71.

COUNTY—JUDGMENT AGAINST, SAME AS AUDITED CLAIM AGAINST. The rendition of a judgment against a county is an auditing of the claim within the meaning of the statute, and it becomes the duty of the Commissioners to allow it as an audited claim, unless some sufficient defense exists to the judgment. It makes no difference in this rule whether in the action in which the judgment was obtained the county was plaintiff or defendant. Id.

18. GUARDIANSHIP MATTERS—JUDGMENT OF COURTS IN—HOW ONLY TO BE RESISTED. The judgment of the district court on matters concerning persons or estates of minors cannot be successfully resisted until overruled or modified by some proceeding impeaching it. Deegan v. Deegan, 22 Nev. 185.

19. RIGHTS CLAIMED UNDER JUDGMENT. When any rights are claimed by virtue of a judgment of a court of special and limited jurisdiction, all the facts necessary to confer jurisdiction must be affirmatively shown. Mallett v. Uncle Sam Mining Co., 1 Nev. 188.

20. JUDGMENT MUST CORRESPOND WITH PLEADINGS. A judgment must accord with and be warranted by the pleadings of the party in whose favor it is rendered. Frevort v. Henry, 14 Nev. 191.

21. JUDGMENT MUST CONFORM TO THE ISSUE. A judgment must conform with, and be sustained by, the pleadings of the party in whose favor it is rendered. No court, jury or referee has any authority to find a fact or draw therefrom a legal conclusion which is outside the issue. Marshal v. G. F. G. & S. M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.

22. PRESUMPTION IN FAVOR OF JUDGMENT. An appellate court will presume that the judgment of the lower court was sustained by the evidence in the absence of a showing to the contrary. Carpenter v. Johnson, 1 Nev. 332; Nesbitt v. Chisholm, 16 Nev. 39.
23. JUDGMENT—PRESUMPTION OF FINDINGS. In an action to reform a deed for mutual mistake, the existence of which is denied by defendant, it was the duty of the lower court to determine which contention was correct; and, by giving judgment in favor of plaintiff, the presumption is that the issue was implicitly found in his favor. Wilson v. Wilson, 23 Nev. 267.
24. MISTAKE IN JUDGMENT should be corrected by motion in lower court. Howard v. Richards, 2 Nev. 128.
25. ERROR IN CALCULATION—Modification of Judgment. Feusier v. Va. City, 3 Nev. 58.
26. AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENT OF SUPREME COURT. A judgment rendered at a previous term of the supreme court can only be amended upon something appearing in the original record. Peacock v. Leonard, 8 Nev. 247.
27. ACTION ON JUDGMENT, ETC. Rogers v. Hatch, 8 Nev. 35.
- SHERMAN V. DILLEY, 3 NEV. 21, CRITICIZED. The opinion expressed in Sherman v. Dilley, 3 Nev. 21, that a judgment cannot be pleaded in bar or operate by way of estoppel while the case is pending on appeal, is rather dictum than decision. *Id.

Judgment, How Given.

3243. SEC. 148. Judgment may be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs and for or against one or more of several defendants; and it may, when the justice of the case requires it, determine the ultimate rights of the parties on each side, as between themselves.

Judgment, Joint or Several.

3244. SEC. 149. In an action against several defendants, the court may, in its discretion, render judgment against one or more of them, leaving the action to proceed against the others whenever a several judgment is proper.

JUDGMENT, ENTRY OF. Where a defendant is severally liable a separate judgment against him may be entered upon his default, leaving the action to proceed against his codefendants. Evans v. Cook, 11 Nev. 69.

Extent of Relief Not to Exceed Complaint.

3245. SEC. 150. The relief granted to the plaintiff, if there be no answer, shall not exceed that which he shall have demanded in his complaint; but in any other case the court may grant him any relief consistent with the case made by the complaint and embraced within the issue.

Dismissal of Action or Nonsuit, in What Cases Granted.

3246. SEC. 151. An action may be dismissed, or a judgment of nonsuit entered in the following cases: First—By the plaintiff himself at any time before trial, upon the payment of costs, if a counterclaim has not been made. If a provisional remedy has been allowed, the undertaking shall thereupon be delivered by the Clerk to the defendant, who may have his action thereon. Second—By either party upon the written consent of the other. Third—By the court when the plaintiff fails to appear on the trial, and the defendant appears and asks for the dismissal. Fourth—By the court when upon trial and before the final submission of the case the plaintiff abandons it. Fifth—By the court, upon motion of the defendant, when upon the trial the plaintiff fails to prove a sufficient case for the jury. The dismissal mentioned in the first two subdivisions shall be made by an entry in the Clerk's register. Judgment may thereupon be entered accordingly. In every other case the judgment shall be rendered on the merits.

1. SPECIFICATION OF GROUNDS OF NONSUIT. The grounds urged for a nonsuit are required to be as specifically designated as any other exceptions or objections taken in the course of a trial. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.
2. NONSUIT—WHEN GRANTED. A nonsuit can only be granted upon the grounds stated in the statute and in the manner therein provided. Burns v. Rodefer, 15 Nev. 59.

3. DISMISSAL OF ACTION BY PLAINTIFF NOT TO AFFECT INTERVENORS. When O'Connell & Splain commenced a suit to foreclose a mechanics' lien against Ivers & Cook; and Elliott, and Patty & Doane intervened as lien claimants, and after appearance put in by defendants to the interventions, O'Connell & Splain filed a dismissal of the suit: Held, that the dismissal could not affect the rights of the intervenors, and that they had a right to adjudication as between themselves and defendants. Elliott v. Ives, 6 Nev. 287.

CHAPTER 2—JUDGMENT UPON FAILURE TO ANSWER.

Judgment on Failure to Answer, How to Be Entered.

3247. SEC. 152. Judgment may be had, if the defendant fail to answer the complaint, as follows: First—In an action arising upon contract for the recovery of money or damages only, if no answer has been filed with the Clerk of the Court within the time specified in the summons, or such further time as may have been granted, the Clerk, upon the application of the plaintiff, shall enter the default of the defendant, and immediately thereafter enter judgment for the amount specified in the summons, including the costs, against the defendant, or against one or more of several defendants, in the cases provided for in section thirty-two. Second—In other actions, if no answer has been filed with the Clerk of the Court within the time specified in the summons, or such further time as may have been granted, the Clerk shall enter the default of the defendant; and thereafter the plaintiff may apply, at the first, or any subsequent term of the court, for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, be necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account, or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose. And where the action is for the recovery of damages, in whole or in part, the court may order the damages to be assessed by a jury; or if, to determine the amount of damages, the examination of a long account be necessary, by a reference, as above provided. Third—In actions where the service of the summons was by publication, the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time designated in the order of publication, may, upon proof of the publication, and that no order has been filed, apply for judgment; and the court shall thereupon require proof to be made of the demand mentioned in the complaint, and if the defendant be not a resident of the state, shall require the plaintiff, or his agent, to be examined on oath respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to any one for his use, on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover.

1. "DEFAULT" NOT NECESSARY TO SUPPORT JUDGMENT AFTER DEMURRER OVERRULED. Where a demurrer to a complaint has been overruled an entry of default is not a prerequisite to the rendition of judgment. Winter v. Winter, 8 Nev. 129.
2. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT Confined to Prayer of Complaint. Burling v. Goodman, 1 Nev. 314.
3. JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL, where no summons has been served, should be without prejudice. Cedar Hill M. Co. v. J. Little M. Co., 15 Nev. 302.
4. WHERE DEFENDANT FAILS TO APPEAR in action for recovery of unliquidated damages, it is not necessary to call a jury to assess damages. Court may either hear proof itself or order a reference for that purpose. One of these modes must, however, be pursued. It is erroneous to render judgment by default without proof in such cases. Ballard v. Purcell, 1 Nev. 342.
5. DEFAULT IMPROPERLY TAKEN. The defendant ought, if an opportunity is presented during the term at which it was taken, to apply to the court below for relief. Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.
6. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT—AUTHORITY OF CLERK TO ENTER. Withdrawal of demurrer without obtaining leave to answer leaves case in position to have default entered at any time. Ewing v. Jennings, 15 Nev. 379.
7. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT—Inexcusable Negligence. Harper v. Mallory, 4 Nev. 448.
8. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT—Excusable Negligence. State v. Con. V. M. Co., 13 Nev. 194.

CHAPTER 3—OF ISSUES AND THE MANNER OF THEIR DISPOSITION.

When an Issue Arises.

3248. SEC. 153. An issue arises when a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by the one party, and controverted by the other. Issues are of two kind: First, of law; and, second, of fact.

Issue of Law.

3249. SEC. 154. An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to the complaint, or an answer as to some part thereof.

Issue of Fact.

3250. SEC. 155. An issue of fact arises: First, upon a material allegation in the complaint, controverted by the answer; and, second, upon new matter in the answer, except an issue of law is joined therein.

Issue of Law, How Tried.

3251. SEC. 156. An issue of law shall be tried by the court unless it be referred, upon consent, as provided in chapter six of this title.

Issue of Fact, How Tried.

3252. SEC. 157. An issue of fact shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury trial is waived, or a reference be ordered, as provided in this Act. Where there are issues, both of law and fact, to the same complaint, the issue of law shall be first disposed of.

DISMISSAL WITHOUT JURY TRIAL. A party cannot complain on appeal, that without a waiver on his part a jury trial was not allowed him, when the record does not show that he demanded a jury. Haley v. Eureka Co. Bank, 21 Nev. 127.

Order of Entry of Cases.

3253. SEC. 158. The Clerk shall enter cases upon the calendar of the court according to the date of the issue, unless otherwise provided by rule of court.

Issue, How Brought to Trial.

3254. SEC. 159. Either party may bring the issue to trial, or to a hearing, and in the absence of the adverse party, unless the court for good cause otherwise direct, may proceed with his case and take a dismissal of the action, or a verdict, or judgment, as the case may require.

Postponement of Trial—Affidavit Necessary—Court May Impose Conditions.

3255. SEC. 160. A motion to postpone a trial, on the ground of the absence of evidence, shall only be made upon affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it. The court may also require the moving party to state upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party thereupon admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be postponed. The party obtaining the postponement of a trial shall also, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party who is in attendance be then taken by deposition before a Judge or Clerk of the Court in which the case is pending, or before such Notary Public as the court may indicate, which shall accordingly be done, and the testimony so taken may be read on the trial, with the same effect, and subject to the same objections, as if the witnesses were produced. In actions involving the title to mining claims and quartz ledges, if it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that in order that justice may be done, and the action fairly tried on its real merits, it is necessary that further developments should be made, and that the party applying has been guilty of no laches and is acting in good faith, the court shall grant the postponement of the trial of the action, giving the party a reasonable time in which to prepare for trial. And in granting such postponement, the court may, in its discretion, annex as a condition thereto an order that the party obtaining such postponement shall not, pending the trial of the action, remove from the premises in controversy any valuable quartz rock, earth or ores, and for any violation of an order so made, the court or the Judge thereof may punish for contempt, as in the cases of violation of an order of injunction, and may also vacate the order of postponement.

1. CONTINUANCE—DISCRETION OF COURT. A motion for a continuance is always addressed to the sound discretion of the court, and should not be interfered with except where there has been a manifest abuse of that discretion. Choate v. Bullion M. Co., 1 Nev. 73.
2. CONTINUANCE—JOINT DEBTOR DEFENDANT DECLARED A BANKRUPT. Held, on motion for continuance as to other partner, trial could not proceed against him until a disposition of bankrupt proceedings of his copartner. Tinkum v. O'Neale, 5 Nev. 93.
3. CONTINUANCE—Power of Court to Impose Conditions Other Than the Payment of Costs. Brown v. Warren, 17 Nev. 417.
4. CONTINUANCE—WHEN PROPERLY REFUSED. When an application is made for a continuance on the ground of the absence of a witness, it is certainly in the discretion, if it is not the absolute duty, of the court, under our statute, to deny the application when the party opposing the motion will admit that the witness, if present, would swear to the facts as set out by the party applying for the continuance. O'Neil v. N. Y. & S. P. M. Co., 3 Nev. 141.
5. CONTINUANCE—WHEN NOT PROPERLY REFUSED. When a party makes out a good prima facie case for a continuance on account of the absence of a material witness, the court is not justified in refusing the continuance because it may imagine the possible existence of facts which, if shown, would have been sufficient in avoidance of the case made by the party moving. Beatty v. Sylvester, 3 Nev. 228.
6. CONTINUANCE—ERROR CURED. Where witness afterwards appears and testifies, the error, if any was committed, is cured. Allen v. Reilly, 15 Nev. 452.
7. PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 160—DEVELOPMENT OF MINES—EVIDENCE. There is nothing in Section 160 of the Practice Act (which authorizes a delay of proceedings in mining cases for the purpose of allowing developments to be made) to show that it was intended to make actual developments the only or even the best evidence admissible. Silver M. Co. v. Fall, 6 Nev. 117.

CHAPTER 4—TRIAL BY JURY.

ARTICLE I.

Formation of the Jury.

For Acts concerning juries, see Secs. 3867-3880.

Drawing of Jury—Struck Jury, When May Be Demanded—How Obtained—Venire, How Served.

3256. SEC. 161. When the action is called for trial by jury, the Clerk shall prepare separate ballots containing the names of the jurors summoned who have appeared and not been excused, and deposit them in a box. He shall then draw from the box twelve names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall constitute the jury. If the ballots become exhausted before the jury is complete, or if for any cause a juror or jurors be excused or discharged, a sufficient number of additional jurors shall be drawn from the jury box and summoned as provided by law. The jury shall consist of twelve persons, unless the parties consent to a less number. The parties may consent to any number not less than four. Such consent shall be entered by the Clerk in the minutes of the trial. If either party to the action shall, prior to its being set for trial, file and serve upon the opposite party an affidavit showing that property or money of more than the value of ten thousand dollars is involved in the controversy, together with a notice that he will demand a struck jury for the trial of the same, the court shall at the time of setting the cause for trial, if it be satisfied that said amount or more is really involved, and if the party demanding such struck jury shall deposit a sufficient amount to pay the expenses of obtaining the same, make an order that the cause be tried by a special struck jury, which shall be obtained in the following manner: The Judge shall proceed forthwith to draw from the jury box a list of one hundred names of jurors therein contained, which list shall be opened to the inspection of either party at all proper times after being drawn. At a time to be appointed by the court, not less than twenty-four hours after the completion of such list, the parties shall be required, in open court, to strike from such list one name alternately, the plaintiff striking first, till there shall be but fifty names remaining. Such fifty remaining jurors shall thereupon be summoned, as provided by law, to appear in court on the day fixed for the trial. They shall not be bound to attend unless when summoned they are paid or tendered their fees for one day's attendance and mileage from their place of residence, if they demand it. When the venire is issued for said jurors, either party shall have the right, upon payment of his fees, to demand of the Clerk a duplicate of the venire, and he, or any citizen of the state in his behalf, may serve the same, which service shall have the same effect as if made by the Sheriff of the county. If on the day they are directed to attend, less than thirty jurors are in attendance, or if any of the jurors in attendance are for good cause or by consent of the parties excused by the court, so as to reduce the number below thirty, the court shall thereupon, if either party demand it, draw from the jury box an additional list of names, not less than double the number so deficient, who shall be summoned as herein provided to attend forthwith or on any day to which the trial may be adjourned; and this process shall be continued till there are at least thirty jurors for the parties to choose from; provided, that if any juror disobey the summons to attend, the court shall, if either party demand it, compel his attendance by attachment before summoning additional jurors, unless the court be satisfied that such attendance cannot be enforced within a reasonable time. When the attendance of not less than thirty jurors is secured, unless the parties consent to choose from a smaller number, said jurors may be sworn and examined by the parties on their voir dire, and after such examination, the plaintiff first, and then the defendant, shall strike from the list one juror alternately till the number is reduced to twelve, or such less number as the parties may consent to, who shall be sworn to try the case; provided, that if there be an uneven number of jurors to be stricken off, the court shall strike off the last one; and if at any stage of the proceedings a party unreasonably delays to strike off a juror in his turn, the court shall strike for such party so delaying to strike. As amended, Stats. 1875, 64.

RIGHT TO JURY IN EQUITY CASE. In a purely equity case; the calling of a jury is a matter of discretion with the Judge and not a matter of right in the parties. Van Vliet v. Olin, 4 Nev. 95.

Oath Administered to Jury.

3257. SEC. 162. As soon as the jury is completed, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to the jurors, in substance that they, each of them, will well and truly try the matter in issue between-----, the plaintiff, and-----, the defendant, and a true verdict render according to the evidence. After the oath or affirmation has been administered and the jury has been fully impaneled, it shall be the duty of the court to order the jury into the custody of the Sheriff, or other officer selected by the court, and the jurors shall not be allowed to separate or depart from the custody of the Sheriff or other officer until they have been duly discharged, unless by the consent of the parties to the action. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff, at the charge of the parties to the action, to prepare suitable and comfortable apartments, and prepare food for the jury pending the trial.

Challenge to Jurors—Four Peremptory Challenges.

3258. SEC. 163. Either party may challenge the jurors; but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made, unless the court otherwise order or direct. The challenges shall be to individual jurors, and shall either be peremptory or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to four peremptory challenges.

Challenge for Cause—For What Taken.

J. C.

3259. SEC. 164. Challenges for cause may be taken on one or more of the following grounds: First—A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by statute to render a person competent as a juror. Second—Consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either party. Third—Standing in the relation of debtor or creditor, guardian and ward, master and servant, employer and clerk, or principal and agent, to either party; or being a member of the family of either party; or a partner, or united in business with either party; or being security on any bond or obligation for either party. Fourth—Having served as a juror or been a witness on a previous trial between the same parties for the same cause of action; or being then a witness therein. Fifth—Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action; except the interest of the juror as a member or citizen of a municipal corporation. Sixth—Having formed or expressed an unqualified opinion or belief as to the merits of the action, or the main question involved therein; provided, that the reading of newspaper accounts of the subject matter before the court shall not disqualify a juror either for bias or opinion. Seventh—The existence of a state of mind in the juror evincing enmity against or bias to either party.

Section 164 made applicable to justices' courts by Section 548 of this Act.

1. GROUND OF CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE TO BE SPECIFIED. The grounds of challenge to jurors for cause are pointed out by statute, and a party desiring to have such challenge tried must specify the ground or grounds upon which he bases it. Estes v. Richardson, 6 Nev. 128.

JUROR—CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE. Where a juror on examination as to his qualifications said that he had heard something of the matter, and had an impression which it would require testimony to remove, that he had no bias and his impression was very vague, and that he had never talked with any one who pretended to know the facts: Held, that a challenge for cause was properly overruled. Id.

2. CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE—Injury to Party by Refusal Discussed. Fleeson v. Savage S. M. Co., 3 Nev. 157.

3. CHALLENGE OF JUROR—DUTY OF PARTY CHALLENGING. Where information before the court is insufficient to determine cause of challenge, party challenging should at least offer to prove the grounds. Weill v. Lucerne M. Co., 11 Nev. 200.

Challenge for Cause, How Tried.

3260. SEC. 165. Challenges for cause shall be tried by the court. The juror challenged, and any other person, may be examined as a witness on the trial of the challenge.

ARTICLE II.

Conduct of the Trial.

Juror Becoming Sick, Effect Of.

3261. SEC. 166. If, after the impaneling of the jury, and before verdict, a juror become sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case, the trial may proceed with the other jurors, or a new jury may be sworn, and the trial begin anew; or the jury may be discharged, and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled.

Charge to Jury.

3262. SEC. 167. In charging the jury the court shall state to them all matters of law which it thinks necessary for their information in giving their verdict, and if it state the testimony of the case, it shall also inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact. The court shall furnish to either party, at the time, upon request, a statement in writing of the points of law contained in the charge, or shall sign, at the time, a statement of such points prepared and submitted by the counsel of either party. As amended, Stats. 1889, 18.

1. PROVINCE OF INSTRUCTIONS. To inform the jury what the law is connected with the case in hand and show them how to apply it to the particular facts involved. State v. Lavigne, 17 Nev. 435.
2. CHARGE, WHEN PROPERLY REFUSED. It is proper for a court to refuse instructions containing correct principles of law, if there is no evidence before the jury making them applicable to the case on trial. Sherman v. Dilley, 3 Nev. 22.

3. INSTRUCTIONS AT PARTY'S OWN REQUEST—Estoppel. Gillson v. Price, 18 Nev. 109; Meyer v. V. & T. R. Co., 16 Nev. 341.
 4. When a court is laying down a general rule of law, it is not improper to notice exceptions to the general rule or such circumstances as will prevent its operation. Van Valkenburg v. Huff, 1 Nev. 142.
 5. FACTS PROVED AND NOT CONTROVERTED NEED NOT GO TO THE JURY. It is no error for a court in its charge to take from the consideration of the jury a fact proven by one party and not controverted by the other. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.
 6. INSTRUCTION INAPPLICABLE TO ISSUE. A judgment will not be reversed on account of an erroneous instruction, when it appears that it was not applicable to the issues and could not have injured. Brown v. Lillie, 6 Nev. 244.
 7. WHOLE CHARGE TO JURY TO BE CONSIDERED AS ENTIRETY. Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265; Allison v. Hagan, 12 Nev. 38; Solen v. V. & T. R. Co., 13 Nev. 106.
 8. CHARGE TO JURY—Error—In Case of Money Account, Bill of Particulars. Huguet v. Owen, 1 Nev. 464.
 9. CHARGE TO JURY—Error—Proper Measure of Damages. Harvey v. Sides S. M. Co., 1 Nev. 539.
 10. CHARGE OF THE JUDGE UPON THE FACTS. An instruction of the court, assuming as a fact that A was a creditor of B, where this was a fact in issue in the case, was clearly erroneous. Gaudette v. Travis, 11 Nev. 149; Tognini v. Kyle, 17 Nev. 209.
 11. ERROR IN CHARGE. Action for water right and mill site, error to charge that plaintiff must prove right to premises and damages. Dillon v. Sherman, 2 Nev. 67.
 12. INSTRUCTIONS. The rule that a judgment must be reversed where instructions on a material point are contradictory, is not an absolute and unqualified rule. Rule explained. Lobdell v. Hall, 3 Nev. 507.
- INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN OR REFUSED by the lower court will not be inquired into on appeal, unless the record shows that the giving or refusal to give them was excepted to at the time. Id.
13. INSTRUCTIONS—Evident Meaning Versus Literal Language—Theory Regarding Ledge—Instruction that it Must Be Conclusively Established, Error. Silver M. Co. v. Fall, 6 Nev. 116.
 14. CHARGE REFUSED—ERROR. When a plaintiff claims water on the ground of prior appropriation, it is error in the court to refuse an instruction to this effect: "The plaintiff is not entitled to any greater quantity of the water of Desert creek than he actually appropriated prior to defendant's appropriation." Lobdell v. Simpson, 2 Nev. 274.
 15. "CHARACTER" OF INJURED PERSON NOT INVOLVED IN SUIT FOR NEGLIGENCE. An instruction submitting it to the jury for such purpose is error. Johnson v. Wells, Fargo & Co., 6 Nev. 224.
- PRESUMPTION THAT JURIES FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS. The presumption in all cases of jury trials is that the jury apply the law as given by the court, and upon such law and the evidence render their verdict; and no appellate court can decide the effect of the one separate from the other. Id.
16. ACTION FOR COUNSEL FEES, TRAVELING EXPENSES, ETC.—Charge to Jury. Hardy v. Ophir Co., 4 Nev. 304.
 17. MODIFICATION OF PROPER INSTRUCTIONS—Error—Action on Insurance Policy. Gerhauser v. North British Co., 6 Nev. 15.
 18. INSTRUCTION REMOVING QUESTION OF FACT FROM JURY PROPERLY REFUSED. Reiterations in instructions may be stricken out. Gerhauser v. N. B. Ins. Co., 7 Nev. 176.
 19. SUBMITTING REJECTED PORTIONS ONLY PARTLY OBLITERATED. No error, unless objected to and rewriting refused. Allison v. Hagan, 12 Nev. 38.
 20. EQUITY CASE BEFORE JURY. If an equity case is treated as an ordinary action at law, and submitted to a jury as such, and the court considers itself bound and controlled by the verdict as in an action at law, each party has the same right with respect to instructions as if it were a case at law. Van Vliet v. Olin, 4 Nev. 95.
- REFUSAL OF INSTRUCTIONS. Held, error in such case. Id.
21. WHEN PROPERLY DENIED. Instructions as to the law under a certain state of facts are properly denied when the uncontroverted evidence shows such facts do not exist. Shields v. Ditch Co., 23 Nev. 349.
 22. INSTRUCTIONS—WHERE NO INJURY OCCURS. Court will not consider whether correct or not. Smith v. Lee, 10 Nev. 208.
 23. WHEN NOT PREJUDICIAL. When upon the appellant's own showing of facts, the judgment if rendered in his favor, would have to be reversed. Bishop v. Stewart, 13 Nev. 25; Gaudette v. Travis, 11 Nev. 149.

24. STATING TO A JURY A FACT NOT CONTROVERTED—Not Error. Menzies v. Kennedy, 9 Nev. 152.
25. INSTRUCTIONS CALCULATED TO MISLEAD JURY should be refused. Thompson v. Powning, 15 Nev. 195.
26. INSTRUCTION NOT RELEVANT, NOT TO BE GIVEN. The court is not required to instruct the jury upon any question not raised by the pleadings, nor authorized by the evidence, nor at issue in the case. Schaber v. Gilmer, 13 Nev. 330; Longabaugh v. V. & T. R. Co., 9 Nev. 271; Fulton v. Day, 8 Nev. 80; Schissler v. Chesshire, 7 Nev. 427; Tognini v. Hansen, 18 Nev. 61; Meyer v. V. & T. R. Co., 16 Nev. 341.
27. UNINTELLIGIBLE INSTRUCTION PROPERLY REFUSED. Colquhoun v. W. F. & Co., 21 Nev. 459.
28. DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PRACTICE AS TO REFUSING INSTRUCTIONS. Gerhauser v. N. B. Ins. Co., 7 Nev. 174.

May Decide in Court or Retire—Duty of Officer—May Appoint Persons to Remain With Officer.

3263. SEC. 168. After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in court or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they shall be kept together in a room provided for them, or some other convenient place under charge of one or more officers, until they agree upon their verdict or are discharged by the court. The officer shall, to the utmost of his ability, keep the jury separate from other persons. He shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, unless by order of the court or Judge, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict; and he shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict agreed upon. Each party to the action may appoint one or more persons, one of whom on each side shall be entitled to remain with the officer or officers in charge of the jury, and to be present at all times when any communication is had with the jury, or any individual member thereof, and no communication, either oral or written, shall be made to or received from the jurors, or any of them, except in the presence of and hearing of such persons so selected by the parties; and in case of a written communication, it shall not be delivered till read by them. As amended, Stats, 1875, 66.

1. SEPARATION OF A JUROR—When Not Prejudicial. Carnaghan v. Ward, 8 Nev. 30.
- DIFFERENCE BETWEEN "TREATING" A JUROR AND PERFORMING A MERE ACT OF HUMANITY.
There is a marked distinction between the performance of a mere act of humanity or duty for a juror, such as sending at his request for liniment to relieve his pain, and the voluntary offer of civilities, such as the treating with spirituous liquors, passed on in Sacramento and Meredith M. Co. v. Showers, 6 Nev. 291, which neither duty, charity, nor the conventionalities of society require. Id.
2. "TREATING" JURY—Verdict and Judgment Set Aside. Sacto. M. Co. v. Showers, 6 Nev. 291.
- TAMPERING WITH JURY—Rule. Id.
- See Schissler v. Chesshire, 7 Nev. 427.
3. DRINKING SPIRITUOUS LIQUOR BY JUROR. When not furnished by prevailing party will not vitiate verdict. Richardson v. Jones, 1 Nev. 405.
4. WHEN LIQUOR USED TO INTOXICATING EXTENT. Verdict will be set aside. Davis v. Cook, 9 Nev. 134.
5. SEPARATION OF JURY WITHOUT OBJECTION. In absence of showing of harm verdict not disturbed. Menzies v. Kennedy, 9 Nev. 152.

What Papers Jury May Take.

3264. SEC. 169. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them all papers (except depositions) which have been received as evidence in the cause, or copies of such papers as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession; and they may also take with them notes of the testimony, or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves or any of them, but none taken by any other person.

Return for Instructions.

3265. SEC. 170. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed of any point of law arising in the cause, they may require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required shall be given in the presence of or after notice to the parties or counsel.

When Discharged Without Verdict.

3266. SEC. 171. In all cases where a jury are discharged, or prevented from giving a verdict by reason of accident or other cause during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the action may be again tried, immediately or at a future time, as the court shall direct.

Adjournment of Court.

3267. SEC. 172. While the jury are absent, the court may adjourn from time to time in respect to other business, but it shall, nevertheless, be deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. The court may direct the jury to bring in a sealed verdict at the opening of the court, in case of an agreement during a recess or adjournment for the day. A final adjournment of the court for the term shall discharge the jury.

Verdict to Be Declared.

3268. SEC. 173. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge; their names shall then be called, and they shall be asked by the court, or the Clerk, whether they have agreed upon their verdict; and if the foreman answer in the affirmative, they shall, on being required, declare the same.

Informality in Verdict May Be Corrected.

3269. SEC. 174. If the verdict be informal or insufficient in not covering the whole issue or issues submitted, the verdict may be corrected by the jury, under the advice of the court, or the jury may again be sent out.

Clerk to Record Verdict—Jury to Assent To.

3270. SEC. 175. When the verdict is given, and is not informal or insufficient, the Clerk shall immediately record it in full in the minutes, and shall read it to the jury, and inquire of them whether it be their verdict. If more than one-fourth of the jurors disagree, the jury shall be again sent out; but if no disagreement be expressed, the verdict shall be complete, and the jury shall be discharged from the case.

ARTICLE III.

The Verdict.

Verdict, General or Special.

3271. SEC. 176. The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant; a special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. The special verdict shall present the conclusions of fact, as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and those conclusions of fact shall be so presented as that nothing shall remain to the court but to draw from them conclusions of law.

1. SPECIAL VERDICT must expressly present all the material facts, so that nothing shall remain for the court but to draw from them the conclusions of law. Knickerbocker v. Hall, 3 Nev. 149.
2. NO LEGAL JUDGMENT ON VERDICT IRRESPONSIVE TO PLEADINGS. If a verdict is absolutely defective under the pleadings, no legal judgment can be entered thereon. Brown v. Lillie, 6 Nev. 177.

Court May Direct Jury to Find Special Verdict.

3272. SEC. 177. In an action for the recovery of money only, or specific real property, the jury, in their discretion, may render a general or special verdict. In all other cases the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing upon all or any of the issues; and, in all cases, may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact, to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. The special verdict of finding shall be filed with the Clerk and entered upon the minutes. Where a special finding of facts shall be inconsistent with the general verdict, the former shall control the latter, and the court shall give judgment accordingly.

Jury to Find Amount of Recovery.

3273. SEC. 178. When a verdict is found for the plaintiff, in an action for the recovery of money, or for the defendant, when a counterclaim for the recovery of money is established, exceeding the amount of the plaintiff's claim as established, the jury shall also find the amount of the recovery.

FORM OF VERDICT. Irregular, but capable of being understood, except as to interest: Held, court had right to allow interest on amount found at rate expressed in note. Allen v. Reilly, 15 Nev. 452.

Verdict in Action to Recover Specific Property.

3274. SEC. 179. In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff, or the defendant, by his answer, claim a return thereof, the jury, if their verdict be in favor of the plaintiff, or if being in favor of the defendant, they also find that he is entitled to a return thereof, shall find the value of the property, and may, at the same time, assess the damages, in gold coin, if any are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the taking or detention of such property.

JURY SHOULD FIND AMOUNT. Value of property at time of conversion not always true measure of damage. Knickerbocker v. Hall, 3 Nev. 194.

Clerk to Make Entry in Minutes.

3275. SEC. 180. Upon receiving a verdict, an entry shall be made by the Clerk in the minutes of the court, specifying the time of trial, the names of the jurors and witnesses, and the verdict; and where a special verdict is found, either the judgment rendered thereon, or if the case be reserved for argument or further consideration, the order thus reserving it.

CHAPTER 5—TRIAL BY COURT.

Jury Trial May Be Waived, How.

3276. SEC. 181. Trial by jury may be waived by the several parties to an issue of fact in actions arising on contract, and, with the assent of the court, in other actions, in the manner following: First—By failing to appear at the trial. Second—By written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the Clerk. Third—By oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.

Time for Rendering Decision of Court.

3277. SEC. 182. Upon the trial of every issue of fact by the court, when sitting without a jury, its decision shall be rendered in writing by the court or Judge who tried the cause, and filed with the Clerk within ten days after the trial took place. In rendering such decision, the court or Judge shall briefly state, in his opinion, the facts found and the conclusions of law reached, and within one week thereafter the attorney for the prevailing party shall draw complete findings of facts and conclusions of law, and present them to the Judge: provided, that such Judge shall, at the time be within said county, and in case of the absence from the county of the Judge, then the complete findings shall be presented for signature within thirty days after such trial. Judgment shall be entered in accordance with said complete findings and conclusions. As amended. Stats. 1893, 116.

1. PRACTICE ACT, SECTIONS 182 AND 340—"WRITTEN DECISION" AND "WRITTEN OPINION." The "written decision" referred to in Section 182 of the Practice Act, is something which must precede the judgment, and upon which it is entered, and is different from the "written opinion" referred to in Section 340. Corbett v. Job, 5 Nev. 201.

2. TRIAL BY COURT—FINDINGS EQUIVALENT TO VERDICT. Where a cause is tried by a court without a jury, the same weight and consideration is given to its findings as to a verdict; and the same rules apply as to reversing them on appeal on the ground of being contrary to evidence, as to a verdict of the jury. State v. Yellow Jacket M. Co., 5 Nev. 415.
3. EXCEPTION MUST BE TAKEN. When a finding of facts is defective, it must be excepted to in the court below, or this court will not reverse the case for such defect. Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 288.
4. FINDINGS, WHAT NEED NOT CONTAIN. It is not necessary for a court to find a fact which is admitted in the pleadings. Virgin v. Brubaker, 4 Nev. 31.
5. FINDING UNSUPPORTED BY EVIDENCE—Judgment Not Sustained. Lockhart v. Mackie, 2 Nev. 294.

Referee—Chancery Cases.

3278. SEC. 183. On a judgment upon an issue of law, if the taking of an account be necessary to enable the court to complete the judgment, a reference may be ordered. Chancery cases may be tried by the court, with or without the finding of a jury, upon issues formed by the court.

For appeal, see Secs. 3857-3858.

CHANCERY AND LAW. When there are two distinct defenses, it is not the proper practice to impanel one jury to try the equitable defense, and another the legal defense. It is, however, proper to keep the two defenses separate. The Judge himself may first hear and determine the equitable side of the case; or, if in doubt, he may submit special issues to the jury who are to try the law side of the case. Low v. Crown Point, 2 Nev. 75.

CHAPTER 6—OF REFERENCES AND TRIAL BY REFEREE.

Order of Reference.

3279. SEC. 184. A reference may be ordered upon the agreement of the parties, filed with the Clerk, or entered in the minutes: First—To try any or all of the issues in an action or proceeding whether of fact or of law, and to report a judgment thereon. Second—To ascertain a fact necessary to enable the court to proceed and determine the case.

TRIAL BY REFEREE—Irregular Practice—Discussion. Fitzpatrick v. Fitzpatrick, 6 Nev. 65.

Court May Order Reference in Certain Cases.

3280. SEC. 185. When the parties do not consent, the court may upon the application of either, or of its own motion, direct a referee in the following cases: First—When the trial of an issue of facts requires the examination of a long account on either side; in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or report upon any specific question of fact involved therein. Second—When the taking of an account is necessary for the information of the court before judgment, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect. Third—When a question of fact, other than upon the pleadings, arises upon motion or otherwise in any stage of the action; or, Fourth—When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding.

Referee, Who May Be.

3281. SEC. 186. A reference may be ordered to any person or persons, not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree, the court or Judge shall appoint one or more referees, not exceeding three, who reside in the county in which the action or proceeding is triable, and against whom there is no legal objection.

Grounds for Objection to Person as Referee.

3282. SEC. 187. Either party may object to the appointment of any person as referee on one or more of the following grounds: First—A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by statute to render a person competent as a juror. Second—Consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to either party. Third—Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, master and servant, employer and clerk, or principal and agent to either party, or being a member of the family of either party, or a partner in business with either party, or being security on any bond or obligation for either party. Fourth—Having served as a juror or been a witness on any trial between the same parties for the same cause of action, or being then a witness in the cause. Fifth—Interest on the part of such person in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action. Sixth—Having formed or expressed an unqualified opinion or belief as to the merits of the action. Seventh—The existence of a state of mind in such person evincing enmity against or bias to either party.

Objections, How Disposed Of.

3283. SEC. 188. The objections taken to the appointment of any person or referee shall be heard and disposed of by the court. Affidavits may be read and any person examined as a witness as to such objections.

Report of Referees to Stand as Decision of Court.

VALIDITY OF JUDGMENT—Dictum. Maher v. Swift, 14 Nev. 332.

1. COURT MAY REVOKE ORDER OF CONTINUANCE AND APPOINT A REFEREE. Young v. Clute, 12 Nev. 31.

POWER OF REFEREE same as court would have to continue the hearing from time to time. Id.

2. REMOVAL OF REFEREE. If referee fails to make report in time ordered, he may be removed upon application of either party, but if not removed, his authority to hear the case does not expire. Rhodes v. Williams, 12 Nev. 20.

CHAPTER 7—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRIALS.

ARTICLE I.

Exceptions.

Exceptions Defined—Must Be Material.

3285. SEC. 190. An exception is an objection taken at the trial to a decision upon a matter of law, whether such trial be by jury, court, or referees, and whether the decision be made during the formation of a jury, or in the admission of evidence, or in the charge to a jury, or at any other time from the calling of the action for trial to the rendering of the verdict or decision. But no exception shall be regarded on a motion for a new trial, or on an appeal, unless the exception be material, and affect the substantial rights of the parties.

Bill of exception on appeal, Sec. 3860.

1. OBJECTIONS TO EVIDENCE TO BE MADE PROMPTLY. If apparent when offered, it should be made then; if the evidence, apparently admissible when offered, is shown by subsequent developments to be exceptionable, the objection should then be made in the form of a motion to strike out. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.
2. OBJECTIONS TO EVIDENCE—WHERE AND HOW MADE. The supreme court on appeal will consider objections to the admission of evidence only upon the grounds specified in the lower court. Gooch v. Sullivan, 13 Nev. 78; Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377, cited.
3. APPELLATE COURT WILL NOT CONSIDER OBJECTIONS where record fails to show exceptions to instructions to have been taken as required. McGurn v. McInnis, 24 Nev.
4. EVIDENCE ADMITTED WITHOUT OBJECTION. If evidence, secondary or hearsay in its character, be admitted without objection, no advantage can be taken of that fact afterward, and the jury may and should accept it as if it were admissible under the strictest rules of evidence. Sherwood v. Sissa, 5 Nev. 349; Watt v. Nev. Cen. R. Co., 23 Nev. 154.

See Jeffree v. Walsh, 14 Nev. 143; Leport v. Sweeney, 11 Nev. 387.

5. PAROL EVIDENCE AS TO WRITTEN AGREEMENT—Admitted Without Objection. Competent. Vietti v. Nesbitt, 22 Nev. 390.

6. IRREGULARITIES OF PRACTICE NOT OBJECTED TO. Though the proceedings of a district court are plainly irregular in point of practice, yet if no objection be made on that ground, such irregularity will not be considered in the supreme court. Fitzpatrick v. Fitzpatrick, 6 Nev. 63.
7. FAILURE TO OBJECT TO WANT OF PROOF—Waiver of Proof. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377.
- OBJECTIONS TO ADMISSION OF EVIDENCE—Too Late After Evidence Admitted. Id.
8. ERROR IN EXCLUDING TESTIMONY cured at its admission at a subsequent stage of the trial. Menzies v. Kennedy, 9 Nev. 152; Richardson v. Hoole, 13 Nev. 492; Smith v. N. A. M. Co., 1 Nev. 423; Patchen v. Kelly, 19 Nev. 404; Winter v. Fulston, 20 Nev. 260; Mandlebaum v. Liebes, 17 Nev. 131.
9. TEST OF RELEVANCY OF EVIDENCE. To ascertain whether evidence be relevant or not, it is only necessary to determine whether it has a tendency to establish a legitimate case or defense relied on. State v. Rhoades, 6 Nev. 352; Wright v. Cradlebaugh, 3 Nev. 341.
10. OFFER OF PROOF—Must Show What Proof Is Offered. Morris v. McCoy, 7 Nev. 399.
11. EVIDENCE PROPERLY ADMITTED IF PERTINENT FOR ANY PURPOSE. Fulton v. Day, 8 Nev. 80; Richardson v. Hoole, 13 Nev. 492; Gardner v. Gardner, 23 Nev. 207.

Exception Must Be Particularly Stated; Must Be Noted.

3286. SEC. 191. The point of the exception shall be particularly stated, and may be delivered in writing to the Judge, or, if the party require it, shall be written down by the Clerk. When delivered in writing or written down by the Clerk, it shall be made conformable to the truth, or be at the time corrected until it is so made conformable. When not delivered in writing or written down as above, it may be entered in the Judge's minutes and afterwards settled in a statement of the case, as provided in this Act; provided, that if the Judge shall in any case refuse to allow an exception in accordance with the facts, any party aggrieved thereby may petition the supreme court for leave to prove the same, and shall have the right so to do, in such mode and manner and according to such regulations as the supreme court may by rules impose, and such exceptions as are allowed by said supreme court shall become a part of the record of the cause.

1. PARTICULAR GROUND OF EXCEPTION TO BE STATED (Practice Act, Sec. 191), that the court may decide intelligently upon it, and the opposite party be afforded an opportunity of obviating the objection, if it be in his power to do so. Sharon v. Minnock, 6 Nev. 377; Lightle v. Berning, 15 Nev. 389; McGurn v. McInnis, 24 Nev.; McNamee v. Neshitt, 24 Nev.
2. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS—WHEN MUST BE SETTLED AND SIGNED. Under the statute (Sec. 190, et seq.) a bill of exceptions, in order to be available on motion for a new trial, or on appeal from the judgment, in a civil case, must be reduced to writing and settled by the Judge at or before the conclusion of the trial. Burns v. Rodefer, 15 Nev. 69.

No Form Required for Exception.

3287. SEC. 192. No particular form of exception shall be required; the objection shall be stated with so much of the evidence, or other matter, as is necessary to explain it, but no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

When Exception Is Implied.

3288. SEC. 193. When a cause has been tried by the court, or by referees, and the decision or report is not made immediately after the closing of the testimony, the decision or report shall be deemed excepted to on motion for a new trial or on appeal, without any special notice that an exception is taken thereto.

ARTICLE II.

New Trials.

New Trial, What Is.

3289. SEC. 194. A new trial is a re-examination of an issue of fact in the same court after a trial and decision by a jury, court, or referees.

For What Cause Granted.

3290. SEC. 195. The former verdict or other decision may be vacated and a new trial granted on the application of the party aggrieved for any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of such party: First—Irregularity in the proceeding of the court, jury, or adverse party, or any order of the court or abuse of discretion by which either party was prevented from having a fair trial. Second—Misconduct of the jury. Third—Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against. Fourth—Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial. Fifth—Excessive damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice. Sixth—Insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict or other decision, or that it is against law. Seventh—Error in law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the party making the application.

1. NEW TRIALS NOT MATTERS OF DISCRETION. The granting or refusing a new trial is not a matter of mere discretion. Sacto. & M. M. Co. v. Showers, 6 Nev. 291.
- "TREATING THE JURY" CAUSE OF REVERSAL. Id.
2. LIQUOR USED BY JUROR, during the progress of a trial, or after the case has been submitted, unless furnished by the party in whose favor the verdict is given, or unless it is shown that intoxicating effects were produced, is no ground for setting aside the verdict or awarding a new trial. Richardson v. Jones & Denton, 1 Nev. 405.
- Every irregularity on the part of a jury does not authorize the verdict to be set aside, unless the party complaining shows, by reasonable presumption at least, that he has been injured thereby. Id.
3. SURPLUS MATTER IN VERDICT no cause for new trial unless it appears from that surplus matter that the jury based their verdict on absurd reasoning or false premises. Gregory v. Frothingham, 1 Nev. 253.
4. SURPRISE. When a party applies for a new trial on the ground of surprise, he must show that he has evidence which, if introduced on a second trial, will probably change the result; or at least has evidence tending to rebut the point made by the other side which he complains of as a matter of surprise. McClusky v. Gerhauser, 2 Nev. 47.
5. ACCIDENT AND SURPRISE—Affidavit When Insufficient—Probative Facts. Brown v. Warren, 17 Nev. 417.
6. MISTAKE AS TO MATERIAL FACTS. A new trial may be granted for a mistake as to a material fact if the defeated party had no knowledge thereof until after the case was closed and ready for submission to the jury. Sultan v. Sherwood, 18 Nev. 454.
7. NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE. If bears upon main question and would be likely to change result, new trial should be granted. Gray v. Harrison, 1 Nev. 502.
8. NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE—Materiality Of. Wall v. Trainor, 16 Nev. 131.
9. NEW TRIAL—NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE—DILIGENCE. An affidavit for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence which states that the attorney "diligently searched for testimony to establish the defense" is insufficient. It is too general. The acts performed should be particularly stated so as to enable the court to determine whether the conclusions stated are supported by the facts. Pinschower v. Hanks, 18 Nev. 99.
10. NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE. To justify a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence, three things must be shown: first, materiality of evidence; second, it could not by due diligence have been produced at the first trial; third, that it is not cumulative. Howard v. Winters, 3 Nev. 539.
- To justify the granting of a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence, the party applying for the relief should show clearly that the failure to produce evidence on the first trial was not the result of negligence on his part. Id.
11. NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE—Diligence. Manning v. Gignoux, 23 Nev. 322.
12. EXCESSIVE DAMAGES. Barnes v. W. U. Tel. Co., 24 Nev.; Roberts v. Webster, 25 Nev. (on rehearing.)
13. NO CONSIDERATION OF INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE ON APPEAL WHERE NO MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL. This rule settled beyond discussion. Conley v. Chedic, 7 Nev. 336; James v. Goodenough, 7 Nev. 324; Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 288; Cooper v. Pac. Mutual Ins. Co., 7 Nev. 116; Burbank v. Rivers, 20 Nev. 81.
14. INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE—AGAINST LAW. Application must be made upon statements prepared as statute requires. Simpson v. Ogg, 18 Nev. 28.
15. NEW TRIAL STATEMENT FOR INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE SHOULD SHOW ALL THE EVIDENCE. The statement will not be considered unless it affirmatively shows that it contains all the material evidence produced at the trial. Sherman v. Shaw, 9 Nev. 148.

See Sec. 3864; also, Appeals.

16. GRANTING OR REFUSING NEW TRIAL—SOUND DISCRETION OF TRIAL JUDGE NOT DISTURBED BY APPELLATE COURT. The granting or the refusal of a motion for a new trial on the ground that the evidence does not support the findings rests in the sound discretion of the trial Judge, and such order will not be disturbed by appellate courts when based upon conflicting evidence, and made in the exercise of a sound discretion. Edwards v. Carson W. Co., 21 Nev. 469.
17. CONFLICT OF EVIDENCE. If a new trial is granted upon the ground that the evidence is insufficient to sustain the verdict, the action of the court will be sustained by the appellate court, if there is a substantial conflict in the evidence. McLeod v. Lee, 14 Nev. 398; Margaroli v. Milligan, 11 Nev. 96; Worthing v. Cutts, 8 Nev. 118; Smith v. Mayberry, 13 Nev. 427; Phillipotts v. Blasdel, 8 Nev. 61; Treadway v. Wilder, 9 Nev. 67; Palmer v. Culverwell, 24 Nev.; State v. V. & T. R. Co., 24 Nev.; Roberts v. Webster, 25 Nev.
18. STATEMENT ON NEW TRIAL—SPECIFICATION OF INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE. On motion for new trial on the ground of insufficiency of the evidence, it is indispensable in the statement to designate the particulars in which the insufficiency consists. Caldwell v. Greely, 5 Nev. 258; Elder v. Shaw, 12 Nev. 78.
- N. B.* This rule has been changed. See Sec. 3864; Watt v. N. C. R. Co., 23 Nev. 156; Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109.
19. VERDICT CONTRARY TO LAW—NEW TRIAL. The court properly instructed the jury as to the measure of damages, and they brought in a verdict contrary to such instruction; Held, that the court properly granted a new trial. Hoffman v. Bosch, 18 Nev. 360.
20. FINDINGS OR DECISION OF COURT AGAINST LAW—NEW TRIAL PROPER REMEDY. The decision is against law if it is contrary to, or inconsistent with, the case made and embraced within the issue. Marshall v. G. F. M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.
21. ERRORS OF LAW TO BE POINTED OUT IN STATEMENTS. A statement on motion for new trial on the ground of errors in law must particularly designate the errors relied on, otherwise it will be disregarded. Caldwell v. Greely, 5 Nev. 258; McWilliams v. Herschman, 5 Nev. 263.

Application, How Made.

3291. SEC. 196. When the application is made for a cause mentioned in the first, second, third, and fourth subdivisions of the last section, it shall be made upon affidavit; for any other cause, it shall be made upon a statement prepared as provided in the next section.

ERROR TO GRANT NEW TRIAL where there is no affidavit and no statement in support of motion. Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 288.

Proceedings in Moving for New Trial—Time of Notice in Which Affidavit or Statement to Be Filed—Errors Specified—Settlement of Statement—Identification.

3292. SEC. 197. The party intending to move for a new trial shall give notice of the same, as follows: When the action has been tried by a jury, within five days after the rendition of the verdict, and when the action has been tried by the court or by a referee, within ten days after receiving written notice of the rendering of the decision of the Judge or of the filing the report of the referee, the notice shall designate generally the grounds upon which the motion will be made. Within five days after giving such notice the said party shall prepare and file with the Clerk the affidavit or statement required by the last section. A copy of the affidavit shall, on the same day, be served on the adverse party. The party preparing the statement shall number the pages and lines thereof, and, after having filed the same with the Clerk, and had such filing entered and endorsed, shall serve the same on the adverse party, on the same day, who may propose amendments thereto, referring to the page and line of the statement, and shall, within five days after the service on him of the statement, file his amendment with the Clerk, and, after having such filing entered and endorsed, shall, on the same day, serve the same, with the statement, upon the moving party, who shall, within five days thereafter, give written notice to the adverse party if he declines admitting the amendments, or they shall be deemed accepted. At any time thereafter either party may have the statement settled by the Judge or referee upon two days' notice thereof to the other party. If no affidavit or statement be filed within five days after the notice for a new trial, the right to move for a new trial shall be waived. When the notice designates, as the ground upon which the motion will be made, the insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict or other decision, it shall be a sufficient assignment of error to specify that the verdict of the jury, or the decision, or judgment, or decree of the court, is not supported by the evidence, or is contrary to the evidence. In such case, where it appears that the evidence, taken altogether, does not support the verdict, or decision, or judgment, or decree of the court, a new trial shall be granted, or, upon appeal, the case shall be reversed without regard to whether there are express findings upon all the issues, or whether the specifications particularly point out the finding or findings, either express or implied, that are not supported by the evidence, or are contrary thereto. When the notice designates, as the ground of the motion, error in law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the moving party, the statement shall specify the particular errors upon which the party will rely. If no such specifications be made, the statement shall be disregarded. The statement shall contain so much of the evidence or reference thereto as may be necessary to explain the particular points thus specified, and no more. When the statement is agreed to it shall be accompanied with the certificate, either of the parties themselves in fact or their attorney, that the same has been agreed upon and is correct. When settled by the Judge or referee, it shall be accompanied with his certificate that the same has been allowed by him and is correct. When no amendments have been filed, the statement shall be accompanied with the certificate of the Clerk of that fact. On the argument, reference may also be made to the pleadings, depositions, and documentary evidence on file, testimony taken and written out by a shorthand reporter authorized by the court to make the same, and the minutes of the court. If the application be made upon affidavits filed, the adverse party may use counter affidavits on the hearing. Any counter affidavit shall be filed with the Clerk, and copies served on the moving party, at least two days previous to the hearing. The affidavits and counter affidavits, or the statement thus used in connection with such pleadings, depositions, documentary evidence on file, testimony taken by a reporter, and minutes of the court as are read or referred to on the hearing, shall constitute, without further statement, the papers to be used on appeal from the order granting or refusing the new trial. To identify the affidavits, it shall be sufficient for the Judge or Clerk to indorse them at the time as having been read or referred to on the hearing. To identify any depositions, documentary evidence on file, testimony taken by a reporter, or minutes of the court read or referred to on the hearing, it shall be sufficient that the Judge designate them as having been read or referred to in his certificate to be for that purpose by him made thereon. The several periods of time limited may be enlarged by the written agreement of the parties, or upon good cause shown, by the court or the Judge before whom the cause was tried. As amended, Stats. 1893, 88.

For Act concerning statement on motion for new trial, see Sec. 3864.

1. STATEMENT MUST BE FILED IN TIME. A statement on motion for new trial which was not filed within the time allowed by law should, on motion, be stricken out. (Williams v. Rice, 13 Nev. 235, affirmed.) Harrison v. Lockwood, 14 Nev. 263; Robinson v. Benson, 19 Nev. 331; G. F. M. Co. v. Cable Con. Co., 15 Nev. 450.
2. STATEMENT MUST BE MADE WITHIN STATUTORY TIME. Tull v. Anderson, 15 Nev. 426.
3. ASSIGNMENT OF ERROR—Insufficiency of Evidence—Findings of Fact—Above Section (197) Construed. Watt v. N. C. R. Co., 23 Nev. 156; Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109.
4. THE METHOD OF MAKING AND SETTLING STATEMENTS ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL COMMENTED ON. Levy v. Fargo, 1 Nev. 417; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.; Hoppin v. Cheney, 24 Nev.
5. PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 197—MEANING OF "SETTLED" IN JUDGE'S CERTIFICATE. The express requirement of the statute, that a Judge's certificate to a settled statement on motion for a new trial shall affirm its correctness (Practice Act, Sec. 197) does not preclude such presumptions as fairly arise from the language actually employed; so that when a Judge certifies that he has settled a statement, he in effect certifies that it is a true and correct statement. Overman S. M. Co. v. American M. Co., 7 Nev. 312.

6. STIPULATION OF COUNSEL IGNORING THE POSITIVE REQUIREMENTS OF LAW WILL BE DISREGARDED. April Fool M. Co. v. Dooley, 24 Nev.
 7. NEW TRIAL ORDER REVERSED, IF NOT SUPPORTED. On appeal from an order granting a new trial, if the affidavits upon which it was granted are not identified so as to entitle them to be considered, the order, having no foundation, will be reversed. Dean v. Pritchard, 9 Nev. 232; Albion M. Co. v. Richmond Co., 19 Nev. 225; Hoppin v. First Nat. Bank, 24 Nev.
 8. CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE TO STATEMENT. If it be stated in a statement that it contains all the material evidence, the certificate of the Judge to the correctness of the statement is sufficient to establish that fact; but a certificate that a statement is correct does not show that it contains all the evidence when that fact is not stated in it. Sherwood v. Sissa, 5 Nev. 349.
 9. STATEMENT NOT CONTAINING ALL THE EVIDENCE. Where the statement does not show that it contains all the evidence, it will be presumed that the findings were supported by the evidence. Gammans v. Roussell, 14 Nev. 171; Mandlebaum v. Liebes, 17 Nev. 131; W. P. Co. v. Herrick, 19 Nev. 311; Howard v. Winters, 3 Nev. 539; Terry v. Berry, 13 Nev. 514; Greeley v. Holland, 14 Nev. 320; Bowker v. Goodwin, 7 Nev. 135; Libby v. Dalton, 9 Nev. 23; Lonkey v. Wells, 16 Nev. 271; McLeod v. Lee, 17 Nev. 103; Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265; In Re Winkleman, 9 Nev. 303.
See Bailey v. Papina, 20 Nev. 177. See Sec. 3864.
 10. EVIDENCE TO BE INSERTED. When appellant does not rely upon the "insufficiency of the evidence," it is only necessary to insert so much of the evidence as is necessary to explain the particular errors relied on. Rose v. Richmond M. Co., 17 Nev. 25.
 11. STATEMENT—PARTICULARS MUST BE STATED. A statement must specify the particulars in which the evidence is alleged to be insufficient, or it will be disregarded. Dick v. Bird, 14 Nev. 161; Lamance v. Byrnes, 17 Nev. 197; Rosina v. Trowbridge, 20 Nev. 105.
 12. OBJECTION TO EVIDENCE—Grounds of Must Be Stated. Rosina v. Trowbridge, 20 Nev. 105.
 13. FINDINGS—DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE MUST BE EMBODIED IN A STATEMENT. Neither the findings of the court below, nor the documentary evidence admitted at the trial will be considered in the appellate court unless embodied in the statement or identified as required by statute. Hanson v. Chiatovich, 13 Nev. 395; Alderson v. Gilmore, 13 Nev. 84; Bowker v. Goodwin, 7 Nev. 135; Beck v. Truckee Lodge, 18 Nev. 246; Simpson v. Ogg, 18 Nev. 28; Imp. S. M. Co. v. Barstow, 5 Nev. 252; Corbett v. Job, 5 Nev. 201; Nesbitt v. Chisholm, 16 Nev. 400.
 14. JUDGMENT OF NONSUIT—SPECIFICATION OF ERROR. Held, sufficient. Brown v. Warren, 16 Nev. 228.
 15. ASSIGNMENT OF ERRORS—When Sufficient. Jones v. Adams, 17 Nev. 84.
 16. MANNER OF INSERTING TESTIMONY IN STATEMENT—Use of Word "Proved." Wilson v. Hill, 17 Nev. 401.
 17. ADJOURNMENT FOR TERM—NOTICE SERVED. When notice of intention to move for new trial is served within two days after judgment, and followed up by statement, etc., as the statute prescribes, the court retains jurisdiction of the case so far as to be able to dispose properly of the motion for new trial, although the court may have adjourned for the term between the day judgment was rendered and the filing of notice, without making any order retaining the jurisdiction over the case. Killip v. Empire Mill Co., 2 Nev. 34.
No NOTICE. But if term expires, and no notice of intention to move for a new trial is filed within the statutory time, then the court loses jurisdiction of the case. Id.
NOTICE must be in writing, or in open court, and a minute made of it. Id.
See State v. Bank of Nevada, 4 Nev. 358.
 18. NEW TRIAL—NOTICE—TRIAL WITHOUT JURY—DECISION OF COURT DISTINCT FROM FINDINGS. Time within which notice must be given begins to run from the announcement of judgment. Robinson v. Benson, 19 Nev. 331; Elder v. Frevert, 18 Nev. 278; Stanton-Thompson Co. v. Craine, 25 Nev.; Duffy v. Moran, 12 Nev. 98.
 19. NOTICE OF MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL, WITHOUT SPECIFYING GROUNDS, INSUFFICIENT. A notice of motion for new trial, which fails to designate the grounds upon which the motion will be made, is insufficient. Street v. Lemon M. & M. Co., 9 Nev. 251.
- DEFECTIVE NOTICE FOR NEW TRIAL NOT HELPED BY STATEMENT. The language of Section 197 of the Practice Act, requiring a notice of motion for new trial to "designate generally the grounds upon which the motion will be made," is clear, plain and explicit; and a disregard of it is not helped out by designating the grounds in the statement. Id.

20. NEW TRIAL STATEMENT NEED NOT DESIGNATE GENERAL GROUNDS. A statement on motion for new trial need not designate the general grounds of error relied on, but only specify the particulars wherein the error lies—the Practice Act requiring the notice to designate the general grounds, and the statement to contain the specifications. Worthing v. Cutts, 8 Nev. 118.
21. Hoopes v. Meyer, 1 Nev. 443, and Gillig v. Lake Bigler Road Company, 2 Nev. 214, on the point that a statement is not required to specifically state the errors relied on, disapproved. Corbett v. Job, 5 Nev. 210; Roberts v. Webster, 24 Nev.
22. EVIDENCE, WHEN NOT REVIEWED. The supreme court will not review the evidence in the absence of a regular statement on motion for a new trial. State v. Sadler, 21 Nev. 13.
23. STATEMENT MUST BE AUTHENTICATED. A statement on motion for a new trial will not be considered on appeal unless it is authenticated in the mode prescribed by statute. Jones v. Adams, 18 Nev. 60; White v. White, 6 Nev. 20; Solomon v. Fuller, 13 Nev. 276.
24. AUTHENTICATION OF STATEMENT. A certificate of the Clerk, to the effect that no amendments to the statement have been filed, is such an authentication as is required by Section 197. Borden v. Bender, 16 Nev. 49; Fuller v. Anderson, 15 Nev. 426.
25. NAMING A PAPER DOES NOT ENDORSE ITS CORRECTNESS AS SUCH. White v. White, 6 Nev. 20.
26. IDENTIFICATION OF AFFIDAVITS USED ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL. To entitle affidavits, used on motion for new trial, to be considered on appeal in the supreme court, they must be identified by indorsement of the Judge or Clerk, made "at the time" of use; and a certificate made after appeal taken, will not avail. Dean v. Pritchard, 9 Nev. 232; Albion M. Co. v. Richmond M. Co., 19 Nev. 225.
27. CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE TO STATEMENT FOR NEW TRIAL. Where a District Judge certified at the end of a statement "that the foregoing is the settled and engrossed statement on motion for new trial of the above entitled cause": Held, that though not a literal compliance with the statute, such certificate was a substantial compliance and sufficient. Overman M. Co. v. Am. M. Co., 7 Nev. 312.
- PRESUMPTIONS IN FAVOR OF JUDGE'S CERTIFICATE. Id.
28. IDENTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS—When Sufficient. Martens v. Gilson, 13 Nev. 489; Marshall v. G. F. M. Co., 16 Nev. 156; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.
29. DEFECTS IN CLERK'S CERTIFICATE AND NOTICE ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL WAIVED, WHEN. Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.
30. WAIVER OF RIGHT TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS—Statement on Motion for New Trial, When. Hoppin v. Cheney, 24 Nev.
- POWER OF COURT TO MAKE STATEMENT CONFORM TO TRUTH. Id.
31. STATEMENT—OBJECTIONS TO, WHEN WAIVED. When counsel appear and orally argue a case upon its merits and afterwards, by leave of the court, file a brief and therein rely upon objections to the statement: Held, that the oral argument upon the merits amounted to a waiver of the objections to the statement. Truckee Lodge v. Wood, 14 Nev. 293; Sweeney v. Hjul, 23 Nev. 409.
32. Facts Must Be Embodied in Statement. State v. C. P. R. Co., 17 Nev. 259.
33. STATEMENT ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL—SETTLED IN TRIAL COURT—APPELLATE COURT ON MOTION CANNOT CORRECT, ALTER, OR AMEND. The statement having been settled and certified by the District Judge, according to the statute, this court has no power to alter or amend it. Gardner v. Brown, 22 Nev. 156.
34. ADMISSION BY RESPONDENT'S ATTORNEY that a statement on motion for new trial is correct, does not admit such statement to contain all the evidence offered in the case, where the statement itself does not purport to contain it all. It can only be held to be an admission that so far as the evidence is stated, it is stated correctly. It does not negative the idea of other evidence having been given. Howard v. Winters, 3 Nev. 539.
35. STATEMENT SHOULD BE COMPLETE. Map referred to should be included. Hamburg M. Co. v. Stephenson, 17 Nev. 449.
36. AMENDMENTS SHOULD BE LIBERALLY ALLOWED. Courts should be liberal in allowing amendments to defective statements on motion for new trial, etc., and should themselves suggest them whenever a defect or deficiency is apparent. Caldwell v. Greely, 5 Nev. 284.
37. STATEMENT ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL CANNOT BE CERTIFIED TO AFTER APPEAL IS TAKEN—Effect of Order Prematurely Made. Thomas v. Sullivan, 11 Nev. 280; Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 268.
38. NEW TRIAL—PREMATURE RULING UPON. A motion for new trial, when made upon a statement, should not be ruled upon until the statement has been settled and authenticated. If done, the ruling is irregular and premature, and should be vacated upon motion. Crosby v. N. B. S. M. Co., 23 Nev. 70.

MOTION FOR SUBMITTED, HOW VACATED. Where a motion for new trial has been regularly submitted upon a sufficient statement, a ruling thereon cannot be subsequently vacated on motion, but the only remedy is by appeal. Id.

39. STATEMENT FOR NEW TRIAL—SPECIFICATION OF ERROR. In a statement on motion for a new trial, which contains the charge of the Judge as an entirety, a specification of error, "that the court erred in giving to the jury the instructions as set forth in this statement," is sufficient. Ellis v. C. P. R. R. Co., 5 Nev. 255.

40. STATEMENT. When a party in assigning errors, or stating the grounds on which he will move for a new trial, says that the court erred in doing a certain thing, this is no evidence that the court did as charged. To establish that fact, it must appear in the statement of facts. The assignment of errors, and the statement of the facts or evidence to sustain these alleged errors, are separate and distinct things. The party moving for a new trial may state the errors complained of in his own language. Neither the court nor the opposite party can correct that. The court can only correct the statement of facts or evidence. Fleeson v. Savage M. Co., 3 Nev. 157; McGurn v. McInnis, 24 Nev.

41. STATEMENT ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL—SETTLEMENT OF BY JUDGE OR REFEREE—PRACTICE. In a case tried before a referee, where all the proceedings are reported to the court, the statement on motion for a new trial may be settled by the Judge. Marshall v. G. F. M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.

42. STATEMENT, WHEN CONSIDERED "USED" IN THE COURT BELOW. If prepared, settled and on file in Clerk's office. State v. C. P. R. Co., 17 Nev. 259.

FACTS MUST BE EMBODIED IN STATEMENT, to be considered on appeal. Id.

ORDER OVERRULING MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL NEED NOT BE EXCEPTED TO. Id.

43. NEW TRIAL—STATEMENT—WHEN MUST BE FILED—WAIVER. A failure to file a statement within five days after giving notice of intention to move for a new trial, nothing having been done in the meantime to retain jurisdiction, operates as a waiver of the right to move for a new trial, and no power exists in the district court to reinstate this right. Elder v. Frevert, 18 Nev. 278; Hoppin v. Cheney, 24 Nev.

44. MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL—WAIVER OF NOTICE OF DECISION. If he proceed in the case upon actual knowledge of such decision, he waives his right to written notice. Corbett v. Swift, 6 Nev. 194.

TIME TO MOVE FOR NEW TRIAL—Practice Act, Section 197. Id.

45. WAIVER OF ERROR TO BE SHOWN BY PARTY CLAIMING WAIVER. McWilliams v. Herschman, 5 Nev. 263; White v. White, 6 Nev. 20.

46. EXTENDING TIME TO FILE STATEMENT ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL. An order signed by the Judge extending the time fixed by statute for filing a statement on motion for a new trial, must not only be signed, but must be filed with the papers in the case, or entered of record in the minutes of the court, within the time prescribed by statute. Clark v. Strouse, 11 Nev. 76.

47. IN AN EQUITY CASE, this court may order the proper decree to be entered in the court below without the formality of a new trial. Feusier v. Sneath, 3 Nev. 120.

48. NEW TRIAL, WHEN TO BE GRANTED BY NISI PRIUS COURT. A Judge who tries a cause should not hesitate to set aside the verdict, where there is a clear preponderance of evidence against it. Phillipotts v. Blasdel, 8 Nev. 61.

49. A verdict will not be set aside merely because it is against the weight of evidence. Bryant v. Carson Lumbering Co., 3 Nev. 313.

50. NEW TRIAL OF PORTION OF THE ISSUES IN ACTION FOR DIVORCE—May Be Granted. Lake v. Bender, 18 Nev. 361.

51. ORDER GRANTING NEW TRIAL—WHEN IT WILL BE SUSTAINED. Where, on appeal from an order granting a new trial, the record shows that the motion was made upon two grounds, without showing upon which of them the action was based, the order will be affirmed, if the action of the court can be sustained upon either ground. McLeod v. Lee, 14 Nev. 398.

52. NEW TRIAL—IMPROPERLY GRANTED. When judgment and verdict are in accordance with evidence, no substantial conflict in it upon material issue and no error, court has no right to grant new trial. Lawrence v. Burnham, 4 Nev. 361; Scott v. Haines, 4 Nev. 426.

53. NEW TRIAL—WHEN SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED. A new trial ought not to be granted on a motion to set aside a verdict, merely because the court had erred in finding a fact in some preliminary proceeding in the case. Solomon v. Fuller, 14 Nev. 63.

54. DISTINCTION AS TO WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE ON NEW TRIAL AND ON APPEAL. State v. Yellow Jacket, 5 Nev. 415.

55. NEW TRIAL—APPEAL FROM JUSTICE COURT—JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT. After a verdict rendered in the district court upon the trial of a case appealed from a justice's court, the district court has jurisdiction, when a proper showing is made, to grant a new trial. Koppe v. Second Judicial District Court, 23 Nev. 343.

Application for New Trial, When to Be Made.

3293. SEC. 198. The application for a new trial shall be made at the earliest period practicable after filing the affidavit or statement, and the court or Judge granting or refusing a new trial shall state in writing generally the grounds upon which the same is granted or refused.

Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.

CHAPTER 8—THE MANNER OF GIVING AND ENTERING JUDGMENT.

Judgment, How Entered.

3294. SEC. 199. When trial by jury has been had, judgment shall be entered by the Clerk in conformity to the verdict, within twenty-four hours after the rendition of the verdict, unless the court order the case to be reserved for argument or further consideration, or grant a stay of proceedings.

PROPER PRACTICE IN ENTERING JUDGMENT. Per BEATTY, J. Howard v. Richards, 2 Nev. 123.

Argument.

3295. SEC. 200. When the case is reserved for argument or further consideration, as mentioned in the last section, it may be brought by either party before the court for argument.

Counterclaim to Defendant, or Affirmative Relief to Plaintiff.

3296. SEC. 201. If a counterclaim, established at the trial, exceed the plaintiff's demand, so established, judgment for the defendant shall be given for the excess; or, if it appear that the defendant is entitled to any other affirmative relief, judgment shall be given accordingly.

Recovery of Personal Property—Judgment.

3297. SEC. 202. In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession, or the value thereof, in case a delivery cannot be had, and damages for the detention or the value of the use thereof. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property, or the value thereof, in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same, or the value of the use thereof. In an action on a contract or obligation for the direct payment of money, payable in a specified or agreed kind of money or currency, judgment for the plaintiff, whether the same be by default or after verdict, or decision of the court or referee, may follow the contract or obligation, and be made payable in the kind of money or currency therein specified or thereby agreed. And in an action against any person for the recovery of money received by such person in a fiduciary capacity, or to the use of another, judgment for the plaintiff, whether the same be by default or after verdict, or decision of the court or referee, may be made payable in the same kind of money or currency so received by such person; and in all cases of damage the judgment shall be for gold coin.

1. IN ACTION OF REPLEVIN, the judgment must be for the return of the property and an alternative judgment for its value if not returned. An absolute judgment for its value, not allowing defendant to satisfy the judgment by return of the property with costs and damages, is erroneous. Lambert v. McFarland, 2 Nev. 58.

2. GOLD COIN JUDGMENT PROPER. Clark v. Nevada L. & M. Co., 6 Nev. 203.

Judgment Book to Be Kept.

3298. SEC. 203. The Clerk shall keep among the records of the court a book for the entry of judgments, to be called the "Judgment Book," in which each judgment shall be entered, and shall specify clearly the relief granted, or other determination of the action.

Death of Party Not to Affect Judgment.

3299. SEC. 204. If a party die after a verdict or decision upon any issue of fact, and before judgment, the court may nevertheless render judgment thereon. Such judgment shall not be a lien on the real property of the deceased party, but shall be payable in the course of administration on his estate.

Judgment Roll, What to Constitute.

3300. SEC. 205. Immediately after entering the judgment the Clerk shall attach together and file the following papers, which shall constitute the judgment roll: First—In case the complaint be not answered by any defendant, the summons, with the affidavit or proof of service, and the complaint, with the memorandum indorsed on the complaint that the default of the defendant in not answering was entered, and a copy of the judgment. Second—In all other cases the summons, pleadings, and a copy of the judgment, and any orders relating to a change of the parties.

Lien of Judgment, Continuance Of.

3301. SEC. 206. Immediately after filing a judgment roll the Clerk shall make the proper entries of the judgment, under appropriate heads, in the docket kept by him, and from the time the judgment is docketed it shall become a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in the county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterwards acquire, until the said lien expires. The lien shall continue for two years, unless the judgment be previously satisfied. But the time during which the execution of the judgment is suspended by appeal or action of the court or defendant shall not be computed.

Docket, How Kept.

3302. SEC. 207. The docket mentioned in the last section is a book which the Clerk shall keep in his office, with each page divided into columns: Judgment debtors; judgment creditors; judgment; time of entry; where entered in judgment book; appeals; when taken; judgment of appellate court; satisfaction of judgment; when entered. If judgment be for the recovery of money or damages, the amount shall be stated in the docket under the head of judgment; if the judgment be for any other relief, a memorandum of the general character of the relief granted shall be stated. The names of the defendants shall be entered in the docket in alphabetical order.

Open for Inspection.

3303. SEC. 208. The docket kept by the court shall be open at all times during office hours for the inspection of the public, without charge; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk to arrange the several dockets kept by him in such a manner as to facilitate their inspection.

Transcript May Be Filed in Other Counties.

3304. SEC. 209. A transcript of the original docket certified by the Clerk, may be filed with the Recorder of any other county, and from the time of the filing the judgment shall become a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in such county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterwards acquire, until the said lien expires. The lien shall continue for two years, unless the judgment be previously satisfied. But the time during which the execution of the judgment is suspended by appeal, or action of the court or defendant, shall not be computed.

Satisfaction of Judgment, Entry Of.

3305. SEC. 210. Satisfaction of a judgment may be entered in the Clerk's docket upon an execution returned satisfied, or upon an acknowledgment of satisfaction filed with the Clerk, made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, by the judgment creditor, or within one year after the judgment, by the attorney, unless a revocation of his authority be previously filed. Whenever a judgment shall be satisfied in fact, otherwise than upon execution, it shall be the duty of the party or attorney to give such acknowledgment, and upon motion the court may compel it, or may order the entry of satisfaction to be made without it.

WHEN JUDGMENT CREDITOR MAY BE ORDERED TO SATISFY JUDGMENT. It is only when a judgment is satisfied "otherwise than upon execution" (Practice Act, Sec. 210) that a court may order the judgment creditor to make acknowledgment of that fact. Sweeney v. Hawthorne, 6 Nev. 129.

TITLE VII.

All the provisions of this title relative to the duties of the Sheriff upon execution are made applicable to Constables by Section 560 of this Act.

Of the Execution of the Judgment in Civil Actions.

CHAPTER 1—THE EXECUTION.

Writ to Issue, Time For.

3306. SEC. 211. The party in whose favor judgment is given, may, at any time within six years after the entry thereof, issue a writ of execution for its enforcement, as prescribed in this chapter. As amended, Stats. 1889, 26.

EXECUTION MUST BE AUTHORIZED BY THE JUDGMENT, and must follow it in every essential particular, not only as to material matters of form, but also as to the amount for which it is rendered. Hastings v. Johnson, 1 Nev. 613; Solen v. V. & T. K. Co., 14 Nev. 405.

Execution—Form of Writ—To Whom Issued—What Commanded.

3307. SEC. 212. The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the State of Nevada, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the Clerk, and shall be directed to the Sheriff; and shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county where the judgment roll is filed, the name of the parties, the judgment, and if it be for money, the amount thereof, and the amount actually due thereon; and if made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in section two hundred and two, the execution shall also state the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is payable, and shall require the Sheriff substantially as follows: First, if it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the Sheriff to satisfy the judgment with interest, out of the personal property of such debtor, and, if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of his real property; or, if the judgment be a lien upon real property, then out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the judgment was docketed; or, if the execution be issued to a county other than the one in which the judgment was recovered, on the day when the transcript of the docket was filed in the office of the Recorder of such county, stating such day, or at any time thereafter; second, if it be against real or personal property in the hands of the personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants of real property, or trustees, it shall require the Sheriff to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property; third, if it be against the person of the judgment debtor, it shall require the Sheriff to arrest such debtor, and commit him to the jail of the county until he pay the judgment, with interest, or be discharged according to law; fourth, if it be issued on a judgment made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in section two hundred and two, it shall also require the Sheriff to satisfy the same in the kind of money or currency in which said judgment is made payable, and the Sheriff shall refuse payment in any other kind of money or currency; and in case of levy and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, he shall refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other kind of money or currency than that specified in the execution; the Sheriff collecting money or currency in the manner required by this Act shall pay to the plaintiff, or party entitled to recover the same, the same kind of money or currency received by him, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, he shall be liable on his official bond to the judgment creditor in three times the amount of the money so collected; fifth, if it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, it shall require the Sheriff to deliver the possession of the same, particularly describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may at the same time require the Sheriff to satisfy any costs, damages, rents, or profits, recovered by the same judgment out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was recovered, to be specified therein; if a delivery thereof cannot be had, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of real property, as provided in the first subdivision of this section.

SHERIFF HAS NO AUTHORITY to put a party in possession of land not described in complaint or judgment. Bullion M. Co. v. Ceresus Co., 2 Nev. 168.

Judgment on Joint Contract—Writ of Execution.

3308. SEC. 213. When a writ of execution is issued on a judgment recovered against two or more persons, in an action upon a joint contract, in which action all the defendants were not served with summons, or did not appear, it shall direct the Sheriff to satisfy the judgment out of the joint property of all the defendants, and the individual property only of the defendants who were served, or who appeared in the action. In other respects the writ shall contain the directions specified in subdivisions one and four of the last section.

Execution, When Returnable.

J. C.

3309. SEC. 214. The execution may be returnable at any time not less than ten nor more than sixty days after its receipt by the Sheriff, to the Clerk with whom the judgment roll is filed.

Sections 214, 215, and from 217 to 236, both inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 560 of this Act.

Payment of Money, How Enforced.

J. C.

3310. SEC. 215. Where a judgment requires the payment of money, or the delivery of real or personal property, the same shall be enforced in those respects by execution.

Acts May Be Enforced.

3311. SEC. 216. Where it requires the performance of any other act, a certified copy of the judgment may be served upon the party against whom it is given, or upon the person or officer who is required thereby, or by law, to obey the same, and his obedience thereto enforced.

Execution May Issue After Death of Party.

J. C.

3312. SEC. 217. Notwithstanding the death of a party after the judgment, execution thereon may be issued, in case of the death of the plaintiff, the same as if he were living, upon the application of his executor or administrator, or successor in interest, to the court in which the judgment was rendered, and in case of the death of the defendant, if the judgment be for the recovery of real or personal property, execution may be issued against such property, in the same manner and with the same effect as if he were still living.

Execution to Different Counties.

J. C.

3313. SEC. 218. Where the execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, it may be issued to the Sheriff of any county in the state. Where it requires the delivery of real or personal property, it shall be issued to the Sheriff of the county where the property, or some part thereof, is situated. Executions may be issued at the same time to different counties.

WHO MAY ISSUE EXECUTION—Sections 218 and 557 Construed. Application of Rourke, 13 Nev. 256.

What Liable to Execution.

J. C.

3314. SEC. 219. All goods, chattels, moneys, and other property, real and personal, of the judgment debtor, or any interest therein of the judgment debtor not exempt by law, and all property and rights of property seized and held under attachment in the action, shall be liable to execution. Shares and interests in any corporation or company, and debts and credits, and other property not capable of manual delivery, may be attached in execution, in like manner as upon writs of attachment. Gold dust and bullion shall be returned by the officer as so much money collected, at its current value, without exposing the same to sale. Until a levy, property shall not be affected by the execution.

ESTATE OF DECEASED PERSONS—WHEN EXECUTOR CANNOT BE GARNISHED—CLAIMS—LEVY AND SALE. In an estate, where no order for distribution has been made, neither the executor or administrator is liable to the process of garnishment, nor can an allowed and approved claim against the estate be levied upon and sold under an execution against the claimant. Norton v. Clark, 18 Nev. 247.

Property Claimed by Third Party—Claim, How Tried.

J. C.

3315. SEC. 220. If the property levied on be claimed by a third person as his property, the Sheriff shall summon from his county six persons qualified as jurors between the parties, to try the validity of the claim. He shall also give notice of the claim and of the time of trial to the plaintiff, who may appear and contest the claim before the jury. The jury and the witnesses shall be sworn by the Sheriff, and if their verdict be in favor of the claimant, the Sheriff may relinquish the levy, unless the judgment creditor give him a sufficient indemnity for proceeding thereon. The fees of the jury, the Sheriff, and the witnesses shall be paid by the claimant, if the verdict be against him; otherwise by the plaintiff.

What Exempt from Execution—Exception.

J. C.

3316. SEC. 221. The following property shall be exempt from execution except as herein otherwise specially provided:

First—Chairs, tables, desks and books to the value of one hundred dollars, belonging to the judgment debtor.

Second—Necessary household table and kitchen furniture belonging to the judgment debtor, including stove, stovepipe and stove furniture, wearing apparel, beds, bedding and bedsteads, and provisions and firewood actually provided for individual or family use sufficient for one month.

Third—The farming utensils or implements of husbandry of the judgment debtor; also, two oxen or two horses or two mules, and their harness, two cows and one cart or wagon, and food for such oxen, horses, cows or mules for one month; also all seed, grain or vegetables, actually provided, reserved or on hand for the purpose of planting or sowing at any time within the ensuing six months, not exceeding in value two hundred dollars.

Fourth—The tools and implements of a mechanic or artisan necessary to carry on his trade; the instruments and chests of a surgeon, physician, surveyor, and dentist, necessary to the exercise of their profession, with their scientific and professional libraries, and the law libraries of an attorney or counselor, and the libraries of ministers of the gospel.

Fifth—The cabin or dwelling of a miner, not exceeding in value the sum of five hundred dollars, also his sluices, pipes, hose, windlass, whim, derrick, cars, pumps, tools, implements and appliances necessary for carrying on any kind of mining operations, not exceeding in value the aggregate sum of five hundred dollars, and two horses, mules or oxen, with their harness, and food for such horses, oxen or mules for one month, when necessary to be used for any whim, windlass, derrick, car, pump or hoisting apparatus.

Sixth—Two oxen, two horses or two mules and their harness, and one cart or wagon, by the use of which a cartman, huckster, peddler, teamster or other laborer habitually earns his living; and one horse with vehicle and harness or other equipments used by a physician or surgeon or minister of the gospel in making his professional visits, and also food for such oxen, mules or horses for one month.

For every livery stable keeper, two horses or mules, with vehicle and harness; provided, the whole shall not exceed in value five hundred dollars.

Seventh—One sewing machine, not exceeding in value one hundred and fifty dollars, in actual use by the debtor or his family.

Eighth—All fire engines, hooks and ladders, with the carts, trucks and carriages, hose, buckets, implements and apparatus thereto appertaining, and all furniture and uniforms of any fire company or department now existing, or which may be, under the laws of this state, hereafter organized.

Ninth—All arms, uniforms and accoutrements required by law to be kept by any person.

Tenth—All court houses, jails, public offices and buildings, lots, grounds and personal property, the fixtures, furniture, books, papers and appurtenances belonging and pertaining to the court house, jail and public offices, belonging to any county of this state; all cemeteries, public squares, parks and places, and public buildings, town halls, public markets, buildings for the use of the fire departments, and military organizations, and the lots and grounds thereto belonging and appertaining, owned or held by any town or incorporated city or dedicated by such town or city to health, ornament or public use, or for the use of any fire or military company now existing, or which may be, under the laws of the state, hereafter organized.

Eleventh—No article or species of property mentioned in this section shall be exempt from execution issued upon a judgment recovered for its price, or upon a mortgage thereon. As amended, Stats. 1887, 78.

1. PROPERTY EXEMPT—Teamster. Elder v. Williams, 16 Nev. 416.

DEBTOR HAS RIGHT TO SELECT EXEMPT PROPERTY. Id.

FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT of other property does not deprive debtor of rights under exemption law. Id.

2. EXEMPTIONS—STALLIONS AND WORK HORSES—STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION. A stallion kept for breeding purposes, and not used as a work horse, is not exempt from execution. The legislature intended by that paragraph to exempt to the debtor such animals as would be useful in assisting him to gain a livelihood by farming, etc., as ordinarily conducted. Kreig v. Fellows, 21 Nev. 307.

Satisfaction of the Execution.

J. C.

3317. SEC. 222. The Sheriff shall execute the writ against the property of the judgment debtor by levying on a sufficient amount of property, if there be sufficient, collecting or selling the things in action, and selling the other property, and paying to the plaintiff or his attorneys so much of the proceeds as will satisfy the judgment, or depositing the amount with the Clerk of the Court. Any excess in the proceeds over the judgment and the Sheriff's fees shall be returned to the judgment debtor. When there is more property of the judgment debtor than is sufficient to satisfy the judgment and the Sheriff's fees within the view of the Sheriff, he shall levy only on such part of the property as the judgment debtor may indicate; provided, that the judgment debtor may indicate at the time of the levy such part; and, provided, that the property indicated be amply sufficient to satisfy such judgment and fees.

1. DAMAGES—Seizure of Property Exempt from Execution—Evidence—Wages of Barber Inadmissible. Hammersmith v. Avery, 18 Nev. 225.

VALUE OF PROPERTY—Offer—Right of Exemption—Personal Privilege. Id.

2. SEIZURE OF PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION—LIABILITY OF EXECUTION CREDITOR—PARTIES TO ACTION OF TRESPASS. An execution creditor, under whose direction a levy is unlawfully made, is liable and may be sued with the Sheriff in an action to recover damages for the trespass. Elder v. Frevert, 18 Nev. 446.

MEASURE OF DAMAGES FOR DETENTION OF PROPERTY. The measure of damages for the detention of two horses and a wagon, exempt from execution, is the value of the use of the property during the period of detention. Id.

Sale of Property on Execution—What Notice Necessary.

J. C.

3318. SEC. 223. Before the sale of property on execution, notice thereof shall be given as follows: First—In cases of perishable property, by posting written notice of the time and place of sale in three public places of the township or city where the sale is to take place, for such a time as may be reasonable, considering the character and condition of the property. Second—In case of other personal property, by posting a similar notice in three public places of the township or city where the sale is to take place, not less than five nor more than ten days, successively, and, in case of sale on execution issuing out of a district court, by the publication of a copy of said notice at least once a week, for the same period, in a newspaper, if there be one, in the county. Third—In case of real property, by posting a similar notice particularly describing the property, for twenty days, successively, in three public places of the township or city where the property is situated, and also where the property is to be sold; and also by publishing a copy of said notice once a week, for the same period, in a newspaper, if there be one, in the county; provided, that the cost of such publication shall in no case exceed the sum of two dollars and fifty cents per square for the first insertion, and one dollar per square for each subsequent insertion; and, provided further, that in any case where the paper authorized by this Act to publish such notice of sale shall neglect or refuse, from any cause, to make such publication, then the posting of notices, as provided in the preceding section of this Act, shall be deemed sufficient notice; provided, further, notices of the sale of property on execution, upon a judgment for any sum less than five hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, shall be given only by posting in three public places in the county, one of which notices shall be posted at the court house. As amended, Stats. 1873, 75.

Selling Without Notice, Liability For.

J. C.

3319. SEC. 224. An officer selling without the notice prescribed by the last section, shall forfeit five hundred dollars to the aggrieved party, in addition to his actual damages; and a person willfully taking down or defacing the notice posted, if done before the sale or the satisfaction of the judgment (if the judgment be satisfied before sale), shall forfeit five hundred dollars to the aggrieved party.

Sale Under Execution, How Made.

J. C.

3320. SEC. 225. All sales of property under execution shall be made at auction to the highest bidder, and shall be made between the hours of nine in the morning and five in the afternoon. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more shall be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution nor his deputy shall become a purchaser, or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, it shall be in view of those who attend the sale, and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and when the sale is of real property, and consisting of several known lots or parcels, they shall be sold separately, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person, and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion shall be thus sold. All sales of real property shall be made at the court house of the county in which the property or some part thereof, is situated. The judgment debtor, if present at the sale, may also direct the order in which property, real or personal, shall be sold. When such property consists of several known lots or parcels, or of articles which can be sold to advantage separately, the Sheriff shall be bound to follow such directions.

All sales of real property on execution issued out of justices' courts shall be made at or upon the property sold. Section 560 of this Act.

Party Refusing to Pay Bid, Liability.

J. C.

3321. SEC. 226. If a purchaser refuse to pay the amount bid by him for property struck off to him at a sale under execution, the officer may again sell the property to the highest bidder, after again giving the notice hereinbefore provided; and if any loss be occasioned thereby from the purchaser refusing to pay his bid, the officer may recover the amount of such loss, with costs, for the benefit of the party aggrieved, by motion upon previous notice of five days to such purchaser, before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Proceedings Against Party Refusing Bid.

J. C.

3322. SEC. 227. Such court shall proceed in a summary manner in the hearing and disposition of such motion, and give judgment and issue execution therefor forthwith, but the refusing purchaser may claim a jury. And the same proceedings may be had against any subsequent purchaser who shall refuse to pay, and the officer may, in his discretion, thereafter reject the bid of any person so refusing.

PAYMENT ON PURCHASE BY JUDGMENT CREDITOR. Where the judgment creditor is the purchaser at execution sale, it does not follow that he need not pay any money—the officer may require payment when fees are due, or to become due to him, and in default of payment may resell. Sweeney v. Hawthorne, 6 Nev. 129.

PURCHASE WITHOUT PAY BY JUDGMENT CREDITOR AT EXECUTION SALE. When a judgment creditor, to whom property is struck off at execution sale, refuses to consummate his purchase, there should be a resale under the provisions of Sections 226 and 227 of the Practice Act, the same as in the case of any other purchaser. Id.

Liability of Officer.

J. C.

3323. SEC. 228. The two preceding sections shall not be construed to make the officer liable for any more than the amount bid by the second or subsequent purchaser, and the amount collected from the purchaser refusing to pay.

Certificate of Sale to Be Given When Desired.

J. C.

3324. SEC. 229. When the purchaser of any personal property capable of manual delivery shall pay the purchase money, the officer making the sale shall deliver to the purchaser the property, and if desired shall execute and deliver to him a certificate of the sale and payment. Such certificate shall convey to the purchaser all the right, title, and interest which the debtor had in and to such property on the day the execution was levied.

Certificate to Convey Right, Title and Interest.

J. C.

3325. SEC. 230. When the purchaser of any personal property not capable of manual delivery shall pay the purchase money, the officer making the sale shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a certificate of sale and payment. Such certificate shall convey to the purchaser all right, title, and interest which the debtor had in and to such property on the day the execution was levied.

SALES UNDER ERRONEOUS JUDGMENT SET ASIDE. Hastings v. B. M. Co., 2 Nev. 100.

Real Estate Subject to Redemption—Certificate of Sale to State, What.

J. C.

3326. SEC. 231. Upon a sale of real property, the purchaser shall be substituted to and acquire all the right, title, interest, and claim of the judgment debtor thereto; and when the estate is less than a leasehold of two years' unexpired term, the sale shall be absolute. In all other cases the real property shall be subject to redemption, as provided in this chapter. The officer shall give to the purchaser a certificate of the sale containing: First—A particular description of the real property sold. Second—The price bid for each distinct lot or parcel. Third—The whole price paid. Fourth—When subject to redemption it shall be so stated; and when the judgment, under which the sale has been made, is made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, the certificate shall also state the kind of money or currency in which said redemption may be made, which shall be the same as that specified in the judgment. A duplicate of such certificate shall be filed by the officer in the office of the County Recorder of the county.

Who May Redeem Property.

J. C.

3327. SEC. 232. Property sold subject to redemption, as provided in the last section, or any part sold separately, may be redeemed in the manner hereinafter proved by the following persons, or their successors in interest: First—The judgment debtor, or his successor in interest, in the whole or any part of the property. Second—A creditor having a lien by judgment or mortgage on the property sold, or on some share or part thereof, subsequent to that on which the property was sold. The persons mentioned in the second subdivision of this section are, in this chapter, termed redemptioners.

Time and Conditions of Redemption.

J. C.

3328. SEC. 233. The judgment debtor or a redemptioner may redeem the property from the purchaser within six months after the sale, on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase, in the kind of money or currency specified in the judgment, if any be specified, with eighteen per cent thereon in addition, together with the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser may have paid thereon after the purchase, and interest on such amount; and if the purchaser be also a creditor, having a lien prior to that of a redemptioner other than the judgment under which the purchase was made, the amount of such lien, with interest.

Subsequent Redemptions, Conditions of—Sheriff's Deed—Who Entitled.

J. C.

1. REDEMPTIONER, RIGHTS OF. Gilson v. Boston, 11 Nev. 413.

2. RECITALS IN DEED CANNOT BE CONTRADICTED. One who brings an action to recover real estate purchased under execution cannot show that the execution issued under a different judgment than the one recited on its face, nor can he contradict the recitals in the deed under which he claims. Zabriskie v. Mead, 2 Nev. 285.

If a defendant in execution has no title to premises in question, either at the date of sale, or at any time subsequent to the period when the judgment was rendered, as appears by the recitals in the execution, in the advertisement of sale, in the certificate of sale, and the Sheriff's deed, a party claiming under such execution sale will not be allowed to show that the true date of the judgment under which the execution was issued was different from all those recitals. Id.

Payment of Redemption Money.

J. C.

3330. SEC. 235. The payment mentioned in the two last sections may be made to the purchaser or redemptioner, as the case may be, or for him to the officer who made the sale; and a tender of the money shall be equivalent to payment so far as to effect a redemption of the property, and all such payments or tender shall be made in the kind of money or currency in which the last redemption was made, and in which the lien of such redemption was payable. A person desiring to redeem may demand of the purchaser, or last redemptioner, or his attorney in fact, if he be absent from the county in which the property is situated, a statement in writing of all his claims and liens against the property to be paid on redemption, specifying each item; and if he fail to furnish said statement within three days, then it shall only be necessary to a redemption to pay or tender the amount of the bid or the last redemption, as the case may be, with the percentage allowed added thereto.

What Redemptioner Must Show.

J. C.

3331. SEC. 236. A redemptioner shall produce to the officer or person from whom he seeks to redeem, and serve with his notice to the Sheriff: First, a copy of the docket of the judgment under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the Clerk of the Court, or of the county where the judgment is docketed; or if he redeem upon a mortgage or other lien, a note of the record thereof certified by the Recorder; second, a copy of an assignment necessary to establish his claim, verified by the affidavit of himself or of subscribing witnesses thereto; and, third, an affidavit by himself, or his agent, showing the amount then actually due on the lien.

Waste Restrained.

3332. SEC. 237. Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property, or may appoint a receiver to take charge of the property, or the proceeds thereof, by order granted with or without notice, on the application of the purchaser or the judgment creditor. But it shall not be deemed waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of sale, or entitled to possession afterwards, during the period allowed for redemption, to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used; or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry; or to make necessary repairs of buildings thereon; or to use wood or timber on the property therefor; or for the repair of fences; or for fuel in his family while he occupies the property.

Rents and Profits, How Disposed Of.

J. C.

3333. SEC. 238. The purchaser from the time of a sale until a redemption, and a redemptioner from the time of his redemption until another redemption, shall be entitled to receive from the tenant in possession, the rents of the property sold, or the value of the use and occupation thereof; provided, that in case the property shall be redeemed as provided in this chapter, the amount of such rents and profits which may have been received by such purchaser or redemptioner, or which said purchaser or redemptioner may have been entitled to claim or receive, unless such claim shall be released to the person claiming such right of redemption, shall be deducted from the amount which said purchaser or redemptioner would be entitled to receive on such redemption.

Sections 238 to 247, inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 560 of this Act.

Purchaser May Recover from Judgment Creditor, When.

J. C.

3334. SEC. 239. If the purchaser of real property sold on execution, or his successor in interest, or a redemptioner be evicted therefrom in consequence of irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale or of the reversal or discharge of the judgment, he may recover the price paid, with interest, from the judgment creditor. If the purchaser of property at Sheriff's sale, or his successor in interest, fail to recover possession in consequence of irregularity in the proceedings concerning the sale, or because the property sold was not subject to execution and sale, the court having jurisdiction thereof shall, on petition of such party in interest, or his attorney, revive the original judgment for the amount paid by such purchaser at the sale, with interest thereon from the time of payment at the same rate that the original judgment bore, and when so revived, the said judgment shall have the same effect as an original judgment of the said

ment debtor, or his successor in interest, in the whole or any part of the property. Second—A creditor having a lien by judgment or mortgage on the property sold, or on some share or part thereof, subsequent to that on which the property was sold. The persons mentioned in the second subdivision of this section are, in this chapter, termed redemptioners.

Time and Conditions of Redemption.

J. C.

3328. SEC. 233. The judgment debtor or a redemptioner may redeem the property from the purchaser within six months after the sale, on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase, in the kind of money or currency specified in the judgment, if any be specified, with eighteen per cent thereon in addition, together with the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser may have paid thereon after the purchase, and interest on such amount; and if the purchaser be also a creditor, having a lien prior to that of a redemptioner other than the judgment under which the purchase was made, the amount of such lien, with interest.

Subsequent Redemptions, Conditions of—Sheriff's Deed—Who Entitled.

J. C.

1. REDEMPTIONER, RIGHTS OF. Gilson v. Boston, 11 Nev. 413.

2. RECITALS IN DEED CANNOT BE CONTRADICTED. One who brings an action to recover real estate purchased under execution cannot show that the execution issued under a different judgment than the one recited on its face, nor can he contradict the recitals in the deed under which he claims. Zabriskie v. Mead, 2 Nev. 285.

If a defendant in execution has no title to premises in question, either at the date of sale, or at any time subsequent to the period when the judgment was rendered, as appears by the recitals in the execution, in the advertisement of sale, in the certificate of sale, and the Sheriff's deed, a party claiming under such execution sale will not be allowed to show that the true date of the judgment under which the execution was issued was different from all those recitals. Id.

Payment of Redemption Money.

J. C.

3330. SEC. 235. The payment mentioned in the two last sections may be made to the purchaser or redemptioner, as the case may be, or for him to the officer who made the sale; and a tender of the money shall be equivalent to payment so far as to effect a redemption of the property, and all such payments or tender shall be made in the kind of money or currency in which the last redemption was made, and in which the lien of such redemption was payable. A person desiring to redeem may demand of the purchaser, or last redemptioner, or his attorney in fact, if he be absent from the county in which the property is situated, a statement in writing of all his claims and liens against the property to be paid on redemption, specifying each item; and if he fail to furnish said statement within three days, then it shall only be necessary to a redemption to pay or tender the amount of the bid or the last redemption, as the case may be, with the percentage allowed added thereto.

What Redemptioner Must Show.

J. C.

3331. SEC. 236. A redemptioner shall produce to the officer or person from whom he seeks to redeem, and serve with his notice to the Sheriff: First, a copy of the docket of the judgment under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the Clerk of the Court, or of the county where the judgment is docketed; or if he redeem upon a mortgage or other lien, a note of the record thereof certified by the Recorder; second, a copy of an assignment necessary to establish his claim, verified by the affidavit of himself or of subscribing witnesses thereto; and, third, an affidavit by himself, or his agent, showing the amount then actually due on the lien.

Waste Restrained.

3332. SEC. 237. Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property, or may appoint a receiver to take charge of the property, or the proceeds thereof, by order granted with or without notice, on the application of the purchaser or the judgment creditor. But it shall not be deemed waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of sale, or entitled to possession afterwards, during the period allowed for redemption, to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used; or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry; or to make necessary repairs of buildings thereon; or to use wood or timber on the property therefor; or for the repair of fences; or for fuel in his family while he occupies the property.

Rents and Profits, How Disposed Of.

J. C.

3333. SEC. 238. The purchaser from the time of a sale until a redemption, and a redemptioner from the time of his redemption until another redemption, shall be entitled to receive from the tenant in possession, the rents of the property sold, or the value of the use and occupation thereof; provided, that in case the property shall be redeemed as provided in this chapter, the amount of such rents and profits which may have been received by such purchaser or redemptioner, or which said purchaser or redemptioner may have been entitled to claim or receive, unless such claim shall be released to the person claiming such right of redemption, shall be deducted from the amount which said purchaser or redemptioner would be entitled to receive on such redemption.

Sections 238 to 247, inclusive, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 560 of this Act.

Purchaser May Recover from Judgment Creditor, When.

J. C.

3334. SEC. 239. If the purchaser of real property sold on execution, or his successor in interest, or a redemptioner be evicted therefrom in consequence of irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale or of the reversal or discharge of the judgment, he may recover the price paid, with interest, from the judgment creditor. If the purchaser of property at Sheriff's sale, or his successor in interest, fail to recover possession in consequence of irregularity in the proceedings concerning the sale, or because the property sold was not subject to execution and sale, the court having jurisdiction thereof shall, on petition of such party in interest, or his attorney, revive the original judgment for the amount paid by such purchaser at the sale, with interest thereon from the time of payment at the same rate that the original judgment bore, and when so revived, the said judgment shall have the same effect as an original judgment of the said court of that date, and bearing interest as aforesaid, and any other or after acquired property, rents, issues, or profits of the said debtor shall be liable to levy and sale, under execution in satisfaction of such debt; provided, that no property of such debtor bona fide sold upon the filing of such petition, shall be subject to the lien of such judgment; and, provided further, that notice of the filing of such petition shall be made by filing a notice thereof in the office of the Recorder of the county where such property is situated, and that said judgment shall be revived in the name of the original plaintiff or plaintiffs, for the use of said petitioner, the party in interest.

CHAPTER 2—PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE EXECUTION.

Judgment Debtor Must Appear and Answer, When.

J. C.

3335. SEC. 240. When an execution against property of the judgment debtor, or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, issued to the Sheriff of the county where he resides, or if he do not reside in this state, to the Sheriff of the county where the judgment roll is filed, is returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the judgment creditor, at any time after such return is made, shall be entitled to an order from the Judge of the Court requiring such judgment debtor to appear and answer upon oath concerning his property, before such Judge or a referee appointed by him, at a time and place specified in the order; but no judgment debtor shall be required to attend before a Judge or referee out of the county in which he resides, when proceedings are taken under the provisions of this chapter.

Refusal to Apply Property to Judgment.

J. C.

3336. SEC. 241. After the issuing of an execution against property, and upon proof by affidavit of a party or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court or of the Judge thereof, that any judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court, or Judge, may by an order require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and place before such Judge, or a referee appointed by him, to answer concerning the same; and such proceedings may thereupon be had for the application of the property of the judgment debtor towards the satisfaction of the judgment as are provided upon the return of an execution. Instead of the order requiring the attendance of the judgment debtor, the Judge may, upon affidavit of the judgment creditor, his agent, or attorney, if it appear to him that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the Sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him before such Judge. Upon being brought before the Judge, he may be ordered to enter into an undertaking, with sufficient surety, that he will attend from time to time before the Judge, or referee, as shall be directed during the pendency of proceedings, and until the final determination thereof, and will not in the meantime dispose of any portion of his property not exempt from execution. In default of entering into such undertaking, he may be committed to prison.

Judgment Debtor May Pay.

J. C.

3337. SEC. 242. After the issuing of an execution against property, any person indebted to the judgment debtor may pay to the Sheriff the amount of his debt, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the execution, and the Sheriff's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount so paid.

Debtor to Appear and Answer.

J. C.

3338. SEC. 243. After the issuing or return of an execution against property of the judgment debtor, or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, and upon proof by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the Judge, that any person or corporation has property of such judgment debtor, or is indebted to him in an amount exceeding fifty dollars, the Judge may, by an order, require such person or corporation, or any officer or member thereof, to appear at a speci-fed time and place before him, or a referee appointed by him, and answer concerning the same.

The words "in an amount exceeding fifty dollars," are to be deemed omitted in justices' courts. Section 560 of this Act.

Witnesses May Be Compelled.

J. C.

3339. SEC. 244. Witnesses may be required to appear and testify before the Judge, or referee, upon any proceeding under this chapter, in the same manner as upon the trial of an issue.

Property in Hands of Debtor May Be Ordered Applied on Judgment.

3340. SEC. 245. The Judge or referee may order any property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution, in the hands of such debtor or any other person, or due to the judgment debtor, to be applied towards the satisfaction of the judgment, except that the earnings of the debtor not exceeding fifty dollars for his personal services for the calendar month during, or immediately preceding, that in which process has been issued shall not be so applied when it shall be made to satisfactorily appear by the affidavit of the debtor, or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of a family supported wholly or partly by his labor; provided, that when it shall satisfactorily appear by affidavit, or otherwise, that the judgment debtor, or his assignee, has received payment, or payments, on account of such personal earnings during such calendar month then only the difference between the amount of such payment, or payments, and fifty dollars shall be exempt from execution. As amended, Stats. 1881, 121; 1883, 14; 1895, 88; 1897, 22.

Adverse Claim to Judgment Debtor.

J. C.

3341. SEC. 246. If it appears that a person or corporation alleged to have property of the judgment debtor, or indebted to him, claims an interest in the property adverse to him, or denies the debt, the court or Judge may authorize, by an order made to that effect, the judgment creditor to institute an action against such person or corporation for the recovery of such interest or debt; and the court or Judge may, by order, forbid a transfer or other disposition of such interest or debt until an action can be commenced and prosecuted to judgment. Such order may be modified or vacated by the Judge granting the same, or the court in which the action is brought, at any time, upon such terms as may be just.

Penalty for Disobeying Order.

J. C.

3342. SEC. 247. If any person, party, or witness disobey an order of the referee, properly made in the proceedings before him under this chapter, he may be punished by the court or Judge ordering the reference, for a contempt.

1. PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTARY TO EXECUTION—STATUTES CONSTRUED. Only property to which the debtor's title is clear and undisputed can be ordered applied to the satisfaction of the judgment. Hagerman v. Tong Lee, 12 Nev. 331.

DEBT DENIED. If the debt is denied, the only course for the plaintiff is to apply for an order forbidding any transfer or other disposition of the debt, and for an order authorizing the commencement of an action in the proper court for the recovery of the debt as provided in Section 246. Id.

2. GARNISHMENT—RIGHT OF ACTION THEREON—NOT A LIEN. Notice of garnishment served upon a debtor, while giving a right of action against him for money owing to the defendant in the garnishment proceedings, does not constitute a lien upon money with which he may subsequently pay his debts, so as to enable the garnisher to follow the money into the hands of third persons to whom it has been paid. Hulley v. Chedie, 22 Nev. 127.

TITLE VIII.

Actions in Particular Cases.

CHAPTER 1—ACTIONS FOR THE FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES.

Judgment Rendered for Amount Due—Sale Ordered—Execution Issued.

3343. SEC. 248. There shall be but one action for the recovery of any debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage or lien upon real estate or personal property, which action shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In such action, judgment shall be rendered for the amount found due the plaintiff, and the court shall have power, by its decree or judgment, to direct a sale of the incumbered property (or such part thereof as be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs and expenses of the sale, the costs of the suit, and the amount due to the plaintiff. If it shall appear from the Sheriff's return that there is a deficiency of such proceeds and a balance still due to the plaintiff, the judgment shall then be docketed for such balance against the defendant or defendants personally liable for the debt, and shall, from the time of such docketing, be a lien upon the real estate of the judgment debtor, and an execution may thereupon be issued by the Clerk of the Court, in like manner and form as upon other judgments, to collect such balance or deficiency from the property of the judgment debtor.

1. CONSTRUCTION. The section of the Practice Act which declares there shall be but one form of action to foreclose a mortgage does not deprive a mortgagee of his right to sell without action. Bryant v. Carson River Lumbering Co., 3 Nev. 313.

MORTGAGE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Title passes to mortgagee, subject to defeasance upon payment of the debt, and after breach of condition he has the absolute right, after due notice, to sell the property at public or private sale. Id.

The purchaser of personalty sold by a mortgagee gets a perfect and indefeasible title. There is no right of redemption from such purchaser. That right only exists for a reasonable time after breach as against the mortgagee, who has not sold the property. Id.

The fact that the purchaser knows that his vendor is only a mortgagee makes no difference as to the character of title acquired by the purchase. Id.

2. COMMON LAW JUDGMENT IN FORECLOSURE ACTION. In a suit to foreclose a mortgage there may be a good common law judgment for the debt, which cannot be enforced until the equitable remedy against the mortgaged property is exhausted. Weil v. Howard, 4 Nev. 384.

EXECUTION FOR DEFICIENCY IN FORECLOSURE ACTION. Id.

LIEN OF FORECLOSURE JUDGMENT. Id.

PREMATURE ENTRIES IN JUDGMENT DOCKET. Id.

3. FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE. Stipulation as to amount of judgment does not preclude the court from entering the necessary decree to enforce the payment by sale of mortgaged property. Nosler v. Haynes, 2 Nev. 56.

4. RECEIVERS WILL BE APPOINTED where it is necessary to prevent fraud, injustice or loss of security. Hyman v. Kelly, 1 Nev. 179.

5. PRIORITY OF MORTGAGE FOR PURCHASE MONEY. Mortgage for purchase money to be satisfied before mechanic's lien. Virgin v. Brubaker, 4 Nev. 31.

6. MORTGAGE TO SECURE PURCHASE MONEY NOT A VENDOR'S LIEN. A suit to foreclose a mortgage given to secure the purchase money of land, is not a suit for the enforcement of a vendor's lien. Hopper v. Parkinson, 5 Nev. 233.

7. LIEN CLAIMANTS—DECREE. In suit for foreclosure of mortgage, where lien claimants are made parties to the suit, the court should determine in its decree relative rights of plaintiff and the several lien claimants. Johnson v. Badger M. & M. Co., 13 Nev. 331.

8. PERCENTAGE FOR COLLECTING MORTGAGE may be allowed when instrument provides for such allowance, but need not be the full amount mentioned in the mortgage. McLane v. Abrams, 2 Nev. 199; Cox v. Smith, 1 Nev. 161.

See Rickards v. Hutchinson, 18 Nev. 215.

9. MORTGAGE—UNITED STATES HOMESTEAD ACT—EXEMPTION UNDER. U. S. Revised Statutes, Sec. 2296, providing that no lands acquired under the Homestead Act "shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt contracted prior to the issuing of a patent therefor," does not render invalid a voluntary incumbrance by mortgage, placed on said homestead prior to the issuance of a patent therefor. Orr v. Ulyatt, 23 Nev. 134.

10. MORTGAGEE FOR PREEXISTENT DEBT WHEN REGARDED AS BONA FIDE PURCHASER FOR VALUE. Where Howard was indebted to Fair, and executed to him a note for the debt, and a mortgage on certain real estate to secure the same: Held, that Fair, as to the land and mortgage, occupied the position of a bona fide purchaser for value, and that his right would prevail as against the equity of Armstrong, for whom Howard held half the land in trust, the declaration of which trust was, however, not put on record until after the mortgage. Fair v. Howard, 6 Nev. 304.

POSSESSION OF LAND AS NOTICE OF TRUST IN IT—ESTOPPEL. Id.

Surplus Paid Over.

3344. SEC. 249. If there be surplus money remaining after payment of the amount due on the mortgage, lien, or incumbrance, with costs, the court may cause the same to be paid to the person entitled to it, and in the meantime may direct it to be deposited in court.

Sale to Satisfy Debt Due Only.

3345. SEC. 250. If the debt for which the mortgage, lien or incumbrance is held be not all due, so soon as sufficient of the property has been sold to pay the amount due, with costs, the sale shall cease; and afterwards, as often as more becomes due for principal or interest, the court may, on motion, order more to be sold. But if the property cannot be sold in portions without injury to the parties, the whole may be ordered to be sold in the first instance, and the entire debt and costs paid, there being a rebate of interest where such rebate is proper.

CHAPTER 2—ACTIONS FOR NUISANCE, WASTE, AND WILLFUL TRESPASS IN CERTAIN CASES, ON REAL PROPERTY.

Nuisance Defined.

3346. SEC. 251. Anything which is injurious to health, or indecent and offensive to the senses, or an obstruction to the free use of property, so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property, is a nuisance, and the subject of an action. Such action may be brought by any person whose property is injuriously affected, or whose personal enjoyment is lessened by the nuisance; and by the judgment the nuisance may be enjoined or abated, as well as damages recovered.

Action for Waste.

3347. SEC. 252. If a guardian, tenant for life or years, joint tenant, or tenant in common of real property, commit waste thereon, any person aggrieved by the waste may bring an action against him therefor, in which action there may be judgment for treble damages.

Injuring Timber, etc.

Just Value Only Recoverable.

3349. SEC. 254. Nothing in the last section shall authorize the recovery of more than the just value of the timber taken from uncultivated wood land for the repair of a public highway or bridge upon the land, or adjoining it.

Unlawful Entry, Damage For.

3350. SEC. 255. If a person recover damages for a forcible or unlawful entry in or upon, or detention of any building or any uncultivated real property, judgment may be entered for three times the amount at which the actual damages are assessed.

CHAPTER 3—ACTIONS TO DETERMINE CONFLICTING CLAIMS TO REAL PROPERTY, AND OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO ACTIONS CONCERNING REAL ESTATE.

Real Property.

3351. SEC. 256. An action may be brought by any person in possession, by himself or his tenant, of real property, against any person who claims an estate or interest therein adverse to him, for the purpose of determining such adverse claim, estate, or interest.

1. LEGAL TITLE NECESSARY. Before a court of equity will interfere to remove a cloud, they must be satisfied that the party seeking relief has the legal title. If the possession is held adversely, the court may properly refuse to act until the complainant has established his legal title by an action at law. Low v. Staples, 2 Nev. 209.

2. PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 256. The possession of real property is the base upon which an action to quiet title under Section 256 of the Practice Act is founded; but it cannot be said that an admission or proof of the mere fact, which gives the right of action, establishes prima facie the cause of action. Blasdel v. Williams, 9 Nev. 161.

PRIMA FACIE CASE FOR PLAINTIFF.—Burden of Proof—Plaintiff Must Show Adverse Claim. Id.

3. ACTION TO QUIET TITLE—PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 256—POSSESSION, HOW ACQUIRED. Held, that the statute gives the right of action to any person in possession irrespective of the mode by which possession has been acquired. Scorpion S. M. Co. v. Marsano, 10 Nev. 370.

PLEADINGS—BURDEN OF PROOF. In such actions it is not necessary for the plaintiff to set out specifically the character of the adverse claim of defendant: the burden of proof is upon the defendant, if he admits plaintiff's possession, or does not disclaim, to plead and prove a good title in himself. (Blasdel v. Williams, 9 Nev. 161, overruled.) Id.

4. EJECTMENT UNKNOWN. The action of ejectment is unknown to our system. Alford v. Dewin, 1 Nev. 207.

TENANTS IN COMMON may maintain a joint action for possession of real estate under our system. Where parties having a joint right of action bring suit, and pending the litigation sever their interests, the suit will not abate. Id.

Costs Not Recoverable, When.

3352. SEC. 257. If the defendant in such action disclaim in his answer any interest or estate in the property, or suffer judgment to be taken against him without answer, the plaintiff shall not recover costs.

Right Terminated During Action.

3353. SEC. 258. In an action for the recovery of real property, where the plaintiff shows a right to recover at the time the action was commenced, but it appears that his right has terminated during the pendency of the action, the verdict and judgment shall be according to the fact, and the plaintiff may recover damages for withholding the property.

Improvements Allowed as Set-Off.

3354. SEC. 259. When damages are claimed for withholding the property recovered, upon which permanent improvements have been made by a defendant or those under whom he claims, holding under color of title adversely to the claims of the plaintiff, in good faith, the value of such improvements shall be allowed as a set-off against such damages.

May Allow Survey.

3355. SEC. 260. The court in which an action is pending for the recovery of real property may, on motion, upon notice by either party, for good cause shown, grant an order allowing such party the right to enter upon the property and make survey and measurement thereof, for the purposes of the action.

them have an estate of inheritance or for life, or lives, or for years, an action may be brought by one or more of such persons for a partition thereof, according to the respective rights of the persons interested therein, and for a sale of such property or a part of it, if it appear that a partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners.

1. NOT ENTITLED TO PARTITION. Party not entitled to enjoy present rents or possession. Conter v. Herschel, 24 Nev.
2. WHO CAN APPLY FOR RELIEF. It is immaterial when a party in possession files his bill claiming that he is a tenant in common with others, asking for a division of the land, etc., whether he shows that he has a legal title in common with the defendants, or only has an equitable title to the one-half of the land described. In either case he is entitled to substantially the same relief. Crosier v. McLaughlin, 1 Nev. 348.
3. ACCOUNTING. The court will not only proceed to divide the land, but will, in a proper case, direct an accounting, and do equity in the case by making parties account for rents, etc. Dall v. Confidence Co., 3 Nev. 531.

SALE ONLY WHERE PARTITION INJURIOUS. When a bill is filed for a partition of realty, the court should not decree a sale except in those cases where a partition would manifestly be injurious to the interests of the cotenants. Id.

To Be Set Forth in Complaint.

3362. SEC. 267. The interests of all persons in the property, whether such persons be known or unknown, shall be set forth in the complaint specifically and particularly, as far as known to the plaintiff; and if one or more of the parties, or the share or quantity of interest of any of the parties, be unknown to the plaintiff, or be uncertain or contingent, or the ownership of the inheritance depend upon an executory devise, or the remainder be a contingent remainder, so that such parties cannot be named, that fact shall be set forth in the complaint.

Lien, When Not Matter of Record.

3363. SEC. 268. No persons who have or claim any liens upon the property, by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, need be made parties to the action, unless such liens be matters of record.

Notice of Action.

3364. SEC. 269. Immediately after filing the complaint, the plaintiff shall file with the Recorder of the county in which the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties so far as known, the object of the action, and a description of the property to be affected thereby. From the time of the filing it shall be deemed notice to all persons.

Summons, to Whom Directed.

3365. SEC. 270. The summons shall be directed to all the joint tenants and tenants in common, and all persons having any interest in, or any liens of record by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise upon the property, or upon any particular portion thereof; and generally to all persons unknown who have or claim any interest in the property.

Summons by Publication.

3366. SEC. 271. If a party having a share or interest is unknown, or any one of the known parties reside out of the state, or cannot be found therein, and such fact is made to appear by affidavit, the summons may be served on such absent or unknown party by publication, as in other cases. When publication is made, the summons as published shall be accompanied by a brief description of the property which is the subject of the action.

Answer, What to Set Forth.

3367. SEC. 272. The defendants who have been personally served with the summons and a certified copy of the complaint, shall set forth in their answers, fully and particularly, the nature and extent of their interest in the property, and if such defendants claim a lien upon the property by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, they shall state the amount and date of the same, and the amount remaining due thereon, and whether the amount has been secured in any other way or not; and if secured, the extent and nature of the security; or they shall be deemed to have waived their rights to such lien.

All Rights May Be Determined.

3368. SEC. 273. The rights of the several parties, plaintiffs as well as defendants, may be put to issue, tried, and determined by such action; and when a sale of the premises is necessary, the title shall be ascertained by proof to the satisfaction of the court, before the judgment of sale shall be made; and where service of the complaint has been made by publication, like proof shall be required of the right of the absent or unknown parties before such judgment is rendered; except that where there are several unknown persons having an interest in the property, their rights may be considered together in the action, and not as between themselves.

Certificate of Recorder as to Liens.

3369. SEC. 274. The plaintiff shall produce to the court, on the hearing of the case, the certificate of the Recorder of the county where the property is situated, showing whether there were or not any liens outstanding of record upon the property, or any part thereof, at the time of the commencement of the action.

Lien Claimants Made Parties.

3370. SEC. 275. If it shall appear to the court, by the certificate of the County Recorder or County Clerk, or by the sworn or verified statement of any person who may have examined or searched the records that there are outstanding liens or incumbrances of record upon such real property, or any part thereof, which existed and were of record at the time of the commencement of said action, and the persons holding such liens are not made parties to the action, the court shall either order such persons to be made parties to the action, by an amendment or supplemental complaint, or appoint a referee to ascertain whether or not such liens or incumbrances have been paid, or if not paid, what amount remains due thereon, and their order among the liens or incumbrances severally held by the said persons and the parties to said action, and whether the amount remaining due thereon has been secured in any manner, and if secured, the nature and extent of the security.

Notice to Lien Holders.

3371. SEC. 276. The plaintiff shall cause a notice to be served a reasonable time previous to the day for appearance before the referee appointed, as provided in the last section, on each person having outstanding liens of record who is not a party to the action, to appear before the referee at a specified time and place, to make proof, by his own affidavit or otherwise, of the true amount due or to become due, contingently or absolutely thereon. In case such person be absent, or his residence be unknown, service may be made by publication of notice to his agents, under the direction of the court, in such manner as may be proper. The report of the referee thereon shall be made to the court, and shall be confirmed, modified, or set aside and a new reference ordered, as the justice of the case may require.

Sale of Property.

them have an estate of inheritance or for life, or lives, or for years, an action may be brought by one or more of such persons for a partition thereof, according to the respective rights of the persons interested therein, and for a sale of such property or a part of it, if it appear that a partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners.

Lien, When Not Matter of Record.

3363. SEC. 268. No persons who have or claim any liens upon the property, by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, need be made parties to the action, unless such liens be matters of record.

Notice of Action.

3364. SEC. 269. Immediately after filing the complaint, the plaintiff shall file with the Recorder of the county in which the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties so far as known, the object of the action, and a description of the property to be affected thereby. From the time of the filing it shall be deemed notice to all persons.

Summons, to Whom Directed.

3365. SEC. 270. The summons shall be directed to all the joint tenants and tenants in common, and all persons having any interest in, or any liens of record by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise upon the property, or upon any particular portion thereof; and generally to all persons unknown who have or claim any interest in the property.

Summons by Publication.

3366. SEC. 271. If a party having a share or interest is unknown, or any one of the known parties reside out of the state, or cannot be found therein, and such fact is made to appear by affidavit, the summons may be served on such absent or unknown party by publication, as in other cases. When publication is made, the summons as published shall be accompanied by a brief description of the property which is the subject of the action.

Answer, What to Set Forth.

3367. SEC. 272. The defendants who have been personally served with the summons and a certified copy of the complaint, shall set forth in their answers, fully and particularly, the nature and extent of their interest in the property, and if such defendants claim a lien upon the property by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, they shall state the amount and date of the same, and the amount remaining due thereon, and whether the amount has been secured in any other way or not; and if secured, the extent and nature of the security; or they shall be deemed to have waived their rights to such lien.

All Rights May Be Determined.

3368. SEC. 273. The rights of the several parties, plaintiffs as well as defendants, may be put to issue, tried, and determined by such action; and when a sale of the premises is necessary, the title shall be ascertained by proof to the satisfaction of the court, before the judgment of sale shall be made; and where service of the complaint has been made by publication, like proof shall be required of the right of the absent or unknown parties before such judgment is rendered; except that where there are several unknown persons having an interest in the property, their rights may be considered together in the action, and not as between themselves.

Certificate of Recorder as to Liens.

3369. SEC. 274. The plaintiff shall produce to the court, on the hearing of the case, the certificate of the Recorder of the county where the property is situated, showing whether there were or not any liens outstanding of record upon the property, or any part thereof, at the time of the commencement of the action.

Lien Claimants Made Parties.

3370. SEC. 275. If it shall appear to the court, by the certificate of the County Recorder or County Clerk, or by the sworn or verified statement of any person who may have examined or searched the records that there are outstanding liens or incumbrances of record upon such real property, or any part thereof, which existed and were of record at the time of the commencement of said action, and the persons holding such liens are not made parties to the action, the court shall either order such persons to be made parties to the action, by an amendment or supplemental complaint, or appoint a referee to ascertain whether or not such liens or incumbrances have been paid, or if not paid, what amount remains due thereon, and their order among the liens or incumbrances severally held by the said persons and the parties to said action, and whether the amount remaining due thereon has been secured in any manner, and if secured, the nature and extent of the security.

Notice to Lien Holders.

3371. SEC. 276. The plaintiff shall cause a notice to be served a reasonable time previous to the day for appearance before the referee appointed, as provided in the last section, on each person having outstanding liens of record who is not a party to the action, to appear before the referee at a specified time and place, to make proof, by his own affidavit or otherwise, of the true amount due or to become due, contingently or absolutely thereon. In case such person be absent, or his residence be unknown, service may be made by publication of notice to his agents, under the direction of the court, in such manner as may be proper. The report of the referee thereon shall be made to the court, and shall be confirmed, modified, or set aside and a new reference ordered, as the justice of the case may require.

Sale of Property.

the portion to remain undivided for the owners whose interests remain unknown, or are not ascertained.

PARTITION OF LANDS, HOW MADE. The district court can order a partition to be made, but cannot itself make the partition except in the indirect mode of confirming the report of the referees appointed for the purpose of carrying out the order of partition. Dondero v. Van Sickle, 11 Nev. 389.

IDEM. When the court decides in favor of a partition being made, it should appoint referees and direct them to divide and mark out the land, including the improvements into parcels of equal value, instead of making the divisions into parcels of equal area. Id.

SEVERANCE OF IMPROVEMENTS NOT AUTHORIZED—Personal Property—Partition Erroneous. Id.

Partition, How Made.

3373. SEC. 278. In making the partition, the referee shall divide the property and allot the several portions thereof to the respective parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights of the parties, as determined by the court, designating the several portions by proper landmarks; and may employ a surveyor, with the necessary assistants, to aid them therein.

Report of Referees.

3374. SEC. 279. The referees shall make a report of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner of executing their trust, describing the property divided and the shares allotted to each party, with a particular description of each share.

Judgment, Effect Of.

3375. SEC. 280. The court may confirm or set aside the report, and, if necessary, appoint new referees. Upon the report being confirmed, judgment shall be rendered that such partition be effectual forever, which judgment shall be binding and conclusive: First—On all persons named as parties to the action, and their legal representatives, who have at the time any interest in the property divided, or any part thereof, as owners in fee, or as tenants for life, or for years, or as entitled to the reversion, remainder, or the inheritance of such property, or of any part thereof, after the termination of a particular estate therein, and who, by any contingency, may be entitled to a beneficial interest in the property, or who have an interest in any undivided share thereof as tenants for years, or for life. Second—On all persons interested in the property who may be unknown, to whom notice shall have been given of the action for partition by publication; and, Third—On all other persons claiming from such parties or persons, or either of them.

Tenants Not Affected.

3376. SEC. 281. But such judgment and partition shall not affect tenants for years less than ten, to the whole of the property which is the subject of the partition.

Expenses of Referees.

3377. SEC. 282. The expenses of the referees, including those of a surveyor and his assistant, when employed, shall be ascertained and allowed by the court, and the amount thereof, together with the fees allowed by law to the referees, shall be apportioned among the different parties to the action.

Lien on Individual Interest.

3378. SEC. 283. When a lien is on an undivided interest or estate of any of the parties, such lien, if a partition be made, shall thenceforth be a charge only on the share assigned to such party, but such share shall be first charged with its just proportion of the costs of the partition, in preference to such lien.

For Life or Years.

3379. SEC. 284. When a part of the property only is ordered to be sold, if there be an estate for life or years in an undivided share of the whole property, such estate may be set off in any part of the property not ordered to be sold.

Proceeds of Sale of Incumbered Property, How Applied.

3380. SEC. 285. The proceeds of the sale of the incumbered property shall be applied, under the direction of the court, as follows: First—To pay its just proportion of the general costs of the action. Second—To pay the costs of the reference. Third—To satisfy and cancel of record the several liens in their order of priority, by payment of the sums due and to become due; the amount due to be verified by affidavit at the time of payment. Fourth—The residue among the owners of the property sold, according to their respective shares therein.

Lien Claimant Holding Other Securities.

3381. SEC. 286. Whenever any party to an action who holds a lien upon the property, or any part thereof, has other securities for the payment of the amount of such lien, the court may, in its discretion, order such securities to be exhausted before a distribution of the proceeds of sale, or may order a just deduction to be made from the amount of the lien on the property on account thereof.

Proceeds, How Distributed.

3382. SEC. 287. The proceeds of sale, and the securities taken by the referees, or any part thereof, shall be distributed by them to the persons entitled thereto, whenever the court so directs. But in case no direction be given, all such proceeds and securities shall be paid into court, or deposited therein, or as directed by the court.

Conflicting Claims.

3383. SEC. 288. When the proceeds of sales of any shares or parcels belonging to persons who are parties to the action, and who are known, are paid into court, the action may be continued as between such parties, for the determination of their respective claims thereto, which shall be ascertained and adjudged by the court. Further testimony may be taken in court, or by a referee at the discretion of the court, and the court may, if necessary, require such parties to present the facts or law in controversy, by pleadings, as in an original action.

Sales, How Made.

3384. SEC. 289. All sales of real property, made by referees under this chapter, shall be made by public auction to the highest bidder, upon notice published in the manner required for the sale of real property on execution. The notice shall state terms of sale, and if the property or any part of it is to be sold subject to a prior estate, charge, or lien, that shall be stated in the notice.

Court May Direct Terms of Credit, etc.

3385. SEC. 290. The court shall, in the order for sale, direct the terms of credit which may be allowed for the purchase money of any portion of the premises of which it may direct a sale on credit, and for that portion of which the purchase money is required, by the provisions hereinafter contained, to be invested for the benefit of unknown owners, infants, or parties out of the state.

Mortgages May Be Taken.

3386. SEC. 291. The referees may take separate mortgages and other securities for the whole or convenient portions of the purchase money, of such parts of the property as are directed by the court to be sold on credit, for the shares of any known owner of full age, in the name of such owner, and for the shares of an infant, in the name of the guardian of such infant, and for other shares, in the name of the Clerk of the county and his successors in office.

Satisfaction for Leasehold Estate.

3387. SEC. 292. The person entitled to a tenancy for life or years, whose estate shall have been sold, shall be entitled to receive such sum as may be deemed a reasonable satisfaction for such estate, and which the person so entitled may consent to accept instead thereof, by an instrument in writing, filed with the Clerk of the Court. Upon the filing of such consent, the Clerk shall enter the same in the minutes of the court.

Court to Determine Amount of Satisfaction.

3388. SEC. 293. If such consent be not given, filed and entered, as provided in the last section, at or before a judgment of sale is rendered, the court shall ascertain and determine what proportion of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting expenses, will be a just and reasonable sum to be allowed on account of such estate, and shall order the same to be paid to such party, or deposited in court for him, as the case may require.

Lessee Unknown.

3389. SEC. 294. If the person entitled to such estate for life or years be unknown, the court shall provide for the protection of their rights in the same manner, as far as may be, as if they were known and had appeared.

Future Right to Be Preserved.

3390. SEC. 295. In all cases of sales, when it appears that any person has a vested or contingent future right or estate in any of the property sold, the court shall ascertain and settle the proportional value of such contingent or vested right or estate, and shall direct such proportion of the sale to be invested, secured, or paid over, in such manner as to protect the rights and interests of the parties.

Terms and Manner of Sale.

3391. SEC. 296. In all cases of sales of property, the terms shall be made known at the time; and if the premises consist of distinct farms or lots, they shall be sold separately.

Referee Not to Be Interested.

3392. SEC. 297. Neither of the referees, nor any person for the benefit of either of them, shall be interested in any purchase; nor shall a guardian of an infant party be interested in the purchase of any real property, being the subject of the action, except for the benefit of the infant. All sales contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void.

Report of Sale.

3393. SEC. 298. After completing a sale of the property, or any part thereof ordered to be sold, the referee shall report the same to the court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or secured, the terms and conditions of the sale, and the securities, if any taken. The report shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the county where the property is situated.

Conveyance.

3394. SEC. 299. If the sale be confirmed by the court, an order shall be entered directing the referees to execute conveyances and take securities pursuant to such sale, which they are hereby authorized to do. Such order may also give directions to them respecting the disposition of the proceeds of the sale.

When Purchaser Entitled to Share of Proceeds.

3395. SEC. 300. When a party entitled to a share of the property, or an incumbrancer entitled to have his lien paid out of the sale, becomes a purchaser, the referees may take his receipt for so much of the proceeds of the sale as belongs to him.

Conveyance Recorded.

3396. SEC. 301. The conveyances shall be recorded in the county where the premises are situated, and shall be a bar against all persons interested in the property in any way, who shall have been named as parties in the action, and against all such parties and persons as were unknown if the summons have been served by publication, and against all persons claiming from them or either of them.

Proceeds Belonging to Unknown Owners.

3397. SEC. 302. When there are proceeds of a sale belonging to an unknown owner, or to a person without the state, who has no legal representative within it, the same shall be vested in securities or interest for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto.

Security to Be in Name of Clerk.

3398. SEC. 303. When the security of the proceeds of the sale is taken, or when an investment of any such proceeds is made, it shall be done, except as herein otherwise provided, in the name of the Clerk of the county where the papers are filed, and his successors in office, who shall hold the same for the use and benefit of the parties interested, subject to the order of the court.

Security to Be Delivered to Whom.

3399. SEC. 304. When security is taken by the referees on a sale, and the parties interested in such security, by an instrument in writing under their hands delivered to the referees, agree upon the shares and proportions to which they are respectively entitled; or when shares and proportions have been previously adjudged by the court, such securities shall be taken in the names of, and payable to, the parties respectively entitled thereto, and shall be delivered to such parties upon their receipt therefor. Such agreement and receipt shall be returned and filed with the Clerk.

Security in Name of Clerk.

3400. SEC. 305. The Clerk in whose name a security is taken, or by whom an investment is made, and his successors in office, shall receive the interest and principal as it becomes due, and apply and invest the same as the court may direct, and shall file in his office all securities taken, and keep an account in a book provided and kept for that purpose in the Clerk's office, free for inspection by all persons, of investments and moneys received by him thereon, and the disposition thereof.

Compensation to Equalize.

3401. SEC. 306. When it appears that partition cannot be made equal between the parties, according to their respective rights, without prejudice to the rights and interest of some of them, and a partition be ordered by judgment, the court may adjudge compensation to be made by one party to another, on account of the inequality of partition. But such compensation shall not be required to be made to others by owners unknown, nor by infants, unless in case of an infant it appear that he has personal property sufficient for that purpose, and that his interests will be promoted thereby.

Share of Infant Paid to Guardian.

3402. SEC. 307. When the share of an infant is sold, the proceeds of the sale may be paid by the referee making the sale to his general guardian or the special guardian appointed for him in the action, upon giving the security required by law or directed by order of the court.

Share of Insane Persons to Be Received by Guardian.

3403. SEC. 308. The guardian who may be entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, whose interest in real property shall have been sold, may receive, in behalf of such person, his share of the proceeds of such real property, from the referee, on executing with sufficient sureties an undertaking approved by a Judge of the court, that he will faithfully discharge the trust imposed in him, and will render a true and just account to the person entitled, or to his legal representatives.

Consented to by Guardian.

3404. SEC. 309. The general guardian of an infant and the guardian entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, who is interested in real estate held in joint tenancy, or in common, or in any other manner so as to authorize his being made a party to an action for the partition thereof, may consent to a partition without action, and agree upon the share to be set off to such infant or other person entitled, and may execute a release in his behalf to the owners of the shares of the parts to which they may be respectively entitled, upon an order of the court.

Costs of Partition.

3405. SEC. 310. The costs of partition, including fees of referees and other disbursements, shall be paid by the parties respectively entitled to share in the lands divided, in proportion to their respective interests therein, and may be included and specified in the judgment. In that case there shall be a lien on the several shares, and the judgment may be enforced by execution against such shares, and against other property held by the respective parties. When, however, a litigation arises between some of the parties only, the court may require the expenses of such litigation to be paid by the parties thereto, or any of them.

Single Referee.

3406. SEC. 311. The court, with the consent of the parties, may appoint a single referee, instead of three referees, in the proceedings under the provisions of this chapter, and the single referee, when thus appointed, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties required of the three referees.

Mining Claim.

3407. SEC. 312. When the action is for partition of a mining claim among the tenants in common, joint tenants, coparceners or partners thereof, the court, upon good cause shown by any party or parties in interest, may, instead of ordering partition to be made in manner as hereinbefore provided, or a sale of the premises for cash, direct the referees to divide the claim in the manner herein-after specified.

SALE OF MINING CLAIM INJURIOUS. Under our statute, if any one or more of the cotenants files an affidavit showing that a sale of an entire mining claim would be injurious to him or them, the court must proceed to divide the claim as prescribed by statute. A sworn answer setting up the same matter is equivalent to the affidavit required by the statute. Dall v. Confidence Co., 3 Nev. 531.

Order of Court.

3408. SEC. 313. The court shall, in its order, or by a subsequent order made upon motion, fix the time for division of the claim by the referees, which shall not be less than twenty nor more than forty days from the day of making the order, except by consent of all the parties in interest who have appeared in the action.

To Go on Claim.

3409. SEC. 314. On the day designated in the order, the referees shall go upon the claim to be divided, and proceed to make division of the same as hereinafter provided, and shall continue from day to day until the whole business is completed.

Parties May Unite.

3410. SEC. 315. Two or more of the tenants in common, joint tenants, copartners or parceners, may unite together for the purposes of such division, of which they shall give the referees written notice before they commence the business of division; and all who do not unite as aforesaid, or give notice of separate action, shall, for the purposes of division, be deemed and held to have united. The referees in their action shall recognize those named in the order of the court, or their agents and attorneys in fact, duly appointed by instrument in writing under seal, and acknowledged as in cases of conveyances of real estate, the guardian of an infant, and the guardian entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, and as to the interest of each, shall be controlled entirely by the order of the court.

Portions Sold at Auction.

3411. SEC. 316. At the time and place of division, one of the referees to be selected by them shall, in the manner of public auction, offer to the party or parties who will take the least part or portion of said mining claim in proportion to the interest he or they may have therein, the privilege of first selecting the place at which his portion shall be located, and upon closing the bids the referees shall proceed to measure and mark off, by distinct metes and bounds, to the lowest bidder, his or their portion of said mining claim, at the place designated by them or him, according to the terms of his or their bid.

Next Lowest Bidder.

3412. SEC. 317. When the referees have marked off and set apart the interest of the lowest bidder, as provided in the last section, they shall offer to the remaining parties the privilege of selection as in said section mentioned and described, and shall, upon closing the bids, proceed in the same manner to locate and mark off the portion of the lowest bidder, and shall thereafter continue in the same manner to receive bids and mark off the interest of the bidder or bidders until there shall remain but one party in interest, or parties united, forming one interest, as provided in section three hundred and fifteen.

Parties Remaining.

3413. SEC. 318. The party or parties remaining as provided in the last section, shall become the owner or owners, as the case may be, of the entire claim not marked off and set apart to other parties as hereinbefore provided, in proportion to their respective interests in the claim.

Report of Referee.

3414. SEC. 319. The referees shall return with their report in this Act required to be made by them, the evidences of authority presented to them by persons other than the parties mentioned in the order of the court by which they claim the right to bid, or otherwise act, during the proceedings hereinbefore mentioned.

CHAPTER 5—ACTIONS FOR THE USURPATION OF AN OFFICE OR FRANCHISE.

Usurpation of Office.

Complaint.

3416. SEC. 321. Whenever such action is brought, the Attorney-General, in addition to the statement of the cause of action, may also set forth in the complaint the name of the person rightly entitled to the office, with a statement of his right thereto; and in such case, upon proof by affidavit that the defendant has received fees or emoluments belonging to the office, and by means of his usurpation thereof, an order may be granted by a Judge of the Supreme Court or a District Judge, for the arrest of such defendant, and holding him to bail; and thereupon he may be arrested and held to bail, in the same manner and with the same effect, and subject to the same rights and liabilities as in other civil actions where the defendant is subject to arrest.

Judgment.

3417. SEC. 322. In every such case judgment may be rendered upon the right of the defendant, and also upon the right of the party so alleged to be entitled; or only upon the right of the defendant, as justice shall require.

May Take Office.

3418. SEC. 323. If the judgment be rendered upon the right of the person so alleged to be entitled, and the same be in favor of such person, he shall be entitled, after taking the oath of office and executing such official bond as may be required by law, to take upon himself the execution of the office.

Damages.

3419. SEC. 324. If judgment be rendered upon the right of the person so alleged to be entitled, in favor of such person, he may recover by action the damages which he shall have sustained by reason of the usurpation of the office by the defendant.

One Action May Be Brought Against Several.

3420. SEC. 325. When several persons claim to be entitled to the same office or franchise, one action may be brought against all such persons, in order to try their respective rights to such office or franchise.

Judgment Against Defendant.

3421. SEC. 326. When a defendant, against whom such action has been brought, is adjudged guilty of usurping, or intruding into, or unlawfully holding any office, franchise, or privilege, judgment shall be rendered that such defendant be excluded from the office, franchise, or privilege, and that he pay the costs of the action. The court may, also, in its discretion, impose upon the defendant a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, which fine, when collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the state.

See Quo Warranto, Sec. 3783, et seq. McMillan v. Sadler, 25 Nev.

TITLE IX.*Of Appeals in Civil Actions.CHAPTER 1—APPEALS IN GENERAL.*How Reviewed.

3422. SEC. 327. A judgment or order in a civil action, except when expressly made final by this Act, may be reviewed as prescribed by this title, and not otherwise.

See, also, Secs. 3857-3861, and Sec. 3864.

1. STATUTE MUST BE FOLLOWED. Marx v. Lewis, 24 Nev.

2. ELECTION CONTEST—NEW TRIALS AND APPEALS. New trials and appeals in contested election cases are regulated by the Civil Practice Act. Lynip v. Buckner, 22 Nev. 426.

3. APPEAL DISMISSED BY APPELLATE COURT—When. Union Ditch Co. v. Leete, 24 Nev.

Order May Be Vacated.

3423. SEC. 328. An order made out of court, without notice to the adverse party, may be vacated or modified without notice, by the Judge who made it, or may be vacated or modified on notice, in the manner in which other motions are made.

Appellant and Respondent.

3424. SEC. 329. Any party aggrieved may appeal in the cases prescribed in this title. The party appealing shall be known as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent.

From What Appeal May Be Taken.

3425. SEC. 330. An appeal may be taken: First—From a final judgment in an action, or special proceedings commenced in the court in which the judgment is rendered, within one year after the rendition of judgment. Second—From a judgment rendered on an appeal from an inferior court, within ninety days after the rendition of the judgment. Third—From an order granting or refusing a new trial, from an order granting or dissolving an injunction, and from an order refusing to grant or dissolve an injunction, from an order dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment, and from any special order made after the final judgment, within sixty days after the order is made and entered in the minutes of the court. Fourth—From an interlocutory judgment or order in cases of partition which determines the right of the several parties, and directs partition sale, or division to be made, within sixty days after the rendition of the same. As amended, Stats. 1887, 92.

1. APPEAL TAKEN BEFORE FINAL JUDGMENT RENDERED WILL BE DISMISSED. Elko-Tuscora M. Co. v. Wines, 24 Nev.
 2. APPEAL DISMISSED WHEN NOT TAKEN IN TIME. If an appeal from the judgment be not taken within one year it will be dismissed. Solomon v. Fuller, 13 Nev. 276.
 3. APPEAL FROM ORDERS AFTER FINAL JUDGMENT. An appeal from a special order made after final judgment must be taken within sixty days after the order is made. Weinrich v. Porteous, 12 Nev. 102.
 4. TIME. Where the notice of appeal is filed one day before the expiration of the time limited for taking an appeal, but the undertaking is not filed until three days after the expiration of that time, but within five days after the filing of the notice of appeal: Held, that the appeal was taken within the year allowed by statute. Peran v. Monroe, 1 Nev. 484.
 5. APPEAL—TIME OF TAKING. If an appeal lies from an order refusing to open a default, under the provisions of Section 330 of the Civil Practice Act, it must be taken within sixty days or the right of appeal therefrom is lost. Reinhart v. Co. D, 23 Nev. 369.
 6. APPEAL—WHEN IT MAY BE TAKEN. Section 330 of the Civil Practice Act authorizes an appeal to be taken from a final judgment in an action or special proceeding. Kehoe v. Blethen, 10 Nev. 446.
- JUDGMENT—WHEN FINAL. A judgment, when pronounced by the court, is as final as when it is entered and recorded by the Clerk, as required by statute.
- See Judgment in General, Title VI.
7. APPEAL FROM ORDER REFUSING TO SET ASIDE JUDGMENT. The propriety of an order refusing to set aside a judgment cannot be considered, if such order be not appealed from within the time prescribed by the statute. Winter v. Winter, 8 Nev. 129.
 8. PRACTICE—ORDER CHANGING VENUE NOT APPEALABLE. An order changing the place of trial is not appealable, but is properly brought before the court on an appeal from the judgment as an intermediate order involving the merits and necessarily affecting the judgment. State v. Shaw, 21 Nev. 222.

Appeal, How Made.

3426. SEC. 331. The appeal shall be made by filing with the Clerk of the Court with whom the judgment or order appealed from is entered, a notice, stating the appeal from the same, or some specific part thereof, and serving a copy of the notice upon the adverse party or his attorney.

When defendant resides out of state, see Sec. 3861; see, also, Sec. 3859.

1. HOW TAKEN. In order to take and perfect an appeal, the appellant should first file his notice of appeal, next serve it, and, within five days of the filing of the notice, file an undertaking on appeal. Reese M. Co. v. Rye Patch M. Co., 15 Nev. 341; State v. Alta M. Co., 24 Nev.; Spafford v. White River L. & L. Co., 24 Nev.
2. NOTICE OF APPEAL. The notice should state that appellants do appeal, not that they will appeal. Simpson v. Ogg, 18 Nev. 28.
3. NOTICE OF APPEAL—CANNOT BE WAIVED. Marx v. Lewis, 24 Nev.
4. NOTICE OF APPEAL given orally to respondents, even if given in open court and entered on the minutes of the court, is not sufficient to make an appeal and dispense with the filing of a written notice. Lambert v. Moore, 1 Nev. 344.

The filing and serving of a written notice of appeal must be followed by the filing of a proper undertaking, or the deposit in lieu thereof, within five days, or the notice becomes inoperative and a nullity. Id.

5. ADVERSE PARTY—Service Upon. Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.

6. NOTICE OF APPEAL MUST BE FILED BEFORE COPY SERVED. To render an appeal effectual the filing of the notice of appeal must precede or be contemporaneous with the service of the copy; otherwise that which purports to be a copy fails as such for want of an original to support it. Lyon Co. v. Washoe Co., 8 Nev. 177; Brooks v. Nev. Nickel Syndicate, 24 Nev.; Nat. Nickel Co. v. Nev. Nickel Syndicate, 24 Nev.; Spafford v. White River L. & L. Co., 24 Nev.
7. NOTICE OF APPEAL AND UNDERTAKING ON APPEAL—WHEN MUST BE FILED. In construing Sections 331 and 348 of the Civil Practice Act: Held, that a copy of the notice of appeal, as filed, must be served before or at the time of filing the undertaking on appeal. Johnson v. Badger M. & M. Co., 12 Nev. 261.
8. SERVICE OF NOTICE OF APPEAL. Where a copy of the notice of appeal was served on the attorneys for defendant at a certain time and place by "exhibiting to them personally the said copy and by leaving the same in a conspicuous place in their office": Held, a substantial compliance with the statute. Clark v. Strouse, 11 Nev. 76.
9. NOTICE OF APPEAL—Sufficient, When. Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.
10. NOTICE OF APPEAL. Where the notice of appeal properly describes the judgment from which the appeal is taken, the addition of other words indicating that the appeal is taken from the order dismissing the action, on which order the judgment is founded, should be treated as surplusage, and they do not invalidate the appeal. Nev. Cent. R. Co. v. Dist. Court, 21 Nev. 410.

Statement on Appeal.

See Secs. 3860 and 3864.

1. STATEMENT NOT INDISPENSABLE. This court has never held it indispensable that a statement should be made in the court below of the grounds relied on upon appeal. Gillig v. Lake Bigler Road Co., 2 Nev. 214.
2. STATEMENT NOT NECESSARY. In appeals from orders granting or refusing a new trial, a statement on appeal is not necessary. Gregory v. Frothingham, 1 Nev. 253; Johnson v. Wells, Fargo & Co., 6 Nev. 224; Bryant v. Carson River L. Co., 3 Nev. 313.
This court, without such statement, will consider "the statement on motion for new trial the pleadings, depositions, documentary evidence on file, and minutes of the court." Id.
3. STATEMENT. When there is a statement on motion for a new trial, there need be none on appeal. O'Neale v. Cleveland, 3 Nev. 486.
4. IN ABSENCE OF STATEMENT, OR BILL OF EXCEPTIONS, JUDGMENT ROLL ONLY CONSIDERED. Peers v. Reed, 23 Nev. 404.
5. STATEMENT. When there is a statement on appeal from the judgment, and subsequently a statement on appeal from an order overruling a motion for a new trial, each statement must be considered separately, and portions of one cannot be taken to aid the other. Whitmore v. Shiverick, 3 Nev. 288.
It would be error to grant a new trial where there is no affidavit and no statement in support of the motion for that object. Id.
A statement on appeal must be made within twenty days after judgment, and if a sufficient statement be not made within that time, it cannot be subsequently made. Id.
6. ASSIGNMENT OF ERRORS IN STATEMENT ON APPEAL. A statement on appeal must contain a specific statement of the particular errors or grounds relied on. Corbett v. Joh. 5 Nev. 201; Meadow Valley M. Co. v. Dodds, 6 Nev. 261; Gillig v. Lake Bigler R. Co., 2 Nev. 214; Earles v. Gilham, 20 Nev. 49.

See Hoopes v. Meyer, 1 Nev. 433.

7. PRESUMPTION IN FAVOR OF REGULARITY OF PROCEEDINGS. Error complained of must affirmatively appear. Champion v. Sessions, 2 Nev. 271; Lady Bryan G. & S. M. Co. v. Lady Bryan M. Co., 4 Nev. 414; Roney v. Buckland, 5 Nev. 219; Sherman v. Shaw, 9 Nev. 148; Boynton v. Longley, 19 Nev. 69.
8. ORAL EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE to show error in proceedings of lower court. Ex Parte Smith, 2 Nev. 338.
9. STATEMENT—Jurisdiction of Court to Settle Exceptions Taken, etc., Discussed. Lobdell v. Hall, 3 Nev. 507; Hoppin v. Cheney, 24 Nev.
10. STATEMENT—Motion to Strike Out Must Be Made in Court Below. Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109.
- FINDINGS NOT IN STATEMENT STRICKEN OUT. Findings not included in the statement on motion for new trial will, upon motion, be stricken from the record on appeal. The fact that they are identified by the Judge of the District Court as having been used upon the hearing of the motion, does not alter this rule. Id.
11. STATEMENT—Must Comply With Statutory Requirements, or Cannot Be Considered. Barnes v. Meyer, 16 Nev. 91.
12. STATEMENT ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL—WHEN NOT A STATEMENT ON APPEAL. In construing the provisions of the Civil Practice Act (Secs. 197, 332, 333, 335-6): Held, that when an appeal is only taken from the judgment, a statement that had been prepared and used as a statement on motion for a new trial cannot be considered as a statement on appeal. Williams v. Rice, 13 Nev. 234; Nesbitt v. Chisholm, 16 Nev. 39; see Robinson v. Benson, 19 Nev. 331.
13. STATEMENT ON NEW TRIAL AND ON APPEAL—Considered Good. Elder v. Frevert, 18 Nev. 278.
14. APPEAL—STATEMENT—SETTLEMENT OF—APPEAL PERFECTED BEFORE STATEMENT FILED. A party having the right to appeal, may, within twenty days after the entry of the judgment or order, file his statement upon appeal and have it settled by the Judge, and, within the time limited, jurisdiction of the case for that purpose is retained by the district court, even though the appeal be perfected before such a statement is prepared. James v. Lepore, 19 Nev. 174; Patchen v. Keeley, 19 Nev. 404. Contra, Thomas v. Sullivan, 11 Nev. 280; Lamburth v. Dalton, 9 Nev. 64.

Waiver of Statement.

3428. SEC. 333. If the party shall omit to make a statement within the time limited, he shall be deemed to have waived his right thereto; and when a statement is made and the parties shall omit within the several times above limited, the one party to propose amendments, the other to notify an appearance before a Judge or referee, they shall respectively be deemed, the former to have agreed to the statement as prepared, and the latter to have agreed to the amendments as proposed; but the Judge or referee who tried or heard the case shall, notwithstanding such omission or implied agreement, have power to correct any misstatement of his rulings which such statement may contain.

WAIVER OF WAIVER—Time to Make Statement on Appeal. Johnson v. W. F. & Co., 6 Nev. 224.

Time Enlarged, When.

3429. SEC. 334. The several periods of time above limited may be enlarged, upon good cause shown, by the Judge before whom the cause was tried.

Statement, How Certified and Filed.

3430. SEC. 335. The statement, when settled by the Judge or referee, shall be signed by him, with his certificate that the same has been allowed and is correct. When the statement is agreed upon by the parties, they or their attorneys shall sign the same, with their certificate that it has been agreed upon by them and is correct. In either case, when settled or agreed upon, it shall be filed with the Clerk.

1. VERIFICATION OF TRANSCRIPT AND STATEMENT. A stipulation that "the foregoing transcript on appeal is correct, and shall be the transcript in this case on appeal," signed by the respective counsel, applies to the verification of the transcript under the provisions of Section 340 of the Practice Act, and not to a statement on appeal as required by Section 332. Irwin v. Samson, 10 Nev. 282.

2. AUTHENTICATION OF STATEMENT. A statement of a case on appeal must be settled and authenticated by the Judge or referee hearing the case, or by agreement of the parties under Secs. 332, 333, and 335, Civil Practice Act; and unless so authenticated thirty days prior to the commencement of a term of the supreme court, the appellant is not in default for failure to file a transcript by the first day of the term, though the statement may have been on file with the Clerk of the trial court for a longer time, and no amendments proposed thereto. Hayes v. Davis, 23 Nev. 233.

APPEAL IRREGULARLY DISMISSED. An appeal found to have been irregularly dismissed, will be reinstated upon motion. Id.

Statement and Judgment Roll.

3431. SEC. 336. A copy of the statement shall be annexed to a copy of the judgment roll, if the appeal be from the judgment; if the appeal be from an order, to a copy of such order.

APPEAL FROM JUDGMENT MUST CONTAIN JUDGMENT ROLL. Where the appeal is taken from the judgment the statement on appeal must be annexed to the judgment roll, as provided in Section 336 of the Practice Act. Irwin v. Samson, 10 Nev. 282.

APPEAL DISMISSED FOR WANT OF STATEMENT. Where there is no statement on appeal no proper assignment of errors, and no judgment roll, the appeal must be dismissed. Id.

Appeals on Affidavit.

3432. SEC. 337. The provisions of the last five preceding sections shall not apply to appeals taken from an order made upon affidavit filed, but such affidavit shall be annexed to the order, in the place of the statement mentioned in these sections.

What May Be Reviewed on Appeal.

3433. SEC. 338. Upon an appeal from a judgment, the court may review any intermediate order involving the merits and necessarily affecting the judgment.

Power of Appellate Court.

3434. SEC. 339. Upon an appeal from a judgment or order, the appellate court may reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment or order appealed from, in the respect mentioned in the notice of appeal, and as to any or all of the parties; and may set aside, or confirm, or modify, any or all of the proceedings subsequent to or dependent upon such judgment or order, and may, if necessary or proper, order a new trial. When the judgment or order is reversed or modified, the appellate court may make complete restitution of all property and rights lost by erroneous judgment or order, and when it appears to the appellate court that the appeal was made for delay, it may add to the costs such damages as may be just.

1. WHO MAY APPEAL—Party of Record. Virgin v. Brubaker, 4 Nev. 31.

IF A JUDGMENT IMPOSES COSTS upon a person, he is entitled to a hearing on an appeal from it. Id.

2. NOT REVERSIBLE. A court of appellate jurisdiction cannot reverse a judgment produced by the voluntary act of a party. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.

An appeal will not lie from a judgment by default. Id.

But see Kidd v. Four-Twenty M. Co., 3 Nev. 381.

3. WHAT COURT WILL NOT REVIEW. The cost bill is no part of the judgment roll, and where there is no statement or bill of exceptions we cannot pass on its correctness. On a mere appeal from a judgment we cannot review any error which might occur in refusing to sustain a motion made, after the appeal was perfected, to strike out the cost bill. Howard v. Richards, 2 Nev. 128.

Discussed at Length. Id.

4. JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT ON APPEAL FROM JUSTICE FINAL. The appellate jurisdiction of the district court on appeal from a justice's court is final (Const., Art. VI, Sec. 6, and no appeal lies from its action as such appellate court. Leonard v. Peacock, 4 Nev. 157.

See Dickson v. Corbett, 10 Nev. 439 (Mechanic's Lien).

5. ORDER, NOT A COURT PROCEEDING, NOT APPEALABLE. Lyon Co. v. Esmeralda Co., 18 Nev. 166.

6. ORDER MADE BY REFEREE NOT APPEALABLE. Hamilton v. Kneeland, 1 Nev. 40.
7. ORDER REQUIRING BOND OR APPOINTING RECEIVER NOT APPEALABLE. The statute (Practice Act, Sec. 330) does not allow an appeal from an order requiring a party to give a bond, nor from an order appointing a receiver. Meadow Valley M. Co. v. Dodds, 6 Nev. 281.
- Relief on Appeal from Order Appealable Only in Part. Id.
8. NO APPEAL FROM ORDER SUSTAINING A DEMURRER. An appeal does not lie from the action of a district court in simply sustaining a demurrer; there must be a final judgment in such case before an appeal can be taken. Keyser v. Taylor, 4 Nev. 435.
9. NON-APPELLATE ORDER. An order refusing to transfer a cause from a state district court to a United States Court is not one of the orders contemplated (by Sec. 285 of the Practice Act of 1861), and no direct appeal lies therefrom. Combination S. M. Co. v. Curler, 4 Nev. 445.
10. FINDINGS—CONCLUSIONS OF LAW. If the findings of the court are objectionable as only stating conclusions of law the party dissatisfied with them must ask to have them corrected. If he fails to do so he is not in a position to complain on appeal. Langworthy v. Coleman, 18 Nev. 440.
11. NO GROUNDS FOR REVERSAL. A defective finding of facts is not a ground for reversing a judgment, when that defect is not noticed or complained of in the court below. McClusky v. Gerhauser, 2 Nev. 47; V. & T. R. Co. v. Elliot, 5 Nev. 358; Bowker v. Goodwin, 7 Nev. 135.
12. NO REVERSAL FOR ERROR WHICH DOES NOT PREJUDICE. A judgment will not be reversed on account of error in admitting immaterial or incompetent testimony, when it appears that the appellant could not have been prejudiced thereby. Cahill v. Hirschman, 6 Nev. 57; Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265; Mitchell v. Bromberger, 2 Nev. 345; Beatty v. Sylvester, 3 Nev. 228; Todman v. Purdy, 5 Nev. 238.
13. NO ERROR, NO REVERSAL. This court cannot reverse a judgment unless it affirmatively appear that error has been committed. Nosler v. Haynes, 2 Nev. 53.
14. JUDGMENT CORRECT, THOUGH REASON WRONG. If a judgment be right, though decided upon a wrong ground, it will not be disturbed by the supreme court. Conley v. Chedic, 6 Nev. 222.
15. VOID ORDER. It is not necessary to appeal from a void order which can have no operation or effect. Killip v. Empire Mill Co., 2 Nev. 34; Ranft v. Young, 21 Nev. 401.
16. RECORD ON APPEAL MUST SHOW ACTION APPEALED FROM. Where an appeal purported to be from an order overruling a motion for new trial, and the record failed to show that the motion had been disposed of, or acted on: Held, that the appeal was premature and should be dismissed. Kalmes v. Gerrish, 7 Nev. 31.
17. APPEAL FROM IMPROPER JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL—JUSTICES' COURTS. An appeal will lie from a judgment rendered in a justice's court on an order improperly dismissing the action. Especially is that the case where both issues of law and issues of fact had been made in the justice's court. Nev. Cent. R. Co. v. Dist. Court, 21 Nev. 410.
18. RIGHT OF APPEAL under our Practice Act does not depend upon the entry or perfection of the judgment of the lower court, but upon the rendition of it. Cal. State Tel. Co. v. Patterson, 1 Nev. 150.
19. CONTEMPT—WHEN APPEAL LIES. An order adjudging garnishees to be in contempt of court for failing to pay over money, is in the nature of a civil process, and is, under the principles decided in Phillips v. Welch, 11 Nev. 190, an appealable order. Hagerman v. Tong Lee, 12 Nev. 331.
20. FORECLOSURE OF MECHANIC'S LIEN. Where a suit to foreclose a mechanic's lien is brought in a justice's court and appealed to the district court: Held, that an appeal lies from the district court to the supreme court. Dickson v. Corbett, 10 Nev. 439.
21. APPEAL—WHAT FROM. When an erroneous judgment is entered, and there is a motion made in the court below to have that judgment set aside, the appeal lies direct from the judgment, and not from the order refusing to set it aside. Maples v. Geller, 1 Nev. 233.
22. ORDER SETTING ASIDE JUDGMENT APPEALABLE. The Practice Act allows an appeal from an order setting aside a judgment. Ballard v. Purcell, 1 Nev. 342; Maynard v. Johnson, 2 Nev. 16.
23. ORDER MADE BEFORE FINAL JUDGMENT, not reviewable, except as expressly authorized by statute. Low v. C. P. M. Co., 2 Nev. 75.
24. JURISDICTION ON APPEAL—Order Retaxing Costs. Comstock M. & M. Co. v. Allen, 21 Nev. 325.

25. INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN FINDINGS—APPEAL FROM JUDGMENT—No Motion for New Trial—Equity Cases. The rule that the supreme court will not review the evidence upon an appeal from the judgment alone, for the purpose of determining its sufficiency to sustain the findings of the lower court, no motion for a new trial having been made, applies to suits in equity where the evidence is entirely documentary, as well as to all other actions. Burbank v. Rivers, 20 Nev. 81; Feusier v. Sneath, 3 Nev. 131.
26. WHEN ASSIGNMENT OF ERROR NOT CONSIDERED BY APPELLATE COURT. If appellant presents no argument or authorities in support of an alleged error in the court below, this court will not consider the assignment unless the error is so unmistakable that it reveals itself by a casual inspection of the record. Gardner v. Gardner, 23 Nev. 202.
27. STIPULATION NOT TO APPEAL, ENFORCED. Wheeler v. Floral M. & M. Co., 10 Nev. 200.
- APPEAL, WHEN TAKEN FOR DELAY—Damages. Id. Escere v. Torre, 14 Nev. 51; Allen v. Mayberry, 14 Nev. 151; Kercheval v. McKenny, 4 Nev. 294; Gammans v. Rousell, 14 Nev. 171.
28. DAMAGES FOR UNREASONABLE APPEAL. In cases of appeals from orders refusing to change the place of trial, damages for delay will be imposed, unless reasonable ground for appeal is shown. Table Mtn. v. Waller's Defeat S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 218.
29. APPEAL MAY BE HAD FROM ORDER REFUSING TO CHANGE VENUE. Table Mtn. G. & S. M. Co. v. Waller's Defeat S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 218.
30. ORDER CHANGING VENUE NOT APPEALABLE. Properly brought before the court on appeal from judgment. State v. Shaw, 21 Nev. 222.
31. VOID JUDGMENT. This court will reverse not only erroneous judgments, but void judgments. Hastings v. Burning Moscow Co., 2 Nev., 93.
32. APPELLATE COURT WILL REVERSE JUDGMENT when complaint will not support judgment, although counsel may not have shown proper grounds. Van Doren v. Tjader, 1 Nev. 360.
33. APPEAL—WHAT TO BE CONSIDERED UPON. Such errors only as the appellant complains of can be considered upon appeal. Dennis v. Caughlin, 22 Nev. 447.
34. WHAT CONSIDERED ON APPEAL FROM JUDGMENT. On appeal from a judgment, any error appearing in the judgment roll may be corrected in the appellate court without a statement on appeal. Klein v. Allenbach, 6 Nev. 159.
35. APPEAL FROM ORDER OPENING DEFAULT. The supreme court will not reverse an order setting aside a default except in an extreme case. Howe v. Coldren, 4 Nev. 171.
36. CONFLICT OF EVIDENCE. Neither the findings of fact by a Judge, nor the verdict of a jury, will be disturbed on the ground of insufficiency of testimony, in case of a conflict, unless the preponderance of evidence against it be great and decided. Reed v. Reed, 4 Nev. 395; Ophir S. M. Co. v. Carpenter, 4 Nev. 534; Roney v. Buckland, 5 Nev. 219; Clarke v. Nev. L. & M. Co., 6 Nev. 203; Simpson v. Williams, 18 Nev. 432; Buckley v. Buckley, 12 Nev. 423; Lewis v. Wilcox, 6 Nev. 215; Carlyon v. Lannan, 4 Nev. 156; Carson v. Bryant Land Co., 3 Nev. 213; State v. Yellow Jacket S. M. Co., 5 Nev. 415; McCoy v. Bateman, 3 Nev. 126; Smith v. Mayberry, 13 Nev. 427; Duquette v. Ouilmette, 13 Nev. 499; State v. C. P. R. Co., 10 Nev. 47; Langworthy v. Coleman, 18 Nev. 440; Solen v. V. & T. R. Co., 13 Nev. 106; Boskowitz v. Davis, 12 Nev. 446; Winter v. Fulston, 20 Nev. 280.
37. INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE. Where a finding for plaintiff, as to the quantity of a water appropriation, was founded upon the basis that the flume was of a certain size, and also of a certain grade, and it appeared on appeal that, though the size of the flume was proved, there was no sufficient proof of its grade: Held, on proper objection, that the judgment should be set aside. Ophir S. M. Co. v. Carpenter, 6 Nev. 393.
- NEW ISSUES NOT TO BE RAISED IN THE SUPREME COURT. Id.
38. FINDINGS—CONFLICT OF EVIDENCE AS TO COLLATERAL FACTS. The rule that the decision of a nisi prius court as to the sufficiency of proof will not be disturbed on appeal if there be a conflict of evidence, applies also to collateral facts. Bowker v. Goodwin, 7 Nev. 135.
39. SEPARATE APPEAL FROM JUDGMENT. Where the homestead right of a married woman, who has been made a party defendant with her husband, in an action to dissolve a copartnership—it being claimed that the homestead was purchased with partnership funds—has been finally determined, she can prosecute her separate appeal, although the decree as entered is not final against her husband. Rhodes v. Williams, 12 Nev. 31.
40. APPEAL FROM PART OF A JUDGMENT—JURISDICTION. Where the notice of appeal specifies only a part of the judgment, and is served only upon the parties whose interests would be affected by a reversal of the part specified: Held, that this court has no jurisdiction over the other parties, or over the judgment in so far as it affects them. Dick v. Bird, 14 Nev. 161.
41. APPEAL FROM PART OF JUDGMENT—When May Be Taken—Divorce. Lake v. Lake, 15 Nev. 230.

42. JOINT JUDGMENT—AFFIRMANCE IN PART AND REVERSAL IN PART. Where a joint demurrer to a complaint was sustained and judgment entered for defendants dismissing the action; and on appeal it appeared that the demurrer was not well taken as to one of the defendants: Held, that as to such defendant the judgment should be reversed, and affirmed as to the others. Wood v. Olney, 7 Nev. 109.
43. VARIANCE—QUESTIONS RAISED FOR FIRST TIME IN APPELLATE COURT. Questions as to variance between the allegations of the complaint and the proofs cannot be raised in the appellate court, when they were not raised at the trial, if an amendment could have been properly made to meet the objections. Wills v. Bank of Nevada, 23 Nev. 59.
44. ATTACHMENT—WILL REVIEW ORDER. Upon an appeal from a final judgment, this court will review an order of a district court dismissing an attachment, if the appeal is also taken from such order. Williams v. Glasgow, 1 Nev. 533.
45. APPEAL ON RULINGS—MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL NOT NECESSARY. A motion for new trial is not only unnecessary to authorize a review of rulings at the trial, but the much preferable practice is to take them up by bill of exceptions or statement on appeal. Cooper v. Insurance Co., 7 Nev. 116.
46. CLERICAL ERROR IN JUDGMENT MUST BE PRESENTED BELOW. Ehrhardt v. Curry, 7 Nev. 221; McCausland v. Lamb, 7 Nev. 238.
47. CROSS APPEALS—Affirmance of One Without Affecting the Other. State v. C. P. R. R. Co., 21 Nev. 172.
48. CORRECTION OF ERRORS APPEARING IN JUDGMENT ROLL. Where judgment on an open account included interest thereon (which the statute, in the absence of a special agreement, does not allow), and the error appeared in the judgment roll: Held, that it could be corrected in the supreme court by a modification of the judgment, although not called to the attention of, nor excepted to, in the lower court. Flannery v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 437.
49. SECOND APPEAL—FORMER DECISION, UPON SAME POINT DISTINCTLY MADE ON SAME FACTS—RES JUDICATA. This court has no power to review its own judgments in the same case upon the same facts except upon petition for rehearing. The decision of the appellate court on a previous appeal is, on a second appeal on substantially the same state of facts, res judicata. Wright v. Carson W. Co., 22 Nev. 304.

Duty of Appellant—Transcript.

3435. SEC. 340. On an appeal from a final judgment, the appellant shall furnish the court with a transcript of the notice of appeal, and the statement, if there be one, certified by the respective attorneys of the parties to the appeal, or by the Clerk of the Court. On an appeal from a judgment rendered on an appeal, or from an order, the appellant shall furnish the court with a copy of the notice of appeal, the judgment or order appealed from, and a copy of the papers used on the hearing in the court below, such copies to be certified in like manner to be correct. If any written opinion be placed on file in rendering judgment or making the order in the court below, a copy shall be furnished, certified in like manner. If the appellant fails to furnish the requisite papers, the appeal may be dismissed.

Original Papers Sent Up, see Sec. 3862.

1. FINDINGS NOT "WRITTEN OPINION." The Practice Act, Sec. 340, when it speaks of any "written opinion placed on file in rendering judgment," does not refer to findings. Corbett v. Job, 5 Nev. 201; Reno W. L. & L. Co. v. Osburn, 24 Nev.
2. APPEAL—TRANSCRIPT—ORIGINAL PAPERS. Where, instead of a regular transcript, the original papers are sent up on the appeal, they must be certified to be such originals, and to constitute, in whole or in part, the record on appeal. Where there is no certificate to that effect, the appeal will, upon motion, be dismissed. Holmes v. Iowa M. Co., 23 Nev. 23; Peers v. Reed, 23 Nev. 404.
3. APPEAL—STATUTORY REGULATIONS—QUESTIONS TO BE CONSIDERED. The method of taking appeals, and the questions to be considered thereunder by the appellate court, are matters of purely statutory regulation. Burbank v. Rivers, 20 Nev. 81.
4. TRANSCRIPT WITHOUT STATEMENT. Where a transcript on appeal contained neither a statement on motion for new trial nor on appeal: Held, that there was nothing in it for review except the judgment roll. McCausland v. Lamb, 7 Nev. 238.
5. FAILURE OF TRANSCRIPT TO SHOW DISPOSITION OF MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL. Judgment roll only will be looked into; and if no error appears in it, the judgment will be affirmed. Neil v. Daniel, 4 Nev. 436.

6. POINTS NOT COVERED BY TRANSCRIPT NOT CONSIDERED. Alleged error in refusing to grant a continuance cannot be considered by the supreme court, if the affidavits are not properly in the transcript, and there is no bill of exceptions, nor statement. State v. Wallin, 6 Nev. 280.
7. RECORD ON APPEAL. Papers not properly in the record on appeal will be stricken out on motion. Stats. 1895, p. 58, permitting original papers to be certified upon appeal, have not changed the method of presenting questions in the supreme court. Streeter v. Johnson, 23 Nev. 194; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.
8. TRANSCRIPT MUST SHOW FACTS DIRECTLY. State v. Manhattan S. M. Co., 4 Nev. 318.
9. TRANSCRIPT ON APPEAL—WHAT PAPERS AND DOCUMENTS SHOULD BE STRICKEN OUT. The minutes of the court and all other matters not embraced in the statement on appeal, judgment roll, or authenticated as by law required, should, on motion, be stricken from the transcript on appeal. Greeley v. Holland, 14 Nev. 320; Reinhart v. Co. D, 23 Nev. 366; Hoppin v. First N. Bank, 24 Nev.
10. HOW APPEAL SHOULD BE TAKEN. In taking an appeal from orders based on affidavits, no statement on appeal is required. It is only necessary to annex the affidavits to the orders, and have them properly certified. Weinrich v. Porieous, 12 Nev. 102.
The fact that the orders are embodied in a bill of exceptions allowed by the Judge, is not sufficient to prevent a dismissal of the appeal, unless the affidavits are annexed to the orders, and a certificate given as required. Id.
11. STATEMENT ON APPEAL—PAPERS NOT PART OF RECORD. Papers not made a part of the statement on motion for new trial, nor otherwise identified as provided by the statute, cannot be considered upon the appeal. Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109.

Undertaking on Appeal—Proviso.

3436. SEC. 341. To render an appeal effectual for any purpose, in any case, a written undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant by at least two sureties, to the effect that the appellant will pay all damages and costs which may be awarded against him on the appeal, not exceeding three hundred dollars; or that sum shall be deposited with the Clerk with whom the judgment or order was entered, to abide the event of the appeal. Such undertaking shall be filed, or such deposit made with the Clerk, within five days after the notice of appeal is filed; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall apply when the State of Nevada, or any county of the State of Nevada, is the appellant; nor shall such undertaking, as provided for in this section, be necessary to perfect such appeal, when the action or proceeding is brought for and in the name of this state, or for and in the name of any county in the state. As amended, Stats. 1875, 136; 1879, 23.

See Sec. 3859.

1. UNDERTAKING ON APPEAL—SUFFICIENCY OF. An undertaking which complies with Section 342 of the Civil Practice Act, for the stay of execution, with the exception of binding the sureties to pay in gold coin: Held, to be a sufficient undertaking on appeal, as required by Section 341, for the payment "of all damages and costs" awarded on appeal. State v. Cal. M. Co., 13 Nev. 203.

EXECUTED ON SUNDAY. An undertaking on appeal executed on Sunday is valid. The execution of such a bond is not "transacting judicial business," and is not prohibited by the statute. Id.

2. APPEAL NOT EFFECTUAL UNTIL UNDERTAKING FILED. Peran v. Monroe, 1 Nev. 484.
3. WHEN APPEAL WILL BE DISMISSED. When the appellant fails to furnish this court with a "notice of appeal" and "undertaking on appeal," as required by the statute, the appeal will be dismissed. Gaudette v. Glissan, 11 Nev. 184; Spafford v. White River V. L. & L. Co., 24 Nev.; Marx v. Lewis, 24 Nev.
4. DEPOSIT OF MONEY IN LIEU OF APPEAL BOND. Alt v. Cal. Fig Syrup Co., 18 Nev. 423.
5. SEVERAL ORDERS—One Subject—One Appeal Bond. Edgecomb v. His Creditors, 19 Nev. 149.

Undertaking of Appellant and Sureties—Stay of Execution.

3437. SEC. 342. If the appeal be from a judgment or order directing the payment of money, or from an order dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment, it shall not stay the execution of the judgment or order unless a written undertaking be executed on the part of the appellant by two or more sureties.

stating their places of residence and occupation, to the effect that they are bound in double the amount named in the judgment or order, or double the sum of the value of the property attached, as the case may be, that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part thereof, be affirmed, the appellant shall pay the amount directed to be paid by the judgment or order, or the part of such amount as to which the judgment or order shall be affirmed, if affirmed only in part, and all damages and costs which shall be awarded against the appellant upon the appeal. When the judgment or order appealed from is made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, the undertaking required by this section shall be drawn and made payable in the same kind of money or currency specified in such judgment or order, and in case of any appeal from an order dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment, such undertaking shall be conditioned, that if the order appealed from or any part thereof be affirmed, the appellant shall pay to the opposing party on such appeal, all damages and costs caused by him by reason of said appeal and the stay of execution thereon. As amended, Stats. 1887, 92.

Documents Placed in Hands of Receiver.

3438. SEC. 343. If the judgment or order appealed from direct the assignment or delivery of documents, or personal property, the execution of the judgment or order shall not be stayed by appeal, unless the things required to be assigned or delivered be placed in the custody of such officer or receiver as the court may appoint; or unless an undertaking be entered into on the part of the appellant, with at least two sureties, and in such amount as the court or the Judge thereof may direct, to the effect that the appellant will obey the order of the appellate court upon the appeal.

Execution of Conveyance.

3439. SEC. 344. If the judgment or order appealed from direct the execution of a conveyance or other instrument, the execution of the judgment or order shall not be stayed by the appeal until the instrument is executed and deposited with the Clerk with whom the judgment or order is entered, to abide the judgment of the appellate court.

Sale or Delivery of Property.

3440. SEC. 345. If the judgment or order appealed from direct the sale or delivery of possession of real property, the execution of the same shall not be stayed unless a written undertaking be executed on the part of the appellant, with two or more sureties, to the effect that during the possession of such property by the appellant he will not commit nor suffer to be committed, any waste thereon, and that if the judgment be affirmed he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the appeal until the delivery of possession thereof, pursuant to the judgment or order, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by the Judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered or order made, and which shall be specified in the undertaking. When the judgment is for the sale of mortgaged premises, and the payment for a deficiency arising upon the sale, the undertaking shall also provide for the payment of such deficiency. In all other cases, not hereinbefore mentioned, the amount of the undertaking to stay the execution of the judgment or order shall be fixed by the court or the Judge thereof.

To Stay Proceedings.

3441. SEC. 346. Whenever an appeal is perfected, as provided by the preceding sections in this chapter, it shall stay all further proceedings in the court below, upon the judgment or order appealed from, or upon matter embraced therein; but the court below may proceed upon any other matter included in the action and not affected by the judgment or order appealed from. And the court below may, in its discretion, dispense with or limit the security required by said sections, when an appellant is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other person acting in another's right.

ABOVE SECTION CONSTRUED. Lake v. Lake, 17 Nev. 230.

Undertakings May Be One or Several.

3442. SEC. 347. The undertaking prescribed by sections three hundred and forty and three hundred and forty-one, three hundred and forty-two and three hundred and forty-three, may be in one instrument or several, at the option of the appellant.

Affidavit of Sureties.

3443. SEC. 348. An undertaking on appeal shall be of no effect unless it be accompanied by the affidavit of the sureties that they are each worth the amount specified therein, over and above their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of the property exempt from execution; except where the judgment exceeds three thousand dollars and the undertaking on appeal is executed by more than two sureties, they may state, on their affidavit, that they are severally worth amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, if the whole amount be equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties. The adverse party may, however, except to the sufficiency of the sureties within five days after the filing of the undertaking, and, unless they or other sureties justify before the Judge of the court below, or Clerk, within five days thereafter, upon notice to the adverse party, to the amounts stated in their affidavits, the appeal shall be regarded as if no such undertaking had been given; and in all cases where an undertaking is required on appeal by the provisions of this chapter, a deposit in the court below of the amount of the judgment appealed from, and three hundred dollars in addition, shall be equivalent to filing the undertaking, and in all cases the undertaking or deposit may be waived by the written consent of the respondent.

Appeal Perfected.

3444. SEC. 349. In cases not provided for in sections three hundred and forty-one, three hundred and forty-two, three hundred and forty-three, and three hundred and forty-four, the perfecting of an appeal by giving the undertaking, and the justification of the sureties thereon, if required, or making the deposit mentioned in section three hundred and forty, shall stay proceedings in the court below upon the judgment or order appealed from, except that where it directs the sale of perishable property the court below may order the property to be sold, and the proceeds thereof to be deposited to abide the judgment of the appellate court.

Appeal, How Brought to Hearing.

3445. SEC. 350. Appeals may be brought to a hearing by either party upon a notice of three days to the opposite party. Before the argument each party shall furnish to the other, and to each of the Justices, a copy of his points and authorities, or either party may file one copy thereof with the Clerk, who shall cause the requisite copies to be made.

Lake v. Lake, 17 Nev. 230.

Judgment on Appeal, How Certified.

3446. SEC. 351. When judgment is rendered upon the appeal, it shall be certified by the Clerk of the Supreme Court to the Clerk with whom the judgment roll is filed or the order appealed from is entered. In cases of appeal from the judgment, the Clerk with whom the roll is filed shall attach the certificate to the judgment roll and enter a minute of the judgment of the supreme court on the docket against the original entry. In cases of appeal from an order, the Clerk shall enter at length, in the records of the court, the certificate received, and minute against the entry of the order appealed from a reference to the certificate, with a brief statement that the order has been affirmed, reversed, or modified, as the case may be, by the supreme court on appeal.

Execution for Costs.

3447. SEC. 352. Whenever costs are awarded to a party by an appellate court, such party may have an execution for the same on filing a remittitur with the Clerk of the court below, and it shall be the duty of such Clerk, whenever the remittitur is filed, to issue the execution upon application therefor, and whenever costs are awarded to a party by an order of any court, such party may have an execution therefor in like manner as upon a judgment.

FORM OF REMITTITUR. No peculiar form of nice technical exactness is required in a remittitur. French v. Strong, 4 Nev. 87.

TITLE X.*Miscellaneous Proceedings.CHAPTER 1—PROCEEDINGS AGAINST JOINT DEBTORS.

The provisions of Chapter 1, Title X, are made applicable to justices' courts by Section 589 of this Act.

Bound by Judgment.J. C.

3448. SEC. 353. When a judgment is recovered against one or more of several persons jointly indebted upon an obligation, by proceedings as provided in section thirty-two, those who were not originally served with the summons, and did not appear to the action, may be summoned to show cause why they should not be bound by the judgment in the same manner as though they had been originally served with the summons.

JOINT JUDGMENT. Reversal as to one necessarily reverses as to all. Bullion M. Co. v. Croesus G. & S. M. Co., 3 Nev. 336.

To Show Cause.J. C.

3449. SEC. 354. The summons, as provided in the last section, shall describe the judgment, and require the person summoned to show cause why he should not be bound by it, and shall be served in the same manner, and returnable within the same time, as the original summons. It shall not be necessary to file a new complaint.

Affidavit of Plaintiff.J. C.

3450. SEC. 355. The summons shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, representative or attorney, that the judgment, or some part thereof, remains unsatisfied, and shall specify the amount due thereon.

Answer and Defense.J. C.

3451. SEC. 356. Upon such summons, the defendant may answer within the time specified therein, denying the judgment or setting up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, or he may deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, except a discharge from such liability by the statute of limitations.

Liability Denied.J. C.

3452. SEC. 357. If the defendant, in his answer, deny the judgment, or set up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, shall constitute the written allegations in the case. If he deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, a copy of the original complaint and judgment, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, shall constitute such written allegations.

Issues Formed.J. C.

3453. SEC. 358. The issues formed may be tried as in other cases, but when the defendant denies, in his answer, any liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, if a verdict be found against him, it shall be for the amount remaining unsatisfied on such original judgment, with interest thereon.

CHAPTER 2—CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT WITHOUT ACTION.

Chapter 2 is made applicable to justices' courts, as to confession of judgment, by Section 512 of this Act.

By Confession.

J. C.

3454. SEC. 359. A judgment by confession may be entered without action, either for money due or to become due, or to secure any person against contingent liability on behalf of the defendant, or both, in the manner prescribed by this chapter.

Statement in Writing.

J. C.

3455. SEC. 360. A statement in writing shall be made, signed by the defendant, and verified by his oath, to the following effect: First—It shall authorize the entry of judgment for a specified sum. Second—If it be money due, or to become due, it shall state concisely the facts out of which it arose, and shall show that the sum confessed therefor is justly due, or to become due. Third—If it be for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it shall state concisely the facts constituting the liability, and shall show that the sum confessed therefor does not exceed the same.

Statement Filed With Clerk.

J. C.

3456. SEC. 361. The statement shall be filed with the Clerk of the court in which the judgment is to be entered, who shall indorse upon it, and enter in the judgment book a judgment of such court for the amount confessed, with ten dollars costs. The judgment and affidavit, with the judgment endorsed, shall thereupon become the judgment roll.

JUDGMENT OF CONFESSION. Where a statement and affidavit of confession authorizing the entry of judgment was filed with the Clerk and the Clerk copied the statement and affidavit in the judgment book and added: "Judgment entered April 14, A. D. 1874; Attest, J. H. Job, Clerk," and indorsed the same on the back of the statement: Held, that this constitutes a valid judgment. Humboldt M. & M. Co. v. Terry, 11 Nev. 237.

CLERK'S DUTIES MINISTERIAL—Authority to Enter Judgment—Effect of Entry of Judgment. Id.

CHAPTER 3—SUBMITTING A CONTROVERSY WITHOUT ACTION.

Without Action.

3457. SEC. 362. Parties to a question in difference which might be the subject of a civil action, may, without action, agree upon a case containing the facts upon which the controversy depends, and present a submission of the same to any court which should have jurisdiction if an action had been brought. But it must appear, by affidavit, that the controversy is real, and the proceedings in good faith, to determine the rights of the parties. The court shall thereupon hear and determine the case and render judgment thereon, as if an action were pending.

Judgment.

3458. SEC. 363. Judgment shall be entered in the judgment book as in other cases, but without costs for any proceeding prior to the trial. The case, the submission, and a copy of the judgment, shall constitute the judgment roll.

How Enforced.

3459. SEC. 364. The judgment may be enforced in the same manner as if it had been rendered in an action, and shall be in the same manner subject to appeal.

CHAPTER 4—OF ARBITRATIONS.

Arbitration.

3460. SEC. 365. Persons capable of contracting may submit to arbitration any controversy which might be the subject of a civil action between them, except a question of title to real property in fee or for life. This qualification shall not include questions relating merely to the partition or boundaries of real property.

ARBITRATION. Our statutory proceedings in cases of arbitration are in derogation of the common law, and must be strictly pursued. Steel v. Steel, 1 Nev. 27.

The filing of the submission, and the entry of the same in the Clerk's register, in cases of arbitration, answer the purposes of the complaint and answer in ordinary actions, and, like them, must be filed before a hearing, trial, or judgment. Id.

How Made.

3461. SEC. 366. The submission to arbitration shall be in writing, and may be to one or more persons.

Submission to Arbitration, How Entered.

3462. SEC. 367. It may be stipulated in the submission that it be entered as an order of the court, for which purpose it shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, where the parties, or one of them, reside. The Clerk shall thereupon enter in his register of actions a note of the submission, with the names of the parties, the names of the arbitrators, the date of the submission, when filed, and the time limited by the submission, if any, within which the award shall be made. When so entered, the submission shall not be revoked without the consent of both parties. The arbitrators may be compelled by the court to make an award, and the award may be enforced by the court in the same manner as a judgment. If the submission be not made an order of the court, it may be revoked at any time before the award is made.

Powers of Arbitrators.

3463. SEC. 368. Arbitrators shall have power to appoint a time and place for hearing, to adjourn from time to time, to administer oaths to witnesses, to hear the allegations and evidence of the parties, and to make an award thereon.

Proceedings of Arbitrators.

3464. SEC. 369. All the arbitrators shall meet and act together during the investigation, but, when met, a majority may determine any question. Before acting, they shall be sworn before an officer authorized to administer oaths, faithfully and fairly to hear and examine the allegations and evidence of the parties in relation to the matters in controversy, and to make a just award according to their understanding.

Award, How Made.

3465. SEC. 370. The award shall be in writing, signed by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, and delivered to the parties. When the submission is made an order of the court, the award shall be filed with the Clerk and a note thereof made in his register. After the expiration of five days from the filing of the award, upon the application of a party, and on filing an affidavit showing that notice of filing the award has been served on the adverse party or his attorney at least four days prior to such application, and that no order staying the entry of judgment has been served, the award shall be entered by the Clerk in the judgment book, and shall thereupon have the effect of a judgment.

On What Grounds Vacated.

3466. SEC. 371. The court, on motion, may vacate the award upon either of the following grounds, and may order a new hearing, before the same arbitrators, or not, in its discretion: First—That it was procured by corruption or fraud. Second—That the arbitrators were guilty of misconduct or committed gross error in refusing, on cause shown, to postpone the hearing, or in refusing to hear pertinent evidence, or otherwise acted improperly, in a manner by which the rights of the party were prejudiced. Third—That the arbitrators exceeded their powers in making their award; or that they refused or improperly omitted to consider a part of the matters submitted to them; or that the award is indefinite, or cannot be performed.

On What Grounds Modified.

3467. SEC. 372. The court may, on motion, modify or correct the award where it appears: First—That there was a miscalculation in figures upon which it was made, or that there is a mistake in the description of some person or property therein. Second—When a part of the award is upon matters not submitted, which part can be separated from other parts, and does not affect the decision on the matter submitted. Third—When the award, though imperfect in form, could have been amended if it had been a verdict, or the imperfection disregarded.

Appeal.

3468. SEC. 373. The decision upon the motion shall be subject to appeal in the same manner as an order which is subject to appeal in a civil action; but the judgment entered before a motion is made shall not be subject to appeal.

When Revoked.

3469. SEC. 374. If a submission to arbitration be revoked, and action be brought therefor, the amount to be recovered shall only be the costs and damages sustained in preparing for and attending the arbitration.

CHAPTER 5—OFFER OF THE DEFENDANT TO COMPROMISE THE WHOLE OR A PART OF AN ACTION.

Not to Prejudice.

3470. SEC. 375. The defendant may at any time before trial or judgment, serve upon the plaintiff an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the sum, or property, or to the effect therein specified. If the plaintiff accept the offer, and give notice thereof within five days, he may file the summons, complaint, and offer, with an affidavit of notice of acceptance, and the Clerk shall thereupon enter judgment accordingly. If the notice of acceptance be not given, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn, and shall not be given in evidence; and if the plaintiff fail to obtain a more favorable judgment he shall not recover costs, but shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer.

TITLE XI.

All of Title XI is made applicable to justices' courts so far as the same is consistent with the jurisdiction and powers of justices' courts by Section 578 of this Act.

Of Witnesses, and of the Manner of Obtaining Evidence.

CHAPTER 1—OF WITNESSES.

Eligible Witnesses.

J. C.

3471. SEC. 376. All persons, without exception, otherwise than as specified in this chapter, who, having organs of sense, can perceive, and perceiving can make known their perceptions to others, may be witnesses in any action or proceeding in any court of the state. Facts which, by the common law, would cause the exclusion of witnesses may still be shown for the purpose of affecting their credibility. As amended, Stats. 1881, 29.

What Does Not Constitute Disqualification.

J. C.

3472. SEC. 377. No person shall be disqualified as a witness in any action or proceeding on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief, or by reason of his conviction of felony, but such conviction may be shown for the purpose of affecting his credibility, and the jury is to be the exclusive judges of his credibility, or by reason of his interest in the event of the action or proceeding as a party thereto, or otherwise, but the party or parties thereto, and the person in whose behalf such action or proceeding may be brought or defended, shall, except as hereinafter excepted, be competent and be compellable to give evidence, either viva voce or by deposition or upon a commission, in the same manner and be subject to the same rules of examination as other witnesses on behalf of himself, or either or any of the parties to the action or proceeding. As amended, Stats. 1881, 29.

Refusal to Testify—Contempt.

J. C.

3473. SEC. 378. If a party refuse to attend and testify at the trial, or to give his deposition before trial, or upon a commission when required, his complaint, answer or reply may be stricken out and judgment be taken against him; and he may be also, in the discretion of the court, proceeded against as in other cases for a contempt.

Who Shall Testify—Competent Witness.

J. C.

3474. SEC. 379. No person shall be allowed to testify under the provisions of sections three hundred and seventy-six and three hundred and seventy-seven, when the other party to the transaction is dead, or when the opposite party to the action, or the person for whose immediate benefit the action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended, is the representative of a deceased person, when the facts to be proven transpired before the death of such deceased person; provided, that when such deceased person was represented in the transaction in question by any agent who is living, and who testifies as a witness in favor of the representative of such deceased person, in such case the other party may also testify in relation to such transaction, and nothing contained in this Act shall affect the laws in relation to attestation of any instrument required to be attested; and provided further, that when husband or wife is insane and has been so declared by a commission of lunacy, or in due form of law, the other shall be a competent witness to testify as to any fact which transpired before or during such insanity, but the privilege of so testifying shall cease on the restoration to soundness of the insane husband or wife, unless upon the consent of both, in which case they shall be competent witnesses. As amended, Stats. 1877, 160; 1879, 49; 1881, 80; 1897, 44.

1. SECTIONS 376 AND 379 CONSTRUED. Burgess v. Helm, 24 Nev.

2. PRACTICE ACT, SECTION 379—MEANING OF "REPRESENTATIVE OF DECEASED PERSON." Where a person was employed by another to work at a quartz mill for an association, to whom such latter person had assigned a lease thereof; and after the death of the assignor, the employee sued the association for work and labor: Held, that none of the association was sued as the representative of deceased, and there was nothing in Section 379 of the Practice Act to prevent plaintiff from testifying as to the conversation and employment by deceased. Fulton v. Day, 8 Nev. 80.

3. SECTION 379, CIVIL PRACTICE ACT, CONSTRUED—SURVIVING PARTNERS NOT THE REPRESENTATIVES OF A DECEASED PERSON. Held, that the defendant Gloster was properly allowed to testify in his own behalf against the plaintiffs, who are the surviving partners of J. J. Hayes, deceased, to a contract made with Hayes previous to his death; that the plaintiffs, as surviving partners of said Hayes, are not the "representatives of a deceased person." Crane v. Gloster, 13 Nev. 279.

4. PARTY AS WITNESS AGAINST SURVIVING PARTNER. When a surviving partner is sued for a loan for the use of the firm made to the deceased partner, and of the particulars of which the deceased partner only was cognizant, the plaintiff is not a competent witness in his own behalf. Roney v. Buckland, 4 Nev. 45.

5. COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES—SECTION 379, CIVIL PRACTICE ACT, CONSTRUED. Where the administrator of a deceased person is plaintiff, and testifies to a contract made by the deceased person with the defendant in his presence: Held, that under the provisions of Section 379 the defendant could not testify in his own behalf. This provision of the statute criticised. Vesey v. Benton, 13 Nev. 284.

6. SECTION 379 OF THE CIVIL PRACTICE ACT—COMPETENCY OF WITNESS—INCIDENTAL OR MATERIAL FACTS. Where a witness is disqualified, under the provisions of Section 379 of the Civil Practice Act, he is a competent witness to testify to incidental and preliminary matters addressed solely to the Judge; but cannot testify to any of the issues raised by the pleadings. Higgs v. Hanson, 13 Nev. 356.

7. EXECUTORS COMPETENT WITNESSES ON THEIR OWN BEHALF. An executor is not within the exception of the Act excluding persons as witnesses on their own behalf, where the opposite party is the representative of a deceased person, etc. Estate of Millenovich, 5 Nev. 161.

Persons Excluded as Witnesses.

J. C.

3475. SEC. 380. The following persons cannot be witnesses: First—Those who are of unsound mind at the time of their production for examination. Second—Children under ten years of age who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly. As amended, Stats. 1881, 30.

Husband and Wife.

J. C.

3476. SEC. 381. A husband cannot be examined as a witness for or against his wife without her consent, nor a wife for or against her husband without his consent; nor can either, during the marriage or afterwards, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to an action or proceeding by one against the other. As amended, Stats. 1881, 30.

Attorney and Client.

J. C.

3477. SEC. 382. An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as a witness as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon, in the course of professional employment.

Clergyman.

J. C.

3478. SEC. 383. A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of the person making the confession, be examined as a witness as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

Physician.

J. C.

3479. SEC. 384. A licensed physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined as a witness as to any information acquired in attending the patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient; provided, however, in any suit or prosecution against a physician or surgeon for malpractice, if the patient or party suing or prosecuting shall require or give such consent, and any such witness shall give testimony, then such physician or surgeon, defendant, may call any other physicians or surgeons as witnesses on behalf of defendant, without the consent of such patient or party suing or prosecuting.

Public Officer.

J. C.

3480. SEC. 385. A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interests would suffer by the disclosure.

Judge or Juror May Be Called.

J. C.

3481. SEC. 386. The Judge himself, or any juror, may be called as a witness by either party; but in such case it shall be in the discretion of the court or Judge to order the trial to be postponed, or suspended, and to take place before another Judge or jury.

Interpreters.

J. C.

3482. SEC. 387. When a witness does not understand and speak the English language, an interpreter shall be sworn to interpret for him. Any person resident of the county may be summoned by any Judge or court to appear before such Judge or court to act as interpreter in any action or proceeding. The summons shall be served and returned in like manner as a subpoena. Any person so summoned shall, for a failure to attend at the time and place named in the summons, be deemed guilty of a contempt, and punished accordingly.

CHAPTER 2—MANNER OF COMPELLING THE ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES, AND THEIR RIGHTS AND DUTIES.

Subpena for Attendance of Witness.

J. C.

3483. SEC. 388. A subpena may require not only the attendance of the person to whom it is directed, at a particular time and place, to testify as a witness, but may also require him to bring with him any books, documents, or other things under his control, to be used as evidence. No person shall be required to attend as a witness before any court, Judge, Justice, referee, or other officer, out of the county in which he resides, unless the distance be less than thirty miles from his place of residence to the county of trial; provided, that such witness shall have the right to demand payment in advance of his fees for one day's attendance, and his mileage to and from the place specified in the subpena.

Subpena, How Issued.

J. C.

3484. SEC. 389. The subpena shall be issued as follows: First—To require attendance before a court, it shall be issued in the name and under the seal of the court before which the attendance is required. Second—To require attendance out of court, before a Judge, referee, Justice or other officer authorized to administer oaths or take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state, it shall be issued by the Judge, referee, Justice, or other officer before whom the attendance is required. Third—To require attendance before a Commissioner appointed to take testimony by a court of a foreign country, or of the United States, or of any other state, or of a territory of the United States, or any District Judge or Justice of the Peace of this state, it may be issued by a Judge or Justice of the Peace in places within their respective jurisdictions, with like power to enforce attendance and to punish contempt of such subpena as such Judge or Justice could exercise if the subpena directed the attendance of the witness before his own court, in a matter pending therein.

Subpena, How Served.

J. C.

3485. SEC. 390. The service of a subpena shall be made by showing the original, and delivering a copy, or a ticket containing its substance, to the witness personally, giving or offering to him at the same time, if demanded by him, the fees to which he is entitled for travel to and from the place designated, and one day's attendance there. Such service may be made by any person.

Where Witness is Concealed.

J. C.

3486. SEC. 391. If a witness be concealed in a building or vessel so as to prevent the service of a subpena upon him, any court or Judge, or any officer issuing the subpena, may, upon proof by affidavit of the concealment, and of the materiality of the witness, make an order that the Sheriff of the county serve the subpena, and the Sheriff shall serve it accordingly, and for that purpose may break into the building or vessel where the witness is concealed.

Persons Present in Court.

J. C.

3487. SEC. 392. A person present in court, or before a judicial officer, may be required to testify in the same manner as if he were in attendance upon a subpena issued by such court or officer.

Duty of Witness.

J. C.

3488. SEC. 393. It shall be the duty of a witness, duly served with a subpena, to attend at the time appointed, with any papers under his control required by the subpena, to answer all pertinent and legal questions, and, unless sooner discharged, to remain till the testimony is closed.

Must Answer.

J. C.

3489. SEC. 394. A witness, shall answer questions legal and pertinent to the matter in issue, though his answer may establish a claim against himself; but he need not give an answer which will have a tendency to subject him to punishment for a felony, nor need give an answer which will have a direct tendency to degrade his character, unless it be to the very fact in issue, or to a fact from which the fact at issue would be presumed. But a witness shall answer as to the fact to his previous conviction for felony.

Disobedience, Punishment For.

J. C.

3490. SEC. 395. Disobedience to a subpoena, or a refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness, or to subscribe an affidavit or deposition when required, may be punished as a contempt by the court or officer issuing the subpoena or requiring the witness to be sworn; and if the witness be a party, his complaint may be dismissed or his answer stricken out.

Penalty for Disobedience.

J. C.

3491. SEC. 396. A witness disobeying a subpoena, shall also forfeit to the party aggrieved the sum of one hundred dollars and all damages which he may sustain by the failure of the witness to attend, which forfeiture and damages may be recovered in a civil action.

Failure to Attend.

J. C.

3492. SEC. 397. In case of failure of a witness to attend, the court or officer issuing the subpoena, upon proof of the service thereof and of the failure of the witness, may issue a warrant to the Sheriff of the county to arrest the witness and bring him before the court or officer where his attendance was required.

Depositions of Convicts.

J. C.

3493. SEC. 398. If the witness be a prisoner confined in a jail or prison within this state, an order for his examination in the prison upon deposition, or for his temporary removal and production before a court or officer for the purpose of being orally examined, may be made as follows: First—By the court itself in which the action or special proceeding is pending, unless it be a justice court. Second—By a Judge of the supreme court or district court where the action or proceeding is pending, if pending before a justice's court, or before a Judge or other person out of court. As amended, Stats. 1881, 85.

Maxwell v. Rives, 11 Nev. 213.

Affidavit Necessary.

J. C.

3494. SEC. 399. Such order can only be made on motion of a party upon affidavit showing the nature of the action or proceeding, the testimony expected from the witness, and its materiality. As amended, Stats. 1881, 85.

Production of Witness When in Jail.

J. C.

3495. SEC. 400. If the witness be imprisoned in the county where the action or proceeding is pending, his production may, in the discretion of the court or Judge, be required; in all other cases his examination, when allowed, shall be taken upon deposition. As amended, Stats. 1881, 85.

ORDER OF JUDGE—SECTIONS 398, 399 AND 400 CONSTRUED. The law requiring an affidavit to be made of certain facts before the court should make an order to have the party in jail produced in court, was never designed for the protection of the prisoner, but only to prevent improper and unnecessary interference with the custody of prisoners. Maxwell v. Rives, 11 Nev. 213.

IDEM. If the order for the prisoner's attendance in court was improvidently granted, it is no concern of the prisoner; being before the court he was bound to answer any question that he would have been required to answer if the process for bringing him there had been strictly pursued. Id.

Exonerated from Arrest.

J. C.

3496. SEC. 401. Every person who has been in good faith served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, Judge, Commissioner, referee, or other person, in a case where the disobedience of the witness may be punished as a contempt, shall be exonerated from arrest in a civil action while going to the place of attendance, necessarily remaining there, and returning therefrom.

Liability of Officer.

J. C.

3497. SEC. 402. The arrest of a witness contrary to the last section shall be void; but an officer shall not be liable to the party for making the arrest in ignorance of the facts creating the exoneration, but shall be liable for any subsequent detention of the party, if such party claim the exemption and make an affidavit, stating, first, that he has been served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, officer, or other person, specifying the same, the place of attendance, and the action or proceeding in which the subpoena was issued; and, second, that he has not been thus served by his own procurement, with the intention of avoiding an arrest.

CHAPTER 3—ON AFFIDAVITS.Affidavits, Before Whom Taken.

J. C.

3498. SEC. 403. An affidavit to be used before any court, Judge, or officer of this state may be taken before any Judge or Clerk of any court, or any Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in this state.

Out of the State.

J. C.

3499. SEC. 404. An affidavit taken in another state, or in a territory of the United States, to be used in this state, shall be taken before a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this state to take affidavits and depositions in such other state or territory, or before any Notary Public or Judge of a court of record having a seal. As amended, Stats. 1883, 42.

In Foreign Country.

J. C.

3500. SEC. 405. An affidavit taken in a foreign country to be used in this state shall be taken before an Ambassador, Minister or Consul of the United States, or before any Judge of a court of record having a seal in such foreign country.

How Certified When Taken Out of State.

J. C.

3501. SEC. 406. When an affidavit is taken before a Judge of a court in another state, or in a territory of the United States, or in a foreign country, the genuineness of the signature of the Judge, the existence of the court, and the fact that such Judge is a member thereof, shall be certified by the Clerk of the court, under the seal thereof.

CHAPTER 4—OF DEPOSITIONS TAKEN IN THIS STATE.Testimony by Depositions.

J. C.

3502. SEC. 407. The testimony of a witness in this state may be taken by deposition in an action at any time after the service of the summons or the appearance of the defendant, and in a special proceeding, after a question of fact has arisen therein, in the following cases: First, when the witness is a party to the action or proceeding, or a person for whose immediate benefit the action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended; second, when the witness resides out of the county in which his testimony is to be used; third, when the witness is about to leave the county where the action is to be tried, and will probably continue absent when the testimony is required; fourth, when the witness, otherwise liable to attend the trial, is nevertheless too infirm to attend, or resides within the county, but more than fifty miles from the place of trial.

REQUISITES OF AFFIDAVIT TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS. The affidavit required to be made to authorize the taking of the deposition of a witness within the state, has to show that the case is one of those mentioned in the statute, Practice Act, Sec. 407; but need not show that the summons has been served. Lambert v. McFarland, 7 Nev. 159.

Deposition, How Taken.

J. C.

3503. SEC. 408. Either party may have the deposition of a witness in this state taken before any Judge or Clerk of a court, or any Justice of the Peace or

Notary Public in this state, on serving upon the adverse party previous notice of the time and place of examination, together with a copy of an affidavit showing that the case is one mentioned in the last section. At any time during the forty days immediately after the service of summons by publication has been completed, and at any time thereafter, when the defendant has not appeared, and his residence is unknown to the plaintiff, the notice required by this section may be served upon the Clerk of the court where the action is pending. Such notice shall be at least five days, and, in addition, one day for every twenty-five miles of the distance of the place of examination from the residence of the person upon whom the notice is served, unless, for a cause shown, a Judge, by order, prescribe a shorter time. When a shorter time is prescribed, a copy of the order shall be served with the notice.

Manner of Examination of Witnesses by Deposition.

J. C.

3504. SEC. 409. Either party may attend such examination and put such questions, direct and cross, as may be proper. The deposition, when completed, shall be carefully read to the witness and corrected by him in any particular, if desired; it shall then be subscribed by the witness, certified by the Judge or officer taking the deposition, inclosed in an envelope or wrapper, sealed and directed to the Clerk of the court in which the action is pending, or to such person as the parties, in writing, may agree upon, and either delivered by the Judge or officer to the Clerk or such person, or transmitted through the mail or by some safe private opportunity; and thereupon such deposition may be used by either party upon the trial or other proceeding against any party giving or receiving the notice, subject to all legal exceptions. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objection to the form of an interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same was stated at the time of the examination. If the deposition be taken by reason of the absence or intended absence from the county of the witness, or because he is too infirm to attend, proof by affidavit or oral testimony shall be made at the trial that the witness continues absent or infirm, to the best of the deponent's knowledge or belief. The deposition thus taken may be also read in case of the death of the witness.

Read by Either Party.

J. C.

3505. SEC. 410. When a deposition has been once taken, it may be read in any stage of the same action or proceeding by either party, and shall then be deemed the evidence of the party reading it.

CHAPTER 5—OF DEPOSITIONS TAKEN OUT OF THIS STATE.

Testimony Taken Out of the State.

J. C.

3506. SEC. 411. The testimony of a witness out of the state may be taken by deposition in an action at any time after the service of the summons or the appearance of the defendant, and in a special proceeding, at any time after a question of fact has arisen therein.

How Taken—By Whom Taken.

J. C.

3507. SEC. 412. The deposition of a witness out of this state shall be taken upon commission issued from the court, under the seal of the court, upon an order of the Judge or court, on the application of either party, upon five days' previous notice to the other. It shall be issued to a person agreed upon by the parties, or, if they do not agree, to any Judge or Justice of the Peace selected by the officer granting the commission, or to a Commissioner appointed by the Governor of this state to take affidavits and depositions in other states or territories.

AUTHORITY TO TAKE DEPOSITION. A commission to take a deposition, authenticated by the certificate of the Clerk under the seal of the court, and issued in pursuance of a former order of the court, is sufficient authority for taking the testimony of a witness. Smith v. North American Company, 1 Nev. 423.

Interrogatories to Be Settled.

J. C.

3508. SEC. 413. Such proper interrogatories, direct and cross, as the respective parties may prepare, to be settled, if the parties disagree as to their form, by the Judge or officer granting the order for the commission, at a day fixed in the order, or at the time of granting the order for commission, may be annexed to the commission, or when the parties agree to that mode, the examination may be without written interrogatories.

Commission, What to Authorize.

J. C.

3509. SEC. 414. The commission shall authorize the Commissioner to administer an oath to the witness, and to take his deposition in answer to the interrogatories, or when the examination is to be without interrogatories in respect to the question in dispute, and to certify the deposition to the court, in a sealed envelope directed to the Clerk or other person designated or agreed upon, and forwarded to him by mail or other usual channel of conveyance.

1. AGREEMENT OF PARTIES. Where the parties to a suit agree that a deposition may be taken at a certain place, during a certain month, before T, a Notary Public in another state, the deposition certified by T, made under his official seal as a Notary, may be read by either party without other proof that T was a Notary when the deposition was taken. The seal is prima facie evidence of his official character. Sargent v. Collins, 3 Nev. 260.
2. EFFECT OF STIPULATION TO TAKE DEPOSITION. Blackie v. Cooney, 8 Nev. 41.
3. STIPULATION OF PARTIES TO SUIT. May dispense with any certificate by the officer taking depositions. Lockhart v. Mackie, 2 Nev. 294.
4. When two cases are pending in the same court, between the same parties, a deposition may be taken upon one notice, affidavit, and commission, to be read in both cases. Scott v. The Bullion Mining Co., 2 Nev. 81.
5. CERTIFICATE TO DEPOSITION TAKEN OUT OF STATE—What to Contain—Certificate of Commissioner to His Own Official Character—Good. Blackie v. Cooney, 8 Nev. 41.

Proceedings, When Not Postponed.

J. C.

3510. SEC. 415. A trial or other proceeding shall not be postponed by reason of a commission not returned, except upon evidence satisfactory to the court that the testimony of the witness is necessary, and that proper diligence has been used to obtain it.

CHAPTER 6—OF PROCEEDINGS TO PERPETUATE TESTIMONY.Testimony.

3511. SEC. 416. The testimony of a witness may be taken and perpetuated as provided in this chapter.

Petition to Be Presented to Judge.

3512. SEC. 417. The applicant shall present to a District Judge a petition verified by the oath of the applicant, stating: First, that the applicant expects to be a party to an action in a court in this state, and, in such case, the name or names of the person or persons whom he expects will be adverse parties; or, second, that the proof of some fact or facts is necessary to perfect the title to property in which he is interested, or to establish marriage, descent, heirship, or any other matter which it may hereafter become material to establish, though no suit may at the time be anticipated, or, if anticipated, he may not know the parties to such suit; and, third, the name of the witness to be examined and his place of residence, and a general outline of the facts expected to be proved.

Judge to Make Order.

3513. SEC. 418. The Judge to whom such petition is presented shall make an order allowing the examination before any Judge of a court of record, and prescribing the notice to be given, which notice, if the parties are known and reside in this state, shall be personally served on them, and if unknown, or non-residents, such notice shall be served on the Clerk of the county where the property to be affected by such testimony is situated, and a copy thereof published in some newspaper, to be designated by the Judge making the order.

Testimony Taken.

3514. SEC. 419. Upon proof of the service of the notice as provided in the last section, it shall be the duty of the Judge before whom the testimony is ordered to be taken to proceed to take the testimony of the witnesses named in said petition, upon the facts therein set forth, and the taking of the same may be continued from time to time, in the discretion of the Judge.

Examination, How Made.

3515. SEC. 420. The examination shall be by question and answer, unless the parties otherwise agree. The testimony, when completed, shall be carefully read to and subscribed by the witness, then certified by the Judge, and immediately thereafter filed in the office of the Clerk of the district court of the county where it was taken, together with the order for the examination of the witness, the petition on which the same was granted, and the proof of service of the notice.

Affidavit Prima Facie Proof.

3516. SEC. 421. The affidavits or other proof filed with the testimony, or certified copies thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Testimony, How Used.

3517. SEC. 422. If the trial be had between the persons named in the petition as parties expectant, or their successors in interest, or between any parties wherein it may be material to establish the facts which such testimony proves or tends to prove, upon proof of the death or insanity of the witness, or of his inability to attend the trial by reason of age, sickness, or settled infirmity, the testimony, or certified copies thereof, may be used by either party, subject to all legal objections. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objection to the form of an interrogatory shall be made at the trial unless the same was stated at the examination.

CHAPTER 7—ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS AND AFFIRMATIONS.Who May Administer Oath.

J. C.

3518. SEC. 423. Every court of this state, every Judge or Clerk of any court, every Justice of the Peace, and every Notary Public, and every officer authorized to take testimony, or to decide upon the evidence in any proceeding, shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations.

How Sworn.

J. C.

3519. SEC. 424. When a person is sworn who believes in any other than the Christian religion, he may be sworn according to the peculiar ceremonies of his religion, if there be any such.

Affirmation Instead of Oath.

J. C.

3520. SEC. 425. Any witness who desires it, may, at his option, instead of taking an oath, make his solemn affirmation or declaration, by assenting when addressed in the following form: "You do solemnly affirm that the evidence you shall give in this issue (or matter), pending between-----and-----, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." Assent to this affirmation shall be made by the answer, "I do." A false affirmation or declaration shall be deemed perjury equally with a false oath.

CHAPTER 8—INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS AS TO RECORDS AND WRITINGS.On Refusal to Give Copy Court May Exclude Document.

J. C.

3521. SEC. 426. Any court in which an action is pending, or a Judge thereof may, upon notice, order either party to give to the other within a specified time an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy of any book, document, or paper in his possession, or under his control, containing evidence relating to the merits of the action, or the defense therein. If compliance with the order be refused, the court may exclude the book, document, or paper from being given in evidence, or if wanted as evidence by the party applying, may direct the jury to presume it to be such as he alleges it to be; and the court may also punish the party refusing for a contempt. This section shall not be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce books, papers, or documents when he is examined as a witness.

Evidence of Contents of Writing.

J. C.

3522. SEC. 427. There shall be no evidence of the contents of a writing, other than the writing itself, except in the following cases: First—When the original has been lost or destroyed; in which case proof of the loss or destruction shall first be made. Second—When the original is in the possession of the party against whom the evidence is offered, and he fails to produce it after reasonable notice. Third—When the original is a record or other document in the custody of a public officer, or officer of a corporation. Fourth—When the original has been recorded and a certified copy of the record is made evidence by statute. Fifth—When the original consists of numerous accounts or other documents which cannot be examined in court without great loss of time, and the evidence sought from them is only the general result of the whole.

EVIDENCE—ORAL RESULT OF EXAMINATION OF LONG ACCOUNTS. Where it became material and relevant to know the amount of money which should have been in the state treasury on a certain day: Held, that it was competent, under Section 427 of the Practice Act, as well as under the law independent of it, for an expert, who had made a full investigation of the accounts of the office, to state orally the result of his examination. State v. Rhoades, 6 Nev. 352.

Alterations Must Be Accounted For.

J. C.

3523. SEC. 428. The party producing a writing as genuine, which has been altered, or appears to have been altered after its execution, in a part material to the question in dispute, and such alteration is not noted on the writing, shall account for the appearance or alteration. He may show that the alteration was made by another without his concurrence, or was made with the consent of the parties affected by it, or otherwise properly or innocently made. If he do that, he may give the writing in evidence, but not otherwise.

Judicial Record Proved by Production.

J. C.

3524. SEC. 429. A judicial record of this state, or the United States, or of any territory, may be proved by the production of the original, or a copy thereof, certified by the Clerk, or other person having the legal custody thereof, under the seal of the court, to be a true copy of such record.

How Records to Be Attested.

J. C.

3525. SEC. 430. The records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any other state of the United States, or of any territory, may be proved or admitted in the courts of this state, by the attestation of the Clerk, and seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the Judge, Chief Justice or presiding magistrate, as the case may be, that the said attestation is in due form.

Judicial Record of Foreign Country, How Certified.

J. C.

3526. SEC. 431. A judicial record of a foreign country may be proved by the production of a copy thereof, certified by the Clerk, with the seal of the court annexed, if there be a Clerk and seal, or by the legal keeper of the record, with the seal of his office annexed, if there be a seal, to be a true copy of such record, together with a certificate of a Judge of the Court, that the person making the certificate is the Clerk of the Court, or the legal keeper of the record, and in either case that the signature is genuine, and the certificate in due form; and, also, together with the certificate of the Minister or Ambassador of the United States, or of a Consul of the United States, in such foreign country, that there is such a court, specifying generally the nature of its jurisdiction, and verifying the signature of the Judge and Clerk, or other legal keeper of the record.

When Foreign Record Admissible.

J. C.

3527. SEC. 432. A copy of the judicial record of a foreign country shall also be admissible in evidence upon proof: First—That the copy offered has been compared by the witness with the original, and is an exact transcript of the whole of it. Second—That such original was in the custody of the Clerk of the Court or other legal keeper of the same; and, Third—That the copy is duly attested by a seal, which is proved to be the seal of the court where the record remains, if it be the record of a court, or if there be no such seal, or if it be not a record of a court, by the signature of the legal keeper of the original.

Printed Statutes, etc.

J. C.

3528. SEC. 433. Printed copies in volumes of statutes, code or other written law, enacted by any other state, or territory, or foreign government, purporting or proved to have been published by the authority thereof, or proved to be commonly admitted as evidence of the existing law, in the courts and judicial tribunals of such state, territory, or government, shall be admitted by the courts and officers of this state on all occasions as presumptive evidence of such laws.

Seal of Court.

3529. SEC. 434. A seal of a court or public office, when required to any writ or process, or proceeding, or to authenticate a copy of any record or document, may be impressed with wax, wafer, or any other substance, and then attached to the writ, process, or proceeding, or to the copy of the record or document, or it may be impressed on the paper alone.

TITLE XII.

Of the Writ of Certiorari and Mandamus.

CHAPTER 1—THE WRIT OF CERTIORARI OR REVIEW.

Denomination Of.

3530. SEC. 435. The writ of certiorari may be denominated the writ of review.

When Writ Should Be Granted.

3531. SEC. 436. This writ may be granted on application by any court of this state, except a justice's, or recorder's, or mayor's court; the writ shall be granted in all cases when an inferior tribunal, board, or officer, exercising judicial functions, has exceeded the jurisdiction of such tribunal, board, or officer, and there is no appeal, nor, in the judgment of the court, any plain, speedy, and adequate remedy.

1. CERTIORARI. A writ of certiorari is not inhibited to a party aggrieved in all proceedings or actions wherein a right of appeal is given. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.

See Leonard v. Peacock, 8 Nev. 157; Nev. Cent. R. Co. v. Dist. Court, 21 Nev. 409.

2. CERTIORARI—WHEN LIES TO BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. The writ of certiorari will only run to a Board of County Commissioners as to matters in which they exercise judicial functions. Thompson v. Com. Washoe Co., 23 Nev. 247.

DEFECT OF PARTIES—Writ Dismissed. Id.

3. APPEAL—JUSTICE COURT—CERTIORARI. No appeal to the district court lies from a judgment by default rendered in a justice court, there being no issue of law or fact to be tried upon such appeal, and where in such case the justice court has exceeded its jurisdiction, certiorari is the proper remedy. Wiggins v. Henderson, 22 Nev. 103.

Application for Writ on Affidavit.

3532. SEC. 437. The application shall be made on affidavit by the party beneficially interested, and the court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without further notice.

To Whom Directed.

3533. SEC. 438. The writ may be directed to the inferior tribunal, board, or officer, or to any other person having the custody of the record or proceedings to be certified. When directed to a tribunal, the Clerk, if there be one, shall return the writ with the transcript required.

What to Command.

3534. SEC. 439. The writ of review shall command the party to whom it is directed to certify fully to the court issuing the writ, at a specified time and place, and annex to the writ a transcript of the record and proceeding (describing or referring to them with convenient certainty), that the same may be reviewed by the court, and requiring the party, in the meantime, to desist from further proceedings in the matter to be reviewed.

When Stay of Proceedings Not Wanted.

3535. SEC. 440. If a stay of proceedings be not intended the words requiring the stay shall be omitted from the writ. These words may be inserted or omitted, in the sound discretion of the court, but if omitted, the power of the inferior court or officer shall not be suspended nor the proceedings stayed.

How Served.

3536. SEC. 441. The writ shall be served in the same manner as a summons in civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by the court.

Extent of Review.

3537. SEC. 442. The review upon this writ shall not be extended further than to determine whether the inferior tribunal, board, or officer has regularly pursued the authority of such tribunal, board, or officer.

1. JURISDICTION THE QUESTION ON CERTIORARI. The only question which can be inquired into on certiorari is whether the inferior board or tribunal had jurisdiction to do the act sought to be reviewed. State v. Com. Washoe Co., 5 Nev. 317; Maynard v. Riley, 2 Nev. 313; Fall v. Com. Humboldt Co., 6 Nev. 100; Phillips v. Welch, 12 Nev. 158; In Re O'Rourke, 13 Nev. 253; Hetzel v. Com. Eureka Co., 8 Nev. 359; Esmeralda Co. v. District Court, 18 Nev. 438; In Re Wixom, 12 Nev. 219; Maxwell v. Rives, 11 Nev. 213; Fletcher v. Osburn, 24 Nev.
2. RETURN TO WRIT OF CERTIORARI CONCLUSIVE. No more of the facts are required to be returned to a writ of certiorari than are necessary to determine jurisdiction and the return being deemed conclusive, no evidence, not included therein, will be received and examined. Alexander v. Archer, 21 Nev. 22.
3. NO EXCESS OF JURISDICTION. The facts of this case elaborately reviewed: Held, that the court, in adjudging petitioner guilty of a contempt, in violating the decree and order in the suit of Phillips v. Welch, did not exceed its jurisdiction, and that this court cannot, upon the writ of certiorari, review the case upon the merits. Phillips v. Welch, 12 Nev. 159.
4. CERTIORARI—LEGALITY OF COSTS—NOT REVIEWABLE. If the court erred in allowing any costs that were not taxable against the relator, it was not an excess of jurisdiction, and its action, in this respect, can not be reviewed upon certiorari. Quinn v. Dist. Court, 16 Nev. 76.
5. JUSTICE OF THE PEACE—ISSUANCE OF EXECUTION A MINISTERIAL ACT. A Justice of the Peace, in issuing an execution upon a judgment, acts ministerially, and such act, however erroneous, cannot be reviewed upon certiorari. In Re O'Rourke, 13 Nev. 253.
6. WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE NOT OBJECT OF REVIEW. State v. Ormsby Co., 7 Nev. 392.
7. ORDER ON PROCEEDINGS AGAINST GARNISHEE. Not reviewable on certiorari. Birchfield v. Harris, 9 Nev. 382.
8. CERTIORARI—JUDICIAL OFFICERS—WHAT ACTS CAN BE REVIEWED. The action of a judicial officer in regard to matters which are exclusively executive or administrative in their nature, even when the act of the legislature requiring such duties to be performed is in violation of the constitutional provision, cannot be reviewed by certiorari. Esmeralda Co. v. District Court, 18 Nev. 438.
9. CERTIORARI. Criminal proceedings constituted for offense committed upon land, jurisdiction of which has been ceded by state to United States, annulled. Jones v. Mack, 23 Nev. 359.

10. WHEN WRIT WILL ISSUE—COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. The power of County Commissioners to allow accounts against a county is confined to those "legally chargeable," and a writ of certiorari will issue to review their action. Beck v. Com. Washoe Co., 14 Nev. 86.
- CERTIORARI—WHEN WILL NOT BE ISSUED—CLAIMS AGAINST COUNTY. A writ of certiorari will not be issued to review claims against a county which have been audited, allowed and paid. Id.
11. CERTIORARI DOES NOT LIE for error in taxing costs. Thompson v. Dist. Court, 23 Nev. 243.
12. INADMISSIBLE RETURN—May Be Stricken out. State v. Washoe Co., 7 Nev. 83.
- WHAT RETURN MAY INCLUDE. Id.
13. CERTIORARI WILL NOT LIE to determine validity of incorporation of city. Fletcher v. Osburn, 24 Nev.
- NOR TO DETERMINE MINISTERIAL ACT OF COUNCILMEN. Id.
14. CERTIORARI—NO AFFIRMATIVE ACTION AFTER PROCEEDINGS ANNULLED. If proceedings of an inferior court are annulled on certiorari, there is no further positive or affirmative action to be taken by the inferior tribunal. Leonard v. Peacock, 8 Nev. 157.
15. CERTIORARI—Judgment of District Court, When Not a Bar. Twaddle v. Com. Washoe Co., 12 Nev. 17.

Return of Writ.

3538. SEC. 443. If the return to the writ be defective, the court may order a further return to be made. When a full return has been made, the court shall proceed to hear the parties, or such of them as may attend for that purpose, and may thereupon give judgment, either affirming or annulling or modifying the proceedings below.

RECORD ON CERTIORARI CONCERNING ACTION OF BOARDS OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. On certiorari against a Board of County Commissioners a motion by respondent to file and make a part of the record, papers not embraced in the record or proceedings of the Board, should be denied. Hayes v. Com. White Pine Co., 22 Nev. 80.

Judgment Transmitted.

3539. SEC. 444. A copy of the judgment, signed by the Clerk, shall be transmitted to the inferior tribunal, board, or officer having the custody of the record or proceeding certified up.

Judgment Roll—Appeal.

3540. SEC. 445. A copy of the judgment, signed by the Clerk, entered upon or attached to the writ and return, shall constitute the judgment roll. If the proceedings be had in any other than the supreme court, an appeal may be taken from the judgment in the same manner and upon the same terms as from a judgment in a civil action.

JUDGMENT ROLL IN CERTIORARI CASES. In certiorari cases the judgment roll is preserved in the court granting the writ, as in a court of original jurisdiction in an ordinary action, and a copy only of the judgment is sent to the inferior tribunal. Leonard v. Peacock, 8 Nev. 157.

CHAPTER 2—THE WRIT OF MANDATE OR MANDAMUS.

Denominated.

3541. SEC. 446. The writ of mandamus may be denominated the writ of mandate.

In What Cases May Issue.

3542. SEC. 447. It may be issued by any court in this state, except a justice's, to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person, to compel the performance of an act which the law especially enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station; or to compel the admission of a party to the use and enjoyment of a right or office to which he is entitled, and from which he is unlawfully precluded by such inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person.

1. MANDAMUS, WHEN ONLY TO BE RESORTED TO. The writ of mandamus should be resorted to only when the usual and ordinary remedies fail to afford adequate relief, and without it there would be a failure of justice. Torreyson v. Com. Storey Co., 22 Nev. 263.
2. MANDAMUS WILL NOT ISSUE where petitioner has a plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law. Mayberry v. Bowker, 14 Nev. 336; State v. Guerrero, 12 Nev. 105.

3. MANDAMUS—WHEN PROPER REMEDY. The mere fact that an action or proceeding will lie does not necessarily supersede the remedy by mandamus. The relator must not only have a specific, adequate and legal remedy, but it must be one competent to afford relief upon the very subject matter of his application. Sears v. Wright, 10 Nev. 167.

How SERVED—Demand for Election of Trustees—Upon Whom Served—How Directed—Verification of Petition—Intervention in Mandamus—Interest of Relator. Id.

4. MANDAMUS PROPER REMEDY to put one into an office where the title of the relator is clear, and no other person is claiming the office under color of right. Cutts v. McCullough, 3 Nev. 202; Ryan v. Cronan, 23 Nev. 437.

AFFIDAVIT AND NOT WRIT SHOULD CONTAIN ALLEGATIONS. Id.

5. MANDAMUS, WHEN IT LIES. Mandamus lies to compel an inferior tribunal to exercise its judgment and render a decision, when a failure of justice would otherwise result from delay or refusal to act; but it does not lie to review or correct its conclusion after it has acted. State v. Com. Eureka Co., 8 Nev. 309; Floral Springs M. Co. v. Rives, 14 Nev. 431.

6. MANDAMUS WILL NOT LIE—When. Hoppin v. Cheney, 24 Nev.

7. MANDAMUS, ITS FUNCTION. The office of mandamus may be to compel the action, but it cannot be to correct the errors of an inferior court. When such court has acted, its action, however informal or erroneous, cannot be set aside or reversed by such writ. Treadway v. Wright, 4 Nev. 119.

Cavanaugh v. Wright, 2 Nev. 166, as to the propriety of mandamus to compel an inferior court to proceed with a trial, cited with approval. Id.

8. MANDAMUS PROPER REMEDY to put officer in charge of corporation. Ryan v. Cronan, 23 Nev. 437.

9. MANDAMUS—Review of Action of Registry Agent. McGuire v. Waterman, 5 Nev. 323; Davies v. McKeeby, 5 Nev. 369.

WRIT NOT ISSUED WHEN FRUITLESS. Id.

10. MANDAMUS—Proper Remedy to Compel Commissioners to Allow Claim Based on Judgment. Humboldt Co. v. Lander Co., 22 Nev. 71.

WHEN LIES AS TO JUDGMENT AND DISCRETION OF OFFICER—Discussed. Id.

11. MANDAMUS WILL LIE to Compel County Commissioners to Levy Special Tax. Davis v. Com. Lincoln Co., 23 Nev. 26, and 25 Nev.

12. MANDAMUS. May be invoked to compel trustees of a corporation to call election. Flagg v. Trustees Lady Bryan Co., 4 Nev. 400.

NEGLECT OF ONE DUTY NO EXCUSE FOR NEGLECT OF ANOTHER. Id.

EXTENT OF REQUIREMENTS OF WRIT OF MANDAMUS—Construction of Pleading. Id.

13. LAND REGISTER. Mandamus will issue to compel him to enter into contract for sale of state land. Springer v. Preble, 20 Nev. 38.

14. SALE OF STATE LAND—Simultaneous Applications—When Mandamus Should Not Issue. Sohl v. Preble, 20 Nev. 44.

15. MANDAMUS—SETTLEMENT OF STATEMENT. Mandamus is a proper remedy to compel a District Judge to settle a statement on motion for new trial in a case where it is his duty to settle the statement. Kean v. Murphy, 19 Nev. 89.

JUDICIAL OFFICER—PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS. The rule that mandamus will not issue to control discretion, or revise judicial action, has no application to the determination of preliminary questions relating to the settlement of a statement on motion for new trial. Id.

16. MANDAMUS will not issue to compel Controller to allow greater amount than is allowed by Board of Examiners. Lyon Co. v. Hallock, 20 Nev. 326.

17. MANDAMUS—STATE CONTROLLER. Will issue to compel him to perform act required by law. State v. Hobart, 12 Nev. 408.

18. MANDAMUS will issue to compel Trustees to admit negro to school. State v. Duffy, 7 Nev. 342.

19. ORDER REFUSING TRANSFER OF CAUSE TO UNITED STATES COURT—Reviewed on Appeal—Not Mandamus. State v. Curler, 4 Nev. 445.

20. MANDAMUS—DISMISSAL OF ACTION. Where a Justice has dismissed an action, a writ of mandamus will not lie to compel him to proceed and try the action, although such dismissal was error. Nev. Cent. R. Co. v. District Court, 21 Nev. 409.

21. MANDAMUS will not lie to compel a County Treasurer to make statement after his term has expired. Com. Storey Co. v. Kirman, 17 Nev. 380.

22. MANDAMUS—Not Proper Remedy to Try Title to an Office. Denver v. Hobart, 10 Nev. 28.

23. MANDAMUS IMPROPER WHERE EJECTMENT AFFORDS FULL REMEDY. Com. Washoe Co. v. Hatch, 9 Nev. 357.

24. MANDAMUS—JUDICIAL FUNCTIONS. A subordinate body can be directed to act, but not how to act, in a matter as to which it has the right to exercise its judgment; and where it is vested with power to determine a question of fact, the duty is judicial, and however erroneous its decision may be, it cannot be compelled by mandamus to alter its determination. Hoole v. Kinhead, 16 Nev. 217.
25. MANDAMUS—COMMAND OF WRIT. Where discretion is allowed in performing an act, mandamus will not control such discretion. Humboldt Co. v. Churchill Co., 6 Nev. 30.
- PREVIOUS DEMAND, WHEN NECESSARY. Id.
- Omission of Duty by County Commissioners—Mandamus Proper Remedy. Id.
26. MANDAMUS. Where the law specially enjoins a duty upon the County Commissioners, and leaves them no discretion, mandamus is the proper remedy to enforce the performance of the law. Mau v. Liddle, 15 Nev. 271; Owen v. Nye Co., 10 Nev. 338.
27. MANDAMUS WILL NOT LIE to compel City Council to enter into contract. Schaw v. Noyes, 24 Nev.
28. MANDAMUS—PETITION FOR, WHAT MUST AFFIRMATIVELY APPEAR IN. A petition for mandamus must show on its face a clear legal right to that for which it is sought in the proceeding. Pyne v. LaGrave, 22 Nev. 417.
29. WHAT MUST BE SHOWN. The relator must show, not only that the officer has failed to perform the required duty, but that the performance thereof is actually due from him at the time of the application. Piper v. Gracey, 11 Nev. 223.
- COLLECTION OF TAXES—Private Citizen May Move for Writ. Id.
30. MANDAMUS. Pleadings construed the same as in other actions. Cutts v. McCullough, 3 Nev. 202; State v. Lady Bryan M. Co., 4 Nev. 401.
31. MANDAMUS WILL NOT ISSUE BEFORE RESPONDENT IS IN ACTUAL DEFAULT. State v. Rising, 15 Nev. 164.
32. COSTS, HOW TAXED. State v. Bonnifield, 10 Nev. 401.
33. RELATOR, WHEN ENTITLED TO COSTS. Cutts v. McCullough, 3 Nev. 202.

Issued on Affidavit.

3543. SEC. 448. This writ shall be issued in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. It shall be issued upon affidavit, on the application of the party beneficially interested.

Writ Either Alternative or Peremptory.

3544. SEC. 449. The writ shall be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ shall state generally the allegation against the party to whom it is directed, and command such party, immediately after the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, to do the act required to be performed, or to show cause before the court, at a specified time and place, why he has not done so. The peremptory writ shall be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he has not done as commanded shall be omitted, and a return day shall be inserted.

When Alternative or Peremptory Will Issue.

3545. SEC. 450. When the application to the court is made without notice to the adverse party, and the writ be allowed, the alternative shall be first issued; but if the application be upon due notice, and the writ be allowed, the peremptory may be issued in the first instance. The notice of the application, when given, shall be at least ten days. The writ shall not be granted by default. The case shall be heard by the court, whether the adverse party appear or not.

Answer to Writ May Show Cause.

3546. SEC. 451. On the return day of the alternative, or the day on which the application of the writ is noticed, or such further day as the court may allow, the party on whom the writ or notice shall have been served may show cause by answer under oath, made in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action.

May Order Jury Trial.

3547. SEC. 452. If an answer be made, which raises a question as to matter of fact essential to the determination of the motion, and affecting the substantial rights of the parties, and upon the supposed truth of the allegation of which the application for the writ is based, the court may, in its discretion, order the question to be tried before a jury, and postpone the argument until such trial can be had and the verdict certified to the court. The question to be tried shall be distinctly stated in the order for trial, and the county shall be designated in which the same shall be had. The order may also direct the jury to assess any damages which the applicant may have sustained, in case they find for him.

Objections to Sufficiency.

3548. SEC. 453. On the trial the applicant shall not be precluded by the answer of any valid objection to its sufficiency, and may countervail it by proof either in direct denial or by way of avoidance.

New Trial May Be Had.

3549. SEC. 454. If either party be dissatisfied with the verdict of the jury, he may move for a new trial upon a statement prepared as provided in section one hundred and ninety-seven. The motion for a new trial may, upon reasonable notice, be brought on before the Judge of the court in which the cause was tried either in term or vacation. If a new trial be granted, the jury shall, within five days thereafter, unless the parties agree on a longer time, be summoned to try the issue. After a second verdict in favor of the same party, a new trial shall not be had.

Clerk to Transmit Verdict.

3550. SEC. 455. If no notice for a new trial be given, or, if given, be denied, the Clerk, within five days after the rendition of the verdict, or denial of the motion, shall transmit to the court in which the application for the writ is pending, a certified copy of the verdict, attached to the order of trial; after which either party may bring on the argument of the application, upon reasonable notice to the adverse party.

Hearing of Case.

3551. SEC. 456. If no answer be made, the case shall be heard on the papers of the applicant. If an answer be made which does not raise a question such as is mentioned in section four hundred and fifty-two, but only such matters as may be explained or avoided by a reply, the court may, in its discretion, grant time for replying. If the answer, or answer and reply, raise only questions of law, or put in issue immaterial statements, not affecting the substantial rights of the parties, the court shall proceed to hear, or fix a day for hearing, the argument of the case.

Judgment and Execution.

3552. SEC. 457. If judgment be given for the applicant, he shall recover the damages which he shall have sustained as found by the jury, or as may be determined by the court or referees, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and for such damages and costs an execution may issue, and peremptory mandate shall also be awarded without delay.

Writ, How Served.

3553. SEC. 458. The writ shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by the order of the court.

Penalty for Refusal to Obey Writ.

months, and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ. If a fine be imposed upon a Judge or officer who draws a salary from the state or county, a certified copy of the order shall be forwarded to the Controller or County Treasurer, as the case may be, and the amount thereof may be retained from the salary of such Judge or officer. Such Judge or officer, for his willful disobedience, shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office.

TITLE XIII.

Of Contempts and Their Punishments.

What Deemed Contempt.

3555. SEC. 460. The following acts or omissions shall be deemed contempts: First—Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior towards the Judge whilst holding court, or engaged in his judicial duties at chambers, or towards referees or arbitrators, while sitting on a reference or arbitration, or other judicial proceeding. Second—A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct, or violent disturbance in the presence of the court, or in its immediate vicinity, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial, or other judicial proceeding. Third—Disobedience or resistance to any lawful writ, order, rule, or process issued by the court or Judge at chambers. Fourth—Disobedience of a subpoena duly served, or refusing to be sworn or answer as a witness. Fifth—Rescuing any person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of such court or Judge at chambers. Sixth—Disobedience to the order or direction of the court made pending the trial of an action, in speaking to or in the presence of a juror concerning an action in which such juror has been impaneled to determine, or in any manner approaching or interfering with such juror, with the intent to influence his verdict.

1. CONTEMPT—CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES. The statute relating to contempts and punishments must be strictly construed, and no interpretation should be given beyond its obvious meaning. Ex Parte Sweeney, 18 Nev. 74; Maxwell v. Rives, 11 Nev. 213.

2. CONTEMPT—CRIMINAL PROCEEDING, WHEN. A contempt for the disobedience of a decree and violation of an injunction is in the nature of a criminal offense, and the proceeding for its punishment is in the nature of a criminal proceeding. Id.

3. CONTEMPT OF COURT—WHEN PROCESS IS CIVIL—If the contempt consists in the refusal of a party to do something which he is ordered to do for the benefit or advantage of the opposite party, the process is civil, and he stands committed till he complies with the order. The order in such case is not punitive, but coercive. Phillips v. Welch, 11 Nev. 187. WHEN PROCESS IS CRIMINAL. If the contempt consists in the doing of a forbidden act, injurious to the opposite party, the process is criminal, and conviction is followed by a penalty of fine or imprisonment, or both, which is purely punitive. Id.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION. This court has no appellate jurisdiction in cases of contempt where the proceeding is purely criminal. Id.

4. JURISDICTION—CONTEMPT. Jurisdiction as applied to any particular claim or controversy is the power to hear and determine that controversy, and where a person is charged with violating the decree of a court, no other court, except the one rendering the decree can hear or determine the controversy, or punish such person if found guilty of a contempt. Phillips v. Welch, 12 Nev. 159.

CONTEMPT—JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION FINAL AND CONCLUSIVE. Id.

HABEAS CORPUS DOES NOT LIE when conviction for contempt properly had. Id.

5. CONTEMPT—HABEAS CORPUS. It is not a contempt of court to fail to comply with an order which the court had no jurisdiction to make, and a party imprisoned for a contempt committed under such circumstances will be discharged upon habeas corpus. Ex Parte Gardner, 22 Nev. 281.

When Punishable Summarily.

3556. SEC. 461. When a contempt is committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or Judge at chambers, it may be punished summarily, for which an order shall be made, reciting the facts as occurring in such immediate view and presence, adjudging that the person proceeded against is thereby guilty of a contempt, and that he be punished as therein prescribed. When the contempt is not committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or Judge at chambers, an affidavit shall be presented to the court or Judge of the facts constituting the contempt, or a statement of the facts by the referees or arbitrators.

1. CONTEMPT—AFFIDAVIT FOR VERIFICATION OF. The affidavit for contempt need not show, upon its face, that the party verifying the same is beneficially interested in the proceedings. Strait v. Williams, 18 Nev. 430.

SUFFICIENCY OF AFFIDAVIT. In case of an alleged contempt for the violation of a decree of the district court, an affidavit is sufficient to give the court jurisdiction, if it substantially states the fact of the rendition of judgment restraining the party from doing certain acts, that the judgment is in full force and effect, and that the party enjoined has disobeyed the decree, and threatens to continue a violation thereof. Id.

2. AFFIDAVIT, SUFFICIENCY OF. Phillips v. Welch, 12 Nev. 158.

Attachment for Contempt, When to Issue.

3557. SEC. 462. When the contempt is not committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or Judge, a warrant of attachment may be issued to bring the person charged to answer, or without a previous arrest a warrant of commitment may, upon notice, or upon an order to show cause, be granted; and no warrant of commitment shall be issued without such previous attachment to answer, or such notice or order to show cause.

Bail May Be Given.

3558. SEC. 463. Whenever a warrant of attachment is issued pursuant to this chapter, the court or Judge shall direct, by an indorsement on such warrant, that the person charged may be let to bail for his appearance, in an amount to be specified in such endorsement.

Duty of Sheriff.

3559. SEC. 464. Upon executing the warrant of attachment, the Sheriff shall keep the person in custody, bring him before the court or Judge, and detain him until an order be made in the premises, unless the person arrested entitle himself to be discharged, as provided in the next section.

Discharge from Arrest.

3560. SEC. 465. When a direction to let the person arrested to bail is contained in the warrant of attachment, or indorsed thereon, he shall be discharged from the arrest upon executing and delivering to the officer, at any time before the return day of the warrant, a written undertaking, with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that the person arrested will appear on the return of the warrant and abide the order of the court or Judge thereupon; or they will pay as may be directed the sum specified in the warrant.

Return of Warrant.

3561. SEC. 466. The officer shall return the warrant of arrest and the undertaking, if any, received by him from the person arrested, by the return day specified therein.

Investigation of Charges.

3562. SEC. 467. When the person arrested has been brought up or appeared, the court or Judge shall proceed to investigate the charge, and shall hear any answer which the person arrested shall make to the same, and may examine witnesses for or against him, for which an adjournment may be had from time to time, if necessary.

Penalty for Contempt.

3563. SEC. 468. Upon the answer and evidence taken, the court or Judge shall determine whether the person proceeded against is guilty of the contempt charged; and if it be adjudged that he is guilty of the contempt, a fine may be imposed on him not exceeding five hundred dollars, or he may be imprisoned not exceeding five days, or both.

months, and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ. If a fine be imposed upon a Judge or officer who draws a salary from the state or county, a certified copy of the order shall be forwarded to the Controller or County Treasurer, as the case may be, and the amount thereof may be retained from the salary of such Judge or officer. Such Judge or officer, for his willful disobedience, shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office.

Fourth—Disobedience of a subpoena duly served, or refusing to be sworn or answer as a witness. Fifth—Rescuing any person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of such court or Judge at chambers. Sixth—Disobedience to the order or direction of the court made pending the trial of an action, in speaking to or in the presence of a juror concerning an action in which such juror has been impaneled to determine, or in any manner approaching or interfering with such juror, with the intent to influence his verdict.

2. AFFIDAVIT, SUFFICIENCY OF. Phillips v. Welch, 12 Nev. 158.

Attachment for Contempt, When to Issue.

3557. SEC. 462. When the contempt is not committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or Judge, a warrant of attachment may be issued to bring the person charged to answer, or without a previous arrest a warrant of commitment may, upon notice, or upon an order to show cause, be granted; and no warrant of commitment shall be issued without such previous attachment to answer, or such notice or order to show cause.

Bail May Be Given.

3558. SEC. 463. Whenever a warrant of attachment is issued pursuant to this chapter, the court or Judge shall direct, by an indorsement on such warrant, that the person charged may be let to bail for his appearance, in an amount to be specified in such endorsement.

Duty of Sheriff.

3559. SEC. 464. Upon executing the warrant of attachment, the Sheriff shall keep the person in custody, bring him before the court or Judge, and detain him until an order be made in the premises, unless the person arrested entitle himself to be discharged, as provided in the next section.

Discharge from Arrest.

3560. SEC. 465. When a direction to let the person arrested to bail is contained in the warrant of attachment, or indorsed thereon, he shall be discharged from the arrest upon executing and delivering to the officer, at any time before the return day of the warrant, a written undertaking, with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that the person arrested will appear on the return of the warrant and abide the order of the court or Judge thereupon; or they will pay as may be directed the sum specified in the warrant.

Return of Warrant.

3561. SEC. 466. The officer shall return the warrant of arrest and the undertaking, if any, received by him from the person arrested, by the return day specified therein.

Investigation of Charges.

3562. SEC. 467. When the person arrested has been brought up or appeared, the court or Judge shall proceed to investigate the charge, and shall hear any answer which the person arrested shall make to the same, and may examine witnesses for or against him, for which an adjournment may be had from time to time, if necessary.

Penalty for Contempt.

3563. SEC. 468. Upon the answer and evidence taken, the court or Judge shall determine whether the person proceeded against is guilty of the contempt charged; and if it be adjudged that he is guilty of the contempt, a fine may be imposed on him not exceeding five hundred dollars, or he may be imprisoned not exceeding five days, or both.

Act of Omission, Contempt.

3564. SEC. 469. When the contempt consists in the omission to perform an act which is yet in the power of the person to perform, he may be imprisoned until he have performed it, and in that case the act shall be specified in the warrant of commitment.

Indictment for Contempt.

3565. SEC. 470. Persons proceeded against according to the provisions of this chapter shall also be liable to indictment for the same misconduct, if it be an indictable offense, but the court before which a conviction is had on an indictment, in passing sentence shall take into consideration the punishment before inflicted.

When Defendant Does Not Appear.

3566. SEC. 471. When the warrant of arrest has been returned served, if the person arrested do not appear on the return day, the court or Judge may issue another warrant of arrest, or may order the undertaking to be prosecuted, or both. If the undertaking be prosecuted, the measure of damages in the action shall be the extent of the loss or injury sustained by the aggrieved party by reason of the misconduct for which the warrant was issued, and the costs of the proceeding.

Duty of Officer.

3567. SEC. 472. Whenever, by the provisions of this chapter, an officer is required to keep a person arrested on a warrant of attachment in custody, and to bring him before a court or Judge, the inability, from illness or otherwise, of the person to attend, shall be a sufficient excuse for not bringing him up; and the officer shall not confine a person arrested upon the warrant in a prison, or otherwise restrain him of personal liberty, except so far as may be necessary to secure his personal attendance.

Penalty for Contempt.

3568. SEC. 473. In cases of contempt the punishment shall be by fine and imprisonment; but no fine shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and no imprisonment shall exceed the period of five days, except as provided in section four hundred and sixty-nine.

FINE—IMPRISONMENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF. Held, that the fine imposed in such cases is punitive, inflicted for the public good; that imprisonment for non-payment of the fine is but a mode, provided by statute, for the enforcement of the fine, incident to the power given to the court to impose the fine, and that it cannot be regarded in the light of punishment. Ex Parte Sweeney, 18 Nev. 74.

TITLE XIV.*Of Costs.Compensation of Attorneys.

3569. SEC. 474. The measure and mode of compensation of attorneys and counselors shall be left to the agreement, express or implied, of the parties, but there shall be allowed to the prevailing party in any action in the supreme and district courts, his costs and necessary disbursements, in the action or special proceeding in the nature of an action.

Costs, When Allowed.

3570. SEC. 475. Costs shall be allowed of course to the plaintiff, upon a judgment in his favor in the following cases: First—In an action for the recovery of real property. Second—In an action to recover the possession of personal property, when the value of the property amounts to three hundred dollars or over, such value shall be determined by the jury, court, or referee by whom the action is tried. Third—In an action for the recovery of money or damages, where plaintiff recovers three hundred dollars or over. Fourth—In a special proceeding in the nature of an action.

COSTS—REGULARLY ENTERED—BECOME PART OF JUDGMENT, AND NOT SUBJECT TO COLLATERAL ATTACK. When regularly entered up in a judgment the costs of the action become a part of the judgment, and their amount and justice are not subject to collateral attack. Humboldt Co. v. Lander Co., 22 Nev. 71.

Several Actions—Costs Allowed for One Only.

3571. SEC. 476. When several actions are brought on one bond, undertaking, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other instrument in writing, or in any other case for the same cause of action, against several parties who might have been joined as defendants in the same action, no costs shall be allowed to the plaintiff in more than one of such actions, which may be at his election, if the party proceeded against in the other actions were at the commencement of the previous action openly within this state; but the disbursements of the plaintiff shall be allowed to him in each action.

Costs Allowed Defendant.

3572. SEC. 477. Costs shall be allowed of course to the defendant upon a judgment in his favor in the actions mentioned in section four hundred and seventy-five, and in a special proceeding in the nature of an action.

When Allowed or Not—Discretion of Court.

3573. SEC. 478. In other actions than those mentioned in section four hundred and seventy-five, costs may be allowed or not, and if allowed, may be apportioned between the parties, on the same or adverse sides, in the discretion of the court; but no costs shall be allowed in an action for the recovery of money or damages when the plaintiff recovers less than three hundred dollars, nor in an action to recover the possession of personal property, when the value of the property is less than three hundred dollars.

1. COSTS WHERE RECOVERY LESS THAN $300. The provision of Section 478, Practice Act, that no costs shall be allowed when less than $300 is recovered, is obviously confined to cases in the district courts, and was evidently adopted to prevent the bringing of actions in those courts which should or might be instituted in justices' courts. Klein v. Allenbach, 6 Nev. 159.

2. PLAINTIFF ENTITLED TO COSTS, though less than $300 recovered. Randall v. Com. Lyon Co., 20 Nev. 35.

3. COSTS ON MOTIONS. It is within the power of a court to permit the costs of motions made during the progress of the trial, such as to quash the service of summons, etc., to abide the event of the suit; there being no statute or rule of practice requiring the costs of such motions to be taxed against the losing party. Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265.

NOTICE OF MOTION TO RETAX COSTS—When Made. Id.

4. COSTS IN EQUITY—SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE CASES. Costs in equity are in the discretion of the court; and if a plaintiff unreasonably enforce an equitable right, depriving defendant of an opportunity to satisfy the claim made against him without suit, the relief may be granted without costs, or plaintiff may be compelled to pay defendant's costs. Welland v. Huber, 8 Nev. 203.

5. COSTS ON CORRECTING ERROR IN JUDGMENT ROLL—Will Be Allowed, When. Flannery v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 437.

Failure to Recover Against All Defendants.

3574. SEC. 479. When there are several defendants in the actions mentioned in section four hundred and seventy-five, not united in interest, and making separate defenses by separate answers, and the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against all, the court shall award costs to such of the defendants as have judgment in their favor.

Costs of Appeal.

3575. SEC. 480. In the following cases the costs of an appeal shall be in the discretion of the court: First—When a new trial is ordered. Second—When a judgment is modified.

1. COSTS ON APPEAL—Payment as Condition Precedent, Not Upheld. Gallagher v. Dunlap, 2 Nev. 326.
2. PREVAILING PARTY ENTITLED TO, though error technical and defense frivolous. Mavrich v. Grier, 3 Nev. 52.

Fee of Referee.

3576. SEC. 481. The fees of referees shall be fifteen dollars to each, for every day spent in the business of the reference; but the parties may agree in writing upon any other rate of compensation, and thereupon such rate shall be allowed.

Costs for Postponement.

3577. SEC. 482. When an application is made to a court or referee to postpone a trial, the payment of costs occasioned by the postponement may be imposed, in the discretion of the court or referee, as a condition of granting the same.

Action for Recovery of Money—Tender.

3578. SEC. 483. When, in an action for the recovery of money only, the defendant alleges in his answer that before the commencement of the action he tendered to the plaintiff the full amount to which he was entitled, and thereupon deposits in court, for the plaintiff, the amount so tendered, and the allegations be found to be true, the plaintiff shall not recover costs, but shall pay costs to the defendant.

Where Administrator Is Party.

3579. SEC. 484. In an action prosecuted or defended by an executor, administrator, trustee of express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, costs may be recovered as in an action by and against a person prosecuting and defending in his own right; but such costs shall, by the judgment, be made chargeable only upon the estate, fund, or party represented, unless the court shall direct the same to be paid by the plaintiff or defendant, personally, for mismanagement or bad faith in the action or defense.

Costs on Review.

3580. SEC. 485. When the decision of a court of inferior jurisdiction in a special proceeding is brought before a court of higher jurisdiction for a review, in any other way than by appeal, the same costs shall be allowed as in cases on appeal, and may be collected by execution, or in such manner as the court may direct, according to the nature of the case.

McFadden v. Ellsworth M. & M. Co., 8 Nev. 57.

Memorandum of Cost to Be Delivered.

3581. SEC. 486. The party in whose favor judgment is rendered and who claims his costs, shall deliver to the Clerk of the Court, within two days after the verdict or decision of the court, or such further time as the court or Judge may grant, a memorandum of the items of his cost and necessary disbursements in the action or proceeding, which memorandum shall be verified by the oath of the party, or his attorney, stating that the items are correct, and that the disbursements and costs therein named have been necessarily incurred in the action or proceeding. He shall be entitled to recover the witness fees, although at the time he may not have actually paid them. As amended, Stats. 1889, 28.

Costs in justice's court, Sec. 3681.

1. COST BILL, WHEN MUST BE FILED. If no cost bill was filed within two days after date of order for judgment, none could afterwards be filed. Howard v. Richard, 2 Nev. 128; Sholes v. Stead, 2 Nev. 107.
2. PREVAILING PARTY. Lapham v. Osborne, 20 Nev. 168.

Interest and Costs Included in Judgment.

3582. SEC. 487. The Clerk shall include in the judgment entered up by him any interest in the verdict or decision of the court or referee, from the time it was rendered or made, and the costs, if the same have been taxed or ascertained; and he shall, within two days after the same shall be taxed or ascertained, if not included in the judgment, insert the same in a blank to be left in the judgment for that purpose, and shall make a similar insertion of the costs in the copies and docket of the judgment.

Security for Costs.

3583. SEC. 488. When a plaintiff in an action resides out of the state, or is a foreign corporation, security for the costs and charges which may be awarded against such plaintiff may be required by the defendant. When required, all proceedings in the action shall be stayed until an undertaking, executed by two or more persons, be filed with the Clerk, to the effect that they will pay such costs and charges as may be awarded against the plaintiff by judgment, or in the progress of the action, not exceeding the sum of three hundred dollars. A new or an additional undertaking may be ordered by the court or Judge upon proof that the original undertaking is insufficient security, and proceedings in the action stayed until such new or additional undertaking be executed and filed.

Affidavit of Surety.

3584. SEC. 489. Each of the sureties on the undertaking mentioned in the last section shall annex to the same an affidavit that he is a resident and householder, or freeholder, within the county, and is worth double the amount specified in the undertaking, over and above all his just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution.

Action Dismissed, When.

3585. SEC. 490. After the lapse of thirty days from the service of notice that security is required, or of an order for new or additional security, upon proof thereof, and that no undertaking as required has been filed, the court or Judge may order the action to be dismissed.

TITLE XV.

Of Motions, Orders, Notices, Service of Papers, and Miscellaneous Provisions.

Orders and Motion.

3586. SEC. 491. Every direction of a court or Judge made or entered in writing, and not included in a judgment, is denominated an order. An application for an order is a motion.

Where Made.

3587. SEC. 492. Motions shall be made in the county in which the action is brought, or in an adjoining county in the same district.

Notice of Motion.

3588. SEC. 493. When a written notice of a motion is necessary, it shall be given, if the court be held in the same district where both parties reside, five days before the time appointed for the hearing, otherwise ten days; but the court or Judge may prescribe a shorter time.

NOTICE OF MOTION WHEN REQUIRED—Right of Party to Notice of Motion. Pratt v. Rice, 7 Nev. 123.

Matter May Be Transferred.

3589. SEC. 494. When a notice of a motion is given, or an order to show cause is made returnable before a Judge out of court, and at the time fixed for the motion, or, on the return day of the order, the Judge is unable to hear the parties, the matter may be transferred by his order to some other Judge before whom it might originally have been brought.

Service, How Made.

J. C.

3590. SEC. 495. Written notices and other papers, when required to be served on the party or an attorney, shall be served in the manner prescribed in the next three sections, when not otherwise provided; but nothing in this title shall be applicable to original or final process, or any proceedings to bring a party into contempt.

Sections 495 to 503, inclusive, and Sections 506 to 508, inclusive, Title XV, are made applicable to justice's courts by Section 589 of this Act.

Service of Papers, How Made.

J. C.

3591. SEC. 496. The service may be personal, by delivery to the party or his attorney, on whom the service is required to be made, or it may be as follows: First—If upon an attorney, it may be made during his absence from his office, by leaving the notice or other papers with his clerk therein, or with a person having charge thereof; or when there is no person in the office, by leaving them, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the afternoon, in a conspicuous place in the office; or if it be not open, so as to admit of such service, then by leaving them at the attorney's residence, with some person of suitable age and discretion; and if his residence be not known, then by putting the same, inclosed in an envelope, into the postoffice, directed to such attorney. Second—If upon a party, it may be made by leaving the notice or other paper at his residence, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, with some person of suitable age and discretion, and if his residence be not known, by putting the same, inclosed in an envelope, into the postoffice, directed to such party; provided, however, that in all cases where the party on whom the service is to be made has no office, or does not reside at the county seat where the action or proceeding is pending, the service may be made by filing the papers or notice to be served in the County Clerk's office and the service shall be deemed complete at the expiration of ten days from the date of such filing. As amended, Stat. 1897, 111.

Service by Mail.

J. C.

3592. SEC. 497. Service by mail may be made, when the person making the service and the person on whom it is to be made reside at different places, between which there is a regular communication by mail.

Deposit in Postoffice.

J. C.

3593. SEC. 498. In case of service by mail, the notice or other paper shall be deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the person on whom it is to be served, at his place of residence, and the postage paid. And in such case the time of service shall be increased one day for every twenty-five miles distance between the place of deposit and place of address.

When Deemed to Have Appeared.

J. C.

3594. SEC. 499. A defendant shall be deemed to appear in an action when he answers, demurs, or gives the plaintiff written notice of his appearance, or when an attorney gives notice of appearance for him. After appearance, a defendant, or his attorney, shall be entitled to notice of all subsequent proceedings of which notice is required to be given. But where a defendant has not appeared, service of notice or papers need not be made upon him, unless he be imprisoned for want of bail.

APPEARANCE. A general appearance not only waives defect in a writ, or summons, but gives jurisdiction over the person in cases where the writ was void. Curtis v. McCullough, 3 Nev. 202.

After Appearance.

J. C.

3595. SEC. 500. When a plaintiff or a defendant who has appeared resides out of the state and has no attorney in the action or proceeding, the service may be made on the Clerk for him. But in all cases where a party has an attorney in the action or proceeding, the service of papers, when required, shall be upon the attorney instead of the party, except of subpoenas, of writs, and other process issued in the suit, and of papers to bring him into contempt.

Successive Actions.

J. C.

3596. SEC. 501. Successive actions may be maintained upon the same contract or transaction, whenever after the former action, a new cause of action arises therefrom.

Actions May Be Consolidated.

J. C.

3597. SEC. 502. Whenever two or more actions are pending at one time between the same parties, and in the same court, upon causes of action which might have been joined, the court may order the actions to be consolidated into one.

Who May Bring Suit.

J. C.

3598. SEC. 503. An action may be brought by one or more persons against any other person or persons for the purpose of determining an adverse claim which the latter makes against the former, for money or property, upon an alleged obligation or liability of any nature or kind, or upon any claim for an accounting, or for any other legal or equitable relief, and also against any two or more persons for the purpose of compelling one to satisfy a debt due the other, for which plaintiff is bound as surety or otherwise. The word "person" in this section shall be deemed to include artificial as well as natural persons. As amended, Stats. 1893, 79.

Register of Actions.

3599. SEC. 504. The Clerk shall keep among the records of the court a register of actions. He shall enter therein the title of the action, with brief notes under it, from time to time, of all papers filed and proceedings had therein.

Referees.

3600. SEC. 505. When there are three referees, or three arbitrators, all shall meet, but two of them may do any act which might be done by all.

Time, Computation Of.

J. C.

3601. SEC. 506. The time within which an act is to be done, as provided in this Act, shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last. If the last day be Sunday, it shall be excluded.

Sections 506 to 508, inclusive, made applicable to justices' courts by Section 589 of this Act.

Title of Action Not Material.

J. C.

3602. SEC. 507. An affidavit, notice, or other paper, without the title of the action or proceeding in which it is made, or with a defective title, shall be as valid and effectual for any purpose as if duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to such action or proceeding.

Cause of Action Arising in Another State.

J. C.

3603. SEC. 508. When a cause of action has arisen in another state, or in a foreign country, and by the laws thereof an action thereon cannot there be maintained against a person by reason of the lapse of time, an action thereon shall not be maintained against him in this state, except in favor of a citizen thereof who has held the cause of action from the time it accrued.

TITLE XVI.*Of Proceedings in Civil Cases in Justices' Courts.CHAPTER 1—OF THE PARTIES AND THE TIME AND PLACE OF COMMENCING ACTIONS IN JUSTICES' COURTS.*Justices' Courts—Jurisdiction.

3604. SEC. 509. The provisions of title one of this Act, as to parties to actions, shall be applicable to actions of which a justice's court has jurisdiction. Justices' courts shall have jurisdiction of the following actions and proceedings: First—Of an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, if the sum claimed, exclusive of interest, does not exceed three hundred dollars. Second—Of an action for damages for injury to the person, or for taking or detaining personal property, or for injuring real or personal property, if the damages claimed do not exceed three hundred dollars. Third—Of an action for a fine, penalty, or forfeiture, not exceeding three hundred dollars, given by statute or the ordinance of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town, or village. Fourth—Of an action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money not exceeding three hundred dollars, though the penalty exceed that sum, the judgment to be given for the sum actually due. When the payments are to be made by installments, an action may be brought for each installment as it becomes due. Fifth—Of an action upon a surety bond or undertaking, though the penalty exceed, if the amount claimed does not exceed three hundred dollars. Sixth—Of an action to recover the possession of personal property, when the value of such property does not exceed three hundred dollars. Seventh—To take and enter judgment on the confession of a defendant, when the amount confessed does not exceed three hundred dollars. Eighth—Of actions for the possession of lands and tenements, where the relation of landlord and tenant exists. Ninth—Of actions when the possession of lands or tenements has been unlawfully or fraudulently obtained or withheld, in which case the proceedings shall be as prescribed by the Acts upon that subject. Tenth—Of proceedings respecting vagrants and disorderly persons. Eleventh—Of suits for the collection of taxes, where the amount of the tax sued for does not exceed three hundred dollars. The jurisdiction conferred by this section shall not extend to a civil action in which the title to real estate or mining claims, or questions to boundaries of land, are involved, or to actions to enforce mechanics' liens; and if questions of title to real property be involved, cases involving such questions shall be disposed of as hereafter provided in this Act. The courts held by Justices of the Peace shall be denominated justices' courts. They shall have no terms, but shall always be open. Justices' courts shall be held in their respective townships, precincts, or cities.

and to 1911-2

1. JURISDICTION. Courts of Justices of the Peace, being of special and limited jurisdiction, can take nothing by intentment or implication. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.
Consent of parties cannot give jurisdiction. Id.
Where a statute prescribes the mode of acquiring jurisdiction, that mode must be complied with or the proceedings will be a nullity. Id.
2. JURISDICTION. Courts of Justices of the Peace, being the mere creatures of statute, have no jurisdiction except that which is expressly granted to them by law. Paul v. Beegan, 1 Nev. 327.
3. JURISDICTION MUST BE AFFIRMATIVELY SHOWN. Mallett v. Uncle Sam M. Co., 1 Nev. 188; McDonald v. Prescott, 2 Nev. 109.
4. JUSTICE OF THE PEACE—JURISDICTION—ACTION AGAINST COUNTY. A Justice of the Peace has jurisdiction of an action against a county for a sum less than $300. Floral Spring W. Co. v. Rives, 14 Nev. 431.
5. TRANSFER OF CAUSE FROM JUSTICE'S COURT TO THE DISTRICT COURT—QUESTION OF RIGHT OF POSSESSION. Where the trial of a case, in a justice's court, involves a question of possession, and right of possession of real estate, the case should be transferred to the district court. Tull v. Anderson, 15 Nev. 426.
6. EQUITABLE DEFENSE. Cannot be pleaded in a justice's court. Duffy v. Moran, 12 Nev. 84.

Appearance in Person or by Attorney.

3605. SEC. 510. Parties in justices' courts may prosecute or defend in person or by attorney; and any person, on the request of a party, may act as his attorney, except that the Constable by whom the summons or jury process was served shall not appear or act on the trial in behalf of either party.

When Person May Be Held to Answer Out of His Own Township.

3606. SEC. 511. No person shall be held to answer to any summons issued against him from a justice court, in a civil action, in any township, precinct, or city other than the one in which he resides, except in the cases following: First—When there shall be no justice court for the township, precinct, or city in which the defendant may reside, or no Justice competent to act in the case. Second—When two or more persons jointly, or jointly and severally, bound in debt or contract, or otherwise jointly liable in the same action, and reside in different townships, precincts, or cities of the same county, or in different counties, the plaintiff may prosecute his action in a justice court of the township, precinct, or city in which any of the debtors or other persons liable may reside. Third—In case of injury to the person, or to real and personal property, the plaintiff may prosecute his action in the township, precinct, or city where the injury was committed. Fourth—When personal property unjustly taken or detained is claimed, or damages therefor are claimed, the plaintiff may bring his action in any township, precinct, or city in which the property may be found, or in which the property was taken. Fifth—When the defendant is a non-resident of the county he may be sued in any township, precinct or city, wherein he may be found. Sixth—When a person or persons has or have contracted to perform any obligation or contract at a particular place and resides or reside in another township, precinct, or city, he or they may be sued in the township, precinct, or city in which such obligation or contract is to be performed, or in which he or they reside, and for the purposes of this Act the township, precinct, or city where the goods were delivered or money loaned shall be intended to mean the place where the obligation is to be performed, and where the person or persons may be sued, at the option of the plaintiff. Seventh—When the foreclosure of a mortgage or the enforcement of a lien upon real or personal property is sought by action, the plaintiff may sue in the township, precinct, or city where the property is situated; provided, that in the county seat of any county, and also in every incorporated city, irrespective of the residence of the defendant, and irrespective of township or precinct lines. As amended, Stats. 1871, 103; 1885, 123.

SECTION 511 AND SECTION 30 TO BE CONSTRUED TOGETHER. Roy v. Whitford, 9 Nev. 370.

Judgment Upon Confession.

3607. SEC. 512. Judgment upon confession may be entered up in any justice's court in the state specified in the confession. The provisions of title ten, chapter two, of this Act shall apply to such confession, the word "Justice" being substituted for that of Clerk wherever it may occur.

Further Jurisdiction—Voluntary Appearance.

3608. SEC. 513. Justices' courts shall have jurisdiction of an action upon the voluntary appearance of the parties without summons, without regard to their residences, or the place where the cause of action arose, or the subject matter of the action may exist.

CHAPTER 2—SUMMONS, ARREST, ATTACHMENT, AND CLAIM OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

Actions, How Commenced.

3609. SEC. 514. Actions in justices' courts shall be commenced by filing a copy of the account, note, bill, bond, or instrument upon which the action is brought, or a concise statement in writing of the cause of action, and the issuance of a summons thereon, or by the voluntary appearance and pleadings of the parties without summons. In the latter case the action shall be deemed commenced at the time of appearance.

JUSTICE'S COURT—SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT AND SUMMONS. An account was filed in the justice's court against "Irving, McKay & Co."; the summons was returned served on "the defendants," and the judgment was entered by default: Held, that the complaint and summons were sufficient to sustain the judgment. Martin v. District Court, 13 Nev. 85.

Guardian, How Appointed.

3610. SEC. 515. When a guardian is necessary, he shall be appointed by the Justice as follows: First—If the infant be a plaintiff, the appointment shall be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some relative or friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed, and to be responsible for costs, if he fail in the action, shall be first filed with the Justice. Second—If the infant be defendant, the guardian shall be appointed at the time the summons is returned, or before the pleadings. It shall be the right of the infant to nominate his own guardian, if the infant be over fourteen years of age, and the proposed guardian be present and consent in writing to be appointed; otherwise the Justice may appoint any suitable person who gives such consent.

Summons, Form Of.

*Amended
p. 78
1907*

3611. SEC. 516. The summons shall be addressed to the defendant by name, or if his name be unknown, by a fictitious name, and shall summon him to appear before the Justice at his office, naming its township, precinct, or city, and at a time specified therein, to answer the complaint of the plaintiff, for a cause of action therein described in general terms, sufficient to apprise the defendant of the nature of the claim against him; and in an action for money or damages shall state the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fail to appear and answer. It shall be subscribed by the Justice before whom it is returnable.

Time of Service and Return in Different Cases, When Complete—Justice May Appoint Attorney.

1907*

3612. SEC. 517. The time mentioned in the summons for the appearance of the defendant and the time of service shall be as follows: First—When the summons is accompanied with an order to arrest the defendant, it shall be returnable immediately. Second—When the defendant is a non-resident of the township or city, or when the plaintiff is a non-resident, it shall be returnable not more than two days from its date and shall be served at least one day before the time for appearance, except in cases where it is to be served by publication, or out of the state, or by posting notices thereof, when it shall be made returnable at any time designated by the Justice, not less than six weeks nor more than four months from its issuance. Third—In all other cases it shall be returnable in not less than two nor more than ten days after its date, and shall be served at least two days before the time for appearance; provided, that in cases where an action is brought in an adjoining township, because there is no Justice in the proper township, it shall be returnable in not less than five nor more than ten days after its date. Fourth—When the person on whom the service is to be made resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid the service of summons, or being a corporation or joint stock association, cannot be served as provided in section twenty-nine, and the fact shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the Justice thereof, and it shall in like manner appear that a cause of action exists against the defendant in respect to whom the service is to be made, or that he is a necessary or proper party to the action, such Justice may grant an order that the service be made by the publication of the summons. Fifth—The order shall direct the publication to be made in a newspaper to be designated by the Justice as most likely to give notice [to] the person to be served, for a period of six weeks, and at least once a week during said time. In case of publication, where the residence of the non-resident or absent defendant is known, the Justice shall also direct a copy of the summons and complaint to be deposited in the postoffice, postage prepaid, directed to the person or corporation to be served, at residence of such person or place of business of such corporation. When publication is ordered, personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint out of the state shall be equivalent to publication and deposit in the postoffice. The service of summons shall be deemed complete in case of publication at the expiration of six weeks from the first publication, and in case where a deposit of a copy of the summons in the postoffice is also required, at the expiration of six weeks from such deposit; in action upon contracts for the direct payment of money, evidence by written instrument, the court may, instead of ordering publication, appoint an attorney to appear and answer for the non-resident, absent or concealed defendant, and conduct the proceedings on his part; but in such case where the residence of the defendant is known, a copy of the summons shall be deposited in the postoffice and addressed to the defendant, as in other cases, and the attorney so appointed shall not appear until the returned day named in the summons. As amended, Stats. 1883, 33; 1885, 122.

Summons, How Served.

3613. SEC. 518. The summons shall be served by the Sheriff or a Constable of the county, or by any male citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age, as follows: First—If the action be against a corporation, by a delivery of a copy to the President or other head of the corporation, or to the Secretary, Cashier, or managing agent thereof, or when no such officer resides in the county, to a Director resident therein. Second—If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, by delivery of a copy to such minor, and also to his father, mother, or guardian; or if there be none within the county, then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is. Third—If against a person judicially declared to be of unsound mind, or incapable of conducting his own affairs, and for whom a guardian has been appointed, by delivery of a copy to such guardian. Fourth—In all other cases, by delivery of the copy to the defendant personally.

Sections Applicable to Justices' Courts.

3614. SEC. 519. Sections thirty to thirty-five, both inclusive, of title three of this Act, are hereby made applicable to justices' courts, and proceedings therein—the word "Justice" being inserted wherever the word "Clerk" or "Judge" occurs, and the word "Constable" inserted wherever the word "Sheriff" occurs, and the word "complaint," whenever it occurs, being stricken out and disregarded; provided, that in actions upon contracts for the payment of money, the Justice may, in his discretion, instead of ordering publication of summons or the appointment of an attorney to appear for the defendant, order the service of the summons to be made by posting copies thereof in three public places in the township, within one day after the same is issued.

Order of Arrest Indorsed on Summons, When.

3615. SEC. 520. An order to arrest the defendant may be indorsed on a summons issued by the Justice, and the defendant may be arrested thereon by the Sheriff or Constable at the time of serving the summons, and brought before the Justice, and there detained until duly discharged in the following cases, arising after the passage of this Act: First—In an action for the recovery of money or damages on a cause of action arising upon a contract, express or implied, when the defendant is about to depart from the state, with intent to defraud his creditors; or where the action is for the willful injury to the person, or for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property. Second—In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use by an attorney, factor, broker, agent, or clerk, in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person in a fiduciary capacity. Third—When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt, or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought. Fourth—When the defendant has removed, concealed, or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors.

Undertaking Given Before Arrest Ordered.

3616. SEC. 521. Before an order of arrest shall be made, the party applying shall prove to the satisfaction of the Justice, by the affidavit of himself or some other person, the facts on which the application is founded. The plaintiff shall also execute and deliver to the Justice a written undertaking, with two or more sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay to him all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least two hundred dollars.

Taken Before Another Justice, When.

3617. SEC. 522. The defendant, immediately upon being arrested, shall be taken to the office of the Justice who made the order, and if he be absent or unable to try the action, or if it be made to appear to him by the affidavit of defendant that he is a material witness in the action, the officer shall immediately take the defendant before the next Justice of the city, precinct, or township, who shall take cognizance of the action, and proceed thereon as if the summons had been issued and the order of arrest made by him.

Duty of Officers Making Arrest.

3618. SEC. 523. The officer making the arrest shall immediately give notice thereof to the plaintiff, or his attorney or agent, and indorse on the summons, and subscribe a certificate, stating the time of serving the same, the time of the arrest, and of his giving notice to the plaintiff.

Kept in Custody.

3619. SEC. 524. The officer making an arrest shall keep the defendant in custody until duly discharged by order of the Justice.

Immediate Trial—Adjournment Operates as Discharge, When.

3620. SEC. 525. The defendant under arrest, on his appearance with the officer, may demand a trial immediately; and upon such demand being made, the trial shall not be delayed beyond three hours, except by the trial of another action pending at the time, or he may have an adjournment, and be discharged on giving bail, as provided in the next section. An adjournment at the request of the plaintiff, beyond three hours, shall discharge the defendant from arrest; but the action may proceed notwithstanding, and the defendant shall be subject to arrest on the execution in the same manner as if he had not been so discharged.

Defendant May Obtain Adjournment.

3621. SEC. 526. If the defendant, on his appearance, demand an adjournment, the same shall be granted, on condition that he execute and file with the Justice an undertaking, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Justice, to the effect that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action, and such as may be issued, to enforce the judgment therein, or that the sureties will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action. On filing the undertaking specified in this section, the Justice shall order the defendant to be discharged from custody.

Sections Applicable to Justices' Courts—Attachment, etc.

3622. SEC. 527. The following sections of chapter one, title five, of this Act, shall be applicable to justices' courts and proceedings therein, to wit: Eighty to eighty-five, both inclusive, and the following of chapter two, same title, to wit: Ninety-nine to one hundred and two, both inclusive; one hundred and four and one hundred and seven to one hundred and ten, both inclusive, the word "Justice" being inserted in lieu of the word "Clerk" or "Judge" wherever either occurs. and the word "Constable" in lieu of the word "Sheriff"; also section one hundred and twenty-three to one hundred and forty-four, both inclusive, the word "Justice" being inserted in lieu of the word "Clerk" or "Judge" wherever either occurs: provided, that the writ of attachment shall be directed to the Sheriff or any Constable of the county, and may be executed by the Sheriff or any Constable of the county wherein issued in any part of such county; and, provided further, that when any personal property shall be attached by a Constable, which shall, at the time, be held under attachment or execution by the Sheriff or another Constable of the same county, such last attaching Constable shall give to the officer pre-viciously seizing such property the same notice required in case of garnishments, and such officer shall, if the attachment or execution under which such property was first taken by him be set aside or satisfied, without sale of such property, turn the same over to the Constable who gave the notice, and if such property be sold by the officer first taking the same under legal process, and sell for more than sufficient to satisfy the demands of such process, or less than the whole thereof be sold to satisfy such process, the officer selling shall deliver the excess of proceeds, or surplus of property, as the case may be, and to the extent necessary, to the Constable giving such notice, and the foregoing provisions shall apply to levy under execution the same as to seizure under attachment. As amended, Stats. 1883, 49.

CHAPTER 3—PLEADINGS AND TRIAL.

Pleadings Defined.

3623. SEC. 528. The pleadings in justice's courts shall be: First—The complaint by the plaintiff, stating the cause of action. Second—The answer by the defendant, stating the ground of the defense.

Pleading Verified, When.

3624. SEC. 529. The pleadings shall be in writing, and verified by the oath of the party, his agent or attorney, when the action is: First—For the foreclosure of any mortgage or the enforcement of any lien on real or personal property. Second—Of actions for the possession of lands or tenements.

Oral to Be Entered, Written to Be Filed.

3625. SEC. 530. When the pleadings are oral, the substance of them shall be entered by the Justice in his docket; when in writing, they shall be filed in his office, and a reference made to them in the docket. Pleadings shall not be required to be in any particular form, but shall be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

Complaint.

3626. SEC. 531. The complaint shall state in a plain and direct manner the facts constituting the cause of action.

Answer.

3627. SEC. 532. The answer may contain a denial of any of the material facts stated in the complaint which the defendant believes to be untrue, and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any other facts constituting a defense or a counterclaim upon which an action may be brought by the defendant against the plaintiff in a justice's court.

What Deemed Denial.

3628. SEC. 533. A statement in answer, that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information in respect to a particular allegation in the previous pleading of the adverse party, to form a belief, shall be deemed equivalent to a denial.

Cause for Payment of Money—Account Delivered.

3629. SEC. 534. When the cause of action or counterclaim arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to deliver a copy of the account or instrument to the court, and to state that there is due to him thereupon from the adverse party a specified sum which he claims to recover or set off. The court may at the time of the pleading, require that the original account or instrument be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party, and a copy to be furnished, or if it be not so exhibited and a copy furnished, may prohibit its being afterwards given in evidence.

Signatures to Instruments Admitted, When.

3630. SEC. 535. If the plaintiff annex to his complaint, or file with the Justice at the time of issuing the summons, a copy of the promissory note, bill of exchange, or other written obligation for the payment of money, upon which the action is brought, the defendant shall be deemed to admit the genuineness of the signatures of the makers, indorsers, or assignors thereof, unless he specifically deny the same in his answer, and verify the answer by his oath.

Objections to Pleadings—Amendment.

3631. SEC. 536. Either party may object to a pleading of his adversary, or to any part thereof, that it is not sufficiently explicit to enable him to understand it, or that it contains no cause of action or defense, although it be taken as true. If the court deem the objection well founded, it shall order the pleading to be amended, and if the party refuse to amend, the defective pleading shall be disregarded.

Variance Disregarded.

3632. SEC. 537. A variance between the proof on the trial and the allegations in a pleading shall be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court be satisfied that the adverse party has been misled to his prejudice thereby.

Amendments—Adjournment—Court May Order Payment of Costs.

3633. SEC. 538. The pleadings may be amended at any time before the trial, to supply a deficiency or omission, when by such amendment substantial justice will be promoted. If the amendment be made after the issue, and it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, by oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, an adjournment shall be granted. The court may, also, in its discretion, require as a condition of an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party, to be fixed by the court, not exceeding twenty dollars, but such payment shall not be required unless an adjournment is made necessary by the amendment, nor shall an amendment be allowed after a witness is sworn on the trial, when an adjournment thereby will be made necessary.

Certification of Cause to District Court, When and How.

3634. SEC. 539. The parties shall not be at liberty to give evidence upon any question which involves the title to, or the right of possession to, or the possession of, real property or mining claims, or upon any question involving boundaries to land, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, nor shall any issue presenting such question be tried by the Justice; and if it appear from the plaintiff's own showing, on the trial, or from the answer of the defendant, verified by his oath, that the determination of the action will necessarily involve either of such questions, the Justice shall suspend all further proceedings in the action, and certify the pleadings, or if the pleadings be oral, a transcript of the same, from his docket to the district court for the county; and from the time of filing such pleadings or transcript with the Clerk of the District Court, such district court shall have over the action the same jurisdiction as if it were originally commenced therein.

JURISDICTION OF MALICIOUS MISCHIEF. Justices of the Peace have jurisdiction to try an action for malicious injury to real estate in cases where the defendant claims an adverse title to the property. Murphy v. Rising, 10 Nev. 97; Tull v. Anderson, 15 Nev. 425.

Change of Venue, When—Proceedings.

3635. SEC. 540. If at any time before the trial it appear to the satisfaction of the Justice before whom the action is brought, by affidavit of either party, that such Justice is a material witness for either party, or if either party make affidavit that he has reason to believe and does believe that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such Justice, by reason of the interest, prejudice, or bias of the Justice, on stating the facts upon which such belief is founded, the action shall be transferred to some other Justice of the same or neighboring township or precinct; and in case a jury be demanded, and affidavit of either party is made that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial, on account of the bias or prejudice of the citizens of the township or precinct against him, the action shall be transferred to some other Justice of the Peace in the county, but only one transfer shall be allowed to either party. The Justice to whom an action may be transferred by the provisions of this section shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction over the action as if it had been originally commenced before him. The Justice ordering the transfer of the action to another Justice shall immediately transmit to the latter, on payment by the applicant of all Justices' and officers' costs unpaid and due from him, and the costs of making a copy of the docket for transmission, all the papers in the action, together with a certified transcript from his docket of the proceedings therein; provided, that if the applicant shall fail to pay said costs for the space of one hour, the Judge shall vacate the order changing the place of trial and proceed to try the cause as though such order had never been made. The Justice to whom the case is transferred shall issue a notice stating the time and place, when and where the trial will take place; which notice shall be served upon the parties by any officer authorized to serve process in a justices' court, or by any person specially appointed by the Justice for that purpose, at least one day before the trial.

Adjournment of Trial—Proceedings.

3636. SEC. 541. The trial may be adjourned by consent or upon application of either party, without the consent of the other, for a period not exceeding ten days (except as provided in the next section), as follows: First—The party asking the adjournment shall, if required by his adversary, prove, by his own oath or otherwise, that he cannot, for want of material testimony which he expects to procure, safely proceed to trial; and shall show in what respect the testimony expected is material, and that he has used due diligence to procure it, and has been unable to do so. Second—That the party asking the adjournment shall also, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party who is in attendance, be then taken by deposition before the Justice, which shall accordingly be done, and testimony so taken may be read on the trial, with the same effect and subject to the same objections as if the witness were produced. But such objections shall be made at the time of taking the deposition. Third—The court may also require the moving party to state, upon affidavit, the evidence which he expects to obtain, and if the adverse party thereupon admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be postponed.

Extent of Adjournment—What to Be Shown.

3637. SEC. 542. An adjournment may be had either at the time of joining issue or at any subsequent time to which the case may stand adjourned, on application of either party, for a longer period than ten days, but not to exceed four months from the time of the return day of the summons, upon proof, by the oath of the party or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the Justice, that such party cannot be ready for trial before the time to which he desires an adjournment, for want of material evidence, particularly describing it, and that the delay has not been made necessary by an act of negligence on his part since the action was commenced; that he has used due diligence to procure the evidence, and has been unable to do so, and that he expects to procure the evidence at the time stated by him; provided, that if the adverse party admit that such evidence would be given, and consent that it may be considered as given on the trial, or offered or overruled as improper, the adjournment shall not be had.

Undertaking for Adjournment Over Ten Days.

3638. SEC. 543. No adjournment shall be granted for a period longer than ten days, upon the application of either party, except upon condition that such party file an undertaking, with sureties, to be approved by the Justice, to the effect that they will pay to the opposite party the amount of any judgment that may be recovered against the party applying, in the money or currency claimed in the pleading of the plaintiff.

When Dismissed.

3639. SEC. 544. If the plaintiff fail to appear at the return day of the summons, the action shall be dismissed. If the defendant fail to appear at the return day of the summons, or if either party fail to attend at a day to which the trial has been adjourned, or fail to make the necessary pleading or proof on his part, the case may nevertheless proceed at the request of the adverse party, and judgment shall be given in conformity with the pleadings and proofs.

Jury, When Demanded—How Formed.

3640. SEC. 545. A trial by jury shall be demanded at the time of joining issue, and shall be deemed waived if neither party then demand it. When demanded, the trial of the case shall be adjourned until a time and place fixed for the return of the jury. If neither party desire an adjournment, the time and place shall be determined by the Justice, and shall be on the same day, or within the next two days. The jury shall be summoned upon an order of the Justice, from the citizens of the city, precinct, or township, and not from the bystanders.

Number of Jurors.

3641. SEC. 546. At the time appointed for the trial the Justice shall proceed to call from the jurors summoned the names of the persons to constitute the jury for the trial of the issue. The jury, by consent of the parties, may consist of any number, not more than twelve nor less than four.

Additional Jurors.

3642. SEC. 547. If a sufficient number of competent and indifferent jurors do not attend, the Justice shall direct others to be summoned from the vicinity, and not from the bystanders, sufficient to complete the jury.

Challenging—How Tried.

3643. SEC. 548. Either party may challenge the jurors. The challenges shall be either peremptory or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges. Either party may challenge for cause on any grounds set forth in section one hundred and sixty-four. Challenges for cause shall be tried by the Justice in a summary manner, who may examine the juror challenged, and witnesses.

CHAPTER 4—JUDGMENT AND EXECUTION.

Dismissal, When Granted.

3644. SEC. 549. Judgment that the action be dismissed without prejudice to a new action may be entered with costs in the following cases: First—When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted. Second—When he fails to appear at the time specified in the summons, or upon adjournment, or within one hour thereafter. Third—When it is objected at the trial and appears by the evidence that the action is brought in the wrong county, township, city, or precinct; but if the objection be taken and overruled, it shall be cause only of reversal on appeal, and shall not otherwise invalidate the judgment; if not taken at the trial, it shall be deemed waived, and shall not be cause of reversal.

By Default.

3645. SEC. 550. When the defendant fails to appear and answer, judgment shall be given for the plaintiff as follows: First—When a copy of the account, note, bill, or other obligation upon which the action is brought was filed with the Justice at the time the summons was issued, judgment shall be given without further evidence, for the sum specified in the summons. Second—In other cases, the Justice shall hear the evidence of the plaintiff, and render judgment for such sum only as shall appear by the evidence to be just, but in no case exceeding the amount specified in the summons.

Jury Not Demanded.

3646. SEC. 551. Upon issue joined, if a jury trial be not demanded, the Justice shall hear the evidence and decide all questions of fact and of law, and render judgment accordingly.

Judgment, How and When Entered.

3647. SEC. 552. Upon a verdict the Justice shall immediately render judgment accordingly. When the trial is by the Justice, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, if the defendant has been arrested and is still in custody. In other cases it shall be entered within four days after the close of the trial. If the action be on contract against two or more defendants, and the summons is served on one or more, but not on all, the judgment shall be entered up only against those who were served or have voluntarily appeared, if the contract be a several or a joint and several contract; but if the contract be a joint contract only, the judgment shall be entered up against all the defendants, but shall only be enforced against the joint property of all and the individual property of the defendants served or who have voluntarily appeared in the action. In an action on a contract or obligation for the direct payment of money, made payable in a specified or agreed kind of money or currency, judgment for the plaintiff, whether the same be by default or after verdict or decision of the court, shall follow the contract or obligation, and be made payable in the kind of money or currency specified therein or agreed thereby.

Exceeds Jurisdiction.

3648. SEC. 553. When the amount found due to either party exceeds the sum for which the Justice is authorized to enter judgment, such party may remit the excess, and judgment may be rendered for the residue.

JUSTICE SHOULD ENTER UP JUDGMENT IMMEDIATELY ON THE RENDITION OF VERDICT. But if he omits to do so the day the verdict is rendered, still he may complete his record by afterwards entering the judgment. Fugitt v. Cox, 2 Nev. 370.

The filing of a notice of appeal and undertaking on appeal in a justice's court, after the rendition of a verdict by the jury, but before the entry of judgment thereon, does not deprive the Justice of authority to enter up judgment on the verdict. Id.

Offer of Allowance of Judgment.

3649. SEC. 554. If the defendant, at any time before the trial, offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with the costs then accrued; but if he do not accept such offer before the trial, and fail to recover in the action a sum equal to the offer, he shall not recover costs, but costs shall be adjudged against him, and, if he recover, deduct from his recovery. But the offer and failure to accept it shall not be given in evidence to affect the recovery otherwise than as to costs, as above provided.

Subject to Arrest.

3650. SEC. 555. When a judgment is rendered in a case where the defendant is subject to arrest and imprisonment thereon, it shall be so stated in the judgment and entered in the docket.

Costs to Be Added.

3651. SEC. 556. When the prevailing party is entitled to costs by this chapter, the Justice shall add their amount to the verdict, or in case of a failure of the plaintiff to recover, or in case of a dismissal of the action, shall enter up judgment in favor of defendant for the amount of such costs.

Transcript of Judgment—Process on—Lien.

3652. SEC. 557. The Justice, on demand of the party in whose favor judgment is rendered, shall give him a transcript thereof, which may be filed and docketed in the office of the Clerk of the district court for the county where the judgment was rendered. The time of the receipt of the transcript by the Clerk shall be noted by him thereon and entered in the docket, and from that time executions may be issued by the Clerk on such judgments, to the Sheriff of any other county of the state, in the same manner as upon judgments recovered in the higher courts. All process upon judgments recovered in justices' courts, to be executed within the same county, shall be issued by the Justice or his successors in office. No judgment rendered by a Justice of the Peace shall create any lien upon any lands of the defendant, unless a transcript of such judgment, certified by the Justice, be filed and recorded in the office of the County Recorder. When such transcript is to be filed in any other county than that in which the Justice resides, such transcript shall be accompanied with a certificate of the County Clerk as to the official character of the Justice. When so filed and recorded in the office of the Recorder for any county, such judgment shall constitute a lien upon and bind the lands and tenements of the judgment debtor, situated in the county where the transcript may be filed and recorded in favor of such judgment creditor, as if such judgment had been rendered in the district court for such county.

Execution May Issue.

3653. SEC. 558. Execution for the enforcement of a judgment in a justice's court may be issued on the application of the party entitled thereto, at any time within five years from the entry of judgment.

Form of Execution.

3654. SEC. 559. The execution, when issued by a Justice, shall be directed to the Sheriff or to a Constable of the county, and subscribed by the Justice by whom the judgment was rendered, or by his successor in office. It shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, by stating the names of the parties, and the name of the Justice before whom, and of the county and the township or city where, and the time when it was rendered, the amount of judgment, if it be for money, and the kind of money or currency in which it is payable, and if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon. It shall contain, in like cases, similar directions to the Sheriff or Constable as are required by the provisions of title seven of this Act, in an execution to the Sheriff.

Execution, How Executed—Sections Applicable—Proviso.

3655. SEC. 560. The Sheriff or Constable to whom the execution is directed shall proceed to execute the same in the same manner as the Sheriff is required by the provisions of title seven of this Act to proceed upon executions directed to him; and the Constable, when the execution is directed to him, shall be vested, for that purpose, with all the powers of the Sheriff. And sections two hundred and fourteen, two hundred and fifteen, and from two hundred and seventeen to two hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive, and two hundred and thirty-eight and two hundred and thirty-nine of chapter one, said title, and chapter two of the same title, are hereby made applicable to justices' courts and proceedings therein, the word "Justice" being inserted in lieu of the words "Judge" and "Clerk," whenever they occur; and a Constable to whom, and his successor in office, the writ is given, shall have all the powers and be subject to all the duties and liabilities therein given to or imposed upon the Sheriff; provided, that the words "in an amount exceeding fifty dollars," in section two hundred and forty-three, shall be deemed omitted; provided further, that sales of real property shall be made at or upon the property sold.

CHAPTER 5—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Applicable to Justices' Courts.

3656. SEC. 561. Those provisions of this Act which are referred to in this title, and no other, shall, in addition to the provisions embraced in this title, be applicable to justices' courts and proceedings therein.

Docket, How Kept.

3657. SEC. 562. Every Justice shall keep a book denominated a "docket," in which he shall enter: First—The title of every action or proceeding. Second—The object of the action or proceeding; and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount of the demand. Third—The date of the summons and the time of its return; and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, or a writ of attachment be issued, a statement of these facts. Fourth—The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their non-appearance, if default be made; a minute of the pleadings and motions, if in writing, referring to them; if not in writing, a concise statement of the material parts of the pleading, and of all motions made during the trial by either party, and his decisions thereon. Fifth—Every adjournment, stating on whose application, whether on oath, evidence, or consent, and to what time. Sixth—The demand for a trial by jury, when the same is made, and by whom made, the order for the jury, and the time appointed for the trial and return of the jury. Seventh—The names of the jury who appear and are sworn; the names of all witnesses sworn, and at whose request. Eighth—The verdict of the jury, and when received; if the jury disagree and are discharged, the fact of such disagreement and discharge. Ninth—The judgment of the court, specifying the costs included, and the time when rendered. Tenth—The issuing of execution, when issued, and to whom; the renewals thereof, if any, and when made, and a statement of any money paid to the Justice, and when and by whom. Eleventh—The receipt of a notice of appeal, if any be given, and of the appeal bond, if any be filed, and of the making and delivery of a transcript of his judgment or docket.

JUSTICE'S DOCKET—ENTRY OF SERVICE OF SUMMONS. The docket of a Justice of the Peace is only primary evidence of those facts which it is required to contain, and it is not required to contain any finding that summons has been served; but only the date of the summons and the time of its return. (Practice Act, Sec. 562.) Scorpion S. M. Co. v. Marsano, 10 Nev. 370.

Entries in Docket to Be Evidence.

3658. SEC. 563. The several particulars of the last section specified shall be entered under the title of the action to which they relate, and at the time when they occur. Such entries in a Justice's docket, or a transcript thereof, certified by the Justice or his successor in office, shall be primary evidence to prove the facts so stated therein.

Index to Docket Kept.

3659. SEC. 564. A Justice shall keep an alphabetical index to his docket, in which shall be entered the names of the parties to each judgment, with a reference to the page of entry. The names of the plaintiffs shall be entered in the index, in the alphabetical order of the first letter of the family names.

Deposited With Successor.

3660. SEC. 565. It shall be the duty of every Justice, upon the expiration of his term of office, to deposit with his successor his official dockets, as well his own as those of his predecessors, which may be in his custody, to keep as public records. If the office of a Justice become vacant by his death or removal from the township, precinct, or city, or otherwise, before his successor is elected and qualified, the dockets in possession of such Justice shall be deposited with the County Clerk of the county, to be by him delivered to the successor in office of the Justice.

Succeeding Justice May Issue Execution.

3661. SEC. 566. Any Justice with whom the docket of his predecessors is deposited, may issue execution or other process, upon a judgment there entered and unsatisfied in the same manner and with the same effect as the Justice by whom the judgment was entered might have done. In case of the creation of a new county or the change of the boundary between two counties, any Justice into Appeal, How Taken.

3676. SEC. 581. Any party dissatisfied with a judgment rendered in a justice court, may appeal therefrom to the district court for the county any time within thirty days after the rendering of judgment. The appeal shall be taken by filing a notice with the Justice, and serving a copy on the adverse party.

JURISDICTION ON APPEAL FROM JUSTICE'S COURT—JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT. No appeal lies from a judgment rendered by default in a justice's court. The district court can only retry issues of law or fact that were made in the justice's court. Martin v. District Court, 13 Nev. 86.

Causes Tried Anew—Costs Recovered, When.

3677. SEC. 582. All causes appealed to the district court shall be tried anew in said court, and said court may regulate by rule the practice in such cases in all respects not provided for by statute; provided, that the appellant shall in no case recover from respondent the cost incurred on appeal, unless he recover in the district court a judgment more favorable to himself than the judgment appealed from; but shall, unless he recover in the district court a judgment more favorable to himself than the judgment appealed from, pay the costs of respondent on appeal; and if such judgment be a money judgment in favor of appellant, and of sufficient amount to cover respondent's costs, such costs shall be deducted from said judgment; and in all other cases respondent shall have judgment against the appellant for the amount of the costs so incurred; provided, that whenever the Judge of the appellate court shall be satisfied from the evidence that the appellant had reasonable grounds for his appeal, and that such appeal was taken in good faith, for the sole purpose of promoting the ends of justice, such Judge may then order such costs to be taxed against the respondent, or may apportion the costs between the parties in such manner as will be just. As amended, Stats. 1873, 101.

Appeal, How Perfected.

3678. SEC. 583. Upon receiving the notice of appeal, and on payment of the fees of the Justice and filing an undertaking, as required in the next section, the Justice shall, within five days, securely attach to a certified copy of his docket all the papers filed in the cause, together with the notice of appeal and undertaking filed, and transmit the same to the Clerk of the District Court. The certified copy of the docket, the papers, notice and undertaking, attached together as aforesaid, shall be the transcript on appeal, and the Clerk of the District Court shall file such transcript on payment of the fees therefor. The Justice may be compelled by the district court by an order entered on motion to transmit such transcript to said Clerk, and may be fined for neglect or refusal to transmit the same. A certified copy of such order may be served on the Justice by the party or his attorney. In the district court either party shall have the benefit of all legal objections made in the justice's court. As amended, Stats. 1881, 40.

1. SECTION 583, CIVIL PRACTICE ACT, CONSTRUED. Mayberry v. Bowker, 14 Nev. 336.

2. JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT ON APPEAL FROM JUSTICE'S COURT. A district court on appeal has exactly the same jurisdiction as the Justice of the Peace from whose court the appeal is taken. Peacock v. Leonard, 8 Nev. 84.

JUDGMENT ON APPEAL FROM JUSTICE FOR FORCIBLE ENTRY ANNULLED. As a Justice of the Peace has no jurisdiction of an action of forcible entry, a district court has no jurisdiction thereof on appeal; and its proceedings and judgment to the contrary will be annulled on certiorari. Id.

3. APPEAL FROM JUSTICE'S COURT—EFFECT OF DISMISSAL. Barnett v. District Court, 18 Nev. 26.

Undertaking on Appeal Amount of Deposit in Lieu.

3679. SEC. 584. An appeal from a justice's court shall not be effectual for any purpose unless an undertaking be filed, within five days after filing the notice of appeal, with two or more sureties, in the sum of one hundred dollars, in gold coin of the United States, for the payment of the costs on the appeal, or if a stay of proceedings be claimed, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment, including costs, when the judgment is for the payment of money, or twice the value of the property, including costs, when the judgment is for the recovery of specific personal property, and shall be to the effect, when the action is for the recovery of money, that the appellant will pay the amount of the judgment appealed from, and all costs, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or the amount of any judgment, and all costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the district court. When the action is for the recovery of specific personal property, the undertaking shall be to the effect that the appellant will pay the judgment and costs appealed from, and obey the order of the court made therein, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or will pay the amount of any judgment and costs which may be recovered against him in said action in the district court, and will obey any order made by the court therein. The undertaking shall be accompanied by the affidavits of the sureties that they are residents of the county, and are each worth the amount specified in the undertaking, over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution. The adverse party may, however, except to the sufficiency of the sureties, within two days after the filing of the undertaking; and unless they and other sureties justify before the Justice from whose court the appeal is taken, within two days thereafter, upon notice to the adverse party, the appeal shall be regarded as if no undertaking had been given. A deposit of the amount of judgment appealed from, including all costs, or of the value of the property, and all costs, in actions for the recovery of specific personal property, with the Justice, shall be equivalent to the filing of the undertaking in this section mentioned; and in such cases the Justice shall transmit the money to the Clerk of the District Court, to be by him paid out on the order of the court; and all such undertakings shall be made payable in the currency in which the judgment appealed from is payable.

Stay of Proceedings.

3680. SEC. 585. If an execution be issued on the filing of the undertaking, staying all proceedings, the Justice shall, by order, direct the officer to stay all proceedings on the same. Such officer shall, upon payment of his fees for services rendered on the execution, thereupon relinquish all property levied upon, and deliver the same to the judgment debtor, together with all moneys collected from sales or otherwise. If his fees be not paid, the officer may retain so much of the property or proceeds thereof as may be necessary to pay the same.

Claim to Be Filled.

3681. SEC. 586. Costs and necessary disbursements in the action shall be allowed to the prevailing party in a justice court. The party in whose favor a judgment is rendered, and who claims his costs, shall file with the Justice, within two days after the verdict or decision of the court, or, such further time as the Justice may grant, a memorandum of the items of his cost and necessary disbursements in the action or proceeding, which shall be verified as prescribed in section four hundred and eighty-six. He shall be entitled to recover the witness fees, although at the time he may not have actually paid them. As amended, Stats. 1889, 28.

Justices to Receive Money and Pay Over.

3682. SEC. 587. Justices of the Peace shall receive from the Sheriff or Constables of their county all moneys collected on any process or order issued by their courts respectively, and all moneys paid to them in their official capacity, and shall pay the same over to the parties entitled or authorized to receive them, without delay. For a violation of this section they may be removed from their office, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Security or Deposit.

3683. SEC. 588. Justices of the Peace may require of the plaintiff a deposit of money or an undertaking as security for all costs before issuing a summons. As amended, Stats. 1893, 17.

Sections Applicable to Justice Court.

3684. SEC. 589. The provisions of chapter one, title ten, sections four hundred and ninety-five to five hundred and three, both inclusive, and five hundred and six to five hundred and eight, both inclusive, title fifteen of this Act, and the miscellaneous provisions of title eighteen, shall be applicable to justices' courts and actions therein, the word "Justice" being deemed inserted in lieu of the word "Clerk," wherever it occurs.

TITLE XVIII.

Title XVIII is made applicable to justices' courts by Section 589 of this Act.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Rules, When in Force.

3685. SEC. 590. The supreme court may make rules not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the state, for its own government and the government of the district courts; but such rules shall not be in force until thirty days after their adoption and publication.

1. RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT. Should be regarded and held to be as binding and obligatory upon litigants as any other rule of civil conduct. Lightle v. Ivancovich, 10 Nev. 41.
- MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL. Upon a motion made under Rule III of this court to reinstate an appeal which had been dismissed for failure to file the transcript within the time prescribed by Rule II, appellant must show by affidavit that he used due diligence to procure the transcript on appeal; that the appeal was taken in good faith, and that in the opinion of his counsel there are substantial errors in the record which ought to be corrected by the supreme court. Id.
2. RULES OF COURT—EFFECT OF. The rules adopted by the district court and by the supreme court, were intended to be supplemental to the provisions of the statute as rules for the government of all proceedings in the district court, and have the same force and effect as if they were incorporated in their statutory provisions. Haley v. Eureka Co. Bank, 20 Nev. 410.
3. RULE TO BE CONSIDERED ON APPEAL MUST BE EMBODIED IN STATEMENT. Marshall v. Golden Fleece M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.
4. DISCRETION OF COURTS AS TO THEIR RULES. Courts have a reasonable discretion in allowing or not allowing the requirements of their rules to be waived. Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265.
- APPELLATE COURT WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH PROPER RULES. Id.

Actions Against Sheriffs, etc.

J. C.

3686. SEC. 591. If an action be brought against a Sheriff for an act done by virtue of his office, and he give written notice thereof to the sureties on any bond of indemnity received by him, the judgment recovered therein shall be conclusive evidence of his right to recover against such sureties, and the court or Judge in vacation, may, on motion, upon notice of five days, order judgment to be entered up against them for the amount so recovered, including costs.

SECTION 591 OF CIVIL PRACTICE ACT CONSTRUED—SURETIES—BOND OF INDEMNITY. In construing the provisions of Section 591 of the Civil Practice Act: Held, that the provisions of said section could only be invoked by the Sheriff; that an order substituting the sureties as defendants in place of the Sheriff was utterly null and void. Gaudette v. Roeder, 13 Nev. 341.

Application of Terms Used.

J. C.

3687. SEC. 592. Words used in this Act in the present tense shall be deemed to include the future as well as the present; words used in the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural the singular; writing shall be deemed to include printing or printed paper; oath to include affirmation or declaration; signature or subscription to include mark when the person cannot write, his name being written near it, and witnessed by a person who writes his own name as a witness; the words "real estate," or "real property," to include mining claims. Whenever the word "territory" shall be used, it shall be held to include and apply to the District of Columbia.

Affidavit of Sureties.

J. C.

3688. SEC. 593. In all cases where an undertaking with sureties is required by the provisions of said Act, the Judge, Justice, or Clerk, or other officer taking the same, shall, unless it is otherwise provided in said Act, require the sureties to accompany the same with an affidavit that they are each worth the sum specified in the undertaking, over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; provided, that when the amount specified in an undertaking exceeds three thousand dollars, and there are more than two sureties thereon, they may state in their affidavits that they are severally worth amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, if the whole amount be equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties.

Certiorari and Mandamus, When May Issue.

3689. SEC. 594. Writs of certiorari and mandamus may be issued in the cases prescribed by said Act, by a Judge of the supreme court or district court in vacations, and may, in the discretion of the Judge issuing the writ, be made returnable and a hearing may be had on the return thereof in vacation.

Writ of Attachment.

J. C.

3690. SEC. 595. Whenever property has been taken by an officer under a writ of attachment, in pursuance of the provisions of said Act, and it shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court, or a Judge thereof, that the interests of the parties to the action will be sustained by the sale thereof, the court, or Judge may order such property to be sold, in the same manner as property is sold under an execution, and the proceeds to be deposited in court to abide the judgment in the action. Such order shall be made only upon notice to the adverse party, or his attorney, in case such party has been personally served with a summons in the action.

Document in Hands of Public Officer as Evidence.

J. C.

3691. SEC. 596. A copy of any record, document, or paper in the custody of a public officer of this state, or of the United States, within this state, certified under the official seal, or verified by the oath of such officer to be a true, full, and correct copy of the original in his custody, may be read in evidence in any action or proceeding in the courts of this state, in like manner and with the like effect as the original could be if produced.

Copartners, Actions Against.

J. C.

3692. SEC. 597. When two or more persons, associated in any business, transact such business under a common name, whether it comprises the names of such persons or not, the associates may be sued by such common name, the summons in such cases being served on one or more of the associates, but the judgment in such case shall bind only the joint property of the associates. Same - Sec 388 C.C.P. of California

Substitution, When May Be Made.

J. C.

3693. SEC. 598. A defendant against whom an action is pending upon a contract, or for specific personal property, may, at any time before answer, upon affidavit that a person not a party to the action makes against him, and without any collusion with him, a demand upon the same contract, or for the same property, upon due notice to such person, and the adverse party, apply to the court for an order to substitute such person in his place, and discharge him from liability to either party, on his depositing in court the amount claimed on the contract, or delivering the property, or its value, to such person as the court may direct; and the court may, in its discretion, make the order.

Intervention, When Made.

J. C.

3694. SEC. 599. Any person shall be entitled to intervene in an action who of money or an undertaking as security for all costs before issuing a summons. As amended, Stats. 1893, 17.

Sections Applicable to Justice Court.

3684. SEC. 589. The provisions of chapter one, title ten, sections four hundred and ninety-five to five hundred and three, both inclusive, and five hundred and six to five hundred and eight, both inclusive, title fifteen of this Act, and the miscellaneous provisions of title eighteen, shall be applicable to justices' courts and actions therein, the word "Justice" being deemed inserted in lieu of the word "Clerk," wherever it occurs.

TITLE XVIII.

Title XVIII is made applicable to justices' courts by Section 589 of this Act.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Rules, When in Force.

3685. SEC. 590. The supreme court may make rules not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the state, for its own government and the government of the district courts; but such rules shall not be in force until thirty days after their adoption and publication.

1. RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT. Should be regarded and held to be as binding and obligatory upon litigants as any other rule of civil conduct. Lightle v. Ivancovich, 10 Nev. 41.
- MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL. Upon a motion made under Rule III of this court to reinstate an appeal which had been dismissed for failure to file the transcript within the time prescribed by Rule II, appellant must show by affidavit that he used due diligence to procure the transcript on appeal; that the appeal was taken in good faith, and that in the opinion of his counsel there are substantial errors in the record which ought to be corrected by the supreme court. Id.
2. RULES OF COURT—EFFECT OF. The rules adopted by the district court and by the supreme court, were intended to be supplemental to the provisions of the statute as rules for the government of all proceedings in the district court, and have the same force and effect as if they were incorporated in their statutory provisions. Haley v. Eureka Co. Bank, 20 Nev. 410.
3. RULE TO BE CONSIDERED ON APPEAL MUST BE EMBODIED IN STATEMENT. Marshall v. Golden Fleece M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.
4. DISCRETION OF COURTS AS TO THEIR RULES. Courts have a reasonable discretion in allowing or not allowing the requirements of their rules to be waived. Caples v. C. P. R. Co., 6 Nev. 265.

APPELLATE COURT WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH PROPER RULES. Id.

Actions Against Sheriffs, etc.

J. C.

3686. SEC. 591. If an action be brought against a Sheriff for an act done by virtue of his office, and he give written notice thereof to the sureties on any bond of indemnity received by him, the judgment recovered therein shall be conclusive evidence of his right to recover against such sureties, and the court or Judge in vacation, may, on motion, upon notice of five days, order judgment to be entered up against them for the amount so recovered, including costs.

SECTION 591 OF CIVIL PRACTICE ACT CONSTRUED—SURETIES—BOND OF INDEMNITY. In construing the provisions of Section 591 of the Civil Practice Act: Held, that the provisions of said section could only be invoked by the Sheriff; that an order substituting the sureties as defendants in place of the Sheriff was utterly null and void. Gaudette v. Roeder, 13 Nev. 341.

Application of Terms Used.

J. C.

3687. SEC. 592. Words used in this Act in the present tense shall be deemed to include the future as well as the present; words used in the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural the singular; writing shall be deemed to include printing or printed paper; oath to include affirmation or declaration; signature or subscription to include mark when the person cannot write, his name being written near it, and witnessed by a person who writes his own name as a witness; the words "real estate," or "real property," to include mining claims. Whenever the word "territory" shall be used, it shall be held to include and apply to the District of Columbia.

Affidavit of Sureties.

J. C.

3688. SEC. 593. In all cases where an undertaking with sureties is required by the provisions of said Act, the Judge, Justice, or Clerk, or other officer taking the same, shall, unless it is otherwise provided in said Act, require the sureties to accompany the same with an affidavit that they are each worth the sum specified in the undertaking, over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; provided, that when the amount specified in an undertaking exceeds three thousand dollars, and there are more than two sureties thereon, they may state in their affidavits that they are severally worth amounts less than that expressed in the undertaking, if the whole amount be equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties.

Certiorari and Mandamus, When May Issue.

3689. SEC. 594. Writs of certiorari and mandamus may be issued in the cases prescribed by said Act, by a Judge of the supreme court or district court in vacations, and may, in the discretion of the Judge issuing the writ, be made returnable and a hearing may be had on the return thereof in vacation.

Writ of Attachment.

J. C.

3690. SEC. 595. Whenever property has been taken by an officer under a writ of attachment, in pursuance of the provisions of said Act, and it shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court, or a Judge thereof, that the interests of the parties to the action will be sustained by the sale thereof, the court, or Judge may order such property to be sold, in the same manner as property is sold under an execution, and the proceeds to be deposited in court to abide the judgment in the action. Such order shall be made only upon notice to the adverse party, or his attorney, in case such party has been personally served with a summons in the action.

Document in Hands of Public Officer as Evidence.

J. C.

3691. SEC. 596. A copy of any record, document, or paper in the custody of a public officer of this state, or of the United States, within this state, certified under the official seal, or verified by the oath of such officer to be a true, full, and correct copy of the original in his custody, may be read in evidence in any action or proceeding in the courts of this state, in like manner and with the like effect as the original could be if produced.

Copartners, Actions Against.

J. C.

3692. SEC. 597. When two or more persons, associated in any business, transact such business under a common name, whether it comprises the names of such persons or not, the associates may be sued by such common name, the summons in such cases being served on one or more of the associates, but the judgment in such case shall bind only the joint property of the associates.

Substitution, When May Be Made.

J. C.

3693. SEC. 598. A defendant against whom an action is pending upon a contract, or for specific personal property, may, at any time before answer, upon affidavit that a person not a party to the action makes against him, and without any collusion with him, a demand upon the same contract, or for the same property, upon due notice to such person, and the adverse party, apply to the court for an order to substitute such person in his place, and discharge him from liability to either party, on his depositing in court the amount claimed on the contract, or delivering the property, or its value, to such person as the court may direct; and the court may, in its discretion, make the order.

Intervention, When Made.

J. C.

3694. SEC. 599. Any person shall be entitled to intervene in an action who has an interest in the matter in litigation, in the success of either of the parties to the action, or an interest against both. An intervention takes place when a third person is permitted to become a party to an action between other persons, either by joining the plaintiff in claiming what is sought by the complaint, or by uniting with the defendant in resisting the claims of the plaintiff, or by demanding anything adversely to both the plaintiff and the defendant.

1. INTEREST OF INTERVENOR IN SUIT. To entitle a person to intervene, he must have such an interest in the matter in litigation that he would either gain or lose by the direct legal operation and effect of the judgment which might be rendered in the suit between the original parties. Harlan v. Eureka M. Co., 10 Nev. 92.
2. RIGHTS OF INTERVENOR—Answer—Relief Granted. Marshall v. G. F. M. Co., 16 Nev. 156.
3. NOTICE AND FILING OF CLAIM—NATURE AND EFFECT. The service of notices, and the filing of a preferred claim is in the nature of a petition in intervention, and if either the debtor or the creditor serve written objections thereto, it becomes the duty of the claimant, within ten days, to commence an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to establish his claim. Alexander v. Archer, 21 Nev. 22.

Intervention, When May Be Made.

J. C.

3695. SEC. 600. A third person may intervene either before or after issue has been joined in the cause.

Petition of Intervention.

J. C.

3696. SEC. 601. The intervention shall be by petition or complaint filed in the court in which the action is pending, and it must set forth the grounds on which the intervention rests. A copy of the petition or complaint shall be served upon the party or parties to action against whom anything is demanded, who shall answer it as if it were an original complaint in the action.

OBJECTIONS TO INSUFFICIENCY OF PETITION. Where there is no statement of any fact which entitles petitioner to intervene, the petition must be treated the same as a complaint which fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action; hence an objection to its sufficiency can be taken at any time. Harlan v. Eureka M. Co., 10 Nev. 92.

Court to Determine on Intervention.

J. C.

3697. SEC. 602. The court shall determine upon the intervention at the same time that the action is decided; if the claim of the party intervening is not sustained he shall pay all costs incurred by the intervention.

Discovery.

J. C.

3698. SEC. 603. No action to obtain a discovery under oath, in aid of the prosecution or defense of another action or proceeding, shall be allowed.

Justification of Sureties.

J. C.

3699. SEC. 604. In all cases not otherwise provided for in this Act, where sureties are required to justify, they shall appear before the officer or person authorized to take the justification, and may be examined under oath by such officer or person and the adverse party, touching their qualifications as sureties, which examination shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by the sureties if required. If, upon such examination, it shall appear to such officer or person that said sureties, or either of them, have the necessary qualifications of such, he shall so indorse upon the statement, and cause the same to be filed, and thereupon the justification shall be complete.

Public Debt.

3700. SEC. 605. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to interfere with or affect any of the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to establish the financial transactions of this state upon a coin basis," approved February second, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine; but the public debts therein mentioned shall be paid in the currency prescribed by said Act.

Acts Repealed.

3701. SEC. 606. An Act of the legislature of the late Territory of Nevada.

entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice of the Territory of Nevada," passed November twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; and an Act of said legislature entitled "An Act to amend an Act to regulate proceedings in the courts of justice in this territory," passed February twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four; and all Acts and parts of Acts amendatory of or supplementary to said Act of November twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and "An Act to regulate the civil jurisdiction and practice in justices' courts, and to consolidate into one Act former provisions on the subject," approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act, are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not invalidate any judgment rendered, or order made, or any proceedings already taken by virtue of said Acts or parts of Acts.

An Act to provide for an alias summons.

Approved February 23, 1899, 26.

Alias Summons.

3702. SECTION 1. Whenever any summons shall be returned not executed as to any defendant, the plaintiff shall be entitled to another summons, toties quoties, against such defendant, if he shall require it, until due service shall be made.

under N. 318- Sec. 1907

An Act defining the time of commencing civil actions.

Approved November 21, 1861, 26.

When May Be Commenced.

3703. SECTION 1. Civil actions can only be commenced within the periods prescribed in this Act, after the cause of action shall have accrued, except where a different limitation is prescribed by statute.

1. DELINQUENT TAXES. The statute of limitation applies to suits brought by the state for the collection of delinquent taxes. State v. Yellow Jacket S. M. Co., 14 Nev. 220.

2. EQUITABLE ACTIONS. Statute of limitations embraces equitable as well as legal actions and is obligatory upon the courts in both. White v. Sheldon, 4 Nev. 280.

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS AS TO TRUSTS—Actions Against Trustees. Id.

3. EQUITY—FRAUD. Lang Syne M. Co. v. Ross, 20 Nev. 127.

4. MISTAKE IN DEED—Confidential Relations—Laches. Wilson v. Wilson, 23 Nev. 267.

Entitled to Whole Period.

3704. SEC. 2. When the cause of action has already accrued, the party entitled, and those claiming under him, shall have, after the passage of this Act, the whole period herein prescribed, in which to commence an action.

State Not to Sue, When.

3705. SEC. 3. The State of Nevada will not sue any person for, or in respect to, any real property, or the issues or profits thereof, by reason of the right or title of the state to the same, unless: First, such right or title shall have accrued within ten years before any action or other proceeding for the same; or, unless, second, the state, or those from whom it claims, shall have received the rents and profits of such real property, or of some part thereof within the space of ten years. As amended, Stats. 1867, 85.

Action for Recovery of Mining Claims—Meaning of Terms.

3706. SEC. 4. No action for the recovery of mining claims, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, shall be maintained, unless it appear that the plaintiff, or those through or from whom he claims, were seized or possessed of such mining claim, or were the owners thereof, according to the laws and customs of the district embracing the same, within two years before the commencement of such action. Occupation and adverse possession of a mining claim shall consist in holding and working the same, in the usual and customary mode of holding and working similar claims in the vicinity thereof. All the provisions of this Act, which apply to other real estate, so far as applicable, shall be deemed to include and apply to mining claims; provided, that in such application "two years" shall be held to be the period intended whenever the term "five years" is used; and, provided further, that when the terms "legal title" or "title" are used, they shall be held to include title acquired by location or occupation, according to the usages, laws, and customs of the district embracing the claim. As amended, Stats. 1867, 85.

1. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS AS TO MINING CLAIMS. Does not conflict with United States statutes. Four-Twenty M. Co. v. Bullion M. Co., 9 Nev. 240.
2. MINING GROUND, TITLE BY PATENT, STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. The statute of limitations does not begin to run against a person entitled to the legal title to mining ground until the patent is issued to him. South End M. Co. v. Tinney, 22 Nev. 221.
3. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—POSSESSION OF TENANT IN COMMON—WHEN ADVERSE—NOTICE. To make the possession of one tenant in common adverse as against the others, it is not necessary that notice should be given of the adverse intent; but the intent must be manifested by outward acts of an unequivocal kind. Abernathie v. Con. Va. M. Co., 16 Nev. 261.

Limitation for Recovery of Real Property.

3707. SEC. 5. No cause of action, or defense to an action, founded upon the title to real property, or to rents, or to services out of the same, shall be effectual, unless it appear that the person prosecuting the action, or making the defense, or under whose title the action is prosecuted, or the defense is made, or the ancestor, predecessor, or grantor of such person, was seized or possessed of the premises in question within five years before the committing of the act in respect to which said action is prosecuted or defense made. As amended, Stats. 1867, 85.

Peaceable Entry Not Valid as Claim.

3708. SEC. 6. No peaceable entry upon real estate shall be deemed sufficient and valid as a claim, unless an action be commenced by the plaintiff for possession within one year from the making of such entry, or within five years from the time when the right to bring such action accrued. As amended Stats. 1867, 85.

Establishing Legal Title—Adverse Possession.

3709. SEC. 7. In every action for the recovery of real property, or the possession thereof, the person establishing a legal title to the premises shall be presumed to have been possessed thereof within the time prescribed by law; and the occupation of such premises by any other person shall be deemed to have been under and in subordination to the legal title, unless it shall appear: First—That it has been protected by a substantial inclosure; or, Second—That it has been cultivated or improved in accordance with the usual and ordinary methods of husbandry; provided, that in no case shall adverse possession be considered established unless it be shown, in addition to the above requirements, that the land has been occupied and claimed for the period of five years, continuously, and that the party or persons, their predecessors and grantors, have paid all taxes, state, county and municipal, which may have been levied and assessed against said land for the period above mentioned. As amended, Stats. 1887, 111.

1. MORTGAGEE IN POSSESSION. When a debt, secured by mortgage, is barred by the statute of limitations, the mortgage is not thereby extinguished. Henry v. Confidence G. & S. M. Co., 1 Nev. 619.

Even when all action or legal proceeding on the mortgage is barred, still, if the mortgagee gets rightful possession of the premises mortgaged, he may retain the same until his debt is paid. Id.

2. LEGAL TITLE. Party is entitled to maintain an action for the possession of real property at any time before the expiration of five years of adverse possession after he obtained the legal title. Treadway v. Wilder, 12 Nev. 108.

WHEN TIME BEGINS TO RUN. Id.

3. AMENDING COMPLAINT. When an action has been brought in due time for one piece or portion of property, it would be bad practice to allow the complaint to be so amended as to include another piece of property which would otherwise be protected from recovery by the statute of limitations, and thus embarrass the defense under that statute. Bullion M. Co. v. Cæsus M. Co., 2 Nev. 168.

Claim Under Conveyance.

3710. SEC. 8. Whenever it shall appear that the occupant, or those under whom he claims, entered into the possession of premises, under claim of title, exclusive of any other right, founding such claim upon a written instrument, as being a conveyance of the premises in question, or upon the decree or judgment of a competent court, and that there has been a continued occupation and possession of the premises included in such instrument, decree, or judgment, or of some part of such premises, under such claim, for five years, the premises so included shall be deemed to have been held adversely, except that where the premises so included consist of a tract divided into lots, the possession of one lot shall not be deemed a possession of any other lot of the same tract.

Adverse Possession Defined.

3711. SEC. 9. For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession by any person claiming a title founded upon a written instrument, or judgment, or decree, land shall be deemed to have been possessed and occupied in the following cases: First—Where it has been usually cultivated and improved. Second—Where it has been protected by a substantial inclosure. Third—Where (though not inclosed) it has been used for the supply of fuel, or of fencing timber, for the purposes of husbandry; or for the use of pasturage, or for the ordinary uses of the occupant. Fourth—Where a known lot, or single farm, not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres in extent, has been partly improved, the portion of such farm or lot that may have been left not cleared, or not inclosed, according to the usual course and custom of the adjoining country, shall be deemed to have been occupied for the same length of time as the part improved and cultivated.

Claim Not Founded on Written Instrument.

3712. SEC. 10. Where it shall appear that there has been an actual continued occupation of premises, under a claim of title, exclusive of any other right, but not founded upon a written instrument, or a judgment, or decree, the premises so actually occupied, and no other, shall be deemed to have been held adversely.

Adverse Possession—Inclosure or Cultivation.

3713. SEC. 11. For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession, by a person claiming title, not founded upon a written instrument, judgment, or decree, land shall be deemed to have been possessed and occupied in the following cases only: First—Where it has been protected by a substantial inclosure. Second—Where it has been usually cultivated or improved.

Landlord and Tenant.

3714. SEC. 12. Whenever the relation of landlord and tenant shall have existed between any persons, the possession of the tenant shall be deemed the possession of the landlord until the expiration of five years from the expiration of the tenancy, or, where there has been no written lease, until the expiration of five years from the time of the last payment of rent, notwithstanding that such tenant may have acquired another title, or may have claimed to hold adversely to his landlord. But such presumptions shall not be made after the periods herein limited.

Descent Cast.

3715. SEC. 13. The right of a person to the possession of any real property, shall not be impaired or affected by a descent being cast in consequence of the death of a person in possession of such property.

Disabilities.

3716. SEC. 14. If a person entitled to commence any action for the recovery of real property, or to make an entry or defense, founded on the title to real property, or to rents, or services, out of the same, be, at the time such title shall first descend, or accrue, either: First, within the age of twenty-one years; or, second, insane; or, third, imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution upon conviction of a criminal offense, for a term less than for life; or, fourth, a married woman.

Time Not to Run During Disability.

3717. SEC. 15. The time during which such disability shall continue, shall not be deemed any portion of the time in this Act limited for the commencement of such action, or the making of such entry or defense, but such action may be commenced, or entry or defense made, within the period of five years after such disability shall cease, or after the death of the person entitled, who shall die under such disability; but, such action shall not be commenced, or entry or defense made, after that period.

Limitations of Various Actions—Six, Four, Three and Two Years.

3718. SEC. 16. (Sec. 1.) Actions other than those for the recovery of real property, can only be commenced as follows:

Within six years: First—An action upon a judgment, or decree of any court of the United States, or of any state or territory within the United States. Second—An action upon a contract, obligation, or liability, founded upon an instrument in writing, except those mentioned in the preceding section.

Within four years: First—An action on an open account for goods, wares, and merchandise sold and delivered. Second—An action for any article charged in a store account. Third—An action upon a contract, obligation, or liability, not founded upon an instrument in writing.

Within three years: First—An action upon a liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture. Second—An action for trespass upon real property. Third—An action for taking, detaining, or injuring any goods or chattels, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property. Fourth—An action for relief on the ground of fraud; the cause of action in such case not to be deemed to have accrued until the discovery by the aggrieved party of the facts constituting the fraud.

Within two years: First—An action against a Sheriff, Coroner, or Constable, upon the liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an official duty, including the non-payment of money collected upon an execution. Second—An action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, where the action is given to an individual, or an individual and the state, except when the statute imposing it prescribes a different limitation. Third—An action for libel, slander, assault, battery, or false imprisonment. Fourth—An action upon a statute for a forfeiture or penalty to the state. Fifth—An action against a Sheriff, or other officer, for the escape of a prisoner arrested or imprisoned on civil process.

Time, How Reckoned.

3719. (SEC. 2.) The time in section one of this Act shall be deemed to date from the last transaction, or the last item charged, or last credit given.

Transactions Already Barred.

3720. (SEC. 3.) The provisions of this Act shall not effect [affect] any transaction already barred by statute, or existing contracts or obligations made and incurred prior to the passage of this Act, but the same shall be governed in accordance with the provisions of law in force at the date they were contracted or incurred. As amended, Stats. 1867, 86; 1877, 114.

1. IDEM—RECORD OF MORTGAGE—NOTICE. When a mortgage is duly recorded it secures the mortgage against third persons to the same extent that he is secured against the mortgagor. Bassett v. Monte Cristo M. Co., 15 Nev. 293.

2. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—ACTION ON MORTGAGE WHERE REMEDY ON DEBT BARRED. Where money is loaned without note or writing and a mortgage is given to secure its repayment, though the statute of limitations may run against an action on the debt in two years, it does not run against a foreclosure of the mortgage in less than four years. Cookes v. Culbertson, 9 Nev. 199.
3. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. When a deed to real estate, absolute upon its face, is given to secure a debt, and there is no agreement when such debt shall become due, the statute of limitations begins to run in favor of the grantee in possession immediately on the delivery of the deed. Borden v. Clow, 21 Nev. 275.
- OPERATION OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—PAYMENT OF TAXES BY THE MORTGAGOR. In an action to redeem mortgaged real estate the payment of taxes on the land by either the mortgagor or the mortgagee after the mortgage debt was due will not arrest the operation of the statute of limitations in favor of the mortgagee in possession, and such action is barred when not brought within six years after the maturity of the debt. Id.
4. BAIL BOND—AN INSTRUMENT IN WRITING, BARRED IN SIX YEARS. Not a forfeiture or penalty to the state, barred in two years. State v. Murphy, 23 Nev. 390.
5. ACTION TO REDEEM PERSONAL PROPERTY FROM LIEN OF CHATTEL MORTGAGE—LIMITATION OF ACTIONS. The statute of limitations does not begin to run against an action by the mortgagor of chattels to redeem until the possession of the mortgagee becomes adverse, although an action for the debt secured is barred. Shoecraft v. Beard, 20 Nev. 182.
6. PAROL ADOPTION OF WRITTEN CONTRACT—STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. If a party adopt by mere parol promise the written contract of another, his obligation will be barred by the limitation prescribed for parol contracts. Wheeler v. Schad, 7 Nev. 204.
7. WRIT OF RESTITUTION ON JUDGMENT—Not Issuable, When. Perkins v. S. N. S. M. Co., 10 Nev. 405.
8. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS AS AGAINST JUDGMENT. Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev.
9. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Where subscriptions to the capital stock of a corporation are payable upon call, and when no call is made, the obligation is a subsisting one, and the statute of limitations is not available as a defense unless set in motion by some adverse action. Thompson v. Reno Savings Bank, 19 Nev. 171.
10. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—When Will Begin to Run. Davis v. Com. Lincoln Co., 23 Nev. 262, and 25 Nev.

Actions on Open Account, When Accrued.

3721. SEC. 17. In an action brought to recover a balance due upon a mutual, open, and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands between the parties, the cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued from the time of the last item proved in the account on either side.

1. "MUTUAL, OPEN AND CURRENT ACCOUNTS." A "mutual, open and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands," within the meaning of Section 17 of the statute of limitations, is one consisting of demands upon which each party respectively might maintain an action. Warren v. Sweeney, 4 Nev. 101.

THE SAME. If all the items on one side of an account were intended by the parties as payments or credits on account, it is not a mutual, open and current account where there are reciprocal demands. Id.

PERSONAL PROPERTY DELIVERED ON ACCOUNT. If an article of personal property be delivered to a creditor, with an understanding between him and the debtor that it shall apply as payment, the transaction would not constitute a mutual account, consisting of reciprocal demands between them. Otherwise, if delivered without such understanding. Id.

Action for Relief—Four Years.

3722. SEC. 18. An action for relief, not hereinbefore provided for, must be commenced within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

Limitations to Apply to State.

3723. SEC. 19. The limitations prescribed in this Act shall apply to actions brought in the name of the state, or for the benefit of the state, in the same manner as to actions by private parties. As amended, Stats. 1867, 86.

DELINQUENT TAXES. State v. Yellow Jacket S. M. Co., 14 Nev. 220.

Action Deemed Commenced, When.

3724. SEC. 20. An action shall be deemed to be commenced, within the meaning of this Act, when the complaint has been filed in the proper court, and summons issued and placed in the hands of the Sheriff of the county, or other person authorized to serve the same.

Time of Absence of Defendant from State Not to Count.

3725. SEC. 21. If, when the cause of action shall accrue against a person, he be out of the state, the action may be commenced within the time herein limited after his return to the state; and if after the cause of action shall have accrued he depart the state, the time of his absence shall not be part of the time prescribed for the commencement of the action. As amended, Stats. 1867, 86.

1. SECTION 21 of the statute of limitations does not in any way qualify Section 5 of the same Act. Chollar-Potosi M. Co. v. Kennedy, 3 Nev. 361.

Section 5 prescribes the general rule as to limitations of real actions or actions for the possession of real estate, and Sections 14 and 15 declare the only exceptions to that rule. Id. Section 16 declares the limitation in personal actions, and Section 21 the exceptions to the general rule. Id.

2. CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Section 21 of the statute of limitations in the use of the expression "cause of action," includes real actions or actions as to real estate as well as personal action. Robinson v. Imperial M. Co., 5 Nev. 44.

3. ABSENCE FROM STATE. Defendant, as to avail himself of the bar of the statute of limitations, must have been within the state for the full time limited by the statute after the cause of action accrued against him. Todman v. Purdy, 5 Nev. 238.

4. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—CONSTRUCTION OF SECTION 21. Section 21 of the statute of limitations applies to the class of cases mentioned in Section 32 as well as those mentioned in Section 16. It applies to all causes of action; to foreign corporations as well as individuals absent from the state; to contracts made out of the state to be performed within it, as well as contracts made within the state. Sutro T. Co. v. S. B. M. Co., 19 Nev. 121.

5. FOREIGN CORPORATION CANNOT PLEAD STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Robinson v. Imp. M. Co., 5 Nev. 44; State v. C. P. R. Co., 10 Nev. 47; Barstow v. Union Con. M. Co., 10 Nev. 386; Todman v. Purdy, 5 Nev. 238.

Continuance of Disability Not to Count.

3726. SEC. 22. If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of real property, except for a penalty or forfeiture, or against a Sheriff or other officer for an escape, be, at the time the cause of action accrued, either: First, within the age of twenty-one years; or, second, insane; or, third, imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution under the sentence of a criminal court, for a term less than his natural life; or, fourth, a married woman; the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Representative of Deceased Person.

1. SECTION 23 CONSTRUED. Wick v. O'Neale, 2 Nev. 303.

2. ON REHEARING—STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS, SECTIONS 18 AND 23 CONSTRUED. In construing the statute of limitations: Held, that the mortgagee is entitled to have a person in esse within this state, against whom she could bring suit, for the full period of time prescribed in Section 16, and that the object of Section 23 was to extend the time, in certain cases, within which actions might be commenced and was not intended to limit the time given by other sections of the act. Rickards v. Hutchinson, 18 Nev. 216.

Action by Alien Enemy.

3728. SEC. 24. When a person shall be an alien subject, or citizen of a country at war with the United States, the time of the continuance of the war shall not be a part of the period limited for the commencement of the action; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to consider any citizen or person of any state engaged in rebellion against the United States government as an alien.

Judgment Reversed—Action to Be Brought Within One Year.

3729. SEC. 25. If an action shall be commenced within the time prescribed therefor, and a judgment therein for the plaintiff be reversed on appeal, the plaintiff, or if he die and the cause of action survive, his heirs or representatives, may commence a new action within one year after the reversal.

Stayed by Injunction.

3730. SEC. 26. When the commencement of one action shall be stayed by injunction or statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of the injunction or prohibition shall not be part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Disability, When Available.

3731. SEC. 27. No person shall avail himself of a disability, unless it existed when his right of action accrued.

Where Disabilities Coexist.

3732. SEC. 28. When two or more disabilities coexist, at the time the right of action accrues, the limitation shall not attach until they all be removed.

Penalty Against Corporators.

3733. SEC. 29. The preceding sections of this Act shall not affect actions against directors or stockholders of a corporation to recover a penalty or forfeiture imposed or to enforce a liability created by law; but such actions must be brought within three years after the discovery, by the aggrieved party, of the facts upon which the penalty or forfeiture attached, or the liability was created.

Renewal of Cause to Be in Writing.

3734. SEC. 30. No acknowledgment or promise shall be sufficient evidence of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take the case out of the operation of this statute, unless the same be contained in some writing signed by the party to be charged thereby.

SEC. 31 amended, Stats. 1861, 40; amendatory Act repealed, Stats. 1867, 87.

1. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS—PART PAYMENT. Part payment is not sufficient as a new promise to take a case out of the operation of the statute of limitations. Wilcox v. Williams, 5 Nev. 206.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT MUST BE DISTINCT. An acknowledgment, to take a case out of the operation of the statute of limitations, must be clear, explicit, and direct to the point that the debt is due. Id.

BURDEN OF PROOF ON NEW PROMISE. If a plaintiff, relying upon an acknowledgment in writing to take a case out of the operation of the statute of limitations, proves a general acknowledgment of indebtedness, the burden of proof is on the defendant to show that it related to a different demand from the one in controversy. Id.

CONDITIONAL NEW PROMISE. A promise to pay a debt when able, is not sufficient of itself as an acknowledgment or new promise to take a case out of the operation of the statute of limitations. Id.

2. REQUISITES OF NEW PROMISE OR ACKNOWLEDGMENT. The acknowledgment or promise in writing, contemplated by the statute of limitations (Sec. 30) to take a case out of its operation, must be made by the party to be charged or his authorized agent and to some one having interest or authority to receive it. Taylor v. Hendrie, 8 Nev. 243.

PART PAYMENT NO ACKNOWLEDGMENT—New Promise Must Be to Some One Authorized. Id.

Action on Contract Made Out of State.

3735. SEC. 32. An action upon a judgment, contract, obligation, or liability for the payment of money or damages obtained, made, executed, or incurred out of this state, can only be commenced as follows: First—Within one year, when prior to the passage of this Act more than two, or less than five years have elapsed since the cause of action accrued. Second—Within six months, when prior to the passage of this Act more than five years have elapsed since the cause of action accrued. Third—Within two years, in all other cases, after the cause of action accrued. A right of action shall be deemed to have accrued on a judgment at the time of its rendition. As amended, Stats. 1867, 87.

When Action Barred Abroad, Barred Here.

3736. SEC. 33. When the cause of action has arisen in any other state or territory of the United States, or in a foreign country, and by the laws thereof an action there cannot be maintained against a person by reason of the lapse of time, no action thereon shall be maintained against him in this state. As amended Stats. 1867, 87.

Acts Repealed—Rights Not Affected.

3737. (SEC. 10.) Sections thirty-three and thirty-four of said Act, and the Act entitled an Act amendatory of section thirty-four, of an Act entitled "An Act defining the time of commencing civil actions," approved November twenty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and the Act approved November twenty-third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act to amend an Act to define the time of commencing civil actions," approved by the Governor on the twenty-first day of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, are hereby repealed; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect rights already acquired, or defenses existing, at the time of the passage of this Act; and in computing the time within which to commence actions, the time which had elapsed at the time of the passage of this Act, and which might have been plead prior thereto, shall be deemed and held a part of the time herein provided for. Act of March 5, Stats. 1867, 87.

Section 34 of original Act was amended by Act of December 19, Stats. 1862, 82, and the time for commencing actions on judgments obtained and contracts, etc., made or executed without the state, was limited to six months. The amendatory Act was repealed as above.

Section 10, Act of 1867, 87, amends Section 33 of Act of 1861, 26, and the same Act of 1867 repeals Section 33 of Act of 1861.

An Act supplementary to an Act of the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Nevada, approved November twenty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act defining the time of commencing civil actions."

Approved February 27, 1869, 95.

Actions for Real Property.

3738. SECTION 1. No action for the recovery of real property, or for the recovery of the possession thereof other than mining claims, shall be maintained, unless it appear that the plaintiff, his ancestor, predecessor, or grantor was seized or possessed of the premises in question, within five years before the commencement thereof.

An Act relating to the manner of commencing civil actions.

Approved December 20, 1862, 120.

Actions on Contract.

3739. SECTION 1. In all actions hereafter brought on contract, the defendants may be sued by the name or style under which the contract was made, and upon its being shown on the trial who are the persons of whom the name or style are descriptive, judgment may be rendered against them as now provided by law.

JUDGMENT MAY BE RENDERED AGAINST INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS. Gillig v. Lake Bigler R. Co., 2 Nev. 214.

An Act prescribing the manner of commencing and maintaining actions by or against counties.

Approved February 16, 1864, 45.

Actions, Where Brought.

3740. SECTION 1. Actions against a county may be commenced in the district court of the judicial district embracing said county; provided, that actions between counties shall be commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction in any county not a party to the action.

Process and Papers.

3741. SEC. 2. In counties where there is a Board of County Commissioners, having an acting Chairman or President of such board, the original process and papers shall be served on such Chairman or President, in the same manner as upon private persons; when there is no such Chairman or President, they shall in like manner be served on the Probate Judge of the county.

Duty of Officers.

3742. SEC. 3. Immediately on the service of such process, it shall be the duty of the officers so served to deliver such process, and all papers accompanying the same, to the District Attorney for such county.

In Name of County.

3743. SEC. 4. Actions brought for or against a county shall be in the name of such county.

1. MONEY LOANED TO COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—May Be Recovered With Interest, When. Waitz v. Ormsby Co., 1 Nev. 370.

ABOVE ACT DISCUSSED. Id.

2. RIGHT OF ACTION AGAINST COUNTIES IN ABSENCE OF STATUTORY AUTHORITY, IN CERTAIN CASES. Humboldt Co. v. Lander Co., 24 Nev.

3. ACTION AGAINST COUNTY IN OTHER JUDICIAL DISTRICT—Waiver of Change of Venue—Jurisdiction. Clarke v. Lyon Co., 8 Nev. 181.

4. JURISDICTION OF ACTIONS AGAINST COUNTIES DETERMINED BY SAME RULES AS AGAINST NATURAL PERSON. Justice Court has jurisdiction. Floral Spring W. Co. v. Rives, 14 Nev. 434.

An Act concerning the writ of habeas corpus.

Approved December 19, 1862, 98.

Habeas Corpus.

3744. SECTION 1. Every person unlawfully committed, detained, confined, or restrained of his liberty, under any pretense whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of such imprisonment or restraint.

Application, What to State.

3745. SEC. 2. Application for such writ shall be made by a petition, signed either by the party for whose relief it is intended, or by some person in his behalf, and shall specify: First—That the person in whose behalf the writ is applied for is imprisoned or restrained of his liberty; the officer or person by whom he is so confined, or restrained, and the place where, naming all the parties, if they are known, or describing them, if they are not known. Second—If the imprisonment be illegal, the petition must also state in what the alleged illegality consists. Third—The petition must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the party making the application.

1. HABEAS CORPUS, SUFFICIENCY OF PETITION. A petition for habeas corpus which fails to state any facts from which it can be inferred that petitioner's imprisonment is illegal is insufficient to authorize the issuance of the writ. Ex Parte Allen, 12 Nev. 87.
2. WHAT PETITION MUST STATE. Ex Parte Deny, 10 Nev. 212.
3. PETITION MUST MAKE OUT PRIMA FACIE CASE. Ex Parte Isbell, 11 Nev. 295; Ex Parte Allen, 12 Nev. 87.

4. HABEAS CORPUS. The writ of habeas corpus is not intended to have the force or operation of an appeal, writ of error, or certiorari; nor is it designed as a substitute for either. Ex Parte Maxwell, 11 Nev. 428; Ex Parte Winston, 9 Nev. 71; Ex Parte Smith, 2 Nev. 33; Ex Parte Bergman, 18 Nev. 331.

Who May Grant Writ.

3746. SEC. 3. Such writ of habeas corpus may be granted by any Judge of the supreme or district courts, at any time in term or vacation.

STATE JURISDICTION ON HABEAS CORPUS AS TO OFFENSES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES. A state court or Judge cannot on habeas corpus examine or decide whether a particular offense charged in an indictment, found in a United States Court, is or is not an offense against the laws of the United States. Ex Parte Hill, 5 Nev. 154.

Granted Without Delay.

3746½. SEC. 4. Any Judge empowered to grant a writ applied for under this Act, if it appear that the writ ought to issue, shall grant the same without delay.

To Whom Directed and What Commanded.

3747. SEC. 5. Such writ shall be directed to the officer or party having such person in custody or under restraint, commanding him to have the body of such person, so imprisoned or detained, as it is alleged by the petition, before the Judge, at such time as the Judge shall direct, specifying in such writ the place where the petition will be heard, to do and receive what shall then and there be considered concerning such person, together with the time and cause of his detention, and have then and there such writ.

To Whom Delivered.

3748. SEC. 6. If such writ be directed to the Sheriff or other ministerial officer, it shall be delivered by the Clerk of the court presided over by the Judge issuing said writ to such officer without delay.

By Whom Served.

3749. SEC. 7. If such writ be directed to any person other than is specified in the last preceding section, the same shall be delivered to the Sheriff or his deputy, and shall be by him served upon such person by delivering the same to him without delay.

Service, How Made.

3750. SEC. 8. If the officer or person to whom such writ is directed cannot be found, or shall refuse admittance to the officer or person serving or delivering such writ, the same may be served or delivered by leaving it at the residence of the officer or person to whom it is directed, or by affixing the same on some conspicuous place on the outside of his dwelling house, or the place where the party is confined or under restraint. The service of said writ is made by serving a copy and exhibiting the original, and, where posting is required, by posting a copy.

Refusal to Obey, Judge to Issue Attachment.

3751. SEC. 9. If the officer or person to whom such writ is directed refuse, after due service as aforesaid, to obey the same, it shall be the duty of the Judge, upon affidavit, to issue an attachment against such person, directed to the Sheriff, or, if the Sheriff be the defendant, to an Elisor, appointed for the purpose by the Judge, commanding him forthwith to apprehend such person and bring him immediately before such Judge; and upon being so brought he shall be committed to the jail of the county until he make due return of such writ, or be otherwise legally discharged.

Return of Writ, What to Be Stated.

3752. SEC. 10. The party upon whom such writ shall be duly served shall state in his return plainly and unequivocally: First—Whether he have or have not the party in his custody, or under his power or restraint. Second—If he have the party in his custody or power, or under his restraint, he shall state the authority and cause of such imprisonment or restraint, setting forth the same at large. Third—If the party be detained by virtue of any writ, warrant, or any other written authority, a copy thereof shall be annexed to the return, and the original shall be produced and exhibited to the Judge on the hearing of such return. Fourth—If the officer or person upon whom such writ shall have been served shall have had the party in his power or custody, or under his restraint, any time prior or subsequent to the date of the writ of habeas corpus, but such officer or person has transferred such custody or restraint to another, the return shall state particularly to whom, at what time and place, for what cause, and by what authority such transfer took place. Fifth—The return must be signed by the person making the same, and, except when such person shall be a sworn public officer, and shall make such return in his official capacity, it shall be verified by his oath or affirmation.

Requisites of Return. Ex Parte Salge, 1 Nev. 449.

Duty of Officer to Make Return to Writ. Ex Parte Hill, 5 Nev. 154.

Party to Be Brought.

3753. SEC. 11. If the writ of habeas corpus be served, the person or officer to whom the same is directed shall also bring the body of the party in his custody or under his restraint, according to the command of the writ, except in the cases specified in the next two sections.

When Not Able to Appear.

3754. SEC. 12. Whenever, from sickness or infirmity of the person directed to be produced by any writ of habeas corpus, such person cannot, without danger, be brought before the Judge, the officer or person in whose custody or power he is, may state that fact in his return to the writ, verifying the same by affidavit.

Absence of Party.

3755. SEC. 13. If the Judge be satisfied of the truth of such allegation of sickness or infirmity, and the return to the writ is otherwise sufficient, such Judge may proceed to decide on such return and to dispose of the matter, as if such party had been produced on the writ, or the hearing thereof may be adjourned until such party can be produced.

Hearing of the Return.

3756. SEC. 14. The Judge before whom a writ of habeas corpus shall be returned shall, immediately after the return thereof, proceed to hear and examine the return, and such other matters as may be properly submitted for his hearing and consideration.

Pleadings of Party.

3757. SEC. 15. The party brought before the Judge on the return of the writ may deny or controvert any of the material facts or matters set forth in the return, or except to the sufficiency thereof, or allege any fact to show either that his imprisonment or detention is unlawful or that he is entitled to his discharge.

To Proceed to Trial.

3758. SEC. 16. Such Judge shall thereupon proceed in a summary way to hear such allegation and proof as may be produced against such imprisonment or detention, or in favor of the same, and to dispose of such party as the justice of the case may require.

Witnesses.

3759. SEC. 17. Such Judge shall have full power and authority to require and compel the attendance of witnesses by process of subpoena and attachment and to do and perform all other acts and things necessary to a full and fair hearing and determination of the case.

1. HABEAS CORPUS—POWER OF THE DISTRICT JUDGE ON, AT PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION. When an accused person is held by a Judge for examination before him, under the provisions of the Habeas Corpus Act, he is invested with such powers only as are conferred on other magistrates in matters of preliminary examinations. Ex Parte Ah Kee, 22 Nev. 374.

2. HABEAS CORPUS—COMMITMENT BY JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. A person held in custody under a regular commitment of a Justice of the Peace will not be discharged on habeas corpus, unless it appears that the jurisdiction of the Justice has been exceeded or that the commitment issued without authority of any judgment, order or decree of any court or any provision of law. Ex Parte Winston, 9 Nev. 71; Ex Parte Edgington, 10 Nev. 215.
3. HABEAS CORPUS—INQUIRY UPON. A court is not authorized upon a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the question of fact as to whether or not an indictment, regular upon its face, was ever found by the grand jury. Ex Parte Twohig and Fitzgerald, 13 Nev. 302.
- JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION. A judgment of conviction in the district court, regular upon its face, is conclusive until reversed, and cannot be reviewed upon habeas corpus. Id.
4. VALIDITY OF SENTENCE—When Immaterial. Ex Parte Ryan, 17 Nev. 139.
5. JURISDICTION OF COURT—Irregularity of Judgment. Ex Parte Gafford, 24 Nev.
6. HABEAS CORPUS. This court will review, upon habeas corpus, the question of the constitutionality of an Act under which petitioner has been convicted, and if the Act is unconstitutional the petitioner will be discharged. Ex Parte Rosenblatt, 19 Nev. 438.
7. APPLIES WHEN. The provisions of the statute that the writ should issue "where a party has been committed on a criminal charge without reasonable or probable cause," only applies to cases where the evidence given upon the examination is insufficient to warrant the committing magistrate in holding the prisoner to answer. Ex Parte Allen. 12 Nev. 87.
8. HABEAS CORPUS—For Want of Speedy Trial. Ex Parte Stanley, 4 Nev. 113.
9. HABEAS CORPUS—FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE. To hold a fugitive from justice to await the requisition of the Governor of another state, it must affirmatively appear from the complaint filed before the committing magistrate in this state: 1. That a crime has been committed in the other state. 2. That the accused has been charged in that state with the commission of such crime. 3. That he has fled from justice, and is within this state. Ex Parte Lorraine, 16 Nev. 63.

When Party Discharged.

3760. SEC. 18. If no legal cause be shown for such imprisonment or restraint, or for the continuation thereof, such Judge shall discharge such party from the custody or restraint under which he is held.

When Remanded.

3761. SEC. 19. It shall be the duty of such Judge, if the time during which such party may be legally detained in custody has not expired, to remand such party, if it shall appear that he is detained in custody by virtue of the final judgment or decree of any competent court of criminal jurisdiction, or of any process issued upon such judgment or decree, or in cases of contempt of court.

91 Pac Rep 137

When Person May Be Discharged.

3762. SEC. 20. If it appears on the return of the writ of habeas corpus that the prisoner is in custody by virtue of process from any court of this territory, or Judge or officer thereof, such prisoner may be discharged, in any one of the following cases, subject to the restrictions of the last preceding section: First—When the jurisdiction of such court or officer has been exceeded. Second—When the imprisonment was at first lawful, yet by some act, omission, or event, which has taken place afterwards, the party has become entitled to be discharged. Third—When the process is defective in some matter of substance required by law, rendering such process void. Fourth—When the process, though proper in form, has been issued in a case not allowed by law. Fifth—When the person having the custody of the prisoner is not the person allowed by law to detain him. Sixth—Where the process is not authorized by any judgment, order, or decree of any court, nor by any provision of law. Seventh—Where a party has been committed on a criminal charge without reasonable or probable cause.

Defect of Form of Warrant. 91 Pac Rep 137

3763. SEC. 21. If any person be committed to prison, or be in custody of any officer on any criminal charge, by virtue of any warrant or commitment of a Justice of the Peace, such person shall not be discharged from such imprisonment or custody on the ground of any defect of form in such warrant or commitment.

Examination of Witnesses.

3764. SEC. 22. If it shall appear to the Judge, by affidavit, or upon hearing of the matter, or otherwise, or upon the inspection of the process or warrant of commitment, and such other papers in the proceedings as may be shown to such Judge, that the party is guilty of a criminal offense, or ought not to be discharged, such Judge, although the charge be defectively or unsubstantially set forth in such process or warrant of commitment, shall cause the complainant, or other necessary witnesses, to be subpoenaed to attend at such time as shall be ordered, to testify before such Judge; and upon the examination, he shall discharge such prisoner, let him to bail, if the offense be bailable, or recommit him to custody, as may be just and legal.

Giving Bail.

3765. SEC. 23. Whenever any person may be imprisoned, or detained in custody, on any criminal charge, for want of bail, such person shall be entitled to a writ of habeas corpus, for the purpose of giving bail, upon averring that fact in his petition, without alleging that he is illegally confined.

Recognizance.

3766. SEC. 24. Any Judge, before whom any person who has been committed on a criminal charge shall be brought on a writ of habeas corpus, if the same be bailable, may take a recognizance from such person, as in other cases, and shall file the same in the proper court without delay.

May Remand to Custody.

3767. SEC. 25. If any party brought before the Judge, on the return of the writ, be not entitled to his discharge, and be not bailed where such bail is allowable, such Judge shall remand him to custody, or place him under the restraint from which he was taken, if the person, under whose custody or restraint he was, be legally entitled thereto.

1. WHEN PETITIONER SHOULD NOT BE DISCHARGED. Ex Parte Kitchen, 19 Nev. 178.

2. SUPREME COURT HAS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE COMMITMENT. Ex Parte Ricord, 11 Nev. 287.

Judge May Order Change of Custody.

3768. SEC. 26. In cases where any party is held under illegal restraint or custody, or any other person is entitled to the restraint or custody of such party, such Judge may order such party to be committed to the restraint or custody of such person as is by law entitled thereto.

Pending Judgment on Proceedings.

3769. SEC. 27. Until judgment be given on the return, the Judge, before whom any party may be brought on such writ, may commit him or her to the custody of the Sheriff of the county, or place him or her in such care or under such custody as his or her age or circumstances may require.

Defect of Form Not Material.

3770. SEC. 28. No writ of habeas corpus shall be disobeyed for defect of form, if it sufficiently appear therefrom in whose custody or under whose restraint the party imprisoned or restrained is, the officer or person detaining him, and the Judge before whom he is to be brought.

Person Discharged Not Again Imprisoned.

3771. SEC. 29. No person who has been discharged by the order of the Judge upon a habeas corpus issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall be again imprisoned, restrained, or kept in custody for the same cause, except in the following cases: First—If he shall have been discharged from custody on a criminal charge, and be afterwards committed for the same offense by legal order or process. Second—If after a discharge for defect of proof, or for any defect of the process, warrant, or commitment, in a criminal case, the prisoner be again arrested on sufficient proof, and committed by legal process for the same offense.

Warrant Instead of Writ.

3772. SEC. 30. Whenever it shall appear by satisfactory proof, by affidavit, to any Judge authorized by law to grant a writ of habeas corpus, that any one is illegally held in custody, confinement, or restraint, and that there is good reason to believe that such person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of such Judge, before whom the application is made, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with the writ of habeas corpus can be enforced, said Judge may cause a warrant to be issued, reciting the facts, and directed to the Sheriff or any Constable of the county, commanding such officer to take such person thus held in custody, confinement, or restraint, and forthwith bring him or her before such Judge, to be dealt with according to law.

Arrest of Restraining Party.

3773. SEC. 31. Such Judge may also, if the same be deemed necessary, insert in such warrant a command for the apprehension of the person charged with such illegal detention and restraint.

Execution of Warrant.

3774. SEC. 32. The officer to whom such warrant is delivered shall execute the same by bringing the person or persons therein named before the Judge who may have directed the issuing of such warrant.

Return to, and Trial.

3775. SEC. 33. The person alleged to have such party under illegal confinement or restraint may make return to such warrant, as in the case of a writ of habeas corpus, and the same may be denied, and like allegations, proofs, and trial, shall be thereon had as upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus.

Discharge or Remand.

3776. SEC. 34. If such party be held under illegal restraint or custody, he or she shall be discharged, and if not, he or she shall be restored to the custody of the person entitled thereto, or left at liberty, as the case may require.

Writ May Issue on Non-Judicial Day.

3777. SEC. 35. Any writ or process authorized by this Act may be issued and served on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or any other non-judicial day.

Greeley v. Holland, 14 Nev. 320.

By Whom Issued.

3778. SEC. 36. All writs, warrants, processes, and subpoenas, authorized by the provisions of this Act, shall be issued by the Clerk of the Court, and, except subpoenas, sealed with the seal of the court, and shall be served and returned forthwith, unless the Judge shall specify a particular time for any such return.

Penalty for Refusing Writ.

3779. SEC. 37. If any Judge, after a proper application is made, shall refuse to grant an order for a writ of habeas corpus, or if the officer or person to whom such writ may be directed shall refuse obedience to the command thereof, he or she shall forfeit and pay to the person aggrieved a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, to be recovered by an action of debt in any court having cognizance thereof.

Penalty for Refusing to Obey Writ.

3780. SEC. 38. Any person having in his custody or under his restraint or power any person for whose relief a writ of habeas corpus shall have been duly issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, who, with the intent to elude the service of such writ, or to avoid the effect thereof, shall transfer such person to the custody of another, or shall place him or her under the power or control of another, or shall conceal or exchange the place of his or her confinement or restraint, or shall remove him or her without the jurisdiction of such Judge, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Accessories.

3781. SEC. 39. Every person who shall knowingly aid or assist in the commission of any offense specified in the last preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as in the last preceding section mentioned.

Further Penalty.

3782. SEC. 40. Every person convicted of any offense under the provisions of the last two preceding sections, in addition to the punishment therein mentioned, may be also imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding two years.

An Act regulating proceedings upon quo warranto and information in the nature thereof.

Approved February 21, 1865, 164.

Against Whom Information May Be Filed.

3783. SECTION 1. An information may be filed against any person unlawfully holding or exercising any public office or franchise within this state, or any office in any corporation created by the laws of this state, or the laws of the late Territory of Nevada; or when any public officer has done or suffered any act which works a forfeiture of his office, or when any persons act as a corporation within this state without being authorized by law; or if, being incorporated, they do or omit acts which amount to a surrender or forfeiture of their rights and privileges as a corporation, or when they exercise powers not conferred by law.

1. PROPER REMEDY—QUO WARRANTO—PROHIBITION. The question of the constitutionality of the statute increasing the number of District Judges to four and the right of respondent to hold the office of District Judge under that statute, can only be raised by a direct proceeding of quo warranto and is not properly before the court by a proceeding for a writ of prohibition. Walcott v. Wells, 21 Nev. 47.

2. ABOVE SECTION CONSTRUED—WHEN WRIT WILL NOT LIE. Ryan v. Cronan, 23 Nev. 437.

By Whom Filed.

3784. SEC. 2. Such information may be filed by the Prosecuting or District Attorney of the proper county, whenever he deems it his duty so to do, or an occasion therefor arises.

Who May Direct.

3785. SEC. 3. He must file such information when directed to do so by the Governor, the legislature, the district court, or the County Commissioners.

Information to Consist of What.

3786. SEC. 4. Such information shall consist of a plain statement of the facts which constitute the grounds of the proceeding, addressed to the court, which shall stand for an original complaint.

SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT. Greeley v. Holland, 14 Nev. 320.

Summons to Issue.

3787. SEC. 5. Such statement shall be filed in the Clerk's office, and summons issued and served in the same manner as provided for the commencement of civil actions in the district court.

May Appear and Answer.

3788. SEC. 6. The defendants may appear and answer such information in the usual way as in civil actions; and, issue being joined, the case shall be tried in the same manner as civil actions, as nearly as may be.

What to Set Forth.

3789. SEC. 7. When the defendant is holding an office to which another is claiming the right, the information shall set forth the name of such claimant, and the trial must, if practicable, determine the rights of the contesting parties.

Judgment Favorable.

3790. SEC. 8. If judgment be rendered in favor of such claimant, he shall proceed to exercise the functions of the office, after he has qualified as required by law.

Books, etc., to Be Delivered.

3791. SEC. 9. The court, after such judgment, shall order the defendant to deliver over all books and papers in his custody, or under his control, belonging to said office, to the parties entitled thereto.

May Recover Damages.

3792. SEC. 10. When the judgment has been rendered in favor of the claimant, he may, at any time within one year thereafter, bring suit against the defendant, and recover the damages he has sustained by reason of the act of the defendant.

May Be Filed, When.

3793. SEC. 11. When several persons claim to be entitled to the same office or franchise, an information may be filed against any or all of said persons, in order to try their respective rights thereto.

Judgment Against Person.

3794. SEC. 12. If the defendant be found guilty of unlawfully holding or exercising any office, franchise, or privilege; or if a corporation be found to have violated the law by which it holds its existence, or in any other manner to have done acts which amount to a surrender or forfeiture of its privileges, judgment shall be rendered that such defendant be ousted and altogether excluded from such office, franchise, or privilege, and also that he pay the costs of the proceeding.

Individual Powers.

3795. SEC. 13. If the defendant be found to have exercised merely certain individual powers and privileges to which he is not entitled, the judgment shall be the same as above directed, but only in relation to those particulars in which he is thus exceeding the lawful exercise of his rights and privileges.

Information by Private Individuals.

3796. SEC. 14. An information may be upon the relation of a private individual, and when upon the relation of a private individual, it shall be so stated in the complaint and proceedings, and such individual shall be responsible for costs, in case they are not adjudged against the defendant. In other respects, the title of the cause shall be the same as in a criminal prosecution, and the payment of costs shall be regulated by the same rule.

Costs—Pretended Corporation.

3797. SEC. 15. In case judgment is rendered against a pretended, but not real, corporation, the costs may be collected from any person who has been acting as an officer or proprietor of such pretended corporation.

Court Shall Appoint Trustee.

3798. SEC. 16. If a corporation is ousted and dissolved by the proceedings herein authorized, the court shall appoint some disinterested person as Trustee of the creditors and stockholders, who shall receive a compensation for his services to be fixed by the court.

Bond of Trustee.

3799. SEC. 17. Said Trustee shall enter into bond in such a penalty, and with such security, as the court approves, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Suit on Bond.

3800. SEC. 18. Suit may be brought on such bond by any person injured by the negligence or wrongful act of the Trustee in the discharge of his duties.

Duty of Trustee.

3801. SEC. 19. The Trustee shall proceed immediately to collect the debts and pay the liabilities of the corporation, and to divide the surplus among those thereto entitled.

Books and Papers.

3802. SEC. 20. The court shall, upon an application for that purpose, order an officer of such corporation, or any other person having possession of any of the effects, books, or papers of the corporation, in anywise necessary for the settlement of its affairs, to deliver the same to the Trustee.

Inventory Filed With Clerk.

3803. SEC. 21. As soon as practicable after his appointment, the Trustee shall make and file in the office of the Clerk of the Court, an inventory of all the effects, rights, and credits, which come to his possession or knowledge, the truth of which inventory shall be sworn to.

To Sue for Debts.

3804. SEC. 22. He shall sue for and recover the debts and property of the corporation, and shall be responsible to the creditors and stockholders respectively, to the extent of the effects which come into his hands, in the same manner as though he was the executor of a deceased person.

Directors, When Liable.

3805. SEC. 23. When judgment of ouster is rendered against a corporation on account of the misconduct of the Directors, or officers thereof, such officers shall be jointly and severally liable to an action by any one injured thereby.

Penalty for Refusal to Obey Order of Court.

3806. SEC. 24. Any person who, without good reason, refuses to obey an order of the court, as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail until he comply with said order, and shall be further liable for the damages resulting to any person on account of his refusal to obey such order.

Duty of Prosecuting Attorney.

3807. SEC. 25. It is made the duty of the several Prosecuting or District Attorneys in this state to be diligent in their endeavors to carry out the provisions of this Act, and in ascertaining if any cause exist for instituting such proceedings as are herein provided for.

To Have Precedence.

3808. SEC. 26. All proceedings under this Act shall have precedence over all other cases, in order and time of trial, except criminal action, and shall be placed upon the calendar for trial immediately upon issue being joined, whether in law or in fact.

Compensation of District Attorney.

3809. SEC. 27. When judgment is against the defendant, the court shall allow to the Prosecuting or District Attorney such sum of money as may seem reasonable for his services; which sum shall be taxed with and collected as the other costs in the proceeding; unless judgment is rendered against the defendant no costs shall be allowed, except as provided for in section fourteen of this Act.

1. QUO WARRANTO—Toll Road Franchise—Abandonment—Burden of Proof. State v. Haskell, 14 Nev. 209.

2. FICTITIOUS CONTROVERSY—Will Be Dismissed. State v. McCullough, 20 Nev. 154.

3. COLLATERAL QUESTIONS WILL NOT BE INQUIRED INTO ON QUO WARRANTO. State v. Horton, 19 Nev. 189.
4. JURISDICTION OF SUPREME COURT—Contest for State Office by Quo Warranto in Absence of Valid Statute to Contest Election of State Officer. McMillan v. Sadler, 25 Nev.

An Act providing for the appointment of Elisors.

Approved December 10, 1862, 7.

When to Act—Must Give Bond, When.

3810. SECTION 1. Process and orders, in an action or proceeding, may be executed in any county in this state by a person designated by the court, or the Judge thereof, or a Probate Judge of the county in which the action or proceeding is pending, and denominated an Elisor, in the following cases: First—When the Sheriff is a party. Second—When there is a vacancy in the office of Sheriff. Third—When it shall be made to appear, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court in which the suit or proceeding is pending, or the Judge thereof, or the Probate Judge of the county where the proceeding or action is pending, that the Sheriff, by the reason of any bias, prejudice, or other cause, would not act promptly or impartially; provided, said court or Judge may require such person so appointed to give a bond, with sufficient security, in such amount and with such condition, to the person to be served, as the court or Judge may deem necessary to secure the rights of the party.

Execution of Process by Elisor.

3811. SEC. 2. When process is delivered to an Elisor, he shall execute it in the same manner as the Sheriff is required to execute similar process in other cases.

Sheriff, When Arrested, How Confined.

3812. SEC. 3. If the Sheriff, on being arrested by an Elisor, or if another, on being arrested in an action in which the Sheriff is a party, upon an order of arrest, in a civil action, neglect to give bail or make a deposit of money instead thereof, or if he be arrested on execution against his body, or on a warrant of attachment, he shall be confined in a house other than the house of the Sheriff or the county jail, in the same manner as the Sheriff is required to confine a prisoner in the county jail; the house in which he is thus confined shall thereupon become, for that purpose, the county jail.

Powers and Duties of Elisors.

3813. SEC. 4. An Elisor, appointed to execute process and orders in the cases mentioned in this Act, shall be invested with the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Sheriff, in the execution of such process or orders, and in every matter incidental thereto, and shall be entitled to the same fees as a Sheriff would be entitled to for like services.

An Act prescribing the mode of maintaining and defending possessory actions on public lands in this state.

Approved March 9, 1865, 343.

May Defend Possession.

3814. SECTION 1. Any person now legally occupying and settled upon, or who may hereafter occupy or settle upon, any of the public lands in this state, for the purpose of cultivating or grazing the same, may commence and maintain any action for interference with, or injuries done to, his or her possession of said land, against any person or persons so interfering with or injuring such land or possession; provided, that if the lands so occupied and possessed contain mines of any of the precious metals, the possession or claim of the person or persons occupying the same, for the purposes aforesaid, shall not preclude the working of such

Extent of Claim 160 Acres.

3815. SEC. 2. Every such claim, to entitle the holder to maintain any action as aforesaid, shall not contain more than one hundred and sixty acres, and the same shall be surveyed and marked by metes and bounds, so that the boundaries may be readily traced and the extent of such claim easily known; and no person shall be entitled to maintain any such action for possession of, or injury to, any claim, unless he or she occupy the same, and shall have complied with the provisions of the third and fourth sections of this Act.

Claims Recorded.

3816. SEC. 3. Any person claiming any of the public lands in this state shall have the same surveyed by the County Surveyor of the county in which said lands are situated, and shall have the plot of such survey duly certified to by said Surveyor, recorded in the office of the County Recorder, and shall take and subscribe his or her affidavit that he or she has taken no other claim under this Act, and that, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, the said lands are not claimed under any existing title.

Land Improved in Certain Time.

3817. SEC. 4. Within ninety days after the date of said record, the party recording is hereby required to improve the lands thus recorded to the value of two hundred dollars, by putting such improvements thereon as shall partake of the realty, unless such improvements shall have been made prior to the application for survey and record, according to section third of this Act.

Occupant May Absent Himself—Fee to Be Paid.

3818. SEC. 5. At any time after the provisions of the second, third and fourth sections of this Act shall have been complied with, the party so complying shall be permitted to absent himself or herself from such claim, without being required to occupy the same, for a period of not more than twelve months; provided, the person so wishing to absent himself or herself shall first pay to the Treasurer of the county in which said claim shall be situated, the sum of fifteen dollars, in gold or silver coin, upon which payment the Treasurer shall issue a receipt for the same. At any time within twelve months after the date thereof, such receipt shall be received as prima facie evidence of possession in any court having jurisdiction in such cases. Any person absenting himself or herself from said claim for a longer period than sixty days, without first paying the sum provided in this section, shall forever forfeit his or her claim to the lands. One-half of the amount paid to any County Treasurer, under the provisions of this section, shall be paid by said Treasurer into the general fund of such county, and the balance into the state treasury, whenever making his regular settlements with the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall set apart and retain all moneys received from such source as a special fund, which may hereafter be appropriated by law for the maintenance and protection of the insane.

Proceedings in Actions.

3819. SEC. 6. On the trial of any such causes, the possession or possessory right of the plaintiff, shall be considered as extending to the boundaries embraced in such survey, so as to enable him or her, according to section third of this Act, to have and maintain any action as aforesaid, without being compelled to prove an actual inclosure.

Lands Deemed Public—Action for Unlawful Entry.

3820. SEC. 7. All lands in this state shall be deemed and regarded as public lands, until the legal title is known to have passed from the government to private individuals or parties. Every person who shall have complied with the provisions of this Act shall be deemed and held to have the right or title of possession of all the lands embraced within their survey, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres; and any person who shall thereafter, without the consent of the person so complying, enter into or upon said lands adversely, shall be deemed and held guilty of an unlawful and fraudulent entry thereon, and may be removed therefrom by proceedings had before any Justice of the Peace of the township in which the lands are situated (or in case of the absence or other disability of such Justice, before any other Justice of an adjoining township). Such proceedings may be commenced and prosecuted under the provisions of an Act of the legislature of the State of Nevada, entitled "An Act concerning forcible entries and unlawful detainers," approved February sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five; and all the provisions contained in said Act are made applicable to proceedings under this Act. As amended, Stats. 1869, 72.

See Sec. 3822 et seq.

Acts Repealed.

3821. SEC. 8. Sections ten and thirteen of an Act passed by the legislative assembly of the Territory of Nevada, entitled "An Act to regulate surveys and surveying," approved November twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and all other Acts or parts of Acts, so far as the same are inconsistent with, or repugnant to, the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

Imp. Co.*, 5 Nev. 44.

An Act concerning forcible entries and unlawful detainers.

Approved February 16, 1865, 160.

How Entry Made.

3822. SECTION 1. No entry shall be made into any lands, tenements, or other possessions, but in cases where entry is given by law; and in such case, only in a peaceable manner, not with strong hand, nor with multitude of people.

Possession Restored.

3823. SEC. 2. When any such forcible entry shall be made, or where the entry shall be made in a peaceable manner, and the possession shall be held by force against the person entitled to the possession, the person so forcibly put out, or so forcibly holden out of possession, shall be restored to such possession by action, to be commenced and prosecuted as in this Act provided.

Unlawful Detention.

3824. SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to hold over any lands, tenements, or other possessions, after the termination of the time for which they may have been demised or let to him, or her, or to the person under whom he or she holds possession; or contrary to the covenants of the lease or agreement under which he or she holds; or the lease or agreement of the person under whom he or she holds possession; or after any rent shall have become due, according to the terms of such lease or agreement, and shall remain unpaid for the space of three days after the same shall have become due, as aforesaid.

Demand in Writing.

3825. SEC. 4. In all cases specified in the preceding section, and in all other cases where a person, not a tenant under the landlord by virtue of any lease or agreement, or where any person not holding possession as the tenant or subtenant of such landlord, may be found in possession of the premises, the landlord may, at any time within one year after such rent shall become due and remain unpaid, or after any holding over contrary to the terms of such lease, make demand, in writing, of such tenant or tenants, or of such person in possession of the premises, that he, she, or they, deliver the possession of the premises held as aforesaid; and if such tenant or tenants, or such person in possession of the premises, shall refuse or neglect, for the space of three days after such demand, to quit the possession of such lands or tenements, in case the term has expired, or the covenants or conditions of the lease require said premises to be surrendered, or to pay the rent, in case the term has not expired, but rent remains unpaid, then such tenant or tenants, or person in possession of the premises, shall be deemed guilty of an unlawful detainer.

Common Law Demand for Rent Not Necessary.

3826. SEC. 5. It shall not be necessary, in order to work a forfeiture for the non-payment of rent, to make demand for rent on the day on which the same becomes due, or at any particular time of day, but demand may be made of the tenant in person, or of any person in possession of the premises at any time within a year after such rent shall become due, and may be made for the whole amount due and unpaid at the date of making such demand. The failure on the part of the lessee, or his assigns, or the person in possession, to pay such rent upon such demand being made, shall have the same force and effect as if such demand had been made on the premises toward sunset on the day when the rent became due.

Landlord to Give Notice—Change of Terms—Holding Over.

3827. SEC. 6. In all leases of lands or tenements, or any interest therein, from month to month, the landlord may, and it shall be lawful for him, upon giving notice, in writing, at least fifteen days before the expiration of the month, to change the terms of the lease, to take effect at the expiration of said month. Said notice, when served upon the tenant, shall of itself operate and be effectual to create and establish, as a part of the lease, the terms, rent, and conditions specified in said notice, if such tenant shall continue to hold such premises after the expiration of said month. In all leases of lands or tenements, or any interest therein, for a month, or any term less than a year, if the tenant holds over his term by consent of his landlord, the tenancy shall be construed to be a tenancy from month to month, or a tenancy for such term, less than a year, as the case may be; provided, that a tenancy from month to month may be terminated by the landlord giving notice of such termination ten days prior to the expiration of the month.

Complaint, What to State—Must Be Verified.

3828. SEC. 7. The complaint, in actions commenced or prosecuted under this Act, shall set forth the facts on which the plaintiff seeks to recover, and shall describe the premises sought to be recovered, with reasonable certainty, and may charge that the defendant has acted fraudulently in making such forcible entry, or holding such forcible possession (in case where the action is brought for a forcible entry, or forcible holding), and may claim such damages thereof as he may deem proper; and in case of rent due and unpaid, may state the amount thereof; and such complaint shall be verified in the mode prescribed by law for the verification of pleadings in civil cases.

Defendant, When Deemed Guilty of Fraud.

3829. SEC. 8. A defendant shall be deemed to be guilty of fraud, within the meaning of this Act, when the forcible entry or the forcible detainer are shown to have been made or done in bad faith, and knowing that the said defendant had no legal right to make such entry or detainer.

Order of Arrest.

3830. SEC. 9. Upon presenting the complaint in said action, duly verified as aforesaid, and charging fraud in making such forcible entry, or in holding such possession by force, to the Judge of the court in which such action is brought, an order for the arrest of the defendant or defendants shall be made by such Judge; and all the provisions of law from section seventy-six to section ninety-eight, both inclusive, in title five, chapter one, of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice of the Territory of Nevada," approved November twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, shall be, and are hereby made the rule of proceeding to said arrest and bail in said action of forcible entry or forcible detainer.

Act referred to repealed. See Sec. 3701.

Plaintiff to Show Possession.

3831. SEC. 10. On the trial of any action of forcible entry, or forcible detainer, the plaintiff shall only be required to show, in addition to the forcible entry or forcible detainer complained of, that he was peaceably in the actual possession at the time of the forcible entry, or was entitled to the possession at the time of the forcible detainer. The defendant may show, in his defense, that he or his ancestors, or those whose interest in such premises he claims, have been in the quiet possession thereof for the space of one whole year together next before the commencement of said action, and that his interest therein is not then ended or determined, and such showing shall be a bar to the action in all cases provided for in this Act.

Occupants Only Necessary Defendants—Married Women.

3832. SEC. 11. No person other than the actual occupants of the premises shall be necessary parties defendant to proceedings under this Act; and in case a married woman be a tenant or occupant, and her husband be a non-resident, or cannot be personally served with the summons within the county within which the premises are situated, before the return day of such summons, her marriage shall not be a defense in such proceedings, but in case her husband be not found and served with summons, a judgment against her shall only be valid against property on the premises at the time of the commencement of the action.

When Verdict Is for Plaintiff.

3833. SEC. 12. If, upon the trial of any action under the provisions of this Act, the verdict of the jury, or the finding of the court, shall be in favor of the plaintiff, the court shall thereupon enter judgment for the plaintiff to have restitution of the premises, and the jury or the court (in case the action is tried without a jury) shall also find or assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by such forcible entry or forcible detainer, or holding over or not surrendering the demised premises, or, in case of rent unpaid, the amount of rent then due, and thereupon shall at once enter judgment against the defendant; if the same be for damages, for rent due and unpaid, for the amount of such damages; or, if the same be for damages for a forcible entry or forcible holding, then for three times the amount of such damages so found or assessed.

Proceedings on Trial Same as Other Actions.

3834. SEC. 13. The proceedings in or upon the trial of any such action, shall be the same as in other civil cases, except as herein otherwise provided, and judgment shall be entered, execution issued, and all other proceedings, both before and subsequent to judgment, be had as in other civil cases.

1. FORCIBLE ENTRY AND UNLAWFUL DETAINER—RIGHT OF POSSESSION NOT INVOLVED—ADMISSION OF DEEDS ERRONEOUS. In an action of forcible entry and unlawful detainer, neither title nor right of possession being involved, it is erroneous to admit quitclaim deeds in evidence, as tending to show possession. Lachman v. Barnett, 16 Nev. 154.

2. FORCIBLE ENTRY IS A MISDEMEANOR UNDER THE COMMON LAW. Ex Parte Webb, 24 Nev.

3. JURISDICTION, FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER—Not Within Justice's Court. Peacock v. Leonard, 8 Nev. 84.

GIST OF ACTION. Id.

4. JUDGMENT OF CONFESSION—Cannot Be Entered in a Justice's Court. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.

5. DEMAND NECESSARY. A demand of possession must be made by the landlord before bringing suit against his tenant for holding over. Such demand is indispensable, and is as necessary to be made before suit, as that the relation of landlord and tenant should exist. Paul v. Armstrong, 1 Nev. 82.

6. AN ARREST CANNOT BE MADE under this Act unless fraud in either taking or holding is alleged. Strozer v. Wines, 24 Nev.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE HAS NO JURISDICTION. Id.

7. COMMON LAW DEMAND FOR RENT NOT NECESSARY. Hoopes v. Meyers, 1 Nev. 433.

POSSESSION OF PART OF PROPERTY BY TENANT IN COMMON. No ejectment, but reduction in rent pro tanto. Id.

An Act concerning unlawful holding over of lands, tenements, and other possessions.

Approved March 8, 1865, 263.

Demand Made in Writing.

3835. SECTION 1. When any person or persons shall hold over any lands, tenements, or other possessions, after the termination of the time for which they are demised or let to him, her, or them, or to the person or persons under whom he, she, or they hold, or after any rent shall become due, according to the terms of such lease or agreement, and shall remain unpaid for the space of three days after demand for payment thereof, in all such cases, if the lessor, his heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, agent, or attorney, shall make demand in writing of such tenant or tenants, or any person in possession of the premises, that he, she, or they shall deliver the possession of the premises held as aforesaid; and if such tenant or tenants, or person or persons in possession of the premises, shall refuse or neglect for the space of three days after such demand to quit the possession of such lands or tenements, or to pay the rent due and unpaid as aforesaid, upon complaint therefor to any Justice of the Peace of the proper county, the Justice shall proceed to hear, try, and determine the same in the manner in this Act provided.

Demand Not Necessarily Made on Certain Day.

3836. SEC. 2. It shall not be necessary, in order to work a forfeiture for non-payment of rent, to make a demand thereof on the day on which the same becomes due, or at any particular time of the day, but demand may be made of the tenant in person, or of any person in possession, at any time within a year after such rent shall become due, according to the terms of any lease or agreement, and may be made for the whole amount due and unpaid at the time of such demand; and the failure on the part of the lessee or his assigns, to pay such rent upon such demand being made, shall have the same force and effect as if demand had been made on the premises toward sunset on the day when the rent became due.

Parties Defendant—Married Woman.

3837. SEC. 3. No person, other than the actual occupants of the premises, shall be necessary parties defendant to proceedings under this Act, and in case a married woman be a tenant or occupant, and her husband cannot be personally served with the summons within the county in which the premises are situated before the return day of such summons, her marriage shall not be a defense in such proceedings; but in case her husband be not joined and served, a judgment against her shall only be valid against property on the premises at the time of the trial.

Change of Terms of Lease—Notice in Writing.

3838. SEC. 4. In all leases of land or tenements, or any interest therein, from month to month, the landlord may, and it shall be lawful for him, upon giving notice in writing, at least fifteen days before the expiration of the month, to change the terms of the lease, to take effect at the expiration of said month; said notice, when served upon the tenant, shall of itself operate and be effectual to create and establish, as a part of the lease, the terms, rent and conditions specified in said notice, if such tenant shall continue to hold such premises after the expiration of the month. In all leases of lands or tenements, or any interest therein, for a month, or any less term than one year, and the tenant holds over his term by consent of his landlord, the tenancy shall be construed to be a tenancy from month to month, or a tenancy for such term less than a year, as the case may be.

Premises Held Adversely.

3839. SEC. 5. The remedy provided for in this Act shall not apply as against any person who shall have held the premises demised, leased, or let to him, or to the person under or through whom he holds the possession for one year, adversely to the right, title, or claim of the landlord, or to the person under or through whom he claims.

Jurisdiction.

3840. SEC. 6. Any Justice of the Peace of the proper county shall have jurisdiction of all actions commenced and prosecuted, as in this Act provided.

Complaint and Summons.

3841. SEC. 7. When any complaint shall be made in writing, under oath, to any Justice of the Peace, of any such unlawful holding over, said Justice shall issue a summons, directed to the Sheriff, or any Constable of the county, commanding him to summon the person or persons complained of, to appear before said Justice, on a day in such summons named, which shall not be less than three, nor more than six days, from the day of issuing such summons, and at the place therein mentioned.

Service of Summons.

3842. SEC. 8. Such summons shall be served upon the person or persons against whom the same is issued, by delivering a true copy thereof to such person or persons, at least two days before the return day thereof; and the officer serving the same shall make a special return of the time and manner of serving such summons.

Service on Absent Defendant.

3843. SEC. 9. If at the time of making such complaint it shall be made to appear that the person or persons, against whom said complaint is made, or either of them, are absent from the county, it shall be the duty of the Justice to issue his summons, as hereinbefore provided, and the same may be served by leaving a true copy thereof, at the last or usual place of abode of such person or persons, not less than two days from the return day thereof; which copy shall be left with some member of the family, or some person residing at such place, of suitable age and discretion, to whom the contents thereof shall be explained by the officer leaving the same; and the officer shall make a special return of the time and manner of serving said summons; and the suit shall thereafter proceed the same as though a personal service were had of such summons.

Trial by Justice or Jury.

3844. SEC. 10. After the return of the summons, served as hereinbefore provided, and at the time and place appointed in said summons, the Justice shall proceed to hear and determine said complaint, unless either party shall demand a jury, in which case the Justice shall issue a venire for a jury, in the same manner, and upon the same terms, as in other cases provided for trial by jury in justices' courts; and such jury shall be sworn as in other cases.

Adjournment of Trial, When Taken.

3845. SEC. 11. The Justice may, at his discretion, and for good cause shown, adjourn the trial of any cause under this Act, not exceeding five days; and when the defendant, his agent or attorney, shall make oath that he cannot safely proceed to trial, for want of some material witness, naming him, stating the evidence that he expects to obtain, showing that he has used due diligence to obtain such witness, and believes that if an adjournment be allowed he will be able to procure the attendance of such witness, or his deposition, in time to produce the same upon the trial; in which case, if such person or persons will give bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay the said complainant for all rent that may accrue during the pending of such suit, and all costs and damages consequent upon such adjournment, the said Justice shall adjourn said cause for such reasonable time as may appear necessary, not exceeding thirty days.

Admission That Evidence Would Be Given.

3846. SEC. 12. If the complainant admit that the evidence stated in the affidavit mentioned in the last preceding section would be given by such witness, and agree that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be adjourned.

Testimony May Be Taken.

3847. SEC. 13. The testimony of any witness which may be considered necessary by either party, may be taken in the same manner, and with the like effect, as is provided for the taking of testimony in other cases in justices' courts.

Judgment and Costs.

3848. SEC. 14. If, upon the trial of any complaint under this Act, the Justice or jury shall find the defendant or defendants, or either of them, guilty of the allegations in the complaint, said Justice shall immediately enter judgment for the complainant to have restitution of the premises, and shall tax the costs for the complainant, and shall issue execution therefor; but if the said Justice or jury find that the person complained of is not guilty, the Justice shall tax the costs against the complainant, and issue execution therefor. If the jury impaneled cannot agree upon a verdict, the Justice shall discharge them, and issue a new venire, returnable forthwith, or at some time agreed upon between the parties; and in case the jury fail to agree, each party shall pay one-half of the jury fee, which shall abide the final determination of the suit.

Verdict to Find Damages, etc.

3849. SEC. 15. In all cases of a verdict by the Justice or jury for the complainant, the damages shall be assessed, if claimed in the complaint, as well for waste and injury committed upon the premises, as for the rents and profits during such unlawful holding over, and the verdict shall also find the monthly value of the rents and profits of said premises; and the complainant shall be entitled to recover treble damages against the person or persons against whom judgment has been rendered, which damages shall be assessed by the Justice or jury, and entered as a judgment in the cause upon which execution shall issue.

Jurors and Witnesses.

3850. SEC. 16. Every person summoned as a juror, or subpoenaed as a witness, who shall not appear, or appearing, shall refuse to serve or give evidence in any cause instituted under this Act, shall forfeit and pay a fine for every such default or refusal, to the use of the county, unless some reasonable cause be assigned; such fine, not exceeding twenty dollars, as the Justice shall think proper to impose, and execution shall issue therefor.

Appeal, Time for—How Taken.

3851. SEC. 17. If either party shall feel aggrieved by the verdict of the jury, or the decision of the Justice, he may appeal within ten days, as in other cases tried before Justices of the Peace, and he shall give bonds with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Justice, in all respects as appeals are perfected in other cases before Justices of the Peace, conditioned to pay all costs of such appeal, and abide the order the appellate court may make therein, and pay all rent and other damages justly accruing during the pending of such appeal; and upon the filing of the notice of appeal, and the affidavit of the appellant, that the appeal is taken in good faith, and that he intends to perfect said appeal, the Justice shall grant a stay of the writ of restitution, for not exceeding two days, for the purpose of allowing the appellant an opportunity to file his appeal bond, and for no other.

Stay of Proceedings.

3852. SEC. 18. Upon taking such appeal, all further proceedings in the cause shall be thereby stayed, and the appellate court, in all cases which are now pending, or which may hereafter be brought, shall proceed to try the case anew, and shall issue all necessary writs and process to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Possession of Premises.

3853. SEC. 19. If a writ of restitution shall have been issued previous to the taking of the appeal, the Justice shall give the appellant a certificate of the allowance of such appeal; and upon the serving of such certificate upon the officer having such writ of restitution, said officer shall cease all further proceedings, by virtue of such writ; and if such writ shall not have been completely executed, the parties in possession shall remain in possession of the premises until the appeal shall be determined.

Not to Quash for Want of Form.

3854. SEC. 20. In all cases of appeal under this Act, the appellate court shall not dismiss or quash the proceedings for want of form; provided, the proceedings have been conducted substantially according to the provisions of this Act; and amendments to the complaint, answer, or summons, in matters of form only, may be allowed by the court, at any time before final judgment, upon such terms as may be just; and all matters of excuse, justification, or avoidance of the allegations in the complaint, may be given in evidence under the answer.

Form of Summons.

3855. SEC. 21. The following or equivalent forms may be used in proceedings under this Act, to wit: Summons: The State of Nevada to the Sheriff or any Constable of the county of _____, greeting: Whereas, A. B., of the county of _____, hath exhibited unto me, a Justice of the Peace for said county, a complaint against C. D., of the county of _____, for that the said C. D., of the county of _____, on the ____ day of _____, A. D. _____, at the county of _____ (here insert the substance of the complaint with sufficient certainty). You are therefore commanded to summon the said C. D., if he be found in your county, to be and appear before me, at my office (stating the place), on the ____ day of _____, A. D. _____, then and there to make answer unto the complaint aforesaid. Given under my hand this ____ day of _____, A. D. _____. E. F., Justice of the Peace.

Form of Writ of Restitution.

3856. SEC. 22. Writ of restitution: The State of Nevada to the Sheriff or Constable of the county of _____, greeting: Whereas, A. B., of the county of _____ at a court of inquiry of an unlawful holding over of lands, tenements, and other possessions, held at my office (stating the place), in the county aforesaid, on the ____ day of _____, A. D. _____, before me, a Justice of the Peace for the county aforesaid, by the consideration of the court, has recovered judgment against C. D., to have restitution of (here describe the premises as in the complaint). You are therefore commanded, that taking with you the force of the county, if necessary, you cause the said C. D. to be immediately removed from the aforesaid premises, and the said A. B. to have peaceable restitution of the same; and you are also commanded that of the goods and chattels of the said C. D., within said county, you cause to be made the sum of _____ dollars for the said plaintiff, together with the costs of suit indorsed hereon, and make return hereof within thirty days from this date. Given under my hand, this ____ day of _____, A. D. _____. E. F., Justice of the Peace.

ENTERING AND HOLDING UNDER LEASE NOT SIGNED BY TENANT. Holder to accept all covenants and obligations. (Discussed at length.) Fitton v. Hamilton City, 6 Nev. 196.

TERM CREATED BY HOLDING OVER. Id.

An Act to regulate appeals in the courts of justice of this state.

Approved March 11, 1865, 394.

Appeals.

3857. SECTION 1. There shall be no distinction as to the mode of taking or perfecting appeals, or as to the effect of them, between cases at law and cases in equity.

No Exceptions, No Reversal—Exceptions, How Settled.

3858. SEC. 2. In cases tried by the court, without a jury, no judgment shall be reversed for want of a finding, or for a defective finding of the facts, unless exceptions be made in the court below to the finding, or to the want of a finding; and in case of a defective finding, the particular defects shall be specifically and particularly designated; and upon failure of the court below to remedy the alleged error, the party moving shall be entitled to his exceptions, and the same shall be settled by the Judge as in other cases; provided, that such exceptions to the finding, or want of a finding, shall be filed in the court within five days after the making of the finding or decision to which exception is made.

Undertaking Filed.

3859. SEC. 3. No appeal shall be dismissed for insufficiency of the notice of appeal, or undertaking thereon; provided, that a good and sufficient undertaking, approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court, be filed in the supreme court before the hearing upon motion to dismiss the appeal, and upon payment of such reasonable costs as the court may adjudge; provided, that the respondent shall not be delayed, but may move, when the cause is regularly called, for the disposition of the same, if such undertaking be not given.

Bill of Exceptions, Part of Record—Necessary Papers on Appeal.

3860. SEC. 4. During the progress of a cause a party may take his bill of exceptions to the admission or exclusion of testimony, or to the rulings of the Judges on points of law, and it shall not be necessary to embody in such bill anything more than sufficient facts to show the point and pertinency of the exceptions taken. The presiding Judge shall sign the same as the truth of the case may be, and such bill shall then become a part of the record, and a party against whom judgment is rendered may appeal from such judgment without any further statement or motion; and on such appeal it shall only be necessary to bring to the supreme court the transcript of the pleadings, the judgment, and the bill or bills of exception so taken.

Absent or Non-Resident Defendant.

3861. SEC. 5. When the defendant resides out of the state, or is absent therefrom, and has not appeared in the action, and no attorney has been appointed by the court for such defendant, as provided in section thirty-one of an Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice in the Territory of Nevada, approved November twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one [repealed, Sec. 3701], notices and other papers, on motion for new trial and on appeal, may be served upon the Clerk of the Court for each defendant, or the court may appoint an attorney for such defendant, to conduct the proceedings on his part upon such motion or appeal; and such notices and papers in that case may be served upon such attorney.

The balance of this Act relates to appeals from justices' courts, and is superseded by Civil Practice Act.

An Act regulating appeals to the supreme court.

Approved March 13, 1895, 58.

Original Papers May Be Certified to Supreme Court.

3862. SECTION 1. In all cases of appeal to the supreme court from final judgments or from orders overruling motions for new trial, and in all other cases when ordered by the supreme court or a Judge thereof or by the District Judge or stipulated by the parties or their attorneys, it shall be in the discretion of the appellant to furnish the court with a transcript on appeal in accordance with the present provisions of the statute, or to have the original papers in the district court, including documentary evidence, maps and exhibits certified to the supreme court, or the appellant may furnish the court with a transcript of a portion of the record on appeal and have the remaining portion certified to the supreme court. In case he shall elect to have the original papers certified they shall be attached together and the pages numbered and indexed the same as transcript on appeal, and shall be certified by the Clerk of the District Court or by the respective parties or their attorneys to be such originals, and to constitute in whole or part the record on appeal and the Clerk shall then transmit them to the Clerk of the Supreme Court; provided, that where it would not be convenient to attach maps or exhibits to the other papers, they may be sent separately, properly identified and certified.

Original Papers So Certified to Be Returned.

3863. SEC. 2 Where such original papers have been so certified, the Clerk of the Supreme Court, at the time he transmits the remittitur, shall return them to the Clerk of the District Court. Any of the papers or documents so certified to the supreme court may be returned to the court below upon application of either party and order of one of the Judges and leaving a certified copy. Where it is necessary to present upon the appeal the minutes of the court or records containing entries affecting other cases, they shall be copied in the transcript the same as heretofore.

Beck v. Thompson, 22 Nev. 109; Peers v. Reed, 23 Nev. 404; Bliss v. Grayson, 24 Nev.

An Act relating to statements on appeal and motions for new trial.

Approved January 24, 1889, 22.

Presumed to Contain All Evidence.

3864. SECTION 1. In all cases wherein a statement on appeal or motion for new trial is required to be filed, such statement, when settled or agreed to, shall be presumed to contain all of the evidence and other matters pertinent to the proper presentation of the question or questions involved in said appeal or motion, unless the contrary affirmatively appears in such statement.

An Act for the punishment of contempts and trespasses.

Approved March 11, 1865, 398.

Contempt in Certain Cases.

3865. SECTION 1. Every person who shall have been, or shall be hereafter, dispossessed or ejected from or out of any piece, parcel, lot, or tract of land, by the judgment, decree, or process of any court of competent jurisdiction, and who, not having legal right so to do, shall reënter into, or upon, or take possession of any such land, or any part thereof, or induce or procure any person not having legal right so to do, or shall aid or abet him therein, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of the court by which said judgment or decree was rendered, or from which such process issued, and shall be tried and punished therefor, in the same manner and form as now provided by law in case of contempt not committed in presence of the court or Justice of the Peace.

Alias Process to Be Issued.

3866. SEC. 2. Upon a conviction for such contempt, the court or Justice of the Peace shall immediately issue an alias process, directed to the proper officer, and requiring him to restore the party entitled to the possession of such property under the original judgment, decree, or process, to such possession, of which he shall have been dispossessed by the wrongful conduct or act herein declared to be a contempt.

An Act concerning juries.

Approved March 5, 1873, 126.

Who Are Qualified Jurors.

3867. SECTION 1. Every qualified elector of the state, whether registered or not, who has sufficient knowledge of the English language, and who has not been convicted of treason, felony, or other infamous crime, and who is not rendered incapable by reason of physical or mental infirmity, is a qualified juror of the county in which he resides, or the county to which it is attached for judicial purposes. As amended, Stats. 1881, 23.

SECS. 2 and 3 superseded by following Act.

Drawing of Jurors—Venire to Be Issued.

3868. SEC. 4. To constitute the regular panel of trial jurors for any term of the district court such number of names as the Judge may direct shall be drawn from the jury box. The regular panel of trial jurors may be drawn before the commencement of the term of court, and, if so drawn, the Judge thereof must make and file with the County Clerk an order that one be drawn, and the number of jurors to be drawn must be named in the order. The drawing shall take place in the office of the County Clerk, during regular office hours, in the presence of all persons who may choose to witness it. If the panel be drawn before the commencement of the term it shall be drawn by the Judge and Clerk, or, if the Judge so directs, by any one of the County Commissioners of the county and the Clerk, and if the Judge directs that the panel be drawn by one of the County Commissioners of the county and the Clerk, the Judge must make and file with the Clerk an order designating the name of such County Commissioner, and fixing the number of names to be drawn as trial jurors and the time at which the persons whose names are so drawn shall be required to attend in court. The drawing shall be conducted as follows: The number to be drawn having been previously determined by the Judge, the box containing the names of the jurors shall first be thoroughly shaken; it shall then be opened and the Judge and Clerk, or one of the County Commissioners of the county and the Clerk, if the Judge has so ordered, shall alternately draw therefrom one ballot until of non-exempt jurors the number determined upon is obtained; provided, that if the officers drawing such jury deem that the attendance of any juror whose name is so drawn cannot be conveniently and cheaply to the county obtained, by reason of the distance of the residence of such juror from the court or other cause, his name may, in the discretion of such officers, be returned to the box and in its place the name of another juror drawn whose attendance said officers may deem can be conveniently and cheaply to the county obtained. A list of the names so obtained shall be made out and certified by the officers drawing the jury, which list shall remain in the Clerk's office subject to inspection by any officer or attorney of the court, and the Clerk shall immediately issue a venire, directed to the Sheriff of the county, commanding him to summon the persons so drawn as trial jurors to attend in court at such time as the Judge may have directed, and the Sheriff shall make return of the venire at least the day before the day named for their appearance, after which the venire shall be subject to inspection by any officer or attorney of the court. As amended, Stats. 1879, 33; 1881, 26.

SECS. 5, 6 and 7 superseded by following Act.

Grand Jury, How and When Selected—When to Meet, etc.—Sheriff Shall Summon.

3869. SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of the District Judge and any one of the County Commissioners of the county, at least once in each year and as much oftener as the public interest may require, to select from the jury list twenty-four persons who shall be summoned to appear as grand jurors at such time as the Judge may order; provided, that if the District Judge deems proper he may direct any one of the County Commissioners of the county and the Clerk to select the grand jurors, and such County Commissioner and Clerk, if the Judge so directs, shall select from the jury list twenty-four persons as grand jurors. If the Judge directs the grand jurors to be selected by one of the County Commissioners of the county and the Clerk, the Judge must make and file with the Clerk, an order designating the name of such County Commissioner, and the Judge shall in said order fix the time during the term of court when said grand jurors shall be required to appear; and if from any cause, such County Commissioner and Clerk should fail to select the grand jurors, the Judge and any one of the County Commissioners may, at any time, select the same. A list of the names so selected as grand jurors shall be made out and certified by the officers making such selection and be filed in the Clerk's office, and the Clerk shall immediately issue a venire, directed to the Sheriff of the county, commanding him to summon the persons so drawn as grand jurors to attend in court at such time as the Judge may have directed; and the Sheriff shall summon such grand jurors, and out of the number so summoned the court shall select seventeen persons to constitute the grand jury. If from any cause a sufficient number do not appear, or those who appear are excused or discharged, an additional number, sufficient to complete the grand jury, shall be selected from the jury list by the Judge and Clerk and summoned to appear in court at such time as the court may direct. As amended, Stats. 1879, 34; 1881, 27.

Section 8 repealed, Stats. 1893, 32. Repealing Act unconstitutional, State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 342.

Who Exempt as Jurors—Fee for Exemption.

3870. SEC. 9. Upon satisfactory proof, made by affidavit or otherwise, the following named persons, and no other shall be exempted from service as grand or trial jurors: Any federal or state officer, Judge, Justice of the Peace, County Clerk, Sheriff, Constable, Assessor, Recorder, attorney-at-law, physician, minister of the gospel, telegraph operator, locomotive or stationary engineer, mail carrier, engaged in the actual carrying of the United States mail, on a regular mail route, and one-half of all members of each regularly enrolled fire company in the state, said half to be determined by the several fire companies respectively, and all officers of such fire companies, not exceeding ten for each company, and also in all cities and towns wherein there is a paid fire department, after such paid fire department shall have been organized and put in operation, all members of said paid fire department, and all persons who are now or may hereafter become members of any exempt firemen's association, society or organization within this state; but such exemption shall not extend to any member of such association, society or organization, unless prior to becoming a member of the same, such member shall have served as an active fireman, in some regularly organized fire department in this state, for the period of three years, and also, in all cities and towns in this state, wherein there are volunteer fire departments, after such volunteer departments shall have been organized and put in operation all members thereof; and also, all members thereof, who may hereafter become members of any exempt fireman's association, society or organization, within this state; but such exemption shall not extend to any member of such association, society or organization, unless prior to becoming a member of the same, such member shall have served as an active fireman in some regularly organized volunteer fire department in this state, for the period of five years; provided, that the entire exemption of such exempt firemen, where there is a paid fire department, shall not exceed in any one town or city, one hundred and fifty; and where there is a volunteer fire department, the entire exemption shall not exceed, in any one town or city, fifty; and further provided, that any person liable to grand or trial jury duty residing sixty or more miles distant from the county seat of his county, shall be exempted from service on either grand or trial juries for the period of one year upon making affidavit to the fact that he so resides and filing the same with the Clerk of the district court of the district in which his county is situated and paying to such Clerk the sum of twenty-five dollars. Upon the receipt of such affidavit and such sum, the said Clerk shall deliver to such person a certificate stating the fact of such receipts, and thereafter, for the period of one year from the date of such payment, the name of such person shall not be placed in the jury box, nor shall such person be selected as a grand or trial juror. It shall be the duty of said Clerk, upon the receipt of said sum, to deliver the same to the County Treasurer of his county, and the said Treasurer shall immediately place the same to the credit of the general fund of said county. As amended, Stats. 1875, 137; 1877, 176; 1881, 155; 1895, 51.

Repealed.

(SEC. 2.) All portions of the Act of which this Act is amendatory, relative to the prescribing of bounds by the Judges of the several district courts, in their several counties, and the exemption of persons from serving on juries by payment for such exemption, are hereby repealed.

Court May Excuse Juror.

3871. SEC. 10. At any time during the term the court may, in its discretion, excuse temporarily, or for the term, any juror on account of sickness or physical disability, or serious illness or death of a member of his immediate family.

Penalty for Non-Attendance.

3872. SEC. 11. Any person summoned as provided in this Act to serve as a juror, who shall fail to attend and serve as such juror, shall, unless excused by the court, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, and be imprisoned in the county jail until such fine be paid, at the rate of two dollars per day.

Per Diem and Mileage.

3873. SEC. 12. Each person summoned to serve as grand jurors, and each trial juror summoned as provided in this Act, unless said trial juror be excused by the court from serving on the day he is summoned to attend, shall receive three dollars per day for each and every day he may be in attendance, and fifteen cents per mile in traveling to and returning from court, to be paid as hereinbefore provided. As amended, Stats. 1877, 185.

See Secs. 2464 and 2476.

Acts Repealed.

3874. SEC. 13. An Act entitled "An Act concerning juries," approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-six [p. 191], and all Acts repealed by that Act, and all Acts amendatory of or supplemental thereto, are hereby repealed; also, an Act entitled "An Act concerning compensation of jurors," approved March fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine [p. 138], and all Acts amendatory of or supplemental thereto, are hereby repealed.

An Act regulating the manner of drawing juries in the district courts of this state.

Approved February 20, 1885, 32.

County Commissioners to Estimate and Select.

3875. SECTION 1. The Board of County Commissioners in each county of the State of Nevada, shall, at its first meeting after the approval of this Act, and thereafter at its first regular meeting in each year, by an order duly made and entered on its minutes, estimate as nearly as possible, the number of trial jurors that will be required for attendance on the district court of said county until the next annual selection of trial jurors under this Act. The said board shall thereupon select from the qualified electors of the county, whether registered or unregistered, not exempt by law from jury duty, such number of qualified electors as it has estimated to be necessary. The names of the electors so selected, shall be entered upon the minutes of said board, together with the occupation and place of residence of each of such electors so selected. As amended, Stats. 1895, 51.

Names to Be Written on Slips.

3876. SEC. 2. The names so selected shall at the same time be written on separate slips of paper, and deposited in a box, to be provided and kept for that purpose, and known as the jury box; said box, when not in use as herein provided, shall be kept securely locked by the County Clerk.

Juror Not Summoned May Be Drawn Over.

3877. SEC. 3. When a juror drawn is not summoned, or fails to appear, or after appearing is excused by the Judge from serving, his name shall be returned to the box to be drawn again. The Board of Commissioners shall not select the name of any person whose name was selected the previous year, and who actually served on the jury, unless there be not enough other suitable jurors in the county to do the required jury duty.

Manner of Drawing Juries After Box Exhausted—Open Venire, When.

3878. SEC. 4. When all the names in the jury box have been exhausted, or there are not enough therein to complete the next panel that may be drawn, the District Judge shall certify the same to the Board of County Commissioners, together with a statement of the number of additional names that will be required, and said board shall thereupon proceed and select such required number of jurors in the manner hereinbefore provided, and thereafter trial jurors may be drawn therefrom as before. Grand jurors may be selected from the qualified jurors of the county whether their names are or are not upon the list selected by the Board of Commissioners, and it shall at all times be in the discretion of the court, with the consent of all parties litigant to the action or actions to be tried thereby, either to draw the names of the jurors from the box, as in this Act provided, or to issue an open venire directed to the Sheriff, requiring him to summon, either immediately or for a day fixed, from the citizens of the county, but not from the bystanders, such number of persons having the qualifications of jurors as may be needed; the persons thus summoned shall be as competent trial jurors in all respects as if drawn from the jury box. As amended, Stats. 1887, 121.

TRIAL JURORS—OPEN VENIRE—DISCRETION OF COURT. The question as to the necessity of selecting additional trial jurors by an open venire is within the discretion of the district court. State v. Angelo, 18 Nev. 425.

An Act amendatory of and supplementary to an Act entitled "An Act concerning juries," approved March fifth, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

Approved March 5, 1875, 139.

Discharge of Trial Jurors.

3879. SECTION 1. When at any time there shall be a larger number of trial jurors in attendance upon any court than are required for the business of the term, or for the time being, the court may excuse, temporarily, or discharge for the term, a sufficient number of those who have served longest, to reduce the panel to the number required.

An Act to exempt certain persons from duty as jurors on account of age.

Approved January 30, 1889, 26.

Persons Aged 65 Years, or Over, Exempt.

3880. SECTION 1. All persons of the age of sixty-five years, or over, are hereby exempt from serving as grand or trial jurors, and whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court, by affidavit or otherwise, that a juror is over the age of sixty-five years, the court shall order said juror excused from all service as a grand or trial juror, if the juror so desires.

An Act to secure liens to mechanics and others, and to repeal all other acts in relation thereto.

1183. C. C. P.

Approved March 2, 1875, 122.

Labor or Material—Contractor, etc., Held as Owners or Agents.

3881. SECTION 1. Every person performing labor upon, or furnishing material of the value of five (5) dollars or more, to be used in the construction, alteration or repair of any building or other superstructure, railroad, tramway, toll road, canal, water ditch, flume, aqueduct or reservoir, building, bridge, fence, or any other structure, has a lien upon the same for the work or labor done or material furnished by each, respectively, whether done or furnished at the instance of the owner of the building or other improvement, or his agent; and all miners, laborers and others who work or labor to the amount of five (5) dollars or more in or upon any mine, or upon any shaft, tunnel, adit, or other excavation, designed or used for the purpose of prospecting, draining or working any such mine; and all persons who shall furnish any timber or other material, of the value of five (5) dollars or more, to be used in or about any such mine, whether done or furnished at the instance of the owner of such mine or his agent, shall have, and may each respectively claim and hold, a lien upon such mine for the amount and value of the work or labor so performed, or material furnished; and every contractor, sub-contractor, architect, builder, or other persons, having charge or control of any mining claim, or any part thereof, or of the construction, alteration or repair, either in whole or in part, of any building or other improvement, as aforesaid, shall be held to be the agent of the owner, for the purposes of this chapter. As amended, Stats. 1881, 49.

Liens on City Lots.

3882. SEC. 2. Any person who, at the request of the owner of any lot in any incorporated city or town, grades, fills in or otherwise improves the same, or the street in front of or adjoining the same, has a lien upon such lot for his work done and materials furnished.

Land Subject to Lien.

3883. SEC. 3. The land occupied by any building or other superstructure, railroad, tramway, toll road, canal, water ditch, flume, aqueduct, or reservoir, bridge, or fence, together with a convenient space about the same, or so much as may be required for the convenient use and occupation thereof, to be determined by the court on rendering judgment, is also subject to the lien, if at the commencement of the work, or of the furnishing of the materials for the same, the land belonged to the person who caused said building, improvement, or structure to be constructed, altered, or repaired; but if such person owned less than a fee simple estate in such land, then only his interest therein is subject to such lien.

LAND NECESSARY FOR CONVENIENT USE OF REDUCTION WORKS—Evidence. Gould v. Wise, 1st Nev. 253.

Priority of Liens.

3884. SEC. 4. The liens provided for in this chapter are preferred to any lien, mortgage or other incumbrance which may have attached subsequent to the time when the building, improvement, or structure was commenced, work done, or materials were commenced to be furnished; also, to any lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance of which the lien holder had no notice and which was unrecorded at the time the building, improvement, or structure was commenced, work done, or the materials were commenced to be furnished; (every mortgage or incumbrance imposed upon, or conveyance made of, property affected by the liens herein provided for between the time when the building, improvement, structure, or work thereon was commenced, or the materials thereof were commenced, to be furnished, and the expiration of the time herein fixed in which liens therefor may be filed whatever the terms of payment may be, shall be subordinate and subject to the liens in full herein authorized, regardless of the date of filing of said liens). As amended, Stats. 1899, 98.

RIGHTS OF MORTGAGEE—NOTICE OF LIEN HOLDER. Lien held subordinate to the mortgage. Capron v. Strout, 11 Nev. 304.

Statement to Be Filed—Verification.

3885. SEC. 5. Every original contractor, within sixty days after the completion of his contract, and every person, save the original contractor, claiming the benefit of this chapter, must, within ~~thirty~~ ⁽⁵⁰⁾ days after the completion of any building, improvement, or structure, or after the completion of the alteration or repair thereof, or performance of any labor in a mining claim, file for record with the County Recorder of the county in which the property, or some part thereof, is situated, a claim containing a statement of his demand, after deducting all just credits and offsets, with the name of the owner or reputed owner, if known, and also the name of the person by whom he was employed or to whom he furnished the material, with a statement of the terms, time given, and conditions of his contract, and also a description of the property to be charged with the lien, sufficient for identification, which claim must be verified by the oath of himself or of some other person.

1. MECHANICS' LIEN, WHEN MUST BE FILED—DIFFERENT CONTRACTS. When the work is continuous, although done under different contracts, the lien is preserved by giving notice within sixty days after the work is completed. (Skyrme v. Occidental M. Co., 8 Nev. 220, affirmed.) Capron v. Strout, 11 Nev. 304.

2. MECHANICS' LIEN—When Must Be Filed. Hunter v. Truckee Lodge, 14 Nev. 24; Lonkey v. Wells, 16 Nev. 271. Must State Terms, Time, etc. Porters v. Rec. 91 Nev. Rep. 134.

Liens Upon Separate Buildings—Amount to Be Stated.

Record of Claim. 189 C.C. 1

3887. SEC. 7. The Recorder must record the claim in a book kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed, and for which he may receive the same fees as are allowed by law for recording deeds and other instruments.

Limitation of Lien as to Time. 189 C.C. 2

3888. SEC. 8. No lien provided for in this chapter binds any building, mining claim, improvement, or structure for a longer period than six months after the same has been filed, unless proceedings be commenced in a proper court within that time to enforce the same; or, if a credit be given, then ninety days after the expiration of such credit; provided, nevertheless, that if there are other claims outstanding against the property, no time or credit shall be given upon the lien after the expiration of the six months in which proceedings are required to be commenced, which will tend to delay or postpone the collection of other claims or incumbrances against the property; but no lien continues in force for a longer time than two years from the time the work is completed by any agreement to give credit.

Owner Must Post Notices, or Property Will Be Responsible.

C.C. 8.
3889. SEC. 9. Every building or other improvement mentioned in section one of this Act, constructed upon any lands with the knowledge of the owner or the person having or claiming any interest therein, shall be held to have been constructed at the instance of such owner or person having or claiming any interest therein, and the interest owned or claimed shall be subject to any lien filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, unless such owner or person having or claiming an interest therein shall, within three days after he shall have obtained knowledge of the construction, alteration or repair, or the intended construction, alteration, or repair, give notice that he will not be responsible for the same, by posting a notice in writing to that effect in some conspicuous place upon said land or upon the building or other improvement situate thereon.

1. MECHANICS' LIEN—WHEN LESSEE CAN CREATE LIEN ON PROPERTY OF LESSOR. The interest of the owner of reduction works may be subjected to lien claims, notwithstanding the labor and materials have not been performed and furnished at his instance if, knowing that alterations or repairs are being made by the lessee, he fails to give notice that he will not be responsible therefor. Gould v. Wise, 18 Nev. 253.
2. LIABILITY OF OWNER—Written Notice Necessary to Avoid Liability. Rosina v. Trowbridge, 20 Nev. 105.

Recovery Upon Lien. 1193 C.C. 8.

3890. SEC. 10. The contractor shall be entitled to recover, upon a lien filed by him, only such amount as may be due to him according to the terms of his contract after deducting all claims of other parties, for work done and material furnished, as aforesaid; and in all cases where a lien shall be filed under this chapter, for work done or materials furnished to any contractor, he shall defend any action brought thereupon at his own expense; and, during the pendency of such action, the owner may withhold from the contractor the amount of money for which such lien is filed; and in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, the said owner shall be entitled to deduct, from any amount due or to become due by him to the contractor, the amount of such judgment and costs; and if the amount of such judgment and costs shall exceed the amount due by him to the contractor, or if the owner shall have settled with the contractor, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor any amount so paid by him, the said owner, in excess of the contract price, and for which the contractor was originally the party liable.

Rank or Order of Liens. 1194 C.C. 8.

3891. SEC. 11. In every case in which different liens are asserted against any property, the court, in the judgment, must declare the rank of each lien or class of liens, which shall be in the following order, viz: First—All persons other than the original contractors and sub-contractors. Second—The sub-contractors. Third—The original contractors. And the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied to each lien or class of liens in the order of its rank.

Claims Consolidated, When. 1195 C.C. 8.

3892. SEC. 12. Any number of persons claiming liens may join in the same action; and when separate actions are commenced the court may consolidate them. The court may also allow, as part of the costs, the moneys paid for filing and recording the lien.

Exempt from Attachment. 1196 C.C. 8.

3893. SEC. 13. Whenever materials have been furnished for use in the construction, alteration, or repair of any building or other improvement, such materials shall not be subject to attachment, execution, or other legal process, to enforce any debt due by the purchaser of such materials, except a debt due for the purchase money thereof, so long as in good faith the same are about to be applied to the construction, alteration, or repair of such building, mining claim, or other improvement.

Personal Action Not Impaired.

3894. SEC. 14. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for work done or material furnished, to maintain a personal action to recover such debt against the person liable therefor.

Action on Lien—Trial of—Sale of Premises.

3895. SEC. 15. Said liens may be enforced by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction, on setting out in the complaint the particulars of the demand, with a description of the premises to be charged with the lien; and at the time of filing the complaint and issuing the summons the plaintiff shall cause a notice to be published at least once a week, for three successive weeks, in one newspaper published in the county, and if there is no newspaper published in the county, then in such mode as the court may determine, notifying all persons holding or claiming liens under the provisions of this Act on said premises, to be and appear before said court on a day specified therein, and during a regular term of such court, and to exhibit then and there the proof of their said liens. On the day appointed, the court shall enter judgment according to the right of the parties, and shall, by decree, proceed to hear and determine the said claims in a summary way, or may refer the same to a referee to ascertain and report upon said liens and the amount justly due thereon; and all liens not so exhibited shall be deemed to be waived in favor of those which are so exhibited. On ascertaining the whole amount of said liens with which the said premises are justly chargeable, as hereinbefore provided, the court shall cause said premises to be sold in satisfaction of said liens and costs, including costs of suit; and any party in whose favor such judgment may be rendered may cause the premises to be sold within the time and in the manner provided for sales on execution, issued out of any district court, for the sale of real estate; and if the proceeds of sale, after the payment of costs, shall not be sufficient to satisfy the whole amount of such liens included in the decree of sale, then such proceeds shall be apportioned according to the right of the several parties. In case the proceeds of such sale amount to more than the sum of said liens and the cost of sale, then the remainder shall be paid over to the owner of said property; and each party whose claim is not satisfied in the manner hereinbefore provided for, shall have personal judgment for the residue against the party legally liable for the same; provided, such person has been personally summoned or has appeared in the action.

Satisfaction and Discharge of Lien.

3896. SEC. 16. The claimant of any such lien filed as aforesaid, on the payment of the amount thereof, together with the costs incurred and the acknowledgment of satisfaction, shall, at the request of any person interested in the property charged therewith, enter or cause to be entered an acknowledgment of satisfaction of the same [of] record within ten days from the request, and for failure of the claimant to enter satisfaction within the time, shall forfeit and pay to the person making the request the sum of twenty dollars per day until the same shall be entered, to be recovered in the same manner as other debts.

Liens May Be Assigned.

3897. SEC. 17. Two or more creditors of the same class may assign their claims, duly verified, to any other creditor or person of the same class, and the assignee may commence and prosecute the action upon them all in his own name. All liens under this Act shall be assignable as any other chose in action.

Liens by Wood Choppers, etc.—Proceedings.

3898. SEC. 18. All persons who shall perform work or labor upon any tract or tracts of lands, by cutting or cording the wood or timber growing, or being thereon, shall have and may each, respectively, claim and hold a lien upon the wood or timber so cut or corded, for the amount in value of the work or labor so performed, by retaining possession of the same, until the whole amount due for such work or labor shall have been paid; provided, that any lien claimed and held, as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be waived, unless an action be brought in some court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of the amount for which such lien is claimed as security, within sixty days after such wood or timber shall have been taken into possession by the claimant; and the fact that such lien is claimed, shall be set out in the complaint, together with a description of, and the number of cords of wood, or feet of timber, retained in possession by the claimant. If the judgment be for the plaintiff in such action, the execution shall direct the same, with costs, to be satisfied out of the wood or timber so retained, if the same shall be sufficient; if not, then the balance to be satisfied out of any other property of the defendant in the same manner provided by law. In all cases where two or more persons are jointly engaged under a contract or employment, in cutting or cording wood or timber, on any tract or tracts of land in this state, any one of such persons may claim, have, hold and enforce a lien, for all the work or labor performed, as in this section provided, and for the benefit of the other persons jointly interested with him; in such cases, in all actions brought under the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the court, in case the judgment shall be for the plaintiff, to designate in such judgment the amount due each of the persons interested. Possession of wood or timber within the meaning of this section shall be deemed to be in the person or persons cutting or cording wood or timber, for the purposes of this Act, from the time of cutting or cording the same; and shall not be deemed to have been released or yielded by the person or persons performing the work or labor, as herein provided, except such person or persons, by word or act clearly and distinctly declare, or evidence his or their intention to so release or yield possession; and in cases of a joint contract or employment, the possession of any part of the wood or timber, cut or corded, shall not be deemed yielded or released without the assent of all the persons cutting or cording the same, manifested as in this section provided. Justices of the Peace shall have jurisdiction of all actions under the provisions of this Act, when the amount claimed does not exceed three hundred dollars. As amended, Stats. 1879, 52.

Foundrymen, etc., Liens Of.

Repeal.

3900. SEC. 20. An Act of the legislature entitled "An Act to secure liens to mechanics and others, and to repeal all other acts in relation thereto," approved March fourth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and all other Acts and parts of Acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

An Act supplementary to an Act entitled "An Act to secure liens to mechanics and others, and to repeal all other Acts in relation thereto," approved March second, eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Approved February 24, 1877, 90.

Preferred Lien on Ore.

3901. SECTION 1. Where ore is delivered to a custom mill or reduction works, and either sold to said mill or reduction works, or worked at a percentage, the party or parties so furnishing ore to mill or reduction works shall have a preferred lien upon the bullion product, and upon the ore not reduced, as against attachment and other creditors.

An Act to protect the wages of labor.

Approved February 21, 1873, 76.

Wages Preferred Claims.

3902. SECTION 1. That in all assignments of property, whether real or personal, which shall hereafter be made by any person or chartered company or corporation, or by any person or persons, owning or leasing real or personal property, to trustees or assignees on account of inability at the time of the assignment to pay his, her, or their debts, the wages of the miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks, or laborers, employed by such person or persons, or chartered company or corporation, shall be held and deemed preferred claims, and paid by such trustees or assignees, before any other creditor or creditors of the assignor; provided, that the claims of each miner, mechanic, salesman, servant, clerk, or laborer thus preferred, shall not exceed in value two hundred dollars of gold coin of the United States, and the services shall have been rendered or labor performed within ninety days next preceding said assignment.

Claims for Wages Against Estates.

3903. SEC. 2. That in all cases of the death of any employer or employers, the wages of each miner, mechanic, salesman, servant, clerk, and laborer, for services rendered, or labor performed, within ninety days next preceding the death of the employer, shall rank after the funeral expenses of the deceased, the charges and expenses of administering upon the estate, and the allowance to the widow and infant children, and be paid pro rata before all other claims against the estate of the deceased person or persons; provided, this Act shall in no way affect the homestead or other property exempted by law from forced sale, or any mortgage or lien lawfully obtained on the property of the deceased person before his or her death.

In Cases of Attachments, etc.—Notice—If Claim Disputed—Action Thereon—Claims Preferred.

3904. SEC. 3. In all cases of execution, attachments and writs of a similar nature against the property of any person or persons, or chartered company or corporation, it shall be lawful for such miner, mechanic, salesman, servant, clerk and laborer to give notice of their claim or claims, and the amount thereof, duly certified and sworn to by the creditor or creditors making the claim to the officer executing either of such writs, at any time before the actual sale of property levied upon; the creditor or creditors making the claim shall at the same time give notice in writing to the creditor or creditors at whose instance the property has been levied upon, or his or their attorney, of their said claim or claims, and the amount thereof duly certified and sworn to by such claimant or claimants; a copy of said notice shall also be served upon the debtor, if he be found within the county where the property levied upon is situated; provided, that if the debtor cannot be found within the county where the property levied upon is situated, then said notice may be served upon the officer executing either of such writs in lieu of said debtor. Upon the filing in the court where the action or actions against the debtor is, or are pending, of an affidavit of the claimant or claimants, showing his or their compliance with the foregoing provisions of this section, the officer executing either of said writs shall pay to such miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks or laborers, out of the proceeds of the sale, the amount each is justly and legally entitled to receive for services rendered, within ninety days next preceding the levy of the writ of execution, attachment, or other writ, not exceeding two hundred dollars in gold coin of the United States; provided, that either the creditor or debtor may dispute the claim of any person seeking and claiming preference under this section, and in such case the party or parties disputing such claim shall serve a written notice that they dispute such claim upon the claimant or claimants, and upon the officer executing such writs, within five days from the time of service upon such creditor or debtor of the notice of the claim by the claimant seeking preference, as hereinbefore provided for. Within ten days from the time of the service last provided for, the claimant or claimants shall commence an action in any court of competent jurisdiction against the debtor, and the person or persons disputing his or their claim, or claims, for the recovery thereof, and shall prosecute such action with due diligence, or be forever barred from any claim of priority payment thereof; but in case action is rendered necessary by the Act as aforesaid, by either debtor or creditor, and judgment shall be had for said claim, or any part thereof, carrying costs, the costs attending the prosecution of said action, and legally taxable therein, shall likewise be a preferred claim, with the same rank as the original claim; and, provided further, if the amount of assets, after deducting costs of levy and sale, shall not be adequate to the payment of all the preferred claims of this class, they shall be paid pro rata out of the money hereby made applicable thereto; and, provided further, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect any homestead claims, mortgage, or lien of any description, created and existing before the claim of such laborer accrued. As amended, Stats. 1881, 56.

ACT TO PROTECT THE WAGES OF LABOR—SECTION 3 CONSTRUED—NOTICE, TO WHOM GIVEN. In construing Section 3 of the Act to protect the wages of labor: Held, that notice of the laborer's claim must be given to the debtor and creditor as well as to the Sheriff. Coccia v. Kyle, 15 Nev. 394.

An Act to secure liens to ranchmen and other persons.

Approved February 14, 1866, 65.

Lien Upon Animals—Sales—Fees.

3905. SECTION 1. Any ranchman, or other person or persons, keeping corrals, livery or feed stables, or furnishing hay, grain, pasture, or otherwise boarding any horse or horses, mule or mules, ox or oxen, or other animal or animals, shall have a lien upon and retain possession of the same, or a sufficient number thereof, until all reasonable charges are paid; or suit can be brought and judgment obtained for the amount of such charges, and execution issued and levied on said property; provided, nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to include any debt other than for the boarding, keeping, or pasture of such animal or animals, together with costs of suit and sale. Sales of such animal or animals shall be made as other sales of personal property under execution. The officer making such sale shall be entitled to such fees for his services as are allowed by law in cases of other sales of personal property.

Surplus Paid Over.

3906. SEC. 2. After paying all charges, together with costs of suit and sale, the remainder, if there be any, shall be paid to the owner or owners of such animal or animals, or, in case such owner or owners is or are out of the state, or cannot be found, to the Justice of the Peace before whom, or the Clerk of the Court in which, judgment is rendered. If said money is not called for by the owner or owners thereof within six months, said Justice or Clerk shall pay the same to the County Treasurer of his county for school purposes.

Penalty for Taking Animal Away.

3907. SEC. 3. Any person or persons who shall take and drive away any such animal or animals, while in the possession of such ranchman or person boarding the same, without having first paid all reasonable charges due thereon, and against the consent of such ranchman or other person, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court having jurisdiction of the same, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding the value of the stock so taken or driven away, nor less than fifty dollars; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to release the owner or owners of said property from the amount of any lien there may be due thereon under and by virtue of this Act.

STATUTORY LIEN FOR KEEPING ANIMALS LOST BY SURRENDER OF POSSESSION. Where a stable keeper boarded a team of horses, but allowed them every day to be driven away to work, and on one occasion after being so driven away they were not returned: Held, that though he might under the statute have retained possession of the horses, and insisted upon his lien, yet, having allowed them to be driven away, he relinquished possession and thereby lost his right of lien. Cardinal v. Edwards, 5 Nev. 36; Estee v. Cooke, 12 Nev. 276.

FIXING FUTURE TIME OF PAYMENT DESTROYS LIEN. The fixing of a future time of payment for the keeping or boarding of animals, such as an agreement to pay on the first of each month, destroys the lien contemplated by the statute of 1866. Id.

An Act for the relief of persons imprisoned on civil process.

Approved December 19, 1862, 95.

May Be Released.

3908. SECTION 1. Every person confined in jail on an execution issued on a judgment rendered in a civil action, shall be discharged therefrom upon the conditions hereinafter specified.

Application for Release.

3909. SEC. 2. Such person shall cause a notice, in writing, to be given to the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, that at a certain time and place he will apply to the District or Probate Judge of the county in which such person may be confined for the purpose of obtaining a discharge from his imprisonment.

Notice to Plaintiff.

3910. SEC. 3. Such notice shall be served upon the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney, one day at least before the hearing of the application. If the plaintiff be not a resident of the county, and have no agent or attorney in the county, no such notice need be served.

Examination of Prisoner.

3911. SEC. 4. At the time and place specified in the notice, such person shall be taken before such Judge, who shall examine him, under oath, concerning his estate and property and effects, and the disposal thereof, and his ability to pay the judgment for which he is committed, and such Judge shall also hear any other legal and pertinent evidence that may be produced by the debtor or creditors.

Oath Required, Form Of.

3912. SEC. 5. If, upon examination, the Judge be satisfied that the prisoner is entitled to his discharge, such Judge shall administer to him the following oath: "I,-----, do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I have not any estate, real or personal, to the amount of fifty dollars, except such as is by law exempted from being taken in execution; and that I have not any other estate now conveyed or concealed, or in any way disposed of with design to secure the same to my use, or to defraud my creditors."

Order of Discharge.

3913. SEC. 6. After administering the oath, the Judge shall issue an order that the prisoner be discharged from custody, if he be imprisoned for no other cause; and the officer, upon service of such order, shall discharge the prisoner forthwith, if he be imprisoned for no other cause.

Renewal of Application for Discharge.

3914. SEC. 7. If such Judge should not discharge the prisoner, he may apply for his discharge at the end of every succeeding ten days, in the same manner as above provided, and the same proceeding shall thereupon be had.

Does Not Vitiolate Judgment.

3915. SEC. 8. The prisoner, after being so discharged, shall be forever exempt from arrest and imprisonment for the same debt; but the judgment against him shall remain in full force against any estate, present or future, of the prisoner, not exempt from execution.

Plaintiff May Order Discharge.

3916. SEC. 9. The plaintiff in the action may, at any time, order the prisoner to be discharged, and he shall not thereafter be liable to imprisonment for the same cause of action.

Ex Parte Bergman, 18 Nev. 331.

Expenses of Imprisonment, Amount and How Paid.

3917. SEC. 10. Whenever a person is committed to jail on a judgment recovered in a civil action, the creditor, his agent, or attorney, shall advance to the Jailer immediately upon such commitment, sufficient money to pay for the support of said prisoner for at least two weeks, at the rate of two dollars and a half per day, and in case the money should not be so advanced, the Jailer shall forthwith discharge such prisoner from custody, and such discharge shall be a bar against imprisonment for the same debt. At the expiration of such two weeks, should such creditor refuse to advance a like sum, the prisoner will be discharged as above provided, and with the same effect.

SUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE FOR DISCHARGE. Deal v. Schlomberg, 20 Nev. 330.

An Act to regulate the condemnation of property for public use.

Approved February 27, 1897, 26.

Who May Condemn Property.

3918. SECTION 1. Any person, corporation, civil, municipal, or political organization, by law authorized so to do, may condemn any property, or interest therein, which may be necessary for public use, in the manner only provided for by this Act.

Must File Notice.

3919. SEC. 2. The plaintiff seeking condemnation shall commence an action in the district court of the county in which the property sought to be condemned, or some part thereof, is situated, in the same manner as other civil actions are commenced therein, and shall file with the Recorder of said county, a notice of the pending of the said action.

Complaint, What to Show.

3920. SEC. 3. The complaint shall describe the property, or interest therein, sought to be condemned, with reasonable certainty, the use for which it is to be acquired, that the use is public and necessary, and shall contain the names of three competent and disinterested persons, residents and householders of the county, as jurors on the part of the plaintiff.

All Persons Having Interest to Be Defendants.

3921. SEC. 4. All persons appearing of record as having or claiming any right, title or interest, in or to the property sought to be condemned, or any part thereof, or in possession, shall be made defendants and may all be joined as defendants in one action, whether their rights, title, interest, claims or possessions extend to the whole or a part of the property sought to be condemned.

Provisions of Civil Practice Act Applicable.

3922. SEC. 5. All the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice of this state, and to repeal all other Acts in relation thereto," approved March 8, 1869, and all Acts and parts of Acts amendatory thereof, or supplemental thereto, are made applicable to and shall control said action, except when inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act.

Answer, What to Set Forth—Jurors to Be Named.

3923. SEC. 6. The defendants may answer jointly or separately, but the answer shall set forth clearly and concisely the nature and extent of the right, title, interest, claim and possession of each defendant in or to the property or a part thereof, sought to be condemned, and the amount which it is claimed would be a just compensation for the taking thereof. It shall also contain the names of three competent and disinterested persons, residents and householders of said county, as jurors on the part of the defendant. A failure on the part of any party to the action to so name jurors shall be a waiver of the right to select names for any of them. The averments of the answer shall be deemed controverted by the plaintiff.

Five Jurors to Try the Action—How Appointed.

3924. SEC. 7. On or before the trial of said action the Judge of said court shall name five competent and disinterested persons, residents and householders of said county to act as jurymen in said action, two of whom shall be persons named by the plaintiff in its complaint, if any are so named, and two shall be persons named by the defendants or some of them in the answer, if any are so named. If any juror named by a party and selected, is disqualified, incompetent, or unable to act, he shall be excused, and his place shall be filled by a juror selected from the names theretofore or then to be selected by the person who named the juror who was excused. Said five jurors, when so selected, shall constitute the jury to hear said cause and find the amount which shall be just compensation to the owners for the property, or interest therein, sought to be condemned; and their findings thereon shall have the same force and effect as a finding of the amount of damages by the general verdict of a jury in an action for damages for the conversion of specific personal property. All other issues shall be tried by the court.

Burden of Proof—What Jury to Take Into Consideration.

3925. SEC. 8. Upon the trial of said action the defendant shall have the burden of proof as to what is just compensation, and shall have the right to open and close the argument before the jury. In ascertaining and assessing such compensation the jury shall take into consideration, and make allowance for, any benefit or advantage that in its opinion will accrue to such person, or persons, by reason of the use or improvement of said property as proposed by the plaintiff. A view of the property by the jurors shall be had upon the motion of either party or order of the Judge. Three of said jurors may find a verdict.

Judgment Entered—Costs—Jury Fees.

3926. SEC. 9. Judgment shall be entered upon the verdict, by the court, upon motion, for the amount so found, and may order the money to be apportioned amongst the defendants according to the rights of the several parties, as shown by the proofs. Costs may be awarded, or apportioned, as the court may direct. For their services the jurors shall receive three dollars per day from the plaintiff, but no mileage shall be allowed to the said jurors.

Plaintiff to Pay Over Amount to Clerk.

3927. SEC. 10. At any time after the rendition of the verdict the plaintiff may pay to the Clerk of said court the amount of the verdict and such costs as are adjudged against it, and said payment shall be deemed and taken as a payment to the owners of the said property and shall be as effectual for all purposes whatsoever as if the said sum of money had been personally paid to each and all of the persons entitled thereto.

When to Become Property of Plaintiff.

3928. SEC. 11. Upon said payment being made and a judgment of condemnation entered in said action, the real estate, or right, title or interest therein described in the complaint, and for which compensation was awarded by said verdict, shall be and become the property of said plaintiff for the purposes for which it was condemned, and shall be deemed to be acquired and appropriated for such public use, and any time after such payment is made and judgment entered the plaintiff shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of the property so condemned, and oust and eject therefrom the defendants and any and all persons claiming by or through them, or either of them, subsequent to the filing of said notice with the County Recorder; and said plaintiff may recover possession of said premises and be put into the possession thereof by legal process in the same manner and with the same force and effect as in an action for the recovery of the possession of specific real estate.

When Right of Motion for New Trial or Appeal Deemed Waived.

3929. SEC. 12. The payment of said sums to said Clerk shall not affect the right of any party to move for a new trial or to appeal the said action, but the receipt of any part of said sum by any defendant, either in person or by attorney, shall be deemed a waiver by said defendant of the right to move for a new trial or to take an appeal in said action, and no such payment shall be made by the Clerk to any defendant who has given notice of a motion for a new trial or of an appeal, unless upon the order of the Judge of said court. Neither the pendency nor the granting of a new trial, or of an appeal, shall operate as a stay of said judgment, or execution thereon, or prevent the plaintiff from securing and maintaining possession of the property so condemned.

Disposal of Money on New Trial or Appeal.

3930. SEC. 13. If a new trial is granted, or on appeal the judgment is modified, reversed, or affirmed, the money so paid by the plaintiff and held by the Clerk shall be paid as the court may direct, and if it is finally determined that the sum so paid and received is more or less than what was jointly due, the party entitled thereto shall have a judgment against the adverse party for such excess of deficiency.

An Act for the relief of insolvent debtors and protection of creditors.

Approved March 3, 1881, 124.

Insolvent Debtors.

3930½. SECTION 1. Every insolvent debtor may be discharged from his debts, as hereinafter provided, upon executing an assignment of all his property, real, personal, or mixed, for the benefit of all his creditors, and upon compliance with the several provisions of this Act; provided, said assignment be made in good faith and without fraud. The district court only shall have jurisdiction in the subject matter herein contained.

Debtor to Petition Judge.

3931. SEC. 2. Any person owing debts to an amount exceeding the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars, and who shall have resided in the county where such application is made for at least one year immediately preceding such application, shall petition the Judge of the district court having jurisdiction within the place of his residence, in which petition he shall briefly state the circumstances which compel him to surrender his property to his creditors, and shall conclude with a prayer to make a cession of his estate and to be discharged from his debt, in pursuance with the provisions of this Act.

To Annex Schedule to Petition.

3932. SEC. 3. The debtor shall annex to his petition his schedule, that is to say, a specified statement of his affairs, containing a list of the debts and liabilities owing by him, giving the name of his creditors, if known, the amount due to each creditor, the cause and nature of such indebtedness, when and where it accrued, and a statement of any existing judgment, mortgage, collateral, or other securities for the payment of any such debt. Said schedule shall also contain a full, complete, and perfect inventory of all his property, real, personal, and mixed, of all choses in action, debts due or to become due, and all moneys in hand of or belonging to such insolvent. Said schedule shall also contain a full statement of all incumbrances existing upon the property of the insolvent. The said debtor shall, as nearly as possible, estimate the property by him surrendered, and set it forth in the schedule at its true cash value.

Schedule to Be Sworn To—Form of Oath.

3933. SEC. 4. The said schedule shall be signed by the debtor, and be by him sworn to before the Judge having jurisdiction of the failure, or in the event of his absence from the county, before the Clerk of the Court, in the following words, to wit: "I, A. B., do, in the presence of Almighty God, truly and solemnly swear that the schedule now delivered by me, doth contain a full, perfect, and true discovery of all the estate, real, personal, and mixed, goods and effects to me in any way belonging, all such debts as are to me owing, or to any person or persons in trust for me, and all securities and contracts whereby any money may hereafter become payable, or any benefit or advantage accrue to me or to my use, or any other person or persons in trust for me; that I have no lands, money, or estate, reversion or expectancy beside that set forth in my schedule; that I have, in no instance, created or acknowledged a debt for a greater sum than I honestly and truly owed; that I have not, directly or indirectly, sold, or otherwise disposed of in trust, or concealed, any part of my property, effects or contracts, that I have not, in any way, compounded with my creditors, whereby to secure the same, or to receive or expect any profit or advantage therefrom, or to defraud or deceive any creditor to whom I am indebted, in any manner whatsoever, so help me God."

Order Upon Creditors.

3934. SEC. 5. The Judge to whom such application shall be made, shall make an order requiring all the creditors of such insolvent to show cause, if they can, why an assignment of the insolvent estate should not be made, and he be discharged from his debts. Said schedule being signed and sworn to by the petitioner, the Judge shall certify to the same, and cause it and the petition to be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court, in the county where the petitioner resided at the time of making the application, there to remain for the information of the creditors.

Exempted Property.

3935. SEC. 6. The insolvent debtor, on the surrender of his property, shall include and set forth in his schedule, his whole estate, and all such property as may by law be exempt on execution from seizure and forced sale; and it shall be the duty of the Judge having jurisdiction of the failure to exempt and set apart for the use and benefit of said insolvent such real and personal property as he is by law authorized to retain to his own use, or that of his family.

To Deliver All Books, etc.

3936. SEC. 7. The insolvent shall, at the time of making his application, deliver to the court all the commercial or other books he may have kept, all vouchers, notes, bonds, bills, securities, or other evidences of debt, in any manner relating to or having any bearing upon or connected with his estate, and all such books, papers and securities shall be deposited in the Clerk's office of the said court, and the Clerk shall hand them over to the assignee who may be appointed.

Meeting of Creditors.

3937. SEC. 8. The Judge granting the order for a meeting of the creditors shall direct the Clerk to issue a notice calling the creditors of the insolvent to be and appear on a day, not less than thirty days from the date of the order, before said Judge, at chambers, in open court, to show cause why the prayer of the insolvent should not be granted. Such notice shall be served upon the creditors of the insolvent by depositing a copy of the same in the postoffice, postage prepaid, directed to the said creditors at their places of residence respectively, and shall be so deposited at least thirty days before the day on which the said creditors are required to appear, and in addition thereto the said notice shall be published at least thirty days in a newspaper, to be designated by the Judge, printed in the county in which application is made, if there be one; if there be none, then in a newspaper published nearest to the county seat in an adjoining county.

Property Taken by Sheriff.

3938. SEC. 9. At the time of granting the order for a meeting of the creditors, the Judge shall make an order, directed to the Sheriff of the county wherein such application is made, directing him to take into his custody all the property of the insolvent, except his books, vouchers, papers and securities; excepting, also, any and all such property as may have been set apart by said Judge for the use and benefit of the insolvent and his family, as provided in section six of this Act, and the said Sheriff shall immediately take and retain in his possession all the property of the said insolvent until an assignee shall have been chosen, when the same shall be delivered by him to the said assignee. As amended, Stats. 1885, 29.

Proceedings Stayed.

3939. SEC. 10. When the debtor shall have filed the petition and schedule as provided for in the Act to which this is amendatory, all proceedings against him shall be stayed. As amended, Stats. 1887, 110.

Assignee, Creditors to Appoint.

3940. SEC. 11. At the meeting of creditors, the said creditors having certified on oath that their respective claims are legitimate and true, shall proceed to the appointment of an assignee. In appointing assignees the opinion of the majority of said creditors in amount shall prevail. At such meeting any creditor may be represented by his duly authorized agent or attorney in fact.

Judge to Confirm.

3941. SEC. 12. Such appointment of the assignee shall be confirmed by the Judge, who shall make and enter an order to that effect.

Bond of Assignee.

3942. SEC. 13. The Judge shall require from the assignee a bond with one or more good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties devolving upon said assignee. The amount of such bond shall be determined by the majority of creditors. Should the creditors fail to determine the same, the amount of said bond shall be fixed by the Judge of the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings.

Assignee to Sell Property—Notice, etc.

Assignee to Distribute Funds.

3944. SEC. 15. All funds coming into the hands of the assignee out of the estate of an insolvent shall remain inviolable, and shall never be loaned, used, or mixed with the personal affairs of the assignee. A distribution of the proceeds of the property of the insolvent shall be made by the assignee agreeably to the direction of the court. Said assignee may sue and be sued, either as plaintiffs or defendants, in everything which respects the rights and actions which may belong to the insolvent, or which may concern the mass of the creditors. All suits brought against the insolvent, prior to his surrender of property, before the courts of other counties, shall be transferred to the court having jurisdiction in the county in which said insolvent shall have presented his schedule, and may be continued on motion and notice against his assignee.

Assignee to Make Statement of Dividends.

3945. SEC. 16. Whenever a dividend shall be declared, the assignee shall make out a statement containing the names of the several creditors, mentioning the sums which are due them respectively. And the said statement shall, besides, contain the pro rata sums to be divided among all the creditors; said assignee shall deposit said statement in the Clerk's office of the court, who shall order that notice be given to the creditors, in the same manner as for the meeting, that they show cause, within fifteen days next following the publication, why the said statement should not be accepted, and the distribution made agreeable to its contents. Two or more creditors may, at any time, make a motion to know if the assignee has funds in his hands, and the said assignee shall be required to present his accounts, and if he has funds, he distribute them without delay.

Assignee May Be Removed.

3946. SEC. 17. Should the assignee refuse or neglect to render his account, as required by the preceding section, or to pay over a dividend when he shall have, in the opinion of the court, sufficient funds for that purpose in his hands, the court shall immediately discharge such assignee from his trust, and shall have power to appoint another in his place. The assignee so discharged shall deliver to the one so appointed by the court all the funds, property, books, vouchers and securities belonging to the insolvent, without charging any commission or expenses thereon, and shall also be condemned to pay the new assignee, for the benefit of the mass of the creditors, twenty per cent in addition to the amount of funds in his hands.

Judge May Appoint Sheriff Assignee, When.

3947. SEC. 18. If on the day appointed for the first meeting of creditors, the creditors, although duly summoned, do not attend, or refuse to appoint an assignee, it shall be lawful for the Judge before whom the said meeting may take place, to appoint the Sheriff of the county such assignee, with full power as other assignees, and for the faithful performance of said trust he shall be responsible on his official bond.

Fees of Assignee.

3948. SEC. 19. The assignee shall be entitled to charge, and receive, for his services, to wit: Eight per centum upon a sum not exceeding ten thousand ($10,000) dollars; five per centum upon sums above ten thousand ($10,000) dollars and not exceeding thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars; three per centum upon all sums above thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars; provided, that said commission be allowed only on such net sums of money as shall actually come to his hands or be distributed by him; the mass of creditors shall in no manner be liable for fees of counsel of the insolvent debtor in conducting the surrender of the property.

Creditor May Oppose Assignment.

3949. SEC. 20. If, after the appointment of said assignee, any one of the creditors of the insolvent debtor should deem necessary to oppose such assignment, on the ground of some fraud having been committed by the insolvent debtor, or of the appointment not having been legally made, he shall, within thirty days next following the appointment of said assignee, lay before the court which has already taken cognizance of the case, his written opposition, stating specifically the several facts of nullity of the said appointment, or of the fraud by him alleged against the insolvent debtor, whereupon, in case of accusation of fraud after having received the said insolvent's answer, the court shall order a jury to be summoned of not less than six men, to be summoned in the same manner as juries are summoned in the district court, for the purpose of deciding on the said accusation.

Proof Required.

3950. SEC. 21. On the day or at the term appointed in such order, or any subsequent day or term, the court shall proceed to hear the proofs and allegations of the parties, and before any other proceedings be had shall require proof of the mailing and publication of the notice as herein provided.

Creditor May Question on Oath.

3951. SEC. 22. Upon such accusation of fraud the creditor who shall have brought the same shall have the right to interrogate the insolvent debtor on oath, and put to him such written questions as to the state of his affairs and the several transactions in which he may have been engaged anterior to his failure, as he may think proper, and the insolvent shall answer in writing to the said interrogatories, in a pertinent and distinct manner, and every equivocal answer on his part shall be construed against him.

Debtor Guilty of Fraud.

3952. SEC. 23. If the jury summoned for the purpose of deciding on the accusation of fraud brought against such insolvent debtor declare in their verdict that said insolvent has been guilty of fraud, the said debtor shall forever be deprived of the benefit of the laws passed for the relief of insolvent debtors in this state.

How Debtor Released.

3953. SEC. 24. If the accusation of fraud brought against the debtor is declared to be ill-founded, or if no opposition be made within the time herein provided, the said debtor having in all things complied with the provisions of this Act, the said debtor shall be released and fully discharged from any and all debts until then contracted and contracted after the passage of this Act, and from any judicial proceedings relative to the same; provided always, that said insolvent debtor shall be released and discharged only from such debts and liabilities as he shall have set forth and named in his schedule; and, provided further, that no discharge shall be granted unless the said debtor shall surrender property, the cash value of which, over and above the property exempt by law and set apart by the court, shall amount to at least fifty per centum of the amount of his liabilities, unless three-fourths in number of his creditors, and one-half in amount, consent in writing to his discharge. As amended, Stats. 1883, 94; 1887, 94.

Debtor Guilty of Fraud.

3954. SEC. 25. Any insolvent debtor who shall be found guilty of fraud, as aforesaid, shall forever be deemed incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the government of this state, shall be liable to a criminal prosecution, and if convicted of fraud he shall be sentenced by the court to suffer imprisonment at hard labor in the state prison for a term of not less than six months nor more than two years.

In Case of Emergency.

3955. SEC. 26. If the Judge before whom the accusation of fraud, or opposition to the appointment of the assignee is made, thinks that the interest of the mass of creditors of the insolvent may suffer by a delay of the approval of the appointment of the assignee, it shall be lawful for the said Judge, all opposition notwithstanding, to approve previously the said appointment, if he finds that it has been made agreeably to law.

Who Considered Fraudulent Bankrupt.

3956. SEC. 27. That all persons shall be considered as fraudulent bankrupts who shall be convicted of having concealed their property with the intention to keep it from their creditors, as also those who shall be convicted of having concealed or altered their books or papers with the same intention.

Fraudulent Bankrupt.

3957. SEC. 28. That every insolvent debtor shall also be considered as a fraudulent bankrupt who shall be convicted of having passed sham deeds for the purpose of conveying the whole or any part of his property, and depriving his creditors thereof, or of having knowingly omitted to declare any of his property, rights or claims in his schedule, or of having purloined his books or any of them, or having altered, changed, or made them anew, with an intent to defraud his creditors, or of having alienated, mortgaged or pledged any of his property, with intent to defraud or prejudice his creditors; and any sale, mortgage or alienation of any property of the debtor made by him within a month preceding the filing of a petition in insolvency, and made with intent to give a preference to one or more of his creditors, shall be void. As amended, Stats. 1883, 94.

Debarred from Benefits of Act.

3958. SEC. 29. If any debtor shall be convicted of having, at any time within three months next preceding his failure, sold, engaged, or mortgaged any of his goods and effects, or of having otherwise assigned, transferred, or disposed of the same, or any part thereof, or confessed judgment in order to give a preference to one or more of his creditors over the others, whereby to receive any advantage in anticipation of his failure to the prejudice of his creditors, he shall be debarred the benefit of this Act.

Certain Parties Denied Benefits.

3959. SEC. 30. All insolvent debtors owing, or accountable in any manner, for public funds or property, of whatever nature or kind, all unfaithful depositaries, all such as refuse or neglect to pay up all funds received by them as bankers, brokers, commission merchants, or for money, goods, or effects, received by them in a fiduciary capacity, shall be denied the benefits of this Act.

When Denied Benefits of Act.

3960. SEC. 31. If, after the presentation of his petition, the insolvent shall sell, or in any manner transfer or assign, any of his property, or collect any debts due him, and shall not give a just and true account of the property so sold or transferred, and the moneys so collected, and pay the same over to the assignee within ten days after his appointment, said debtor shall not receive the benefit of this Act.

Concealing Property.

3961. SEC. 32. Whenever any insolvent debtor has had the benefit of this Act, if thereafter at any time it is made to appear that he has concealed any part of his property or estate, or given a false schedule, or committed any fraud under the provisions of this Act, it is hereby declared that he has forfeited all benefit and advantage which he would otherwise have had by virtue of this Act, and he cannot avail himself of any of its provisions in bar to any claim that may be instituted against him.

Application of Act.

3962. SEC. 33. No person can apply for or receive the benefit of this Act through an agent or attorney in fact.

Property Cannot Be Seized.

3963. SEC. 34. From and after the filing of the petition by the insolvent debtor, all property of such insolvent shall be fully vested in his assignee for the benefit of his creditors, and shall not be liable to be seized, attached, taken, or levied on by virtue of any execution issued against the property of said insolvent, and the assignee who may be appointed shall take possession of and be entitled to claim and recover all the said property, and to administer and sell the same as herein provided.

Cannot Receive Benefits of Act, When.

3964. SEC. 35. In case the debtor who applies for the benefits of this Act should already have received the benefit of this Act, he shall not be entitled to his discharge unless the property surrendered by him amounts to at least fifty per centum of his liabilities, except that three-fourths of his creditors in number and amount consent thereto in writing.

Bona Fide Lien to Hold Good.

3965. SEC. 36. All legal mortgages and liens, bona fide, existing on such property at the time of the surrender, as aforesaid, shall remain good and valid, and may be enforced in the same manner, due notice being given to the assignee, as though no such surrender had been made. As amended, Stats. 1885, 79.

Debarred, When.

3966. SEC. 37. Any failure on the part of the insolvent debtor to comply with any and all the provisions of this Act will forever debar him from obtaining his discharge.

Duties of Assignee.

3967. SEC. 38. The assignee appointed under this Act shall make out a true account of all disbursements made by him in the discharge of his duties as assignee, which shall be verified by the oath of such assignee, and shall deliver the same to the Judge having jurisdiction of the subject matter, and such Judge shall, in writing, certify such part or parts of the same as he shall deem to be just and necessarily expended by said assignee in the discharge of his duty, which amount so allowed shall be paid out of the property of such insolvent debtor.

Assignments, When Binding.

3968. SEC. 39. No assignment of any insolvent debtor otherwise than is provided in this Act shall be legal or binding upon creditors.

Adjudication of Insolvency—Petition to Be Filed—May Amend—Bond.

3969. SEC. 40. An adjudication of insolvency may be made on the petition of five or more creditors, residents of this state, whose debts or demands accrued in this state, and amount in the aggregate to not less than five hundred dollars; provided, that said creditors, or either of them, have not become creditors by assignment within thirty days prior to the filing of said petition; such petition must be filed in the district court of the county, or city and county, in which the debtor resides or has his place of business, and must be verified by at least three of the petitioners, setting forth that such person is about to depart from the state with intent to defraud his creditors, or being absent from the state with such intent, remains absent, or conceals himself to avoid the service of legal process, or, being insolvent, has suffered his property to remain under attachment or legal process for four days, or has confessed or offered to allow judgment in favor of any creditors, or willfully suffered judgment to be taken against him by default, or has suffered or procured his property to be taken on legal process with intent to give a preference to one or more of his creditors, or has made an assignment, gift, sale, conveyance or transfer of his estate, property, rights or credits, with intent to delay, defraud or hinder his creditors, or, in contemplation of insolvency, has made any payment, gift, grant, sale, conveyance or transfer of his estate, property, rights or credits, or has been arrested or held in custody by virtue of any civil process of court, founded on any debt or demand, and such process remains in force and not discharged by payment or otherwise for a period of four days, or, being a merchant or tradesman, has stopped or suspended and not resumed payment within a period of forty days after maturity of any written acknowledgment of indebtedness, unless the party holding such acknowledgment has, in writing, waived the right to proceed under this subdivision; or, being a bank or banker, agent, broker, factor or commission merchant, has failed for forty days to pay any moneys deposited with, or received by him in a fiduciary capacity, upon demand of payment, except savings and loan banks, or associations who loan the money of their stockholders and depositors on real estate, and provided in their by-laws for the repayment of such deposits. The petitioners may from time to time amend and correct the petition, so that the same shall conform to the facts, by leave of the court before which the proceedings are pending; but nothing in this section shall be construed to invalidate any loan of actual value, or the security therefor, made in good faith, upon a security taken in good faith on the occasion of the making of such loan; the said petition shall be accompanied by a bond, with two sureties, in the penal sum of at least five hundred ($500) dollars, conditioned that if the debtor should not be declared an insolvent, the petitioners will pay all costs and damages, including a reasonable attorney fee, which the debtor may sustain by reason of the filing of said petition. The court may, upon motion, direct the filing of an additional bond, with different sureties, when deemed necessary.

To Show Cause.

3970. SEC. 41. Upon the filing of such creditors' petition, the court shall issue an order requiring such debtor to show cause, at a time and place to be fixed by said court, why he should not be adjudged an insolvent debtor, and at the same time, or thereafter, upon good cause shown therefor, said court may make an order forbidding the payment of any debts and the delivery of any property belonging to such debtor, to him, or for his use, or the transfer of any property by him.

Petition Served on Debtor.

3971. SEC. 42. A copy of said petition, with a copy of the order to show cause, shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as is provided by law for the service of summons in civil actions, but such service shall be made at least ten days before the time fixed for the hearing; provided, that if, for any reason, the service is not made, the order may be renewed, and the time and place of hearing changed, or, by a supplemental order by the court, or if such debtor cannot be found, or his place of abode ascertained, service shall be made by publication, as is provided in the Civil Practice Act for service of summons by publication.

Demurrer or Answer.

3972. SEC. 43. At the time for the hearing of said order to show cause, or such other time as it may be adjourned to, the debtor may demur to the petition for the same causes as are provided for demurrer in other cases by the Civil Practice Act. If the demurrer be overruled, the debtor shall have ten days thereafter in which to answer the petition. If the debtor answers the petition, such answer shall contain a specific denial of the material allegations of the petition controverted by him, and shall be verified in the same manner as pleadings in civil actions, and the issues raised thereon may be tried with or without a jury, according to the practice provided by law for the trial of civil actions.

Adjudging Debtor Insolvent.

3973. SEC. 44. If the respondent shall make default, or if, after a trial, the issues are found in favor of the petitioners, the court shall make an order adjudging that said respondent is, and was at the time of filing the petition, an insolvent debtor, and shall require said debtor, within such time as the court may designate, to file in court, the schedule and inventory provided for in sections three and four of this Act, and thereupon all proceedings shall be had in said matter in the same manner as if said debtor had voluntarily filed his petition.

Proceedings Dismissed.

3974. SEC. 45. If upon such hearing or trial, the issues are found in favor of the respondent, the proceedings shall be dismissed, and the respondent shall recover costs from the petitioning creditors, in the same manner as on final judgment in civil actions.

May Prepare Schedule.

3975. SEC. 46. If the debtor has failed to appear after service, personally or by publication, or is absent, or cannot be found, the schedule and inventory may be prepared by the Sheriff or by the assignee from the best information he can obtain.

Partnership, Manner of Procedure—To Prove Debts—Payment of Separate Debts.

3976. SEC. 47. Two or more persons who are partners in business may be adjudged insolvent either on the petition of such partners or any one of them, or on the petition of five or more creditors of the partnership, in which case an order shall be issued in the manner provided by this Act, upon which all the joint stock and property of the partnership and also all the separate estate of each of the partners shall be taken, excepting such parts thereof as may be exempt by law, and all the creditors of the company, and the separate creditors of each partner, shall be allowed to prove their respective debts, and the assignee shall be chosen by the creditors of the copartnership, and shall also keep separate accounts of the joint stock, or property of the copartnership, and of the separate estate of each member thereof; and after deducting out of the whole amount received by such assignee the whole amount of the expenses and disbursements, the net proceeds of the joint stock shall be appropriated to pay the creditors of the copartnership, and the net proceeds of the separate estate of each partner shall be appropriated to pay his separate creditors, and if there shall be any balance of the separate estate of any partner after the payment of his separate debts, such balance shall be added to the joint stock for the payment of the joint creditors, and if there shall be any balance of the joint stock after the payment of the joint debts, such balance shall be divided and appropriated to and among the separate estates of the several partners according to their respective rights and interest therein and as it would have been if the partnership had been dissolved without any insolvency, and the sum so appropriated to the separate estate of each partner shall be applied to the payment of his separate debts, and the certificates of discharge shall be granted or refused to each partner as the same would or ought to be if the proceedings had been by or against him alone under this Act, and in all other respects the proceedings as to partners shall be conducted in like manner as if they had been commenced and prosecuted by or against one person alone. If such copartners reside in different counties, the court in which the petition is first filed shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over the case. If the petition be filed by less than all the partners of a copartnership, those partners who do not join in the petition shall be ordered to show cause why they should not be adjudged to be insolvent in the same manner as other debtors are required to show cause, upon a creditors' petition as in this Act provided.

Applicable to Corporations.

3977. SEC. 48. The provisions of this Act shall apply to corporations, and upon the petition of any officer of any corporation, duly authorized by the vote of the Board of Directors or Trustees, at a meeting specially called for that purpose, or by the assent, in writing, of a majority of the Directors or Trustees, as the case may be, or upon a creditor's petition made and presented in the manner provided in the case of debtors, all the provisions of this Act which apply to the debtor or set forth his duties, examination, or liabilities, or prescribe penalties, or relate to fraudulent conveyances, payments and assignments applied to each and every officer of any corporation in relation to the same matters concerning the corporation. Whenever any corporation is declared insolvent all its property and assets shall be distributed to the creditors; but no discharge shall be granted to any corporation.

Repeal.

3978. SEC. 49. All Acts relating to the subject matter contained in this Act and all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall in no manner invalidate or affect any case in insolvency instituted and pending in any court prior to the day when this Act shall take effect, nor shall the provisions of this Act deprive any person of the benefits of this Act as to any indebtedness contracted prior to the taking effect of this Act.

Appeal in Certain Cases.

3979. SEC. 50. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court in the following cases: First—From an order granting or refusing an adjudication of insolvency. Second—Allowing or rejecting a creditor's claim in whole or in part. Third—Overruling a motion for a new trial. Fourth—Settling an account of an assignee. Fifth—Against or in favor of setting apart homestead or other property claimed as exempt from execution. Sixth—Granting or refusing a discharge to the debtor. Seventh—From an order staying all proceedings against the insolvent. The notice, undertaking, and procedure on appeal shall conform to the general laws of this state regulating appeals in civil cases, except that when the assignee has given an official undertaking and appeal from a judgment or order in insolvency his official undertaking stands in the place of an undertaking on appeal, and the sureties therein are liable on such undertaking.

Berryman v. Stern, 14 Nev. 415; Barker v. McLeod, 14 Nev. 148; Sadler v. Immel, 15 Nev. 265; Barnett v. Fifth Judicial District Court, 18 Nev. 286.

An Act to enable a certain class of claimants against the state to appeal to the courts.

Approved March 2, 1869, 104.

Actions Against the State.

Attorney-General to Defend—Controller May Appeal.

3981. SEC. 2. The Attorney-General shall defend all such actions on the part of the state. The Controller shall cause to be subpoenaed and examined such witnesses, and procure and cause to be introduced such documentary evidence as he shall deem necessary for the defense, and the sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated, out of moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of defraying any necessary expense in obtaining evidence and payment of costs for the defense of such actions. Appeals may be taken in all such actions by the Controller in behalf of the state.

Controller to Draw Warrants, When.

3982. SEC. 3. Upon the presentation of a certified copy of a final judgment in favor of the claimant in any such action, the Controller shall draw his warrant in favor of the claimant for the amount awarded by the judgment.

An Act requiring compensation for causing death by wrongful acts, neglect, or default.

Approved February 28, 1871, 90.

Liability for Death by Wrongful Act.

3983. SECTION 1. Whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect, or default, and the act, neglect, or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the persons who, or the corporation which would have been liable, if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured; and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to a felony.

Judgment Not Liable for Debts—Distribution.

3984. SEC. 2. The proceeds of any judgment obtained in any action brought under the provisions of this Act shall not be liable for any debt of the deceased; provided, he or she shall have left a husband, wife, child, father, mother, brother, sister, or child or children of a deceased child; but shall be distributed as follows: First—If there be a surviving husband or wife, and no child, then to such husband or wife; if there be a surviving husband or wife, and a child or children, or grandchildren, then, equally to each, the grandchild or children taking by right of representation; if there be no husband or wife, but a child or children, or grandchild or children, then to such child or children and grandchild or children by right of representation; if there be no child or grandchild, then to a surviving brother or sister, or brothers or sisters, if there be any; if there be none of the kindred hereinbefore named, then the proceeds of such judgment shall be disposed of in the manner authorized by law for the disposition of the personal property of deceased persons; provided, every such action shall be brought by and in the name of the personal representative or representatives of such deceased person; and, provided further, the jury in every such action may give such damages, pecuniary and exemplary, as they shall deem fair and just, and may take into consideration the pecuniary injury resulting from such death to the kindred as herein named.

An Act concerning the determination of conflicting rights to mining claims in certain cases.

Approved February 10, 1873, 50.

Jurisdiction of Court.

3985. SECTION 1. In all actions brought to determine the right of possession of a mining claim, or metalliferous vein or lode, where an application has been made to the proper officers of the government of the United States by either of the parties to such action for a patent for said mining claim, vein, or lode, it shall only be necessary to confer jurisdiction on the court to try said action, and render a proper judgment therein, that it appear that an application for a patent for such mining claim, vein, or lode has been made, and that the parties to said action are claiming such mining claim, vein, or lode, or some part thereof, or the right of possession thereof.

1. JURISDICTION—When Acquired. Golden Fleece v. Cable Con. M. Co., 12 Nev. 312.

PROOFS, HOW MADE—ACTUAL POSSESSION. Each party must prove his claim to the premises in dispute, and the better claim must prevail. Actual possession makes out a prima facie case for the contestant and throws upon the defendant the burden of proving a superior right in himself. Id.

ACTUAL POSSESSION NOT NECESSARY—Possession, How Proved. Id.

TITLE TO MINING CLAIM—How Acquired. Id.

2. WHEN ACTION MAY BE MAINTAINED—Possession of Both Parties. Rose v. Richmond M. Co., 17 Nev. 25.

JURISDICTION TO DECLARE ADVERSE CLAIM WAIVED BELONGS TO THE COURTS. It cannot be determined by the officers of the land department of the government. Id.

CRIMINAL PRACTICE.

An Act to regulate proceedings in criminal cases in the courts of justice in the Territory of Nevada.

Approved November 26, 1861, 435.

I—GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PROVISIONS.

Crimes Defined.

3986. SECTION 1. A crime or public offense is an act or omission forbidden by law, and to which is annexed, on conviction: First—Death. Second—Imprisonment. Third—Fine. Fourth—Removal from office. Fifth—Disqualification to hold or enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under this territory.

Offenses, How Divided.

3987. SEC. 2. Public offenses are divided into: First—Felonies. Second—Misdemeanors.

Felony.

3988. SEC. 3. A felony is a public offense punishable with death, or by imprisonment in the territorial prison.

Misdemeanor.

3989. SEC. 4. Every other public offense is a misdemeanor.

Conviction Necessary.

3990. SEC. 5. No person can be punished for a public offense except upon legal conviction in a court having jurisdiction.

Prosecution by Indictment.

3991. SEC. 6. Every public offense must be prosecuted by indictment, except: First—Where proceedings are had for the removal of a civil officer of the territory. Second—Offenses arising in the militia when in actual service in time of war, or which this territory may keep, with the consent of Congress, in time of peace. Third—Offenses tried in justices' courts.

Criminal Action.

3992. SEC. 7. The proceedings by which a party charged with a public offense is accused and brought to trial and punishment, shall be known as a criminal action.

How Prosecuted.

3993. SEC. 8. A criminal action shall be prosecuted in the name of the people of the United States in the Territory of Nevada, as a party against the party charged with the offense.

Designation.

3994. SEC. 9. The party prosecuted in a criminal action is designated in this Act as the defendant.

Rights of Defendant—Witnesses.

3995. SEC. 10. In a criminal action the defendant is entitled: First, to a speedy and public trial; second, to be allowed counsel, as in civil actions; or he may appear and defend in person or with counsel; and, third, to produce witnesses on his behalf, and to be confronted with the witnesses against him in the presence of the court; except that where the charge has been preliminarily examined before a committing magistrate, and the testimony taken down in writing, and subscribed by the witness in the presence of the defendant, who has, either in person or by counsel, cross-examined, or had an opportunity to cross-examine the witness; or where the testimony of a witness on the part of the people, who is unable to give security for his appearance, has been taken conditionally, in the like manner, in the presence of the defendant, who has, either in person or by counsel, cross-examined, or had an opportunity to cross-examine the witness, the deposition of such witness may be read upon its being satisfactorily shown to the court that he is dead or insane, or cannot, with due diligence, be found within the territory.

Second Prosecution Not Allowed.

3996. SEC. 11. No person shall be subject to a second prosecution for a public offense for which he has once been prosecuted and duly convicted or acquitted.

Witness Against Himself.

3997. SEC. 12. No person shall be compelled, in a criminal action, to be a witness against himself, nor shall a person charged with a public offense be subjected, before conviction, to any more restraint than is necessary for his detention to answer the charge.

Jury Necessary.

3998. SEC. 13. No person can be convicted of a public offense, tried by indictment, unless by the verdict of a jury, accepted and recorded by the court, or upon a plea of guilty, or upon judgment against him upon a demurrer to the indictment in the case, mentioned in section two hundred and ninety-three.

II—PREVENTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES.Lawful Resistance.

3999. SEC. 14. Lawful resistance to the commission of a public offense may be made: First—By the party about to be injured. Second—By other parties Party About to Be Injured.

4000. SEC. 15. Resistance sufficient to prevent the offense may be made by the party about to be injured: First—To prevent an offense against his person, or his family, or some member thereof. Second—To prevent an illegal attempt, by force, to take or injure property in his lawful possession.

Others May Aid.

4001. SEC. 16. Any other person, in aid or defense of the person about to be injured, may make resistance sufficient to prevent the offense.

Intervention of Officers.

4002. SEC. 17. Public offenses may be prevented by the intervention of the officers of justice: First—By requiring surety to keep the peace. Second—By forming a police in cities and towns, and by requiring their attendance in exposed places. Third—By suppressing riots.

By Other Persons.

4003. SEC. 18. Whenever the officers of justice are authorized to act in the prevention of public offenses, other persons, who by their command act in their aid, are justified in so doing.

Complaint for Threatening.

4004. SEC. 19. A complaint may be laid before any of the magistrates mentioned in section one hundred and two, that a person has threatened to commit an offense against the person or property of another.

Examination.

4005. SEC. 20. When the complaint is laid before the magistrate, he shall examine, on oath, the complainant and any witness he may produce, and shall take their depositions in writing, and cause them to be subscribed by the parties making them.

Magistrate to Issue Warrant.

4006. SEC. 21. If it appears from the deposition that there is just reason to fear the commission of the offense threatened by the person so complained of, the magistrate shall issue a warrant directed generally to the Sheriff of the county, or any Constable, Marshal, or policeman in the territory, reciting the substance of the complaint, and commanding the officer forthwith to arrest the person complained of, and bring him before the magistrate.

Hearing of Evidence.

4007. SEC. 22. When the person complained of is brought before the magistrate, if the charge be controverted, the magistrate shall take testimony in relation thereto. The evidence must be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the witnesses.

Complaint Dismissed, When.

4008. SEC. 23. If it appear that there is no just reason to fear the commission of the offense alleged to have been threatened, the person complained of shall be discharged.

Surety to Keep the Peace.

4009. SEC. 24. If, however, there be a just reason to fear the commission of the offense, the person complained of may be required to enter into a bond, in such sum, not exceeding five thousand dollars, as the magistrate may direct, with one or more sufficient sureties, to keep the peace toward the people of this territory, and particularly towards the complainant. The bond shall be valid and binding for six months, and may, upon the renewal of the complaint, be extended for a longer period, or a new bond may be required.

Failure to Give Bond.

4010. SEC. 25. If the bond required by the last section be given, the party complained of shall be discharged. If he do not give it, the magistrate shall commit him to prison, specifying in the warrant the requirement to give security, the amount thereof, and the omission to pay the same.

Discharged on Giving Same.

4011. SEC. 26. If the person complained of be committed for not giving the bond required, he may be discharged by any magistrate upon giving the same.

Bond to Be Filed.

4012. SEC. 27. A bond given, as provided in section twenty-four, must be filed by the magistrate in the office of the Clerk of the county.

Breach of Peace.

4013. SEC. 28. Any person who, in the presence of a court or magistrate, shall assault, or threaten to assault another, or to commit any offense against his person or property, or who shall contend with another with angry words, may be ordered by the court or magistrate to give security, as is provided in section twenty-four, or, if he refuse to do so, may be committed as provided in section twenty-five.

Bond to Keep the Peace, When Broken.

4014. SEC. 29. A bond to keep the peace shall be deemed broken on a conviction of the person complained against of a breach of the peace.

When Prosecuted.

4015. SEC. 30. Upon the District Attorney's producing evidence of such conviction to the district court of the United States, in the Territory of Nevada, the court shall order the bond to be prosecuted, and the District Attorney shall thereupon commence an action on the same, in the name of the people of this territory.

Breach of Bond.

4016. SEC. 31. In the action, the offense stated in the record of conviction shall be alleged as the breach of the bond, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

No Other Security.

4017. SEC. 32. No security to keep the peace, or be of good behavior, shall be required except as herein prescribed.

Police Force.

4018. SEC. 33. The organization and regulation of the police force, in the cities and towns of this territory, are governed by special laws.

SECS. 34 to 48, concerning riotous assemblies, are superseded, SECS. 1862-1874.

Resisting Authorities.

4019. SEC. 49. Any person who shall, after the publication of the proclamation authorized by section forty-seven, resist or aid in resisting the execution of process in any county so declared to be in a state of insurrection, or who shall aid or attempt the rescue or escape of any person from lawful custody or confinement, or who shall resist or aid in resisting any force ordered out by the Governor to quell or suppress an insurrection, shall be punished by imprisonment, in a territorial prison, for a term not less than two years.

III—PROCEEDINGS FOR REMOVAL OF PUBLIC OFFICERS.

Subject to Impeachment.

4020. SEC. 50. Any territorial officer, created by territorial law, shall be liable for impeachment for any misdemeanor in office.

How Tried.

4021. SEC. 51. All impeachments shall be tried by the council; when sitting for that purpose, the councilmen shall be upon oath or affirmation.

Proceedings.

4022. SEC. 52. When a civil officer of the territory is impeached by the house of representatives for a misdemeanor in office, the articles of impeachment shall be delivered to the President of the Council.

Notice Served on Defendant.

4023. SEC. 53. The council shall assign a day for hearing the impeachment, and shall inform the house of representatives thereof. The President of the Council shall cause a copy of the articles of impeachment, with a notice to appear and answer the same at the time and place appointed, to be served on the defendant, not less than ten days before the day fixed for the hearing.

Service Must Be Personal or by Publication.

4024. SEC. 54. The service must be upon the defendant personally, or if he cannot, upon diligent inquiry, be found within the territory, the council, upon due proof of that fact, may order that publication be made in such manner as they deem proper, of a notice requiring him to appear at a specified time and place, and answer the articles of impeachment.

Impeachment, When Heard.

4025. SEC. 55. If the defendant do not appear, the council, upon proof of service or publication, as provided in the last two sections, may, of their own motion, or for cause shown, assign another day for hearing the impeachment; or may then, or at any other time which they may appoint, proceed, in the absence of the defendant, to trial and judgment.

Answer of Defendant.

4026. SEC. 56. When the defendant appears, he must answer the articles of impeachment, which he may do, either by objecting to the sufficiency of the same, or of any article therein, or by denying the truth of the same.

Objection to Be in Writing.

4027. SEC. 57. If the defendant objects to the sufficiency of the impeachment, the objection must be in writing, but need not be in any specific form, it being sufficient if it present intelligibly the grounds of the objection. If he deny the truth of the impeachment, the denial may be oral and without oath, and shall be entered upon the journal.

Pleadings.

4028. SEC. 58. If an objection to the sufficiency of the impeachment be not sustained by a majority of the members of the council, who heard the argument, the defendant shall be ordered forthwith to answer the articles of impeachment. If he plead guilty, or refuse to plead, the council shall render judgment of conviction against him. If he deny the matters charged, the council shall, at such time as they may appoint, proceed to try the impeachment.

Oath Taken by Council.

4029. SEC. 59. At the time and place appointed, and before the council proceed to act on the impeachment, the Secretary shall administer to the President of the Council, and the President of the Council to each of the members of the council then present, an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to hear, try, and determine the impeachment, and no member of the council shall act or vote upon the impeachment, or any question arising thereon, without having taken such oath or affirmation.

Trial.

4030. SEC. 60. The oath or affirmation having been administered, the council shall proceed to try and determine the impeachment, and may adjourn the trial from time to time.

Two-Thirds to Convict.

4031. SEC. 61. The defendant cannot be convicted on impeachment without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present; and if two-thirds of the members present do not concur in a conviction he shall be declared acquitted.

Judgment.

4032. SEC. 62. After conviction the council shall immediately, or at such other time as they shall appoint, pronounce judgment, which shall be in the form of a resolution entered upon the journals of the council. The vote upon the passage thereof shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall in like manner be entered upon the journal.

Majority Vote.

4033. SEC. 63. On the adoption of the resolution by a majority of the members present, who voted on the question of acquittal or conviction, the same shall be the judgment of the council.

Judgment, Extent Of.

4034. SEC. 64. The judgment may be that defendant be suspended and removed from office, or that he be removed from office and disqualified to hold and enjoy a particular office or class of offices, or any office of honor, trust, or profit, under this territory.

Effect of Judgment.

4035. SEC. 65. If judgment of suspension be given, the defendant shall, during the continuance thereof, be disqualified from receiving the salary, fees, or emoluments of the office.

Officer Suspended—Office Filled by Governor.

4036. SEC. 66. Whenever articles of impeachment against any officer subject to impeachment, shall be presented to the President of the Council, such officer shall be temporarily suspended from his office, and shall not act in his official capacity until duly acquitted. Upon such suspension of any territorial officer, created by territorial law, the Governor shall immediately take charge of his office, and such office shall at once be temporarily filled by appointment by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, until the acquittal of the party impeached; or, in case of his removal, then until the vacancy be filled as provided by law.

Indictment Not Barred.

4037. SEC. 67. If the offense for which the defendant is impeached be the subject of an indictment, the indictment shall not be barred by the impeachment.

Proceedings Against Officers.

4038. SEC. 68. An accusation in writing against any district, county, or township officer, for willful or corrupt misconduct in office, may be presented by the grand jury of the county for which the officer accused is elected or appointed.

MISDEMEANOR IN OFFICE, PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR. State v. Browsky, 11 Nev. 119.

EXPIRATION OF TERM OF OFFICE. It is a "misdemeanor in office" for a Public Administrator to embezzle money received ex officio after his term of office has expired. Id.

Statement of Offense.

4039. SEC. 69. The accusation shall state the offense charged in ordinary and concise language, and without repetition.

Accusation—Notice to Appear.

4040. SEC. 70. The accusation shall be delivered by the foreman of the grand jury to the District Attorney of the county, who shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the defendant, and require by notice, in writing, of not less than ten days, that he appear before the district court then sitting, or at the next term, and answer the accusation. The original accusation shall then be filed with the Clerk of the District Court.

Defendant to Appear.

4041. SEC. 71. The defendant must appear at the time appointed in the notice, and answer the accusation, unless for some sufficient cause the court assign another day for that purpose. If he do not appear, the court may proceed to hear and determine the accusation in his absence.

Answer of Defendant.

4042. SEC. 72. The defendant may answer the accusation, either by objecting to the sufficiency thereof, or of any article therein, or by denying the truth of the same.

Objection to Sufficiency.

4043. SEC. 73. If he object to the legal sufficiency of the accusation, the objection must be in writing, but need not be in any specific form, it being sufficient if it present intelligibly the grounds of the objection.

Denial of Accusation.

4044. SEC. 74. If he deny the truth of the accusation, the denial may be oral and without oath, and shall be entered upon the minutes.

Objection Not Sustained.

4045. SEC. 75. If an objection to the sufficiency of the accusation be not sustained, the defendant shall be required to answer the accusation forthwith.

Plea.

4046. SEC. 76. If the defendant plead guilty, or refuse to answer the accusation, the court shall render judgment of conviction against him. If he deny the matters charged, the court shall immediately, or as soon thereafter as practicable, proceed to try the accusation.

Trial by Jury.

4047. SEC. 77. The trial shall be by a jury, and shall be conducted in all respects in the same manner as the trial of an indictment for a misdemeanor.

JURY OF ELEVEN MEN. State v. Browsey, 11 Nev. 119.

Attendance of Witnesses.

4048. SEC. 78. The District Attorney and the defendant shall be respectively entitled to such process as may be necessary to enforce the attendance of witnesses as upon the trial of an indictment.

Judgment.

4049. SEC. 79. Upon a conviction the court shall immediately, or within five days, as they may appoint, pronounce judgment that the defendant be removed from office. But to warrant a removal, the judgment must be entered upon the minutes, assigning therein the causes of removal.

Appeal.

4050. SEC. 80. From a judgment of removal an appeal may be taken to the supreme court in the same manner as from a judgment in a civil action, but until such judgment be reversed the defendant shall be suspended from his office. Pending the appeal the office may be filled as in case of vacancy.

Proceedings Against District Attorney.

4051. SEC. 81. The same proceedings may be had on like grounds for the removal of a District Attorney, except that the accusation shall be delivered to the District Judge of the district, who shall thereupon appoint some one to act as prosecuting officer in the matter, or shall place the accusation in the hands of the District Attorney of an adjoining district, and require him to conduct the proceedings.

IV—PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS PROSECUTED BY INDICTMENT.

1—Local Jurisdiction of Public Offenses.

Who Amenable to the Laws.

4052. SEC. 82. Every person, whether an inhabitant of this territory, or any other state or country, or of a territory or district of the United States, shall be liable to punishment by the laws of this territory for a public offense committed by him therein, except where it is by law cognizable exclusively in the courts of the United States.

Commenced Out of State—Jurisdiction.

4053. SEC. 83. When the commission of a public offense commenced without the territory, is consummated within the boundaries thereof, the defendant shall be liable to punishment therefor in this territory, though he were without the territory at the time of the commission of the offense charged; provided, he consummated the offense through the intervention of an innocent or guilty agent without this territory or any other means proceeding directly from himself, and in such case the jurisdiction shall be in the county in which the offense is consummated.

Death by Dueling.

4054. SEC. 84. When an inhabitant or resident of this territory shall, by any previous appointment or engagement, fight a duel without the jurisdiction of this territory, and in such duel a wound shall be inflicted upon any person whereof he shall die within this territory, the jurisdiction of the offense shall be in the county where the death shall happen.

In Two Counties.

4055. SEC. 85. When a public offense is committed in part in one county and in part in another, or the acts or effects thereof constituting or requisite to the consummation of the offense occur in two or more counties, the jurisdiction shall be in either county.

On or Near County Boundary.

4056. SEC. 86. When a public offense is committed on the boundary of two or more counties, or within five hundred yards thereof, the jurisdiction shall be within either county.

On Vessels.

4057. SEC. 87. When an offense is committed within this territory, on board a vessel navigating a river, bay, slough, or lake, or lying therein in the prosecution of her voyage, the jurisdiction shall be in any county through which the vessel is navigated in the course of her voyage, or in the county where the voyage shall terminate.

Kidnaping, When Cognizable.

4058. SEC. 88. The jurisdiction of an indictment for the crime of forcibly stealing, taking, or arresting any man, woman, or child in this territory and carrying him or her into another county, state, or territory; or for forcibly taking or arresting any person or persons whomsoever, with a design to take him or her out of this territory, without having established a claim according to the laws of the United States; or for hiring, persuading, enticing, decoying, or seducing by false promises, misrepresentations, and the like, any negro, mulatto, Indian, or colored person to go out of this territory, or to be taken or removed therefrom for the purpose and with the intent to sell such negro, mulatto, colored person, or Indian into slavery or involuntary servitude, or otherwise to employ him or her for his or her own use, or to the use of another, without the free will and consent of such negro, mulatto, Indian or colored person, shall be, in any county in which the offense is committed, or into or out of which the person upon whom the offense was committed may, in the prosecution of the offense, have been brought, or in which an act shall be done by the offender in instigating, procuring, promoting, aiding in, or being accessory to the commission of the offense, or in abetting the parties therein concerned.

Bigamy or Incest.

4059. SEC. 89. When the offense of bigamy or incest is committed in one county, and the defendant is apprehended in another, the jurisdiction shall be in either county.

Property Stolen and Moved to Other County—Jurisdiction.

4060. SEC. 90. When property feloniously taken in one county by burglary, robbery, larceny, or embezzlement, has been brought into another, the jurisdiction of the offense shall be in either county. But if, at any time before the conviction of the defendant in the latter, he be indicted in the former county, the Sheriff of the latter county shall, upon demand, deliver him to the Sheriff of the former county, upon being served with a copy of the indictment, and upon receipt indorsed thereon by the Sheriff of the former county, of the body of the offender, and shall, on filing the copy of the indictment and receipt, be exonerated from all liability in respect to the custody of the offender.

INDICTMENT FOR LARCENY OF CATTLE BROUGHT FROM ANOTHER COUNTY—Sufficiency Of—Venue. State v. Brown, 8 Nev. 208.

Jurisdiction of Accessory.

4061. SEC. 91. In the case of an accessory before or after the fact in the commission of a public offense, the jurisdiction shall be in the county where the offense of the accessory was committed, notwithstanding the principal offense was committed in another county.

1. VENUE OF TRIAL OF ACCESSORY. Above section does not apply when acts of accessory are done out of state. State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320.
2. Application of Above Section Discussed. State v. Laurie, 13 Nev. 390.

Conviction or Acquittal Shall Be a Bar.

4062. SEC. 92. When an act charged as a public offense is within the jurisdiction of another state or territory, as well as of this territory, a conviction or acquittal thereof in such territory or state shall be a bar to a prosecution or indictment therefor in this territory.

Two or More Counties.

4063. SEC. 93. When an offense is within the jurisdiction of two or more counties, a conviction or acquittal thereof in one county shall be a bar to a prosecution or indictment therefor in another.

2—Time of Commencing Criminal Actions.

No Limit for Murder.

4064. SEC. 94. There shall be no limitation of time within which a prosecution for murder must be commenced. It may be commenced at any time after the death of the person killed.

Indictment for Theft, etc., When May Be Found.

4065. SEC. 95. An indictment for theft, robbery, burglary, forgery, arson or rape must be found within four years after the commission of the offense. An indictment for any other felony than murder, theft, robbery, burglary, forgery, arson or rape must be found within three years after the commission of the offense. As amended, Stats. 1889, 52.

Misdemeanor, One Year.

4066. SEC. 96. An indictment of any misdemeanor must be found within one year after its commission.

In a Secret Manner, Limitation.

4067. SEC. 97. If any felony or misdemeanor shall have been committed in a secret manner, an indictment for the same must be found within the periods of limitation prescribed in the two last preceding sections after the discovery of the offense; provided, that if any indictment found within the time thus prescribed shall be defective, so that no judgment can be given thereon, another prosecution may be instituted for the same offense within six months after the first shall have been abandoned. As amended, Stats. 1889, 52. (SEC. 3.) This Act shall apply alike to all offenses committed before its passage and to those committed thereafter, except that it shall not be construed to extend the periods of limitation of offenses barred by limitation at the time of the passage of this Act. [Applies to Secs. 96 and 97, as amended.]

Indictment, When Found.

4068. SEC. 98. An indictment is found within the meaning of this title, when it is duly presented by the grand jury in open court, and there received and filed.

Limitation, When to Commence.

4069. SEC. 99. In offenses committed before the passage of this Act, indictments may be found at any time within the limitation hereinabove provided, and the time of limitation shall commence after the passage of this Act.

§—Complaint, and Proceedings Thereon to the Commitment, Inclusive.

Complaint.

4070. SEC. 100. The complaint is the allegation made to a magistrate that a person has been guilty of some public offense.

Magistrates.

4071. SEC. 101. A magistrate is an officer having power to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with a public offense.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE—When Acting as Magistrate—Judicial Business on Sunday. Ex Parte White, 15 Nev. 146.

Who Are Magistrates.

4072. SEC. 102. The following persons are magistrates: First—The Justices of the Supreme Court. Second—The Judges of the District Courts. Third—The Justices of the Peace; and Fourth—Police Judges and others, upon whom are conferred by law the powers of a Justice of the Peace in criminal cases. As amended, Stats. 1867, 124.

Examination of Complainant.

4073. SEC. 103. When a complaint is laid before a magistrate of the commission of a public offense triable within the county, he must examine on oath the complainant or prosecutor and any witness he may produce, and may require their depositions to be reduced to writing and subscribed by the parties making them if the magistrate deem it advisable; provided, if a complaint by proper affidavit, setting forth the nature of the charge, and the facts within the knowledge, information, or belief of the party making the same, be filed with the magistrate, and it sufficiently appears that an offense has been committed by some person known or unknown to the affiant, triable within the county, the Justice may issue a warrant of arrest. As amended, Stats. 1867, 125.

Deposition.

4074. SEC. 104. The deposition must set forth the facts stated by the prosecutor and his witnesses, tending to establish the commission of the offense, and the guilt of the defendant.

Warrant, When to Issue.

4075. SEC. 105. If the magistrate be satisfied therefrom that the offense complained of has been committed, and that there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant has committed it, he shall issue a warrant of arrest.

Warrant of Arrest—Form Of.

4076. SEC. 106. A warrant of arrest is an order in writing in the name of the people of the United States and Territory of Nevada, signed by a magistrate, commanding the arrest of the defendant, and may be substantially in the following form: "County of----- The People of the United States and Territory of Nevada, to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this territory, or in the county of-----: A complaint, upon oath, has been this day laid before me by A. B., that the crime of [designate it], has been committed, and accusing C. D. thereof; you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D. and bring him before me at [naming the place], or in case of my absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in this county. Dated at-----, this-----day of-----, 18----."

Warrant to Specify, What.

4077. SEC. 107. The warrant must specify the name of the defendant; if it be unknown to the magistrate, the defendant may be designated therein by any name. It must also state the time of issuing it, and the county, city, or town where it is issued, and be signed by the magistrate with his name of office.

How Executed.

4078. SEC. 108. The warrant must be directed to, and executed by, a peace officer.

Peace Officers.

4079. SEC. 109. Peace officers are Sheriffs of counties, and Constables, Marshals, and policemen of cities and towns, respectively.

To Whom Directed.

4080. SEC. 110. If a warrant be issued by a Justice of the Supreme Court, or Probate Judge, it may be directed generally to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this territory, and may be executed by any of those officers to whom it may be delivered.

Executed in Other County, How.

4081. SEC. 111. If it be issued by any other magistrate, it may be directed generally to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in the county in which it is issued, and may be executed in that county; or, if the defendant be in another county, it may be executed therein upon the written direction of a magistrate of that county indorsed upon the warrant, signed by him with his name of office, and dated at the county, city or town where it is made, to the following effect: This warrant may be executed in the county of -----, or as the case may be.

Procedure of Officer in Felony.

4082. SEC. 112. If the offense charged in the warrant be a felony, the officer making the arrest must take the defendant before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other magistrate of the same county, as provided in section one hundred and sixteen.

Misdemeanor—Admission to Bail.

4083. SEC. 113. If the offense charged in a warrant be a misdemeanor, and the defendant be arrested in another county, the officer must, upon being so required by the defendant, bring him before a magistrate of such county, who shall admit the defendant to bail.

Bail.

4084. SEC. 114. On admitting the defendant to bail, the magistrate shall certify on the warrant the fact of his having done so, and deliver the warrant and recognizance to the officer having charge of the defendant. The officer shall forthwith discharge the defendant from arrest, and shall, without delay, deliver the warrant and recognizance to the Clerk of the court at which the defendant is required to appear.

Bail Not Given.

4085. SEC. 115. If, on the admission of the defendant to bail, as provided in section one hundred and thirteen, or if bail be not forthwith given, the officer shall take the defendant before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other magistrate of the same county, as provided by the next section.

Magistrate Absent or Unable to Act.

4086. SEC. 116. When, by the preceding sections of this Act, the defendant is required to be taken before the magistrate who issued the warrant, he may, if the magistrate be absent or unable to act, be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same county. The officer shall, at the same time, deliver to the magistrate the warrant, with his return, indorsed and subscribed by him.

Unnecessary Delay.

4087. SEC. 117. The defendant must, in all cases, be taken before the magistrate without unnecessary delay.

Before Another Magistrate.

4088. SEC. 118. If the defendant be brought before a magistrate in the same county, other than the one who issued the warrant, the affidavits on which the warrant was granted, if the defendant insist upon an examination, shall be sent to such magistrate; or, if they cannot be procured, the prosecutor and his witnesses shall be summoned to give their testimony anew.

Complaint Triable in Another County.

4089. SEC. 119. When a complaint is laid before a magistrate, of the commission of a public offense, triable within some other county of this territory, but showing that the defendant is in the county where the complaint is laid, the same proceedings shall be had as prescribed in this Act, except that the warrant shall require the defendant to be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable, and the depositions of the complainant or prosecutor, and of the witnesses who may have been produced, shall be delivered by the magistrate to the officer to whom the warrant is delivered.

Duty of Officer.

4090. SEC. 120. The officer who executes the warrant shall take the defendant before the nearest or most accessible magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable, and shall deliver to such magistrate the depositions and the warrant, with his return indorsed thereon, and such magistrate shall proceed in the same manner as upon a warrant issued by himself.

In Misdemeanor.

4091. SEC. 121. If the offense charged in the warrant issued pursuant to section one hundred and nineteen, be a misdemeanor, the officer shall, upon being so required by the defendant, take him before a magistrate of the county in which the said warrant is issued, who shall admit the defendant to bail, and immediately transmit the warrant, depositions, and recognizance, to the Clerk of the court in which the defendant is required to appear.

Arrest.

4092. SEC. 122. Arrest is the taking of a person into custody that he may be held to answer for a public offense.

By Whom Made.

4093. SEC. 123. An arrest may be either: First, by a peace officer, under a warrant; second, by a peace officer, without a warrant; or, third, by a private person.

Required to Aid In.

4094. SEC. 124. Every person shall aid an officer in the execution of a warrant, if the officer require his aid, and be present and acting in its execution.

At What Time Made.

4095. SEC. 125. If the offense charged be a felony, the arrest may be made on any day, and at any time of the day or night. If it be a misdemeanor, the arrest shall not be made at night, unless upon the direction of the magistrate, indorsed upon the warrant.

How Made.

4096. SEC. 126. An arrest shall be made by an actual restraint of the person of the defendant, or by his submission to the custody of the officers.

Necessary Restraint Only.

4097. SEC. 127. The defendant shall not be subjected to any more restraint than is necessary for his arrest and detention.

To State Authority.

4098. SEC. 128. The officer shall inform the defendant that he acts under the authority of the warrant, and shall also show the warrant, if required.

Defendant Resisting.

4099. SEC. 129. If, after notice of intention to arrest the defendant, he either flee or forcibly resist, the officer may use all necessary means to effect the arrest.

Power of Officers.

4100. SEC. 130. The officer may break open any outer or inner door, or window, of a dwelling house, to execute the warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he be refused admittance.

Officer May Break Door.

4101. SEC. 131. An officer may break open any outer or inner door, or window, of a dwelling house, for the purpose of liberating a person who, having entered for the purpose of making an arrest, is detained therein, or when necessary for his own liberation.

Arrest Without Warrant.

4102. SEC. 132. A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person: First—For a public offense, committed, or attempted, in his presence. Second—Where the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence. Third—Where a felony has in fact been committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it. Fourth—On a charge made upon a reasonable cause of the commission of a felony by the party arrested.

May Break Doors.

4103. SEC. 133. To make an arrest, as provided in the last section, the officer may break open any outer or inner door, or window, of a dwelling house, if after notice of his office and purpose, he be refused admittance.

Arrest at Night.

4104. SEC. 134. He may also, at night, without a warrant, arrest any person whom he has reasonable cause for believing to have committed a felony, and is justified in making the arrest, though it afterwards appear that a felony has not been committed.

To State Authority.

4105. SEC. 135. When arresting a person without a warrant, the officer must inform him of his authority, and the cause of the arrest, except when he is in the actual commission of a public offense, or when he is pursued immediately after an escape.

Arrest by Bystander.

4106. SEC. 136. He may take before a magistrate any person who, being engaged in a breach of peace, is arrested by a bystander and delivered to him.

Presence of Magistrate.

4107. SEC. 137. When a public offense is committed in the presence of a magistrate, he may, by a verbal order, command any person to arrest the offender, and may thereupon proceed as if the offender had been brought before him on a warrant of arrest.

Private Person May Arrest.

4108. SEC. 138. A private person may arrest another: First—For a public offense committed, or attempted, in his presence. Second—When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence. Third—When a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it.

To State Cause of Arrest.

4109. SEC. 139. He must, before making the arrest, inform the person to be arrested of the cause thereof, and require him to submit, except when he is in the actual commission of the offense, or when he is arrested on pursuit, immediately after its commission.

May Break Doors or Windows.

4110. SEC. 140. If the person to be arrested have committed a felony, and a private person, after notice of his intention to make the arrest, be refused admittance, he may break open any outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, for the purpose of making the arrest.

After Arrest.

4111. SEC. 141. A private person who has arrested another for the commission of a public offense, must, without unnecessary delay, take him before a magistrate, or deliver him to a peace officer.

Escape and Recapture.

4112. SEC. 142. If a person arrested escape or be rescued, the person from whose custody he escaped or was rescued may immediately pursue and retake him at any time and in any place within the territory.

May Break Doors.

4113. SEC. 143. To retake a person escaping or rescued, the person pursuing may, after notice of his intention, and refusal of admittance, break open any outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house.

Proceedings After Arrest.

4114. SEC. 144. When the defendant is brought before the magistrate upon an arrest, either with or without warrant, on a charge of having committed a public offense, the magistrate shall immediately inform him of the charge against him, and of his right to the aid of counsel in every stage of the proceedings, and before any further proceedings are had.

Time to Procure Counsel.

4115. SEC. 145. He shall also allow the defendant a reasonable time to send for counsel, and adjourn the examination for that purpose, and shall, upon the request of the defendant, require a peace officer to take a message to such counsel, within the township or city, as the defendant may name. The officers shall, without delay and without fee, perform that duty.

Examination.

4116. SEC. 146. The magistrate shall, immediately after the appearance of counsel, or if defendant require the aid of counsel after waiting a reasonable time therefor, proceed to examine the case.

Completion and Adjournment.

4117. SEC. 147. The examination must be completed at one session, unless the magistrate, for good cause shown, adjourn it. The adjournment cannot be for more than two days at each time, nor more than six days in all, unless by consent or on motion of the defendant.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION SHOULD NOT BE WAIVED—When Waived No Ground for Discharge. Ex Parte Ah Bau, 10 Nev. 264.

Committed or Admitted to Bail.

4118. SEC. 148. If an adjournment be had for any cause, the magistrate shall commit the defendant for examination, admit him to bail, or discharge him from custody upon the deposit of money, as provided in this Act, as security for his appearance at the time to which the examination is adjourned.

Form of Commitment.

4119. SEC. 149. The commitment for examination shall be by an indorsement signed by the magistrate on the warrant of arrest, to the following effect: "The within named A. B., having been brought before me under this warrant, is committed for examination to the Sheriff of the county of -----." If the Sheriff be not present, the defendant may be committed to the custody of a peace officer.

Depositions Read.

4120. SEC. 150. At the examination the magistrate shall, in the first place, read to the defendant the depositions of the witnesses examined on the taking of the information. He shall issue subpoenas for any witness required by the prosecutor or the defendant, as provided in section five hundred and thirty-six.

Witnesses Examined—May Use Testimony on Trial—Testimony Filed.

4121. SEC. 151. The witnesses shall be examined in the presence of the defendant, and may be cross-examined in his behalf. If either party so desire, the examination shall be by interrogatories, direct and cross; provided, by consent of parties, the testimony may be reduced to writing in narrative form. The testimony so taken may be used by either party on the trial of the cause, and in all proceedings therein, when the witness is sick, out of the state, dead, or when his personal attendance cannot be had in court. When the testimony of each witness is all taken, the same shall be read over to the witness and corrected as may be desired, and then subscribed by the witness; or, if he refuses to sign it, the fact of such refusal, and any reasons assigned therefor, must be stated, and the same shall be tested by the magistrate. And such testimony, so reduced to writing and authenticated according to the provisions of this section, shall be filed by the examining magistrate with the Clerk of the District Court of his county, and in case such prisoner be subsequently examined upon a writ of habeas corpus such testimony shall be considered as given before such Judge or court. As amended, Stats. 1867, 125.

1. SECTION 151 CONSTRUED—WITNESS OUT OF STATE. A deposition of a witness taken under Section 151 of the Criminal Practice Act, cannot be used in evidence without proof that at the time of the trial the witness was "sick, out of the state, dead, or that his personal attendance could not be had in court." State v. Parker, 16 Nev. 79.

2. OFFER OF DEPOSITIONS ON CRIMINAL TRIAL—PRELIMINARY PROOF. When a deposition in a criminal case is offered in evidence, the offer should be accompanied with proof that it was taken in conformity with the statute; and if the proper objection be made, it should not be admitted without such preliminary proof. State v. Jones, 7 Nev. 408.

OBJECTION TO DEPOSITION IN CRIMINAL CASE—When Too General—Objection Should Be Specific and Pointed. Id.

3. PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION—WAIVER OF STATUTORY RIGHT. Defendant objected to proceeding with the trial because the testimony given at his preliminary examination had not been reduced to writing, as required by the statute: Held, that he could not avail himself of this irregularity without an affirmative showing that he was deprived of this statutory right without his consent. State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 407.

Right to Make Statement.

4122. SEC. 152. When the examination of witnesses on the part of the people is closed, the magistrate shall distinctly inform the defendant that it is his right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him (stating to him the nature thereof); that the statement is designed to enable him, if he see fit, to answer the charge, and to explain the facts alleged against him; that he is at liberty to waive making a statement; and that his waiver cannot be used against him on the trial.

STATEMENT OF DEFENDANT ON PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION—How Taken and When Admissible in Evidence. State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 17.

Waiver of Right.

4123. SEC. 153. If the defendant waive his right to make a statement, the magistrate shall make a note thereof immediately following the deposition of the witnesses against the defendant, but the fact of his waiver shall not be used against the defendant on the trial.

Statement Taken in Writing—Questions.

4124. SEC. 154. If the defendant choose to make a statement, the magistrate shall proceed to take the same in writing, without oath, and shall put to the defendant the following questions only: "What is your name and age? Where were you born? Where do you reside, and how long have you resided there? What is your business or profession? Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation."

Answers.

4125. SEC. 155. The answer of the defendant to each of the questions must be distinctly read to him as it is taken down. He may thereupon correct or add to his answer, and it shall be corrected until it is made conformable to what he declares to be the truth.

Statement, Authentication Of.

4126. SEC. 156. The statement must be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, and authenticated in the following form: First—It must set forth in detail that the defendant was informed of his rights as provided by section one hundred and fifty-two, and that after being so informed he made the statement. Second—It must contain the questions put to him, and his answers thereto, as provided in sections one hundred and fifty-four and one hundred and fifty-five. Third—It may be signed by the defendant, or he may refuse to sign it; but if he refuse to sign it, his reason therefor must be stated as he gives it. Fourth—It must be signed and certified by the magistrate.

Witnesses.

4127. SEC. 157. After the waiver of the defendant to make a statement, or after he has made it, his witnesses, if he produce any, shall be sworn and examined.

Examination, etc.

4128. SEC. 158. The witnesses produced on the part either of the people or of the defendant shall not be present at the examination of the defendant, and while a witness is under examination the magistrate may exclude all witnesses who have not been examined. He may also cause the witnesses to be kept separate, and to be prevented from conversing with each other until they are all examined.

EXCLUSION OF WITNESSES. When an order is made excluding defendant's witness from the court room, so that neither witness shall hear the others testify, and some of the witnesses come in during the trial, this may discredit such witnesses, and subject them to punishment for contempt. But the defendant himself, not being in fault, is entitled to their testimony. State v. Salge, 2 Nev. 321; State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 21.

Closed Doors.

4129. SEC. 159. The magistrate shall, also, upon the request of the defendant, exclude from the examination every person except his clerk, the prosecutor and his counsel, the Attorney-General, the District Attorney of the county, the defendant and his counsel, and the officer having the defendant in custody.

Discharged, When.

4130. SEC. 160. After hearing the proofs and the statement of the defendant, if he have made one, if it appear either that a public offense has not been committed, or there is no sufficient cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate shall order the defendant to be discharged, by an indorsement on the depositions and statement signed by him to the following effect: "There being no sufficient cause to believe the within named A. B. guilty of the offense within mentioned, I order him to be discharged."

Order to Hold to Answer.

4131. SEC. 161. If, however it appear from the examination, that a public offense has been committed, and that there is sufficient cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate shall in like manner, indorse on the depositions and statement, an order signed by him to the following effect: "It appearing to me by the within depositions and statement (if any), that the offense therein mentioned (or any other offense according to the fact, stating generally the nature thereof) has been committed, and that there is sufficient cause to believe the within named A. B. guilty thereof, I order that he be held to answer the same."

When Not Bailable.

4132. SEC. 162. If the offense be not bailable, the following words, or words to the same effect, shall be added to the indorsement: "And that he be committed to the Sheriff of the county of-----."

Bail in Case of Felony.

4133. SEC. 163. If the offense be bailable, and bail be taken by the magistrate, the following words, or words to the same effect, shall be added to the indorsement: "And I have admitted him to bail to answer by the recognizance hereto annexed"; provided, that if the offense charged constitutes a felony, no bail shall be accepted in a less sum than five hundred dollars. As amended, Stats. 1897, 22.

Bail Not Given.

4134. SEC. 164. If the offense be bailable, and the defendant be admitted to bail, but bail have not been taken, the following words, or words to the same effect, shall be added to the indorsement mentioned in section one hundred and sixty-one: "And that he be admitted to bail in the sum of-----dollars, and be committed to the Sheriff of the county of-----, until he gives such bail."

Commitment.

4135. SEC. 165. If the magistrate order the defendant to be committed, as provided in sections one hundred and sixty-two and one hundred and sixty-four, he shall make out a commitment, signed by him, with his name of office, and deliver it, with the defendant, to the officer to whom he is committed, or if that officer be not present, to a peace officer, who shall deliver the defendant into the proper custody, together with the commitment.

Form of Commitment.

4136. SEC. 166. The commitment must be to the following effect: "County of----- (as the case may be). The People of the United States and Territory of Nevada to the Sheriff of the county of-----: An order having been this day made by me, that A. B. be held to answer upon a charge of [stating briefly the nature of the offense, and, as near as may be, the time when and place where the same was committed]; you are commanded to receive him into your custody and detain him until he be legally discharged. Dated this-----day of-----, 18--."

COMMITMENT, TESTIMONY SUFFICIENT TO AUTHORIZE—Form Of. Ex Parte Willoughby, 14 Nev. 451.

Recognizance of Witnesses.

4137. SEC. 167. On holding the defendant to answer, the magistrate shall take from each of the material witnesses examined before him a written recognizance, to the effect that he will appear and testify at the court to which the depositions and statements are to be sent, or that he will forfeit the sum which may be ordered by the court. As amended, Stats. 1867, 125.

SECTION 167 CONSTRUED—RECOGNIZANCE—ADMISSION OF DEPOSITION. Section 167 of the Criminal Practice Act, as amended in 1867, does not make the taking of a recognizance a condition precedent to the admission of the deposition. State v. Parker, 16 Nev. 79.

May Require Sureties.

4138. SEC. 168. Whenever the magistrate shall be satisfied by proof, on oath, that there is reason to believe that any such witness will not fulfill his recognizance to appear and testify, unless security be required, he may order the witness to enter into a written recognizance, with such sureties and in such sum as he may deem meet for his appearance, as specified in the last section.

To Procure Sureties.

4139. SEC. 169. Infants and married women, who are material witnesses against the defendant, may in like manner be required to procure sureties for their appearance, as provided in the last section.

Witness May Be Committed.

4140. SEC. 170. If a witness required to enter into recognizance to appear and testify, either with or without sureties, refuse compliance with the order for that purpose, the magistrate shall commit him to prison until he comply or be legally discharged.

Witness Unable to Give Security.

4141. SEC. 171. When, however, it shall satisfactorily appear by the examination on oath of the witness, or any other person, that the witness is unable to procure sureties, or if either the state or the defendant shall demand that the deposition of the witness be then taken, he or she may be forthwith conditionally examined on behalf of the party requiring the deposition to be taken; such examination shall be by question and answer, and shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, in the presence of the defendant and the counsel for the state. When the examination is completed the deposition shall be carefully read over to the witness, and corrected in any particular desired, signed by the witness, certified by the magistrate, and transmitted to the Clerk of the District Court of the proper county. The witness thereupon shall be discharged; provided, when both parties consent thereto, the deposition may be taken in narrative form. As amended, Stats. 1867, 125.

Not to Apply.

4142. SEC. 172. The last section shall not apply to the prosecutor, or to an accomplice in the commission of the offense charged.

Magistrate to Make Return.

4143. SEC. 173. When a magistrate has discharged a defendant, or has held him to answer, as provided in sections one hundred and sixty-one and one hundred and sixty-two, he shall return without delay to the Clerk of the court at which the defendant is required to appear, the warrant, if any, the depositions, the statement of defendant, if he have made one, and all recognizance of bail or for the appearance of witnesses taken by him.

4—Proceedings After Commitment, and Before Indictment.

Indictment.

4144. SEC. 174. All public offenses prosecuted in the district court must be prosecuted by indictment, except as provided in the next section.

By Accusation.

4145. SEC. 175. Where the proceedings are had for the removal of district, county, or township officers, they may be commenced by an accusation, in writing, as provided in sections sixty-eight and eighty-one.

Accusations and Indictments Found in District Court.

4146. SEC. 176. All accusations against district, county, and township officers, and all indictments, must be found in the district court.

Grand Jury.

4147. SEC. 177. The formation of grand juries is prescribed by special statutes.

Challenge To.

4148. SEC. 178. A challenge may be taken to the panel of the grand jury, or to any individual grand juror, in the cases hereinafter prescribed, by the people or by the defendant.

Challenge to Panel.

4149. SEC. 179. A challenge to the panel may be interposed for one or more of the following causes: First—That the requisite number of ballots was not drawn from the jury box of the county as prescribed by law. Second—The notice of the drawing of the grand jury was not given as prescribed by law. Third—That the drawing was not had in the presence of the officers or officer designated by law.

CHALLENGE TO PANEL OF GRAND JURORS. Right of challenge restricted to the three grounds enumerated in the statute. State v. Collyer, 17 Nev. 275; State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409.

MOTION TO QUASH INDICTMENT—When Should Be Made. Id.

WHEN INDICTMENT WILL NOT BE SET ASIDE FOR IRREGULARITIES IN THE MODE OF SELECTING GRAND JURY. Id.

Challenge to Individual Juror.

4150. SEC. 180. A challenge to an individual grand juror may be interposed for one or more of the following causes, and for no other: First—That he is a minor. Second—That he is an alien. Third—That he is insane. Fourth—That he is the prosecutor, upon a charge or charges, against the defendant. As amended, Stats. 1866, 49.

PROSECUTOR DEFINED. A prosecutor is "one who prefers an accusation against a party whom he suspects to be guilty." A party who appears in response to a subpoena is not a prosecutor, but only a witness. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409.

Challenge, How Made and Tried.

4151. SEC. 181. The challenges mentioned in the last three sections may be oral, and shall be entered upon the minutes, and tried by the court in the same manner as challenges in the case of a trial jury which are triable by the court.

Decision On.

4152. SEC. 182. The court shall allow or disallow the challenge, and the Clerk shall enter its decisions in the minutes.

Effect of Challenge to Panel.

4153. SEC. 183. If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the grand jury are prohibited from inquiring into the charge against the defendant by whom the challenge was interposed. If they should, notwithstanding, do so, and find an indictment against him, the court shall direct the indictment to be set aside.

Of Challenge to Polls.

4154. SEC. 184. If a challenge to an individual grand juror be allowed, he shall not be present at, or take part in the consideration of the charge against the defendant who interposed the challenge, or the deliberations of the grand jury thereon.

Contempt.

4155. SEC. 185. The grand jury shall inform the court of a violation of the last section, and it shall be punished by the court as a contempt.

Objections.

4156. SEC. 186. A person held to answer to a charge for a public offense, can take advantage of any objection to the panel or to an individual grand juror, in no other mode than by challenge, as prescribed in the preceding section.

Amended, Stats. 1875, 117; amendment unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Foreman of Grand Jury.

4157. SEC. 187. From the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors, and appearing, the court shall appoint a foreman. The court shall also appoint a foreman when the person already appointed is discharged or excused before the grand jury is dismissed.

Oath of Foreman.

4158. SEC. 188. The following oath shall be administered to the foreman of the grand jury: "You, as foreman of the grand jury, shall diligently inquire into, and true presentment make, of all public offenses against the people of the United States in the Territory of Nevada, committed or triable within the jurisdiction of this court, of which you shall have or can obtain legal evidence. You shall present no person through malice, hatred, or ill will, nor leave any unrepresented through fear, favor, or affection, or for any reward, or the promise or hope thereof; but in all your presentments you shall present the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your skill and understanding, so help you God."

Oath of Jurors.

4159. SEC. 189. The following oath shall be immediately thereupon administered to the other grand jurors present: "The same oath which your foreman has now taken before you on his part, you, and each of you, shall well and truly observe on your part, so help you God."

Charge to Grand Jury.

4160. SEC. 190. The grand jury being impaneled and sworn, shall be charged by the court. In doing so, the court shall give them such information as it may deem proper, as to the nature of their duties, and any charges for public offenses returned to the court, or likely to come before the grand jury. The court need not, however, charge them respecting violations of any particular statute.

Sitting of Grand Jury.

4161. SEC. 191. The grand jury shall then withdraw to a private room, and inquire into the offenses cognizable by them.

Discharge of Jury.

4162. SEC. 192. The grand jury, on the completion of the business before them, shall be discharged by the court, but whether the business be completed or not, they shall be discharged by the final adjournment of the court.

Another Grand Jury.

4163. SEC. 193. If an offense be committed during the sitting of the court, after the discharge of the grand jury, the court may, in its discretion, direct an order to be entered that the Sheriff summon another grand jury.

Order for New Grand Jury.

4164. SEC. 194. An order shall thereupon be made out by the Clerk, and directed to the Sheriff, requiring him to summon twenty-four persons, qualified to serve as grand jurors, to appear forthwith, or at such time as may be named by the court.

Duty of Officer.

4165. SEC. 195. The Sheriff shall execute the order, and return it with a list of the names of the persons summoned.

How Drawn.

4166. SEC. 196. At the time appointed the list shall be called over, and the names of those in attendance be written by the Clerk on separate ballots, and put into a box, from which a grand jury shall be drawn.

SECS. 197 to 201, both inclusive, relating to the selection and formation of trial and grand juries, are superseded, Sec. 3867, et seq.

Powers and Duties of Grand Jury.

4167. SEC. 202. The grand jury has the power, and it is their duty, to inquire into all public offenses committed or triable within the jurisdiction of this court, and to present them to the court, either by presentment or indictment.

Indictment.

4168. SEC. 203. An indictment is an accusation in writing, presented by the grand jury to a competent court, charging a person with a public offense.

Presentment.

4169. SEC. 204. A presentment is an informal statement in writing, by the grand jury, representing to the court that a public offense has been committed, which is triable within the district, and that there is reasonable ground for believing that a particular individual, named or described, has committed it.

Oaths.

4170. SEC. 205. The foreman may administer an oath to any witness appearing before the grand jury.

Evidence, What to Receive.

4171. SEC. 206. In the investigation of a charge, for the purpose of either presentment or indictment, the grand jury shall receive no other evidence than such as is given by witnesses produced and sworn before them, or furnished by legal documentary evidence, or the deposition of witnesses taken as provided in this Act.

Legal Evidence.

4172. SEC. 207. The grand jury shall receive none but legal evidence, and the best evidence in degree, to the exclusion of hearsay or secondary evidence.

Evidence for Defendant May Not Be Heard.

4173. SEC. 208. The grand jury is not bound to hear evidence for the defendant; but it is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them, and when they have reason to believe that other evidence within their reach will explain away the charge, they should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may require the District Attorney to issue process for the witnesses.

Indictment, When Found.

4174. SEC. 209. The grand jury ought to find an indictment when all the evidence before them, taken together, is such as in their judgment would, if unexplained or uncontradicted, warrant a conviction by the trial jury.

Information by Member of Grand Jury.

4175. SEC. 210. If a member of the grand jury know, or have reason to believe, that a public offense has been committed, which is triable within the jurisdiction of this court, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors, who shall thereupon investigate the same.

Inquiries Made.

4176. SEC. 211. The grand jury must inquire into the case of every person imprisoned in the jail of the county, on a criminal charge, and not indicted; into the condition and management of the public prisons within the county; and into the willful and corrupt misconduct in office of public officers of every description within the county.

Free Access to Jails and Prisons.

4177. SEC. 212. They are also entitled to free access, at all reasonable times, to the public prisons, and to the examination without charge, of all public records within the district.

Ask Advice of Court—Who Allowed Present.

4178. SEC. 213. The grand jury may, at all reasonable times, ask the advice of the court, or any member thereof, and of the District Attorney. Unless his advice be asked, no member of the court shall be permitted to be present during the session of the grand jury. The District Attorney shall be allowed, at all times, to appear before the grand jury on his request, for the purpose of giving information or advice relative to any matter cognizable by them; and may interrogate witnesses before them, when they shall deem it necessary. Except the District Attorney, no person shall be permitted to be present before the grand jury besides the witnesses actually under examination, and no person shall be permitted to be present during the expression of their opinions, or the giving of their votes upon any matter before them.

Proceedings Secret.

4179. SEC. 214. Every member of the grand jury shall keep secret whatever he himself, or any other grand juror, may have said, or in what manner he, or any other grand juror, may have voted on a matter before them.

Testimony Disclosed, When.

4180. SEC. 215. A member of the grand jury may, however, be required by any court to disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that given by the witness before the court; or to disclose the testimony given before them by any person, upon a charge against him for perjury in giving his testimony, or upon his trial therefor.

GRAND JURORS MAY BE CALLED TO TESTIFY against a witness who is indicted for perjury, to prove what was sworn to before them, or to show that the indictment is not found by the requisite number; but the testimony of no grand juror can be received to impeach or affect the findings of his fellows. State v. Logan, 1 Nev. 510.

Not to Be Questioned.

4181. SEC. 216. No grand juror shall be questioned for anything he may say, or any vote he may give in the grand jury relative to a matter legally pending before the jury, except for a perjury of which he may have been guilty in making an accusation or giving testimony to his fellow jurors.

Presentment, How Found.

4182. SEC. 217. A presentment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. When so found it must be signed by the foreman.

Amended, Stats. 1893, 62. Amending Act unconstitutional. State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 354.

How Prosecuted.

4183. SEC. 218. The presentment, when found, must be presented by the foreman, in the presence of the grand jury, to the court, and shall be filed by the Clerk.

Not to Disclose.

4184. SEC. 219. No grand juror, District Attorney, Clerk, Judge, or other officer, shall disclose the fact of a presentment having been made for a felony until the defendant shall have been arrested. But this prohibition shall not extend to disclosure by the issuing or in the execution of a warrant to arrest the defendant.

Punishment for Disclosure.

4185. SEC. 220. A violation of the provisions of the last section shall be punishable as a contempt and as a misdemeanor.

Bench Warrants.

4186. SEC. 221. If the court deem that the facts stated in the presentment constitute a public offense, triable within the county, it shall direct the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

Clerk to Issue.

4187. SEC. 222. The Clerk, on the application of the District Attorney, may accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant, under his signature and the seal of the court, into one or more districts.

Form of Bench Warrant.

4188. SEC. 223. The bench warrant, upon presentment, shall be substantially in the following form:

County of _____. The People of the United States of the Territory of Nevada, to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this territory: A presentment having been made on the ____ day of _____, 18__, to the district court of the district of _____, charging C. D. with the crime of _____ [designating it generally]; you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D., and take him before E. F. a magistrate of this district; or, in case of his absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate of this district. Given under my hand, with the seal of the said court affixed, this ____ day of _____, A. D. 18___. By order of the court. G. H., Clerk.

Bench Warrant, How Executed.

4189. SEC. 524. The bench warrant may be served in any district, and the officer serving it shall proceed thereon in all respects as upon a warrant of arrest on a complaint, except that when served in another district it need not be indorsed by a magistrate of that district.

Proceedings on Arrest.

4190. SEC. 225. The magistrate, when the defendant is brought before him, shall proceed to examine the charge contained in the presentment, and hold the defendant to answer the same, or discharge him therefrom, in the same manner, in all respects, as upon a warrant of arrest on complaint.

*5—The Indictment.Grand Jury—Twelve Necessary for Indictment.

4191. SEC. 226. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. When so found it shall be indorsed: "a true bill," and the indorsement shall be signed by the foreman of the grand jury.

Amended, Stats. 1893, 43. Amending Act unconstitutional. State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 354.

When Twelve Fail to Concur.

4192. SEC. 227. If twelve grand jurors do not concur in finding an indictment against a defendant who has been held to answer, the deposition and statement, if any, transmitted to them, shall be returned to the court with the indorsement thereon, signed by the foreman, to the effect that the charge is dismissed.

Amended, Stats. 1893, 62. Amending Act unconstitutional. State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 354.

Dismissal No Bar.

4193. SEC. 228. The dismissal of the charge shall not, however, prevent the same charge from being again submitted to a grand jury, or as often as the court shall so direct. But, without such direction, it shall not be again submitted.

Names of Witnesses Inserted.

4194. SEC. 229. When an indictment is found, the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury shall be inserted at the foot of the indictment, or indorsed thereon, before it is presented to the court.

Presented to Court.

4195. SEC. 230. An indictment, when found by the grand jury, shall be presented by their foreman, in their presence, to the court, and shall be filed with the Clerk, and remain in his office as a public record.

Defendant Not in Custody.

4196. SEC. 231. When an indictment has been found against a defendant not in custody, the same proceedings shall be had as are prescribed in sections two hundred and fifty-eight and two hundred and sixty-five, both inclusive, against a defendant who fails to appear for arraignment.

Pleadings.

4197. SEC. 232. All the forms of pleading in criminal actions, and the rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined, shall be those which are prescribed by this Act.

First Pleading.

4198. SEC. 233. The first pleading on the part of the people is the indictment.

Indictment to Contain.

4199. SEC. 234. The indictment shall contain the title of the action, specifying the name of the court to which the indictment is presented, and the names of the parties; a statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

CHARGE OF CRIME. The crime must be directly and positively charged, and not argumentatively. State v. Logan, 1 Nev. 110.

MATERIAL ALLEGATIONS. Not to be supplied by any intendment or implication whatever. Id.

Form of Indictment—Signed by District Attorney.

4200. SEC. 235. It may be substantially in the following form:

State of Nevada, County of----- The State of Nevada, plaintiff, against A. B., defendant (or John Doe, whose real name is unknown). Defendant A. B., above named, is accused by the grand jury of the county of----- of a felony (or if of the crime of murder, etc.), committed as follows: The said A. B., on the---- day of-----, A. D. 18--, or thereabouts, without authority of law, and with malice aforethought, killed Richard Roe, by shooting him with a pistol (or with a gun or other weapon, according to the facts).

If the offense be an assault with an intent to commit murder, the statement may be as follows: The said A. B., on the---- day of-----, A. D. 18--, in the county of-----, without authority of law, and with malice aforethought, did shoot at Richard Roe with a pistol, with intent to kill him.

If the offense be a misdemeanor, it may be designated by the name or style the offense is usually defined or known, or simply as a misdemeanor, and the facts constituting the offense may be stated in a manner similar to the examples above stated.

The indictment must be signed by the District Attorney. As amended, Stats. 1867, 126.

VENUE MATERIAL IN INDICTMENTS. An allegation of the county wherein a crime was committed is as material in an indictment as any fact constituting the body of the offense. State v. Chamberlain, 6 Nev. 257.

CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTE CONTAINING FORM OF INDICTMENT. The section of the criminal statute giving the form of an indictment and omitting the venue therefrom is controlled by the next section, which requires a statement of all essential facts. Id.

OMISSION OF VENUE IN INDICTMENT NOT AMENDABLE. An indictment which omits to state the venue cannot be amended in that respect. Id.

MEANING OF "INDICTMENT OF A GRAND JURY" IN CONSTITUTION. Where an indictment, which omitted the essential allegation of venue, was amended in that respect: Held, that it was no longer an "indictment of a grand jury," within the meaning of Article I, Section 8, of the constitution. Id.

Must Be Direct.

4201. SEC. 236. The indictment must be direct, and contain, as it regards: First—The party charged. Second—The offense charged. Third—The particular facts of the offense charged, so far as necessary to constitute a complete offense, but the evidence tending to prove the charge need not be stated. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the indictment the character of weapon used, nor that any weapon was used in the commission of the offense, unless the using of such weapon is a necessary ingredient in the commission of the offense. As amended, Stats. 1867, 126.

Error in Defendant's Name.

4202. SEC. 237. When a defendant is indicted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it shall be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being indicted by the name mentioned in the indictment.

MISNOMER OF ACCUSED PERSON IN INDICTMENT. If, when arraigned, he do not give his true name upon request, he cannot complain so long as name used in indictment is sufficient to identify him. State v. Burns, 8 Nev. 251.

To Charge One Offense.

4203. SEC. 238. The indictment shall charge but one offense, but it may set forth that offense in different forms under different counts.

1. INDICTMENT—COUNTS SETTING OUT OFFENSE IN DIFFERENT FORMS. Held, good under above section. State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320.
2. INDICTMENT FOR EMBEZZLEMENT. Counts setting out offense in different forms, must show that but one offense is charged. State v. Malim, 14 Nev. 288.
3. INDICTMENT FOR BURGLARY CHARGING ALSO LARCENY. An indictment for burglary with intent to steal certain goods, which after stating the burglary goes on to allege the stealing of the goods, is not objectionable as charging two separate and distinct offenses. State v. Ali Sam, 7 Nev. 127.
4. OBJECTION TO INDICTMENT FOR CHARGING TWO OFFENSES should be taken by special demurrer. State v. Johnson, 9 Nev. 175.

Time of Offense.

4204. SEC. 239. The precise time at which it was committed need not be stated in the indictment, but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding of the same, except when the time is a material ingredient of the offense.

INDICTMENT—Time of Commission of Offense. State v. O'Connor, 11 Nev. 416.

Not Material.

4205. SEC. 240. When an offense involves the commission, or an attempt to commit private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured, or intended to be injured, shall not be deemed material.

FORGERY. Above section given in instructions. State v. Cleavland, 6 Nev. 181.

Construction of Indictment.

4206. SEC. 241. The words used in an indictment shall be construed in the usual acceptance in common language, except such words and phrases as are defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

Need Not Be Strictly Followed.

4207. SEC. 242. Words used in a statute to define a public offense, need not be strictly pursued in the indictment, but other words conveying the same meaning may be used.

CHARGE OF INDICTMENT OF STATUTORY OFFENSE should be in words of the statute creating it, or in words of similar import. People v. Logan, 1 Nev. 110.

Indictment, When Sufficient.

4208. SEC. 243. The indictment shall be sufficient, if it can be understood therefrom: First—That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court be not accurately set forth. Second—That it was found by a grand jury of the district in which the court was held. Third—That the defendant is named, or, if his name cannot be discovered, that he be described by a fictitious name, with a statement that he has refused to discover his real name. Fourth—That the offense was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the court. Fifth—That the offense was committed at some time prior to the time of finding the indictment. Sixth—That the act or omission charged as the offense is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. Seventh—That the act or omission charged as the offense is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction according to the right of the case.

1. SUFFICIENCY OF INDICTMENT—Assault With Intent to Murder—Legislative Power Over Form of Indictment Plenary. State v. O'Flaherty, 7 Nev. 153; State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 410.
2. MURDER. An indictment for murder, drawn in the approved form of the common law: Held, sufficient. State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 98.
3. MURDER—DEFICIENCY. If not specially demurred to, cured by verdict. State v. Harrington, 9 Nev. 91.
4. DIFFERENT DEGREES OF MURDER NEED NOT BE CHARGED—Legislative Power. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409.
5. MURDER. Use of words "malice aforethought" tantamount to averment that the act was "willful, deliberate and premeditated." State v. Hing, 16 Nev. 307; State v. Thompson, 12 Nev. 140; State v. Crozier, 12 Nev. 300.
6. IN CHARGING MURDER. An indictment which specifically accuses the defendant "of the crime of murder," instead of using the general words "of a felony," is unobjectionable. State v. Harris, 12 Nev. 414.
- "CONTRARY TO THE FORM OF THE STATUTE." The words "contrary to the form of the statute," etc., are not essential in an indictment for murder, which is a common law offense. Id.
7. MURDER—Character of Weapon Used Need Not Be Stated. State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 343.
8. MURDER—WHEN DEFECTIVE. An indictment for murder which fails to show that death occurred within a year and a day after the perpetration of the act which produced it, fails to state the requisite facts to constitute a complete offense. State v. Huff, 11 Nev. 17.
9. MURDER. Allegation of shooting without allegation of death of victim: Held, sufficient. State v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 265.
10. "ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL" sufficient to sustain conviction for "an assault with a deadly weapon." State v. Collyer, 17 Nev. 275.
- DEADLY WEAPON need not be averred. Id.
11. INDICTMENT FOR HOMICIDE. Verdict of "assault with intent to kill" sustained. Ex Parte Curnow, 21 Nev. 33.
12. ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL. It is not necessary in charging an assault to allege a present ability to kill or inflict injury. State v. Rigg, 10 Nev. 284.
- STATEMENT OF CRIME. Statutory designation not necessary. Id.
13. ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO MURDER—Charging the Intent—Battery or Injury Not Necessary to Constitute. State v. Roderigas, 7 Nev. 328.
14. ROBBERY—Property Taken Not Property of Prosecuting Witness—Charge Held Sufficient. State v. Ah Loi, 5 Nev. 99.
15. ROBBERY—OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY. The essential averment is that the property did not belong to the defendant. State v. Nelson, 11 Nev. 334.
16. GRAND LARCENY. Acts done must be set out. State v. Brannan, 3 Nev. 238.
17. GRAND LARCENY OF ORE—Larceny of Articles Severed from Freehold. State v. Berryman, 8 Nev. 262.
18. FORGERY. Precise words of statute need not be used. State v. McKiernan, 17 Nev. 224.
19. ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM PRISON. State v. Angelo, 18 Nev. 425.
20. EMBEZZLEMENT. Particular kind of funds, or particular time when received, need not be stated. State v. Carrick, 16 Nev. 120.
21. EMBEZZLEMENT. Allegation of "willfully, feloniously, or with intent to steal" not necessary. State v. Trolson, 21 Nev. 419.

22. SELLING OPIUM—STATUTORY OFFENSE—NEGATIVE EXCEPTIONS. In an indictment for a statutory offense, it is only necessary to state the negative to an exception to the statute, when the exception is such as to render the negative of it an essential part of the definition or description of the offense charged. State v. Ah Chew, 16 Nev. 50.

IDEM. It is the nature of the exception, and not its locality, that determines the question whether it should be stated in the indictment or not. Id.

23. OPIUM ACT—Mode of Using Not Essential. State v. On Gee How, 15 Nev. 184.

24. INDICTMENT. Surplusage in indictment does not vitiate when otherwise good. State v. Sawry, 4 Nev. 161; State v. Harkin, 7 Nev. 377; State v. Pierce, 8 Nev. 291.

25. INDICTMENT FOR EMBEZZLEMENT. A clerk may commit more than one embezzlement of his employer's money, and if he does he may be separately indicted for each separate offense. State v. Ricord, 11 Nev. 288.

Defect in Form Not Material When Does Not Prejudice—Amendment.

4209. SEC. 244. No indictment shall be deemed insufficient, nor shall the trial, judgment, or other proceeding thereon, be affected, by reason of any defect or imperfection in matters of form, which shall not tend to the prejudice of the defendant; and the court may, on application, direct the indictment to be amended to supply a deficiency or omission, when, by such amendments, the nature of the charge shall not be changed, and the defendant's defense to the action on the merits will not be prejudiced thereby; provided, any amendment made during the trial, or within five days thereof, on motion, and without any showing therefor, shall entitle the defendant to a postponement of the trial till next term. As amended, Stats. 1867, 126.

1. AMENDMENT OF INDICTMENT. A court has no more power to add any material charge, accusation, or allegation to an indictment, than it has to find a bill in the first instance. State v. Chamberlain, 6 Nev. 257.

2. DEFECT NOT MATERIAL. That part of the indictment which, under the statutory form, first charges that a defendant has committed a certain crime, is merely formal; and if the body of the indictment sufficiently shows the offense charged, and the facts constituting the offense, it will be held good, notwithstanding any defect in the first clause. State v. Anderson, 3 Nev. 254.

What Need Not Be Stated.

4210. SEC. 245. Neither presumption of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an indictment.

Judgment, How Pleased.

4211. SEC. 246. In pleading a judgment, or other determination of or proceeding before a court or officer of special jurisdiction, the facts conferring jurisdiction need not be stated, but it may be stated that the judgment or determination was duly made, or the proceeding duly had before such court or officer. The facts constituting the jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial.

Private Statute.

4212. SEC. 247. In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to the statute by its title and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

Indictment for Libel.

4213. SEC. 248. An indictment for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party libeled of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded, but it shall be sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him, and the fact that it was so published must be established on the trial.

Misdescription of Forged Instruments.

4214. SEC. 249. When an instrument which is the subject of an indictment for forgery has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of such destruction or withholding is alleged in the indictment, and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument shall be deemed immaterial.

Perjury.

4215. SEC. 250. In an indictment for perjury, or subornation of perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the offense was committed, and in what court, or before whom, the oath alleged to be false was taken, and that the court or the person before whom it was taken had authority to administer the same, with proper allegations as to the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the indictment need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, or the commission, or the authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed.

Indictment Against Several.

4216. SEC. 251. Upon an indictment against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted.

Principal and Accessory.

4217. SEC. 252. No distinction shall exist between an accessory before the fact and the principal, or between principals in the first and second degree, in cases of felony; and all persons concerned in the commission of a felony, whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid and abet in its commission, though not present, shall hereafter be indicted, tried, and punished as principals.

State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320; State v. Laurie, 13 Nev. 386.

TRIAL OF ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT—Charge as to Principal—Proof of Guilt of Principal Not Necessary. State v. Jones, 7 Nev. 409.

Accessory May Be Punished Alone.

4218. SEC. 253. An accessory after the fact to the commission of a felony may be indicted and punished, though the principal felon may be neither tried nor indicted.

Compounding Offenses.

4219. SEC. 254. A person may be indicted for having, with the knowledge of the commission of a public offense, taken money or property of another, or a gratuity, or a reward, or an engagement, or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal the offense, or to abstain from a prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, though the person guilty of the original offense have not been indicted or tried.

When Defendant Must Be Arraigned.

4220. SEC. 255. When the indictment is filed the defendant must be arraigned thereon before the court in which it is found, except in the cases mentioned in sections two hundred and seventy-six and two hundred and seventy-seven.

Must Appear Personally.

4221. SEC. 256. If the indictment be for a felony, the defendant must be personally present; but if for a misdemeanor, his personal appearance is unnecessary, and he may appear upon arraignment by counsel.

How Arraigned.

4222. SEC. 257. When his personal appearance is necessary, if he be in custody, the court may direct the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before it to be arraigned, and the officer shall do so accordingly.

Failing to Appear.

4223. SEC. 258. If the defendant have been discharged on bail, or have deposited money instead thereof, and do not appear to be arraigned when his personal attendance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

Warrant for Arrest.

4224. SEC. 259. The Clerk, on the application of the District Attorney, may accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant into one or more counties.

Bench Warrant, Form Of.

4225. SEC. 260. The bench warrant upon the indictment shall, if the offense be a felony, be substantially in the following form:

County of _____. The People of the United States of the Territory of Nevada, to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this territory: An indictment having been found on the ____ day of _____, A. D. 18__, in the district court of the judicial district of the county of _____, charging C. D. with the crime of [designating it generally]; you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D., and bring him before that court to answer the indictment; or, if the court have adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the Sheriff of the county of _____. Given under my hand, with the seal of the court affixed, this the ____ day of _____, A. D. 18___. By order of the court. [Seal.] E. F., Clerk.

Proceedings.

4226. SEC. 261. The defendant, if the offense be punishable with death, when arrested under the warrant, shall be held in custody by the Sheriff of the county in which the indictment is found, unless admitted to bail, on an examination upon a writ of habeas corpus.

Form of Warrant.

4227. SEC. 262. If the offense be not capital, the bench warrant shall be in a similar form, adding to the body thereof a direction to the following effect: "Or, if he require it, that you take him before any magistrate in that district, or in the district in which you arrested him, that he may give bail to answer to the indictment."

When Offense Not Capital.

4228. SEC. 263. If the offense charged be not capital, the court, upon directing the bench warrant to issue, shall fix the amount of bail, and an indorsement shall be made upon the bench warrant, signed by the Clerk, to the following effect: "The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of ____ dollars."

Warrant, How Served.

4229. SEC. 264. The bench warrant may be served in any county, in the same manner as a warrant of arrest, except that when served in another county it need not be indorsed by the magistrate of that county.

Bail in Another County.

4230. SEC. 265. If the defendant be brought before a magistrate of another county for the purpose of giving bail, the magistrate shall proceed in all respects thereto in the same manner as if the defendant had been brought before him upon a warrant of arrest, and the same proceedings may be had thereon as provided in sections one hundred and twelve and one hundred and fifteen, both inclusive.

Further Bail.

4231. SEC. 266. When the indictment is for felony, and the defendant, before the finding thereof, has given bail for his appearance to answer the charge, the court to which the indictment is presented may order the defendant to be committed to actual custody, unless he give bail in an increased amount, to be specified in the order.

May Be Committed.

4232. SEC. 267. If such order be made, and the defendant be present, he shall be forthwith committed accordingly. If he be not present, a bench warrant shall be issued and proceeded upon in the manner provided for in this Act.

Counsel for Defendant.

4233. SEC. 268. If the defendant appear for arraignment without counsel, he shall be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned, and shall be asked if he desire the aid of counsel.

Arraignment.

4234. SEC. 269. The arraignment must be made by the court, or by the Clerk or District Attorney under his direction, and consists in reading the indictment to the defendant, and delivering to him a copy thereof, and of the indorsements thereon, including the list of witnesses indorsed on it, and in asking him whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to the indictment.

True Name.

4235. SEC. 270. When the defendant is arraigned, he shall be informed that if the name by which he is indicted be not his true name he must then declare his true name, or be proceeded against by the name in the indictment.

Name Not Given.

4236. SEC. 271. If he give no other name, the court may proceed accordingly.

State v. Burns, 8 Nev. 251.

True Name on Minutes.

4237. SEC. 272. If he allege that another name is his true name, the court shall direct an entry thereof in the minutes of the arraignment, and the subsequent proceedings on the indictment may be had against him by that name, referring also to the name by which he is indicted.

Time to Answer.

4238. SEC. 273. If, on the arraignment, the defendant require it, he shall be allowed until the next day, or such further time may be allowed him as the court may deem reasonable, to answer the indictment.

Answer, Demur or Plead.

4239. SEC. 274. If the defendant do not require time, as provided in the last section, or if he do, then on the next day, or at such further day as the court may have allowed him, he may answer to the arraignment—either move the court to set aside the indictment, or may demur or plead thereto.

Indictment, When Set Aside.

4240. SEC. 275. The indictment shall be set aside by the court in which the defendant is arraigned, and upon his motion, in either of the following cases: First—Where it is not found indorsed and presented as prescribed in this Act. Second—Where the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury, or whose depositions may have been read before them, are not inserted at the foot of the indictment or indorsed thereon. Third—Where any person is permitted to be present during the session of the grand jury while the charge embraced in the indictment is under consideration, except as provided in section two hundred and thirteen.

1. MOTION TO QUASH INDICTMENT because the grand jurors were not selected according to law, ought to be made before plea. State v. Collyer, 17 Nev. 275.

2. MOTION TO SET ASIDE INDICTMENT MUST BE MADE BEFORE DEMURRER OR PLEA—WAIVER. By the provisions of Sections 274-79 a motion to set aside the indictment must be made before demurrer or plea. If not so made, it will be deemed to have been waived. State v. Laurie, 13 Nev. 386.

INDICTMENT—DEPOSITIONS OF WITNESS TO BE INDORSED ON. The names of witnesses whose depositions are read before the grand jury must be inserted at the foot of, or indorsed on the indictment. Id.

3. MOTION TO SET ASIDE, NOT DEMURRER—Proper Practice. State v. Harris, 12 Nev. 414.

4. INDICTMENT, WHEN SHOULD NOT BE QUASHED. Illegal or incompetent testimony before grand jury does not vitiate indictment when there is any legal testimony to sustain it. State v. Logan, 1 Nev. 509.

When Not Held to Answer.

4241. SEC. 276. Where the defendant had not been held to answer before the finding of the indictment, he may move to set it aside on any ground which would have been good ground for challenge, either to the panel or any individual grand juror.

Repealed, Stats. 1875, 117; repealing Act unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Objections Waived.

4242. SEC. 277. If the motion to set aside the indictment be not made, the defendant shall be precluded from afterwards taking the objections mentioned in the last two sections.

OBJECTION TO INDICTMENT must be taken by motion to set aside, or by special demurrer, or it cannot be made. State v. Roderigas, 7 Nev. 328.

Hearing of Motion.

4243. SEC. 278. The motion shall be heard when it is made, unless for good cause the court shall postpone the hearing to another time.

Must Answer.

4244. SEC. 279. If the motion be denied, the defendant must immediately answer the indictment, either by demurring or pleading thereto.

Defendant Discharged.

4245. SEC. 280. If the motion be granted, the court shall order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom; or, if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated; or, if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the same shall be refunded to him, unless it direct that the case be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury.

Case Resubmitted.

4246. SEC. 281. If the court direct that the case be resubmitted, the defendant, if already in custody, shall so remain, unless he be admitted to bail, or if already admitted to bail, or money have been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money shall be answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment.

Order for Discharge.

4247. SEC. 282. Unless a new indictment be found before the next grand jury of the district is discharged, the court shall, on the discharge of such grand jury, make the order prescribed in section two hundred and eighty.

RESUBMISSION OF CASE—Failure of Grand Jury to Indict, Not a Bar. Ex Parte Job, 17 Nev. 184.

No Bar.

4248. SEC. 283. An order to set aside an indictment, as provided in this Act, shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense.

Pleadings of Defendant.

4249. SEC. 284. The only pleading on the part of the defendant is either a demurrer or a plea.

Demurrer.

4250. SEC. 285. Both the demurrer and the plea must be put in, in open court, either at the time of the arraignment, or at such other time as may be allowed to the defendant for that purpose.

Demurrer, for What Cause.

4251. SEC. 286. The defendant may demur to the indictment when it shall appear upon the face thereof either: First—That the grand jury by which it was found had no legal authority to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of its not being within the local jurisdiction of the court. Second—That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of sections two hundred and thirty-four and two hundred and thirty-five. Third—That more than one offense has been charged in the indictment. Fourth—That the facts stated do not constitute a public offense. Fifth—That the indictment contains any matter which, if true, would constitute a legal justification or excuse of the offense charged, or other bar to the prosecution.

1. OBJECTION TO FORM WAIVED BY FAILURE TO DEMUR. State v. Huff, 11 Nev. 17.

2. OBJECTIONS TO AN INDICTMENT—WHEN NO GROUND OF DEMURRER. An objection that an indictment has not been found, indorsed or presented as prescribed by law, is not a ground of demurrer, but must be taken by motion to set aside the indictment before pleading to it. State v. Harris, 12 Nev. 414.

IDEM. An objection that the indictment was not signed by the District Attorney cannot be made by demurrer, but must be made by motion to set aside the indictment. Id.

3. SPECIAL POINT NOT TO BE RAISED UNDER GENERAL DEMURRER TO INDICTMENT. State v. Roderigas, 7 Nev. 328.

4. OBJECTION TO INDICTMENT FOR CHARGING TWO OFFENSES—DEMURRER. An objection to an indictment, that it charges more than one offense, should be taken by special demurrer. State v. Johnson, 9 Nev. 175.

5. SUSTAINING A DEMURRER TO ONE COUNT, NOT AMENDMENT. State v. McKiernan, 17 Nev. 224.

6. APPEAL FROM ORDER SUSTAINING DEMURRER TO INDICTMENT—Record, How Made. State v. Fellows, 8 Nev. 311.

Form of Demurrer.

4252. SEC. 287. The demurrer must be in writing, signed either by the defendant or his counsel, and filed. It must distinctly specify the grounds of objection to the indictment, or it shall be disregarded.

DEMURRER TO INDICTMENT—GROUNDS TO BE DISTINCTLY SPECIFIED. It seems that a demurrer to an indictment "that it charges two separate and distinct offenses" is objectionable for the reason that it does not distinctly specify the grounds of objection as contemplated by the statute relating to criminal practice. State v. Ah Sam, 7 Nev. 127.

Hearing Of.

4253. SEC. 288. Upon the demurrer being filed, the objections presented thereby shall be heard either immediately, or at such time as the court may appoint.

Judgment.

4254. SEC. 289. Upon considering the demurrer, the court shall give judgment, either allowing or disallowing it, and an order to that effect shall be entered on the minutes.

Effect of Allowance of Demurrer.

4255. SEC. 290. If the demurrer be allowed, the judgment shall be final upon the indictment demurred to, and shall be a bar to another prosecution of the same offense, unless the court, being of opinion that the objection on which the demurrer is allowed may be avoided in a new indictment, direct the case to be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury.

Case Not Resubmitted.

4256. SEC. 291. If the court do not direct the case to be resubmitted, the defendant, if in custody, shall be discharged, or if admitted to bail, his bail shall be exonerated, or if he has deposited money instead of bail, the money shall be refunded to him.

Case Submitted—Proceeding.

4257. SEC. 292. If the court direct that the case be resubmitted anew, the same proceedings must be had thereon as are prescribed in sections two hundred and eighty-one and two hundred and eighty-two.

Disallowing Demurrer.

4258. SEC. 293. If the demurrer be disallowed, the court shall permit the defendant, at his election, to plead, which he must do forthwith, or at such time as the court may allow; if he do not plead, judgment shall be pronounced against him.

Objections, How Taken.

4259. SEC. 294. When the objections mentioned in section two hundred and eighty-six appear upon the face of the indictment, they can only be taken advantage of by demurrer, except that the objection to the jurisdiction of the court over the subject of the indictment, or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offense, may be taken at the trial under the plea of not guilty, and in arrest of judgment.

MOTION IN ARREST OF JUDGMENT. State v. O'Connor, 11 Nev. 416.

DEFECTS OF FORM IN INDICTMENT. Objections must be made in lower court. State v. O'Flaherty, 7 Nev. 154.

Pleas, Kinds Of.

4260. SEC. 295. There are three kinds of pleas to an indictment: A plea of: First—Guilty. Second—Not guilty. Third—A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded either with or without the plea of "not guilty."

Oral Plea.

4261. SEC. 296. Every plea shall be oral, and shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Entry and Form of Plea.

4262. SEC. 297. The plea shall be entered in substantially the following form: First—If the defendant plead guilty, "the defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in this indictment." Second—If he plead not guilty, "the defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment." Third—If he plead a former acquittal or conviction, "the defendant pleads that he has already been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be) of the offense charged in the indictment, by the judgment of the court of _____ [naming it], rendered at _____ [naming the place], on the _____ day of _____."

1. WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA. When a prisoner has pleaded "not guilty," it is in the discretion of the court whether or not to allow him to withdraw that plea to interpose another. State v. Salge, 2 Nev. 321.

The prisoner has, however, an absolute right to withdraw that plea to interpose any good defense which has arisen since the last continuance of the case. Id.

2. PLEA OF FORMER ACQUITTAL—When Should Be Allowed. State v. Johnson, 11 Nev. 273.

Plea of Guilty.

4263. SEC. 298. A plea of guilty can in no case be put in, except by the defendant himself, in open court, unless upon an indictment against a corporation, in which case it may be put in by counsel.

May Be Withdrawn.

4264. SEC. 299. The court may, at any time before judgment, upon a plea of guilty, permit it to be withdrawn, and a plea of not guilty substituted.

Not Guilty.

4265. SEC. 300. The plea of not guilty shall be deemed a denial of every material allegation in the indictment.

Evidence Under Not Guilty.

4266. SEC. 301. All matters of fact, tending to establish a defense other than that specified in the third subdivision of section two hundred and ninety-five, may be given in evidence under the plea of not guilty.

Former Acquittal.

4267. SEC. 302. If the defendant were formerly acquitted, on the ground of a variance between the indictment and the proof, or upon an objection to the form or substance of the indictment, it shall not be deemed an acquittal of the same offense.

Acquittal on Merits.

4268. SEC. 303. When, however, he shall have been acquitted on the merits, he shall be deemed acquitted of the same offense, notwithstanding any defect, in form or substance, in the indictment on which he was acquitted.

Former Acquittal or Conviction.

4269. SEC. 304. When the defendant shall have been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment, the conviction or acquittal shall be a bar to another indictment for the offense charged in the former, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offense necessarily included therein, of which he might have been convicted under that indictment, as provided in section four hundred and twelve.

1. JEOPARDY—WHEN IT ATTACHES. Whenever the accused has been placed upon trial, upon a valid indictment before a competent court, and a jury duly impaneled, sworn and charged with the case his jeopardy attaches, and the discharge of the jury before verdict, unless with the consent of the defendant, or the intervention of some unavoidable accident or some overruling necessity, operates as an acquittal. Ex Parte Maxwell, 11 Nev. 428.

WHEN JEOPARDY DOES NOT ATTACH. Whenever a trial has commenced, whether for misdemeanor or felony, and the Judge discovers any imperfection which will render a verdict void or voidable by him, he may stop the trial, and what has been done will be no impediment in the way of any future proceedings. Id.

2. JEOPARDY—WHEN IT DOES NOT ATTACH. When the verdict in a criminal case is so defective that no judgment can be entered upon it, the defendant, who might have had it perfected, is considered as assenting to it, and as waiving any objections to being tried before another jury. State v. Rover, 10 Nev. 388.

3. ACQUITTAL BY JURY, BAR. State v. Herrick, 3 Nev. 259.

Defendant Mute.

4270. SEC. 305. If the defendant refuse to answer the indictment by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty shall be entered.

Change of Venue.

4271. SEC. 306. A criminal action, prosecuted by indictment, may be removed from the court in which it is pending, on the application of the defendant or state, on the ground that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the indictment is pending. As amended, Stats. 1869, 66.

1. CHANGE OF VENUE. The action of the lower court, in granting or refusing a change of venue, is a matter of judicial discretion. If that discretion is abused, it becomes the duty of an appellate court to afford relief. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409; State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 345.

TWO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD INFLUENCE A COURT TO GRANT A CHANGE OF VENUE. One, the impossibility of obtaining a fair and impartial jury; the other, such a state of public excitement against the prisoner as would be likely to overawe and intimidate even a fair jury. Id.

2. CHANGE OF VENUE—PREJUDICE—EXAMINATION OF JURORS BY COURT. It is proper for a District Judge to overrule a motion for a change of venue, on the ground that there exists in the community such a prejudice that the accused cannot obtain an impartial trial, until it can be shown by an examination of a sufficient number of jurors that a fair and impartial jury cannot be obtained. State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212.

3. SHOWING FOR CHANGE OF VENUE—When Insufficient. State v. Lawry, 4 Nev. 161.

Application, How Made.

4272. SEC. 307. The application must be made in open court, and in writing, verified by the affidavit of the defendant or District Attorney, and a copy of said affidavit must be served on the adverse party at least one day before the application is made to the court; provided, the application may be supported or opposed by other affidavits or other evidence, or witnesses may be examined in open court. As amended, Stats. 1869, 66.

Where Made.

4273. SEC. 308. If the court be satisfied that the representation of the party making the application is true, an order shall be made for the removal of the action to the district court of a county which is free from the like objection. As amended, Stats. 1869, 66.

Order Entered on Minutes.

4274. SEC. 309. The order of removal shall be entered on the minutes, and the Clerk shall immediately make out and transmit a certified copy of the entry, with a certified copy of the record, pleadings, and proceedings in the action, including the recognizances for the appearance of the defendant, and of the witnesses, to the court to which the action is removed.

Removal of Defendant.

4275. SEC. 310. If the defendant be in custody, the order shall direct his removal by the Sheriff of the county where he is imprisoned to the custody of the Sheriff of the county to which the action is removed, and he shall be forthwith removed accordingly.

After Removal.

4276. SEC. 311. The court to which the action is removed shall proceed to trial and judgment therein, as if the action had been commenced in such court. If it be necessary to have any of the original pleadings or other papers before such court, the court from which the action is removed shall, at any time, on application of the District Attorney or the defendant, order such papers or pleadings to be transmitted by the Clerk, a certified copy thereof being retained.

Issue of Fact.

4277. SEC. 312. An issue of fact arises: First, upon a plea of not guilty; or, second, upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense.

How Tried.

4278. SEC. 313. An issue of fact must be tried by a jury of the county in which the indictment was found, unless the action be removed, by order of the court, into some other county.

FORMER ACQUITTAL, QUESTION FOR THE JURY. State v. Johnson, 11 Nev. 273.

Jury Trial.

4279. SEC. 314. Trial juries, for criminal actions, shall be formed in the same manner as trial juries for civil actions.

Docket of Action.

4280. SEC. 315. The Clerk shall keep a docket of all the criminal actions pending in the court, in which he shall enter each indictment according to the date of filing, specifying, opposite the title of each action, whether it be for a felony or misdemeanor, or whether the defendant be in custody or on bail.

Issues on Docket—Order of Disposition.

4281. SEC. 316. The issues on the docket shall be disposed of in the following order, unless upon the application of either party for good cause, shown by affidavit, and upon two days' notice to the opposite party, with a copy of the affidavit in support of the application, the court shall direct an indictment to be tried out of its order: First—Indictments for felony when the defendant is in custody. Second—Indictments for misdemeanor when the defendant is in custody. Third—Indictments for felony when the defendant is on bail. Fourth—Indictments for misdemeanor when the defendant is on bail.

Time to Prepare.

4282. SEC. 317. After his plea, the defendant shall have at least two days to prepare for his trial, if he require it.

Postponement of Trial—Depositions, etc.

4283. SEC. 318. When an indictment is called for trial, the court may, upon sufficient cause, shown by affidavit, direct the trial to be postponed to another day of the same term, or the next term. But in all cases where a continuance is granted upon the application of either party, the court may require, as a condition of granting such continuance, that the party applying therefor consent to the taking, forthwith, or at any time to be fixed by the court, of the deposition of any witness summoned by the opposite party whose deposition has not previously been taken. Such deposition shall be taken in the same manner that depositions are required to be taken in section one hundred and seventy-one of this Act. The court shall also have authority to require all witnesses to enter into recognizances, in such sum as the court may order, with or without sureties, to appear and testify on the day to which the case may be continued; provided, that any witness who is unable to procure sureties for his attendance may be discharged on his own recognizance, upon giving his deposition in the manner prescribed in section one hundred and seventy-one of this Act. All depositions taken in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act may be read in evidence, subject to legal objections taken at the time of taking the same, on the trial of the cause, whenever it shall appear that the personal attendance of the witness could not, with due diligence, be obtained, or when he has left the state, or become of unsound mind, or is too sick or infirm to attend, or is dead. As amended, Stats. 1867, 126.

1. FAILURE TO PROCURE JURY GROUND FOR CONTINUANCE—Affidavit Unnecessary—Indefinite Postponement Irregular, But Does Not Operate as Discharge. Ex Parte Stanley, 4 Nev. 113.
2. CONTINUANCE BY COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION. State v. Lawry, 4 Nev. 161.
3. CONTINUANCE. When a prisoner makes out a proper case for continuance, on account of the absence of a material witness, it is error to compel him to go to trial on the admission of the District Attorney that the witness, if present, would swear to the facts as stated by the defendant. State v. Salge, 2 Nev. 321; State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 373.
4. AFFIDAVIT FOR CONTINUANCE in a criminal case, on account of the absence of witnesses should give assurance of their attendance at the time to which it is proposed to continue, and show the means of affiant's information; and unless such attendance seems probable the continuance should be denied. State v. Rosemurgey, 9 Nev. 308.
5. CONTINUANCE—ABSENCE OF WITNESS—AFFIDAVIT. Fatally defective when it fails to show that there are not other persons by whom the defendant could prove the same facts that he expected to prove by the absent witness. State v. Marshall, 19 Nev. 240.
6. CONTINUANCE WITHIN DISCRETION OF COURT, and unless there is an abuse of its discretion its action will be sustained. State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320; State v. Rosemurgey, 9 Nev. 308.
- OBJECTION TO AFFIDAVIT FOR CONTINUANCE. Cannot be made for first time in supreme court. Id.
- AFFIDAVIT SHOULD SHOW DILIGENCE ON PART OF DEFENSE. Id.
7. CONTINUANCE. Affidavit defective when does not show due diligence to produce witnesses or that they could be produced at subsequent term. State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212.
- WHEN ATTACHMENT TO BRING WITNESS IN is offered by court, continuance properly refused if insisted upon. Id.
8. CONTINUANCE PROPERLY REFUSED. Affidavit fails to show testimony of absent witnesses material, or that an effort had been made to procure their attendance. State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 407.
9. AFFIDAVIT FOR CONTINUANCE—Material Facts to Be Stated Positively. State v. O'Flaherty, 7 Nev. 153.
- PRACTICE ON REFUSAL OF CONTINUANCE. Id.

Challenging the Jury.

4284. SEC. 319. A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors, and is of two kinds: First—To the panel. Second—To an individual juror.

By Several Defendants.

4285. SEC. 320. When several persons jointly indicted, are tried together, they are not allowed to sever their challenges, but must join therein. As amended, Stats. 1873, 62.

Panel.

4286. SEC. 321. A panel is a list of jurors returned by a Sheriff to serve at a particular court, or for the trial of a particular cause.

Challenge to the Panel.

4287. SEC. 322. A challenge to the panel is an objection made to all the jurors returned, and may be taken by either party.

On What Founded.

4288. SEC. 323. A challenge to the panel can only be founded on a material departure from the forms prescribed by statute in respect to the drawing and return of the jury, or on the intentional omission of the Sheriff to summon one or more of the jurors drawn.

When Taken.

4289. SEC. 324. A challenge to the panel must be taken before a juror is sworn, and must be in writing, specifying plainly and distinctly the facts constituting the grounds of challenge.

1. A CHALLENGE TO THE PANEL OF TRIAL JURORS must be in writing, specifically stating the grounds of challenge, or other facts on which the challenge is based. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409.
2. CHALLENGE TO THE PANEL. Not considered because one juror has expressed actual bias and others implied bias. State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 98.
3. CHALLENGE DISALLOWED. When no evidence offered in support of challenge: Held, properly disallowed. State v. Rigg, 10 Nev. 234.
4. CHALLENGE TO PANEL—BIAS OF OFFICER. A challenge in writing to a panel of additional jurors, summoned upon an open venire, directed to the Sheriff, on the ground "that the Deputy Sheriff who summoned forty of said jurors was biased against defendant": Held, insufficient in failing to state whether it was taken for implied or actual bias. State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212.
5. CHALLENGE—PROPER PRACTICE. To dispose of each challenge in the order named in the statute. State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 439.

Exception to Challenge.

4290. SEC. 325. If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as a ground of challenge be denied, the adverse party may except to the challenge. The exception need not be in writing, but shall be entered on the minutes of the court.

Trial of Challenge.

4291. SEC. 326. Upon the exception, the court shall proceed to try the sufficiency of the challenge, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true.

Exception May Be Withdrawn.

4292. SEC. 327. If, on the exception, the court deem the challenge sufficient, it may, if justice require it, permit the party excepting to withdraw his exception, and to deny the facts alleged in the challenge. If the exception be allowed, the court may, in like manner, permit an amendment of the challenge.

Denial and Trial Of.

4293. SEC. 328. If the challenge be denied, the denial may, in like manner, be oral, and shall be entered on the minutes of the court, and the court shall proceed to try the question of fact.

Witnesses Examined.

4294. SEC. 329. Upon such trial, the officers, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other persons, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the grounds of challenge.

Challenge for Bias of Officer.

4295. SEC. 330. When the panel is formed from persons whose names are not drawn from the grand jury box, a challenge may be made to the panel on account of any bias of the officer who summoned the jury, which would be good ground of challenge to a juror. Such objection shall be made in the same form, and determined in the same manner, as when made to a juror.

Repealed, Stats. 1875, 117; repealing Act unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Effect of Allowing.

4296. SEC. 331. If, either upon an exception to the challenge, or a denial of the fact, the challenge be allowed, the court shall discharge the jury, so far as the trial of the indictment in question is concerned. If it be disallowed, the court shall direct the jury to be impaneled.

Challenge to the Polls.

4297. SEC. 332. Before a juror is called, the defendant must be informed by the court, or under its direction, that if he intend to challenge any individual juror, he must do so when the juror appears, and before he is sworn.

Kinds of Challenge.

4298. SEC. 333. A challenge to an individual juror is either: First—Peremptory; or, Second—For cause.

When to Be Taken.

4299. SEC. 334. It must be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn, but the court may for good cause permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed.

1. CHALLENGE TO JURORS—When Must Be Taken. State v. Pritchard, 15 Nev. 74.

2. SECTION 334 CONSTRUED. State v. Pritchard, 16 Nev. 102.

3. PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE AFTER JUROR SWORN. The allowance of a peremptory challenge to a juror who has been accepted and sworn is not a matter of right, and a refusal on the part of the court to allow it is not error. State v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 265.

Peremptory. How Taken.

4300. SEC. 335. A peremptory challenge may be taken by either party, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court shall exclude him.

Peremptory Challenges, Number Of.

4301. SEC. 336. If the offense charged be punishable with death, or with imprisonment in the state prison for life, the defendant is entitled to eight and the state to eight peremptory challenges. On a trial for any other offense the defendant is entitled to four and the state to four peremptory challenges. As amended, Stats. 1865, 404; 1889, 85.

Sections 334, 335, and 336 repealed, Stats. 1875, 117; repealing Act unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Challenge for Cause.

4302. SEC. 337. A challenge for cause may be taken by either party. It is an objection to a particular juror, and is either: First, general, that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case; or, second, particular, that he is disqualified from serving on the case on trial.

1. CITIZENSHIP OF JUROR. State v. Salge, 1 Nev. 455.

2. CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE. Party challenging should specify ground. State v. Squaires, 2 Nev. 227; State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320.

General Causes of Challenge.

4303. SEC. 338. General causes of challenge are: First—A conviction for felony. Second—A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by the statute to render a person a competent juror. Third—Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or the organs of the body as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

Particular Causes Of.

4304. SEC. 339. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds: First—For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this Act as implied bias. Second—For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the case which, in the exercise of a sound discretion on the part of the trier, leads to the inference that he will not act with entire impartiality, and which is known in this Act as actual bias.

1. JUROR—INCOMPETENCY OF—CONSCIENTIOUS SCRUPLES. A juror who states that in a case where the punishment is death he would not find the defendant guilty on circumstantial evidence, is an incompetent juror. State v. Pritchard, 15 Nev. 74, 16 Nev. 101.

ALLOWANCE OF CHALLENGE NOT SUBJECT TO REVIEW. The allowing of challenges by the court for implied bias is not subject to review. (State v. Larkin, 11 Nev. 314, affirmed.) Id.

2. CONSCIENTIOUS OPINION—Particular Cause of Challenge. State v. Hing, 16 Nev. 307.

Challenge for Implied Bias, for What Taken.

4305. SEC. 340. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for all or any of the following causes, and no other: First—Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant. Second—Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant, or landlord and tenant, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or in his employment on wages. Third—Being a party adverse to the defendant in civil action, or having complained against, or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution. Fourth—Having served on the grand jury which found the indictment, or on a Coroner's jury which inquired into the death of a person whose death is the subject of the indictment. Fifth—Having served on a trial jury which has tried another person for the offense charged in the indictment. Sixth—Having been one of a jury formerly sworn to try the same indictment, and whose verdict was set aside, or which was discharged without a verdict after the case was submitted to it. Seventh—Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense. Eighth—Having formed or expressed an unqualified opinion or belief that the prisoner is guilty or not guilty of the offense charged; provided, that such unqualified opinion or belief shall not have been formed or expressed or based upon the reading of newspaper accounts of the transaction. Ninth—If the offense charged be punishable with death, the entertaining of such conscientious opinions as would preclude his finding the defendant guilty, in which case he shall neither be permitted nor compelled to serve as a juror. As amended, Stats. 1889, 83.

Sections 339 and 340 amended, Stats. 1875, 117; amendments unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

1. COURT MAY DISMISS JUROR WHEN THERE IS ANY PROBABILITY OF DISQUALIFICATION. State v. Kelley, 1 Nev. 224.

2. ALLOWANCE OF CHALLENGE FOR IMPLIED BIAS—NOT SUBJECT OF REVIEW. The allowance of challenge for implied bias is not the subject of an exception. State v. Hing, 16 Nev. 307.

3. QUALIFIED OPINION OR BELIEF. A juror who has formed and expressed an opinion that was not unqualified, is not a disqualified juror, especially when he declares that he did not entertain any deliberate or fixed opinion or belief as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 99.

CHALLENGE FOR IMPLIED BIAS MUST STATE THE GROUND OF CHALLENGE. Id.

CHALLENGE FOR CAUSE ERRONEOUSLY REFUSED. Not prejudicial error when peremptory challenge taken and all peremptory challenges not exhausted. Id.

4. JUROR—Opinion Upon Facts—When Not Disqualified. State v. Carrick, 16 Nev. 120.

5. IMPLIED BIAS—DEFENDANT'S CHARACTER. The fact that a juror had formed an unfavorable opinion of defendant's character will not sustain a challenge for implied bias. State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 440.

Exemption, Not Cause for Challenge.

4306. SEC. 341. An exemption from service on a jury is not a cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

Challenge, How Taken.

4307. SEC. 342. In a challenge for an implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in section three hundred and forty must be alleged. In a challenge for actual bias, it must be alleged that the juror is biased against the party challenging. In either case the challenge may be oral, but must be entered on the minutes of the court.

Amended, Stats. 1875, 117; amendment unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Exceptions to Challenge.

4308. SEC. 343. The adverse party may except to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to the panel, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as prescribed in sections three hundred and twenty-five and three hundred and twenty-six, except that if the exception be allowed the juror shall be excluded. He may orally deny the facts alleged as the ground of challenge.

Trial of Challenge.

4309. SEC. 344. If the facts be denied, the challenge shall be tried as follows: First—If it be for implied bias, by the court. Second—If it be for actual bias, by triers.

Amended, Stats. 1875, 117; amendment unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Triers, Who to Be.

4310. SEC. 345. The triers shall be three impartial persons, not on the jury panel, appointed by the court. All challenges for actual bias shall be tried by three triers thus appointed, a majority of whom may decide.

Oath of Triers.

4311. SEC. 346. The triers shall be sworn generally to inquire whether or not the several persons who may be challenged, and in respect to whom the challenges shall be given to them in charge, are biased against the challenging party, and to decide the same truly according to the evidence.

Sections 345 and 346 repealed, Stats. 1875, 117; repealing Act unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Juror May Be Witness.

4312. SEC. 347. Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror, the juror challenged may be examined as a witness to prove or disprove the challenge and shall be compelled to answer every question pertinent to the inquiry therein.

Other Testimony.

4313. SEC. 348. Other witnesses may also be examined on either side, and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues shall govern the admission or exclusion of testimony on the trial of the challenge.

Court to Determine Law and Facts.

4314. SEC. 349. On the trial of a challenge for implied bias, the court shall determine the law and the facts, and shall either allow or disallow the challenge, and direct an entry accordingly on the minutes.

Instructions to Triers.

4315. SEC. 350. On the trial of a challenge for actual bias, when the evidence is concluded, the court shall instruct the triers that it is their duty to find the challenge true, if, in their opinion, the evidence warrants the conclusion that the juror has such a bias against the party challenging him as to render him not impartial, and that if, from the evidence, they believe him free from such a bias, they must find the challenge not true. The court shall give them no other instructions.

Decision Final.

4316. SEC. 351. The triers must thereupon find the challenge either true or not true, and their decision is final. If they find it true, the juror shall be excluded.

Sections 350 and 351 repealed, Stats. 1875, 117; repealing Act unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

Challenges, Order Of.

4317. SEC. 352. All challenges to an individual juror, except peremptory, must be first taken by the defendant, and then by the people, and each party must exhaust all his challenges to each juror as he is called, before the other begins.

Challenges Taken Separately.

4318. SEC. 353. The challenges of either party need not all be taken at once, but they must be taken separately in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class: First, to the panel; second, to an individual juror for a general disqualification; third, to an individual juror for implied bias; fourth, to an individual juror for actual bias.

Peremptory Challenge.

4319. SEC. 354. If all the challenges on both sides be disallowed, either party may still take a peremptory challenge, unless the peremptory challenges be exhausted.

Sections 353 and 354 amended, Stats. 1875, 117; amendments unconstitutional. State v. McClear, 11 Nev. 39.

6—Trial.

Order of Proceedings of Trial.

4320. SEC. 355. The jury having been impaneled and sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order: First—If the indictment be for felony, the Clerk must read the indictment and state the plea of the defendant to the jury. In all other cases this formality may be dispensed with. Second—The District Attorney or other counsel for the people must open the cause, and offer the evidence in support of the indictment. Third—The defendant or his counsel may then open the defense, and offer his evidence in support thereof. Fourth—The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the court, for good reasons, in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence upon their original cause. Fifth—When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side, or on both sides, without argument, the counsel for the people must open and must conclude the argument. Sixth—The Judge shall then charge the jury, if requested by either party; he may state the testimony and declare the law, but shall not charge the jury in respect to matters of fact; such charge shall be reduced to writing before it is given; and in no case shall any charge or instructions be given to the jury otherwise than in writing, unless by the mutual consent of the parties.

1. ARGUMENT, CLOSE OF, BELONGS TO STATE. State v. Smith, 10 Nev. 106.
2. COURT MAY GIVE INSTRUCTIONS ON ITS OWN MOTION. State v. Pierce, 8 Nev. 292.
3. READING FROM STATUTES NOT GIVING ORAL INSTRUCTIONS. State v. Stewart, 9 Nev. 121.
4. ORAL INSTRUCTIONS. The court cannot give any instruction verbally unless the prisoner assents, and that assent must appear affirmatively. State v. Bonds, 1 Nev. 33.

Order Departed From.

4321. SEC. 356. When the state of the pleadings require it, or in any other case, for good reasons, and in the sound discretion of the court, the order prescribed in the last section may be departed from.

Two Counsel May Argue, When.

4322. SEC. 357. If the indictment be for an offense punishable with death, two counsel on each side may argue the cause to the jury, but in such case as well as in all others the counsel for the people must open and must conclude the argument. If it be for any other offense, the court may in its discretion restrict the argument to one counsel on each side. As amended, Stats. 1895, 14.

ARGUMENT. Two attorneys for the state may close, notwithstanding objections. State v. Stewart, 9 Nev. 121; State v. Pearce, 15 Nev. 188.

Innocence Presumed.

4323. SEC. 358. A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary be proved; and in case of a reasonable doubt whether his guilt be satisfactorily shown, he is entitled to be acquitted.

"Reasonable Doubt" defined. Sec. 4648.

Degrees of Guilt.

4324. SEC. 359. When it legally appears that a defendant has committed a public offense, and there is reasonable ground of doubt in which of two or more degrees he is guilty, he can be convicted of the lowest of such degrees only.

Joint Trial.

4325. SEC. 360. When two or more defendants are jointly indicted for any offense, they shall be jointly tried, unless for good cause shown by the prosecution or defense, the court shall otherwise direct.

1. UNDER ABOVE SECTION, TWO OR MORE DEFENDANTS may be jointly indicted, jointly tried, and jointly sentenced. Ex Parte Gafford, 24 Nev.
2. SEPARATE TRIAL—WHEN MUST BE DEMANDED. A defendant, jointly indicted with another, who intends to demand a separate trial, must make his motion before the formation of the jury is commenced. State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 345.

GOOD CAUSE MUST BE SHOWN. Id.

State's Evidence.

4326. SEC. 361. When two or more persons are included in the same indictment, the court may at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, on the application of the District Attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged from the indictment, that he may be a witness for the people.

Codefendant May Be Witness.

4327. SEC. 362. When two or more persons are included in the same indictment and the court is of opinion that in regard to a particular defendant there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, it shall order him to be discharged from the indictment, before the evidence shall be deemed closed, that he may be a witness for his codefendant.

Deemed Acquittal.

4328. SEC. 363. The order mentioned in the two last sections shall be deemed an acquittal of the defendant discharged, and shall be a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

Rape, Proof Necessary.

4329. SEC. 364. Proof of actual penetration into the body is sufficient to sustain an indictment for rape, or for the crime against nature.

RAPE—PENETRATION—PROOF REQUIRED. The slightest proof of penetration will justify submitting the question to the jury, and such proof can be inferred from circumstances. In this case there was proof of penetration. State v. Depoister, 21 Nev. 107.

Testimony of Accomplice.

4330. SEC. 365. A conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice, unless he be corroborated by such other evidence as shall tend to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense; and the corroboration shall not be sufficient if it merely show the commission of the offense or the circumstances thereof.

QUESTION NOT AS TO WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE, BUT WHETHER IT WAS CORROBORATIVE. State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320.

Greater Offense Than Charged—Proceeding.

4331. SEC. 366. If it appear by the testimony that the facts proved constitute an offense of a higher nature than that charged in the indictment, the court may direct the jury to be discharged, and all proceedings on the indictment to be suspended, and may order the defendant to be committed or continued on, or admitted to bail, to answer any new indictment which may be found against him for the higher offense.

Indictment Not Found.

4332. SEC. 367. If an indictment for the higher offense be dismissed by the grand jury, or be not found at or before the next term, the court shall again proceed to try the defendant on the original indictment.

Jury Discharged, When.

4333. SEC. 368. The court may also direct the jury to be discharged when it appears that it has not jurisdiction of the offense, or that the facts as charged in the indictment do not constitute an offense punishable by law.

Defendant Discharged, When.

4334. SEC. 369. If the jury be discharged because the court has not jurisdiction of the offense charged in the indictment, and it appear that it was committed out of the jurisdiction of this territory, it shall order the defendant to be discharged.

When Jurisdiction Is in Other County.

4335. SEC. 370. If the offense were committed within the exclusive jurisdiction of another district of this territory, the court shall direct the defendant to be committed for such time as shall be deemed reasonable, to await a warrant from the proper county for his arrest; or if the offense be a misdemeanor only, it may admit him to bail in a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, that he will, within such time as the court may appoint, render himself amenable to a warrant for his arrest from the proper county, and if not sooner arrested thereon, will attend at the office of the Sheriff of the county where the trial was had at a certain time particularly designated in the recognizance, to surrender himself upon the warrant, if issued, or that his bail will forfeit such sum as the court may fix, and to be mentioned in the recognizance.

To Transmit Papers.

4336. SEC. 371. In the case provided for in the last section, the Clerk shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the indictment, and of all the papers filed in the action, to the District Attorney of the proper county, the expense of which transmission shall be chargeable to that county.

Defendant Discharged.

4337. SEC. 372. If the defendant be not arrested, as provided in section three hundred and seventy, on a warrant from the proper county, he shall be discharged from custody, or his bail in the action shall be exonerated, or money, deposited instead of bail, shall be refunded, as the case may be, and the sureties in the recognizance shall be discharged.

Proceedings.

4338. SEC. 373. If he be arrested, the same proceedings shall be had thereupon as upon the arrest of a defendant in another county, on a warrant of arrest issued by a magistrate.

When Offense Not Punishable by Law.

4339. SEC. 374. If the jury be discharged because the facts as charged do not constitute an offense punishable by law, the court shall order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged, or if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the money deposited be refunded to him, unless, in the opinion of the court, a new indictment can be framed, upon which the defendant can be legally convicted, in which case it may direct that the case be submitted to the same or another grand jury.

Submitted Anew.

4340. SEC. 375. If the court direct that the case be submitted anew, the same proceedings must be had thereon as are prescribed in sections two hundred and eighty-one and two hundred and eighty-two, both inclusive.

Court May Advise Acquittal.

4341. SEC. 376. If, at any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the court deem the same insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may advise the jury to acquit the defendant. But the jury shall not be bound by such advice, nor shall the court for any cause prevent the jury from giving a verdict, except as provided in sections three hundred and sixty-one, three hundred and sixty-two, three hundred and sixty-six, and three hundred and sixty-eight.

When View May Be Had.

4342. SEC. 377. Whenever, in the opinion of the court, it is proper that the jury should view the place in which the offense is charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of the Sheriff, to the place, which shall be shown to them by a person appointed by the court for that purpose.

Not to Speak to Jury.

4343. SEC. 378. No person shall be suffered to speak to the jury on any subject connected with the trial, and the officer shall return them into court without unnecessary delay, or at a specified time.

1. CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTE—JURY TO VIEW PREMISES—DUTY OF JURY. In construing the provisions of Sections 377 and 378 of the Criminal Practice Act: Held, that the order of the court should specify the place to be inspected, and should designate some person who knows the place, to point it out to the jury. The person so designated, and none other, except the officer in charge, should conduct the jury to the spot, and should leave them to make their own observations, without any comment or explanation whatever. State v. Lopez, 15 Nev. 407.
2. VIEW OF THE PREMISES is not taking evidence in the case. It is means provided by the statute to enable the jury more satisfactorily to weigh the evidence given in court. When the action of the court is taken and the view is made on motion of the defendant, and no request or expression of a desire on his part to be present was made, his absence is not ground for new trial, nor is the absence of the Judge legal cause of complaint. State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 342.

Juror May Disclose Knowledge.

4344. SEC. 379. If a juror have any personal knowledge respecting a fact in controversy in the case, he must declare the same in open court, during the trial. If, during the retirement of a jury, a juror declare any fact which could be evidence in the cause, as of his own knowledge, the jury must return into court. In either of these cases, the juror making the statement must be sworn as a witness, and examined in the presence of the parties.

Jury, How Kept—Oath of Officer.

4345. SEC. 380. The jury sworn to try an indictment for a misdemeanor may, at any time during the trial, in the discretion of the court be allowed to separate. In all cases, on the trial of an indictment for felony, the jurors sworn shall be kept together until they are finally discharged by the court from further consideration of the cause. At each adjournment or recess of the court, which may occur during the trial, the Sheriff or his deputy, shall keep the jury together in his charge, and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff, at the expense of the county, to provide a suitable place for the board and lodging of the jury. The court at each recess or adjournment during the trial, shall administer to the Sheriff, or his deputy, the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that you will, during this recess or adjournment (as the case may be), keep this jury together, and that you will return them into court at the opening thereof, and that in the meantime you will not allow any person to speak to them, or either of them, nor speak to them or either of them, yourself, on the subject of the case now on trial, so help you God."

1. SEPARATION OF JURY. The fact that one of the jurors was where he could exchange a single word with a stranger without being overheard by the officer in charge is sufficient to establish a technical separation of the jury. State v. Harris, 12 Nev. 414.

IDEM—DUTY OF OFFICER. An officer in charge of a jury in a criminal case ought not to permit strangers to have access to a juror out of his sight and hearing, and thus afford an opportunity, however slight, for tampering with, or prejudicing, the juror. Id.

2. SEPARATION OF JURY BY CONSENT. Where jury separates by consent of counsel and no objection is made by defendant, verdict upheld. State v. McMahon, 17 Nev. 365.

Jury to Be Admonished.

4346. SEC. 381. The jury shall also, at each adjournment of the court, whether they be permitted to separate or be kept in charge of officers, be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse among themselves, or with any one else, on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon until the cause is finally submitted to them.

FAILURE OF COURT TO ADMONISH JURY AT RECESS does not affect jury when accused is not injured thereby. State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212.

Juror Sick.

4347. SEC. 382. If, before the conclusion of the trial, a juror become sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case, a new juror may be sworn, and the trial begin anew, or the jury may be discharged, and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled.

Questions of Law.

4348. SEC. 383. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of the trial.

Libel.

4349. SEC. 384. On the trial of an indictment for libel, the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

Questions of Law and Fact.

4350. SEC. 385. On the trial of an indictment for any other offense than libel, questions of law are to be decided by the court, saving the right of the defendant to except questions of fact by the jury. And, although the jury have the power to find a general verdict, which includes questions of law as well as of fact, they are bound, nevertheless, to receive as law what is laid down as such by the court.

Charge to Jury.

4351. SEC. 386. In charging the jury, the court shall state to them all such matters of law as it shall think necessary for their information in giving their verdict.

1. INSTRUCTIONS—Lengthy Discussion. State v. Waterman, 1 Nev. 543.

2. PROVINCE OF INSTRUCTIONS—Instruction in Manslaughter—Reviewed at Length. State v. Levine, 17 Nev. 435.

3. EXCEPTION NOT NECESSARY. Under our statute it is not necessary that the defendant should except to the action of the court, in failing to give an instruction asked for. State v. McNamara, 3 Nev. 71.

NEGLECT TO GIVE INSTRUCTION SAME AS REFUSAL. Id.

CERTAIN INSTRUCTION IN THIS CASE—Joint Indictment. Id.

4. COURT MAY INSTRUCT JURY IN CRIMINAL CASE ON ITS OWN MOTION. State v. Burns, 8 Nev. 251; State v. Ah Mook, 12 Nev. 369.

COURT'S OWN CHARGE IN CRIMINAL CASE NOT DEEMED EXCEPTED TO. The charge given by a court on its own motion in a criminal case cannot be considered on appeal, unless it be properly carried up by bill of exceptions. Id.

5. ARGUMENT OF PROSECUTING ATTORNEY—MISSTATEMENT OF LAW. Misstatements of law made by the Prosecuting Attorney in his argument to the jury should be corrected by proper instructions and not by a motion to strike out. A motion to strike out in such a case affords no adequate relief. State v. O'Keefe, 23 Nev. 127.

6. INSTRUCTIONS MUST BE CONSIDERED AS AN ENTIRETY. State v. Lindsey, 19 Nev. 47; State v. Donovan, 10 Nev. 36; State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 98; State v. Pritchard, 15 Nev. 74; State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 345.
7. INSTRUCTIONS—DEFENDANT SHOULD ASK FOR, WHEN. If the defendant desires the court to charge the jury upon any given point, it is his right and his business to prepare such an instruction, and ask the court to give it. State v. Smith, 10 Nev. 106; State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 407; State v. St. Clair, 16 Nev. 207; State v. Hing, 16 Nev. 307; State v. McLane 15 Nev. 345.
8. INSTRUCTIONS. Defendant has a right to have his instructions given when clearly law. People v. Bonds, 1 Nev. 33.
- COURT CANNOT INSTRUCT THE JURY AS TO THE EXISTENCE OR NON-EXISTENCE OF A DISPUTED FACT. Id.
9. CRIMINAL LAW—TESTIMONY OF DEFENDANT—INSTRUCTIONS. The court instructed the jury that in all cases the testimony of the defendant, in his own behalf, should be received "with great caution; for when one is being tried for a capital offense, the temptation to pervert or distort the facts in favor of himself is very great": Held, erroneous. State v. Vasquez, 16 Nev. 42.
10. CHARGE OF THE COURT—MURDER THE RESULT OF MALICE. The court after giving the statutory definition of murder and manslaughter, and the general definition of malice, charged the jury as follows: "From the foregoing, then, it will be seen that murder is the result of malice; manslaughter the result of sudden passion, heat of blood, anger, when the defendant is supposed not to be master of his own understanding": Held, not erroneous. State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 98.
11. HOMICIDE—NOT JUSTIFIED BY PROVOCATION. The court charged the jury: "No provocation can justify or excuse homicide, but may reduce the offense to manslaughter. Words or actions, or gestures, however grievous or provoking, unaccompanied by an assault, will not justify or excuse murder; and when a deadly weapon is used, the provocation must be great to make the crime less than murder": Held, correct. Id.; State v. Crozier, 12 Nev. 300.
12. IRRELEVANT INSTRUCTION—When Prejudicial—Murder Case. State v. Vaughan. 22 Nev. 285.
- IMPROPER INSTRUCTION NOT CURED BY OTHERS THOUGH PROPER. Id.
13. INSANITY—BURDEN OF PROOF—PRESUMPTIONS. The court instructed the jury that the defendant "is presumed to be sane until the contrary is shown, and a doubt upon this question alone should not acquit, for insanity is an affirmative proposition, and the burden of proving it is upon the defense: Held, correct. State v. Lewis, 20 Nev. 334.
- PREPONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE. Insanity as a defense to crime must be established by a preponderance of evidence. Id.
14. INSTRUCTION TENDING TO SHOW INSANITY. Refused or given on motion of court, not reviewed by appellate court. State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 342.
- INSTRUCTION REGARDING DEFENDANT'S TESTIMONY. Held, correct. Id.
- DEFENSE—Circumstances of Killing—Instruction Not Misleading. Id.
15. INSANITY AND INTOXICATION. Instructions given by the court to the effect that temporary insanity produced by intoxication does not destroy responsibility if the party, when sane and responsible, made himself voluntarily intoxicated. Reviewed, and held to be correct. State v. Thompson, 12 Nev. 140.
16. FORMS OF VERDICT AND DEFINITIONS GIVEN BY COURT. Defendant not prejudiced because court failed to give form for manslaughter. State v. St. Clair, 16 Nev. 207.
17. INTENT TO MURDER—USE OF DEADLY WEAPONS. An intent to murder cannot be conclusively inferred from the mere use of a deadly weapon, and an instruction to the jury to that effect in a murder trial is error. State v. Newton, 4 Nev. 410.
18. ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING—Instruction, Murder or Manslaughter: Held, correct. State v. Kelley, 1 Nev. 224.
19. HOMICIDE—JUSTIFICATION. Where there is any testimony to support the plea of justifiable homicide, the court has no right to withdraw that question from the jury. A refusal to instruct the jury thereon: Held, erroneous. State v. Frazer, 14 Nev. 210.
20. INSTRUCTION. DEGREE OF PROOF TO REBUT PRESUMPTION OF MURDER. Error to instruct jury that mitigating circumstances must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt, or by preponderating proof. State v. McGinnis, 5 Nev. 337.
- ACCUSED PERSON IS ENTITLED TO REASONABLE DOUBT, HOWEVER ARISING. Id.
21. INSTRUCTION AS TO GOOD CHARACTER OF DEFENDANT—When Properly Refused—Instruction as to Criminal Intent, When Properly Refused. State v. McGinnis, 6 Nev. 109.

22. CHARGING CIRCUMSTANTIAL TO BE SUPERIOR TO DIRECT EVIDENCE, ERROR. Where the court in a criminal case instructed the jury that "circumstantial evidence is more satisfactory than the testimony of a single individual, who swears he has seen a fact committed": Held, error. State v. Van Winkle, 6 Nev. 340.
 23. INSTRUCTION—NO OPTION. The jury may be instructed that if they find that the accused shot and killed the deceased while attempting to perpetrate a robbery on him, they had "no option but to find the perpetrator guilty of murder in the first degree." State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212.
 24. INSTRUCTION that jury shall only consider the good character of defendant, when they have a reasonable doubt of his guilt, is not an erroneous instruction. People v. Gleason, 1 Nev. 173.
 25. AMBIGUOUS INSTRUCTION PROPERLY REFUSED—False Definition of Murder. State v. Anderson, 4 Nev. 265.
- CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION AS TO CHARGING JURIES. The constitutional provision that "Judges shall not charge juries in respect to matters of fact, but may state the testimony and declare the law," was intended to prevent Judges from charging that facts testified to are not established, but was not intended to prevent, and does not prevent, them from charging what would be the legal effect of facts if found to be established. Id.
26. INSTRUCTION MAY CONTAIN CORRECT PRINCIPLE OF LAW, but may be refused because not applicable to the case. State v. Squaires, 2 Nev. 226; State v. Ah Loi, 5 Nev. 99.
- ARSON. An instruction which assumes that the defendant could only be principal if he himself set the fire is erroneous, and should not be given. Id.
27. CHARGE OF THE COURT, MURDER CASE—MODIFYING AN INSTRUCTION, WHEN NOT ERRONEOUS. When the court in modifying a correct instruction does not alter its sense, the modification cannot be claimed to be erroneous. State v. Smith, 10 Nev. 106.
 28. INSTRUCTION IN MURDER CASE THAT CERTAIN FACTS WOULD NOT AMOUNT TO MORE THAN MANSLAUGHTER, and verdict of manslaughter found: Held, not erroneous. State v. Hutchinson, 7 Nev. 53.
 29. EXPLICIT INSTRUCTIONS—Reasonable Doubt. State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 440.
 30. CHARGE OF THE COURT ON EVIDENCE. On a trial for murder, if there is no evidence tending to establish the crime of manslaughter, the court may so inform the jury, and charge them not to consider the question. State v. Donovan, 10 Nev. 36.
 31. MURDER IN FIRST OR SECOND DEGREE OR ACQUITTAL. It is not error to charge a jury that they must find the prisoner guilty of murder in the first or second degree, or acquit, where there is no testimony offered which in any degree tends to show any fact or circumstances which could reduce the offense to manslaughter. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 410.
 32. VOLUNTARY KILLING WITH DEADLY WEAPON, NOT NECESSARILY MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE. Contrary instruction held error. State v. Lopez, 15 Nev. 408.
 33. INSTRUCTION IN MURDER CASE that time of deliberation is not material, so long as there is determination to kill, to constitute murder in the first degree: Held, not prejudicial. State v. Ah Mook, 12 Nev. 369.
 34. CHARGE ASSUMING PROOF OF MATERIAL FACTS—Error—Retreat Not Necessary, When. State v. Kennedy, 7 Nev. 374.
 35. SELF-DEFENSE—Remarks of Judge in Refusing Instructions, Error. State v. Warren, 18 Nev. 459.
 36. ANTECEDENT THREATS ALONE DO NOT JUSTIFY HOMICIDE. Held, no error in instructing that there must have been some action on the part of the deceased at the time of the killing. State v. Hall, 9 Nev. 58.
 37. JUSTIFICATION OF HOMICIDE IN CASE OF COMBAT. Section 29 of Crimes Act does not apply. State v. Ferguson, 9 Nev. 106.
- CHARGE UNDER SECTION 28 OF CRIMES ACT. Held, error in this, that it assumes that defendant is without fault. Id.
38. SELF-DEFENSE IN CASE OF COMBAT, CANNOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF INSTRUCTION. State v. Smith, 10 Nev. 106.
 39. CRIMES ACT, SECTION 28, AS AN INSTRUCTION. Where defense is self-defense, reading Section 26 not error. State v. Stewart, 9 Nev. 120.
 40. ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO COMMIT MURDER. The court instructed the jury to convict if it found that defendant made an assault with a deadly weapon upon the person named, about the time charged, and in such manner that the offense would have been murder in the second degree had the assault resulted in death: Held, unobjectionable. State v. Keith, 9 Nev. 15.

41. ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL—INSTRUCTION. The court instructed the jury that "an assault with intent to kill, is an unlawful attempt, coupled with a present ability to kill another person under such circumstances as would constitute an unlawful killing had the death of the person assaulted actually resulted": Held, correct. State v. Marks, 15 Nev. 33.
- IDEM. The court instructed the jury "that, where an act in itself indifferent becomes criminal if done with a particular intent, then the intent must be proved and found; but when the act is in itself unlawful, the proof of justification or excuse lies on the defendant; and, in failure thereof, the law implies a criminal intent unless the proof on the part of the prosecution sufficiently manifests that the accused was justified or excused in committing the assault": Held, not error. Id.
42. FORGERY. Instruction as to person injured, reciting statute: Held, correct. State v. Cleavland, 6 Nev. 181.
43. ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO COMMIT ROBBERY. Instruction that jury must find some "visible act of robbery committed by defendant" properly refused. State v. Glover, 10 Nev. 24.
44. BURGLARY—INSTRUCTION. An instruction that if defendant entered the house and stole therefrom certain goods, it might be inferred that he entered with intent to steal: Held, correct. State v. Watkins, 11 Nev. 30.
- COURT MAY MODIFY TO REMOVE AMBIGUITY. Id.
45. LARCENY—INTENT—LUCRI CAUSA—INSTRUCTIONS. The court instructed the jury that if they believed that the defendant took the property "with the intent to permanently deprive the owner of the property, and without an intention to return the same, it was a felonious intent and the defendant is guilty": Held, correct. It is not essential that the taking should be with a view to pecuniary profit. State v. Slingerland, 19 Nev. 135.
- WHEN JUDGMENT WILL NOT BE REVERSED ON IMPROPER INSTRUCTION. Good character instruction not proper. Id.
46. LARCENY—Meaning of the Word "Indicating" in Instruction. State v. Loveless, 17 Nev. 424.
47. POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY—Instruction Properly Refused. State v. Espinozel, 30 Nev. 209.
48. REMARKS OF COURT—When Improper. State v. Frazer, 14 Nev. 210; State v. Warren, 18 Nev. 459.

Charge to Jury.

4352. SEC. 387. Either party may present to the court any written charge, and request that it may be given. If the court think it correct and pertinent, it shall be given; if not, it shall be refused.

Charge, Court to Indorse.

4353. SEC. 388. Upon each charge so presented and given, or refused, the court shall indorse its decision, and shall sign it. If part be given and part refused, the court shall distinguish, showing by the indorsement what part of the charge was given and what part refused.

1. INSTRUCTIONS PART OF RECORD. Instructions which are filed with the indorsement of the Judge thereon as to his action in giving or refusing them are a part of the record, and the action of the court thereon may be reviewed without any formal bill of exceptions. People v. Gleason, 1 Nev. 173.
2. PROPER PRACTICE UNDER ABOVE SECTION. State v. O'Connor, 11 Nev. 425.

Case Submitted.

4354. SEC. 389. After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in court or may retire for deliberation. If they do not agree without retiring, one or more officers must be sworn to keep them together in some private and convenient place, and not permit any person to speak to them, nor to speak to them themselves, unless it be to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict, and to return them into court when they have so agreed.

Defendant May Be Committed.

4355. SEC. 390. Where a defendant, having given bail, appears for trial, the court may, in its discretion, at any time after his appearance for trial, order him to be committed to the custody of the proper officer of the county to abide the judgment or further order of the court, and he shall be committed and held in custody accordingly.

Room Provided for Jury.

4356. SEC. 391. A room shall be provided by the Sheriff of each county for the use of the jury upon their retirement for deliberation, with suitable furniture, fuel, lights and stationery, unless the same have been already furnished by the county. The court may order the Sheriff to do so, and the expenses incurred by him in carrying the order into effect, when certified by the court, shall be a county charge.

Sheriff to Provide for Jury.

4357. SEC. 392. While the jury are kept together, either during the progress of the trial or after their retirement for deliberation, they shall be provided by the Sheriff, at the expense of the county, with suitable and sufficient food and lodging.

Papers Which Jury May Take.

4358. SEC. 393. Upon retiring for deliberation the jury may take with them all papers (except depositions) which have been received as evidence in the case, or copies of such parts of public records or private documents given in evidence as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession, and also the instructions of the court.

Jury May Take Notes.

4359. SEC. 394. The jury may also take with them notes of the testimony or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves, or any of them, but none taken by any other person.

Jury May Ask for Information.

4360. SEC. 395. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be any disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed on any point of law arising in the cause, they must require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required shall be given in the presence of, or after notice to, the District Attorney and the defendant or his counsel.

May Be Discharged.

4361. SEC. 396. If, after the retirement of the jury, one of them be taken so sick as to prevent the continuance of his duty, or any other accident or cause occur to prevent their being kept for deliberation, the jury may be discharged.

DISCHARGE OF JUROR AFTER JURY IS SWORN—No Necessity for Discharge of Whole Jury—
No Evidence of Defendant's Plea of Former Jeopardy. State v. Pritchard, 16 Nev. 101.

Not Discharged, When.

4362. SEC. 397. Except as provided in the last section, the jury shall not be discharged after the cause is submitted to them, until they have agreed upon their verdict and rendered it in open court, unless by the consent of both parties, entered upon the minutes, or unless, at the expiration of such time as the court shall deem proper, it satisfactorily appear that there is no reasonable probability that the jury can agree.

POWER OF COURT TO DISCHARGE A JURY BEFORE VERDICT—Jury Failing to Agree. Ex Parte Maxwell, 428.

Discharge Without Verdict, Effect Of.

4363. SEC. 398. In all cases where a jury are discharged or prevented from giving a verdict by reason of any accident or other cause, except where the defendant is discharged from the indictment during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term.

Adjournment.

4364. SEC. 399. While the jury are absent, the court may adjourn from time to time, as to other business, but it shall nevertheless be deemed to be open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury, until a verdict be rendered or the jury discharged.

Final Adjournment.

4365. SEC. 400. A final adjournment of the court discharges the jury.

Expenses of Trial.

4366. SEC. 401. When two or more counties are joined for judicial purposes, the expenses accruing from the trial of cases shall be assigned to the county in which the offense was committed for which trial was had.

Verdict.

4367. SEC. 402. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest shall be discharged without giving a verdict. In such a case, the cause must be again tried at the same or another term.

Defendant to Appear.

4368. SEC. 403. If the indictment be for a felony, the defendant must, before a verdict, appear in person. If it be for a misdemeanor, the verdict may be rendered in his absence.

Jury to Acknowledge Verdict.

4369. SEC. 404. If the jury appear, they shall be asked by the court or the Clerk whether they have agreed upon a verdict, and if the foreman answer in the affirmative, they shall, on being required, declare the same.

General or Special Verdict.

4370. SEC. 405. The jury may either render a general verdict, or when they are in doubt as to the legal effect of the facts proved, they may, except upon an indictment for libel, find a special verdict.

General Verdict.

4371. SEC. 406. A general verdict upon a plea of not guilty, is either "guilty" or "not guilty," which imports a conviction or acquittal on every material allegation in the indictment. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, it is either "for the people," or "for the defendant."

1. MURDER CASE.—Verdict of Guilty Must State the Degree. State v. Rover, 10 Nev. 348; State v. Lindsey, 19 Nev. 47.
2. THE COURT MAY ALWAYS SUGGEST TO THE JURY A CORRECTION OF THEIR VERDICT AS TO FORM. State v. Waterman, 1 Nev. 543.
3. VERDICT RECOMMENDING DEFENDANT TO THE MERCY OF THE COURT—DUTY OF JURY. Held, that the court should have disregarded the request of the jury for instructions as to their duty in recommending the defendant to the mercy of the court. The duty of the jury is to find a verdict as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. State v. Vasquez, 16 Nev. 42.
4. VERDICT—RECOMMENDATION TO MERCY—REFUSAL TO STRIKE OUT. A recommendation to mercy constitutes no proper part of a verdict; but a refusal of the court to strike it out is not prejudicial to defendant. State v. Gray, 19 Nev. 212; State v. Stewart, 9 Nev. 120.
5. IMPORT OF VERDICT OF "GUILTY." It is in effect verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. State v. Lawry, 4 Nev. 161.
6. VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL, BAR. A verdict of acquittal on a good indictment puts an end to all further prosecution for the offense charged in that indictment, notwithstanding any errors that may have been committed during the progress of the trial. State v. Hall, 3 Nev. 172.
7. VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY, BAR. A defendant tried on a criminal charge and found not guilty by a jury cannot again be put on trial for the same offense. State v. Herrick, 3 Nev. 259.

Special Verdict.

4372. SEC. 407. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. It must present the conclusions of fact as established by evidence, and not the evidence to prove them, and these conclusions of fact must be so presented as that nothing remains to the court but to draw conclusions of law upon them.

Reduced to Writing.

4373. SEC. 408. The special verdict must be reduced to writing by the jury, or in their presence entered upon the minutes of the court, read to the jury, and agreed to by them before they are discharged.

Form of Special Verdict.

4374. SEC. 409. The special verdict need not be in any particular form, but shall be sufficient if it present intelligibly the facts found by the jury.

Judgment on, How Given.

4375. SEC. 410. The court shall give judgment upon the special verdict as follows: First—If the plea be not guilty, and the facts prove the defendant guilty of the offense charged in the indictment, or of any other offense of which he could be convicted, as provided in section four hundred and twelve, under that indictment, judgment shall be given accordingly. But if the facts found do not prove the defendant guilty of the offense charged, or of any offense of which he could be so convicted under the indictment, judgment of acquittal shall be given. Second—If the plea be a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, the court shall give judgment of acquittal or conviction, according as the facts prove or fail to prove the former conviction or acquittal.

New Trial.

4376. SEC. 411. If the jury do not, in a special verdict, pronounce affirmatively or negatively on the facts necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or if they find the evidence of facts merely, and not the conclusion of facts from the evidence as established to their satisfaction, the court shall order a new trial.

Guilty of Any Offense Included in One Charged.

4377. SEC. 412. In all cases the defendant may be found guilty of any offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in that with which he is charged in the indictment, or may be found guilty of an attempt to commit the offense charged.

1. APPLICATION OF ABOVE SECTION IN BURGLARY CASE. State v. Watkins, 11 Nev. 34.

2. APPLICATION OF ABOVE SECTION IN RAPE CASE. State v. Pickett, 11 Nev. 255.

3. ASSAULT WITH DEADLY WEAPON, ETC., INCLUDED IN "ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO MURDER." State v. Robey, 8 Nev. 312; State v. Collyer, 17 Nev. 275.

Verdict, Character Of.

4378. SEC. 413. On an indictment against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment shall be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

Verdict Reconsidered.

4379. SEC. 414. When there is a verdict of conviction, in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider their verdict, and if, after such reconsideration, they return the same verdict, it must be entered; but when there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to reconsider it.

Court May Order Reconsideration.

4380. SEC. 415. If the jury render a verdict which is neither a general nor a special verdict, as defined in sections four hundred and six and four hundred and seven, the court may direct them to reconsider it, and it shall not be recorded until it be rendered in some form from which it can be clearly understood what is the intent of the jury, whether to render a general verdict, or to find the facts specially, and to leave the judgment to the court.

Persistence of Jury.

4381. SEC. 416. If the jury persist in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be clearly understood that their intention is to find in favor of the defendant upon the issue, it shall be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the court shall give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury find expressly against the defendant upon the issue, or judgment be given against him on a special verdict.

Jury May Be Polled.

4382. SEC. 417. When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled; on the requirement of either party, in which case they shall be severally asked whether it be their verdict, and if any one answer in the negative, the jury shall be sent out for further deliberation.

Verdict to Be Recorded.

4383. SEC. 418. When the verdict is given, and is such as the court may receive, the Clerk must immediately record it in full on the minutes, and must read it to the jury and inquire of them whether it be their verdict. If any juror disagree, the fact must be entered in the minutes and the jury again sent out; but if no disagreement be expressed, the verdict is complete, and the jury must be discharged from the case.

VERDICT MAY BE RECORDED ON SUNDAY. State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 23.

Verdict of Acquittal.

4384. SEC. 419. If judgment of acquittal be given on a general verdict, and the defendant be not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as the verdict is given, except that where the acquittal is for a variance between the proof and the indictment, which may be obviated by a new indictment, the court may order his detention, to the end that a new indictment may be preferred in the same manner and with like effect as provided in sections three hundred and seventy-four and three hundred and seventy-five.

Verdict of Guilty.

4385. SEC. 420. If a general verdict be rendered against the defendant, or a special verdict be given, he must be remanded, if in custody, or if on bail, he may be committed to the proper officers of the county, to await the judgment of the court upon the verdict. If so committed, his bail shall be exonerated, or if money be deposited instead of bail, it shall be refunded to the defendant.

7—Proceeding After Trial and Before Judgment.

Bill of Exceptions.

4386. SEC. 421. On the trial of an indictment, exceptions may be taken by the defendant to a decision of the court upon a matter of law in any of the following cases: First—In disallowing a challenge to the panel of the jury, or to an individual juror, for implied bias. Second—In admitting or rejecting witnesses or testimony, or in charging the triers of a challenge to a juror for actual bias. Third—In admitting or rejecting witnesses or testimony, or in deciding any question of law, not a matter of discretion, or in charging or instructing the jury upon the law on the trial of the issue.

1. APPEAL—DISMISSAL—BILL OF EXCEPTIONS. An appeal presented without any statement or bill of exceptions will be dismissed. (State v. Fellows, 8 Nev. 311, affirmed.) State v. Lamb, 20 Nev. 181.
2. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS—REVIEW OF EVIDENCE. There is no provision of the statute that will authorize this court to review or examine the evidence in a criminal case, unless it is embodied in a bill of exceptions. State v. Larkin, 11 Nev. 314; State v. Mills, 12 Nev. 403; State v. Rigg, 10 Nev. 284; State v. Potts, 20 Nev. 389.

3. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS. It is the duty of the Clerk to attach the bill of exceptions to the rest of the judgment roll before it is filed, just as it was left by the Judge who signed it. He must not add to it, or subtract from it, anything whatever. State v. Ah Mook, 12 Nev. 369.
4. CHARGE OF THE COURT MUST BE EMBODIED IN A BILL OF EXCEPTIONS. The charge given by the court of its own motion is not a part of the record unless it is included in the bill of exceptions. Id.; State v. Forsha, 8 Nev. 137; State v. Burns, 8 Nev. 251; State v. Rover, 11 Nev. 343.
5. IDEM—REPORTER'S NOTES. The reporter's notes of the proceedings of a trial can only be considered when adopted by the court as correct, and included in a bill of exceptions settled and signed by the Judge. State v. Larkin, 11 Nev. 314.
6. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS. The bill of exceptions, properly settled and signed by the Judge, together with the rest of the record as provided for in Section 450, is all that the supreme court will notice in the examination of a criminal case on appeal. State v. Mills, 12 Nev. 403; State v. Johnson, 12 Nev. 121; State v. Roderigas, 7 Nev. 328; State v. McMahon, 17 Nev. 365; State v. Baker, 8 Nev. 141; State v. Ah Hung, 11 Nev. 428; State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 346; State v. Darling, 4 Nev. 413; State v. Wilson, 5 Nev. 43.

Exceptions by Prosecution.

4387. SEC. 422. The exceptions may be taken by the District Attorney, or other counsel for the people, to a decision of the court upon a matter of law in any of the cases specified in the third subdivision of the preceding section.

How Settled—Time For.

4388. SEC. 423. A bill containing the exceptions must be settled and signed by the Judge, and filed with the Clerk within ten days after the trial of the cause, unless further time be granted by said Judge, or by a Judge of the Supreme Court.

1. CRIMINAL PRACTICE—TIME OF SETTLEMENT OF BILL OF EXCEPTIONS. Section 423, requiring bills of exception to be settled, signed and filed within ten days after trial, is directory; but if not so settled and signed within the time prescribed, some reasonable excuse should be given for the delay. State v. Baker, 8 Nev. 141; State v. Salge, 1 Nev. 455.
2. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS—HOW AUTHENTICATED. A bill of exceptions must be authenticated by the signature of the Judge. State v. Huff, 11 Nev. 17; People v. Gleason, 1 Nev. 173.
3. SETTLEMENT OF, ON MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL. The bill of exceptions, or statement, may be settled by the Judge after the motion for a new trial is decided. State v. Huff, 11 Nev. 17.
4. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS—SETTLEMENT AND SIGNING—WHAT IS SUFFICIENT. Where the record on appeal does not show a settlement of the bill of exceptions, such fact will be presumed from the signature of the trial Judge thereto attached. State v. Campbell, 20 Nev. 122.

Manner of Settling Bill of Exceptions.

4389. SEC. 424. The bill of exceptions shall contain so much of the evidence only as is necessary to present the questions of law upon which the exceptions were taken, and the Judge shall, upon the settlement of the bill, whether agreed to by the parties or not, strike out evidence and other matters not material to the questions to be raised. If the Judge in any case refuses to allow an exception in accordance with the facts, the party desiring the bill settled may apply by petition to the supreme court, for leave to prove the same. The application and proof shall be made in the mode and manner, and under such regulations as that court may prescribe; and the bill, when proven, must be certified by the Chief Justice, or, in his absence or inability to act, by one of the Associate Justices, to be correct, and filed with the Clerk of the court in which the action was tried, and when so filed it shall have the same force and effect as if settled by the Judge who tried the cause. If the Judge who presided at the trial ceases to hold office before the bill is tendered or settled, he may nevertheless settle such bill, or, in the event of his failure or refusal to do so, either party may, as provided in this section, apply to the supreme court for leave to prove the same. As amended, Stats. 1885, 46.

SUPREME COURT HAS NO POWER TO SETTLE STATEMENT EXCEPT BY STATUTE. State v. Warren, 18 Nev. 459.

When to Be Filed.

4390. SEC. 425. The bill of exceptions must be filed with the Clerk of the Court as soon as it is signed by the Judge.

Written Charges.

4391. SEC. 426. When any written charge has been presented and given, or refused, the question or questions presented in such charge need not be excepted to, nor embodied in a bill of exceptions, but the written charge itself, with the indorsement showing the action of the court, shall form part of the record, and any error in the decision of the court thereon may be taken advantage of on appeal in like manner as if presented in a bill of exceptions.

SECTION 426 DOES NOT APPLY TO CHARGE GIVEN BY COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION. State v. Forsha, 8 Nev. 137; State v. Burns, 8 Nev. 251; State v. Rover, 11 Nev. 343; State v. Ah Mook, 12 Nev. 369.

New Trial.

4392. SEC. 427. A new trial is a reëxamination of the issue in the same court before another jury, after a verdict has been given. It places the parties in the same condition as if no trial had been had. All the testimony must be produced anew, and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in evidence or in argument.

Power to Grant New Trial.

4393. SEC. 428. The court in which a trial is had upon the issue of fact, has power to grant a new trial where a verdict has been rendered against the defendant upon his application, in the following cases only: First—When the trial has been had in his absence, if the indictment be for felony. Second—When the jury has received any evidence out of court other than that resulting from a view, as provided in section three hundred and seventy-seven. Third—When the jury has separated without leave of the court, after retiring to deliberate upon their verdict, or been guilty of any misconduct tending to prevent a fair and due consideration of the case. Fourth—When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by any means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors. Fifth—When the court has misdirected the jury in a matter of law. Sixth—When the verdict is contrary to law or evidence. But no more than two trials shall be granted for this cause alone. As amended, Stats. 1869, 67.

1. AFFIDAVIT FOR NEW TRIAL IN CRIMINAL CASES. The first, second, third, and fourth grounds for new trial in criminal cases, under Section 428, may be presented simply by affidavit, without either statement or bill of exceptions. State v. Stanley, 4 Nev. 71.
2. DISQUALIFICATION OF JUROR—WHEN NOT GROUND FOR NEW TRIAL. The fact that after a verdict of guilty has been rendered, the accused ascertains for the first time that before the jury was impaneled a juror had formed and expressed an opinion as to his guilt, is not a ground for a new trial. State v. Marks, 15 Nev. 33.
3. GROUNDS FOR NEW TRIAL—RECEIVING EVIDENCE OUT OF COURT. When the jury arrived at the premises, they found a person who had never been sworn as a witness in the case. This person, in response to questions addressed him by members of the jury, pointed out to the jury all the special features of the premises: Held, a violation of the statute and a denial of the right of the defendant to be confronted with the witnesses against him. State v. Lopez, 15 Nev. 409.

Application, When Made.

4394. SEC. 429. The application for a new trial must be made before the judgment is entered in the cause.

Motion in Arrest of Judgment.

4395. SEC. 430. A motion in arrest of judgment is an application on the part of the defendant that no judgment be rendered on a plea or verdict of guilty, or a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal. It may be founded on any of the defects of the indictment mentioned in section two hundred and ninety-four. As amended, Stats. 1875, 119.

Judgment Arrested.

4396. SEC. 431. The court may also, on its own view of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion.

When Motion Made.

4397. SEC. 432. The motion must be made before or at the time when the defendant is called for judgment.

Effect of Allowance.

4398. SEC. 433. The effect of allowing a motion in arrest of judgment is to place the defendant in the same situation in which he was before the indictment was found.

MOTION IN ARREST OF JUDGMENT. A motion in arrest of judgment can only be sustained upon the ground that the court has no jurisdiction over the subject of the indictment, or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offense. State v. O'Connor, 11 Nev. 416.

Proceedings After Allowance of Arrest of Judgment.

4399. SEC. 434. If, from the evidence on the trial, there is reasonable ground to believe the defendant guilty, and a new indictment can be framed upon which he may be convicted, the court may order him to be recommitted to the officers of the proper county, or admitted to bail anew to answer the new indictment. If the evidence show him guilty of another offense, he shall be committed or held thereon, and in neither case shall the verdict be a bar to another prosecution or indictment. But if no evidence appear sufficient to charge him with any offense, he shall, if in custody, be discharged; or, if admitted to bail, his bail shall be exonerated; or, if money have been deposited instead of bail, it shall be refunded to the defendant, and the arrest of judgment shall operate as an acquittal of the charge upon which the indictment was founded.

*8—Judgment and Execution.Time for Pronouncing Judgment.

4400. SEC. 435. After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant, on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, if the judgment be not arrested or a new trial granted, the court shall appoint a time for pronouncing judgment.

What Time to Be Appointed.

4401. SEC. 436. The time appointed shall be at least two days after the verdict, if the court intend to remain in session so long; or, if not, as remote a time as can reasonably be allowed. But in no case shall judgment be rendered in less than six hours after the verdict.

Presence of Defendant.

4402. SEC. 437. For the purpose of judgment, if the conviction be for a felony, the defendant must be personally present; if it be for misdemeanor, judgment may be pronounced in his absence.

Defendant Brought Into Court.

4403. SEC. 438. When the defendant is convicted of a felony, if he be in custody, the court may direct the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before it for judgment, and the officer shall do so accordingly.

Failing to Appear.

4404. SEC. 439. If the defendant have been discharged on bail, or have deposited money instead thereof, and do not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the Clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

Bench Warrant Issued to Several Counties.

4405. SEC. 440. The Clerk, on the application of the District Attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant into one or more counties.

Form of Bench Warrant.

4406. SEC. 441. The bench warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

County of----- The People of the United States of the Territory of Nevada, to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this territory: A. B. having been on the-----day of-----, A. D. 18--, duly convicted in the district court of the district of-----, of the crime of [designating it generally]; you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named A. B. and bring him before that court for judgment, or if the court have adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the Sheriff of the county of----- Given under my hand with the seal of said court affixed, this the---- day of-----, A. D. 18-- By order of the court. [Seal.] E. F., Clerk.

How Served.

4407. SEC. 442. The bench warrant may be served in any county, in the same manner as a warrant of arrest, except that when served in another county it need not be indorsed by a magistrate of that county.

Arrest of Defendant.

4408. SEC. 443. Whether the bench warrant be served in the county in which it was issued, or in another county, the officer shall arrest the defendant and bring him before the court, or commit him to the officer mentioned in the warrant, according to the command thereof.

Proceedings on Judgment.

4409. SEC. 444. When the defendant appears for judgment, he shall be informed by the court, or by the Clerk under its direction, of the nature of the indictment, and of his plea, and the verdict, if any there are, and shall be asked whether he have any legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

Causes Against Judgment.

4410. SEC. 445. He may show, for cause against the judgment: First—That he is insane; and if, in the opinion of the court, there be reasonable grounds for believing him to be insane, the question of his insanity shall be tried, as provided in sections five hundred and seventy-two to five hundred and seventy-five, both inclusive. If, upon the trial of that question, the jury find that he is of sound mind, judgment shall be pronounced; but, if they find him insane, he shall be committed to the custody of some proper and suitable person until he become sane, and when notice is given of that fact, as provided in section five hundred and seventy-nine, he shall be brought before the court for judgment. Second—That he has good cause to offer, either in arrest of judgment or for a new trial; in which case the court may, in its discretion, order the judgment to be deferred, and proceed to decide upon the motion in arrest of judgment or for a new trial.

Rendition of Judgment.

4411. SEC. 446. If no sufficient cause be alleged or appear to the court why judgment should not be pronounced, it shall thereupon be rendered.

1. CLERK SHOULD PUT JUDGMENT IN FORM. When adopted by court, it is part of record. Ex Parte Salge, 1 Nev. 449.
2. NO VALID JUDGMENT EXCEPT AT PRESCRIBED TIME AND PLACE. It is indispensable to the validity of a judgment that it be rendered at the time and place prescribed by law. State v. Roberts, 8 Nev. 239.
3. JUDGMENT, WHEN NOT VOID. A judgment which does not specify any time for the imprisonment to commence is not void. The better practice is not to fix the commencement of the term, but merely to state its duration and place of confinement. State v. Smith, 19 Nev. 107.

Two or More Offenses.

4412. SEC. 447. If the defendant have been convicted of two or more offenses before judgment on either, the judgment may be that the imprisonment upon any one may commence at the expiration of the imprisonment upon any other of the offenses.

May Order Imprisonment.

4413. SEC. 448. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine be satisfied, specifying the extent of the imprisonment, which shall not exceed one day for every two dollars of the fine, or in that proportion.

Lien of Judgment.

4414. SEC. 449. A judgment that the defendant shall pay a fine shall constitute a lien in like manner as a judgment for money rendered in a civil action.

STATUTES APPLICABLE TO CASES OF CONTEMPT. The provisions of Section 449, and of the "Act in relation to fines," apply to all cases of contempt, when criminal, as well as other misdemeanors. Ex Parte Sweeney, 18 Nev. 74.

Entry of Judgment—What to State.

4415. SEC. 450. When judgment upon a conviction is rendered, the Clerk shall enter the same in the minutes, stating briefly the offense for which the conviction has been had, and shall, within five days, annex together and file the following papers, which shall constitute the record of the action: First—A copy of the minutes of any challenge which may have been interposed by the defendant to the panel of the grand jury, or to any individual grand juror, and the proceedings thereon. Second—The indictment and a copy of the minutes of the plea of, or demurrer. Third—A copy of the minutes of any challenge which may have interposed to the panel of the trial jury, or an individual juror, and the proceedings thereon. Fourth—A copy of the minutes of the trial. Fifth—A copy of the minutes of the judgment. Sixth—The bill of exceptions, if there be one. Seventh—The written charges asked of the court, if there be any.

1. DUTY OF CLERK IN PREPARING RECORD. The papers that constitute the record or judgment roll in a criminal case, are specified in Section 450, and it is the duty of the Clerk to fasten them together and file them within five days after the entry of a judgment of conviction. State v. Ah Mook, 12 Nev. 369.

2. RECORD IN CRIMINAL CASE. The record in a criminal case consists only of such matter as is required by Sections 450 and 480. State v. Rover, 13 Nev. 17.

Authority for Execution.

4416. SEC. 451. When a judgment has been pronounced, a certified copy of the entry thereof in the minutes shall be forthwith furnished to the officer whose duty it is to execute the judgment, and no other warrant or authority is necessary to justify or require the execution thereof, except when judgment of death is rendered.

Execution for Fine.

4417. SEC. 452. If the judgment be for a fine alone, execution may be issued thereon as on a judgment in a civil action.

For Imprisonment.

4418. SEC. 453. If the judgment be imprisonment, or a fine and imprisonment until it be satisfied, the defendant shall forthwith be committed to the custody of the proper officer, and by him detained until the judgment be complied with.

Execution of Death Sentence.

4419. SEC. 454. When judgment of death is rendered, a warrant, signed by the Judge and attested by the Clerk, under the seal of the court, shall be drawn and delivered to the Sheriff; it shall state the conviction and judgment, and appoint a day on which the judgment shall be executed, which shall not be more than sixty days from the time of the judgment.

DEATH PENALTY—TIME OF EXECUTION FIXED BY WARRANT. Under the criminal law it is the warrant and not the judgment, which fixes the time for executing the death sentence; and the court may at any time issue the warrant in due form of law. State v. Summers, 9 Nev. 269.

Transmitted to Governor.

4420. SEC. 455. The Judge of the court at which a conviction requiring judgment of death shall have been had, shall immediately after the conviction transmit to the Governor, by mail or otherwise, a statement of the conviction and judgment, and of the testimony given at the trial.

Opinion of Supreme Court.

4421. SEC. 456. The Governor may thereupon require the opinion of the Justices of the Supreme Court and the Attorney-General, or any of them, upon the statement so furnished.

Suspension of Judgment of Death.

4422. SEC. 457. No Judge, court, or officer other than the Governor, can suspend the execution of a judgment of death, except the Sheriff, as provided in the seven succeeding sections, unless an appeal be taken. When an appeal has been taken from a judgment of death, the appellate court, and any Judge thereof in vacation, may suspend the execution until the appeal is heard and determined.

Inquiry Into Sanity.

4423. SEC. 458. If after judgment of death there be good reason to suppose that the defendant has become insane, the Sheriff of the county, with the concurrence of the Judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, may summon a jury of twelve persons to inquire into the supposed insanity, and shall give immediate notice thereof to the District Attorney.

Proceedings of Inquisition.

4424. SEC. 459. The District Attorney shall attend the inquisition and may produce witnesses before the jury, for which purpose he may issue process in the same manner as for witnesses to attend before the grand jury, and disobedience thereto may be punished in like manner as disobedience to process issued by that court.

Certificate of Inquisition.

4425. SEC. 460. A certificate of the inquisition shall be signed by the jurors and the Sheriff, and filed with the Clerk of the court in which the conviction was had.

Proceedings of Inquisition.

4426. SEC. 461. If it be found by the inquisition that the defendant is sane, the Sheriff shall execute the judgment; but if it be found that he is insane, the Sheriff shall suspend the execution of the judgment until he receive a warrant from the Governor or from the Judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, directing execution of the judgment.

Effect of Finding.

4427. SEC. 462. If the inquisition find that the defendant is insane, the Sheriff shall immediately transmit the same to the Governor, who may, when the defendant becomes sane, issue a warrant appointing a day for the execution of the judgment.

Inquiry Into Pregnancy of Female Convict.

4428. SEC. 463. If there be good reason to suppose that a female, against whom a judgment of death is rendered, is pregnant, the Sheriff of the county, with the concurrence of the Judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, may summon a jury of three physicians to inquire into the supposed pregnancy; immediate notice thereof shall be given to the District Attorney, and the provisions of sections four hundred and fifty-nine and four hundred and sixty shall govern the proceedings upon the inquisition.

Effect of Finding.

4429. SEC. 464. If it be found by the inquisition that such female is not pregnant, the Sheriff shall execute the judgment. If it be found that she is pregnant, the Sheriff shall suspend the execution of the judgment, and transmit the inquisition to the Governor.

Governor May Order Execution.

4430. SEC. 465. When the Governor is satisfied that such female is no longer pregnant, he may issue his warrant appointing a day for the execution of the judgment.

Judgment of Death Not Executed.

4431. SEC. 466. If for any reason a judgment of death shall not have been executed, and the same remain in force, the court in which the conviction was had, on the application of the District Attorney, shall order the defendant to be brought before it, or if he be at large, a warrant for his apprehension may be issued. Amended - p 425 - St 1907

Execution of Judgment.

4432. SEC. 467. Upon the defendant being brought before the court, it shall inquire into the facts, and if no legal reason exist against the execution of the judgment, shall make an order to the Sheriff of the proper county to execute the judgment at the time specified therein, and the Sheriff shall execute the judgment accordingly. Amended - p 425 - St 1907

Death Penalty, How Inflicted.

4433. SEC. 468. The punishment of death shall be inflicted by hanging the defendant by the neck until he be dead, within the inclosed limits of the jail, and when such inclosure does not exist, so as to screen the execution from public gaze, a suitable and efficient inclosure shall be provided by the County Commissioners of the county in which the execution takes place. As amended, Stats, 1875, 53.

9—Appeal.

To and From What Courts.

4434. SEC. 469. The party aggrieved in a criminal action, whether that party be the people or the defendant, may appeal as follows: First—To the probate court of the county from a final judgment of the justice's court. Second—To the supreme court from a final judgment of the district court in all criminal cases. Also, from an order of the district court allowing a demurrer granting or refusing a new trial.

1. JURISDICTION OF SUPREME COURT—CRIMINAL CASES—APPEAL. In construing Art. VI., Sec. 4, of the constitution: Held, that the right of appeal in criminal cases is restricted to cases where the punishment adjudged is a sentence to confinement in the state prison, or to death. State v. McCormick, 14 Nev. 347; State v. Quinn, 16 Nev. 89.
2. MANNER OF CARRYING UP ALLEGED ERRORS ON APPEAL. Alleged errors in a charge or instruction can only be brought to the attention of the supreme court in one of three ways: Either by being embodied in a bill of exceptions, or in a settled statement, or indorsed by the Judge as provided by Section 426 of the Practice Act; and unless presented in one of these ways the supreme court will not notice them. State v. Darling, 4 Nev. 413.
3. APPEAL BY STATE—Bill of Exceptions Required. State v. Murphy, 21 Nev. 332.
4. JUDGMENT FINAL. An order of the district court quashing an indictment, discharging the defendant, and exonerating his bail, is a final judgment from which an appeal may be taken. State v. Logan, 1 Nev. 510.

5. APPEAL—INSUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE. A judgment in a criminal case will not be disturbed by the supreme court on the ground of insufficiency of the evidence, if there be any evidence tending to prove the allegations of the indictment. State v. McGinnis, 6 Nev. 109.
6. OBJECTION TO INDICTMENT IN APPELLATE COURT. An objection to an indictment on the grounds that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a public offense may be taken for the first time in the appellate court, and is not waived by a failure in the district court to make the point on demurrer or on motion in arrest of judgment. State v. Trolson, 2 Nev. 419.
7. APPEAL FROM NEW TRIAL ORDER—Too Late After Appeal From Judgment Disposed Of. State v. Summers, 9 Nev. 399.

Questions of Law.

4435. SEC. 470. The appeal to the supreme court from the district court can be taken in questions of law alone.

On Appeal.

4436. SEC. 471. The party appealing shall be known as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent.

Review.

4437. SEC. 472. Upon the appeal, any decision of the court in an intermediate order or proceeding, forming a part of the record, may be reviewed.

When Taken.

4438. SEC. 473. An appeal must be taken within three months after the judgment is rendered. As amended, Stats. 1875, 119; 1877, 53.

How Taken.

4439. SEC. 474. An appeal must be taken by the service of a notice in writing on the Clerk of the court in which the action was tried, stating that appellant appeals from the judgment.

Notice.

4440. SEC. 475. If the appeal be taken by the defendant, a similar notice must be served on the District Attorney.

Notice to Defendant.

4441. SEC. 476. If it be taken by the people, a similar notice must be served upon the defendant, if he be a resident of the district; or, if not, on the counsel, if any, who appear for him on trial, if he be living within the district. If such service, after due diligence, cannot be made, the appellate court, upon proof thereof, shall make an order for the publication of the notice in some newspaper, and for such time as it may deem proper.

Deemed Perfected.

4442. SEC. 477. At the expiration of the time appointed for the publication, on filing an affidavit of the publication, the appeal shall be deemed perfected.

Shall Not Affect Judgment.

4443. SEC. 478. An appeal taken by the state shall in no case stay or affect the operation of a judgment in favor of the defendant; provided, if the appeal by the state be from an order sustaining a demurrer to an indictment, and upon such appeal said order is reversed, the defendant shall thereupon be liable to arrest and trial upon said indictment. As amended, Stats. 1889, 24.

No Stay of Execution.

4444. SEC. 479. No appeal from a judgment of conviction, unless it be one imposing a fine only, shall stay the execution of the judgment, but the defendant, if in custody, shall remain in custody to abide the judgment upon the appeal, unless admitted to bail, as prescribed in section five hundred and two.

Record and Notice Transmitted—Time For.

4445. SEC. 480. Upon the appeal being taken, the Clerk with whom the notice of appeal is filed, must, within ten days thereafter, without charge, prepare and transmit to the Clerk of the Supreme Court a copy of the notice of appeal and of the record in said action, and if the appeal be by the state from an order sustaining a demurrer to an indictment, the Clerk shall within said time likewise prepare and forward a certified copy of the indictment, demurrer, order of the court sustaining said demurrer, and notice of appeal, which copy shall constitute the record on appeal. As amended, Stats. 1889, §4.

1. APPEAL FROM ORDER SUSTAINING DEMURRER TO INDICTMENT. State v. Fellows, 8 Nev. 311.

2. APPEAL FROM ORDER GRANTING NEW TRIAL—What Transcript on Appeal Must Show—Certificate of Clerk. State v. Stanley, 4 Nev. 71.

Dismissing Appeal.

4446. SEC. 481. If the appeal be irregular in any substantial particular, but not otherwise, the appellate court may, on a day in term, on motion of the respondent, upon five days' notice, with copies of the papers upon which the motion is founded, order the same to be dismissed.

Dismissal, When.

4447. SEC. 482. The court may, also, upon like motion, dismiss the appeal, if the return be not made as provided in section four hundred and eighty, unless for good cause it enlarge the time for that purpose.

Appeal, When Tried.

4448. SEC. 483. All appeals in criminal cases shall be tried and determined at the first term of the appellate court after the record is filed.

Proceedings.

4449. SEC. 484. Judgment of affirmance may be granted without argument, if the appellant fail to appear. But judgment of reversal can only be given upon argument, though the respondent fail to appear.

State v. Myatt, 10 Nev. 163; State v. Chin Wah, 12 Nev. 118.

Number of Counsel.

4450. SEC. 485. Upon the argument of the appeal, if the offense be punishable with death, two counsel shall be heard on each side, if they require it. In any other case the court may, in its discretion, restrict the argument to one counsel on each side.

Appellate Court.

4451. SEC. 486. The defendant need not appear in the appellate court.

Technical Errors.

4452. SEC. 487. After hearing the appeal, the court shall give judgment without regard to technical error or defect which do not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

Extent of Judgment.

4453. SEC. 488. The appellate court may reverse, affirm, or modify the judgment appealed from, and may, if necessary or proper, order a new trial.

NEW TRIAL—POWER OF COURT TO GRANT. Where the defendant in a criminal case is convicted and appeals, and the judgment is reversed: Held, that this court may order a new trial, although the defendant did not move for a new trial and denies the power of the court to grant it. State v. Rover, 10 Nev. 388.

New Trial.

4454. SEC. 489. When a new trial is ordered, it must be directed to be had in the court of the district from which the appeal was taken.

Reversal of Judgment.

4455. SEC. 490. If a judgment against the defendant be reversed, without ordering a new trial, the appellate court shall direct, if he be in custody, that he be discharged therefrom, or if he be admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if money be deposited instead of bail, that it be refunded to the defendant.

On Affirmance.

4456. SEC. 491. On a judgment of affirmance against the defendant, the original judgment shall be carried into execution, as the appellate court shall direct.

Judgment, How Entered.

4457. SEC. 492. When the judgment of the appellate court is given, it shall be entered in the minutes, and a certified copy of the entry shall be forthwith remitted to the Clerk of the court from which the appeal was taken.

Papers to Remain in Appellate Court.

4458. SEC. 493. The papers returned to the appellate court shall there remain of record, and shall not be remitted to the court below.

Orders After Remittitur.

4459. SEC. 494. After the certificate of judgment has been remitted, as provided in section four hundred and ninety-two, the appellate court shall have no further jurisdiction of the appeal, or of the proceedings thereon, and all orders which may be necessary to carry the judgment into effect shall be made by the court to which the certificate is remitted.

*10—Bail.Defined.

4460. SEC. 495. Admission to bail is the order of a competent court or magistrate that the defendant be discharged from actual custody upon the taking of bail.

Taking of Bail.

4461. SEC. 496. The taking of bail consists in the acceptance by a competent court or magistrate, of the recognizance of sufficient bail for the appearance of the defendant, according to the terms of the recognizance, or that the bail will pay to the people of the United States of the Territory of Nevada a specified sum.

Admission to Bail.

4462. SEC. 497. A person charged with an offense may be admitted to bail before conviction, as follows: First—As a matter of discretion in all cases where the punishment is death. Second—As a matter of right in all other cases.

When Not Admitted.

4463. SEC. 498. No person shall be admitted to bail where he is charged with an offense punishable with death, when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

1. MURDER—When Defendant Entitled to Release on Bail—Constitution and Statutes Construed. Ex Parte Finlen, 20 Nev. 141.
2. MURDER—ADMISSION TO BAIL. Court has right to hear testimony and decide for itself. Ex Parte Isbell, 11 Nev. 295.

Notice to District Attorney.

4464. SEC. 499. When the admission to bail is a matter of discretion, the court, or officer by whom it may be ordered, shall require such notice of the application therefor as he may deem reasonable to be given to the District Attorney of the county where the examination is had.

After Conviction.

4465. SEC. 500. After conviction of an offense not punishable with death, a defendant who has appealed may be admitted to bail: First—As a matter of right, where the appeal is from a judgment imposing a fine only. Second—As a matter of discretion in all other cases.

RECOGNIZANCE TAKEN TO STAY EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT BEFORE APPEAL, VOID. State v. Murphy, 23 Nev. 403.

Before Conviction.

4466. SEC. 501. Before conviction, a defendant may be admitted to bail: First—For his appearance before a magistrate, on the examination of the charge, before being held to answer. Second—To appear at the court to which the magistrate is required, by section one hundred and seventy-three, to return the depositions and statement upon the defendant being held to answer after examination. Third—After indictment, either before the bench warrant issued for his arrest, or upon an order of the court committing or enlarging the amount of bail, or upon his being surrendered by his bail to answer the indictment in the court in which it is found, or to which it may be sent or removed for trial.

Bail on Appeal.

4467. SEC. 502. After conviction, and upon an appeal, the defendant may be admitted to bail as follows: First—If the appeal be from a judgment imposing a fine only, or the recognizance of bail, that he will pay the same, or such part of it as the appellate court may direct, if the judgment be affirmed or modified, or the appeal be dismissed. Second—If judgment of imprisonment have been given, that he will surrender himself in execution of the judgment, upon its being affirmed or modified, or upon the appeal being dismissed.

SECTION CONSTRUED. State v. Murphy, 23 Nev. 400.

When Held to Answer.

4468. SEC. 503. When the defendant has been held to answer, as provided in section one hundred and sixty-one, the admission to bail may be by the magistrate by whom he is so held, or by any magistrate who has power to issue the writ of habeas corpus.

Bail, How Put In—Form of Recognizance.

4469. SEC. 504. Bail is put in by a written recognizance, executed by two sufficient sureties (with or without the defendant, in the discretion of the court or magistrate), and acknowledged before the court or magistrate in substantially the following form: "An order having been made on the ____ day of _____, A. D. 18__, by A. B., a Justice of the Peace of _____ county (or as the case may be), that C. D. be held to answer upon a charge of [stating briefly the nature of the offense], upon which he has been duly admitted to bail in the sum of _____ dollars, we, E. F. and G. H. [stating their place of residence], hereby undertake that the above named C. D. shall appear and answer the charge above mentioned, in whatever court it may be prosecuted, and shall at all times render himself amenable to the orders and process of the court, and, if convicted, shall appear for judgment and render himself in execution thereof, or, if he fail to perform either of these conditions, that we will pay to the State of Nevada the sum of _____ dollars [inserting the sum in which the defendant is admitted to bail]."

RECOGNIZANCE—"BRIEFLY STATING NATURE OF OFFENSE." A recognizance, which gives the name of the offense for which the principal is held, sufficiently complies with the statutory provision of "briefly stating the nature of the offense." State v. Birchim, 9 Nev. 95; State v. Murphy, 23 Nev. 398.

RECOGNIZANCE NOT IN STATUTORY FORM STILL HOLDS OBLIGORS. Id.

Qualifications of Bail.

4470. SEC. 505. The qualifications of bail are as follows: First—Each of them must be a resident, and a householder or freeholder within the territory; but the court or magistrate may refuse to accept any person as a bail who is not a resident of the district where the bail is offered. Second—They must each be worth the amount specified in the recognizance, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the court or magistrate, on taking bail, may allow more than two bail to justify severally in amounts less than that expressed in the recognizance, if the whole justification be equivalent to that of two sufficient bail.

Justification of Bail.

4471. SEC. 506. The bail shall, in all cases, justify by affidavit, taken before the court or magistrate, as the case may be. The affidavit must state that they each possess the qualifications provided in section five hundred and five.

Examination of Bail.

4472. SEC. 507. The court or magistrate may thereupon further examine the bail, upon oath, concerning their sufficiency, in such manner as the court or magistrate may deem proper.

Indictment Before Conviction.

4473. SEC. 508. When the offense charged in the indictment is not capital, the officer serving the bench warrant shall, if required, take the defendant before a magistrate in the county in which it is issued, or in which he is arrested, for the purpose of giving bail, as prescribed in sections two hundred and sixty-two and two hundred and sixty-five.

Delivered Into Custody.

4474. SEC. 509. If the offense charged in this indictment be capital, the officer arresting the defendant shall deliver him into custody, according to the command of the bench warrant, as prescribed in section two hundred and sixty.

To Be Held by Sheriff.

4475. SEC. 510. When the defendant is so delivered into custody, he shall be held by the Sheriff, unless admitted to bail on examination, upon a writ of habeas corpus.

Bail, How Put In—Recognizance, Form Of.

4476. SEC. 511. The bail must be paid in by a written recognizance, executed by two sufficient sureties (with or without the defendant, in the discretion of the court or magistrate), and acknowledged before the court or magistrate, in substantially the following form:

An indictment having been found, on the ____ day of _____ A. D. eighteen hundred and ____, in the court of the district of _____ (as the case may be), charging A. B. with the crime of [designating it generally], and he having been duly admitted to bail in the sum of _____ dollars, we, C. D. and E. F. [stating their place of residence], hereby undertake that the above named A. B. shall appear and answer the indictment above mentioned, in whatever court it may be prosecuted, and shall at all times render himself amenable to the orders and processes of the court, and, if convicted, shall appear, for judgment and render himself in execution thereof; or, if he fail to perform either of these conditions, that we will pay to the State of Nevada the sum of _____ dollars [inserting the sum in which the defendant is admitted to bail].

Qualifications of Bail.

4477. SEC. 512. The provisions contained in sections five hundred and five and five hundred and seven, both inclusive, in relation to bail, shall apply to the qualifications of the bail, and to all the proceedings respecting the putting in and justifying of bail, and incident thereto.

Bail on Appeal.

4478. SEC. 513. In the cases in which the defendant may be admitted to bail, upon an appeal, as provided in section five hundred, the order admitting him to bail may be made by any magistrate having the power to issue a writ of habeas corpus.

Notice of Application.

4479. SEC. 514. When the admission to bail is a matter of discretion, the court or officer by whom it may be ordered shall require such notice of the application therefor as he may deem reasonable to be given to the District Attorney of the county in which the verdict or judgment was originally rendered.

Recognizance.

4480. SEC. 515. The bail must possess the qualifications, and must be put in in all respects as above provided, except that the condition of the recognizance shall be to the effect that the defendant will in all respects abide the orders and judgment of the appellate court upon the appeal.

Deposit in Lieu of Bail.

4481. SEC. 516. The defendant, at any time after an order admitting him to bail, instead of giving bail, may deposit with the Clerk of the court in which he is held to answer, the sum mentioned in the order, and upon delivering to the officer in whose custody he is, a certificate of the deposit, he shall be discharged from custody.

In Exoneration of Bail.

4482. SEC. 517. If the defendant have given bail, he may, at any time before the forfeiture of the recognizance, in like manner deposit the sum mentioned in the recognizance, and upon the deposit being made, the bail shall be exonerated.

How Applied.

4483. SEC. 518. When money has been deposited, if it remain on deposit at the time of a judgment for the payment of a fine, the Clerk shall, under the direction of the court, apply the money in satisfaction thereof, and after satisfying the fine and costs, shall refund the surplus, if any, to the defendant.

Bail May Surrender.

4484. SEC. 519. At any time before the forfeiture of their recognizance, the bail may surrender the defendant in their exoneration, or he may surrender himself to the officer to whose custody he was committed at the time of giving bail, in the following manner:

Detention of Defendant.

4485. SEC. 520. A certified copy of the recognizance of bail shall be delivered to the officer, who shall detain the defendant in his custody thereon as upon a commitment, and shall, by a certificate in writing, acknowledge the surrender. Second—Upon a recognizance and a certificate of the officer, the court in which the action is pending may, upon notice of five days to the District Attorney of the district, with a copy of the recognizance and certificate, order that the bail be exonerated, and on filing the order and the papers used on the application, they shall be exonerated accordingly.

Bail May Arrest.

4486. SEC. 521. For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the bail, at any time before they are finally discharged, and at any place within the state, may themselves arrest him, or by a written authority, indorsed on a certified copy of the recognizance, may empower any person of suitable age and discretion to do so.

Return of Deposit on Surrender.

4487. SEC. 522. If money have been deposited instead of bail, and the defendant, at any time before the forfeiture thereof, shall surrender himself to the officer to whom the commitment was directed, in the manner provided in the last two sections, the court shall order a return of the deposit to the defendant, upon producing the certificate to the officer, showing the surrender, and upon a notice of five days to the District Attorney, with a copy of the certificate.

Recognizance Declared Forfeited, When.

4488. SEC. 523. If without sufficient excuse the defendant neglect to appear for arraignment, or for trial or judgment, or upon any other occasion, when his presence in court may be lawfully required, or to surrender himself in execution of the judgment, the court shall direct the fact to be entered upon its minutes, and the recognizance, or the money deposited instead of bail, as the case may be, shall thereupon be declared forfeited.

Not Necessary to Call Defendant Before Forfeiture of Bail. State v. Murphy, 23 Nev. 401.

Discharge of Forfeiture.

4489. SEC. 524. If at any time before the final adjournment of the court, the defendant appear and satisfactorily excuse his neglect, the court may direct the forfeiture of the recognizance or the deposit to be discharged upon such terms as may be just.

Action on Recognizance.

4490. SEC. 525. If the forfeiture be not discharged as provided in the last section, the District Attorney may, at any time after the adjournment of the court proceed by action only against the bail upon their recognizance.

Payment of Deposit.

4491. SEC. 526. If by reason of the neglect of the defendant to appear, as provided in section five hundred and twenty-three, money deposited instead of bail is forfeited, and the forfeiture be not discharged or remitted as provided in section five hundred and twenty-four, the Clerk with whom it is deposited shall immediately after the final adjournment of the court pay over the money deposited to the County Treasurer.

Recommitted After Bail.

4492. SEC. 527. The court to which the committing magistrate shall return the depositions and statement, or in which an indictment or an appeal is pending, or to which a judgment on appeal is remitted to be carried into effect, may, by an order to be entered on its minutes, direct the arrest of the defendant and his commitment to the officer to whose custody he was committed at the time of giving bail, and his detention until legally discharged, in the following cases: First—When, by reason of his failure to appear, he has incurred a forfeiture of his bail, or of money deposited instead thereof, as provided in section five hundred and twenty-three. Second—When it satisfactorily appears to the court that his bail, or either of them, are dead, or insufficient, or have removed from the state. Third—Upon an indictment being found in the cases provided in section two hundred and sixty-six.

Order of Recommitment.

4493. SEC. 528. The order for the recommitment of the defendant shall recite generally the facts upon which it is founded, and shall direct that the defendant be arrested by any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman within this state, and committed to the custody of the Sheriff of the county where the depositions and statement were returned, or the indictment was found, or the conviction was had, as the case may be, to be detained until legally discharged.

Arrest on Such Order.

4494. SEC. 529. The defendant may be arrested pursuant to the order, upon a certified copy thereof, in any county, in the same manner as upon a warrant of arrest, except that when arrested in another county the order need not be indorsed by a magistrate of that county.

Commitment of Defendant.

4495. SEC. 530. If the order recite, as the grounds upon which it is made, the failure of the defendant to appear for judgment upon conviction, the defendant must be committed according to the requirement of the order.

Amount of Bail Specified.

4496. SEC. 531. If the order be made for any other cause, and the offense be bailable, the court may fix the amount of bail, and may cause a direction to be inserted in the order that the defendant be admitted to bail in the sum affixed, which shall be specified in the order.

Who May Take Bail.

4497. SEC. 532. When the defendant is admitted to bail, the bail may be taken by any magistrate in the county having authority in a similar case to admit the bail upon the holding of the defendant to answer before indictment, as prescribed in section five hundred and three, or by any other magistrate to be designated by the court.

Form of Recognizance on Recommitment.

4498. SEC. 533. When bail is taken upon the recommitment of the defendant, the recognizance shall be in substantially the following form: "An order having been made on the ____ day of _____, A. D. 18__, by the court [naming it], that A. B. be admitted to bail in the sum of _____ dollars, in an action pending in that court against him, in behalf of the people of the State of Nevada, upon an [information, presentment, indictment or appeal, as the case may be], we, C. D. and E. F., of [stating their place of residence], hereby undertake that the above named A. B. shall appear in that or any other court in which his appearance may be lawfully required upon that [information, presentment, indictment, or appeal, as the case may be], and shall at all times render himself amenable to its orders and processes, and appear for judgment, and surrender himself in execution thereof; or if he fail to perform either of these conditions, that we will pay to the people of the State of Nevada the sum of _____ dollars [inserting the sum in which the defendant is admitted to bail.]"

Qualifications of Bail.

4499. SEC. 534. The bail must possess the qualifications, and must be put in in all respects in the manner heretofore prescribed.

V—MISCELLANEOUS PROCEEDINGS.

1—Compelling Witnesses to Attend.

Subpena.

4500. SEC. 535. The process by which the attendance of a witness before a court or magistrate is required, is a subpena.

Who May Issue Subpenas.

4501. SEC. 536. A magistrate before whom an information is laid, or a District Judge before whom proceedings by indictment or information is being tried, may issue subpoenas subscribed by them for witnesses within the State of Nevada, either on behalf of the state or of the defendant; and when it is necessary to have a person imprisoned in the state prison brought before any district court, or a person imprisoned in the county jail brought before a district court sitting in another county, an order for that purpose may be made by the district court, or District Judge, at chambers, and executed by the Sheriff of the county when it is made; such order can only be made on motion of a party upon affidavit showing the nature of the action or proceeding, the testimony expected from the witness, and its materiality. As amended, Stats. 1881, 84.

District Attorney May Issue.

4502. SEC. 537. The District Attorney may issue subpoenas, subscribed by him, for witnesses within the state, in support of the prosecution, or for such other witnesses as the grand jury may direct to appear before the grand jury, upon any investigation pending before them.

Subpenas for Witnesses.

4503. SEC. 538. The District Attorney may, in like manner, issue subpoenas subscribed by him, for witnesses within the state, in support of an indictment, to appear before the court at which it is to be tried.

Clerk to Issue Subpenas to Defendant.

4504. SEC. 539. The Clerk of the court at which an indictment is to be tried, shall at all times, upon the application of the defendant, and without charge, issue as many blank subpoenas, subscribed by him as Clerk, for witnesses within the territory, as may be required by the defendant.

Form of Subpena.

4505. SEC. 540. A subpena authorized by the last four sections shall be substantially in the following form: The State of Nevada to A. B.: You are commanded to appear before C. D., a Justice of the Peace of ----- township, in ----- county (or, the court of -----, as the case may be), at [naming the place], on [stating the day and hour], as a witness in a criminal action, prosecuted by the State of Nevada against E. F. Given under my hand this ---- day of -----, A. D. 18--. G. H., Justice of the Peace (or J. B., District Attorney, or "By order of the court, L. M., Clerk," as the case may be).

Books and Papers Ordered Produced.

4506. SEC. 541. If books, papers, or documents be required, a direction to the following effect shall be contained in the subpena: And you are required also to bring with you the following [describing intelligibly the books, papers, or documents required].

How Served.

4507. SEC. 542. A peace officer must serve within his county or district any subpena delivered to him for service, either on the part of the people or of the defendant, and must make a written return of the service, subscribed by him, stating the time and place of service, without delay.

SERVICE OF SUBPENA NOT AUTHORIZED IN ANOTHER COUNTY UNLESS IN SAME JUDICIAL DISTRICT. Washoe Co. v. Humboldt Co., 14 Nev. 123.

Service of Subpena.

4508. SEC. 543. The service of the subpena shall be by showing the original to the witness personally, and informing him of the contents.

Payment of Witnesses Out of County.

4509. SEC. 544. When a person shall attend before a magistrate, grand jury, or court, as a witness on behalf of the people, upon a subpena, or by virtue of a recognizance, and it shall appear that he has come from any place out of the county, or that he is poor, the court, if the attendance of the witness be upon a trial, by an order upon its minutes, or in any other case, the District Judge, by an order subscribed by him, may direct the Treasurer of the county to pay the witness a reasonable sum, to be specified in the order, for his expenses.

Payment of Witnesses.

4510. SEC. 545. Upon the production of the order, or a certified copy thereof, the County Treasurer shall pay the witness the sum specified therein, out of any fund in the county treasury not otherwise specially appropriated or set apart. It shall not be necessary for such order to be presented to the Board of County Commissioners or Auditor. As amended, Stats. 1869, 61.

Attendance Out of County.

4511. SEC. 546. No person shall be obliged to attend as a witness before any court or Judge out of the district where the witness resides, or is served with the subpena, unless a Judge of the court in which the offense is triable, or a Justice of the Supreme Court, upon an affidavit of the District Attorney, or prosecutor, or of the defendant, or his counsel, stating that he believes the evidence of the witness is material, and his attendance at the examination or trial necessary, shall indorse on the subpena an order for the attendance of the witness.

Disobedience.

4512. SEC. 547. Disobedience to a subpena, or a refusal to be sworn, or to answer as a witness, may be punished by the court or magistrate as a contempt.

Forfeited.

4513. SEC. 548. Where a witness has entered into a recognizance to appear, as provided in section one hundred and sixty-seven, upon his failure so to do, his recognizance shall be forfeited, in the same manner as recognizances of bail.

Fine for Disobedience.

4514. SEC. 549. A witness disobeying a subpoena issued on the part of a defendant, shall also forfeit to the defendant the sum of one hundred dollars, which may be recovered in a civil action, unless good cause can be shown for his non-attendance.

2—Testimony Taken by Commission.Before or After Indictment.

4515. SEC. 550. When a defendant has been held to answer a charge for a public offense, he may, either before or after indictment, have witnesses examined on his behalf, as prescribed in this Act, and not otherwise.

Commission.

4516. SEC. 551. When a material witness for the defendant is about to leave the state, or resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, and his or her place of abode is known, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he or she will be unable to attend the trial, the defendant may apply for an order that the witness be examined conditionally on a commission. As amended, Stats. 1879, 64.

Commission Directed.

4517. SEC. 552. A commission is a process issued under the seal of the court and the signature of the Clerk, directed to some person designated as Commissioner, authorizing him to examine the witness upon oath, on interrogations annexed thereto, to take and certify the deposition of the witness, and return it according to the directions given in the commission.

Who Qualified to Be Commissioner.

4518. SEC. 553. The Commissioner shall be either a District Judge, County Clerk, or Notary Public of the district to which the commission is issued.

Applications for Commission.

4519. SEC. 554. The application must be made upon affidavit showing: First—The nature of the offense charged. Second—The state of the proceedings in the action. Third—The name of the witness, and that his or her testimony is material to the defense of the action. Fourth—That the witness is about to leave the state, or resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, naming his or her place of abode, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he or she will not be able to attend the trial. As amended, Stats. 1879, 64.

When Made.

4520. SEC. 555. The application may be made to the court during the term, or to the Judge in vacation, and must be upon three days' notice to the District Attorney.

When Granted.

4521. SEC. 556. If the court or Judge to whom the application is made be satisfied of the truth of the facts stated, and that the examination of the witness is necessary to the attainment of justice, an order shall be made that a commission be issued to take his testimony.

Stay of Proceedings.

4522. SEC. 557. If the application for a commission be granted, the court or Judge may insert in the order therefor a direction that the trial of the indictment be stayed for a specified time, reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission.

Notice.

4523. SEC. 558. When the commission is ordered, the defendant must serve upon the District Attorney, without delay, a copy of the interrogatories to be annexed thereto, with two days' notice of the time at which they will be presented to the court or Judge.

Cross Interrogatories.

4524. SEC. 559. The District Attorney may, in like manner, serve upon the defendant, or his counsel, cross interrogatories, to be annexed to the commission with like notice.

Questions Inserted.

4525. SEC. 560. In the interrogatories, either party may insert any question pertinent to the issue.

Allowance of Questions.

4526. SEC. 561. When the interrogatories and cross interrogatories are presented to the court or Judge, according to the notice given, the court or Judge shall modify the questions so as to conform them to the rules of evidence, and shall indorse upon them his allowance, and annex them to the commission.

Direction to Execute Commission.

4527. SEC. 562. Unless the parties otherwise consent by an indorsement on the commission, the court or Judge shall indorse thereon a direction as to the manner in which it shall be returned, and may, in his discretion, direct that it be returned by mail, or otherwise, addressed to the Clerk of the court in which the action is pending.

Commission, How Executed.

4528. SEC. 563. The Commissioner, unless otherwise specially directed, may execute the commission as follows: First—He shall publicly administer an oath to the witness that his answers given to the interrogatories shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Second—He shall cause the examination of the witness to be reduced to writing. Third—He shall write the answers of the witness as near as possible in the language he gives them, and shall read to him each answer as it is taken down, and correct or add to it until it is made conformable to what he declares is the truth. Fourth—If the witness decline answering a question, that fact, with the reason for which he declines answering it, as he gives it, must be stated. Fifth—If any papers or documents are produced before him, and proved by the witness, they shall be annexed to his deposition and be subscribed by the witness, and certified by the Commissioner. Sixth—The Commissioner shall subscribe his name to each sheet of the deposition, and annex the deposition with the papers and documents proved by the witness to the commission, and must close up under seal, and address the same as directed on the commission. Seventh—If there be a direction on the commission to return it by mail, the Commissioner shall immediately deposit it in the nearest postoffice. If any other direction be made by the written consent of the parties, or by the court or Judge on the commission as to its return, he must comply with the direction.

What to Annex.

4529. SEC. 564. A copy of the last section must be annexed to the commission.

Return of Commission.

4530. SEC. 565. If the commission and return be delivered by the Commissioner to an agent, he must deliver the same to the Clerk to whom it is directed, or to the Judge of the court in which the indictment is pending, by whom it may be received and opened, upon the agent making affidavit that he received it from the hand of the Commissioner, and that it has not been opened or altered since he received it.

When Agent Unable to Deliver.

4531. SEC. 566. If the agent be dead, or from sickness or other casualty unable personally to deliver the commission and return as prescribed in the last section, it may be received by the Clerk or Judge from any other person, upon his making an affidavit that he received it from the agent; that the agent is dead, or from sickness or other casualty unable to deliver it; that it has not been opened or altered since the person making the affidavit received it; and that he believes it has not been opened or altered since it came from the hand of the Commissioner.

Filing of Commission.

4532. SEC. 567. The Clerk or Judge receiving and opening the commission and return, must immediately file it with the affidavit mentioned in the last two sections, in the office of the Clerk of the court in which the indictment is pending.

By Return Mail.

4533. SEC. 568. If the commission and return be transmitted by mail, the Clerk to whom it is addressed must receive it from the postoffice, and open and file it in his office, where it shall remain, unless the court otherwise direct.

Open for Inspection.

4534. SEC. 569. The commission and return shall be at all times open to the inspection of the parties, who shall be furnished by the Clerk with copies of the same, or of such part thereof as they may require, on the payment of his fees.

Evidence for Either Party.

4535. SEC. 570. The depositions taken under the commission may be read in evidence by defendant on the trial, upon it being shown that the witness is unable to attend from any cause whatever, and the same objections may be taken to any questions in the interrogatories, or to any answer in the deposition, as if the witness had been examined orally in court.

§—Inquiry Into the Insanity of the Defendant Before Trial or After Conviction.

Insanity Excuses Crime.

4536. SEC. 571. An act done by a person in a state of insanity cannot be punished as a public offense, nor can a person be tried, adjudged to punishment, or punished, for a public offense, while he is insane.

Inquiry as to Sanity.

4537. SEC. 572. When an indictment is called for trial, or upon conviction the defendant is brought up for judgment, if a doubt shall arise as to the sanity of the defendant, the court shall order the question to be submitted to the regular jury, or may order a jury to be summoned as prescribed in section three hundred and thirty-four, to inquire into the fact.

Trial Suspended.

4538. SEC. 573. The trial of the indictment, or the pronouncing of the judgment, as the case may be, shall be suspended until the question of insanity shall be determined by the verdict of the jury.

Insanity, How Tried.

4539. SEC. 574. The trial of the question of insanity shall proceed in the following order: First—The counsel for the defendant shall open the case and offer evidence in support of the allegation of insanity. Second—The counsel for the people shall open their case and offer evidence in support thereof. Third—The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the court, for good reason in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence upon their original cause. Fourth—When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury, on either or both sides, without argument, the counsel for the people must commence, and the defendant, or his counsel, may conclude the argument to the jury. Fifth—If the indictment be for an offense punishable with death, two counsel on each side may argue the cause to the jury, in which case they must do so alternately. In other cases the argument may be restricted to one counsel on each side. Sixth—The court shall then charge the jury, if requested by either party.

Charge to Jury.

4540. SEC. 575. The provisions of section three hundred and eighty-six, in respect to the charge of the court to the jury upon the trial of an indictment, shall apply to the trial of the question of insanity.

If Found Sane.

4541. SEC. 576. If the jury find that the defendant is sane, the trial of the indictment shall proceed, or judgment may be pronounced, as the case may be.

If Found Insane.

4542. SEC. 577. If the jury find that the defendant is insane, the trial or judgment shall be suspended until he become sane, and the court, if it deem his discharge dangerous to the public peace or safety, may order that he be in the meantime committed by the Sheriff, to the custody of some proper person, and that upon his becoming sane, he be redelivered by such person to the Sheriff.

Bail Exonerated.

4543. SEC. 578. The commitment of the defendant, as mentioned in the last section, shall exonerate any bail he may have given, or shall entitle any person authorized to receive the property of the defendant to a return of any money he may have deposited instead of bail.

Returning to Sanity.

4544. SEC. 579. If the defendant be received by the person so appointed he must be detained by him until he becomes sane. When he becomes sane, such person shall give notice to the Sheriff and District Attorney of the county of that fact. The Sheriff shall thereupon, without delay, take the defendant from the custody of such person, and place him in proper custody, until he be brought to trial or judgment, as the case may be, or be otherwise legally discharged.

Expense of Keeping Defendant.

4545. SEC. 580. The expenses of placing the defendant in the custody of such proper person, of keeping him and bringing him back, shall in the first instance be chargeable to the county in which the indictment was found; but the county may recover them from the estate of the defendant, if he have any, or from any relative, town, city, or county, bound to provide for and maintain him elsewhere.

4—Dismissal of the Action, Before or After Indictment, for Want of Prosecution, or Otherwise.

Prosecution, When Dismissed.

4546. SEC. 581. When a person has been held to answer for a public offense, if an indictment be not found against him at the next term of the court at which he is held to answer, the court shall order the prosecution to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

1. ORDER SUBMITTING CASE TO ANOTHER GRAND JURY—DISCRETION OF JUDGE. Where it appears that the court adjudicated upon the facts, the presumption arises that the facts were of such a character as to warrant the court in the exercise of its sound legal discretion to make the order. Ex Parte Isbell, 11 Nev. 595.

SECTIONS 281 AND 283 CONSTRUED. Id.

2. INDICTMENT FOR FELONY—Demurrer—Resubmission of Case to Four Grand Jurors. Ex Parte Job, 17 Nev. 184.

3. FAILURE TO INDICT AT NEXT TERM—Object of Statute. State v. Lambert, 9 Nev. 322.

Indictment, When Dismissed.

4547. SEC. 582. If a defendant indicted for a public offense, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, be not brought to trial at the next term of the court at which the indictment is triable, after the same is found, the court shall order the indictment to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

1. RIGHT TO SPEEDY TRIAL IN CRIMINAL CASE. Every person held on a criminal charge has the legal right to demand a speedy and impartial trial by jury. Ex Parte Stanley, 4 Nev. 113.

SPEEDY TRIAL, WHAT. The speedy trial guaranteed every person accused of crime is a trial as soon as possible after indictment found, without depriving the prosecution of a reasonable time for preparation. Id.

2. OBJECT OF SECTION 582 IS TO PREVENT ARBITRARY, WILLFUL AND OPPRESSIVE DELAYS. It does not apply when circumstances beyond control of the court prevent speedy trial. Ex Parte Larkin, 11 Nev. 90.

Continuance of Action.

4548. SEC. 583. If the defendant be not indicted or tried, as provided in the last two sections, and sufficient reason therefor be shown, the court may order the action to be continued from term to term, and in the meantime may discharge the defendant from custody, on his own recognizance, or on the recognizance of bail, for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the action is continued.

Ex Parte Isbell, 11 Nev. 295.

Dismissal of Action.

4549. SEC. 584. If the court direct the action to be dismissed, the defendant shall, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, his bail shall be exonerated, or money deposited instead of bail shall be refunded to him.

Reasons Set Forth.

4550. SEC. 585. The court may, either of its own motion or upon the application of the District Attorney, and in furtherance of justice, order any action after indictment to be dismissed; but in such case the reasons of the dismissal shall be set forth in the order, which must be entered on the minutes.

Attorney-General and District Attorney.

4551. SEC. 586. Neither the Attorney-General nor the District Attorney shall hereafter discontinue or abandon a prosecution for a public offense, except as provided in the last section.

A Bar to Other Prosecution.

4552. SEC. 587. An order for the dismissal of the action, as provided in this Act, shall be a bar to another prosecution for the same offense, if it be a misdemeanor, but it shall not be a bar if the offense charged be a felony.

5—Entitling Affidavits.

Entitling Affidavits.

4553. SEC. 588. It shall not be necessary to entitle an affidavit or deposition in the action, whether taken before or after indictment, or upon an appeal; but if made without a title, or with an erroneous title, it shall be as valid and effectual for every purpose as if it were duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to the proceeding, indictment, or appeal in which it is made.

6—Errors and Mistakes in Pleadings and Other Proceedings.

Errors in Pleading.

4554. SEC. 589. Neither a departure from the form or mode prescribed by this Act, in respect to any pleadings or proceedings, nor an error or mistake therein, shall render the same invalid, unless it have actually prejudiced the defendant, or tended to his prejudice, in respect to a substantial right.

7—Disposal of Property Stolen or Embezzled.

Custody of Stolen Property.

4555. SEC. 590. When property, alleged to have been stolen or embezzled, shall come into the custody of a peace officer, he shall hold the same subject to the order of the magistrate authorized by the next section to direct the disposal thereof.

Returned to Owner.

4556. SEC. 591. On satisfactory proof of the title of the owner of the property, the magistrate to whom the information is laid, or who shall examine the charge against the person accused of stealing or embezzling the property, may order it to be delivered to the owner, on his paying the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the magistrate. The order shall entitle the owner to demand and receive the property.

Stolen Property Returned.

4557. SEC. 592. If the property stolen or embezzled come into the custody of the magistrate, it shall be delivered to the owner on satisfactory proof of his title, and on his paying the necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the magistrate.

Court May Order Return.

4558. SEC. 593. If the property stolen or embezzled have not been delivered to the owner, the court before which a conviction is had for stealing or embezzling it may, on proof of his title, order it to be restored to the owner.

When Not Claimed.

4559. SEC. 594. If property stolen or embezzled be not claimed by the owner before the expiration of six months from the conviction of a person for stealing or embezzling it, the magistrate or other officer having it in custody shall, on payment of the necessary expenses incurred for its preservation, deliver it to the County Treasurer, by whom it shall be sold and the proceeds paid into the county treasury.

When Receipted For.

4560. SEC. 595. When money or other property is taken from a defendant arrested upon a charge of a public offense, the officer taking it shall at the time give duplicate receipts therefor, specifying particularly the amount of money and the kind of property taken; one of which receipts he shall deliver to the defendant, and the other of which he shall forthwith file with the Clerk of the court to which the deposition and statements must be sent, as provided by section one hundred and seventy-three.

8—Proceedings in Justices' Courts.

How Commenced.

4561. SEC. 596. All proceedings and actions before a justice's court, for a public offense, of which said courts have jurisdiction, shall be commenced by complaint setting forth the offense charged, with such particulars of time, place, person, and property as to enable the defendant to understand distinctly the character of the offense complained of and to answer the complaint.

Justices' courts have jurisdiction of public offenses, Sec. 2531.

Complaint and Statement Thereon.

4562. SEC. 597. When a complaint, is laid before a Justice of the Peace, or a Judge of any other inferior tribunal having jurisdiction of criminal offenses, that an offense has been committed, of which a justice's court or other inferior tribunal has jurisdiction, the Justice or Judge to whom the complaint is made shall cause the person making the complaint, or some one else, to file with him a statement in writing, sworn to before him, or some other officer authorized by law to administer oaths, setting forth the offense charged, with such particulars as to time, place, person, and property as to enable the person charged to understand the character of the offense complained of, and to answer the complaint or charge. The statement may be similar in form to the provisions in respect to an indictment. As amended, Stats. 1867, 127.

Warrant of Arrest—Form.

4563. SEC. 598. If the Justice be satisfied therefrom that the offense complained of has been committed, he shall issue a warrant of arrest, which shall be substantially in the following form:

County of----- The State of Nevada to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in this state: Complaint upon oath having been this day made before me [Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Police Judge, or Recorder, as the case may be], by C. D., that the offense of [designating it generally] has been committed, and accusing E. F. thereof, you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named E. F., and bring him before me forthwith, at [naming the place]. Witness my hand and seal, at-----, this---- day of-----, A. D. 18... A. B.

Pleadings of Defendant.

4564. SEC. 599. On being arrested, the defendant may plead to the complaint, or he may answer or deny the same. Such plea, answer, or denial may be oral or in writing, and immediately thereafter the case shall be tried, unless, for good cause shown, an adjournment be granted. If an adjournment be granted, the defendant may be held to bail.

Present on Trial.

4565. SEC. 600. The defendant must be personally present in all cases before the trial shall proceed, unless he shall have given sufficient bail, as provided in this Act, or the District Attorney consent to proceed with the trial after the defendant shall have appeared in person, and shall also be represented by counsel. As amended, Stats. 1867, 127.

Docket.

4566. SEC. 601. A docket shall be kept by the Justice, or by the Clerk of the Court, if there be one, in which he shall enter each action, and the minutes of the proceedings of the court therein.

Jury Trial.

4567. SEC. 602. The defendant may waive a jury trial in person or by attorney, after having appeared in the action, but shall be entitled to a jury trial if demanded by him. The jury may be composed of any number of persons eligible to serve as jurors, not exceeding twelve, nor less than three; but only by consent of parties shall the number be less than twelve. The formation of juries is provided for by special statute. As amended, Stats. 1867, 127.

Challenge to Jurors.

4568. SEC. 603. The same challenges may be taken by either party to the panel of jurors, or to any individual juror, as may be taken on the trial of an indictment for a misdemeanor; but the challenge shall in all cases be tried by the court.

Oath to Jurors.

4569. SEC. 604. The court shall administer to the jury the following oath or affirmation: "You do swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that you will well and truly try this issue between the State of Nevada and A. B., the defendant, and a true verdict give according to the evidence."

Proofs Delivered in Public.

4570. SEC. 605. After the jury are sworn, they must sit together and hear the proofs and allegations of the parties, which must be delivered in public, and in the presence of the defendant.

Questions of Law.

4571. SEC. 606. The court shall decide all questions of law which may arise in the course of the trial, but shall give no charge with respect to matters of fact.

Deliberation of Jury.

4572. SEC. 607. After hearing the proofs and allegations, the jury may decide in court, or may retire for consideration. If they do not immediately agree, an officer must be sworn to the following effect: "You do swear that you will keep this jury together, in some private and convenient place; that you will not permit any person to speak to them, nor speak to them yourself, unless it be to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict; and that you will return them into court when they have so agreed."

Verdict.

4573. SEC. 608. The verdict of the jury shall, in all cases, be general.

Delivery of Verdict.

4574. SEC. 609. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they shall deliver it publicly to the court, who shall cause the same to be entered on the minutes.

Several Defendants.

4575. SEC. 610. When several defendants are tried together, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment shall be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

Jury Not Discharged.

4576. SEC. 611. The jury shall not be discharged after the cause is submitted to them, until they have agreed upon and rendered their verdict, unless for good cause the court sooner discharge them.

Second Trial.

4577. SEC. 612. If the jury be discharged, as provided in the last section, the court may proceed again to the trial, in the same manner as upon the first trial; and so on, until a verdict be rendered.

Judgment.

4578. SEC. 613. When the defendant pleads guilty, or is convicted, either by the court or by a jury, the court shall render judgment thereon of fine and imprisonment, or both, as the case may require.

Imprisoned in Lieu of Fine.

4579. SEC. 614. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine be paid or satisfied.

Acquittal—Malicious Prosecution.

4580. SEC. 615. When the defendant is acquitted, either by the court or by the jury, he shall be immediately discharged, and if the court certify in the minutes that the prosecution was malicious, or without probable cause, it may order the prosecutor to pay the costs of the action, or to give satisfactory security by a written undertaking, with one or more sureties, to pay the same to the county within thirty days after the trial.

Judgment Against Prosecutor.

4581. SEC. 616. If the prosecutor do not pay the costs, or give security therefor, as provided in the last section, the court may enter judgment against him for the amount thereof, which may be enforced in all respects in the same manner as a judgment rendered in a civil action.

Entry of Verdict.

4582. SEC. 617. When a verdict is rendered it shall be immediately entered upon the minutes.

Rendered of Judgment.

4583. SEC. 618. After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant, on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, the court shall appoint a time for rendering judgment, which shall not be more than two days and less than six hours after the verdict is rendered, and shall hold the defendant to bail to appear for judgment, and in default of bail he shall be committed.

New Trial.

4584. SEC. 619. At any time before the judgment is entered, the defendant may move for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment.

When and for What Granted.

4585. SEC. 620. A new trial can be granted only in the following cases: First—If the trial has been had in his absence. Second—When the jury has received any evidence out of court. Third—When the jury has separated without leave of the court, after retiring to deliberate upon their verdict, or been guilty of any misconduct tending to prevent a fair and due consideration of the case. Fourth—When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by any means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors. Fifth—When there has been error in the decision of the court, given on any question of law arising during the course of the trial. Sixth—When the verdict is contrary to law and evidence; but not more than one new trial shall be granted for this cause alone.

Arrest of Judgment.

4586. SEC. 621. The motion in arrest of judgment may be founded on any substantial defect in the complaint, and the effect of an arrest of judgment is to place the defendant in the same situation in which he was before the trial was had.

Judgment Pronounced.

4587. SEC. 622. If the judgment be not arrested, or a new trial granted, judgment shall be pronounced at the time appointed, and entered in the minutes of the court.

Discharge.

4588. SEC. 623. If judgment of acquittal be given, or judgment imposing a fine only, and the defendant be not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as the judgment is given.

Execution of Imprisonment.

4589. SEC. 624. When a judgment of imprisonment is entered, a certified copy thereof shall be delivered to the Sheriff, Marshal, or other officer, which shall be a sufficient warrant for the execution of the same.

Imprisonment Until Fine Paid.

4590. SEC. 625. When a judgment is entered imposing a fine and ordering the defendant to be imprisoned until the fine be paid, he shall be held in custody during the time specified in the judgment, unless the fine be sooner paid, and execution may issue for the collection of said judgment, the same as in civil cases. As amended, Stats. 1881, 58.

Application of Fine.

4591. SEC. 626. Upon the payment of the fine the officer shall immediately discharge the defendant, if he be not detained for any other legal cause, and apply the money to the payment of the expenses of the prosecution, and pay over the residue, if any, within ten days, to the County or City Treasurer, according as the offense is prosecuted in a justice's court.

Before Commitment.

4592. SEC. 627. If a fine be imposed and paid before commitment, it shall be applied as prescribed in the preceding section.

Forfeiture of Deposit.

4593. SEC. 628. If a defendant be discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and fails to appear according to his recognizance, the same shall be forfeited, or the money appropriated in like manner as in the district court.

Failure to Appear.

4594. SEC. 629. In case of failure to appear for judgment, the court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, and shall enter judgment whenever the defendant appears, or is brought before it.

VII—SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS.

1—Search Warrant.

Defined.

4595. SEC. 630. A search warrant is an order in writing in the name of the State of Nevada, signed by a magistrate, directed to a peace officer, commanding him to search for personal property, or implements used, or evidences of crime, and bring it before the magistrate.

When Issued.

4596. SEC. 631. It may be issued whenever property has been stolen or embezzled, in which case it may be taken on the warrant from any house or other place in which it is concealed, or from the possession of the person by whom it was stolen or embezzled, or of any other person in whose possession it may be.

Issued on Probable Cause.

4597. SEC. 632. No search warrant shall be issued but upon probable cause, supported by affidavit naming or describing the person, and particularly describing the property and place to be searched.

Complainant Examined.

4598. SEC. 633. The magistrate must before issuing the warrant, examine on oath the complainant, and any witnesses he may produce, and take their depositions in writing, and cause them to be subscribed by the parties making them.

Depositions.

4599. SEC. 634. The depositions must set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the application, or probable cause for believing that they exist.

Search Warrant to Issue, When.

4600. SEC. 635. If the magistrate be satisfied of the existence of the grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, he shall issue a search warrant, signed by him with his name of office, to a peace officer in his county, commanding him forthwith to search the person or place named for the property specified, and to bring it before the magistrate.

Form of Search Warrant.

4601. SEC. 636. The warrant shall be in substantially the following form:
County of _____. The People of the State of Nevada, to any Sheriff, Constable, Marshal, or policeman in the county of _____. Proof by affidavit having been this day made before me by [naming every person whose affidavit has been taken] that [stating the grounds of the application according to section six hundred and thirty-two, or if the affidavit be not positive that there is probable cause for believing that, stating the ground of the application in the same manner]; you are thereupon commanded in the daytime (or at any time of the day or night, as the case may be, according to section six hundred and forty), to make immediate search on the person of C. D. (or in the house situated _____ describing it, or any other place to be searched, with reasonable particularity, as the case may be), for the following property [describing it with reasonable particularity], and if you find the same, or any part thereof, to bring it forthwith before me at [stating the place]. Given under my hand, and dated this ____ day of _____, A. D. 18__ E. F., Justice of the Peace (or as the case may be).

How Served.

4602. SEC. 637. A search warrant may, in all cases, be served by any of the officers mentioned in its direction, but by no other person, except in aid of the officer, on his requiring it, he being present and acting in its execution.

Officer May Break Door.

4603. SEC. 638. The officer may break open any outer or inner door or window of a house, or any part of the house, or anything therein, to execute the warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he be refused admittance.

May Break Door or Window.

4604. SEC. 639. He may break open any outer or inner door or window of a house for the purpose of liberating a person who, having entered to aid him in the execution of his warrant, is detained therein, or when necessary for his own liberation.

Search Warrant to Be Served in Daytime—Proviso.

4605. SEC. 640. The magistrate must insert a direction in the warrant that it be served in the daytime, unless the affidavits be positive that the property is on the person or in the place to be searched, in which case he may insert a direction that it be served at any time of the day or night.

Executed and Returned.

4606. SEC. 641. A search warrant must be executed and returned to the magistrate who issued it within five days after its date, and if in any other county, within thirty days; after the expiration of these times, respectively, the warrant shall, unless executed, be void.

Receipted For.

4607. SEC. 642. When the officer shall have taken any property under the warrant, he must give a receipt for the property taken (specifying it in detail) to the person from whom it was taken by him, or in whose possession it was found; or, in the absence of any person, he shall leave it in the place where he found the property.

How Disposed Of.

4608. SEC. 643. When the property is delivered to the magistrate, he shall, if it was stolen or embezzled, dispose of it as provided in sections five hundred and ninety-one to five hundred and ninety-five, both inclusive.

Inventory and Oath of Officer.

4609. SEC. 644. The officer shall forthwith return the warrant to the magistrate, and at the same time deliver to him a written inventory of the property taken, made publicly or in the presence of the person from whose possession it was taken, and of the applicant for the warrant, if they be present, verified by the affidavit of the officer at the foot of the inventory, and taken before the magistrate at the time to the following effect: "I, R. S., the officer by whom the annexed warrant was executed, do swear that the above inventory contains a true and detailed account of all the property taken by me on the warrant."

Who Entitled to Inventory.

4610. SEC. 645. The magistrate shall thereupon, if required, deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whose possession the property was taken, and to the applicant for the warrant.

Testimony.

4611. SEC. 646. If the grounds on which the warrant was issued be controverted, he must proceed to take testimony in relation thereto.

Testimony in Writing.

4612. SEC. 647. The testimony given by each witness must be reduced to writing, and certified by the magistrate.

Property Restored.

4613. SEC. 648. If it appear that the property taken is not the same as that described in the warrant, or that there is no probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued, the magistrate shall cause it to be restored to the person from whom it was taken.

Returned, When.

4614. SEC. 649. The magistrate shall annex together the depositions, the search warrant and return, and the inventory, and return them to the next term of the court having power to inquire into the offenses in respect to which the search warrant was issued, at or before its opening on the first day.

Search Warrant Maliciously Procured.

4615. SEC. 650. Whoever shall maliciously, and without probable cause, procure a search warrant to be issued and executed, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Officer Exceeding Authority.

4616. SEC. 651. A peace officer who, in executing a search warrant, shall willfully exceed his authority, or exercise it with unnecessary severity, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as in the next preceding section is provided.

Person May Be Searched.

4617. SEC. 652. When a person charged with a felony is supposed by the magistrate before whom he is brought to have on his person a dangerous weapon, or anything which may be used as evidence of the commission of the offense, the magistrate may direct him to be searched in his presence, and the weapon or other thing to be retained, subject to his order, or the order of the court in which the defendant may be tried.

2—Proceedings Against Fugitives from Justice.

Fugitive Delivered Up.

4618. SEC. 653. A person charged, in any state or territory of the United States, with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in this state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state or territory from which he fled, be delivered up by the Governor of this territory, to be removed to the state or territory having jurisdiction of the crime.

How Apprehended.

4619. SEC. 654. A magistrate may issue a warrant for the apprehension of a person so charged, who shall flee from justice and be found in this state.

Arrest and Commitment.

4620. SEC. 655. The proceedings for the arrest and commitment of the person charged shall be in all respects similar to those provided in this Act for the arrest and commitment of a person charged with a public offense committed within this state, except that an exemplified copy of an indictment found, or other judicial proceeding had against him in the state or territory in which he is charged to have committed the offense, may be received as evidence before the magistrate.

When Committed.

4621. SEC. 656. If, from the examination, it appear that the person charged has committed treason, felony, or other crime charged, the magistrate, by warrant reciting the accusation, shall commit him to the proper custody within his county, for a time to be specified in the warrant, which the magistrate may deem reasonable, to enable the arrest of the fugitive under the warrant of the executive of this state, on the requisition of the executive authority of the state or territory in which he committed the offense, unless he give bail as provided in the next section, or until he be legally discharged.

Admitted to Bail, When.

4622. SEC. 657. The magistrate may admit the person arrested to bail by recognizance with sufficient sureties, and in such sums as he may deem proper, for his appearance before him at a time specified in the recognizance, and for his surrender to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor of this state.

Notice to District Attorney.

4623. SEC. 658. Immediately upon the arrest of the person charged, the magistrate shall give notice to the District Attorney of the district of the name of the person and the cause of the arrest.

District Attorney to Give Notice.

4624. SEC. 659. The District Attorney shall immediately thereafter give notice to the executive authority of the state or territory, or to the Prosecuting Attorney, or presiding Judge of the criminal court of the city or county, within the state or territory having jurisdiction of the offense, to the end that a demand may be made for the arrest and surrender of the person charged.

When Discharged.

4625. SEC. 660. The person arrested shall be discharged from custody or bail, unless before the expiration of the time designated in the warrant or recognizance, he be arrested under the warrant of the Governor of this state.

Return of Proceedings.

4626. SEC. 661. The magistrate shall make return of his proceedings to the next district court of the county, which shall thereupon inquire into the cause of the arrest and detention of the person charged, and if he be in custody, or the time of his arrest have not elapsed, the court may discharge him from detention, or may order his recognizance of bail to be canceled, or may continue his detention for a longer time, or may readmit him to bail, to appear and surrender himself within a time to be specified in the recognizance.

3—Compromising Offenses.

What Offenses May Be Compromised.

4627. SEC. 662. When a defendant is held to answer on a charge of a misdemeanor, for which the person injured by the act constituting the offense has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised as provided in the next section, except when it was committed: First—By or upon an officer of justice, while in the execution of the duties of his office. Second—Riotously. Third—With intent to commit a felony.

Manner of Compromise.

4628. SEC. 663. If the party injured appear before the court to which the depositions are required to be returned, at any time before trial, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the court may, in its discretion, on payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be stayed upon the prosecution, and the defendant to be discharged therefrom; but, in such case, the reasons for the order must be set forth therein, and entered on the minutes.

Order a Bar.

4629. SEC. 664. The order authorized by the last section shall be a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

No Compromise.

4630. SEC. 665. No public offense shall be compromised, nor shall any proceeding for the prosecution or punishment thereof, upon a compromise, be stayed, except as provided in this Act.

*4—Fines and Forfeitures.Payment of Costs.

4631. SEC. 666. All fines and forfeitures collected in any court of this state shall be applied to the payment of the costs of the case in which the fine is imposed or the forfeiture incurred, and after such costs are paid, the residue shall be paid to the County Treasurer of the county in which the court is held.

Penalty for Neglect or Refusal to Pay Over.

4632. SEC. 667. If any Clerk, Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Constable, or other officer, who may receive any fine or forfeiture, shall refuse or neglect to pay over the same according to law, and within thirty days after the receipt thereof, he shall be liable upon his official bond for the amount thereof, with fifty per cent damages and interest, to be recovered in like manner as for failing to pay over money received on execution, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, may be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three months.

VIII—PROMISCUOUS PROVISIONS.

Oath or Affirmation.

4633. SEC. 668. The term "oath," when used in this Act, shall be deemed to include an affirmation.

Signature or Mark.

4634. SEC. 669. When a signature of a person is required by this Act, the mark of a person, if he cannot write, shall be deemed sufficient, the name of the person making the mark being written near it, and the mark being witnessed by a person who writes his own name as a witness.

Transfer of Prisoners.

4635. SEC. 670. When it is necessary for any purpose to have a person who is in prison in any part of the state, brought before a court of criminal jurisdiction, an order for that purpose may be made by the court, and the order shall be executed by the Sheriff of the county where it is made.

Process.

4636. SEC. 671. Process issued by a court or magistrate shall be executed according to its terms.

Magistrate.

4637. SEC. 672. The term "magistrate," when used in this Act, signifies any one of the officers mentioned in section one hundred and two.

Peace Officers.

4638. SEC. 673. The term "peace officer," when used in this Act, signifies any one of the officers mentioned in section one hundred and nine.

Fees Allowed Recovered as Costs.

4639. SEC. 674. The fees allowed to Justices of the Peace, and other officers having the jurisdiction and authority of Justices of the Peace, Clerks, peace officers, and District Attorneys, shall, when the defendant is convicted, be considered and recovered against him as costs in the suit, and be collected in like manner as costs in civil cases.

Quinn v. District Court, 16 Nev. 76.

Removed Before Trial.

4640. SEC. 675. In every case where a criminal action may have been or shall be removed before trial, the cost accruing upon such removal and trial shall be a charge against the county in which the cause of indictment occurred.

County of Washoe v. County of Humboldt, 14 Nev. 123.

To Certify Account to Auditor.

4641. SEC. 676. The Clerk of the county to which such action is or may be removed, shall certify the amount of said costs to the Auditor of his county, which shall be examined, allowed and paid as other county charges.

Superseding of Criminal Statute.

4642. SEC. 677. That the superseding of any law creating a criminal offense, shall not be held to constitute a bar to the indictment and punishment of a crime already committed, or to bar the trial and punishment of a crime where an indictment has been already found, in violation of the law so superseded, unless the intention to bar such indictment and punishment, or trial and punishment where an indictment has been already found, is expressly declared in the superseding Act.

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in criminal cases in the courts of justice in the State of Nevada, and making further provisions relating thereto."

Approved March 13, 1867, 124.

SECTIONS 1 to 12 being amendatory of certain sections in the general Act regulating proceedings in criminal cases, they are inserted in the place of the original sections.

When Case Involves Title to Real Property.

Murphy v. Rising, 10 Nev. 97.

Appeal to District Court—Trial in Appellate Court.

4644. SEC. 14. The defendant may appeal to the district court of the county from any judgment rendered in a criminal action in a justice's court or other inferior tribunal. The appeal may be taken at any time after judgment, by complying with the provisions of this section. The party intending to appeal must file with the Judge of the court wherein the action was tried, and serve upon the District Attorney a notice entitled in the action, setting forth the character of the judgment, and the intention of the party to appeal therefrom to the district court. The notice must be served and filed within five days after the rendition of the judgment and entry thereof, in the docket of the court trying the action. He may also, at any time thereafter, if he desire to be released from custody during the pendency of the appeal, or desire a stay of proceedings under the judgment until the appeal be disposed of, enter bail for the due prosecution of the appeal, the payment of any judgment, fine, and costs that may be awarded against him on the appeal, and for failure to prosecute the same, and for the rendering of himself in execution of the judgment appealed from, or of any judgment rendered against him in the action appealed from in the court to which the same is appealed. The action in the appellate or district court shall be tried de novo.

An Act in relation to fines and to repeal an Act relating thereto.

Approved March 5, 1887, 122.

Paid Into State Treasury.

4645. SECTION 1. The full amount of all fines imposed and collected under and for a violation of any penal law of this state shall be paid into the state treasury, and costs shall in no case be deducted from the fine fixed by law or imposed by the court, but shall be taxed against the defendant in addition to the fine and separately stated on the docket of the court.

One Day Imprisonment for Each Two Dollars.

4646. SEC. 2. If the fine be not paid the court may order the defendant to be imprisoned one day for each two dollars of the fine not paid.

Costs.

4647. SEC. 3. Judgment for cost shall be entered against the defendant, to be collected as judgments in civil cases.

Repeal.

SEC. 4. An Act in relation to fines, approved January twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven [p. 44], is hereby repealed.

An Act to define the term "reasonable doubt."

Approved February 1, 1889, 27.

Defining Reasonable Doubt.

4648. SECTION 1. A reasonable doubt is one based on reason. It is not mere possible doubt, but is such a doubt as would govern or control a person in the more weighty affairs of life. If the minds of the jurors, after the entire comparison and consideration of all the evidence, are in such a condition that they can say they feel an abiding conviction of the truth of the charge, there is not a reasonable doubt. Doubt to be reasonable must be actual and substantial, not mere possibility or speculation.

No Other Definition to Be Given.

4649. SEC. 2. No other definition of reasonable doubt shall be given by the court to juries in criminal actions in this state.

1. REASONABLE DOUBT—STATUTORY DEFINITION SHOULD ALONE BE GIVEN. Held, that the statutory definition of "reasonable doubt" is well expressed and that Judges should follow the exact language of the statute, and not attempt any further explanation. State v. Potts, 20 Nev. 389; State v. Streeter, 20 Nev. 403.
2. REASONABLE DOUBT—Definitions and Examples. State v. Raymond, 11 Nev. 98; State v. Rover, 11 Nev. 343; State v. Jones, 19 Nev. 365; State v. McLane, 15 Nev. 345; State v. Davis, 14 Nev. 439; State v. O'Connor, 11 Nev. 425; State v. Hamilton, 13 Nev. 396; State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 409; State v. Nelson, 11 Nev. 340.

An Act to regulate proceedings in certain criminal cases.

Approved February 27, 1885, 44.

Neat Cattle, Offense Concerning.

4650. SECTION 1. When a public offense concerns any neat cattle, horse, mule or other animal running at large upon any range which extends into more than one county of this state, such offense may be prosecuted in either of said counties, and upon the trial of any such offense, proof that such animal is the property of the owner, or person occupying the said range, and was at the time the offense was committed running at large upon the range, shall be prima facie evidence that said offense was committed within the jurisdiction of the court.

Brand Prima Facie Evidence of Ownership.

4651. SEC. 2. Upon the trial of any public offense which concerns any neat cattle, horse, mule, or other animal running at large upon any range in this state, the brand and other marks upon such animal shall be prima facie evidence of ownership.

An Act supplementary to an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in criminal cases in the courts of justice in the Territory of Nevada," approved November 26, 1861.

Approved February 17, 1893, 24.

Indictment in Certain Cases.

4652. SECTION 1. In every complaint or indictment for obtaining or attempting to obtain any chose in action, money, goods, wares, chattels, effects or other valuable thing, by false representations or by causing or procuring others to report falsely of his wealth or mercantile character, or by any false pretense whatsoever, it shall be a sufficient description of the offense to charge that the accused did, at a certain time and place, unlawfully obtain, or attempt to obtain, as the case may be, from A. B. his money or property, describing it generally, where it can be done, by means and by use of a cheat, or fraud, or trick, or deception, or false representation, or false pretense, or confidence game, or false and bogus check, or instrument, or coin, or metal, as the case may be, with intent to cheat and defraud the said A. B.

An Act to enable a defendant to testify as a witness in criminal prosecutions.

Became a law February 18, 1867, 58.

Defendant May Testify in Own Behalf.

4653. SECTION 1. In the trial of all indictments, complaints, and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes or offenses, the person so charged shall, at his own request, but not otherwise, be deemed a competent witness; the credit to be given to his testimony being left solely to the jury, under the instructions of the court.

Defendant Not Compelled, etc.

4654. SEC. 2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as compelling any such person to testify; and in all cases wherein the defendant to a criminal action declines to testify, the court shall specially instruct the jury that no inference of guilt is to be drawn against him for that cause.

1. PROSECUTION CANNOT MAKE ACCUSED ITS OWN WITNESS. Though an accused person may become a witness in his own behalf and thereby subject himself to cross-examination, the prosecution cannot make him, against his consent, its own witness. State v. Cohn, 9 Nev. 179.
2. CROSS-EXAMINATION OF DEFENDANT. When a defendant in a criminal case offers himself as a witness in his own behalf he subjects himself to the same cross-examination that would be proper in the case of any other witness. State v. Huff, 11 Nev. 17; State v. Cohn, 9 Nev. 179.
3. TESTIMONY OF DEFENDANT—COMMENTS OF COUNSEL. If the defendant in a criminal case voluntarily testifies in his own behalf, the same rights exist in favor of the District Attorney to comment upon his testimony, or his refusal to answer any proper question, or to draw all proper inference from his failure to testify upon any material matter within his knowledge, as with other witnesses. State v. Harrington, 12 Nev. 125.
4. CREDIBILITY OF DEFENDANT'S TESTIMONY—INSTRUCTIONS. The credibility of defendant's testimony in his own behalf, is to be determined in the same manner as that of any other witness. The Judge should not state to the jury his estimate of a witness, or give his opinion as to the weight to be attached to his testimony. State v. Johnson, 16 Nev. 36; State v. Stewart, 9 Nev. 120; State v. Vasquez, 16 Nev. 42.
5. CREDIBILITY OF DEFENDANT'S TESTIMONY. Where a defendant in a criminal case offers himself as a witness in his own behalf, the jury should give to his testimony all the credit to which it is entitled. In ascertaining the extent of its credibility, it is proper and necessary for the jury to consider the situation in which the defendant is placed. State v. Slingerland, 19 Nev. 135; State v. Streeter, 20 Nev. 403; State v. Hartley, 22 Nev. 345; State v. Maynard, 19 Nev. 284.

An Act extending the criminal laws of this state to and over the Indians therein.

Approved February 20, 1885, 34.

Indians Amenable to Criminal Law.

4655. SECTION 1. All the laws of this state concerning crimes and punishments, or applicable thereto, and all the laws of this state concerning proceedings in criminal cases or applicable thereto, are hereby extended to and over all Indians in this state, whether such Indians be on or off an Indian reservation, and all of said laws are hereby declared to be applicable to all crimes committed by Indians within this state, whether committed on or off an Indian reservation, save and except an offense committed upon an Indian reservation by one Indian against the person or property of another Indian.

CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS.

An Act concerning crimes and punishments.

Approved November 26, 1861, 56.

I—PERSONS CAPABLE OF COMMITTING CRIMES.

Essence of Crime.

4656. SECTION 1. In every crime or public offense, there must be a union or joint operation of act and intention, or criminal negligence.

1. CRIMINAL INTENT, HOW DETERMINED. State v. Trolson, 21 Nev. 419.
2. CRIMINAL INTENT NECESSARY TO CONSTITUTE CRIME. The essence of a criminal offense is the wrongful intent, without which it cannot exist. State v. Gardner, 5 Nev. 377.
3. INTENT, WHEN ELEMENT OF CRIME. Where a specific intent is required by statute to constitute the crime, such specific intent enters into the nature of the act itself, and must be alleged and proved beyond a reasonable doubt. State v. Zichfeld, 23 Nev. 304.
- WHEN INTENT NOT ELEMENT OF CRIME. When the statute forbids the doing of a certain thing, and is silent concerning the intent with which it is done, a person who does the forbidden act is not guiltless because he has no wrongful intent beyond that which is involved in the doing of the prohibited act. (State v. Gardner, 5 Nev. 377, overruled.) Id.
4. INSTRUCTION. When innocent act becomes criminal, intent must be proved, but when the act is in itself unlawful, the justification or excuse lies on defendant. State v. Marks, 15 Nev. 33.
5. INTENT TO KILL—WHEN ESSENTIAL TO CONSTITUTE MURDER. An intent to take life is an essential element in the constitution of murder in the first degree, except where it is committed in the perpetration or attempt to perpetrate arson, rape, robbery, or burglary. State v. Newton, 4 Nev. 410.
6. BURGLARY—INTENT. In order to constitute the crime of burglary, it is just as essential to prove the intent as it is to prove the entry. State v. Cowell, 12 Nev. 337.

Intent.

4657. SEC. 2. Intention is manifested by the circumstances connected with the perpetration of the offense, and the sound mind and discretion of the person accused.

Of Sound Mind.

4658. SEC. 3. A person shall be considered of sound mind who is neither an idiot or lunatic, or affected with insanity, and who hath arrived at the age of fourteen years, or before that age, if such person knew the distinction between good and evil.

Infant Incapable.

4659. SEC. 4. An infant under the age of fourteen years, shall be deemed incapable of knowing the distinction between good and evil, unless the contrary be clearly shown.

Wrong Counsel.

4660. SEC. 5. Any person counseling, advising, or encouraging an infant under the age of ten years, a lunatic, or idiot, to commit any offense, shall be prosecuted for such offense, where committed, as principal, and if found guilty, shall suffer the same punishment that would have been inflicted on such person counseling, advising, or encouraging, as aforesaid, had he or she committed the offense directly, without the intervention of such idiot, lunatic, or infant.

Married Women Under Coercion.

4661. SEC. 6. A married woman, acting under the threats, command, or coercion of her husband, shall not be found guilty of any crime not punishable with death; provided, it appear, from all the facts and circumstances of the case, that violent threats, command, or coercion were used; and, in such case, the husband shall be prosecuted as principal, and receive the punishment which would otherwise have been inflicted on the wife, if she had been found guilty.

Drunkenness.

4662. SEC. 7. Drunkenness shall not be an excuse for any crime, unless such drunkenness be occasioned by the fraud, contrivance, or force of some other person or persons, for the purpose of causing the perpetration of an offense, in which case the person or persons so causing said drunkenness, for such malignant purpose, shall be considered principal or principals, and suffer the same punishment as would have been inflicted on the person or persons committing the offense, if he, she, or they had been possessed of sound reason and discretion.

Misfortune or Accident.

4663. SEC. 8. All acts committed by misfortune or accident shall not be deemed criminal, where it satisfactorily appears that there was no evil design or intention or culpable negligence.

Committed Under Duress.

4664. SEC. 9. A person committing a crime not punishable with death, under threats or menaces, which sufficiently show that his or her life was in danger, or that he or she had reasonable cause to believe, and did believe, that his or her life was in danger, shall not be found guilty, and such threats or menaces being proved and established, the person or persons compelling, by such threats or menaces, the commission of the offense, shall be considered as principal or principals, and suffer the same punishment as if he or she had perpetrated the offense.

II—ACCESSORY.Definition.

4665. SEC. 10. An accessory is he or she who stands by and aids, abets, or assists; or who, not being present, aiding, abetting, or assisting, hath advised and encouraged the perpetration of the crime. He or she who thus aids, abets or assists, advises, or encourages, shall be deemed and considered as principal, and punished accordingly.

1. ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT SAME AS PRINCIPAL—Robbery by Absent Person—Doctrine of Agency as to Accessories Before the Fact—Indictment. State v. Chapman, 6 Nev. 320.
2. PRINCIPAL OR ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT—What Held to Be. State v. Laurie, 13 Nev. 386.

CONFEDERATES ARE PRINCIPALS. Where several confederates act in pursuance of a common plan, in the commission of an offense, all are held to be present where the offense is committed, and all are principals. Id.

3. TRIAL OF ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT—Charge as to Principal—Proof of Guilt of Principal Not Necessary. State v. Jones, 7 Nev. 408.

4. ACCESSORY BEFORE THE FACT—Robbery—Evidence Necessary to Show Guilt. State v. O'Keefe, 23 Nev. 127.

Accessory After the Fact.

4666. SEC. 11. An accessory after the fact, is a person who, after full knowledge that a crime has been committed, conceals it from the magistrate, or harbors and protects the person charged with or found guilty of the crime. Any person being found guilty of being an accessory after the fact, shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, and fined a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, to be regulated by the circumstances of the case and enormity of the crime.

III—WITNESSES.

Competency Of.

4667. SEC. 12. The rules for determining the competency of witnesses in civil actions are applicable also to criminal actions and proceedings, except as otherwise provided for in this Act. The party or parties injured shall in all cases be competent witnesses; the credibility of all such witnesses shall be left to the jury, as in other cases. In all cases when two or more persons are jointly or otherwise concerned in the commission of any crime or misdemeanor, either of such persons may be sworn as a witness against another, in relation to such crime or misdemeanor; but the testimony given by such witness shall in no instance be used against himself in any criminal prosecution; and any person may be compelled to testify, as provided in this section. As amended, Stats. 1881, 83.

Husband and Wife.

4668. SEC. 13. Except with the consent of both, or in cases of criminal violence upon one by the other, neither husband nor wife is a competent witness for or against the other in a criminal action or proceeding to which one or both are parties. As amended, Stats. 1865, 403; 1881, 84.

Affirmation Sufficient.

4669. SEC. 14. The solemn affirmation of witnesses shall be deemed sufficient. A false or corrupt affirmation shall subject the witness to all the penalties and punishments provided for those who commit willful and corrupt perjury.

IV—OFFENSES AGAINST THE PERSONS OF INDIVIDUALS.

Murder.

4670. SEC. 15. Murder is the unlawful killing of a human being, with malice aforethought, either express or implied. The unlawful killing may be effected by any of the various means by which death may be occasioned.

Express Malice.

4671. SEC. 16. Express malice is that deliberate intention unlawfully to take away the life of a fellow creature, which is manifested by external circumstances capable of proof.

EXPRESS MALICE—MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE. Under the statute of this state, express malice necessarily renders any murder, murder of the first degree. State v. Lopez, 15 Nev. 408.

Degree of Murder—Punishment.

4672. SEC. 17. Malice shall be implied when no considerable provocation appears, or when all the circumstances of the killing show an abandoned and malignant heart. All murder which shall be perpetrated by means of poison, or lying in wait, torture, or by any other kind of willful, deliberate, and premeditated killing, or which shall be committed in the perpetration, or attempt to perpetrate, any arson, rape, robbery, or burglary, shall be deemed murder of the first degree; and all other kinds of murder shall be deemed murder of the second degree; and the jury before whom any person indicted for murder shall be tried, shall, if they find such person guilty thereof, designate by their verdict whether it be murder of the first or second degree; but, if such person shall be convicted on confession in open court, the court shall proceed, by examination of witnesses, to determine the degree of the crime, and give sentence accordingly. Every person convicted of murder of the first degree shall suffer death, and every person convicted of murder of the second degree shall suffer imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than ten years, and which may be extended to life.

LENGTH OF TIME FOR DELIBERATION is not an essential ingredient in murder in the first degree. It is sufficient if the design to murder was formed before the striking of the fatal blow. State v. Millain, 3 Nev. 410.

Manslaughter.

4673. SEC. 18. Manslaughter is the unlawful killing of a human being, without malice express or implied, and without any mixture of deliberation. It must be voluntary, upon a sudden heat of passion, caused by a provocation apparently sufficient to make the passion irresistible; or, involuntary, in the commissions of an unlawful act, or a lawful act without due caution or circumspection.

Voluntary Manslaughter.

4674. SEC. 19. In cases of voluntary manslaughter, there must be a serious and highly provoking injury inflicted upon the person killing, sufficient to excite an irresistible passion in a reasonable person, or an attempt by the person killed to commit a serious personal injury on the person killing.

When Punished as Murder.

4675. SEC. 20. The killing must be the result of that sudden, violent impulse of passion supposed to be irresistible; for, if there should appear to have been an interval between the assault or provocation given and the killing, sufficient for the voice of reason and humanity to be heard, the killing shall be attributed to deliberate revenge, and punished as murder.

Involuntary Manslaughter.

4676. SEC. 21. Involuntary manslaughter shall consist in the killing of a human being, without any intent so to do, in the commission of an unlawful act, or a lawful act which probably might produce such a consequence in an unlawful manner; provided, that where such involuntary killing shall happen in the commission of an unlawful act, which, in its consequences, naturally tends to destroy the life of a human being, or is committed in the prosecution of a felonious intent, the offense shall be deemed and adjudged to be murder.

Punishment.

4677. SEC. 22. Every person convicted of the crime of manslaughter shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding ten years.

Death Within a Year and a Day.

4678. SEC. 23. In order to make the killing either murder or manslaughter, it is requisite that the party die within a year and a day after the stroke received, or the cause of death administered, in the computation of which the whole of the day on which the act was done shall be reckoned the first.

Place of Trial.

4679. SEC. 24. If the injury be inflicted in one county, and the party die within another county, or without the state, the accused shall be tried in the county where the act was done, or the cause of death administered. If the party killing shall be in one county, and the party killed in another county, at the time the cause of death shall be administered, the accused may be tried in either county.

Justifiable Homicide.

4680. SEC. 25. Justifiable homicide is the killing of a human being in necessary self-defense, or in defense of habitation, property, or person, against one who manifestly intends, or endeavors, by violence or surprise, to commit a felony, or against any person or persons who manifestly intend and endeavor, in a violent, riotous, or tumultuous manner, to enter the habitation of another, for the purpose of assaulting or offering personal violence to any person dwelling or being therein.

What Necessary for Defense.

4681. SEC. 26. A bare fear of any of these offenses, to prevent which the homicide is alleged to have been committed, shall not be sufficient to justify the killing. It must appear that the circumstances were sufficient to excite the fears of a reasonable person, and that the party killing really acted under the influence of those fears, and not in a spirit of revenge.

Killing in Self-Defense.

4682. SEC. 27. If a person kill another in self-defense, it must appear that the danger was so urgent and pressing, that, in order to save his own life, or to prevent his receiving great bodily harm, the killing of the other was absolutely necessary; and it must appear, also, that the person killed was the assailant, or that the slayer had really, and in good faith, endeavored to decline any further struggle before the mortal blow was given.

SEC. 28, concerning official duty, is superseded, Sec. 1862.

Justifiable Homicide—Officer.

4683. SEC. 29. Justifiable homicide may also consist in unavoidable necessity, without any will or desire, and without any inadvertence or negligence in the party killing. An officer who, in the execution of public justice, puts a person to death in virtue of a judgment of a competent court of justice, shall be justified. The officer must, however, in the performance of his duty, proceed according to the sentence and the law of the land.

Excusable, by Misadventure.

4684. SEC. 30. Excusable homicide by misadventure, is when a person is doing a lawful act, without any intention of killing, yet unfortunately kills another, as where a man is at work with an ax, and the head flies off and kills a bystander, or where a parent is moderately correcting his child, or a master his servant, or scholar, or an officer punishing a criminal, and happens to occasion death, it is only a misadventure, for the act of correction was lawful; but if a parent or master exceed the bounds of moderation, or the officer the sentence under which he acts, either in the manner, the instrument, or quantity of punishment, and death ensue, it will be manslaughter or murder, according to the circumstances of the case.

Excusable Otherwise.

4685. SEC. 31. All other instances which stand upon the same footing of reason and justice as those enumerated, shall be considered justifiable or excusable homicide.

Appearing Justifiable.

4686. SEC. 32. The homicide appearing to be justifiable or excusable, the person indicted shall, upon his trial, be fully acquitted and discharged.

Mitigating Circumstances.

4687. SEC. 33. The killing being proved, the burden of proving circumstances of mitigation, or that justify or excuse the homicide, will devolve on the accused, unless the proof on the part of the prosecution sufficiently manifests that the crime committed only amounts to manslaughter, or that the accused was justified, or excused in committing the homicide.

Concealing Death of Bastard.

4688. SEC. 34. If any woman shall endeavor privately, either by herself, or the procurement of others, to conceal the death of any issue of her body, male or female, which, if born alive, would be a bastard, so that it may not come to light, whether it shall have been murdered or not, every such mother being convicted thereof, shall suffer imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding one year; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent such mother from being indicted and punished for the murder of such bastard child.

Duelling.

4689. SEC. 35. If any person shall, by previous appointment or agreement, fight a duel with a rifle, shotgun, pistol, bowie knife, dirk, smallsword, backsword, or other dangerous weapon, and in so doing shall kill his antagonist, or any person or persons, or shall inflict such wound as that the party or parties injured shall die thereof within one year thereafter, every such offender shall be deemed guilty of murder in the first degree, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly.

Disfranchised, When.

4690. SEC. 36. Any person who shall engage in a duel with any deadly weapon, although no homicide ensue, or shall challenge another to fight such duel, or shall send or deliver any verbal or written message purporting or intending to be such challenge, although no duel ensue, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than two nor more than ten years, and shall be incapable of voting or holding any office of trust or profit under the laws of this state.

Competent Witness.

4691. SEC. 37. Any and every person who shall be present at the time of fighting any duel with deadly weapons, either as second, aid, surgeon, or spectator, or who shall advise or give assistance to such duel, shall be a competent witness against any person offending against any of the provisions of this Act, and may be compelled to appear and give evidence before any Justice of the Peace, grand jury, or court, in the same manner as other witnesses; but the testimony so given shall not be used in any prosecution or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the person so testifying.

Posting for Not Fighting.

4692. SEC. 38. If any person shall post another, or, in writing, or print, or orally shall use any reproachful or contemptuous language to, or concerning another, for not fighting a duel, or for not sending or accepting a challenge, he shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term not less than six months nor more than one year, and fined in any sum not less than five hundred nor exceeding one thousand dollars.

Penalty for Duelling—Acting as Second—Deemed Manslaughter.

4693. SEC. 39. If any person or persons, with or without deadly weapons, upon previous concert and agreement, fight one with the other, or give or send, or authorize any other person to give or send, a challenge, verbally or in writing, to fight any other person, the person or persons giving, sending, or accepting a challenge to fight any other person, with or without weapons, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than two years, or more than five years; and every person who shall act for another in giving, sending, or accepting, either verbally or in writing, a challenge, to fight any other person, upon conviction thereof they, or either, or any of them, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than two years or more than five years. Should death ensue to any person in such fight, or should any person die from any injuries received in such fight within one year and one day, the person or persons causing, or having any agency in causing such death, either by fighting or by giving or sending for himself, or for any other person, or in receiving for himself, or for any other person, such challenge to fight, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter, and punished accordingly. As amended, Stats. 1877, 75.

Drawing Deadly Weapons—Duties of Officers.

4694. SEC. 40. Any person in this state having, carrying, or procuring from another person any dirk, dirk-knife, sword, sword-cane, pistol, gun, or other deadly weapon, who shall, in the presence of two or more persons, draw or exhibit any of said deadly weapons, in a rude, angry, or threatening manner, not in necessary self-defense, or who shall in any manner unlawfully use the same in any fight or quarrel, the person or persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months; provided, nevertheless, that no Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Marshal, Constable, or other peace officer, shall be held to answer, under the provisions of this Act, for drawing or exhibiting any of the weapons herein-before mentioned, while in the lawful discharge of his or their duties. It shall be the duty of all military, civil, and peace officers in this state to be vigilant in carrying the provisions of this Act into full force and effect. As amended, Stats. 1873, 118.

Assault and Intimidation.

4695. SEC. 41. If any person shall assault and beat another with a cowhide, stick, or whip, having at the time, in his possession, a pistol or other deadly weapon, with intent to intimidate and prevent the person assaulted from defending himself, such person shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the state prison not less than one or more than ten years.

Administering Poison—Abortion.

4696. SEC. 42. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously administer, or cause to be administered to or taken by any person, any poison, or other noxious or destructive substance or liquid, with the intention to cause the death of such person, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than ten years, and which may extend to life. And any person who shall sell, furnish, procure, prescribe, take, administer, or who shall cause to be sold, furnished, procured, prescribed, taken, or administered, any medicinal substance, or other substance, or liquid, with the intention to procure or cause the miscarriage of any woman, then being pregnant, or with child, or shall use, or caused to be used, any instrument or instruments whatever, with the intention aforesaid, or who shall in any manner make known to any person or persons the ingredients of any medicinal substance or substances, or other substances, or liquid, with the like intent, and shall be thereof duly convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period not less than one nor more than ten years; provided, that no physician shall be affected by the last clause of this section who, in the discharge of his professional duty, produces the miscarriage of any woman in order to save her life. As amended, Stats. 1869, 64.

Mayhem.

4697. SEC. 43. Mayhem consists of unlawfully depriving a human being of a member of his or her body, or disfiguring or rendering it useless. If any person shall cut out or disable the tongue, put out an eye, slit the nose, ear, or lip, or disable any limb or member of another, or shall voluntarily, or of purpose, put out an eye or eyes, every such person shall be guilty of mayhem. The crime of mayhem shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding fourteen years.

Rape.

4698. SEC. 44. Rape is the carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will, and a person duly convicted thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than five years, and which may extend to life; and any person of the age of fifteen years and upwards who shall have carnal knowledge of any female child under the age of fourteen years, either with or without her consent, shall be adjudged guilty of the crime of rape, and be punished as before provided. As amended, Stats. 1889, 74.

1. ATTEMPT TO COMMIT RAPE—CONSENT OF FEMALE. An attempt to commit rape does not constitute an assault when the female actually consents to what is done, whether she be within the age of twelve years or not. State v. Pickett, 11 Nev. 255.
2. RAPE—PENETRATION. Slightest proof only necessary to justify submitting question to the jury. State v. Depoister, 21 Nev. 107.
3. CRIMINAL LAW—RAPE—CONSTRUCTIVE FORCE. In the crime of rape, the force necessary to complete the offense may be constructive. Such constructive force exists where sexual intercourse is had with a woman who is unconscious or mentally unable to fairly comprehend the nature and consequences of the sexual act. State v. Lung, 21 Nev. 200.

Crime Against Nature.

4699. SEC. 45. The infamous crime against nature, either with man or beast, shall subject the offender to be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than five years, and which may extend to life.

Assault.

4700. SEC. 46. An assault is an unlawful attempt, coupled with a present ability, to commit a violent injury on the person of another, and every person convicted thereof shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. As amended, Stats. 1873, 118.

Assault With Intent.

4701. SEC. 47. An assault with intent to kill, commit rape, the infamous crime against nature, mayhem, robbery, or grand larceny, shall subject the offender to imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years. An assault with a deadly weapon, instrument, or other thing, with an intent to inflict upon the person of another a bodily injury, where no considerable provocation appears, or where the circumstances of the assault show an abandoned and malignant heart, shall subject the offender to imprisonment in the state prison not less than one year, or exceeding two years, or to a fine not less than one thousand nor exceeding five thousand dollars, or to both such fine and imprisonment. As amended, Stats. 1873, 118.

1. ASSAULT WITH DEADLY WEAPON. To constitute the crime of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to inflict a bodily injury, there must be an unlawful attempt with a weapon, deadly either in its nature or capable of being used in a deadly manner, to inflict a bodily injury, and with the present ability so to do. State v. Napper, 6 Nev. 113.
2. FINE FOR ASSAULT WITH DEADLY WEAPON. Cannot be less than one thousand dollars. State v. Lawry, 4 Nev. 161. 91 Pac R 137

Assault and Battery.

4702. SEC. 48. Assault and battery is the unlawful beating of another, and a person duly convicted thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months. As amended, Stats. 1873, 118.

4703. SEC. 49. False imprisonment is an unlawful violation of the personal liberty of another, and consists in confinement or detention without sufficient legal authority. Any person convicted of false imprisonment shall pay all damages sustained by the person so imprisoned, and be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the state prison for a term not exceeding one year.

Kidnaping, What Is.

4704. SEC. 50. Kidnaping is the forcible abduction or stealing away of a man, woman, or child from his or her own home, and sending and taking him or her into another country.

Punishment Of.

4705. SEC. 51. Every person who shall forcibly steal, take, or arrest any man, woman, or child, whether white, black, or colored, or any Indian in this state, and carry him or her into another county, state, or territory, or who shall forcibly take or arrest any person or persons whatsoever, with a design to take him or her out of this state, without having established a claim according to the laws of the United States, shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of kidnaping, and be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for any term not less than one, nor more than ten years, for each person kidnaped, or attempted to be kidnaped.

Kidnaping to Enslave.

4706. SEC. 52. Every person who shall hire, persuade, entice, decoy, or seduce, by false promises, misrepresentations, and the like, any negro, mulatto, or colored person, or Indian, to go out of this state, or to be taken or removed therefrom, for the purpose and with the intent to sell such negro, mulatto, colored person, or Indian, into slavery or involuntary servitude, or otherwise to employ him or her for his or her own use, or to the use of another, without the free will and consent of such negro, mulatto, or colored person, or Indian, shall be deemed to have committed the crime of kidnaping, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as in the next preceding section specified.

Forcing Woman to Marry.

4707. SEC. 53. Every person who shall take any woman unlawfully, against her will, and by force, menace, or duress, compel her to marry him, or to marry any other person, or to be defiled, and shall be thereof convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than two nor more than fourteen years; and the record of such conviction shall operate as a divorce to the party so married.

Abduction of Children—Poisoning Water.

4708. SEC. 54. Every person who shall maliciously, forcibly, or fraudulently lead, take, or carry away, or decoy, or entice away any child under the age of ten years, with intent to detain and conceal such child from its parents, guardian, or other person having the lawful charge of such child, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both such fine and imprisonment. Every person who shall willfully poison any spring, well or reservoir of water, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than ten years.

Extortion by Threats.

4709. SEC. 55. If, any person, either verbally or by any written or printed communication, shall maliciously threaten any injury to the person or property of another, with intent thereby to extort money, or any pecuniary advantage whatever, or to compel the person so threatened to do any act against his will, he shall be punished, upon conviction thereof, by imprisonment, not more than one year, nor less than six months, and by a fine not exceeding five hundred, nor less than one hundred dollars.

OFFENSES AGAINST HABITATIONS AND OTHER BUILDINGS.

Arson, First Degree.

4710. SEC. 56. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously burn, or cause to be burned, in the night-time, any dwelling house in which there shall be at the time some human being, shall be deemed guilty of arson in the first degree, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment not less than two years, and which may extend to life, in the state prison.

Second Degree—When Guilty of Murder.

4711. SEC. 57. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously burn, or cause to be burned, any dwelling house or building owned by himself, or the property of another, in the daytime, or in the night or daytime willfully burn, or cause to be burned, any kitchen, office, shop, barn, stable, storehouse, warehouse, or other building, or stacks or stocks of grain, or stacks or stocks of hay or straw, or cordwood, or lumber, or charcoal of the value of fifty dollars or more, or standing crops, the property of any other person or corporation, or any church, meeting house, school house, state house, court house, or other public building, or any ship, vessel, boat, or other water craft, or any bridge of the value of fifty dollars or more, erected across any of the waters of this state, such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of arson in the second degree, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than ten years; and should the life or lives of any person or persons be lost in consequence of such burning, as mentioned in this and the preceding section, such offender shall be deemed guilty of murder, and shall be indicted and punished accordingly. As amended, Stats. 1877, 75.

1. ARSON—Overinsurance as Evidence. State v. Cohn, 9 Nev. 179.

2. INDICTMENT FOR ARSON—Evidence. State v. McMahon, 17 Nev. 365.

To Defraud Insurer.

4712. SEC. 58. Every person who shall willfully burn, or cause to be burned, any building, or any goods, wares, merchandise, or other chattel, which shall be at the time insured against loss or damage by fire, with intent to injure or defraud such insurer, whether the same be the property of such person, or of any other, shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of arson in the second degree, and punished accordingly.

Burglary.

4713. SEC. 59. Every person who shall, in the night-time, forcibly break and enter, or, without force (the doors or windows being open), enter into any dwelling house, or tent, or any other house or building whatever, or any vessel, water craft, railroad, passenger, or freight car, with intent to commit murder, robbery, rape, mayhem, grand larceny, petit larceny, or any felony, shall be deemed guilty of burglary, and, on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than ten years. Whenever such burglary is committed upon a railroad train, in motion or in rest, in this state, and it cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained in what county said crime was committed, the offender may be arrested and tried in any county through which said railroad train may have run. Every person who, in the daytime, shall enter any dwelling house, shop, warehouse, depot, store, mill, barn, stable, outhouse, other building, vessel, or railroad, passenger, or freight car, with intent to steal, or to commit any felony whatever therein, is guilty of housebreaking, and, on conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one nor more than five years. Night-time, as in this section named, means the period between sunset and sunrise. If housebreaking be committed upon any railroad train, in motion or in rest, in this state, and it cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained in what county said crime was committed, the offender may be arrested and tried in any county through which said railroad train may have run. As amended, Stats. 1873, 144.

1. ABOVE SECTION CONSTRUED. But one species of burglary. State v. Watkins, 11 Nev. 30.

2. INTENT AS WELL AS ENTRY MUST BE PROVED. State v. Cowell, 12 Nev. 337; State v. Ryan 12 Nev. 401.

3. INHABITANCY OF BUILDING NOT MATERIAL TO CONSTITUTE BURGLARY—Statute Construed. State v. Dan, 18 Nev. 345.

OFFENSES AGAINST PROPERTY.

Robbery Defined.

4714. SEC. 60. Robbery is the felonious and violent taking of money, goods, or other valuable thing, from the person of another, by force or intimidation.

whom he or she may be intrusted, shall withdraw himself or herself and shall go away with the said money, goods, chattels, or property, or any part thereof, with the intent to steal the same, and defraud his or her master, employer, or any other person or persons, corporation or corporations, of the same, or being in the service of his or her said master, or employer, corporation or corporations, or any other person or firm, shall embezzle the said money, goods, chattels, or property, or any part thereof, or shall otherwise convert the same to his or her own use, shall be prima facie evidence of the intent to steal the same, and every such person or persons so offending shall be punished in the manner prescribed by law for feloniously stealing property of the value of the articles so taken, embezzled, stolen, or converted. As amended, Stats. 1879, 122.

EMBEZZLEMENT—SECTION 74 CONSTRUED. Held, that money received by a clerk who is intrusted by his employer with bills to collect, in the ordinary course of his business as a clerk, is money intrusted to him by his employer. Ex Parte Ricori, 11 Nev. 287.

INTENT IN EMBEZZLEMENT—How Determined. State v. Trolson, 21 Nev. 419.

Conversion by Bailee.

4726. SEC. 75. If any bailee of any money, goods, or property, shall convert the same to his or her own use, with the intent to steal the same, or to defraud the owner or owners thereof, he or she shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement, and on conviction thereof, if the amount or value of the property so converted or embezzled be fifty dollars or more, he or she shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, for a term not less than two nor more than five years; and if the amount or value of the property so converted or embezzled shall be less than fifty dollars, he or she shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The term bailee, as used in this Act, shall be construed to include and mean all persons with whom any money, goods, or property has been deposited, and all persons to whom any goods or property has been loaned or hired, and all persons to whom any goods or property shall be delivered, for any purpose whatsoever, and all persons who shall, either as agent, collector, or servant, be empowered, authorized, or entrusted to carry, collect, or receive any money, goods or property of another; and any use of said money, goods, or property by any bailee thereof, other than that for which the same was borrowed, hired, deposited, carried, received, or collected, shall be prima facie evidence of conversion and of intent to steal the same and defraud the owner or owners thereof. As amended, Stats. 1875, 99; 1879, 123.

Embezzlement by Lodger.

4727. SEC. 76. If any lodger shall take away, with intent to steal, embezzle, or purloin, any bedding, furniture, goods, or chattels, which he is to use in or with his lodging, he shall be deemed to be guilty of grand or petit larceny, according to the value of the property so taken, and, on conviction, shall be punished accordingly.

FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING.

What Acts Considered Forgery.

4728. SEC. 77. Every person who shall falsely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit any record, or other authentic matter of a public nature, or any charter, letters patent, deed, lease, indenture, writing obligatory, will, testament, codicil, annuity, bond, covenant, bank bill or note, post note, check, draft, bill of exchange, contract, promissory note, due bill for the payment of money or property, receipt for money or property, power of attorney, any Auditor's warrant for the payment of the money at the treasury, county order or warrant, or request for the payment of money, or the delivery of goods or chattels of any kind, or for the delivery of any instrument of writing, or acquittance, release, or receipt for money or goods, or any acquittance, release, or discharge for any debt, account, suit, action, demand, or other thing, real or personal, or any transfer or assurance of money, stock, goods, chattels, or other property whatever, or any letter of attorney, or other power to receive money, or to receive or transfer stock or annuities, or to let, lease, dispose of, alien, or convey any goods or chattels, lands or tenements, or other estate, real or personal, or any acceptance or indorsement of any bill of exchange, promissory note, draft, order, or assignment of any bond, writing obligatory, or promissory note, for money or other property, or shall counterfeit or forge the seal or handwriting of another, with intent to damage or defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, whether the said person or persons, body politic or corporate reside in or belong to this state or not, or shall utter, publish, pass, or attempt to pass, as true and genuine, any of the above named false, altered, forged, or counterfeited matters, as above specified and described, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged, or counterfeited, with intent to prejudice, damage or defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, whether the said person or persons, body politic or corporate, reside in this state or not; every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

State v. Cleavland, 6 Nev. 181; State v. McKiernan, 17 Nev. 224.

4729. SEC. 78. Every person who shall counterfeit any of the species of gold or silver coin now current, or that shall hereafter be current in this state, or shall pass or give in payment such counterfeit coin, or permit, cause, or procure the same to be uttered or passed, with intention to defraud any person, body politic, or corporation, knowing the same to be counterfeited, shall be deemed guilty of counterfeiting, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

Intent to Alter the Same.

4730. SEC. 79. Every person who shall have in his possession, or receive for any other person, any counterfeit gold or silver coin or coins of the species now current, or hereafter to be current in this state, with intention to utter or pass the same, or permit, cause, or procure the same to be uttered or passed, with intention to defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, knowing the same to be counterfeit, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Counterfeiting Stamps, Labels, etc.

4731. SEC. 80. That every person who shall knowingly and willfully forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, upon any goods, wares, or merchandise, the private stamps or labels of any mechanic or manufacturer, with intent to defraud the purchasers or manufacturers of any goods, wares, or merchandise whatsoever, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than three hundred or more than six hundred dollars.

Goods Containing Forged Stamps.

4732. SEC. 81. That any person who shall sell any goods, wares, or merchandise having thereon any forged or counterfeit stamps or labels, purporting to be the stamps or labels of any mechanic or manufacturer, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, without disclosing the fact to the purchaser, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than three hundred nor more than six hundred dollars.

Possessing or Receiving Forged Instruments, etc.

4733. SEC. 82. Every person who shall have in his possession, or shall receive from any other person, any forged promissory note or notes, or bank bills, or bills for the payment of money or property, with intention to pass the same, or to permit, cause, or procure the same to be uttered or passed, with intention to defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, whether such person or persons, body politic or corporate, reside in or belong to this state or not, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, or shall have or keep in his possession any blank or unfinished note or bank bill, made in the form or similitude of any promissory note or bill for payment of money or property, made to be issued by any incorporated bank or banking company, with intention to fill up and complete such blank and unfinished note or bill, or to permit, or cause, or procure the same to be filled up and completed in order to utter or pass the same, or to permit, or cause, or procure the same to be uttered and passed to defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, whether in this state or elsewhere, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Fictitious Papers.

4734. SEC. 83. Every person who shall make, pass, utter, or publish, with an intention to defraud any other person or persons, body, politic or corporate, either in this state or elsewhere, or with the like intention shall attempt to pass, utter, or publish, or shall have in his possession, with like intent to utter, pass, or publish, any fictitious bill, note, or check purporting to be the bill, note, or check, or other instrument in writing, for the payment of money or property of some bank, corporation, copartnership, or individual, where, in fact, there shall be no such bank, corporation, copartnership, or individual in existence, the said person knowing the said bill, note, check, or instrument in writing for the payment of money or property to be fictitious, shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Counterfeit Die or Plate.

4735. SEC. 84. Every person who shall make, or knowingly have in his possession, any die or dies, plate or plates, or any apparatus, paper, metal, machine, or other thing whatever made use of in counterfeiting the coin now made current or hereafter to be made current in this state, or in counterfeiting bank notes or bills, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years, and all such dies, plates, apparatus, paper, metal, or machine intended for the purpose aforesaid shall be destroyed.

Not Necessary to Prove Incorporation.

4736. SEC. 85. On the trial of any person for forging any bill or note purporting to be the bill or note of some incorporated company or bank, or for passing or attempting to pass, or having in possession with intent to pass, any such forged bill or note, it shall not be necessary to prove the incorporation of such bank or company by the charter or Act of incorporation, but the same may be proved by general reputation.

Experts.

4737. SEC. 86. Persons of skill shall be competent witnesses to prove that such bill or note is forged or counterfeited.

Counterfeiting Seal.

4738. SEC. 87. Every person who shall fraudulently forge or counterfeit the seal of this state, or the seal of any court or public officer by law entitled to have and use a seal, or seal of any corporation, and shall make use of the same, or shall forge or counterfeit the signature of any public officer, or seal of any corporation, or shall unlawfully and corruptly, and with evil intent, affix any of the said true seals to any commission, deed, warrant, pardon, certificate, or other writing, or who shall have in his possession or custody any such counterfeit seal, and shall willfully conceal the same, knowing it to be falsely made and counterfeited, and shall thereof be convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Counterfeiting Gold Dust, etc.

Possessing or Receiving Same.

4740. SEC. 89. Every person who shall have in his possession, or receive for any other person, any counterfeit gold dust, silver, gold, bullion, or bars, lumps, pieces, or nuggets of gold or silver, or any description whatsoever of uncoined gold or silver currently passing in this state, or entering in any wise into the circulating medium of the state, with intention to utter, put off, or pass the same, or permit, cause, or procure the same to be uttered or passed, with intention to defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, knowing the same to be counterfeit, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

CRIMES AND OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE.

Perjury and Subornation.

4741. SEC. 90. Every person having taken a lawful oath, or made affirmation, in any judicial proceeding, or in any other matter where, by law, an oath or affirmation is required, who shall swear or affirm willfully, corruptly, and falsely, in a matter material to the issue or point in question, or shall suborn any other person to swear or affirm, as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, or subornation of perjury (as the case may be), and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for any term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Deemed Murder.

4742. SEC. 91. Every person who, by willful and corrupt perjury or subornation of perjury, shall procure the conviction and execution of any innocent person, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of murder, and, upon conviction thereof, shall suffer the punishment of death.

SECS. 92, 93 and 94, concerning bribery, are superseded, Secs. 1831 and 1832.

SECS. 95 and 96, concerning official misconduct, are superseded, Secs. 1842 and 1843.

SEC. 97, concerning detention of records, is superseded, Sec. 1844.

Personating Another.

4743. SEC. 98. Every person who shall falsely represent or personate another, and, in such assumed character, shall marry another, become bail or surety for any party, in any proceeding, civil or criminal, before any court or officer authorized to take such bail or surety, or confess any judgment, or acknowledge the execution of any conveyance of real estate, or of any other instrument which, by law, may be recorded, or do any other act in the course of any suit, proceeding, or prosecution, whereby the person so represented or personated may be made liable, in any event, to the payment of any debt, damages, cost, or sum of money, or his right or interest may, in any manner, be affected, shall, upon conviction, be

Fictitious Papers.

4734. SEC. 83. Every person who shall make, pass, utter, or publish, with an intention to defraud any other person or persons, body, politic or corporate, either in this state or elsewhere, or with the like intention shall attempt to pass, utter, or publish, or shall have in his possession, with like intent to utter, pass, or publish, any fictitious bill, note, or check purporting to be the bill, note, or check, or other instrument in writing, for the payment of money or property of some bank, corporation, copartnership, or individual, where, in fact, there shall be no such bank, corporation, copartnership, or individual in existence, the said person knowing the said bill, note, check, or instrument in writing for the payment of money or property to be fictitious, shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Counterfeit Die or Plate.

4735. SEC. 84. Every person who shall make, or knowingly have in his possession, any die or dies, plate or plates, or any apparatus, paper, metal, machine, or other thing whatever made use of in counterfeiting the coin now made current or hereafter to be made current in this state, or in counterfeiting bank notes or bills, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years, and all such dies, plates, apparatus, paper, metal, or machine intended for the purpose aforesaid shall be destroyed.

Not Necessary to Prove Incorporation.

4736. SEC. 85. On the trial of any person for forging any bill or note purporting to be the bill or note of some incorporated company or bank, or for passing or attempting to pass, or having in possession with intent to pass, any such forged bill or note, it shall not be necessary to prove the incorporation of such bank or company by the charter or Act of incorporation, but the same may be proved by general reputation.

Experts.

4737. SEC. 86. Persons of skill shall be competent witnesses to prove that such bill or note is forged or counterfeited.

Counterfeiting Seal.

4738. SEC. 87. Every person who shall fraudulently forge or counterfeit the seal of this state, or the seal of any court or public officer by law entitled to have and use a seal, or seal of any corporation, and shall make use of the same, or shall forge or counterfeit the signature of any public officer, or seal of any corporation, or shall unlawfully and corruptly, and with evil intent, affix any of the said true seals to any commission, deed, warrant, pardon, certificate, or other writing, or who shall have in his possession or custody any such counterfeit seal, and shall willfully conceal the same, knowing it to be falsely made and counterfeited, and shall thereof be convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Counterfeiting Gold Dust, etc.

Possessing or Receiving Same.

4740. SEC. 89. Every person who shall have in his possession, or receive for any other person, any counterfeit gold dust, silver, gold, bullion, or bars, lumps, pieces, or nuggets of gold or silver, or any description whatsoever of uncoined gold or silver currently passing in this state, or entering in any wise into the circulating medium of the state, with intention to utter, put off, or pass the same, or permit, cause, or procure the same to be uttered or passed, with intention to defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, knowing the same to be counterfeit, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

CRIMES AND OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE.

Perjury and Subornation.

4741. SEC. 90. Every person having taken a lawful oath, or made affirmation, in any judicial proceeding, or in any other matter where, by law, an oath or affirmation is required, who shall swear or affirm willfully, corruptly, and falsely, in a matter material to the issue or point in question, or shall suborn any other person to swear or affirm, as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, or subornation of perjury (as the case may be), and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for any term not less than one nor more than fourteen years.

Deemed Murder.

4742. SEC. 91. Every person who, by willful and corrupt perjury or subornation of perjury, shall procure the conviction and execution of any innocent person, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of murder, and, upon conviction thereof, shall suffer the punishment of death.

SECS. 92, 93 and 94, concerning bribery, are superseded, SECS. 1831 and 1832.

SECS. 95 and 96, concerning official misconduct, are superseded, SECS. 1842 and 1843.

SEC. 97, concerning detention of records, is superseded, SEC. 1844.

Personating Another.

4743. SEC. 98. Every person who shall falsely represent or personate another, and, in such assumed character, shall marry another, become bail or surety for any party, in any proceeding, civil or criminal, before any court or officer authorized to take such bail or surety, or confess any judgment, or acknowledge the execution of any conveyance of real estate, or of any other instrument which, by law, may be recorded, or do any other act in the course of any suit, proceeding, or prosecution, whereby the person so represented or personated may be made liable, in any event, to the payment of any debt, damages, cost, or sum of money, or his right or interest may, in any manner, be affected, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than one year, nor exceeding two years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Personating Another Same as Stealing.

4744. SEC. 99. Every person who shall falsely represent or personate another, and, in such assumed character, shall receive any money or valuable property of any description, intended to be delivered to the person so personated, shall, upon conviction, be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as for feloniously stealing the money or property so received.

SEC. 100, concerning obstruction of officer, is superseded, Sec. 1845.

Releasing Prisoner After Conviction.

4745. SEC. 101. If any person or persons shall set at liberty, or rescue any person who shall have been found guilty or convicted of a crime, the punishment of which is death, such person, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years; and if any person or persons shall set at liberty, or rescue any person who shall have been found guilty, or convicted of a crime, the punishment of which is imprisonment in the state prison, or in prison, the person so offending, on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to the same punishment that would have been inflicted on the person so set at liberty or rescued.

Releasing Prisoner Before Conviction.

SEC. 103, concerning escapes, is superseded, Sec. 1846.

Aiding Escape.

4747. SEC. 104. If any person shall carry to any convict imprisoned, or in custody, or into any county jail or other place where such convict may be confined, any tool, weapon, or other aid, with intent to enable such convict to escape such custody or confinement, whether such escape be effected or not, any person so offending, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the state prison not less than one year nor exceeding five years.

On Civil Process.

4748. SEC. 105. If any person or persons shall rescue another in legal custody, on civil process, such person or persons shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Aiding an Attempted Escape.

SECS. 107 and 108, concerning escapes and refusal to arrest, are superseded, Sec. 1843.

Compromising Offenses.

Cheating and Defrauding—Penalty.

4751. SEC. 110. If two or more persons shall conspire either to commit any offense or falsely and maliciously to indict another for any offense, or to procure another to be charged or arrested for any such offense, or falsely to move or maintain any suit, or to cheat or defraud any person of any property by any means which, if executed, would amount to a cheat, or to obtain money or property by false pretenses, or to cheat or defraud any person of any property by any means which are in themselves criminal, or to commit any acts injurious to the public health, to public morals or to trade or commerce, or for the perversion or obstruction of justice or due administration of the laws, they shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars; provided, that it shall not be necessary to procure conviction under this section, to prove any overt act done in pursuance of said conspiracy; and provided further, that no part of this Act shall be construed in any court of this state to restrict or prohibit the orderly and peaceably assembling or coöperation of persons employed in any profession, trade or handicraft for the purpose of securing an advance in the rate of wages, or compensation, or for the maintenance of such rate. As amended, Stats. 1887, 82.

Wrongful Exercise of Official Power.

4752. SEC. 111. If any person shall willfully take upon himself to exercise or officiate in any office or place of another, in this state, without being lawfully authorized thereto, he shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Embracery.

4753. SEC. 112. Embracery is an attempt to influence a juror or jurors corruptly to one side, by threats or menaces, or by promises, persuasions, entreaties, money, and the like. Every embracer, who shall directly or indirectly promise, or offer to any juror, or procure any juror to take money, or any other bribe, present, or reward, or any contract, obligation, or security for the payment or delivery of any money, present, reward or any other thing, or shall corruptly influence, or attempt to influence, any juror, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the state prison not less than one year, nor exceeding five years; and any juror, convicted of taking any money, present, reward, or any other thing, or corruptly being influenced, as aforesaid, shall suffer the like imprisonment, and be forever disqualified to act as a juror. This section shall apply as well to the grand as the trial jurors.

There is no such crime known to the law as an attempt to commit embracery. Embracery is itself but an attempt to do a wrong. There can be no indictment for an attempt to attempt. State v. Sales, 2 Nev. 268.

SEC. 113, concerning extortion, is superseded, Sec. 1834.

SECS. 114 and 115, concerning malfeasance in office, are superseded, SECS. 1849 and 1850.

Threatening.

4754. SEC. 116. If any person shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing threatening to accuse another of a crime or misdemeanor, or to expose or publish any of his infirmities or failings, with intent to extort money, goods, chattels, or other valuable thing; or threatening to maim, wound, kill, or murder, or to burn or destroy his or her house or other property, or to accuse another of a crime or misdemeanor, or expose or publish any of his or her infirmities, though no money, goods, chattels, or other valuable thing be demanded; or writes and sends, or writes and delivers, either through the mail, express, by private parties, or otherwise, any anonymous letter, or any letter bearing a fictitious name, charging any person with crime, or writes and sends any anonymous letter or letters bearing a fictitious name, containing vulgar or threatening language, obscene pictures, or containing reflections upon his or her standing in society or in the community, such person so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. As amended, Stats. 1885, 39.

Opening Sealed Letters.

4755. SEC. 117. Every person who shall willfully open or read, or cause to be read, any sealed letter not addressed to himself, without being authorized so to do, either by the writer of such letter, or by the person to whom it shall be addressed; and any person who shall maliciously publish the whole, or any part of such letter, without the authority of the writer thereof, or of the person to whom the same shall be addressed, knowing the same to have been opened, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

OFFENSES AGAINST THE PUBLIC PEACE AND TRANQUILITY.

Disturbing the Peace.

4756. SEC. 118. If any person shall, maliciously and willfully, disturb the peace or quiet of any neighborhood, or family, by loud or unusual noises, or by tumultuous and offensive conduct, threatening, traducing, quarreling, challenging to fight, or fighting, every person convicted thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than two months.

Assembling to Disturb the Peace.

4757. SEC. 119. If two or more persons assemble for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, or committing any unlawful act, and do not disperse, on being desired or commanded so to do by a Judge, Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, Coroner, Constable, or other public officer, the person so offending shall, on conviction, be severally fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months.

Affray.

4758. SEC. 120. If two or more persons shall, by agreement, fight in a public place, to the terror of the citizens of this state, the persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of an affray, and shall be severally fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not more than one month.

Unlawful Assemblage.

4759. SEC. 121. If two or more persons shall assemble together to do an unlawful act, and separate without doing or advancing towards it, such persons shall be deemed guilty of an unlawful assembly, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be severally fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding three months.

Rout and Riot.

4760. SEC. 122. If two or more persons shall meet to do an unlawful act, upon a common cause of quarrel, and make advances toward it, they shall be deemed guilty of a rout, and, on conviction, shall be severally fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months; and if two or more persons shall actually do an unlawful act of violence, either with or without a common cause of quarrel, or even do a lawful act, in a violent, tumultuous, and illegal manner they shall be deemed guilty of a riot, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars each or by imprisonment in the county jail for any term of time not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Disturbing Religious Meetings.

4761. SEC. 123. Every person who shall willfully disquiet or disturb any congregation, or assembly of people met for religious worship, by making a noise, or by rude or indecent behavior, or profane discourse within their place of worship, or so near to the same as to disturb the order or solemnity of the meeting, or menace, threaten, or assault any person there being, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months.

Selling Liquor at Camp Meetings.

4762. SEC. 124. Every person who shall erect or keep a booth, tent, stall, or other contrivance for the purpose of selling or otherwise disposing of any wine, or spirituous, or fermented liquors, or any drink of which wine, spirituous, or fermented liquors form a part, within one mile of any camp or field meeting for religious worship, during the time of holding such meeting, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

SEC. 125, concerning official neglect, is superseded, Sec. 1851.

Libel.

4763. SEC. 126. A libel is a malicious defamation, expressed either by printing, or by signs, or pictures, or the like, tending to blacken the memory of one who is dead, or to impeach the honesty, integrity, virtue, or reputation or publish the natural defects of one who is alive, and thereby to expose him or her to public hatred, contempt, or ridicule; every person, whether the writer or the publisher, convicted of the offense, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. In all prosecutions for libel the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motive and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted, and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC MORALITY, HEALTH AND POLICE.

Bigamy.

4764. SEC. 127. Bigamy consists in the having of two wives or two husbands at one and the same time, knowing that the former husband or wife is still alive. If any person or persons within this state being married, or who shall hereafter marry, do at any time marry any person or persons, the former husband or wife being alive, the person so offending shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the state prison not less than one year nor more than five years. It shall not be necessary to prove either of the said marriages by the register and certificate thereof, or other record evidence, but the same may be proved by such evidence as is admissible to prove a marriage in other cases; and when such second marriage shall have taken place without this state, cohabitation in this state after such second marriage shall be deemed the commission of the crime of bigamy. Nothing herein contained shall extend to any person or persons whose husband or wife shall have been continually absent from such person or persons for the space of five years together prior to the said second marriage, and he or she not knowing such husband or wife to be living within that time. Also, nothing herein contained shall extend to any person that is or shall be, at the time of such second marriage, divorced by lawful authority from the bonds of such former marriage, or to any person where the former marriage hath been by lawful authority declared void.

BIGAMY—Evidence of Lack of Criminal Intent Not Admissible. State v. Zichfeld, 23 Nev. 305.

Marrying a Married Person.

4765. SEC. 128. If any man or woman, being unmarried, shall knowingly marry the husband or wife of another, such man or woman shall, on conviction, be fined not less than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the state prison not less than one nor more than two years.

Incest.

4766. SEC. 129. Persons being within the degree of consanguinity within which marriages are declared by law to be incestuous and void, who shall intermarry with each other, or who shall commit fornication or adultery with each other, shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not less than one nor exceeding ten years.

Obstructing Highway or Stream.

4767. SEC. 130. If any person shall obstruct or injure, or cause or procure to be obstructed or injured, any public road or highway, or common street or alley of any city, town or village, or any public bridge or causeway, mill race, mill dam, or ditch, or public river or stream, or shall continue such obstruction, so as to render the same inconvenient or dangerous to pass, or shall erect or establish any offensive trade, manufacture, or business, or continue the same after it has been erected or established, or shall, in any wise, pollute or obstruct any watercourse, lake, pond, marsh, or common sewer, or continue such obstruction or pollution so as to render the same offensive or unwholesome to the county, city, town, village, or neighborhood thereof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, and every such nuisance may, by order of the court before whom the conviction may take place, or of the district court, be removed and abated by the Sheriff of the county.

Selling Diseased Flesh, etc.

4768. SEC. 131. If any person or persons shall knowingly sell any flesh of any diseased animal, or other unwholesome provisions, or any poisonous or adulterated drink or liquors, every person so offending shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months.

Defacing Proclamations, etc.

4769. SEC. 132. If any person shall intentionally deface, obliterate, tear down, or destroy, in whole or in part, any copy or transcript, or extract from or of any law of the United States, or of this state, or any proclamation, advertisement, or notification, set up at any place in this state, by authority of any law of the United States, or of this state, or by order of any court, such person, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, nor less than twenty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one month; provided, that this section shall not extend to defacing, tearing down, obliterating, or destroying any law, proclamation, publication, notification, advertisement, or order, after the time for which the same was by law to remain set up shall have expired.

Implements for Burglary Found in Possession.

4770. SEC. 133. If any person shall be found having upon him or her any picklock, crow-key, bit, or other instrument or tool, with intent feloniously to break and enter into any dwelling house, store, shop, warehouse, or other building, containing valuable property, or shall be found in any of the aforesaid buildings, with intent to steal any money, goods, and chattels, every person so offending shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the state prison not less than one year nor more than five years; and if any person shall have upon him any pistol, gun, knife dirk, bludgeon, or other offensive weapon, with intent to assault any person, every such person, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than three months.

Refusing to Join Posse.

4771. SEC. 134. Every male person, above eighteen years of age, who shall neglect or refuse to join the posse comitatus, or power of the county, by neglecting or refusing to aid and assist in taking or arresting any person or persons against whom there may be issued any process, or by neglecting to aid and assist in retaking any person or persons who, after being arrested or confined, may have escaped from such arrest or imprisonment, or by neglecting or refusing to aid and assist in preventing any breach of the peace, or the commission of any criminal offense, being thereto lawfully required by any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, Coroner, Constable, Judge, or Justice of the Peace, or other officer concerned in the administration of justice, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

OFFENSES COMMITTED BY CHEATS, SWINDLERS, AND OTHER FRAUDULENT PERSONS.

Fraudulent Conveyances.

4772. SEC. 135. All and every person who shall be a party to any fraudulent conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, goods, or chattels, or any right or interest issuing out of the same, or to any bond, suit, judgment, or execution, contract or conveyance had, made, or contrived, with intent to deceive and defraud others, or to defeat, hinder, or delay, creditors or others of their just debts, damages, or demands; or who, being parties as aforesaid, at any time shall wittingly and willingly put in, use, avow, maintain, justify, or defend the same, or any of them, as true and done, had, or made, in good faith, or upon good consideration, or shall alien, assign, or sell any of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels, or other things before mentioned, to him, her, or them conveyed as aforesaid, or any part thereof, he, she, or they so offending, shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months.

Credit by False Representations.

4773. SEC. 136. If any person, by false representations of his own wealth, or mercantile correspondence and connections, shall obtain a credit thereby, and defraud any person or persons of money, goods, chattels, or any valuable thing, or if any person shall cause, or procure others to report falsely of his wealth or mercantile character, and by thus imposing upon any person or persons, obtain credit, and thereby fraudulently get into the possession of goods, wares, or merchandise, or other valuable thing, every such offender shall be deemed a swindler, and, on conviction, shall be sentenced to return the property so fraudulently obtained, if it can be done, and shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months.

False Pretenses.

4774. SEC. 137. If any person or persons shall knowingly and designedly, by any false pretense or pretenses, obtain from any other person or persons any chose in action, money, goods, wares, chattels, effects, or other valuable thing, with intent to cheat or defraud any person or persons of the same; every person so offending shall be deemed a cheat, and on conviction shall be imprisoned in the state prison not more than ten years nor less than one year, and be sentenced to restore the property so fraudulently obtained, if it can be done; provided, that should the value of any chose in action, money, goods, wares, chattels, effects, or other valuable thing so, as aforesaid, fraudulently obtained, not exceed in value the sum of fifty dollars, every person so offending shall be deemed a cheat, and on conviction shall be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months, or be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and be sentenced to restore the property so fraudulently obtained, if it can be done. As amended, Stats. 1875, 103.

Fraudulently Selling Real Estate.

4775. SEC. 138. If any person or persons, association, company, or corporation, shall make, issue, or put in circulation, any bill, check, ticket, certificate, promissory note, or the paper of any bank, to circulate as money, the said person or persons, association, company, or corporation, or the persons forming the same, shall, for the first offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each and every subsequent offense, be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be punished as hereinafter provided. Any person or persons who shall, upon indictment, be convicted of having violated the provisions of this Act, shall be punished, for the first offense, by imprisonment in the county jail not more than three months, or by fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and for the second and every subsequent offense, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than five years, at the discretion of the court before whom such person or persons shall be tried and convicted. It shall be the duty of the District Attorney for each judicial district in the state to prosecute all offenses against this Act, and it shall be the duty of the Judges of the courts to give this law in the charge of the grand jury, who shall inquire into and present all cases of a violation thereof.

Vending Without License.

4787. SEC. 150. Any person or persons who shall vend, by wholesale or retail, any spirituous, or malt, or vinous liquors, or any goods, wares, or merchandise, within any county in this state, without first obtaining a license so to do, as required by law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, be fined in a sum of not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, for each and every offense. Any Justice of the Peace of the county in which such offense is charged to have been committed, shall have jurisdiction to try and determine the same. Upon the trial of any criminal action provided for by this Act, the defendant shall be deemed not to have procured any such license, unless he prove the contrary to the satisfaction of the court or jury by whom the same is tried. All fines collected under this Act shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which the conviction is had.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Common Law Crimes.

4788. SEC. 151. All offenses recognized by the common law as crimes, and not herein enumerated, shall be punished, in case of felonies, by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one year nor more than five years, and in case of misdemeanors, by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months or less than one, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and whenever any fine is imposed for any felony or misdemeanor, whether such by statute or at common law, the party upon whom the fine is imposed shall be committed to the county jail, when not sentenced to the state prison, until the fine is paid; and he shall be imprisoned at the rate of one day for each two dollars until such fine is paid.

SEC. 152 obsolete.

Effect of Sentence.

4789. SEC. 153. A sentence of imprisonment in the state prison for a term less than life, suspends all civil rights of the person so sentenced, during the term of imprisonment, and forfeits all public offices, and all private trusts, authority, and power; and the person sentenced to such imprisonment for life, shall thereafter be deemed civilly dead.

"Person" Defined.

4790. SEC. 154. Where the term "person" is used in this Act to designate the party whose property may be the subject of any offense, such term shall be construed to include the United States, this state, or any other state or territory, government, or county, which may lawfully own any property within this state, and all public and private corporations, as well as individuals.

Females Liable.

4791. SEC. 155. The provisions of this Act shall extend to females.

Intent to Injure, Defraud, etc.

4792. SEC. 156. When any intent to injure, defraud, or cheat, is required by law to be shown, in order to constitute any offense, it shall be sufficient if such intent be to injure, defraud, or cheat, the United States, this state, or any other state, territory, or county, or the government, or any public office thereof, or any county, city, or town, or any corporation, body politic or private individuals.

Reward May Be Offered.

4793. SEC. 157. If any person who has been sentenced to confinement in the state prison, by any court having competent authority within this state, shall escape therefrom, or shall be charged with murder, or the perpetration of any crime punishable with death, the Governor is authorized, upon satisfactory evidence of the guilt of the accused, to offer a reward for his or their apprehension, which reward shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, and shall be paid out of the general fund.

Attempt to Commit Offense.

4794. SEC. 158. Every person who shall attempt to commit a public offense, and in such attempt shall do any act toward the commission of such offense, but shall fail in the perpetration thereof, or shall be prevented or intercepted in executing the same, upon conviction thereof, shall, in cases where no provision is made by law for the punishment of such attempt, be punished as follows: First—If the offense so attempted to be committed be such as is punishable by death or by imprisonment in the state prison for a term which may extend to life, the person convicted of such attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years. Second—If the offense so attempted is a misdemeanor, the person so convicted of such attempt shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one-half of the largest amount, or by imprisonment in the county jail or state prison, as the case may be, for a term not exceeding one-half of the longest time prescribed by law, upon a conviction of the offense so attempted. Third—If the offense so attempted is a felony, not punishable by death or imprisonment, which may extend to life, the person convicted of such offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding one-half the longest time which may be imposed upon a conviction of the offense so attempted.

SEC. 159 obsolete.

An Act to prevent slavery or involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime, in the State of Nevada, and to enforce the provisions of section seventeen of article one of the constitution of the State of Nevada.

Approved March 8, 1879, 105.

Preamble.

4855. WHEREAS, All Chinese who come to this coast arrive here under a contract to labor for a term of years, and are bound by such contract, not only by the superstitions of their peculiar religions, but by leaving their blood relations, fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, or cousins, as hostages in China for the fulfillment of their part of the contract; and, whereas, such slave labor and involuntary servitude is opposed to the genius of our institutions, opposed to the prevailing spirit of the age, as well as to humanity and Christianity, and degrades the dignity of labor, which is the foundation of republican institutions; and, whereas, section seventeen of article one of the constitution of the State of Nevada reads as follows: "Neither slavery, nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crimes, shall ever be tolerated in this state"; therefore,

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Involuntary Servitude.

4856. SECTION 1. The immigration to this state of all slaves and other people bound by contract to involuntary servitude for a term of years, is hereby prohibited.

Collection of Wages.

4857. SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any company, person or persons, to collect the wages or compensation for the labor of the persons described in the first section of this Act.

To Pay Wages, Unlawful.

4858. SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, company, person or persons, to pay to any owner, or agent of the owner of any such persons mentioned in section one of this Act, any wages or compensation for the labor of such slaves, or persons so bound by said contract to involuntary servitude.

Penalty.

4859. SEC. 4. Any violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than three months or more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

An Act concerning vagrancy and vagrants.

Approved March 5, 1877, 181.

Vagrancy, a Misdemeanor.

4860. SECTION 1. Vagrancy consists of the acts and deeds of commission and omission, coupled with the personal state and condition of a vagrant, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor; and any person convicted thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding ninety days.

Who Are Vagrants--Not to Apply to Indians or Chinamen, When.

4861. SEC. 2. Every idle and dissolute person, without visible or known means of living, who has the physical ability to work, and who does not for the space of ten days make proper inquiry for, and use due diligence to seek employment, nor labor when employment is offered him; also, every idle or dissolute person who roams about the country from place to place without any lawful business; also, every healthy beggar who solicits alms as a business; also, every person who makes a practice of going from house to house begging food, money, or other articles, or seeks admission to such houses upon frivolous pretexts for no other apparent motive than to see who may be therein, or to gain an insight of the premises; also, every idle or dissolute person or associate of known thieves who wanders about the streets at late and unusual hours of the night, or prowls around dark alleys, byways, and other dark or unfrequented places at any hour of the night, without any legitimate business in so doing; also, every idle or dissolute person who lodges in any barn, shed, shop, outhouse, or place other than that kept for lodging purposes, without the permission of the owner or person entitled to the possession thereof; every "check guerrilla," i. e., one who frequents gambling rooms and solicits money or the checks used therein to represent money from the proprietors, bystanders or betters, and who has no other means of living other than the money so obtained, or obtained in a similar manner elsewhere; every lewd and dissolute male person who lives in and about houses of ill-fame; also, every lewd and dissolute female person known as a "street walker," or common prostitute, who shall upon the public streets, or in or about any public place or assemblage, or in any saloon, bar-room, club-room, or any other public or general place of resort for men, or anywhere within the sight or hearing of ladies or children, conduct and behave herself in an immodest, drunken, indecent, profane, or obscene manner, either by actions, language, or improper exposure of her person; every common drunkard who is in the habit of lying around the streets, alleys, sidewalks, saloons, bar-rooms or other public places in a state of gross intoxication; also, every boy or male person under the age of twenty-one years, who habitually remains away from his home or place of residence after the hour of nine (9) o'clock p. m. without some lawful and necessary business, or other imperative duty, or good and sufficient reason or cause for such absence from home after such hour, for his own amusement and pastime, without any legitimate business for so doing, frequents and passes his time in any gambling room, or other place where gambling is conducted, or any billiard room or other place where any such games are played, or any saloon or other place where intoxicating liquor is sold or drank; or who at any hour of the night or day, for his own amusement and pastime, without any legitimate business for so doing, frequents or loafs around any low den, house, or other place of vice, infamy, or immorality, where known thieves and other vicious and infamous persons resort or congregate; or who at any hour of the night, either alone or otherwise, prowls about the streets or town, disturbing the peace and quiet of the neighborhood by loud or unnecessary noise, or committing petty depredations, tricks, or pranks, upon the person or property of other people, or by abusive, obscene, or insulting language, or by any manner of rowdiness whatsoever, disturb and annoy the passersby, any lawful assemblage of persons, or the neighborhood at large, is a vagrant, and guilty of vagrancy, and, upon conviction, may be punished accordingly. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to Indians, nor to Chinese, when such acts of vagrancy are committed around or in their own quarters, or Chinatown, unless complained of by their own countrymen.

Vagrants May Be Employed on Public Works.

4862. SEC. 3. All male persons having the physical ability to work, convicted of vagrancy and imprisoned on judgment therefor, may be required to perform labor on the public works, buildings, grounds, or ways in the county, and the Sheriff or other person or persons having them in charge while performing such labor may, in his discretion, employ any usual, reasonable, humane, and sufficient means to guard against and prevent such prisoner escaping from custody while being so employed.

Credit Given.

4863. SEC. 4. For each and every day's work willingly and faithfully performed by such vagrant, he shall receive credit for two days' time, which shall be by the Sheriff applied upon and deducted from his term of imprisonment.

For Refusal to Work.

4864. SEC. 5. If any imprisoned vagrant convicted under this Act, having the physical ability to work, refuse to work when required so to do, as herein provided, he may, as a punishment, be forced to work by being compelled to "pack sand," or carry other material and weight from place to place, or to perform other labor not unreasonable, inhumane, or too burdensome, until he declares himself willing to work, and does work as required; or in lieu thereof he may, in the discretion of the Sheriff, be confined in a cell of the jail and fed upon no other food except bread and water, until he declares himself ready to work, as required herein; but both methods of punishment herein prescribed shall in no instance be inflicted at the same time. In either case of punishment the prisoner shall have no credit given him upon his term of imprisonment, for such forced labor or solitary confinement.

May Procure Employment For.

4865. SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff, during fair and reasonable weather, when the same can be done without extra expense to the county, to procure employment for and set at work such convicted vagrants, who are serving out their term of imprisonment; and to this end, upon application of any Road Supervisor, Superintendent, foreman, or other overseer or custodian of any public works, buildings, or grounds, he may deliver into the custody and charge of such person making the application, such prisoners, to do labor as herein required, who, after working hours of the day, or after suspension of labor from any cause, shall be returned into the custody of the Sheriff of the county for safe keeping until again required for labor.

Fees of District Attorney.

4866. SEC. 7. For each and every legal conviction under this Act the District Attorney shall be entitled to receive the sum of ten dollars from the county; but the person or persons having such vagrants in charge during such labor shall receive no extra compensation for such charge over and above their regular salary, or wages which they are by law entitled to receive.

Repeal.

4867. SEC. 8. The Act entitled "An Act concerning vagrants and vagrancy," approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-three [p. 189], and all other Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act, are hereby repealed.

An Act for the more effectual prevention of cruelty to animals.

Approved March 7, 1873, 141.

Society for Prevention of Cruelty.

4868. SECTION 1. Any three or more citizens of the State of Nevada, who shall incorporate as a body corporate under the general laws for incorporations in this state, for the purpose of preventing cruelty to animals, may avail themselves of the privileges and benefits of this Act; provided, that the corporate body first forming as aforesaid in any county shall be the only one so entitled to the benefits and privileges of this Act in said county.

By-Laws of Society.

4869. SEC. 2. The said societies may make and adopt by-laws governing the admission of associates and members, providing for all meetings, and assistant and district or local officers; providing, also, for means and systems for the effectual attainments of the objects contemplated by this Act, for the regulation and management of its business affairs, and for the effectual working of the societies; prescribing, also, the duties of all their officers, for the outlay of all moneys, and the auditing of all accounts; provided, that such by-laws shall not in any wise conflict with the laws of the State of Nevada or of the United States, or any provision of this Act.

Officers—Reports.

4870. SEC. 3. Said societies shall elect officers and fill vacancies according to the provisions of their by-laws. They shall make such reports of elections as is by law required of all corporations, and shall, in addition, report to the legislature of the State of Nevada, at each of its regular sessions, a full account of all their acts.

Peace Officers May Arrest.

4871. SEC. 4. All Sheriffs, Constables, police, and peace officers are empowered to make arrests for the violation of any of the provisions of this Act, and are hereby also empowered to make arrest without warrant, for the violation of any provision of this Act which by this Act is denominated a misdemeanor, when said misdemeanor is committed in the presence of said officers.

Arrests, Whom May Make—Society Badge—Resistance.

4872. SEC. 5. All members and agents, and all local and district officers of each or any of the societies so incorporating, as shall by the Trustees of said societies be duly authorized in writing, approved by the County Judge of the county, and sworn in the same manner as are Constables and peace officers, may make arrests for the violation of the provisions of this Act in the same manner as is provided herein for other officers; provided, that all such members shall, when making such arrests, exhibit and expose a suitable badge, to be adopted by said society. All persons resisting said specially appointed officers, as such, shall be punished for said resistance in the same manner as is provided for the punishment of resistance to other officers.

What Considered Cruelty—Property May Be Seized—Maimed Animal Not to Run at Large.

4873. SEC. 6. Every person who shall overdrive, overload, torture, torment, or deprive of sufficient and necessary sustenance, or unmercifully or cruelly beat or mutilate any living creature, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who shall, by his act or neglect, maliciously maim, wound, injure, torture, or cruelly beat any animal belonging to himself or to another, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who shall cause any animal, bull, bear, dog, cock, or other creature to fight, worry, or injure each other, or any person who shall permit the same to be done on premises under his charge or control, and any person who shall aid, abet, or be present at such fighting and worrying of such animals as a spectator for an admission fee, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that this shall not apply to officers of said society, peace, or police officers, or to witnesses authorized by the Board of Trustees of said society to be present at such fight for the purpose of giving evidence before the Police Judge, magistrate, or the grand jury of the county in which the offense was committed. Every person who, carrying or transporting, or causing to be carried or transported on any vehicle, railroad car, steamer, or sailing vessel, any living creature, shall unnecessarily torture, injure, torment, beat, wound, or deprive of necessary sustenance, or cause unnecessary pain to them, or any person who shall pluck the feathers from any living fowl or bird, geese and tame ducks excepted, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and whenever such person shall be taken into custody, or placed under arrest, by any officer or person authorized to take into custody and to arrest for said unlawful acts, such person so arresting may take charge of the vehicle and its contents, in which such unlawful carrying is committed, and keep the same in some safe place, to be by the owner or person controlling said vehicle designated, or if such place be not designated, then to deliver the same into the custody of the Sheriff or Constable; to be safely kept until such person so arrested, shall be admitted to bail or shall claim the same, when it shall be delivered to the owner, or person entitled to the possession thereof, upon the payment of all charges of detention and keeping. Every owner, driver, or possessor of any maimed or diseased horse, mule, ox, or cow, or other domestic animal, who shall permit the same to go loose in any street, alley, or vacant lot of any town or city for more than three hours after knowledge thereof, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, this shall not apply to owner keeping such animal, belonging to him, on his own premises, with proper care. Every sick, disabled, infirm, or crippled horse, ox, mule, cow, or other domestic animal, which shall be abandoned on the public highway, or in any open space in any city or town, may, after due search by a peace officer of said society, and no owner can be found therefor, be destroyed by such officer, and it shall be the duty of all police and peace officers to cause the same to be done on information of such fact of abandonment of such creatures.

Punishment.

4874. SEC. 7. Every person convicted of any misdemeanor under this Act shall be punished as is by law provided for the punishment of misdemeanors.

Prosecutions.

4875. SEC. 8. All prosecutions for violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be conducted and prosecuted in a court of competent jurisdiction; and any member of said societies, authorized as is provided in section five of this Act, may appear and prosecute in any of said courts, for any violation of the provisions of this Act, whether or not he be an attorney and counselor at law; provided, that all such prosecutions shall be conducted in the name of the people of the State of Nevada.

Judgment Upon Conviction.

4876. SEC. 9. In all prosecutions for the violation of any of the provisions of this Act, the court shall, if the defendant be found guilty, direct the Clerk to enter, if it be a court of record, and if not, the Judge of said court shall enter upon the docket or judgment record of said court, the fact that the defendant was convicted for a violation of some provision of this Act; and the Judge or court shall direct that the whole of the fine, which may be paid as a penalty for such violation, to be paid to the President, Secretary, or Treasurer of any society in said county organized and incorporated as herein provided. And such Judge of such court, Justice, or Clerk of the Court, if it be a court of record, shall annually report, on the first Monday in September; the amount of money so paid to said society, in a report to be transmitted to the Board of Supervisors of said county; and each of said Boards of Supervisors shall make a report, on the first Monday of November of each year, to the Controller of the state, of all such sums of money so paid to said society, and said Controller shall report the sum total of said sums to the legislature at each of its regular sessions.

An Act to prohibit the winning of money from persons who have no right to gamble it away.

Approved March 5, 1877, 173.

Forbidden to Gamble.

4931. SECTION 1. No person who has a wife, minor child, or minor children dependent in whole or in part upon his earnings for support, and to whom (with himself) all such earnings are necessary for their proper and comfortable maintenance, shall be deemed to have the right to squander any portion thereof in gambling. No person who is justly and legally indebted to another for board, clothing, goods, wares, merchandise, labor, medical attendance, or otherwise, and who is not lawfully seized of sufficient real or personal property liable to levy and sale under execution to satisfy such indebtedness, shall be deemed to have the right to squander his earnings or money in gambling so long as such lawful and just debt remains unpaid.

Notice to Owner of Game.

4932. SEC. 2. If any person having such dependent family or unpaid creditor as mentioned in section one of this Act, be in the habit or practice of squandering his money in gambling, it shall be the right of such family, or of such unpaid lawful creditor, or of any friend or friends of the same, to give, or cause to be given, written notice thereof to the proprietor, keeper, dealer in, or other person in charge of, or usually in attendance and employed at any place or places where gambling is carried on or practiced, stating in such notice all the necessary facts pertaining to his case, and requesting that no person connected with or frequenting the place be allowed to win or take his money.

To Take Money a Misdemeanor, When—Proviso.

4933. SEC. 3. Every person who shall win or take from, or who shall assist or be interested, either as dealer, player, proprietor, principal, agent, or otherwise, in winning or taking from such head of a dependent family, or such poor debtor as is described in section one of this Act, any money, promissory note, due bill, or other evidence of indebtedness, or other valuable thing, at any gambling game, betting game, or game of chance or skill, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than three months nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; provided, that no conviction shall be had for a violation of the provisions of this Act unless it be shown upon the trial that the defendant, or some one connected with the game or gambling place where such winning was made, as proprietor, dealer, player, keeper, or some other person usually in attendance and employed or interested therein had, previous to such winning, been notified or informed, in writing, that the individual (his identity being known or made known) from whom the money or other valuable thing had been won or taken, was either the head of a dependent family or poor debtor in the condition described in section one of this Act; and, if such poor debtor, that said notice or information contained also a statement of the name of at least one of the parties to whom he was indebted, with the amount, or about the amount, due the same; and, in such last mentioned case, it shall also be shown upon the trial that at the time of the winning complained of, such indebtedness, or some portion thereof, remained unpaid. No other proof of notice to or knowledge by the defendant shall be required than that stated in this proviso.

Licenses.

4934. SEC. 4. All licenses for gaming or gambling hereafter granted shall be deemed to be subject to the provisions of this Act.

Fines.

4935. SEC. 5. All fines collected under this Act shall be paid into and belong to the county poor fund.

List to Be Kept.

4936. SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of all county, town or municipal officers, who grant or collect licenses for gaming or gambling, to keep in their respective offices a list of all places where gaming or gambling is licensed to be carried on, which list shall at all reasonable hours be open to the inspection of any sober person not under twenty-one years of age.

An Act to prohibit lotteries.

Approved March 7, 1873, 186.

Lotteries Defined.

4937. SECTION 1. A lottery is any scheme for the disposal or distribution of property, by chance, among persons who have paid or promised to pay any valuable consideration for the chance of obtaining such property, or a portion of it, or for any share or any interest in such property upon any agreement, understanding, or expectation that it is to be distributed or disposed of by lot or chance, whether called a lottery, raffle or gift enterprise, or by whatever name the same may be known.

Drawing Of.

4938. SEC. 2. Every person who contrives, prepares, sets up, proposes, or draws any lottery, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Selling of Tickets, Misdemeanor.

4939. SEC. 3. Every person who sells, gives or in any manner whatever furnishes or transfers to or for any other person any ticket, chance, share, or interest, or any paper, certificate or instrument purporting or understood to be or to represent any ticket, chance, share, or interest in or depending upon the event of any lottery, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Aiding Sale of Tickets.

4940. SEC. 4. Every person who aids or assists, either by printing, writing, advertising, publishing, or otherwise, in setting up, managing, or drawing any lottery, or in selling or disposing of any ticket, chance, or share therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Keeping Tickets.

4941. SEC. 5. Every person who opens, sets up, or keeps by himself or by any other person, any office or other place for the sale of or for registering the number of any ticket in any lottery, or who by printing, writing, or otherwise advertises or publishes the setting up, opening, or using of any such office, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Insuring or Guaranteeing Ticket.

4942. SEC. 6. Every person who insures or receives any consideration for insuring for or against the drawing of any ticket in any lottery whatever, whether drawn or to be drawn within this state or not, or who receives any valuable consideration upon any agreement to repay any sum or deliver the same, or any other property; if any lottery ticket or number of any ticket in any lottery shall prove fortunate or unfortunate, or shall be drawn or not be drawn at any particular time or in any particular order, or who promises or agrees to pay any sum of money, or to deliver any goods, things in action or property, or to forbear to do anything for the benefit of any person, with or without consideration, upon any event or contingency dependent upon the drawing of any ticket in any lottery, or who publishes any notice or proposal of any of the purposes aforesaid, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Forfeited to State.

4943. SEC. 7. All moneys and property offered for sale or distribution in violation of any of the provisions of this Act are forfeited to the state, and may be recovered by information filed or by an action brought by the Attorney-General, or by any District Attorney, in the name of the state. Upon the filing of the information or complaint, the Clerk of the Court, or if the suit be in a justice's court, the Justice, must issue an attachment against the property mentioned in the complaint or information, which attachment has the same force and effect against such property, and is issued in the same manner as attachments from the district courts in civil cases.

Misdemeanor.

4944. SEC. 8. Every person who lets or permits to be used any building or vessel, or any portion thereof, knowing that it is to be used for setting up, managing, or drawing any lottery, or for the purpose of selling or disposing of lottery tickets, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Fine and Imprisonment.

4945. SEC. 9. Every offense declared to be a misdemeanor by this Act shall be punishable by a fine in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for any term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

4983. SECTION 1. Any person who shall knowingly have or use about his premises, or who shall convey, or cause to be conveyed, into any neighborhood, any clothing, bedding, or other substance, used by or in taking care of any person afflicted by small-pox or other infectious or contagious disease, or infected thereby, or shall do any other act with the intent to, or necessarily tending to the spread of such disease into any neighborhood or locality; every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined in any sum not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and the court trying any such offender, may also include in any judgment rendered an order to the effect that the clothing or other property infected be burned or otherwise destroyed, and shall have power to carry such order into effect.

Penalty for Violation.

4984. SEC. 2. Any person guilty of violating the provisions of section one of this Act, in addition to the penalties herein prescribed, shall be liable in a civil action, in damages, to any and all persons who may from that cause become infected with such contagious disease; said damages shall be so assessed as to include, in addition to other damages, all expenses incurred by reason of such sickness, loss of time, and burial expenses; and such action may also be maintained by the representative of any deceased person.

An Act to prevent the propagation and spread of contagious diseases.

Approved February 24, 1879, 47.

Removal of Deceased Person.

4985. SECTION 1. Any person or persons, company, association or corporation in this state who shall exhume or disinter, or who shall cause to be exhumed or disinterred, any human remains, or any part of such remains which have been buried in the ground in this state, for the purpose of transporting the same to any other state or foreign country, except under the conditions hereinafter provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than three hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each and every such offense, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for any period not less than six months nor more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Commissioners to Issue Permits.

4986. SEC. 2. The County Commissioners of the several counties in this state, in which said human remains are buried or interred, as provided in section one of this Act, are hereby authorized to grant and to issue written permits for the disinterments and removal of any such human remains referred to in section one of this Act, whenever in their judgment the public health will not be endangered by such disinterment and removal; provided, however, that no such permit shall be granted or issued under any circumstances or at any time where the party or parties buried or interred have died from or with any contagious or loathsome disease.

An Act relating to the burial of the dead of incorporated cities in the State of Nevada.

Approved March 8, 1879, 119.

Certificate of Physician—Coroner's Permit to Issue.

4987. SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any undertaker or other person within the State of Nevada to bury any deceased person who has died within the limits of any incorporated town or city in said state without first having procured a certificate from the physician who attended the said deceased person during his or her last illness, setting forth the name, nativity, sex, age, time of death, place of death and cause of death of said deceased person, as near as can be ascertained by said physician; provided, that in cases where no physician has attended said deceased person during his or her last illness, no such certificate shall be required, but the Coroner's permit mentioned in the next succeeding section of this Act shall be obtained, and shall be sufficient authority for the burial of such deceased person.

To Present Certificate—Coroner to Issue Permit.

4988. SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of any undertaker or other person obtaining the certificate mentioned in the first section of this Act, before burying such deceased person, to present such certificate to the Coroner of the county within which such deceased person shall have died. The said Coroner, after being satisfied of the truth of the facts set forth in said certificate, shall issue a permit to the person presenting such certificate to bury the deceased person named in said certificate, or shall take such action under the law as the facts set forth in said certificate shall warrant. Said permit shall be in writing, signed by the Coroner, and shall set forth the facts under which it was issued. Said Coroner shall file in his office all physicians' certificates so presented to him, and shall keep a record of the same and a memorandum of all permits so issued by him, which records and memoranda he shall turn over to his successor in office as a part of the public records of his office. As amended, Stats. 1881, 28.

Offense, Charge and Violation.

4989. SEC. 3. Any physician who shall willfully issue or sign, or cause to be issued or signed, any certificate, as provided for in this Act, knowing the facts set forth in said certificate to be false, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term not less than one year and not more than five years.

Penalty for Violation.

4990. SEC. 4. Any person willfully and unlawfully violating any of the provisions of sections one and two of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

An Act providing for the removal of county seats and permanent location of the same.

Approved March 2, 1877, 139.

Three-Fifths to Petition--Election.

5007. SECTION 1. Whenever three-fifths of the qualified electors of any county of this state, each elector being a taxpayer of said county, as appears by the last assessment roll, who have taken and subscribed to the oath or affirmation prescribed by law for the registration of electors in this state, shall petition the Board of County Commissioners of such county for the removal or location of the seat of justice of said county, the said County Commissioners shall, within sixty days thereafter, cause an election to be held at the various places of voting in said county, the said County Commissioners giving thirty days' notice in some newspaper published in the county or by posting written or printed notices at the several voting precincts in the county; such notice shall state the time and place of holding, and for what purpose such election is held; and any election provided for in this Act may be held on the day of any general election in said county. The place receiving a majority of all the votes cast at such election shall be declared the county seat; provided, that if no place receive a majority of all the votes cast, there shall be held a second election for said seat of justice, on a day not less than twenty nor more than thirty days after the vote of the first election is counted and declared by the said Board of County Commissioners, which last day shall be fixed by the Board of County Commissioners, and they shall give notice of the same for at least ten days in the manner provided for the first election. At said second election the balloting for the seat of justice shall be confined to the two places having the highest number of votes at the first election.

Vote Canvassed.

5008. SEC. 2. Within ten days after such election shall be held the Board of County Commissioners shall meet and proceed to canvass the vote, and the place which has received the majority of all the votes cast shall be proclaimed by them the seat of justice for said county.

To Remove Papers, etc.

5009. SEC. 3. The county officers who are required by law to keep their offices at the county seat, shall, within twenty days after said proclamation, remove all books, records, papers, and furniture belonging to the county to the place named, and if any officer shall fail to remove within the time prescribed by this section, he or his sureties shall pay to the county the sum of twenty dollars for each and every day of such failure, to be sued for and collected by the Board of County Commissioners.

Registry Agent to Certify.

5010. SEC. 4. Every petition for the purpose mentioned in section one of this Act shall be accompanied by the certificate of the Registry Agent of the district where the persons signing such petition reside, showing that all the persons whose names are signed to said petition are qualified electors of said county, as appears by the registry list of said district, or the affidavits on file in his office of persons not registered at the last general or special election, but who are qualified electors of said county.

Election, How Conducted.

5011. SEC. 5. The election provided for in this Act shall be conducted in all respects as provided for by the general election laws of this state, and any person swearing or affirming falsely in taking an oath provided for in this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and held subject to all the penalties attached by law to the commission of that crime.

Repeal.

5012. SEC. 6. The Act entitled "An Act providing for the removal of county seats and the permanent location of the same," approved March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven [p. 78], and all Acts in conflict with this Act, are hereby repealed.

Hess v. Pegg, 7 Nev. 23.

An Act to prevent the practice of medicine and surgery by unqualified persons.

Approved January 28, 1875, 46.

Who May Practice Medicine or Surgery.

5013. SECTION 1. No person shall practice medicine or surgery in this state who has not received a medical education and a diploma from some regularly chartered medical school; said school to have a bona fide existence at the time when said diploma was granted.

To File and Record Copy of Diploma.

5014. SEC. 2. Every physician or surgeon, when about to take up his residence in this state, or who now resides here, shall file for record with the County Recorder of the county in which he is about to practice his profession, or where he now practices it, a copy of his diploma, at the same time exhibiting the original, or a certificate from the Dean of the medical school of which he is a graduate, certifying to his graduation.

Affidavit.

5015. SEC. 3. Every physician or surgeon, when filing a copy of his diploma or certificate of graduation, as required by section two of this Act, shall be identified as the person named in the papers about to be filed, either by the affidavit of two citizens of the county, or by his affidavit taken before a Notary Public or Commissioner of Deeds for this state, which affidavit shall be filed in the office of the County Recorder.

Misdemeanor.

5016. SEC. 4. Any person practicing medicine or surgery in this state, without complying with sections one, two, and three of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or by both fine and imprisonment, for each and every offense; and any person filing, or attempting to file, as his own, the diploma or certificate of graduation of another, or a forged affidavit of identification, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be subject to such fine and imprisonment as is made and provided by the statutes of this state for said offense.

Sheriff to Arrest.

5017. SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the police, Sheriff, or Constable, to arrest all persons practicing medicine or surgery in this state who have not complied with the provisions of this Act, and the officer making the arrest shall be entitled to one-half of the fine collected.

Exceptions.

5018. SEC. 6. No portion of this Act shall apply to any person who, in an emergency, may prescribe or give advice in medicine or surgery in a township where no physician resides, or when no physician or surgeon resides within convenient distance; nor to those who have practiced medicine or surgery in this state for a period of ten years next preceding the passage of this Act, nor to persons prescribing in their own family.

An Act to regulate the measurement of charcoal.

Approved February 26, 1879, 50.

Standard of Measure.

5019. SECTION 1. The standard measure of a bushel of charcoal is hereby established at two thousand seven hundred and forty-seven and seven hundred and fifteen one thousandths cubic inches, stroke measure, and all charcoal bought or sold by actual measurement, must be measured in the mode and manner herein provided.

Sealed Measures Kept.

5020. SEC. 2. All persons, or corporations, purchasing or consuming more than twenty thousand bushels of charcoal annually, shall keep a sealed measure of convenient size.

Duties of Surveyors.

5021. SEC. 3. For the purpose of this Act, any County Surveyor is empowered to estimate the dimensions of any bin or measure, and he shall inscribe thereon, in plain letters, the number of standard bushels it will contain, together with his own name or signature; he shall receive for such services five dollars for each measure so inscribed; his fee to be paid by those required under the provisions of this Act, to maintain sealed measures.

Fines.

5022. SEC. 4. Any person, or Superintendent, or manager of any corporation or company, violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed five hundred dollars.

An Act to encourage the collection of geological, paleontological, and mineral specimens in this state.

Approved March 5, 1879, 64.

Exempt from Execution.

5023. SECTION 1. Any person who shall be the bona fide owner of a collection, or cabinet of metal-bearing ores, geological specimens, art curiosities, or paleontological remains, and who shall properly arrange, classify, number, and catalogue in a suitable book or books of reference, any such collection of ores, specimens, curiosities, or remains, whether the same shall be kept at a private residence or in a public hall, or in a place of public business or traffic, the said bona fide owner of such collection shall be entitled to hold the same exempt from execution, as other property is exempted from execution under the provisions of section two hundred and twenty-one of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate proceedings in civil cases in the courts of justice of this state, and to repeal all other Acts in relation thereto," approved March eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine.

What Not Exempt.

5024. SEC. 2. Nothing in section one of this Act shall be construed so as to exempt from execution any numismatic collection, such as gold and silver coins, paper currency, bank notes, legal tender currency, national or state bonds, or any negotiable note, or valuable copper, bronze, nickel, platinum, or other coin whatsoever.

Must Keep Catalogues.

5025. SEC. 3. It is hereby made the duty of the owner of any such collection or cabinet, as described in section one of this Act, to keep constantly at or near such collections or cabinet, for the free inspection of all visitors who may desire to examine the same, either written or printed catalogues, as provided in section one of this Act; and any person owning such collection or cabinet, who shall fail or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section of this Act, shall forfeit all right to hold such collections or cabinet as exempt from legal execution, as provided in section one of this Act.

An Act for the protection of proprietors of hotels and lodging houses.

Approved March 2, 1867, 69.

Proprietor May Sell Baggage.

5026. SECTION 1. Whenever any person shall leave a hotel or lodging house, indebted to the proprietor or proprietors thereof, and shall remain absent for the period of six months, it shall be lawful for such proprietor or proprietors to sell, or cause to be sold, at public auction, any baggage or property of such person so indebted, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such indebtedness, expenses and charges of sale, which may have been left at such hotel or lodging house by such person.

Proceeds, How Disposed Of.

5027. SEC. 2. All baggage or property, of whatever description, left at a hotel or lodging house for the period of twelve months, may be sold at public auction by the proprietor or proprietors thereof, and the proceeds arising from such sale, after deducting the expenses and charges of sale and storage, shall be paid over to the County Treasurer of the county in which such baggage or property is left, to be held by him for the period of six months for the benefit of the owner thereof, at which time, if the same be not paid to the owner, or some person legally entitled to the same, it shall be transferred to the school fund of the county.

Sales, How Made.

5028. SEC. 3. All sales made under the preceding sections of this Act shall be made by a licensed auctioneer, or by some Constable of the township in which such baggage or property may be left; provided, that no sale shall be valid unless a notice of such sale shall be posted up in three public places in such township for the period of twenty days immediately preceding the day of sale, giving a particular description of the property to be sold, the time and place of such sale, the name of the hotel or lodging house at which such baggage or property may be left, the names of the owner or owners of such baggage or property, when known, and signed by such auctioneer or Constable.

Baggage Heretofore Left May Be Sold.

5029. SEC. 4. It shall be lawful for the proprietor or proprietors of any hotel or lodging house, at which any baggage or property may have heretofore been left, to cause the same to be sold under the provisions of this Act; provided, that for the purposes of such sale, such baggage or property shall be considered as left at such hotel or lodging house at the date of the passage of this Act.

An Act defining the rights of common carriers, as to disposition of unclaimed property.

Approved February 25, 1875, 86.

Storage of Unclaimed Freight, etc.

5030. SECTION 1. When any goods, merchandise, or other property has been received by any railroad or express company, or other common carrier, commission, forwarding merchant, or warehouseman, for transportation or safe keeping, and are not delivered to the owner, consignee, or other authorized person, the carrier, commission, forwarding merchant or warehouseman may hold or store the same with some responsible person until the freight and all just and reasonable charges on same are paid.

Responsibility of Carrier.

5031. SEC. 2. If a consignee does not accept and remove freight within twenty-four hours after notice has been served on him by the carrier, the carrier is released from further liability, by placing the freight in a suitable warehouse on storage, or the carrier may hold the same upon his responsibility as a warehouseman.

Service of Notice.

5032. SEC. 3. If the consignee's place of residence or business be unknown, notice may be served on him through the postoffice, and the carrier may place the freight in a suitable warehouse on storage and give notice thereof to the consignor.

Perishable Freight.

5033. SEC. 4. If from any cause other than want of ordinary care and diligence on his part, a common carrier is unable to deliver perishable property transported by him, and collect his charges thereon, he may cause the property to be sold in open market to satisfy his lien of freightage.

Sale of Property to Pay Freight—Surplus Proceeds, How Disposed Of.

5034. SEC. 5. If no person calls for the freight or other property received by such railroad, express company or other common carrier, commission, forwarding merchant, or warehouseman, within sixty days from the receipt thereof, the carrier, forwarding, commission merchant, or warehouseman may sell such property, or so much thereof, at auction to the highest bidders, as will pay freight and other just and reasonable charges, first having given notice of the time and place of sale to the owner, consignee, or consignor, when known, and by advertisement in a daily paper ten days, or if a weekly paper, four weeks, published where such sale is to take place, or if there is no paper published at the place where such sale is to take place, by posting a notice of the sale conspicuously in at least three public places; and if any surplus is left after paying freight, storage, cost of advertising, and other reasonable charges, the same must be paid over to the owner of such property, at any time thereafter, on demand being made therefor within six months after the sale; provided, that any trunk or valise, with their contents, shall be held six months before being advertised for sale.

Unclaimed Proceeds, How Disposed Of.

5035. SEC. 6. If the owner, or his agent, fails to demand such surplus within six months from the time of such sale, then it shall be paid over to the County Treasurer of the county in which the sale is made, to be held by him for a period of twelve months, subject to the order of the owner, after which time, if the same is not paid to the owner, or his authorized agent, or some person legally entitled to receive the same, it shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the county where such sale is made, who shall pay the same over to the State Treasurer for the benefit of the state school fund.

An Act for the protection of jewelers, watchmakers and watch repairers.

Approved February 10, 1885, 20.

Articles Remaining Over One Year.

5036. SECTION 1. Watches, jewelry, or other articles, after having been repaired and remaining over one year with any jeweler, watchmaker or watch repairer in this state, shall be subject to sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, for charges due thereon for repairs and accrued interest.

Notice Posted.

5037. SEC. 2. At least twenty days before offering any of the articles mentioned in this Act for sale, the holder or holders thereof shall post in front of his or their place of business the day and date of sale, and a particular description of the article to be sold, name of depositor, amount of charges thereon and accrued legal interest, which charges and interest shall become a lien on the article so posted for sale, which sale shall be by public auction to the highest bidder.

Disposal of Excess.

5038. SEC. 3. The excess, if any, after deducting charges for repairs and interest, shall be placed in the county treasury, subject to the laws governing escheats.

Costs of Sale Limited.

5039. SEC. 4. The cost of any sale of any such watch, watches, jewelry, or other article, shall in no event be more than ten per cent on the whole amount realized from the sale of the same, and any watchmaker, watch repairer, or jeweler, who fails to pay the excess aforesaid into the county treasury, as provided in section three of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, nor less than ten dollars, and costs of suit, and on failure of defendant to pay such fine and costs he shall be imprisoned in the county jail, at the rate of one day for every two dollars of such fine and costs, until the whole thereof shall be fully satisfied.

An Act concerning trade marks and names.

Approved March 8, 1865, 263.

Unlawful to Imitate.

5040. SECTION 1. When a person who has complied with the provisions of section two of this Act, uses any peculiar name, letters, marks, device, figures, or other trade mark or name, cut, stamped, cast, or engraved upon, or in any manner attached to or connected with, any article, or with the covering or wrapping thereof, manufactured or sold by him, to designate it as an article of a peculiar kind, character, or quality, or as an article manufactured or sold by him, or if such trade mark or name be so connected with any bottle, box, cask, or other thing used for holding such article, it shall be unlawful for any other person, without his consent, to use said trade mark or name, or any similar trade mark or name, for the purpose of representing any article to have been manufactured or sold by the person rightfully using such trade mark or name, or to be of the same kind, character, or quality as that manufactured or sold by the person rightfully using such trade mark or name.

Claim Filed.

5041. SEC. 2. Any person wishing to secure the exclusive use of any such trade mark or name, under the provisions of this Act, shall file his claim to the same, and a copy or description of such trade mark or name, with the Secretary of State.

Fee for Filing.

5042. SEC. 3. The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all trade marks or names filed in his office, with the date when filed, and name of claimant, for public examination. A fee of twenty dollars shall be paid to the Secretary of State at the time of filing each copy and description of any trade mark or name, by the party claiming the use and benefit of the same. It is hereby made the duty of the Secretary of State to pay all fees accruing under this section into the state library fund.

See Sec. 1938.

Violation of Act—Punishment.

5043. SEC. 4. Any person violating the provisions of the first section of this Act shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days, nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and he shall be further liable to any party aggrieved by such violation, for all damages actually incurred, to be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Counterfeiting.

5044. SEC. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to counterfeit any trade mark or name, or to have or use a counterfeit trade mark or name, or sell any article bearing or having in any way connected with it a counterfeit trade mark or name, which has been filed according to section two of this Act, knowing it to be such, or having good and sufficient reason to know it to be such. Every alteration or imitation of any trade mark or name which has been filed according to section two of this Act, which shall be made, applied, or used, or which shall cause any trade mark or name, with such alterations or imitation, to resemble any genuine trade mark or name, so as to be calculated or likely to deceive, shall be deemed to be a counterfeit trade mark or name, within the meaning of this Act, and every act of making, applying, or otherwise using any such alteration or imitation, as aforesaid, done by any person, such person shall be deemed to be guilty of counterfeiting a trade mark or name, or knowingly using a counterfeit trade mark or name, within the meaning of this Act. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in section four of this Act.

Penalty for Use of Trade Mark.

5045. SEC. 6. Every person who shall have or use any cask, bottle, vessel, case, cover, label, or other thing, bearing or having in any way connected with it the trade mark or name of another, which has been filed according to section two of this Act, for the purpose of disposing of any article with intent to deceive or defraud, other than that which said cask, bottle, vessel, case, cover, label, or other thing originally contained, or was connected with by the owner of said trade mark or name, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in section four of this Act.

Misdemeanor to Counsel Use.

5046. SEC. 7. Every person who shall knowingly aid, or abet, or counsel in, or procure the commission of any offense which is by this Act made a misdemeanor, shall be deemed and held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to the penalties provided in section four of this Act.

Construction of Act.

5047. SEC. 8. This Act shall not be so construed as to permit any person to file without authority from the owner, any trade mark or name owned, or previously used by another person, nor in any way to interfere with, hinder, prevent, or restrain the importation or sale, by any person, of genuine articles of merchandise having, or belonging thereto, genuine trade marks or names manufactured or sold in other states or countries.

Owner of Trade Mark.

5048. SEC. 9. Any person who has first adopted and used a trade mark or name, whether within or beyond the limits of this state, shall be considered its original owner, and the ownership may be transferred in the same manner as personal property, and shall be entitled to the same protection by suits at law as other personal property.

Claim, What to Set Forth.

5049. SEC. 10. Every person filing with the Secretary of State, as provided in section two of this Act, his claim to any trade mark or name, shall have attached to the copy and description thereof his affidavit, duly certified to by any officer authorized by the laws of this state to take acknowledgments of conveyances, setting forth that he (or the firm or corporation of which he is a member) is the exclusive owner or agent of the accompanying trade mark or name.

Injunction.

5050. SEC. 11. Any court of competent jurisdiction may restrain, by injunction, any use of trade marks or names in violation of any section of this Act.

Evidence on Trial.

5051. SEC. 12. No person otherwise competent as a witness shall be disqualified or excused from testifying as a witness, either before a grand jury or a petit jury, or otherwise, concerning any offense mentioned in this Act, on the ground that his testimony may criminate himself, but such testimony shall be reduced to writing, and no indictment or prosecution shall afterward be brought against him for said offenses, concerning which he has testified as a witness.

Immunity of Witness.

5052. SEC. 13. Any witness called to give testimony on behalf of the state, before any grand jury, or before any court of justice, shall be required to give such testimony, which shall be reduced to writing, and such witness shall not be liable to suffer any punishment or forfeiture for any offense against the provisions of this Act, so disclosed.

An Act to provide for payment of funeral expenses of indigent ex-soldiers.

Approved February 27, 1893, 55.

An Act establishing Arbor Day.

Approved February 10, 1887, 51.

Governor's Proclamation.

5055. SECTION 1. Arbor Day is hereby established in the State of Nevada, and shall be fixed each year by proclamation of the Governor, at least one month before the fixing of such date, and it shall be observed as a holiday by the public schools of the state; provided, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as making this a legal holiday, so far as the courts and civil contracts are concerned.

Planting Trees, Shrubs and Vines.

5056. SEC. 2. His Excellency the Governor is requested to make proclamation setting forth the provisions of the first section of this statute, and recommending that Arbor Day so established be observed by the people of the state in the planting of trees, shrubs and vines, in the promotion of forest growth and culture, in the adornment of public and private grounds, places and ways, and in such other efforts and undertakings as shall be in harmony with the character of the day so established.

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of Inspectors of Hides, defining their duties, and mode of compensation," approved March 3, 1881.

Approved March 10, 1897, 72.

Appointment of Hide Inspector—Duties.

5057. SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of any district court in this state, upon the application in writing, of three or more property owners in any township of any county within said district, to appoint in and for such township, and for such length of time as may be deemed necessary not exceeding two years, an Inspector of Hides, whose duty it shall be to examine, when requested so to do by any three taxpayers of said township, the hides of any or all cattle killed in said township, and to mark each hide inspected in such a manner as may be indicated by the District Judge, and shall, upon the request of said taxpayers as aforesaid, have the right, and it shall be his duty to go upon the premises of any resident of such township and make search for any hides concealed, or which such Inspector or said taxpayers may have reason to believe are concealed upon said premises, and shall report, in writing, to the District Attorney of the county in which he has been appointed at such times as may be designated by the district court making the appointment, giving the number of hides inspected, the brands or other marks upon such hides, the names of the persons in whose possession they were found, and whether the persons having them in possession had killed the cattle from which the hides were taken, or had obtained them from other persons, and the names of such persons.

Compensation.

5058. SEC. 2. The rate of compensation of such Inspectors shall be fixed by the court at the time the appointments are made, and shall be paid by the parties on whose petition they are appointed, or by the taxpayers upon whose request they act, as provided in section one of this Act.

Above Act supersedes Act of 1881, 118.

An Act to provide for the recording of births and deaths in the several counties of the State of Nevada.

Approved February 26, 1887, 89.

Record of Births—Form.

5059. SECTION 1. Every person who shall officiate at the birth of a child shall make a record thereof, and within three months after such birth shall make and deliver to the Recorder of Deeds of the county wherein the birth took place, a certificate under his hand containing the facts of such birth. The certificate may be in the following form:

State of Nevada, County of _____, ss. This is to certify that the undersigned, a physician (or midwife, as the case may be) did, on the ____ day of _____ 18__, officiate at the birth, to the wife of _____, of a son (or daughter, as the case may be,) in the presence of _____ and _____, witnesses. A. B., physician (or midwife).

An Act to provide for the destruction of noxious animals and to repeal an Act relating thereto.

Approved February 3, 1887, 38.

Bounties for What Animals.

5084. SECTION 1. If any person shall take and kill within this state any of the following noxious animals, he shall be entitled to receive out of the treasury of the county within which such noxious animals shall have been taken, the following bounties, to wit: For every coyote or prairie wolf, fifty cents; for every lynx or wildcat, one dollar; for every California lion, one dollar; all of which bounties shall be subject to the provisions of this Act; provided, that no person shall be entitled to apply for or receive bounty money for any number of scalps less than ten at any one time. As amended, Stats. 1899, 61.

Scalps to Be Taken.

5085. SEC. 2. The person intending to apply for such bounty shall take the scalps with the ears connected thereto of the noxious animals killed by him, to some Justice of the Peace of the county within which such noxious animals shall have been taken.

Claimant to Make Oath.

5086. SEC. 3. The person claiming such bounty shall then be sworn by such Justice, and state on oath the time and place when and where said noxious animals for which a bounty is claimed by him, were taken and killed, and shall also submit to such further examination on oath concerning the taking and killing of such noxious animals as the Justice may require.

Justice to Give a Certificate—Fees of Justice.

5087. SEC. 4. If it shall appear to the Justice that the noxious animals have been taken and killed within the county, he shall cut off the ears from the scalps and give to the person so sworn a certificate stating the number and kind of scalps deposited with said Justice. The Justice shall within thirty days thereafter send to the Sheriff of his county all scalps deposited with him, together with a statement naming the person depositing the same, the time deposited, and the kind of scalps. Upon receipt of said scalps and statement, the Sheriff, County Clerk and District Attorney, as a part of their official duties, shall compare the number and kind of scalps received by the said Sheriff with said statement, and immediately thereafter said officials shall destroy said scalps and file the said statement with the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners. The said Justice shall receive for each oath administered twenty-five cents, and for each certificate twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying for said bounty, and in no case to be a charge against the county. As amended, Stats. 1899, 61.

Amount Allowed.

5088. SEC. 5. Upon the presentation to the Board of County Commissioners of the proper county of any such certificate, they are hereby authorized and directed to allow the amount due under the provisions of this Act, to the person therein named, out of the general fund of the county.

An Act to provide for the destruction of certain noxious animals.

Approved March 13, 1891, 37.

If any person shall take and kill within this state any pocket gophers he shall be entitled to receive out of the treasury of the county within which such pocket gophers shall have been taken the following bounty, to wit: For every pocket gopher, one and one-half cents; provided, no person shall be entitled to apply for or receive bounty money for any number of scalps less than one hundred at any one time, and all bounties to be paid for the object herein set forth shall be subject to the provision of this Act; and, further provided, that the term pocket gophers herein shall not include squirrels or chipmunks. As amended, Stats. 1893, 20.

When Bounty May Be Claimed.

5090. SEC. 2. The person intending to apply for such bounty shall take the heads, or skin of the heads, with pockets attached, with the ears connected thereto, of the pocket gophers killed by him to some Justice of the Peace of the county wherein which such pocket gophers shall have been taken.

Person to Be Sworn by Justice.

5091. SEC. 3. The person claiming such bounty shall then be sworn by such Justice of the Peace, and state on oath the time and place when and where said pocket gophers for which a bounty is claimed by him, when taken and killed, and shall also submit to such further examination, on oath, concerning the killing and taking of such pocket gophers, as the Justice of the Peace may require. As amended, Stats. 1893, 20.

Duties of Justice of the Peace.

5092. SEC. 4. If it shall appear to the Justice of the Peace that the pocket gopher or pocket gophers have been taken and killed within the county, he shall cut off the ears from the scalp and destroy the said ears, and give to the person so sworn a certificate stating the number of scalps deposited with and destroyed by him. The said Justice of the Peace shall receive for each oath administered, twenty-five cents, and for each certificate, twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party applying for such bounty, and in no case to be a charge against the county. As amended, Stats. 1893, 20.

Bounties Allowed, How.

5093. SEC. 5. Upon the presentation to the Board of County Commissioners of the proper county of any such certificate, they are hereby authorized and directed to allow the amount due under the provisions of this Act to the person therein named, out of the general fund of such county.

An Act to provide for the compiling and publishing of the laws of the State of Nevada.

Approved February 15, 1890, 19.

When to Be Completed—Supreme Court to Pass Upon the Work.

5094. SECTION 1. Upon the compilation, arranging and filing with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of this state, by H. C. Cutting, on or before the thirtieth day of September, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, of a thoroughly compiled and annotated copy of the laws of the State of Nevada, as the same shall exist and be in force on the thirty-first day of March, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, setting forth and containing all the laws of this state of general and public interest, together with the Constitution of the State of Nevada, and the laws of Congress in regard to naturalization, and the various Acts of Congress relating to the grants of land by the United States to the State of Nevada, with brief annotations or references to all the decisions of the supreme court of this state, construing any and all laws of this state in force on the said thirty-first day of March aforesaid, the said Clerk of the Supreme Court shall at once lay the same before the Justices of the Supreme Court, or a majority thereof, for their examination and approval. The said Justices, or a majority of them, as soon as practicable, shall examine said work and shall approve or disapprove the same, or shall order such changes made therein as they, or a majority of them, may deem advisable. When approved by them or a majority of them, the Justices, shall direct said Clerk to certify their approval of said work, and deliver such certificate to the said H. C. Cutting.

State Printer to Print.

5095. SEC. 3. After making the certificate aforesaid, the Clerk of the Supreme Court, shall deliver said compilation to the Secretary of State, who shall immediately deliver the same to the State Printer, who shall proceed forthwith to print the same.

Proof Sheets to Be Furnished—Accurate Index to Be Made.

5096. SEC. 4. The State Printer shall furnish suitable proof sheets to the said H. C. Cutting, who shall carefully examine and correct the same. He shall also make full and comprehensive table of contents, marginal notes, and headings for each section, together with a full, complete and accurate index to said compilation. Said index shall not be made from the marginal notes and headings alone, but shall be from the subject matter treated of in each section. In all respects it shall be full, comprehensive and complete, and to the approval of the Justices of the Supreme Court, or a majority thereof. When such marginal notes and index are fully completed, the said Justices, or a majority thereof, shall examine and approve or disapprove the same, or shall order such changes made therein as they, or a majority of them, shall deem advisable.

State Officers to Afford Information.

5097. SEC. 7. The Secretary of State and all other state officers shall afford to the said H. C. Cutting all reasonable information, aid, means and facilities for the purpose of enabling him, the said H. C. Cutting, to prosecute and complete the work aforesaid with all reasonable dispatch.

State Printer to Print—Copies to Be Bound.

5098. SEC. 8. Upon receiving said compilation the State Printer shall at once, in as expeditious and economical a manner as practicable, proceed to print, in good style, and to the approval of said Justices of the Supreme Court, or a majority of them, using long primer type and good book paper, fifteen hundred copies of said compilation, and the Secretary of State shall have seven hundred and fifty copies bound, in a good and workmanlike manner in law sheep, in either one or two volumes as the said Justices, or a majority of them, may direct.

Secretary of State to Deliver and Distribute—Price Per Volume.

5099. SEC. 9. The Secretary of State shall deliver one bound copy to each of the persons, libraries, and associations now entitled to receive the laws of the State of Nevada as published biennially, said copies to be delivered subject to the rules and restrictions now governing the distribution of the statutes of this state. He shall deliver ten copies to the State Librarian of the state for the use of the state, and the remainder of said bound volumes he shall sell as they may be called for at a price not less than six dollars per volume, if bound in one volume, or at a price not less than ten dollars per set, if bound in two volumes, and he shall pay all moneys received from such sales into the state treasury. The remaining unbound sheets shall be bound in lots of not less than one hundred copies, as they may be required.

Secretary of State to Certify.

5100. SEC. 10. Upon the delivery of said compilation ready for printing to the Secretary of State, he shall duly certify the same under the great seal of the State of Nevada, and when printed and distributed, the said compilation, as printed, shall be legal evidence of the law therein contained in all the courts of this state, but shall not preclude reference to or control, in case of any difference, the force or effect of any original Act as passed by the legislature of this state.

Sections omitted make appropriations.
